A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

by The Reverend Winston H. H. Clarke

Minister of Bethemanuel Church
London, Ontario

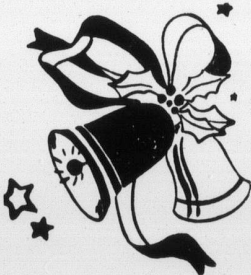

"A CALL TO GOODWILL AMONG MANKIND"
—St. Luke, second chapter, fourteenth verse: Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, goodwill toward men.

Over forty-five years we have experienced much fear and doubt, that goodwill among men has been a word not seriously considered, this failure on our part has led us into many divergencies. The basis for peace must rest on the principle of goodwill among men, and should not be taken lightly or inadvisedly. We are bound to admit that some men have power, while others lack it. We habitually attribute power to native talent or to education or to an individual high station in an affluent society, all of these are important, of course!

It has now become commonplace in our society to see men develop power far out of proportion to their human need for power. Many of the world's most gifted sons do not accomplish a great deal, while many of those far less gifted, come slowly into power that seems akin to a great natural force.

If we feverishly prepare for the celebration of Christmas, no greater call is more urgent than a clarion call to all men and nations to think on the tremendous power that can be developed and obtained through the practice of "goodwill", not only at Christmas but throughout all the year. Let us celebrate this Christmas in true christian tribute to His first coming. He ushered into this world a new plan for goodwill among men, for He lived a life of gentleness of spirit, in the beatitude He stated: Happy are the poor in spirit, for their's is the kingdom of Heaven. Our duty this Christmas is to realize that every beatitude is the promise of happiness to those who have ceased to make demands on life and so are open to its spiritual enrichments.

May the angelic voices again sound their vibrant and joyous call: Glory to God in the Highest, and on Earth, Peace and Goodwill To All the nations of the earth.
