PROMINENT PRODUCER TELLS HOW TO PREPARE FOR SCREEN CAREER

Practice for Pictures Just as Effective at Home as at Hollywood.

(By JACK JUNGMEYER.)
Hollywood, March 7.—The boy or girl determined upon a movie career may practice for pictures just as effectively at home as at Hollywood.

This declaration by Hal Roach, prominent producer, may exasperate some youngsters who have all but persuaded reluctant parents to finance a trip to the mecca of romance. On the other hand, it may encourage those who seek sound advice in preparing for the precarious venture.

"A girl's mirror is her best tutor for screen acting," says Roach. "And making faces at herself is the best possible schooling."

"Let the girl who is sure her ambition is rooted in something deeper than a whim or excited fancy put in hours before the looking glass getting acquainted with her features and their capacity for expressing every possible shade of emotion."

"The face that has screen destiny must learn to see itself reflecting ugly passions as well as tranquil beauty. Vanity which prevents this is a bad handicap."

Start by Imitating.
"Good practice is carefully to observe some screen performance to which the movie novice feels by type and temperament adapted, then, standing with back to a full-length mirror and assuming the facial expression and bodily attitude in some vividly recalled scene, suddenly to face the glass and see how well the pose has been simulated. It should be done again and again."

"Comparatively few people are naturally endowed to animate emotion by the facial muscles. But to the actor this is a primary essential. Training will relieve the facial stiffness."

"I have seen Harold Lloyd' emote before the looking glass by the hour. Bebe Daniels does it. Most actors and actresses do. The mirror doesn't flatter. Let the novice go to it for instruction and honest verdict."

Roach is recognized in Hollywood as a shrewd judge of raw movie talent. He selected and started Bebe Daniels, Mildred Davis (Mrs. Lloyd), Jobyna Ralston, Harold Lloyd's present leading lady, and a dozen other successful stars on their way. His latest is Blanche McAffey, picked from Ziegfeld's Follies. His advice has the value of the expert's.

Submit Photo after they get to Hollywood don't know how to present themselves," he says. "I am convinced that many a potential star has been lost to the screen for this reason."

"Few applicants get a hearing or a viewing at the studio unless they have good photographs of themselves, preferably a choice showing different angles and a suggestion of roles that may be convincingly assumed. For it is photos rather than personal appearance that determine screenability. And, of course, movie test shots always finally confirm eligibility."

"Photos, the best side can afford, are an important investment in the novice. They are her advertisement, essential in marketing her talents. Beauties Wanted."

"Motion picture producers, if convinced by photos that a girl might be a find, would take the trouble to have a movie test made of her at home. Of course there are other requirements, but this precedes all others."

"And it is surprising to the layman how many girls considered rather plain show up like a million dollars on the screen."

"Many potential film stars are living in obscurity. A sheaf of photos, assiduously practiced before the home mirror, and some thought as to how best to present themselves when they come to Hollywood might quickly make them celebrities."

"We are as eager to find such girls as they are to be found for while the Hollywoods are full of extras and movie dainties, there is always a scarcity of high class players and genuine beauties."

"I'm as sick as a dog"

is a common expression that makes up in force what it lacks in elegance. When or where or why it originated excites no interest in the victim. Head aches—eyes water—throat aches—cough—sore all over.

Johnson's ANODYNE Liniment taken internally soon works a wonderful change. For more than 100 years the internal use of this doctor's prescription has quickly mastered Grippy Colds, Bronchial Colds, Sore Throat, Chills, Cramps, etc., while for external use on Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Sprains, Strains, etc., it has no superior. For more than a century it has been praised and respected by the general public and the medical profession as well. Sold and commended by good dealers everywhere. 25 and 50c.

How To Break Into Movies

If you have a face like this you have a good chance of becoming a screen star. This one belongs to Blanche McAffey, new star for Hal Roach Films.

