ledge of the law, would be employed. INDEFENSIBLE out, as it ran along the inlet for eight- land in as many years, but had sold HOUSE VOTED Fraser was a good one. He followed Government House Fonce een miles. Mr. Harris had spent a good the timber off it to a Japanese. ARE OFFERED the Dominion officials' practice, deal of time in laying out the grades, and owing to the difficult nature of the matter. He pointed out that there is a Repairs to Government house, furniinvestigate timber and forestry mat-How Licenses Are Issued, ture, fuel, light, water, etc., were esti-NNEL CLUB SHOW "I can tell the attorney-general that the fish-dealers in New Westminster EXPENDITURES FOUR MILLIONS ters a vote of $5,000 was asked. country this was more expensive than provision for application for cancella mated at $5,000. Mr. Oliver asked if the government ordinarily. The sum paid Mr. Harris tion of a pre-emption, and when can The leader of the opposition made the celled that land is held for fifteen days had control of these books of licenses was going to import a foreign ex-pert to advise a Canadian government was $3,405. suggestion that the high board fence open only to the person applying for the cancellation. He suggested that last year and were handing them out Prince Rupert Survey. , of Rutherford, N. around Government house grounds be all through the fishing season. It apwhat was necessary to the protection J. A. MACDONALD MAKES COSTLY SURVEYING pears there are people outside the atremoved. It was ungainly and an eye-The commissioner went on to state this applicant might not have done of Canadian forests. Judge All sore and he saw no object in it unless it was to keep out of the gaze of the hoped to consult Geoffrey Pinchot and that he had been led into error yester- so, in which case the records would torney-general's department who know SOME TELLING POINTS day as to the amount estimated for sur- show a previous pre-emption still AT PRINCE RUPERT more about what is going on than he lasses. people who were paying for it all. A would get the best Canadian advice as veys at Prince Rupert. Out of the $280,000 for survey work the actual Mr. Oliver said he gathered from the or his officers do," said Mr. Oliver. "I am not a detective," was Mr. Bow handsome ornamental fence should be amount provided for Prince Rupert was $50,000 and not $80,000. This $50,000 was ser's reply. "I try to earn my salary here in Victoria and don't go around Mr. Macdonald urged reasons put up which would be a credit. Examples of How Ministers Japanese Fishermen Get Liaid to the Canadian Mining Institute. ee appointed by the. Civil Service Salaries. This suggestion was received with The premier stated that he would be intended to cover the cost of the sur-vey at the townsite and continuing the to fish shops. I depend on my officers, handle the prize list he usual contemptuous silence and Figure Their Estimates— For the expenses of civil governcenses From Bowserglad to give consideration to any claim some of whom may have made misbe held here April 6th takes. The inspector at New West-minster is an experienced man." H. C. Brewster (Alberni), as ted if lack of common courtesy which marks work till the end of the coming fiscal ment here and at the sixteen agencies from that body. Session Nearing Close. the members of the executive so freyear. The figure was altogether an es- throughout the province, a vote of The items of $37,000 for forest proorted that the follow-Interesting Discussions. H. C. Brewster (Alberni), asked if the provincial police were instructed suggestion made from the opposition onated and that the timate, based on the statement of the $367,440 was taken, in thirty-three sep tection and $20,000 for game protect G. T. P. engineer. No accounts had arate items, on which there was little were held over. John Oliver has evi-dently suffered from the actions of intly added to within the to look after cases where injury was side of the House. been received as yet as to what had or no discussion. The vote Legislative Press Gallery, Feb. 26. been spent by the company. He had purpose in 1907-8 was $294,420 and for asked Mr. Bacon to let him have an Legislative Press Gallery, Feb. 25. J. H. Hawthornthwaite protested onsiderate hunters, for he expressed lone to spawning grounds or illegal There is a strong probability that the ointers. × 1. 