COURT OF CHANCERY.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Sittings of the Full Court appointed by the General Orders to be held on the 26th August next for the re-hearing of causes are adjourned until Thursday, 2nd September next. Between the 21st August and 1st September the Court will not sit for the hearing of any causes or applications except such as may be disposed of in vacation. The Master's office will be open each day (Sundays excepted) from 10 to 12 a.m. for the purpose of making appointments. The other offices will be open during the same hour for the transaction of such business as shall not require the attendance of the opposite party, and as may be transacted in vacation.

During vacation applications of an urgent nature are to be made to V. C. Proudfoot. He will be at Osgoode Hall at 11 a.m. on each Tuesday. Papers relating to applications are to be left with the Registrar on the previous Friday. Applications for leave to serve notice of motion may be made to the Registrar at his office at 10 a.m.

In any case of urgency the brief of counsel is to be sent to the Vice-Chancellor, accompanied by copies of the affidavits in support of the application, and also by a minute on a separate sheet of paper signed by counsel of the order he may consider the applicant entitled to, and an envelope capable of securing the papers addressed as folfows :-

"To the Registrar of the Court of Chancery Osgoode Hall.

Toronto."

and containing stamps for postage. On application for injunction or writs of ne exeat provincia, in addition to the above, there must also be sent an office copy of the bili.

The papers sent to the Vice-Chancellor will be returned to the Registrar's office. The Vice-Chancellor's address can be obtained on application at the Registrar's office.

Cheques will be issued by the Accountant of the Court of Chancery on Friday next at 2 to 4

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

The following forecast of the fortunes of Ex-President Grant, which is quite as good and ve racious a prediction in its way as many ancient oracles, and more modern prophecies, may be found in the Index to the first volume of the Probate and Divorce Reports, published 31st December, 1869, p. 786:

"GENERAL GRANT-Limited Administration."

"Do you understand the nature and solemnity of an oath?" the judge asked a witness who had come up from the lower end of the State. "Well, yes," the witness replied, after some study. "I reckon I know the natur' of an oath, but there never appeared to be no powerful amount of solemness about swearin' to me. It always come kind of nat'ral like. Mam swore a little when she was riled, dad was a born cusser, and Parson Bedloe-" But the court excused him without further pedigree.

GEORGE JONES, alias the Count Joannes, an eccentric individual who died in New York last week, was both an actor and a lawyer. In an election case before Judge Brady, of that State, some years ago, after considerable debate between the lawyers, the judge himself interposed with: "Well, gentlemen, let us get to the merits of the case. I suppose that all that either party desires in this case is an honest count." At which there rose before the judge on the instant a wild and strange figure, not unfamiliar to the courts, nor yet to the footlights. which with hand upon its heart bowed low and uttered in sepulchral tones: "May it please the ourt, Ecce homo !" It was the Count Joannes.

The following is from California. Scene in a police court. Judge — "Bill Sheets, you are charged with burglary. Are you guilty?" "Sure, yer 'onour, an' if it's gooilthy I am, de yez thinks I be afther tellin' yez ov it? I pleads not gooilthy," was the response of Bill. "All right," said the judge, and turning to one of the most eminent members of the bar, said: "You