HE LIKED IT

Seldom do you hear an actor ask for a re-take of a scene, but Milton Sills recently abandoned the Richard Walton Tully company, engaged in the filming of "Flowing Gold," by suggesting that a scene be re-taken.

It was the final close-up where, after Anna Q. Nilsson had saved him from a watery grave during a terrific storm, the pair were locked close in a thrilling embrace and their lips met for the final kiss.

"All right," shouted Joseph De Grasse, the director, "that will do." "That?" cried Sills. "Don't we get a re-take on that?"

SOLDIER SHOW IS WELL PRESENTED

Originals Score Hit in Their Musical Revue "Rapid Fire," at Imperial.

There are some people in the city today who last night attended the performance given in the Imperial Theatre by The Originals, who are frankly of the opinion that Gene Pearson is not a female impersonator, but an out-and-out, honest-to-goodness female woman.

Such was his success in the numbers in which he appeared in the evening he shared the honors of the new production, and while his appearance was perhaps not so attractive as some of the female impersonators who have been seen here in the past, none could nearly equal the wonderful soprano voice which is his.

The whole performance is well up to the standard of the soldier shows with which St. John is familiar. It is well staged and not a dull moment marks its whole run. The cast contains 15 of the original Dumbells. They are under the direction of Leonard Young and Ivor Ayre is in charge of the augmented orchestra.

Gene Pearson is heard in four fine solos, each one of which was received with prolonged applause. He succeeded in his vocal solo in the "Cello" and in the "Russia" scene at the beginning of the second part of the programme, which was one of the most spectacular of the bits of which the show is made up.

Jimmy Goode was even better than ever in his drill, black-face humorous numbers. He was heard in two fine monologues and in company with Fred Fenwick, put on a screamingly funny hot act that kept the audience in a ferment of humor.

Ted Charter gave another of his inimitable sermons, entitled "Flirtation," which was also a big hit and he also took prominent part in the ensemble items on the bill.

Red Newman was heartily greeted on his first appearance and contributed his usual quota to the performance. His final number, "The Stoker" depicting the part played in the great war by the men who did their bit in the bowels of the British warships, was a stirring piece of work and was as appealing as his former hit, "Stoney Brooke in No Man's Land."

The company's quartette, consisting of Tom Young, Jerry Brayford, Bill Tennant and Bertram Langley, were in good voice and appeared in two pictureque numbers. Alan Murray's female impersonation work again scored a hit. He was particularly good in "The Girl in the Red Dress."

Bob Anderson's fine baritone voice was heard in a couple of fine solo numbers as well as appearing in the quartette. The orchestra was good and as a matter of fact every member of the organization carried his part well and contributed to the success of the piece.

The members of the company included Red Newman, Alan Murray, Gene Pearson, Ted Charter, Bob Anderson, Charles McLean, Bill Tennant, Fred Fenwick, Tom Young, Jimmy Goode, Jerry Brayford, Bertram Langley, Leonard Young.

He Suffered For Three Years

Then Mr. John Jensen Used Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Saskatchewan Farmer Suffered From Backache and Stiffness in the Joints and Was Restored to Good Health by Using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"For about three years I have suffered from backache and stiffness in my joints. I did not sleep well and had very little appetite in the mornings. I took two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and have found that they did me a lot of good."

This statement is made by Mr. J. Jensen, well known in this place. Mr. Jensen's troubles were caused by the kidneys. That's why he got such prompt relief from Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they act only on the kidneys.

When the kidneys are not right, they fail to do their full work of straining all the impurities, all the acids of disease, and of the blood. There can be no pure blood if the kidneys are wrong. There can be no good health unless the blood is pure.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the sovereign remedy for sick kidneys.

CANADIAN TEAM COMPLETED

Sixteen Players Named for Soccer Squad to Tour Australia.

Toronto, March 7.—With the selection of Freddy Dieren, George Forrest and Whitley McDonald of Ontario, the roster of the soccer football team that will represent Canada in a tour of Australia this year has been completed. Sixteen players have been chosen for the team, which will leave Vancouver on April 9th and will be gone a little more than four months, returning Aug. 22.

