FOURTH RACE—Hawthorne, Forward, are in training at Dufferin Park are being to a certain degree rushed along. There has been some fast work up there for so early in the season, but most of the horses have been jogged regularly all winter. In fact, many of them have had good stiff road work.

BALTIMORE, May 15.—Col. Holloway, after winning the Maryland Club Purse yesterday, went in as an added starter to-day and took the Preakness Handicap, the feature of get-away-day at Pimitoc. Propand and Jeannette B. were regarded as possibilities among the entries, but the added entries upset the slate, the second place going to Bwana Tumbo. Both the leaders found the track entries, but the added entries upset the slate, the second place going to Bwana Tumbo, both the leaders found the track entries, to their liking, while Stairs, another of the late comers, was going well, but lell by the wayside. Lady Orimar, altho falcied as a positive winner by some of the keeper jurges, did not find favor with the public and started at 10 to 1, but she carried off the second section of the New Howard purse. UNION STOCK YARDS HORSE DEPARTMENT

The demand for horses at Wednesday's auction was very keen, especially for heavy draught horses, several loads of especially choice stock leaving these barns for different points. Mr. P. J. Brennan of Ottawa purchased a load of extra quality heavy draughts: H. Dupuis & Son of Hull, Que., bought another good load of heavy horses; C. McKinnon of Port Arthur also shipped a load of light horses. A number of city firms also bought choice heavy horses, among them being S. Philips' Planing Mill: J. Gilchrist, City of Toronto; Bishop Construction Company; Gunns, Limited: Canadian Northern Transfer Company, J. M. Gardhouse of Weston bought a part carload of extra heavy horses for shipment to Vancouver, B.C. Other buyers were: Farmers' Dairy, who got several good wagon horses; Wes, Ellins, city: J. Stables, city: Max Liske, Brampton: S. Schaefer, Fort William; Capt. Welbanks, Port Robinson: J. Lipkin, city: P. Pearson, city: F. Williams, city: Geo, Taylor, city, and others, Favorable comment was heard as to the high quality of the horses in stock, and we understand that several loads of good horses are expected in during the latter part of the week.
