

THE DAWN OF TO-MORROW

TORONTO NOTES

Many friends of Mrs. Harold Jackson, are pleased at her return home from St. Michael's Hospital, where she was a patient.

We extend heartiest congratulations to Miss Juliana Onwu of Nigeria, who recently graduated as Registered Nurse from St. Michael's Hospital, and plans to do post-graduate work in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sadleir are in line for congratulations. They were recalling their twelfth wedding anniversary when the stork dropped by and left a fine baby girl, "Rosemary Jean."

Mr. George Woodbeck is receiving congratulations for his lucky quiz when he was fortunate enough to win approximately $100 worth of merchandise.

Mr. Lewis Taylor of Windsor, was a recent visitor in the city, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart.

Week end visitors in the city who came from Windsor to attend Dr. Stewart's graduation, were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, his sisters, Mrs. Otho Wells, Miss Helen Stewart and Mrs. James Stewart.

Mr. Auburn Trotman and sister, Miss Mavis and party, spent the week end in Buffalo visiting friends.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Perry, presiding Elder of the A.M.E. Church in Canada, has returned home from Chatham, where he directed the district conference.

Rev. George E. Crawford of Brantford, was a recent visitor in the city. Rev. Crawford is a member of the financial board of the B.M.E. Church connexion.

Rev. T. H. H. Jackson, General Superintendent of the B.M.E. Church connexion and Rev. A. S. Markham, visited the Church at Woodstock recently.

Mr. George Boyce is in line for congratulations. He has completed his work at Toronto Bible College. Mr. Boyce and his brother Seymour have given splendid assistance to Rev. Gonsalves at First Baptist Church during their student days.

The many friends of Rev. Gonsalves will be pleased to know that he is progressing favourably after his serious illness and has returned home from hospital.

Toronto Negro Choral Society were guest artists on the program at Woodgreen United Church. Colyn Trotman and Evert Ferguson acted as soloists.

Mr. Auburn Trotman and orchestra filled an engagement in St. Catharines recently. They also appeared on the programme at University Settlement House closing exercises.

We are pleased to report that Miss Bobby Reynolds of San Bernardo, California, who is attending the University of Toronto, has accepted a position with the Bell Telephone Co. for the duration of the holidays. Congratulations.

We are very pleased to report that Mrs. Rosetta Richardson has recovered nicely from her recent illness.

Miss Marguerite Jackson presented her primary music group in a piano recital at Home Service Association, where she has charge of that department.

Mr. Leonard O. Johnson, who was a recent visitor in Montreal has returned home.

Mrs. H. A. Nelson who was a recent visitor in Montreal, has returned home.

Walter Eze, Esq. M.A., B.A., graduated from the University of Toronto. Please accept our heartiest congratulations on attaining your Master of Arts degree. Mr. Eze's home is in Nigeria and he intends to study medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Grant Hackley, were week end guests in Chatham where they attended the A.M.E. Church District conference. Mr. Hackley is chairman of the Board of Directors of Home Service Community Centre.

Following the evening service at the A.M.E. Church recently, a very interesting hour was spent as Rev. Dr. Perry, the pastor, Rev. W. J. Daniel and Mr. Grant Hackley, the delegate from the local church, gave a review of the procedure of the General Conference, held in Chicago in May.

The many friends of the late Mr. Park O. Bellamy, regret his passing away at his home, 260 Bellwoods Ave. His illness of long duration, was borne with Christian fortitude until called to his reward on Friday, May 30.

Funeral service was conducted on Tuesday, June 3, the Rev. W. J. Daniel presiding. Interment was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife, four daughters and one son.

The following members of Grant A.M.E. Church attended the General Conference which convened in Chicago in May: Rev. and Mrs. Perry, Rev. and Mrs. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hackley, Mrs. Elizabeth Hackley, Mrs. Bertha Thomas, Mrs. A. W. Hackley. We understand the General Conference is the largest colored organization in the world.

Many friends attended convocation at the University of Toronto to extend felicitations to Dr. Ralph Stewart graduating in dentistry. Dr. Stewart and his charming wife came here from Windsor when he entered University; and have endeared themselves to all whom they came in contact. They are active in community and Church work.

At one time he considered crossing the border to practice. We are happy to announce that he is now located in the office building at 264 College St. and wish him many years of successful practice.

Reuben C. Udokwu, Esq. Ph.D., is the recipient of heartiest congratulations on attaining the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Toronto. Dr. Udokwu, a native of Nigeria, entered school here two years ago. He has taken a keen interest in Canadian life. He was a columnist in "Africa Speaks." Many of us read his articles from time to time with interest.

Many friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Gaines, who had been a patient sufferer for a number of years. A member of one of Toronto's oldest families, she was the younger daughter of the Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson. Born and educated here, she was a member of St. Bartholomews Anglican Church, where the funeral was conducted with interment at Prospect Cemetery.

Mr. Bruce Mickleburgh, publicity agent of the Canadian Peace Congress, tells me of meeting two very active colored men in the world labor movement.

The first, Mr. Desmond Buckle, is from South Africa, trade unionist. He is exiled from home temporarily. He is forty years old, working with the World Federation of Trade Unions at present. He talks English, Swahili and Afrikaander. He met him in Vienna, Austria.

The second, Mr. C. Ferdinand Smith, was an organizer for the National Maritime Union. He is working for the World Federation of Trade Unions. He is 44 years old and his nationality is Jamaican.
