Says God Needed To Solve Problem

"Chicago is a racial tinderbox", Evangelist Billy Graham told 33,500 persons as he opened his famed Crusade for Christ in McCormick place.

Admitting that the problem cannot be legislated away, he declared that the answer lies at the foot of the cross and in people's love for God.

At the same time that there is a rising tide of greed, lust, hatred, prejudice and war there has never been a time when there was more humanitarian effort, more good will and more interest in religion and social justice than there is today, the Evangelist commented.

"With a new nature and a new heart which God gives, there can be a new attitude toward the race problem, marital difficulties, poverty and all the great social and moral problems faced by the human race."

After being told that here in Chicago there are thousands who are trying to escape realities of life through alcohol, barbiturates, amusements materialism and even suicide, some 532 persons in the audience Wednesday, stepped forward to make "decisions for Christ."

Graham's invitation to "repent, and by faith receive Christ," was made as he finished a 50 minute sermon.

Services will continue nightly through June 16 and conclude June 17 in Soldier Field.

In regard to the matter of race, Dr. Graham on his arrival in Chicago on the same plane as Dr. Martin Luther King, famed integrationist leader, pointed out that his crusades "were racially integrated before the Supreme Courts school desegregation decision of 1954."

He added, "Dr. King told me several times that our stand on desegregation had helped him immensely in his work."

Dr. King, who liked Dr. Graham came to the city from Miami, that evening addressed a civic group in the Sheraton-Blackstone. He urged Negroes to prepare themselves to meet the challenge of the oncoming times.

Dr. King also held a confab with ministers of all denominations during which a huge fall rally was planned here.

In his sermon, Dr. Graham stated that the most final and serious welfare being fought today is not in Laos, Algeria, or at the Berlin Wall, but in the realm of the spirit.

"Our only weapons are spiritual. Jesus said, 'Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.' Graham said.

The big game hunter had been relating his experiences at a nauseum.

"While wandering around a native village," he droned on, "I spotted a leopard."

"Don't be silly," commented a bored listener. "They grow that way."
