SUDDEN DESCENT IN CORN PRICES
Announcement That Argentine Corn Will Be Imported Comes as Surprise.

Chicago, Jan. 9.—Sensational breaks in the value of corn resulted today from statements that the food administration had recommended to the war trade board the cancelling of bans which forbade imports of corn from Argentina. Notwithstanding that the statements were denied at Washington, heavy selling took place, and the market closed excited at the lowest point of the day, with net losses of 3 1/2¢ to 7 1/2¢, with January 14 1/4 to 14 1/2¢, and February 13 1/4 to 13 1/2¢. A general rush to throw holdings of corn aboard began right at the opening of business. It was not until the last hour that the weakness bordered on demoralization. The climax came after J. J. Stream, chairman of the corn grain division of the food administration, had said on "change here that the license of imports from Argentina had been raised. As previous to today the majority of dealers had been relying on official statements that no such licenses were contemplated, the notices to the contrary took the trade by surprise. The reason for the acute consequent depression in prices here was the possibility that large amounts of Argentine corn would be imported, in view of its great relative cheapness.

Oats and provisions tumbled with corn. Oats closed 3 1/2¢ lower for May; barley closed 4 1/2¢ lower for May; flax closed 3 1/2¢ lower for May.
