

RULE WITH RESPECT TO DEPOSITORS.

Deposits.—All Deposits of not less than One Shilling made by any person shall, as soon as they amount to Twenty Shillings, be considered as a Deposit to the amount of the aggregate sum deposited, from the period when the last sum constituting such aggregate was deposited. The Deposits to bear interest at three per cent., but no interest will be allowed on sums less than a pound, nor for Deposits under six months, the six months to commence from the first day of the month ensuing the receipt. The interest due on deposits on the last day of December in each year, to be carried to the credit of the Depositor, and the balance carried to a new account, and to be regarded as a deposit made on that day.—The Bank is at liberty to return or reject the deposits of any person or persons, and to decline receiving any deposits exceeding One Hundred and Fifty Pounds, subject to the payment of interest thereon when it shall be deemed expedient so to do. And no sum exceeding £100 shall be received from any depositor, but on condition that the same shall not be withdrawn except upon a notice ending at two months from the date thereof, or upon forfeiture of two months interest thereon, if at the request of such Depositor the Directors consent to pay the same without requiring such notice.—Third Rule of Newfoundland Savings' Bank.
