CANADIAN LEAGUE HAS ANNIVERSARY

The Canadian League for the Advancement of Colored People held their Annual Anniversary in the British Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday evening.

The President, Mr. Walter Cromwell, gave an address of welcome to the speakers for the evening, Mayor Wenight, Judge Wearing and Mr. John Gunn.

Mr. Wm. Myers and Mr. Wm. Berry, who acted as chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Berry, who sang 'The Rosary.'

Reports of the work of the League were omitted until a later date. Mr. Parkwood, editor of The Free Lance, published in Montreal spoke in the interests of his publication.

Mr. Berry received a telegram of regret of absence from the pastor, Rev. Jackson and family who were called suddenly to Toronto where his father passed away.

LOSES LIFE AT HIS FIRST JOB

It was indeed a great shock to the colored community of Toronto and elsewhere to learn of the tragic death of Norman Matthews, a talented young man and sole support of his mother and brothers Paul and Clifford, living at No. 2 Sullivan Street, Toronto, Ont., who lost his life on his first job on the Great Lakes aboard the steamer Franz.

It is also learned that that veteran of the lakes, Steward Hugh Woodbeck, of Owen Sound, also colored, lost his life likewise when the boat they were on was struck by the Loomis.

STAY GRANTED SCOTTSBORO BOYS

NEW YORK — A stay of execution for Haywood (Patterson and Clarence Norris, Scottsboro boys, to February 8, 1935, was granted by the Alabama Supreme Court on Friday, November 16 upon application made by Osmond Fraenkel, attorney in charge of the Appeals to the U. S. Supreme Court, retained by the International Labor Defense.

The application was made to give the U.S. Supreme Court the opportunity to pass upon the application for review of the cases.

Within a few days application for a writ of certiorari in these cases will be filed with the Supreme Court together with the accompanying briefs by Mr. Fraenkel. These papers have been prepared with the assistance of Mr. Walter Pollak, noted constitutional attorney.

PHILIPINOS REPLACING NEGRO DINING CAR HELP

NEW YORK — (By Associated Negro Press)—Filipinos no longer threaten colored dining car cooks and waiters. They are now the dining car Negroes' great menace—a menace potential and looming. Besides, they are menacing the not inconsiderable number of white cooks, too. And when it is recalled that Negro cooks' payroll on one railroad, the Pennsylvania, is approximately $300,000.00 a year $25,000.00 a month what the Filipino menace means can be readily apprehended by all.

Aside from "making good" at it however, these little brown Malayan extractions have had no part in the process or supplanting cooks and waiters.

In his action against the warden of the county camps, Williams related that he was sent to the chain gang November 12, 1925 to serve a life sentence for murder, but he never had a trial, stating forth that another, James Williams was sentenced November 12, 1925
