The Acadia Athenæum is published monthly throughout the college year by the students of Acadia University.

The Aim of the Athenæum is to preserve the best literary work of Acadia undergraduates and alumni, to serve as a medium of communication between alumni and undergraduates, and to serve as a record of the life of the college.

Terms: One dollar per year, in advance. Extra copies to subscribers, ten cents; to others, fifteen cents.

All business communications should be addressed to the Business Manager.

Concerning all other matters address the Editor.

Subscribers changing their addresses will kindly notify the Business Manager, that they may receive their paper promptly.

Subscriptions are acknowledged in the ATHENÆUM as soon as possible after receipt.

The Athenæum is on sale at Rockwell's Book Store, Wolfville.

Editorial and Business Office, 23 Chipman Hall.
