per day: Bridge foremen, $3 per day; bosses, $2.50 per day; men, $2.25 per day; track foremen, $55 per month (on outlying section, $60). Near switches, the men are paid $1.40 and $1.35 per day, and are paid all the year around, with no wet days off. The strikers say they have no grievance. Most of them do not know what they are striking for. It is stated officially that enough men have been secured to keep the track in effective repair.

Nelson, B. No Trouble at Guelph.

Guelph, June 17.—This morning trackmen on the Guelph Junction Railway were at work as usual, notwithstanding the rumor that a strike among the C.P.R. trackmen along the line would be called. It was learned from Mr. Robert McCord, the foreman on the Guelph section, that a further concession had been granted the men by the company, and as there was still hope of a settlement the men were notified not to strike till further orders. The concessions which have been given, it is understood, are much more favorable than at first proposed. It is also learned that the company appear inclined to meet the men on a reasonable basis.

Mrs. Langtry writes: "I find perfectly plain fare suits me best, and not too much of it: but that would probably not suit Pharach's lean kine."

Mr. Hermann Vezin pins his faith to the "no breakfast system, I.e., fast for four hours after rising, and then take your principal meal; six hours later a light work." Theoretically, he says, he believes in vegetarianism, but difficulties in cooking, etc., prevent him adopting it. Mr. Hell Caine replies pathetically that if he knew anything about the subject that was worth telling he would avail himself of Ita advantages, "being a constant martyr to all the troubles that attend diet."
