SHAUGHNESSY ON THE S

He Says Now That He Wants Two Melons, and That His Request for No. 1 is Still Before the Government and Parliament.

MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—(Can. Press)—The $50,000,000 of new stock authorized by the C.P.R. shareholders on Wednesday has nothing to do with the application recently made to the parliament for power to issue an unstated amount. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy made this plain today when he said:

"The increased capitalization we have applied to parliament for must stand on its own bottom. It has nothing whatever to do with the $50,000,000 the shareholders authorized us to issue on Wednesday. The amount of the increased capitalization for which we have applied to the government, the future needs of the Canadian Pacific will have to determine."

The application to Ottawa, Sir Thomas stated, was not for $100,000,000, as generally believed, but for another figure, which the Canadian Pacific president did not feel at liberty to disclose at the present time, owing to the fact that it had not yet come before the Canadian Parliament.

The World takes this to mean that Sir Thomas has got himself, and perhaps the government at Ottawa, in a box by his hasty and arrogant conduct.

And he is trying to sidetrack it by framing up a huge new application for additional stock, probably for a quarter of a billion dollars, on the pretext of building enormous new terminals, double-tracking the entire system, a sweeping steamship consolidation, including the taking over of the Allan Line, and a great increase in the fleet of steamships on the Pacific to Asia and Australia. And with all these he will be prepared, if his request for another stock issue is granted, to make substantial concessions in the matter of railway-rate reductions.

The World's fight against the High Finance of the Melon Brigade is beginning to bear some big fruit of a kind not contemplated a few days ago!

The Richest and Most Daring
Robber in the World.

The Canadian Pacific is rich beyond any company in the world! It has money and other assets in hand sufficient to rebuild its system!

It dare not expose to the world what the value of its real estate holdings is.

It has never put a proper valuation on the securities and shares in other companies that it keeps in its strong boxes.

It can raise a Billion Dollars tomorrow without going to the money market!

And yet today with all this wealth it is delinquent in supplying railway facilities to the country it is franchised to serve. Toronto is neglected; all Ontario is neglected. The west was blocked last winter and it will be this winter. Suburban trains and commutation tickets are refused. It runs sleeping cars that should have gone to the junk heap years ago. It puts its maintenance-of-way men out of business, because they were organized to improve their welfare. It would have put the telegraphers out of business a fortnight ago if it could. It has men in its employ who have to work for seven days a week regularly! And yet it is better in these respects than other roads!

Nevertheless it is rich, defiant of the law, arrogant toward the people, reckless as to public rights and guilty of distributing hundreds of millions of money unjustly and wrongfully among its favored shareholders at the expense of those who pay its railway tolls!

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and his fellow directors have made this last stock exploitation of theirs in the manner they have made it (common stock worth $275 sold at $175) so that they could put sixty millions of dollars in the shareholders' pocket. There was no other way to do it. And when Sir Thomas Shaughnessy says he is "retiring debenture stock," "wiping out fixed charges," and other stuff of this kind it is all done to cover up a fraud and a raid on the people of Canada who have never asked other than justly and generously with the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and his fellow directors are exploiting the people of Canada financially much more than serving them with transportation! And they'll keep on doing it as long as the government and parliament of Canada allow them to do it.

And equally guilty are those newspapers, like The Montreal Star, that sit dumb while it is being done. Sir Hugh Graham and his Montreal Star and Naval Defence are only Sir Hugh Graham and Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and The Montreal Star tapping the Canadian people of their money at another tap! Where is

The Toronto Mail?
The Toronto Globe?
The Toronto News?
The Winnipeg Telegram?
The Montreal Herald?

This last act of Shaughnessy's will make more annexations in the west and in the east than anything else that we know of!

And if the Borden Government stand by and allow the plunder they must share in the obliquity thereof as well as in the consequences of it. It is more than two days since the plunder was grabbed, but no one has yet heard of any move by the ministers that have assumed the task of Public Policemen.

