HAMPTON, Kings Co., Oct. 20.—Thanksgiving day was observed here by religious services in the churches, home gatherings and reunions, and a high tea and musical and literary entertainment in Smith's hall in the evening. The latter was in aid of the piano fund, and was under the auspices of the reading room association. The hall was set with five handsomely spread tables, at which a large company gathered and did ample justice to the various comestibles provided. These were presided over by Mrs. J. Ernest Whitaker, assisted by Mrs. George Wilson; Mrs. Philip Palmer, Mrs. Hooper, assisted by Miss M. Stewart; Mrs. Wm. Sorbiner, assisted by Mrs. R. A. March; Mrs. Geo. Lang, stroph, assisted by Mrs. Seelye. The coffee table was in charge of Mrs. R. LeB. Tweedie. Many bright young ladies served the tables with promptness and their pleasant smiles and willing responses to all demands upon them gave added zest to appetites quickened by the good things present. At half-past eight o'clock E. B. Whitaker, president of the association, took the platform, the tables were removed, the hall was arranged with settees, and the second half of the programme came on. This consisted of: Piano duet, by Mrs. Tweedie and Mrs. March; song, Asthore, Billas Barnes, reading, The Ruggles Family, Miss Margaret Evans; motion song and recitation by a dozen boys and girls, under the lead of Miss Laura Forman; solo, "Tis a Dream, by Mrs. Webb; reading, Going to the Barber, by Miss M. Evans. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. R. A. March. Later on the services of Ernest Fowler were called into action and the surplus supplies were speedily disposed of at auction.

It is understood that R. C. Hubley, principal of the school at the station, has offered his services to go to South Africa with the Canadian contingent. It is said that Fred M. Sproul is to take charge of the school on Monday next.

ery at Andover, with skimming stations in different parts of the county, was thoroughly discussed. Mr. Tilley of the department of agriculture gave detailed information about the establishment and working of creameries and skimming stations. Councillor Judson Manzer stated that if the farmers of the county would guarantee the milk of 800 cows, he would build a creamery and skimming stations and would guarantee to pay the same price for cream that other factories are paying. After careful consideration of the subject, a committee consisting of Donald Janis, David Curry and Gilbert Orrey were appointed to have petitions circulated to ascertain the number of cows available for that purpose, and report in four weeks.

The parish elections resulted in the return of Judson C. Manzer and Wm. H. Spinks, Mr. Howlette of Bardsville being defeated.

Mr. Manzer has moved into the village and occupies Rev. C. Henderson's house, which was vacated by Rev. Mr. Bedell, who has moved into the lower flat of his father's house, which had been renovated for that purpose.
