NOTHER NIGHT AND NO GHOSTS

assertion by Dr. Prince on the Subject.

lengthy Report from the Investigator—More Stories from Neighbors About the Strange Fires—Family All There Tonight.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., March 10—While "ab-olutely" nothing of an unusual nature opened last night at the MacDonalds, the third night of its oc-casion by Walter Franklin Prince, of the American Institute of Psychological Research, according to word reaching the office here, this morning, from Dr. Whittle, its staff representative at Antigonish, N. S., official photographer of the occasion, arrived here with additional photographs of the mysterious fires seen hovering in the place by eminently reputable neighbors.

Alexander MacDonald and his adopted daughter, Mary Ellen, were among those who spent last night with the Prince party in the house. Tonight it is an-ounced, Mrs. MacDonald, frail little woman who it was thought might be the experience of another night in the house will join the party, making the conditions as nearly similar as pos-sible to those under which the unusual manifestations occurred.

Ellen's estimate of Mary Ellen is as follows: "Mary Ellen is just a child, suf-ficient of a child to enjoy the whole of a juvenile sort of a way. They have brought company to the house, I have stirred up a great interest round this part of the province; Mary Ellen enjoys the publicity in a deli-ciously childish way. But she is so young and so different about the whole matter that one can discount her immediately."

Prince's Report. Halifax, N. S., March 10—The third evening of Dr. Prince's report reached Halifax today and is as follows:—Nothing of an uncanny or mysterious nature occurred during our second night at the MacDonalds home some time ago. Clothes and rugs would vanish. He himself found a rug rolled up, in a wood shed, a mile away from the house. This I belonged to the MacDonalds."

Two Shipwrecked Crews Arrive Here on the S. S. Corsican.

Newfoundland Schooner Men of Two Ships' Companies Had Fearful Experience—One Lot in Small Boat 80 Hours on Tossing Atlantic in Bitter Cold.

Tossed about on the Atlantic, suffering tortures from cold, hunger, thirst and fatigue for eighty hours, during a terrific storm, and death momentarily staring them in the face, was the terrible experience of the crew of the 200-ton schooner Eileen Lake, which sprung a leak below the water line off the Newfoundland coast on January 19. During their fight against the elements, starvation and cold, the men frantically tore their clothes from their bodies, already numbed, in order to start a fire in an effort to attract any passing vessel. This was the substance of a thrilling tale of the sea told by Captain G. H. Norworthy, who arrived in port this morning on the C. P. S. Ltd. liner Corsican. His story follows:—

On January 19, while being buffeted about by the gigantic combers 200 miles off the coast of Newfoundland, the schooner sprang a leak below the water line. The crew, unable to keep ahead of the water, which was rapidly rising in the hold, were forced to take to an open lifeboat at four o'clock in the afternoon, with some provisions, one rifle and a can of kerosene. The cold was intense. During their fight to keep the frail craft from being crushed by the mountainous waves and at the same time maintain their places in the boat George Foresee, the cook, fell in the midst of his comrades and died from exposure. Unable to perform any service for their departed friend, and fearing that it was only a matter of time until they all followed him into the great unknown, the men threw the body overboard next morning.

In order to keep the lifeboat on a course the men made a drag. They estimated that they traveled 166 miles, steering south to warmer water. Many times the boat was sometimes half and then three-quarters full, and only by the greatest of good fortune did they succeed in keeping from swamping.

VESEL LIKELY TO BREAK IN TWO

London, March 10—The U. S. Steamship West Nunham, ashore off Heligoland, is half full of water and likely to break in two at any moment, says a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The weather is so bad that lighters have been unable to reach her.

A Lloyd's despatch from Hamburg states that the cargo of the Russian relief ship, which was carrying corn to Russia, was being jettisoned and that part of the crew was still aboard.

man climbing or descending the stairs to make any creaking sounds. The boards of the floor creaked and the men who were walking across them, the rug appeared to be firm. There are no blinds, and the window shades are as solid as the heavy beams of the structure. We have had fairly stiff winds, but no clapping, rumbling or any other kind of sounds have been caused.

U. S. Demand For $241,000,000 Before Reparations Paid

Paris, March 10—A demand from the U. S. that $241,000,000 for its expenses in connection with the occupation of the Rhineland be paid before any reparations were paid was presented to the Allied finance ministers at their meeting today.

MAINE AND N. B. RACE CIRCUIT

Meeting Called for Next Tuesday at Presque Isle—The Outlook for the Season.

