LONDON NEWS

Tag Day in London

The Tag Day in London for 1937 turned out very successfully. Although the weather was unsatisfactory for a tag day, the tagger stuck to their posts, bringing in $162.00. Taggers were from Toronto and London.

Miss Rachel Gardner is still suffering from severe acid burns on her foot received while working in the Hotel London.

B.M.E. Church has New Pastor

The London congregation of the B.M.E. Church of London welcome Rev. Johnson former pastor of B.M.E. Church, Buxton. Mr. Johnson has already taken definite steps in his program in regard to the church work, making the young people of the church his main aim. A program under the leadership of Miss B. Fountaine will be put on in the near future. Rev. Johnson is repairing the parsonage and asks for the voluntary help of all unemployed men.

Windsor Choir Visits London

The Windsor Choir of the B.M.E. Church of Windsor, and pastor Rev. T. H. Jackson were visitors of the London Gospel Tabernacle on Sunday. The choir rendered very inspiring songs under the direction of Mr. C. Ball. Rev. Jackson, formerly pastor of the B.M.E. Church in London took over the services for the evening.

The Missionaire held their annual "Sunday." The young men's quartette sang several numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Jr. sang a duet, and the guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Westley Fountaine who spoke briefly on the work of the missionaries. Rev. concluded the programme by giving a sermonette.

The young men's quartette were guests of Hope Church of London, on Sunday. They sang old time spirituals and will make another visit to the Hops Church in the near future.
