Inter-Provincial Conference Is Set For December 9 and 10

RAILWAY DELEGATES ASKED TO BE PRESENT

To Be Held Under Auspices of Canadian Good Roads Association

Canadian Press, MONTREAL, Nov. 21—The next of the series of inter-provincial conference on highway and motor vehicle legislation and allied questions, held periodically under the auspices of the Canadian Good Roads Association, has been called for December 9 and 10, with the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, as the meeting place. This conference will be the seventh of its kind, others having been held in previous years at Winnipeg, Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa, Toronto and St. Andrews, N. B., and MONTREAL, Nov. 21-The next of Winnipeg, Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa, Toronto and St. Andrews, N. B., and each has drawn a full representation of provincial highway ministers, their deputies, chief engineers and other heads or important members of highway departments, while at that held in Quebec, in 1923, four of the nine D. The keynote of this year's conference will be transportation and a broadening of scope is indicated by the fact that for the first time representatives of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada the Canada the consoler of 100, enjoyed the second of a series of social assemble.

The annual tea and sale, under the auspices of the Star Mission Circle of Exmouth street church, is being held in the school room today. Miss Edith Magee, the president, is general convener. The decorations are suggestive of Christmas and have been carried out with fine effect under the supervision of Miss Florence Beville, Mrs. Frederick Myles, Mrs. Frederick Hastings and Miss Neille McKee. The serving table was centred with a bowl of red geraniums and red candles in brass candlesticks, and was presided over by Mrs. Charles Pustin, Mrs. Clarence Myles, Mrs. Charles Thompson and Mrs. George

MEETINGS ENDED

Sergeant Dykeman brought up in court the matter of Charles Hodgins and family on a routine vagrancy charge this morning. He reported that the family were destitute, Hodgins was out of work and that they had been living in barns or wherever they could for the last few weeks. The oldest boy, 17, had not been seen by his parents for 48 hours. He got occasional work. Dr. Warwick, public health officer, testified that the whole family were suffering from acute malnutrition, and the youngest child had rickets. His Honor sent the whole family to the Municipal Home for care and said that when in condition to rought up in McCORMICK—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Sarah McCormick, died Nov. 21, 1923.
