Churchill letters, British press

- An inheritance of $7,400,000 has fallen The British press has been dealing pretty, freely with the letters of Mr. Churchill to Mr. Borden on the Navai question; and many journals are ques-tioning both his logic and his propriety. Some of them are frankly outspoken. The "Evening Standard and St. James Gazetie," of Bondon, puts it this way: In the original memorandum of October last, the British Admirally explicitly de-versioning any influence, however in-direct, on the Dominion Parliament.
