THE TRUTH ABOUT IT.

"The Gettysburg engagement, sad as it was, was not all sad," said Col. Allen Harkness, a veteran of Portland. "Many a good war story was swapped between the north and south at Gettysburg. I myself told a good story about a veteran brigadier. This brigadier was always croaking up his process at Gettysburg and Chickamauga and other battlefields, and one day a group of fellow townsmen fell to talking about him. 'There's one thing,' said the doctor, 'that I'd like to know, I'd like to know for certain how many of the boys in gray Jake really and truly did get away with.' 'Well, I can't speak on oath,' said the minister, with a twinkle in his eye, 'but it looks to me, doctor, when you come right down to hard pan, as if Jake probably killed just about as many of the enemy as the enemy did of him.'"—Washington Star.
