

Hand-Sewn Gifts Are Christmas Tree Treasures!

Start now
with needle
and thread to solve many of your Christmas gift
problems. Simpson's Fabric Department has lovely weaves and colors in fabrics suitable for gift sewing Beautiful hand-mades... lingerie, blouses, dressing gowns, children's outfits, stuffed toys... make them now with fabrics from

THE END AN

Almost 15 years ago
—The Legionary pub-entitled "Canada's described in consid-
life of William Edwa-
blooded Negro from Valley in Nova Scot-
won the Victoria Cr-
ing as an Able Seaman brigade composed of
men from H.M.S. "S"
during the Indian
went inland from Cticipated in the rel-

After outlining the
on November 14, 1885
won the V.C., The
on to describe how Victoria Cross winner Navy in 1880 and
native province where himself to farming and in August, 1904, at

As a result of this
this article considered aroused among Leg-
Nova Scotia as to Hall was buried. In Provincial Secretary
Scotia Command—
Major Alistair Mac-
able to inform the
a search party had hidden away and
grown with brambles
dones rural cemetery
port. The Nova Scotsaid, would endeavor
mission from the
ities to have the
and reburied in a
and also have a
erected over the grave

After many del-
ment arrangements
and reburial took place
but the outbreak of War caused the mem-postponed. On however, at an in-
at Hantsport con-County Branch of
gion, a memorial
memory of the monument, built of carries a replica of
and a bronze plaque
ple details of the death. It stands
the churchyard of Church, which he his life-time. The formally presented
Hants Co. Branch
the purpose of
carry out their work
Town of Hantsport
to give the grave

The unveiling
formed by Rear-Taylor, C.B.E., of
mand of the Royal
A navy guard of together with the Navy band from moving ceremony
a large gathering
gion members
out this part of
ing the William of Halifax, which
tirely of colour