Welcome League Will Meet Hon. R. Rogers

Hon. Robert Rogers will be approached by a delegation of the British Welcome League next week and asked for financial assistance from the government to further the work of the organization in Toronto. The league is doing a great work in helping the newcomers from the old country. Last month 187 availed themselves of the hospitality of the league against 117 for the same month last year.

LAND COMPANY FOR TORONTO.
OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—(Special).—The Canada Gazette gives notice that the Southern Ontario Land Company, Limited, has been incorporated with a capital of $250,000, divided into 250,000 shares of $1 each. It will make Toronto its headquarters.

Last Performance Today.
There will be only two more performances of "The Enchantress" here at the Princess, before the big musical organization in which Killy Gordon is the star, departs for an extended road trip. Matinee today, and tonight.

gers and the C.P.R.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 4.—(Special).—Hon. Robert Rogers, the outspoken, is still curiously silent concerning the C.P.R. stock issue, despite the challenges of Liberal and independent newspapers and the urgings of members of his own party, who fear for the effect of the melon-cutting upon the Macdonald by-election.

The minister had his opportunity in making his first public address of the campaign at Notre Dame de Lourdes tonight, but studiously avoided the issue. It is said, however, that he will discuss the question in a few days.

PATH CLEAR FOR MORE C.P.R.
ISSUES?

Every Bill Authorizing Construction by Railway Since 1892 Said to Contain "Jokers"—Fear Expressed That C.P.R. Can Go on Defying Public.

OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—(Special).—The action of the C.P.R. in issuing $50,000,000 of increased stock under the authority of an act passed away back in 1892, has brought to light the most remarkable fact, that since that date there have been incorporated in every subsequent bill to authorize the construction by the company of branch lines, provisions, or clauses, similar to those under which the company is now issuing its additional capital stock in lieu of debenture bonds.

It is now pointed out by legal men that, although the power of the C.P.R. to issue capital stock in lieu of the ninety millions of debenture bonds specified in the act of 1892, is exhausted, there remains the possibility of a right of their part to issue without the sanction of the government many millions additional capital stock by virtue of the provisions of the subsequent legislation mentioned above.

Just how much stock could be issued in this way, and by virtue of these various acts, is a matter of speculation, but it might be sufficiently great to meet the future requirements of the company.

It would, therefore, seem that as far as future C.P.R. stock issues are concerned the company can act just as independently of any administration as it did on Wednesday last, unless steps are taken to wipe out such legislation, which apparently passed through parliament without its real significance being realized.

JAMES G. BEGG
DIED YESTERDAY

Well-Known Insurance Man
Lived in Toronto Twenty Years After Coming From London, Ont.

James G. Begg, aged 75 years, died yesterday after two weeks' illness at his home, 378 Brunswick avenue. He had lived in Toronto for about twenty years, and for most of that time was connected with the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company. He was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, and came to Canada when quite young, settling in London, Ont. He was a member of Old St. Andrew's Church. Four sons—Charles, Evan, George and Gordon, all of Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. C. H. Cowan of Chilliwack, B.C., survive. The funeral takes place to Mount Pleasant Cemetery on Monday.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP IN AYR.

GALT, Oct. 4.—(Special).—Today the Village of Ayr took the initial steps in the matter of municipal ownership of public utilities. A bylaw to purchase the electric light and power plant was carried by a majority of 25. The next step will be for a municipal water-works.

ACCUSES UNION OF FINANCING
DYNAMITERS

State Seeks to Establish That Ironworkers Had Fund for Express Purpose of Carrying Out System of Explosions Thruout Country, and That Finances Were Juggled

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 4.—(Can. Press).—Extracts from a little green checkbook, in which the executive board of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers is charged with having kept an account of money paid out for dynamiting jobs, were read at the trial of the defendants in the "dynamite cases" today.