3 Estimates to a total of $3,856,686 were against the $600 paid to the gardener fishing was carried on, a fervent wish to get after some of session will close towards the end of pointer-Challoner assed by the House this afternoon estimate and had got one, but thought approaching its close it was $249,960, Mr. Bowser said protection of fish- at Government house as scab wages. the fraternity with a gun. He debeing practically the whole of the clared that farmers lost more in cat- next week, Record time has been made the figure was greatly over-estimated. Or at the rate of $333,280 a year. The minister of public works explain eries was a matter for the Dominion in the passing of the estimates, al-though these were the heaviest in the sovernment engineer he had been keep-was a lump sum of $25,000 voted yesternain estimates for the fiscal year ended that the gardener got a free house tle killed and property destroyed than opposite sex-Major J. government. the game was worth to the country. Mr. Brewster mentioned a case where and probably light and fuel. ing March 31st, 1910. on the dog. Value $10. There was considerable desultory dising a check on the expenditure, but the accounts for the work done pre-will be made when the civil service He advocated raising the license fee, Mr. Hawthornthwaite stuck to it open class-F. W. the Dominion official asked a provinthat these wages were a disgrace to thus making hunters bear the cost of history of the province, and with two in open cl al; value $5. cussion on several items, but as a rule cial constable to accompany him to a sessions a day from Monday on there A vote of $25,000 was passed to meet should be no trouble in clearing off be submitted to actuaries. Mr. Bacon's there was some $3,000 voted in inthe votes were passed without comin limit class-S. Goodcertain place. The constable replied the province and of a piece with the game protection. A vote of $25,00 On the item for fisheries John Oliver novice dog-W. H. Wilor and did not think there was any bor in its employ as compared with drew attention to the lax manner in need for anyone to go in this particuothers. which the attorney-general's departlar case. The Dominion official had novice bitch-H. Mor-"Have you any Chinese employed ment is collecting the provincial license gone ahead and taken action himself. here " asked Mr. Oliver. fee and the lack of attention to the There was no object in making the puppy-T. F. Geiger, Mr. Taylor replied "No." perhaps for the mainland; $4,000 for follows: Officials of supreme and land survey, $61,000 for laying out town courty courts, $29,648; provincial police. provision that they shall be issued only provincial police fishery inspectors if year, amounting to $1,030,638.55, were "One would think you had by the British subjects. As a result, the also finished. There only remains to be ointer-W. R. Jackson, wages you pay," Mr. Oliver retorted. voted $153,100.46, odds and ends of ex-penditure made on account of the fiscal they were not to act. member for Delta said, scores of Ja-LORD SHAFTESBURY The vote was passed. Surveys at Prince Rupert. panese fishermen are fishing on the sh Setters. Aid to Hospitals. field equipment. Freser by virtue of licenses which For the clearing and survey of lands TOUCHED FRASER BAR Victoria jail, $7,512; New Westminster For hospitals and charities the year 1907-8. ow-Miss W. M. Davie, at Prince Rupert $80,000 was asked and could not have been issued to them, Mr. Oliver pointed out that the objail, $8,448; Nelson jail, $5,700; Kam Two features which developed this amount asked was $200,000, of which jection he had made to the item the night before had been justified by the Factories Act, $1,620. if the attorney-general's fishery regu-lations are to be carried out. Books of for construction of roads and sewers afternoon are of special interest to the osite sex-T. C. Smith, $130,000 was for grants to hospitals, $200,000. The commissioner of lands explained that the former sum was the Big Square-rigger, Loaded $6,000 for grants to refuge homes, aid electorate, and will doubtless receive icenses are allowed to lie in the hands statement just elicited that the amount | This completed the voting of the main further attention from the opposition imit class-J. A. Robb. societies, etc., $20,000 to the tuberculoof the province's share was $50,000 in- estimates for the fiscal year, which beof New Westminster fish-dealers and province's fourth, and that the latter With Lumber, Got Off Withsis sanatorium, $25,000 towards buildwhich keeps a watchful eye upon the cannery managers along the river, who issue licenses to all and sundry. gins on April 1st next and ends on sum was the total for roads and sewstead of $80,000 manner in which the expenditure is ing hospitals, $10,000 in aid of the desvice class-James Fairers, three-fourths of which was to be John M. Yorston (Cariboo), voiced March 1st, 1910, the total being $5,out Injury. handled by the government. One of Another matter which Mr. Oliver brought to the notice of the House was titute sick and poor and the balance repaid by the G. T. P. with interest. complaints of settlers as to the price 615.798, voted in two afternoon sittings these matters is in relation to the in amounts of from $300 to $500 in aid site sex, novice classspending of money needlasly and waste- they had to pay for surveys, as high of the House. "Do I understand that there has of resident physicians. & Co., goods. hat at the rate the government is ask-Supplementary estimates for the