Barber Arrested on Charge Using Knife - Many People Take Advantage of Holiday.

HAMILTON, May 24,-(Special.) Over ten thousand persons were carried by the James-street Incline to-day to the opening of the Mountain View Park. This was the largest crowd ever handled in one day by the road. A handled in one day by the road. A large crowd was present from Toronto at the opening of the park.

A gang of pickpockets spent Victoria Day in Hamilton, with great profit to themselves. They operated around the stations. Wm. Cannon, the Macnabstreet flour and feed merchant, was touched for $170, of which about $100 was in cold cash. It was while he was struggling on to a Radial car with a struggling on to a Radial car with a big bundle under each arm that he was relieved of the burden of his

A Busy Day. The police and the firemen both had a very busy day. The police took in a baker's dozen of drunks, and made everal arrests on more serious charges. Constable Lowrey interrupted a right on James, near Picton-street, this even. ing about 6 o'clock. While he was chasing the disturbers, who were Toronto excursionists, he says Charles Fleck, Toronto, stepped in and stopped him. His men escaped, but Fleck was arrested on the charge of interfering with the police.

To-day County Constable Springstead went to serve a summons on John Downing of the same village. Downing said he would be soaked anyway, and with these few remarks, he started to thrash the constable, who came out of the fray with a broken nose and a very badly disfigured face. Detective Mil-
