ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Burton

A TRIP ON THE BLACK NIGHT-MARE.

"Did you see a gnome called Tweekanose?" asked Nancy to change the subject.

Back from Mars to the Moon went Sand Man who was getting discouraged and the Twins on the white night-mare. Snuggles came first and Nancy next and then Nick.

"Well, did you find Tweekanose and the lost sleepy sand?" asked the Dream Maker Man when they arrived.

"No, he wasn't on Mars," said the Twins. "We looked everywhere."

"Well, then," said the wise old Dream Maker Man, "we'll have to look some more. It's almost moonup down on the earth and the sleepy sand simply must be found."

"I should say so," said the poor

Crimean Veteran Praises "Fruit-a-tives"

MAJOR GEO. WALKER

Major George Walker, now a familiar figure in Chatham, Ontario, is one of the men who went through the terrible Indian Mutiny. As he says: "I am an Indian Mutiny, serving under Lord Roberts. Fierce hand-to-hand fighting and continual exposure left me a great sufferer from Rheumatism, so much so that my legs swelled up, making it impossible for me to walk. My bowels were so constipated that I was in terrible shape until I began to use 'Fruit-a-tives.' They relieved me both of the Rheumatism and the Constipation. Today, I enjoy perfect health—no more Rheumatism or Constipation."

And in another letter, written December 1st, 1923 (eleven years after), Major Walker says: "Fruit-a-tives are keeping me in the best of health and I shall never be without them."

"Fruit-a-tives" are the famous Fruit Treatment—intense fruit juices combined with tonic—that make you well and keep you well. 25c and 50c—at all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

CORN ON THE COB.

(Ottawa Citizen)

When the news was flashed around the world that an American had succeeded in raising corn in France so that fresh corn can be supplied to American guests in the Paris and London hotels, there was great glee among wandering citizens from this side of the Atlantic. Visions of the succulent dish being available in Europe made them sigh with anticipation of epicurean joy. But the epoch-making achievement left people in England and France quite cold. They did not know what corn on the cob was, had never tasted it, and therefore could not understand the joy of the Americans. Maisie they knew as something to feed chickens. So some of the newspapers undertook to expound the secrets of eating corn on the cob to uncomprehending readers. And this is a Manchester

FABLES ON HEALTH

Plain Health Rules

After the hygiene class opened at Anytown school, little Mollie Mann came home daily with a new list of "dos" and "don'ts."

The garbage can came in for an overhauling. It had to be emptied daily, aired and washed.

As for the house in general, the following rules were enforced:

Bedroom—Air the beds and bedroom for an hour or more. Prevent the collection of dust throughout the house. Do the dusting with dampened dusters.

Laundry—Keep soiled clothing dry and well aired until washed. Do not let odors cling to soiled clothing and do not wear until odors appear.

Cellar—Ventilate thoroughly. If used as storage be sure to keep it sanitary. If there is but one window run an air flue to some point near cellar floor.

Prevent collection of dust throughout the house. Do the dusting with dampened dusters.

Pains in Kidneys Cease

"For a considerable period I was subject to pains in my kidneys and suffered very severely. I tried various remedies without success. After using Gin Pills for a few days my pains left me entirely and have not since returned."

Jas. B. Warnock, 1652 Barclay St., Vancouver, B.C.

Try Gin Pills yourself if you suffer from kidney trouble. At all druggists.

Gin Pills in the U.S.A. are the same as Gin Pills in Canada.

Keep Your Glands Young

Youthful vigor and a fresh grip on life comes from renewed and re-animated glands. It can be done. Free, a sample of Dr. Alexander's Vitalex Tablets, a remarkable Gland Discovery. No cost, no obligation, just send name and address to VITALEX LABORATORIES, 720 Bohan Bldg., Toronto.

Guardian writer's attempt to explain the mystery:

"The spikes of unripe maize are boiled as a vegetable until quite soft and then served on long dishes, bathed in butter. A silver handle, somewhat like an ordinary meat-sawer, is inserted at each end of the spike. Both hands are employed, one at each end, to hold the spike in position while one eats. It is well, for obvious reasons, to see that the dish is exactly below the mouth during the operation."

The picture is altogether too ideal, and quite inadequate. For one thing, it is a safe guess that not one in a million regular eaters of corn on the cob uses that "silver handle," or would do so even with the butter dripping from his elbows. Nor does the description convey the gusto which characterizes the eating of corn. The Guardian readers might almost think it was a delicate operation, when, in fact, it isn't. Probably, Europe will never take to corn on the cob, not only because it is hard to grow there, but because it is a habit peculiar to Americans and Canadians, just as the habit of mixing drinks without ice is the peculiar habit of Europeans.

One Bottle of Carnol relieved his weakness

Three bottles of Carnol restored him to perfect health.

Don't let yourself get run down. When you do, your system is weakened and you are likely to take anything that is going. If you feel tired, depressed, weak, nervous, watch yourself. These are the warnings to you that something serious may follow. It's at a time like this that you need a tonic—something which will tone up your system, purify your blood, quiet your nerves, give you strength. This is the way Mr. Collins felt before he took Carnol. He says: "I was in a run down condition. For six months, I was very weak and suffered from loss of appetite. I tried all kinds of drugs I thought might possibly bring relief, but without success. Then I met a friend. After stating to him my condition of health I referred to different drugs I had taken without benefit. Then he advised me to try Carnol immediately. He told me not to spend another cent for less drugs that would not even bring temporary relief. Then I purchased one bottle of Carnol which relieved me of my weakness. After taking three bottles the blessings of health, which I formerly enjoyed, were again restored to me. As a builder and uplifter when weakening conditions exist, there is nothing equal to Carnol. I can boast of my health now. I cannot express or find words to praise Carnol for all the good it has done for me. I have proof of what it can do and advise all suffering under such conditions to give Carnol the first trial. A trial will convince you and if continued will bring permanent relief. It will bring back to you the lost health you once enjoyed."—Mr. R. G. Collins, 130 Richmond Street, Sydney, N.S. 2-24

"Little hope of that," sighed the Sand Man. "I know him too well, the rascal. Time and again I've just gotten a kiddy to sleep when along he'd come and give its nose a tweak and wake it all up again. Then he'd jump out of the window and laugh and laugh on his way back to Gnomeland—as though it was funny!"

"Come on, if you are going," cried Snuggles, jumping up on his black night-mare and sitting well forward to make room for the Twins.

As soon as they were seated, Nancy in the middle and Nick last, the magic horse started along the Milky Way to the star called Venus.

Club-a-lub, club-a-lub, club-a-lub! went the black mare's hoofs as she galloped through the sky.

At last the Twins and Snuggles came to Venus.

"Who's there?" asked a voice. "And what do you want?"

"We're messengers of the Sand Man and we want the bag of sleepy sand," said Snuggles.

"Say the multiplication table backwards up to ninety," said the voice, right. "We're particular about the people we let in. If you're not good in arithmetic, we don't want you. It's a law of."

The people of Venus were even queerer than the green beards of Mars. Their chin whiskers were made of shavings that hung in long curls.

"Eczema on My Face Completely Relieved"

Miss Winifred Ernest, Box 46, Blockhouse, N.S.

Ever since I was a little child, I suffered with eczema on my face. At times my face was completely covered with large sores, and I tried nearly every kind of medicine that I heard of with no result. This lasted for over twenty years, until one day I asked the advice of my druggist, who bade me give Dr. Chase's Ointment a trial. After using the Ointment for a few days, the sores began to heal, and soon I was completely relieved of the disease.
