Women Leaders Hail Johnsons Appointment Of Mrs. Freeman

WASHINGTON — Women leaders from all parts of the country joined in praising President Lyndon B. Johnson this week for his nomination of Mrs. Frankie Muse Freeman of St. Louis, Missouri, as a member of the United States Civil Rights Commission. Mrs. Freeman is a distinguished lawyer who has won national attention for her activity in civil rights cases. In 1956 she accepted her present position. Associate General Counsel for the St. Louis Housing and Land Clearance Authority.

In Los Angeles, Dr. Geraldine Woods, president of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, wired the President thanks on behalf of the sorority. Mrs. Freeman is the first national vice-president of the Deltas.

Dr. Woods said, "We are proud and pleased to hear of her appointment and have extended our congratulations to the President of the United States. We feel that Mrs. Freeman is eminently qualified for the position and will serve her country with distinction. We are especially pleased to have women who can make a contribution recognized."

At Baton Rouge, La., 658 women from all the parishes of the state were gathered for a Status of Women's Conference sponsored by the Southern University Women's Club, with Dr. Edmonia Davidson as chairman, rose to their feet and applauded when Dr. Grace Hewell interrupted her speech to make the announcement that President Johnson had just named Mrs. Freeman to the Civil Rights Commission. Dr. Hewell is a consultant on Education in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

LONDON NOTES...

Sunday, Feb. 9th Bethemannual Church, Grey Street, celebrated its 114th Anniversary. Rev. W. Clarke, pastor, took charge of the afternoon service. We were honored with greetings brought from the Council of Churches by Rev. J. M. Pollock. Letter of Greetings from the City Council was read. Mr. F. Maine was the guest speaker who spoke on the first church and the need of a church.

Mrs. Eveilyn Johnson gave a paper on the History of the Church, telling how it was first established in London, Ontario on Thames Street and the names of the founders which was very interesting to hear.

Music was supplied by two choirs, the Oneida United Church and Pilgrim United. Miss Bernice Fountaine, and Mr. John Stevens rendered solos. Mr. Wm. Turner assisted by Mr. K. Druant and Mr. Labertie lifted the offering. The church was filled to capacity. Luncheon was served in the Sunday School room by members of the Community Family Choir.

Sunday, March 15th, the family and friends of the late Mrs. Mary Drake held a Memorial Service at the 11 o'clock service. The choir from Brantford, assisted with solos and various numbers. Rev. Clarke conducted the service. On conducted the service.

On Good Friday, March 27, service will be held from 1 to 3 o'clock. The pastor will speak on the Seven Last Words. On the following Easter Sunday morning at 7 o'clock a Sunrise Service will be held followed by breakfast served by the Community Family Club and Missionaries.

On 7th April, Thursday, a Maggie and Jiggs supper will be held in the Sunday school room at 5 o'clock. Come dine with us. Price 98c.

Mrs. M. Harris is visiting with friends and her daughter in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Elsie Brooks has returned to the city to take up her residence with Mrs. A. Hill.

On Saturday evening, Mar. 7 the family of Mrs. Margaret Morley, Phillip Street, gathered at her home to wish her a Happy birthday.

On Sunday, March 8, the family of Mrs. C. Howson gave a surprise dinner in honor of her birthday. Four generations were present. 32 sat down to dine.

Miss Jannette Prince from Antigua, British West Indies, has taken a position as a nurse in Victoria Hospital and making her home at present with Mrs. C. Howson.

Lots of people know a good thing the minute another fellow sees it.