cur been spent on the survey of this town fully upon roads and other works which as $1 and never less than 50c. an acre, G. R. Naden asked if it was the inpy-H. E. Levy, clear as against 25c. the government paid. And even then, settlers claimed, the 638.55, were taken up and went through ing money for surveys at Prince Ru-(From Friday's Daily.) site a sum of which our shore is $80,are not required, but which friends of tention to make a grant towards pert the clearing and survey of that Ship Lord Shaftesbury went on a 000 " asked Mr. Oliver. "Have we the administration press for. Prince Rupert hospital this year. Hon. Dr. Young replied that no reish Setters. spent such an enormous sum on laying ownsite would appear to be costing work was not carefully done. He sug- merrily till the public works votes were The other matter places the govern bar in the Fraser river when being sested that the government survey the land and put in posts, which would be more satisfactory in every way. ow-Weiler Bros., cup. the inconceivable sum of $320,000. This out the townsite and sub-dividing the ment between the horns of a dilemma. presentations had been made to him towed out to sea by the tug Lorne yesite sex-Major Taylor's em was allowed to stand over for furproperty? It is scarcely conceivable that the survey of 2,000 acres in the terday, but came off again last night in regard to this. Last year the hos-Either the ministers are so loose in ther information and discussion. their methods or badly informed that : value $10. ital had been placed under a per cap-Matters of which mention was made Mr. Fulton repeated that it was the intention of the government this year to do as much survey work as possible $41,500 for administration of justice, $26,880 for hospitals and charities, and townsite and 21,000 acres in blocks of at high tide quite easily. She is now pen class-H. R. Ella they cannot frame their estimates proita grant. The doctor had been down n which Victoria citizens are directly 40 acres or more would cost $320,000. | lying at anchor at New Westminster, here lately and was making additional perly, or there have arisen during the There must be a mistake here, and the and expects to get away on the next imit class-J. Wenger, nterested were the centralizing of the fiscal year now closing circumstances provision for taking care of female paeveral provincial exhibits, the providin those localities where settlers were $10,750 for education. likely to go in immediately, so as to More Room f item should stand over until we have which made the expenditure of very tide. She was not damaged, and will ing of more suitable accommodation for tients. vice class-B. A. Paint further information large additional sums expedient. Prob-More Room for Members. Mr. Naden urged the claims of Penthe legislative library and the desiracontinued her voyage without dockhave as much land required for early ably to both causes this is attributable. As to the second, it may be argued ticton to a grant in aid of a resident Hon. F. J. Fulton explained that A supplementary vote of $12,000 for settlement survey as could be done. bility of removing the unsightly fence v dog-T. P. McConnel, there would be a topographical survey physician as well as Princeton or Winrepairs to the "capitol" buildings duraround the government house grounds. along the east side of the island, which would cost more than an ordin-ary survey. This was only an esti-which she took on at the Fraser mills, Game Protection. dermere district, which each get $300, along the east side of the island, that this has been due to unforseen ing the current fiscal year drew from ppy bitch-Vancouver-Prayers were read to-day by Rev. A. The leader of the opposition, on the but Dr. Young could not see his way causes in connection with the work, the leader of the opposition a question but Dr. Young could not see his way to make a grant. The administration of justice other than salaries, calls for an estimated expenditure of $172,050. In reply to Mr. Oliver the attorney-general was unable to cive any since the ended but the other than which would cost more than an ordin-which she took on at the Fraser mills, which she took on at the fraser mills, source the appendication of 75,000 feet, which source the appendication of 15,000 feet, which source the appendication of the opposition a question which she took on at the fraser mills, source the opposition a question to the cases of one W. G. Manson, who had been prosecuted by a game warden and fined. On appeal the county court of the opposition advances the need of help for Mr. Berden's candidates in the charge, but refused to consider the ap-Company, cup. E. Roberts. The commissioner of lands introduced on Setters. a bill, the object of which is to rew-J. W. Elliott, cup. move the exemption of timber cut east expenditure of $172,050. In reply to Mr. site sex-T. Withers, of the Cascade range from the necessity of being