District Attorney Miller told the jury that the executive board met regularly and appropriated money for explosives. The money, he asserted, was paid by cheques signed by President Frank M. Ryan. One of the stubs read "expended for organization purposes, $323. at Clinton, Ia." It would be shown, Mr. Miller said, that Orville E. McManigal was paid that sum for an explosion at Clinton and that the whole system of explosions thruout the country were carried on with the approval and support of the officials and executive board of the union.

Finances Juggled.

"We will show," said Mr. Miller, "that the finances of the Ironworkers' Union were juggled. McNamara wrote to Ryan suggesting that the constitutional provision for publishing the accounts in the union magazine be suspended, that no outsider might learn what was done with the money. Ryan put it up to the union's executive board, which sent out a circular letter announcing it was considered wise to suspend publication. This shows the executive board members to be parties to the conspiracy. Before a strike was called there were no explosions, but as soon as it was called they began."

A Cincinnati "Job."

Morgan H. Davis of West Chester, Pa., it would be shown, Mr. Miller said, was one of the men who promoted explosions in Pennsylvania. Davis formerly was an executive board member. Mr. Miller read a letter in which William Bernhardt, secretary of a local union at Cincinnati, was alleged to have said a police judge in Cincinnati had dismissed charges against union officials so often that he said "Don't let this bunch come before me again or I'll do something."

In the letter Mr. Miller said Bernhardt asked that a "stranger be sent to Cincinnati to blow up the Harrison avenue viaduct."

McManigal hesitated about blowing up jobs in Peoria, Ill., according to Mr. Miller. Edward Symche, business agent there, wrote: "Don't fear, I have friends on the police force here. In fact, I control the police."

The first probably will be heard on Monday.

McMaster University authorities and the student body of that seat of learning are exultant over a recent acquisition of a remarkable student with a startling series of experiences. The student's name is Krymnski.

According to the statements made by him and attested by the Baptist authorities in Montreal he has been subjected to persecution and imprisonment in a Quebec monastery. Several months ago Krymnski arrived in Montreal to be a foreign language teacher in a Roman Catholic institution. He knew five languages and had always lived in a Roman Catholic environment. Out of curiosity he attended the Polish Protestant Mission at Montreal and was so much impressed by what he heard that he carried on with the approval and support of the officials and executive board of the union.

KILLED BY FALL
FROM HOSPITAL
BALCONY

Robert Scott, a Patient at Grace Hospital, Waited Till
No One Was in His Room,
Crawled to the Balcony, and Fell 70 Feet to the Pavement.

Taking advantage of a moment when neither attendants nor nurses were near Robert Scott, aged about 45, crawled from his bed in Grace Hospital last night, and before he was missed, climbed over the balcony railing, falling a distance of 70 feet to the ground. Although he was badly injured Scott was conscious when picked up, but died at 10 o'clock. Coroner Dr. W. A. Young will open an inquest in the morgue at 8 o'clock tonight.

Scott had been a patient in the hospital for four weeks. He was brought from his home on Saunders avenue, Parkdale, suffering from nervous breakdown. Ever since he entered the institution he has had a tendency to get out of bed and crawl about.

Last night he got out of bed and made his way on his hands and knees to the balcony on the third floor. He climbed over this and fell.

Dr. J. H. McConnell, who had been his family physician for the past ten years, says he thinks Scott's one idea was to get away from the hospital. He is reported as saying this when picked up.

The dead man was formerly employed by the Consumers' Gas Co. He leaves a widow.

WANT A PARK

Beach Ratepayers Will Ask the Board of Control to Secure

Stewart.

At a meeting of the Beach Ratepayers' Association, held last night in Balm Beach Club House, the following motion, moved by Mr. Dingman and seconded by Mr. Nugent, was carried: "That while this meeting is in full accord with the desire of the city council to secure a park for the east end, it is suggested that instead of purchasing Glen Stewart, the city immediately secure the entire waterfront, not already owned by the city, from Coatsworth's Cut to the eastern city limits, as well as a strip two or three hundred feet back from the beach, and also purchase Victoria Park, for park purposes."

