WINDSOR NEWS

The annual public event of the Youthful Art Club took place at the Patterson Collegiate Friday evening, Nov. 23 in the presentation of the three-act comedy "Girl-Shy." A very favourable crowd was present to witness the humorous incidents in the life of Tom Arsdale as he underwent the steps from a girl-shy boy the fiancée of one, Babara Sanford, who it appeared was not quite up to the standard of Tom's dad's choice for a daughter-in-law, who happens to be Sylvia Webster. Lloyd Lawson as Tom and Everett Ball as Oke Stimson, the playboy friend of Tom serve to keep things alive. While it appears Sylvia and Babs will at any moment fly at each other, Asma and Berdie are more amiable as played by Velma Browning and Annie Chatters. Cecil Craven and Roy Dungy as the old maid and the father are more or less in their natural role and Lyle Talbot as the Dean who is fond of the old maid is very amusing. Of course, Dorothy Ball as Oke's girl friend knows all about the tricks of Babs, but neither Henry Allen as Chuck Mayo or Annabelle Shreve as Sylvia can figure any of it out, for Gladys Talbot as Babs has them fooled. And Grant Talbot as Alfred Tennyson Murgatoyd is poet superbly in name. In all it was a very good plot and well acted.

The sixtieth birthday of Rev. J. C. Browning, of Chatham Township was celebrated at a British Methodist Episcopal church with a very delectable banquet prepared and sponsored by the Usher Board. More than fifty of the friends and relatives of the family were in attendance and enjoyed a very splendid program including numbers by Miss J. Woodcock, Mrs. Ona Richardson and words of congratulation by Rev. Plummer, B. M. E. Church; Rev. Woodcock; Rev. H. L. Talbot, First Baptist Church and Joseph Smith, a very old friend. The 60 candles were lit by Velma Browning, the second oldest of thirty-seven grandchildren, of eight children. Rev. Mr. Browning has been a resident of Chatham Township since Nov. 18, 1870, and is well known throughout Ontario.

Eight of the Scott Sisters, who are part of a family of sixteen formerly resident at Puce, Ont. rendered an enjoyable musical programme in the Walkerville Baptist Church, Tuesday, Nov. 27 before a large and appreciative audience.

The B. M. E. Church choir were featured jointly with the still pictures of "Green Pastures" in the Westminster Church, on Tecumseh Road, Friday, Nov. 30. The stills were beautiful and impressive, emphasized by the incidental music by the choir, directed by Mr. Charles Ball, chorister.

Miss G. V. T. served the Y. A. C. with a very delightful repast of cookies, jello and whipped cream after session. And was it good.

Mrs. Christian is slowly recovering from a very serious illness.