used or manufactured in or give any idea what income the government wanted to have enough. tied up in Esquimalt harbor. Captain theriffs derived from fees or what Mr. The accounts would all be checked over and kept down to a reasonable over and kept down to a reasonable arrangements to secure a crew, and penditures of the public moneys of the pub nit class-J. S. Hitchthere now, the education department the province. This will bring the whole et; value $30. sheriffs derived from fees or what Mr. had two offices, the free text book province under the act of 1906. vice class-W. Winsby. Cassidy was getting per day for prosestores were kept there, the public works House in Supply. province, where this would do most While the charge was thus declared to these are now waiting for her to call cuting the Fraser river fishermen. engineer had a draughting room and Going into committee of supply, with Mr. Oliver reminded the House that for them, good-for the Conservative party. Most be unfounded the government had the there were other offices. Stuart Henderson suggested that the site sex, novice class-Price Ellison in the chair, the minister Free Text Books. the survey of large blocks is estimated people will accept that a true explana- fine, which Mr. Manson thought he For education there was voted $614,-560, the separate items being: Per capcash. tion to a great extent of the large votes should get back. Mr. Macdonald finance began with the votes for -F. Pamphlet, cup. to cost twenty-five cents an acre. Even NEW METHODIST CHURCH restaurant be placed in the basement thought Chief Warden Bryan Williams and the large room upstairs devoted to legislation, totalling $65,620. Indemnity, allowing for the larger area being unasked from the House now. ra Specials ita grants, $537,980; free text book at $1,200 to each of the 42 members, The other reason played some part, should be a little more careful in ac- legislative uses. At Ottawa both Sencleared he thought $60,000 an outside of four setters or branch, $33,440; inspection of schools, AT NELSON COMPLETED mounts to $50,400, mileage to $7,200 and figure for the whole cost of the sur towever, as figures prove. There are cepting the statements of private prosate and Commons restaurants were in illowance to the Speaker ($1,200) and and shown by one ex-$18,520; education office, $12,500; provinvey. He appealed to J. F. Garden always supplementary votes asked by ecutors. the basement. cial normal school, $7,620; education of ill, cup. ssional salaries to $4,020. There was egislatures, of course, but not to the Hon. Mr. Fulton explained that Mr. $1,000 for registration of voters, $1,000 for election expenses and $2,000 for con-Mr. Oliver asked what firms the (Vancouver), to corroborate him. "The matter of additional room at of setters and pointextent of some of the votes put through Manson had been acting as guide to the capital buildings is receiving Mr. Garden is too good an engineer Mr. Oliver asked what firms the free and has had too long an experience in Special Services Will Mark nown by one exhibitor to-day. Surveys, for example, may be considered a somewhat difficult item to convicted for assisting in killing moun-"The accommodation for the jegislature en, cup. or pointer in the Vettext books were purchased from, wheingent fund. British Columbia to contradict this Formal Opening on John Oliver protested against paying ther manufactured in Canada or outestimate. estimate on closely, but ministers tain sheep in August, before the season is not at all what it should be. It is or Hall, cup. of Rutherford, N. Y., the registrar at New Westminster $60 side in non-union print shops. Finally the item was allowed to should be able to come nearer to what opened. His story was that he was apparent to all that there are not con can be done in the year just ahead showing them the country preparatory veniences, nor is there room for them The minister of education said he could return satisfactory replies to March 7th. extra work-work which, he constand. veniences, nor is there room for them. tended, he got a salary for doing. Roads in Alberni. than one-fourth. And in the laying out to the opening of the season, and that that are really necessary in order that of road in a restricted area like the he did not think they were going to members of this House should have the There was voted for the hospitals every point. The books were made in H, C. Brewster, on the vote of $28,-L BANQUET. for the insane at Westminster and Ver- Canada and in union shops. The readprovince's property at South Vancouver and Point Grey, it cannot be consider-had also been fined, and expressed a their business in the legislature or in Nelson, Feb. 25 .