Wm. Orr, chairman, and Mr. Watt, secretary, were authorized to appoint a committee of ten to present the resolution to the board of control. Ex-Controller Baker remarked "that the people who were in favor of the city purchasing the above mentioned strip of land along the waterfront were the property owners, storekeepers and real estate dealers, who would lose custom should the Glen Stewart deal go thru."

DUNCAN DENIES
SHOWING BANK
PAPERS

Says Some Are Looked In Vault at Osgoode Hall —
Witnesses Called to Swear to Duncan's Truthfulness—
Inspector Denies Friendliness With World Reporter.

M. K. Cowan, K.C., counsel for Inspector of Detectives Walter Duncan, had a strong defence prepared for his client when the police commissioners met for the third time to investigate the affairs of the Toronto Detective Department. Many prominent men were called by the attorney, including lawyers, doctors and others.

Only one witness was called by the commissioners, and that was Joseph Rogers of the provincial police. Col. Denison, as at former sittings, did all the cross-examining. Mr. Duncan again testified that an attempt had been made to bribe him so that the statement made by Travers in No. 3 police station could be seen. He also knew that the stenographer had been approached with a money offer. The inspector wanted the commissioners to get this statement out of his desk and read it. They would then see that not a line of its contents had ever been published by any paper.

In discussing the care of the papers of the Farmers' Bank he said that his department had informed him that some of the papers were in a vault at Osgoode Hall, which had never been used by the royal commission.

An adjournment was taken sine die to allow some more evidence for the defence to be put in.

In all of his dealings with Inspector Duncan he had always found him thoroughly reliable and honest, stated R. Greer, K.C., county crown attorney. He was associated with Duncan very much during the first months after he received his office, and he always was assisted greatly by the inspector.

THE NEWSPAPERS AND C. P. R.
MELON CUTTING.

(Winnipeg Free Press, Wednesday, Oct. 3)
The Toronto World has been classifying the papers of Canada as they stand on the matter of the proposed C.P.R. melon. The daily newspapers are classified as follows:
For the Melon—Toronto Mail, Montreal Gazette, Peterboro Times, Vancouver News-Advertiser, Brockville Times.

Against the Melon—Toronto World, Toronto Globe, Toronto Star, Toronto Telegram, Hamilton Herald, London Free Press, Ottawa Free Press, Ottawa Journal, Montreal Witness, St. John Telegraph, St. John Globe, Sudbury Star, Huron Express, Record, Fort William Times-Journal, Port Arthur Chronicle, Kingston Standard, Kingston Whig, Winnipeg Free Press, Winnipeg Tribune, Regina Leader, Regina Province, Moose Jaw News, Edmonton Bulletin, Edmonton Capital, Calgary Herald, Calgary News-Telegraph, Nelson (B.C.) News, Uncertain—Toronto News, Hamilton Spectator, Saskatoon Phoenix, Peterboro Review, Winnipeg Telegram, Victoria (B.C.) Times, British Columbian (New Westminster).

Non-committal—Montreal Star, Montreal Herald, Ottawa Citizen, Halifax Herald, Halifax Chronicle, Hamilton Times, London Advertiser, Peterboro Examiner.

The weight of armament appears to be with the protesters; but it is possible that Sir Thomas' voice in the council-room at Ottawa will drown out the journalistic broadsides.

The course of the markets indicate that assurances have been given that no objection will be offered by the government to the cutting of the melon. At the meeting of the shareholders in Montreal today the directors will be authorized to ask the government for authority to issue the new stock on the terms proposed. The matter will then come to a head speedily.

The electors of Macdonald would be within their rights in asking Mr. Rogers who is to appoint the platform within the next few days, to say what the government proposes to do with the demand of the C.P.R., that it be permitted to make a present of some $30,000,000 to the shareholders by this distribution of hidden assets.