Fredericton, N. B., March 10—The Maine and New Brunswick harness racing circuit is to be organized for the 1922 racing season at a meeting called for Presque Isle on next Tuesday.

The Northern Maine fair committee is to be the hosts to the Eastern Trotting Clubs, it appears, the call for the gathering having been sent out by A. J. Smith, a former New Brunswick man who for more than twenty years has been superintendent of trotting at the Northern Maine Fair.

Not only representatives of the members of the trotting tracks in the circuit but delegates from all the fairs and exhibitions in the "down east" territory are being asked to be present. A banquet such as the Presque Isle Driving Club gave last winter is on the programme.

NORTHUMBERLAND ORDERED TO PAY

Action re Health Assessments—F. B. Vaughan Lectures at U. N. B.

Fredericton, N. B., March 10—Before Mr. Justice Barry this morning an order was issued in an action by the Municipality of Northumberland county to pay $9,441.12, the total of assessments for public health purposes for the years 1920 and 1921. P. J. Hughes appeared for the Minister of Health, and R. B. Hanson, K.C., M.P., for the municipality. Northumberland is the sixth municipality against which the department of health has taken action to force payment of health assessments. The others were Sunbury, Kings, Kent, Queens and Albert.

"OFF IN THE STILLY NIGHT."

"Well," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "don't it beat all how things change? You fellows here in St. John used to fight that there power company an' try to put it out o' business. You went in carloads up to Fred-iction to try to stop it from hev'in' enough common stock to keep it out o' the poorhouse—an' you went bellerin' around about the peo-ple's rights an' the graspin' greed o' the soulless corporation. You held meetin's—an' the papers was full of it—an' if you'd hev your way you'd hev put the company on the blink. You didn't know you was entertainin' an angel unawares. I guess you kin see it now. If it wasn't for that there company startin' to hev' an' you'd hev to pay for settin' the dark. You'd know after this what side your bread's buttered on. You orto—By Hen!"

Viceroy of India May Lose Position

May be Sequel to the Resignation of Edwin Montagu.

London Anxious Over Situation—Decision to Arrest Ghandi, Leader of Non-Cooperationists—Liberation of Political Prisoners Re-fused—Country Reported Seething.

(Canadian Press Cable) London, March 10—Removal of Lord Reading as viceroy of India, it is believed, in some quarters, will be the final denoucement to the publication of the Indian government's note. There is nothing tangible on which to base this belief, but it is not improbable as a sequel to the virtual dismissal of Edwin S. Montagu, as secretary for India. The probable effect in India of Mr. Montagu's resignation is the subject of much anxiety.

DEVONSHIRE ONE NAMED FOR INDIA

Speculation as to Successor to the Secretary.

(Canadian Press Cable) London, March 10—Momentous from the domestic political point of view is the effect the whole Indian affair may have on the fortunes of the government, especially as to the position of Premier Lloyd George. Some believe the chances that the premier will make good his threatened resignation have been considerably increased and that, if he also takes the view that American abstention from the Genoa conference lessens the prospect of success there, the country may soon learn of his definite retirement. It is still unknown whether he intends to begin his holiday today but in view of the threatened lockout in the engineering and shipbuilding trades it is thought likely the evil genius which prevented his attending the Washington will again upset his arrangements.

DRINK OR DRUGS CAUSE, SAY JURORS

"Happy" Rolfe Died in Automobile While Driving With Companions.

Glencoe, Ont., March 10—Charles (Happy) Rolfe came to his death either by excessive drinking of hard cider or by the use of drugs, so a jury at an inquest yesterday held. The coroner considered his companion negligent in not investigating his condition early. A post mortem showed that 200 punctures made by the hypodermic needles were visible on his skin. Needles and some powders were found in the dead man's pockets.

SEEK TO GET ALL LABOR INTO IT

London Police Disclose Instructions of Communists re Engineering and Ship Trades Disputes.

London, March 10—(Canadian Press)—The London police have communicated to the press a copy of instructions issued by the communist party to its organizers throughout the country regarding disputes in the engineering and shipbuilding trades.

The organizers are urged to do their utmost to prevent any compromise and also to induce all other branches of labor to support the engineers and the shipbuilders, not with funds but by common action as the "only effective means of resistance."

The instructions conclude: "Bring in the internationalists of metal workers and other internationalists to broaden the area of action. The time has come for action, pull into the struggle all other sections of labor."