According to the plans announced by the Dominion Football Association, which is supervising the tour in conjunction with the Australian soccer authorities, the Canadian team will make Calgary the assembly point, where an exhibition game will be played against an all-star team on April 7. Another exhibition will be played the following day at Vancouver. An exhibition also has been extended to the Dominion body by the Honolulu Football Association to have it stop off for an exhibition game in Honolulu on its way to Sydney.

The following are the sixteen players selected for the trip by the Dominion Association: Goal, Mosher, Vancouver; backs, G. Anderson, Ladysmith; M. McLean, Calgary; H. C. Noseworthy, Montreal; halfbacks, W. McDonald, Hamilton; Freddy Dieren, Toronto; J. Wilson, Edmonton; J. G. Armstrong, Vancouver; R. Stobart, Nanaimo; forwards, G. Forest, Toronto; R. W. Harley, Winnipeg; L. Ford, Regina; F. Bowman, Saskatoon; L. Sanford, Montreal; W. Limning, Lethbridge; and J. Hood, Brandon. D. Morrison of Ladysmith has been chosen to accompany the team as trainer.

According to comments of the Canadian critics, the Dominion Football Association apparently has made a popular selection, and it certainly is a thoroughly representative one, as practically all sections of Canada where soccer is played has one or more men on the team. With this team, composed of most of the leading soccer players in the Dominion, experts are fairly well agreed that the Australians will be able to get a very good line on the quality of soccer now being played in Canada.

WILL SET RECORD IN THEATRICALS

F. J. Carroll Will be Managing Four Companies This Spring.

If plans which are now under way materialize, F. James Carroll will next spring be the only theatrical producer in this country with more than three companies operating at different places.

And at the present time there is every indication that this unusual condition of affairs will come to pass.

Mr. Carroll has now companies running in St. John, Scranton, Pa., and Newark, N. J., and plans are already well along towards the opening of the fourth season at Bangor early in the spring.

The local company is now playing its twenty-eighth week, Scranton is in its fourth week and Newark its second. The Scranton company is composed chiefly of members of the company which closed in Halifax early in the year with Francis Woodbury as leading lady and Emma DeWelle, character woman. Eleta Nudson and Edward Gullen are playing the leading roles in Newark, but on March 17, Lillian Foster, who was leading lady here last year, will open another engagement with Mr. Carroll at Newark, replacing Miss Nudson. Her first show will be "Twin Beds," which is at present holding forth here.

FILMS ATHLETES.
W. G. MacLaughlin, the well known moving picture operator from Halifax, was bright and early at the No. 2 berth, Sand Point, yesterday and took some hundreds of feet of film of the members of the Granites, the Toronto hockey team that won the world's championship at the Olympic competition in Newark, but on March 17, Lillian Foster, who was leading lady here last year, will open another engagement with Mr. Carroll at Newark, replacing Miss Nudson. Her first show will be "Twin Beds," which is at present holding forth here.

HERES A CLASSIC
A new sign was discovered on the William Fox Hollywood lot the other day on the comedy side. It read: "Owing to inclement weather, there will be no bananas today." Being a classical interpretation of the well known song, we offer it for your edification!

Commenting on the award, Dr. Pearson said: "We believe we have secured a play which will be as big a success as last year's choice, 'Crossed Wires,' by Richard A. Purdy, New York banker. 'Crossed Wires' is now in Broadway rehearsal under the direction of Oliver Morosco. 'Their Honor, the Mayor' has as its title implies, a political theme, much of its 'buckness' involves around the radio. I have already decided to produce it on all five of the circuits of the Swarthmore Chautauque, which will carry it into 400 theatres and present it to about 1,000,000 people."

Bertha Kallich and "The Kreutzer Sonata" are the subjects of contrary rumors at the moment. One has it that the play will play in New York almost immediately, the other that some five road weeks have been booked.
