following motion with reference to the adoption of a business tax, instead of the present assessment on personality, and beg to submit the same for adoption by the Council, viz.:

Moved by Ald. Leslie, that whereas the department stores are crushing out by unfair competition the specialist mercuants throughout the cities and towns, and subjecting the smaller merchants and property owners to great loss and distress, and concentrating the retail trade and commerce into the control of a very few persons, thereby congesting trade and preventing the general circulation of currency, and causing a depression in the value of store and residential property; and whereas the closing of such specialist stores deprives many persons of employment, throwing so much extra labor upon the market, which tends to reduce the wages of those employed, through all of which great loss and hardship results; therefore be it recoved, that this Council cause to be prepared and to be submitted to the Provincial Leg slature a bill for an Act to confer power upon the municipal councils to alter our present method of personal assessment on merchants engaged in the retail trade to one of a business tax, based on the following schedule:

dule:
Attached hereto was the schedule providing for a tax of ½ per cent on an annual turnover amounting to $50,000 or less; 28 per cent between $50,000 and $100,000; % per cent between $100,000 and $150,000, and so on in progression opera, that will be presented at the Grand Opera House next week, was originally preduced at the Opera Comique, London, Eng., under the direction of Sir Augustus Harris, where it achieved a brilliant success. The rights for America were secured by Mr. Duff, who has just finished a very successful run in New York, and brings lis company in its entirety direct from New York to Toronto for Xmas week.

"Jack and the Beanstalk." had two large audiences yesterday, that showed by hearty applause that the beauty show pleased them. It is the most refined production of extravaganza ever given in this country, and in consequence grows in vogue with givery performance. Misses Lessing, Lynch, Hollins, and Perkins make a quartet of beauties hard to equal, and the youthful and dainty "Pretty Maids" make a beautiful setting in the picture. Female loveliness is predominant this week at the Grand, and the comedians are genulneighteness is predominant this week at the Grand, and the comedians are genulneighteness is predominant this week at the Grand, and the comedians are genulneighteness is predominant this week at the Grand, and the comedians are genulneighteness is predominant this week at the Grand, and the comedians are genulneighteness is predominant this week at the Grand, and the comedians are genulneighteness is predominant this week at the Grand, and the comedians are genulneighteness of "The Real Widow Brown" will be given at the Toronto to day, the matinee at the Customary bargain prices of 15 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat on the ground floor. Two performances of "The Real Widow Brown" will be given at the Toronto to day, the matinee at the customary bargain prices of 15 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat in the balcony or 25 cents for any seat on the ground floor. "The Land of the Living" is underliked for next week. It is said to be equipped in a manner that fairly overshadows anything ever before attempted on the melodramatic stage. The London bridge scene will prove a revelation even to those such as the structures. In the great explosion scene an herole woman rescues a man trom a burning building, which is afterwards blown to atoms. This rescue is described as the same of sensationalism. The cast, as well as the scenery, is said to be better than that usually seen in melodrama. The saie of seats is now in progress.

The public will have an excellent opportunity to prove in Massey Hall on Tuesday next if the clamor for popular entertainment is sincere. Although there will be a trinity of attractions—three bands, two vocalists and two bayonet champicus—the prices are beyond exception moderate, a thousand seats being obtainable for 25c, while the highest price is only 50c. The box plan opened at the Hall yesterday morning, and all day long there was a stream of demand for reserved seats at the latter figure. As a mark of their esteem the excadets of the Royal Military College now resident is Toronto have presented their old instructor, Sergeant-Major Morgans, with a box for the Banda Rossa conpert on Friday evening.

The Osgoode Hall Rugby Football Club will be photographed next Saturday. The annual dinner of the club will be held the same evening at 7.15 at the Bodega.

The next meeting of the Queen's Own Male Chorus will be held in the sergeants' mess rooms, 153½ Queen-streect west, to-night at 8 o'clock snarp. All members of the regiment who take an interest in single are condially invited to be present; any who are detained, if they will send their names to Mr. H. E.
