NAACP BIDS COURT RETURN CHILD TO INTERRACIAL PAIR

New York, Oct. 4 — The fight of a mother and a grandmother over custody of a six-year-old girl shaped up as an important civil rights case this week, as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People filed a brief as friend of the court in the appeal of Mrs.
Anne Strasser DeCarava for reversal of a lower court's order taking her child away from its mother and Negro stepfather.

The child's grandmother, Mrs.
Mollie Portnoy, won custody by charging that the girl was neglected because (1) her mother sent her to nursery school instead of caring for her personally; (2) the mother engaged in "Communist" activity three years ago; (3) the child would not receive a proper education as a Jewish child; and (4) she would be forced to live with "undesirable" people in an "undesirable" neighborhood.

After careful investigation of the record in the case, NAACP attorneys indicated that the "Communist" allegations were uncorroborated, and charged that the only basis for the court's decision was that the mother's second husband, Roy DeCarava, is a Negro and that the family lives in an interracial neighborhood.

Asserting that the child lived happily with her mother and step-father the NAACP maintains that "by taking away custody of her child, the Court takes away the liberty of the family to exist as a unit and punishes efforts at interracial harmony and democratic living."

GRID GIANTS RENOUNCE JIM-CROW DEALS

The New York Giants have done a complete about face in their future bookings for the grid arm of their sports empire.

According to Wellington Mara, acting administrative head of the football team, "The Giants will not accept any further bookings in the South under those conditions." Those conditions refer to the barring of Negro players from participation with their team mates in major league exhibitions in certain cities.

The Giant team management was revealed by the Amsterdam News to have accepted daddies in Memphis and Birmingham on their recent Southern trip, with the full knowledge that their Negro players would be humiliated and embarrassed by not being permitted to pursue their normal team relationships.

Not alone were Emien Tunnell and Stonewall Jackson denied their normal right to play with the team in the game, they were not even permitted to be on the field with them. The men had to sit in the jimmie stands in a spineless surrender by their manager and coach to the dictates of the Dixiecrat-minded local officialdom in the two cities.

According to Mr. Mara's indirect admission (by refusing an answer to questions put to him, that is) the Giant management neither protested nor took any other action against the inhuman insult to their players.

Now we are told there has been a change of heart and policy. The Giant football powers that be will never again meekly submit
