

No.....

CONDITIO

This Pass is not transferable, must be held by the holder, and the person thereby accepting it, is liable for accident and damage to person and baggage. "mush on" behind at the crack of the "Four Crown Scotch" and "Conch" arms subject to inspection, and may be used by the holder and their duly authorized representatives.

Passengers falling into the mud must immediately move the soil from their garments as the ship does not own the country and the authorities are not responsible.

No passenger allowed to make any remarks about the weather and each one must retain his seat if the ship is overturned. The bottom of the lake is reached when all passengers are ashore.

The holder hereof may gaze upon the lake, the Italian summer, and, if specially desired, upon the gleaming Northern Lights. The holder of this pass has permission to inhale the fresh air to his lungs. The bellows will be allowed.

I accept the above conditions.