

FULL PROGRAMME FOR CELEBRATION

LIST OF ATTRACTIONS FOR BOTH THE DAYS

What Is Going to Happen in Victoria Tomorrow and Saturday—Opens at Nine A. M.

The Victoria Day celebration commences to-morrow morning, although the citizens will doubtless be out in force to-night taking in the illuminations and the performance by Nat Goodwin and Maxine Elliott. The first numbers on the programme, as will be seen by the appended programme, will be the rifle shooting competition and the competitive sports at Beacon Hill. The celebration will be concluded on Saturday night, with illumination of the city and band concerts on the streets.

Both the procession and carnival were eliminated from the programme, the committee deciding that there were enough attractions without them. The rifle shooting competition and the competitive sports at Beacon Hill. The celebration will be concluded on Saturday night, with illumination of the city and band concerts on the streets.

A glance at the programme will show that every department of sport of which the Northwest is unduly in possession. The attractions do not consist of hastily arranged events merely for the purpose of entertaining the visitors, but championship tests in which the very best of the Northwest are engaged. The rifle shooting competition and the competitive sports at Beacon Hill. The celebration will be concluded on Saturday night, with illumination of the city and band concerts on the streets.

The various transportation companies are assured of a large number of passengers to this city from the Mainland and the Sound and the cities up the E. & N. line, as well as from other portions of the Island. The celebration has been extremely well advertised on the Sound and Mainland this year—the printing committee has certainly done excellent work—and as the people across the line are a pleasure loving lot it is to be expected that they will arrive in force.
