

RESULTS IN N. S. TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Wisswell and Butler Defeat Dawson and Freeman in Men's Doubles

TRURO, Aug. 11.—Hard fought matches and at times sensational tennis marked the third day's play in the annual tournament here of the Nova Scotia Lawn Tennis Association.

The feature of the day was in the men's doubles, when the Halifax players, A. C. Wisswell and James Butler, defeated the South Shore couple, R. McG. Dawson and Dr. Freeman, after a closely contested match, 6-4, 5-6, 7-5. Second in interest to this was the mixed doubles event, in which Hugh McLennan, youthful Halifax player and Mrs. R. N. Tyler, were victorious over Charles Leslie, McGill University star, and Miss Dorothy Hawboldt, Weymouth star, 7-5, 6-4.

HARRY ROPER DEFEATED

A surprise of the day was the defeat of Harry Roper, left-handed Weymouth star, by Elbert Voght, North Sydney, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4. W. N. Rice, former Maritime champion, advanced into the last eight in the men's singles by virtue of his win over Allan Thompson, North Sydney, 6-2, 4-2.

In the men's doubles, Hugh Ferguson and Charlie Armstrong, of Truro, triumphed over O'Connor and Thompson, Halifax, 11-9, 4-6, 7-5.

W. Williams and Dr. Henderson, Farnboro, playing in their first tournament, were again successful, defeating the North Sydney pair, Thompson and McLeod, 6-3, 6-4.

CARDS STILL HAVE CHANCE FOR TITLE

Now Only Two Games Behind Pirates, Who Lost Yesterday to Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—A resumed Cardinal offensive threatens to shake the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates from the topmost branches.

St. Louis' opportunity to engage in a series for the world championship appears to be at hand, with the men of Hornsby fighting desperately only two games behind the leaders. Few pitching quartets in the major leagues can compare with Flint Rhem, Vic Keen, Bill Dierker and Jess Haines.

Haines yesterday shut out the Boston Braves, 2 to 0, for the second time this season, and the breeding administered to Pittsburgh by Brooklyn, 4 to 0, gave his team a full game gain. Haines granted only five hits, all for one base.

PIRATES BEATEN

Dusay Vance downed the Pirates, after Brooklyn had lost nine straight contests. A rally in the eighth against Yde, Albridge, Songer and Adams produced four runs. The Dodgers, after playing haphazard ball for more than a week, recorded an errorless game.

Chicago carried the New York Giants back into a tie for fourth place by overwhelming them, 11 to 1. The Cincinnati Reds paraded around the bases at Philadelphia to win by 21 to 3. Babe Ruth hit his 57th circuit punch of the year at Washington, but the Yanks went down to defeat twice by the same score, 5 to 4. The second contest went 11 innings before Catcher Bumpy Tate of the Senators shot a home run to the left field wall for the victory.

Ruth hit his blow in the sixth inning of the final contest, and now is six behind his record of 1921, when he manufactured his 57th on July 30. Cleveland lost to the White Sox, after 13 innings, 7 to 3, so gained little ground.

Detroit stopped the St. Louis Browns, 10 to 1.

Maryville Defeats Devon in York League

FREDERICTON, Aug. 11.—Maryville defeated Devon 4 to 1 at Maryville this evening. The home team outplayed Devon in the field and Devon errors were costly. Doherty starred at centrefield for Maryville and there was heavy hitting on both sides.

Score by innings:

R. H. E.
Devon	01000-1 3
Maryville	00022-7 2
Batteries—Keene and H. Miles; H. White and Bailey.

The final set was one of the longest in the history of tennis, the players going thirty games without a break through service. In previous matches Monday and Tuesday, Richards and Williams were victors, the deciding match of the series yesterday requiring five sets.
