LONDON NOTES

The Church services at Bethemanuel Church is carrying on its activities under the guidance of Dea-coness S. Johnson.

On Sunday, Oct. 14th a pew rally was sponsored by the Progressive Club to raise extra funds for the Church. During the service, Rev.
E. Richardson was the speaker.

Plans are being made for the Annual Southern dinner which will take place during the month of November.

Mr. Chas. Bell is still confined in Victoria Hospital. His heart condition shows improvement.

To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson in Victoria Hospital, a son, George Dennis. Both baby and mother are doing nicely.

Congratulations are being received by Frank R. Anderson who has received recognition in athletic activities this year. He was recently presented with a shield from the Midgets Baseball Association.

Miss Betty Duncan has joined the Naval Reserve for girls.

Misses June Anderson and Elnora Molatt visited in Belle View over the week end as guest of Mrs. E. Walls.

On Sunday, October 21st Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Berry quietly celebrated their 37th anniversary. Mr. Berry many came to the celebration.

Mr. James Coursey who has been quite ill in his home is able to be about again. His brother John Coursey is reported quite ill at his home on Grey Street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones of Windsor were guests in the city during the week end.

Miss Vera Duncan from Cayuga was the guest of Miss Christine Jenkins over the week end.

Barry Howson was a very lucky boy when Mayor Allan Rush drew his name at the Savoy Theatre. He became the winner of a new C.C.M. bicycle in a draw sponsored by Hamilton Road Business Men's Association.

Mrs. F. Howson reports a wonderful trip upon her return from New York City where she and Mrs. J.
Davis from Toronto attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Petgrave.

Mr. James Brooks, son and mother visited with friends in Toronto during the week end.

Mr. Walter Clark from Toronto visited in the city with his brother Eddie and friends.

On Tuesday, October 15, friends of Mrs. M. Harris, gathered about her it being her 72nd birthday. Mrs.
M. Collins and Mrs. M. Brooke from Appin decided the weather being so nice an outing or picnic would solve the situation so accompanied with Mrs. M. Sands from Detroit went to Port Stanley. There they spread a table fit for a queen in honour of their friend's birthday, who thanked them graciously in her timid way for remembering her on such an occasion. Mrs. Harris received many beautiful and useful gifts. We also wish her many more happy birthdays to come.

Word has been received that Mr.
Stanley Anderson of this city has arrived safely in Hawaiian Isles.

No one but you...

You'd want to take her in your arms when she smiles... or cuddles her doll... or says, "Hello, Daddy," or "Mommy, I love you."

But she doesn't smile much any more, and she doesn't have a Daddy or a Mommy to hug her.

Why? She doesn't know. She doesn't understand things like illness, or marital strain, or death. She only knows that suddenly she's alone.

Only you can wipe away her tears. Only you, through your Red Feather dollars, can bring comfort, care and love to her and the other kids like her in our town.
Remember her when you make your Red Feather pledge this year. It's the only way you can tell her not to worry... that you will help.

Let's all join hands
