Stirring Address on War

Dr. Henry Van Dyke at Red Cross Meeting in Commanding Speech; Girl Ambulance Driver Also Heard

n the hospital.

Examples of German barbarity and leartlessness were given when Miss Dunham told of ruined homes and unlecessary pillage and cruelty. When ricessary pillage and cruelty. When ricessary pillage and cruelty. When leasts were wantonly destroyed. Miss Dunham ended her lecture with an appeal to America's part in the struggle n these fitting words: "As sympathizers we have done much, as allies we nust do a great deal more."

Centuries. It is no more right than it would be for two of you citizens to go out to settle an argument with brass knuckles and clubs. No! Justice, law, order and a peace protected by power of righteousness of the world—that is the ideal we are fighting for. We are fighting to bring this predatory Potts—dam gang to terms!"

(Applause showed that the audience was with the speaker.)

Bevery seat in Bangor City Hall was scupled on last Tresday evening at a ueeting held under the auspices of the ted Cross and addressed by Dr. Heny 'Van Dyke. John Wilson acted as hairman, and introduced as the first peaker of the evening, Dr. Van Dyke yho in turn introduced Miss Theodora Dunham, who has been actively seen as a spirit with the said of the consistency of the Red Cross.

Miss Dunham has a most pleasing personality, and was all the more attractive ecause she wore the full dress military coat, plain skirt and walking boots of he service. Her graphic description of cenes at the front and the sorrow, cruity and suffering caused by war touch a responsive chord in the audient of the third or fourth time," said Miss Dunham, "and once in a while, not often, one of the men will say, Cest laireriere fol, estle fol, it is the last time, his time, and then they go." God Loves The World

You've heard so, but are you sure? We know it and can prove it from the Bible. God's love eventually will effect absolute happiness, harmony, perfection on earth. (Rev. 5:13; Luke 3:6; Ps. 22:27).
