

diligent and rendered very essential service but I am unable to state the extent of the remuneration which he received or that he sustained any damage in property while engaged in His Majesty's Service -

He accompanied the Troops under Col.
 Morrison from Prescott and was as I have understood in the Action at Caylers' Farm where he states he was wounded -

Since the War several Actions were instituted against him on one of which he was arrested and confined in the Jail at Cornwall for several months but whether these Actions arose from any thing which had occurred during the War I am wholly unable to say -

The Petitioner's circumstances are now extremely indigent and from age and infirmities I believe he is incapable