- The new Methodist non, for maintenance, $109,760; $74,896 for the printing bureau, $2,500 for the bureau at mining bureau, $2,500 for the 000 for roads, bridges and wharves in Alberni constituency, protested that church, built by W. G. Gillett, con-1 Company Spend Enthe amount was insufficient. He again tractor, has just been completed in this ed wise figuring to put the amount re- willingness to pay more for the pleasbureau of mines and $14,720 for the pro- from Morang & Co. vening Together. drew attention to the injury that was city and will be formally opened with quired at less than one-half. A con- ure of having got the two sheep. and private way, and the question of vincial home at Kamloops. The total "Well, I have positive assurance that being done the trunk road to Camp-bell river by the construction of the E. & N. extension, so much so as to The attorney-general said he could making the quarters here more ample, vote for maintenance of public institu-tions was $229,116. the books you get from Morang are made in the States and in scab shops," Fifth Regiment, held on the vote of $4,740 for the provin-On the vote of $4,740 for the provin-Mr. Oliver said. C. W. Munro (Chillwack), asked if C. W. Munro (Chillwack), asked if himself shunned by clients. . The man had guided out an armed is now receiving the attention of the party to the best sheep ground ahead of government." (Hear, hear.) quet at the Olympus interfere with the carriage of the tend toward increasing the convenience mails. Larger expenditures on the or suitability of the building for works and buildings there was voted the open season and must have known For the new court house at Vancouv. Major Currie, the cial museum, Stuart Henderson sugcial museum, Stuart Henderson sug-gested that a building should be rent-ed in the city for museum purposes, and the wing now occupied, as well as the city for the expenditure seemed to be blind. The expenditure seemed to be the city for museum purposes, while the plans pre-pared by Thomas Hooper of Victoria, statistic appearance is concerned from this It was estimated by the governer of the company. ieut. Brace also of No. were present also: outside appearance is concerned, from this. It was estimated by the govern- who were out of the country. for the current year. This brings the Capt. Winsby, of No. and agricultural exhibits, devoted to Hon. Dr. Young replied in the nega Dr. King asked if the $25,000 voted the native marble of which the build- ment a year ago that $50,000 would be J. H. Hawthornthwaite thought office purposes, in view of the need tive and said there was really little for to Cranbrook was for roads and ing is constructed. The interior is in required for surveys throughout the $20,000 a large sum to pay for the work, cost of the building up to over $400,000. Capt. Harris, of No. Stuart Henderson remarked that the for more space. transport. There were some children Mr. Taylor replied that it was all The design of the auditorium comkeeping with the handsome exterior. bridges. Hon. Dr. Young agreed that it would at the Mackay Institute for the Deaf country would like to know when the er had been served, a bines a certain massiveness with ele- more is required. This, be it remember- game. He urged that steps should be building was going to be finished and be well to centralize the exhibits, but and Dumb and Blind in Montreal, one carried through. "The for roads. taken to prevent alleged sportsmen how much it was going to cost. lid not think it would be advisable to in California, one in Halifax and ten John Oliver declared that for Delta's gance, while the lighting arrangement ded, is entirely aside from the expendihonored. Major Curremove them from a fire-proof build- in Winnipeg. from across the line coming up and Indefensible Expenditure. needs $15,850 was altogether inade-quate. and the finish have been given the proper church effect. Along one end of The commissioner of lands exall were toasted and ing to one where they might be in dan-The vote for transport was $37,000, quate. Mr. Macdonald, on a vote for public olies, urging the neser of being destroyed. J. H. Hawthornthwaite asked for an the auditorium runs a balcony, placed and wharves, for which $464,485 was that the vote included the purchase of The commissioner of lands explained $2,000 for charges on remittance and works in Ymir district of $14,000, in adinterest being taken The Museums. $35,000 for travelling expenses of offiexplanation as to why the vote for in such a way as to add to rather than dition to the $26,000 voted last session so that it might mainestimated as the cost last year, the a launch which would assist the in-"As far as the agricultural exhibit cers on duty. For commissions, courts Nanaimo was the smallest of all, $6.