MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING. Pte. Kilmurray of Barriefield Camp Shot Twice in Leg by Unknown Assaliant.

Twice in Leg by Unknown Assaliant.

KINGSTON, Ont. July 12.—Pte. Kilmurray of Barriefield camp, whose home is near Brockville, is in the General Hospital here suffering from two bullet wounds in his left leg, and he says that he is the victim of a mysterious shooting case. He states that he was shot by some unknown last Saturday night, while he was crossing a wood, nine miles from Brockville, and that he attended to his wounds himself, and came alone to Kingston for treatment. It was very dark at the time, and he has no idea who fired the shots. He thinks that he was mistaken for some other party.

Troops Partially Reoccupy Ground on Monte Carno Lost to Austrians.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, July 12.—The Italians have made progress in their offensive north of the Serra Valley and in the Malga Zugna region of the Adige Valley, it was reported in an official communication from Rome today. They have also partially Rome today. They have also partially reoccupied the positions on Monte Carno that were lost to the enemy in counterattacks. They heavily bombarded the line of the enemy from Monte Interroto to Monte Debio, and provoked replies from a great number of Austrian batteries of all calibres. They also exploded a mine in the Tofana region, destroying the defences of the enemy east of the Col de Bols.

The Austrian artillery was particularly active in the Camonica, Giudicaria and Ledro Valleys, firing especially at villages in Italian territory.

Artillery duels were fought on the Isonzo front.