- to detract from the beauty of the place. dard of efficiency. Col. asked if any of this was to be spent government made so close a guess that spector in enforcing the law along the of appeal, travelling expenses and miss concerned not one visitor in five 500 but none was forthcoming he fact that there was One of the features of the auditorium for work on a new road lying between Cowichan gets $11,860, Comox $33,500, is the panelled walls which are finishonly $372,800 more is needed to comcoast and among the islands. undred ever sees it," said Mr. Hencellaneous expenditure in connection interest taken in the Trail and Rossland. The Islands $13,000, Chilliwack $19,800, Esquimalt $25,000, Newcastle $13,000, ing throughout. Off the auditorium is with the collection of revenue there "If it was placed where it Better Protection Asked. derson. The premier replied in the affirmaoung men as was evia In fact, so far from the mark were was voted a lump sum of $40,000. could be seen it would be of great value cities of about the H. C. Brewster (Alberni), asked if any the estimates of last session that the The total vote for public works was Vancouver Island trunk road $35,- the Sunday school room which can be as an advertisement for the province. Mr. Macdonald declared the expen complaints had been received regard-000 and roads in South Vancouver and opened into the church proper, great-House had to vote to-day 34 per cent. $2,831,100, made up as follows: Roads, The same applies to the mineral exing a comic ditty "You diture was an indefensible waste ing destruction of game by Americans of the total to make up the deficiency. streets, bridges and wharves in the anhoe." Capt. Winsby Point Grey $75,000. For bridges ly increasing the seating capacity. This public money. There was no need for on Texada Island. various constituencies, $1,482,585; works due, as Mr. Macdonald says, either to throughout the province there was an Sunday school room also has a balcony. nd Lieut. Brace spoke The vote for fisheries was $22,500, of the new road and the government en-The commissioner said he had receiv item of $225,000 and for wharves gen- On this floor also is the pastor's study. the government's incompetency to and buildings, $666,475; surveys and imaffairs. Mr. Harvey which $10,000 was for the hatchery at gineer had reported against it. frame its estimates or to cirumstances ed complaints ten days ago and was provement of lands, $560,000; governerally $100.000. The basement is occupied by the Young ting exhibition of ven-Seton lake. The premier insisted that the work which made it expedient to spend looking into them. The department ment house, $5,600; subsidies to steam-Parker Williams asked if the $43 Dr. Kergin asked if there was any People's room, the primary room and wed by a comic song was a necessary one on account of the money freely. At the same rate the would do what it could to put a stop orth of gloves, $120 worth of hay and hoats ferries and bridges $16,440: conprovision for bridges across the Skeena rooms for a young men's parlor and a s recitation. Other in grade and was asked for by many peo-ple in Rossland. to the practice. He could not say yet tingencies, $100,000. There is $3,000 in ountry may expect to see supplementwere contributed to $60 worth of oats used last year were gymnasium, kitchen and furnace room. river. aries totalling close on two million dol- if he would appoint an inspector for for repairs to the parliament buildings Hon. Thos. Taylor replied that there The estimated cost of the building was by Gunner Brunel. Harry Nesbitt responds for the fish. Mr. Macdonald retorted that a friend that island. lars next session. were several provided for and if the $30,000 and the contract has been kept The attorney-general was unable to and $7,000 for the improvement of the of the premier owned a few hundred say as to the gloves, but he could acgrounds. For the construction, repair An announcements which members W. H. Hayward (Cowichan), again member for Skeena had any particular well within the figure. The building is to the sergeants and dollars' worth of land which was on and furnishing of schools in unorgan were pleased to hear this afternoon called attention to the ravages of the int for the feed used in the stables. one in mind he would be glad to dis- 80 x 72 feet in size, with a wall 33 feet wed by Sergt. Smith, Muir and Kroger rethe road and he had got a few mem horned owl among pheasants. In one He explained that some additional exized districts there is a vote of $126,750 was that the government is considercuss it with him. high, surmounted by a shingle roof, bers of the Rossland Club and a few diture was needed in connection ing means of providing more accom- place where he had formerly shot one Dr. King asked if a very necessary painted black. Hospital for the Insane. committee, while Sermembers of the board of trade to ask hundred pheasants in a season he only with police protection and the collec-The vote asked for the new hospital bridge across the Columbia river at for the insane at New Westminster Wardner had been estimated for. modation for the legislature. The pres-One thing in connection with the for it. There had been no appropriaof license fees. sure upon the space in the building for got six last season. construction of the church in which for its last session and the Bellinger responde office purposes is so great that the leg-Mark Eagleson (Lillooet), followed "Provision has been made for that." "What about the grass seed and fruit was $121,500 and for repairs to the preshose who have had charge of the work Mine Host." The banhad been done surreptitiously and inislative end suffers. Members have no with a complaint against the golden trees? How do they come in in a fish ht to a close with the ent building $8,000. Hon. Dr. Young exreplied the minister of public works. take special pride is the fact that the excusably. / If any change had been hatchery?" queried Mr. Williams. The vote for miscellaneous expendiplace to attend to their mail or trans- eagle, which works havoc among the material used in it is of local produc-National Anthem and plained that the building would be needed a slight diversion of the old act business which may arise except mountain sheep. The lambs are born The attorney-general pointed out that ture amounted to $384.240, and includmodern in every respect and would retion, and that every order that was road at the upper end could have been at their desks, the legislative library these were for the grounds. lieve the congestion in the present hos- ed two grants to the British Colum- possible has been placed with local at high altitudes, where the eagles have made for one or two thousand dollars is cramped, it is impossible to give the their eyries, and are thus born into the bla Agricultural Association, $3,000 in agents or contractors. Mr. Gillett se-IAGE SALE. Japanese Fishermen. John Oliver asked the attorney-gen-eral if he could state how many fish-ince; it had been found that persons Japanese Fishermen. The liverymen of Rossland and Trail newspaper men such a suitable room as worst conditions possible in that way. had petitioned against the work. speaker and ministers desire to see Mr. Eagleson advocated a bounty for ti-Tuberculosis Society eagles as Mr. Hayward had done for that the work was a justifiable one. J. H. Schofield (Ymir), considered them have, the committee rooms are ing licenses were issued to Japanese. Kaslo, while the granite came from mentally afflicted were often advised Legislative Library, for Next Week's uncomfortably crowded at times and horned owls. Mr. Bowser said he did not have the to travel and the Pacific coast was the quarry at Beasley and the lumber Event. The need of more accommodation "I have dwelt on this case, which Parker Williams (Newcastle) protest generally there is not the convenience number handy but there were only a recommended as a good place for them. for the legislative library was pointand shingles was from Kootenay mills. comes within my own personal knowled against W. H. Heald, the C. P. R. to which a legislature is entitled. few. The inspector had been instruct-The church on which the name Trinedge and observation, because I besale to be held on Fri Many cases had been deported to the ed out by the leader of the opposition. game warden, having the powers of a Expenses of Surveys. y next, March 5th and ed that they were only to be issued places they came from but the prov- For want of sufficient room, Mr. Maclieve there are many such cases ity has been bestowed is to be formally provincial constable unless he was to ince had to shoulder a large expendi- donald said, the library was not so ar- cpened by Rev. William Sparling, D.D., throughout the province of equally o British subjects. The House went at once into supply be taken into the employ of the govhall promises to be Mr. Oliver informed the attorney-general that scores of Japanese who were not British subjects had got li-building complete, ready for the pa-Mr. Oliver informed the attorneyneedless expenditures," said Mr. Mac-conald. "It should be called to the and took up the item of $280,000 for sur-The ladies of the Antiernment. The province, he said, should veys which had been laid over yesdiscontinue "paying the sneak and spy attention of the House and the governiety, who have charge of any corporation." He asserted that terday. censes. The books of licenses had been tients to enter, would be $517 a bed, as arranged with the books in their par- cation of the building will take place, confident that they John Oliver asked if the government ment that we are being deceived in Mr. Heald had boasted of searching compared with $800 in England and ticular departments, and so make it a being conducted by Rev. James H. had any more information to offer re- several hundred hunters during the offer the public bar anded to cannery managers, who had many cases as to the needs of work White, formerly pastor of the church, white, formerly pastor of the church, and amorintendent of missions for cially as regards the Prince Rupert method of game protection." Mr. Wilre, clothing, crockers handed out the licenses to anyone and $1,100 to $1,200 in the United States. good working library for members, which the government is asked for and ffects, both ornamen. which in too many instances are careveryone. The department had taken There was an item of a quarter of a The attorney-general put the trouble and superintendent of missions for cially as regards the Prince Rupert million dollars for the new courthouse down entirely to lack of room. The li- British Columbia. The evening service townsite survey, and also asked for liams referred to the New York hunt-The prices will range ried out before the representatives of precautions to keep control of who and admission is free these were issued to. This item should at Vancouver, in addition to $53,000 in brarian was a thoroughly competent of has been specially named citizen's ser- information as to several payments the people here are asked for the brarian was a thoroughly competent of-ficer and he had made frequent repre-vice, in recognition of the interest the information as to several payments made to J. H. Gray, P. L. S., of $8,185, fine so long as they had had their uncil have kindly al stand until the House had information | the supplementary estimates. money. The attorney-general was unable to it was another illustration of the truth for the library. It was hoped that in the new church. Monday evening, the use of the co Cannot Estimate Justly. as to how many Japanese had licenses. people of Nelson generally have taken $5,000 and $9,887. sport, and adovcated that the Game the city hall for the "Either the minister of finance is so The commissioner of lands submitted Act should be amended so as to senr ale will open at noon of the Times cartoons as to Billy Bow- this could be accomplished in the March Sth, a church banquet will be a statement of surveys made in 1907-8, people to whom a fine was so deterrent uninformed as to the needs of the pro say how many there were. th, and will continue "Then how do you know that only a ser's kids getting all that was going. course of a year or two, perhaps in held in the banqueting room, at which the aggregate work being the survey of vince or something has arisen since to jail for three or four weeks. he following Saturday last session which has changed the sitwere issued?" asked the member Parker Williams inquired if it was connection with the removal of the it is expected 400 will be present. Af- 362,329 acres, and the traversing of 670 opened and closed Sample Land Administration. true that the government was going museum to other quarters and the in- terwards a public meeting will be held miles, at a cost of $66,478.45. for Delta uation entirely," said the leader of the Mr. Oliver sent a letter over to the opposition a few moments later when From his officers, Mr. Bowser replied. to give the site of the present court- stallation of the library there. in the church. veys this year would be principally in desire to contribute commissioner of lands which he had a vote of $56,000 for roads in South just received. A settler had applied Vancouver and Point Grey was asked house to the city of Vancouver as a On the vote of $10,000 for the re-The special services will continue on From the man who disregarded my the northern country, the government's in any way will con. The minister of finance denied this. vision of the statutes, Mr. Oliver asked Sunday, March 14th, the preacher be-ing Rev. George W. Kirby, of the Cen-formation about all land that might n. friend's written instructions," con- gift. ither telephoning Mrs ued Mr. Oliver, "and handed over for a pre-emption at New Westminster for as supplemental to one of $50,000 Mrs. Arthur Coles he books of licenses to cannery man- In reply to Mr. Oliver he stated that petent men or have some party friend tral Methodist church, Calgary, who be available for settlement. but found that there was a previous given last session, a vote of $147.00 as y articles to the city agers, who gave them out to anyone, the site, which was a very valuable one, pocket most of the money and let oth- will speak specially to the young peopre-emption against the same land. The supplemental to $100,000 for bridges gen-One of the surveys made in the last March 4th. fiscal year was that by D. R. Harris in previous pre-emptor had not lived up erally and $26,000 as supplem would be sold and the proceeds devoters do the work. ple. ther British subject or not. The present pastor of Trinity church the laying out of the Saanich road. to the conditions and had not spent $10,000 for wharves generally. "T have This was the first he had heard of it, ed towards the cost of the new build-The attorney-general replied that are bought by weight competent men, skilled in the know- is Rev. R. Newton Powell. This was a very difficult road to more than two or three days on the | an idea that because there was an eleclay Bowser said, and the officer on the ling. n squirrels are a for their pelts.

le $5.

VICTORIA TIMES. TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1909.

