Legislative Council may search Journals.

RULES OF THE HOUSE.

30.

That the Rules of the House shall be observed in a Committee of the whole House, so far as they may be applicable, except the Rule limiting the number of times of speaking.

Rules how applied in Committees of the Whole.

31.

Unprovided cases.

That in all unprovided cases, resort shall be had to the Rules, Usages and Forms of Parliament, which shall be followed, until this House shall think fit to make a Rule applicable to such unprovided cases.

DIVISION OF THE HOUSE.

32.

Names when to be taken.

That upon a Division in the House, the names of those who vote for, and of those who vote against the question, shall be entered upon the Minutes, if two Members require it.

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS.

33.

Motion to adjourn.

That a motion to adjourn shall always be in order : Provided that no second motion to the same effect shall be made until after some intermediate proceeding may be had.

34.

Motion that the Chairman leave the Chair.

That a motion that the Chairman leave the chair, shall always be in order, and shall take place of any other motion.

35.

That no motion for leave to present any Bill, Resolution, or Address, or for the appointment of any Committee, shall be made until at least two days' notice thereof shall have been given,—all such notices to be laid on the Table before 5 o'clock, and to be printed with the Proceedings of the day.

Two days' notice of all motions to be given.

That no motion shall be debated or put, unless the same be in writing, and seconded. When a motion is seconded, it shall be read in English and in French by the Speaker, if he is master of both languages; if not, the Speaker shall read in either of the two languages most familiar to him, and the reading in the other language shall be at the table, by the Clerk or his Deputy, before debate.

Motions how made: how read.

37.

That after a motion is read by the Speaker, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House; but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment, with permission of the House.

Motion not to be withdrawn without leave.

38. .

Motions on questions under debate.

That when a question is under debate, no motion shall be received unless to amend it, or commit it, or to postpone it to a certain day, or for the previous question, or for adjournment.

39.

45.

That if any motion be made in this House Motions concerning Aid and Supply. for any Public Aid, Subsidy, Duty or Charge upon the people, the consideration and debate thereof shall not presently be entered upon, but shall be adjourned till such further day as the House shall think fit to appoint; and then it shall be referred to a Committee of the whole House, and their opinion be reported, before any Resolution or Vote of the House do pass thereupon.

Rights of the House touching Aids and Supplies.

That all Aids and Supplies granted to Her Majesty by the Legislature of Canada, are the sole gift of the Assembly of this Province, and all Bills for granting such Aids and Supplies ought to begin with the Assembly, as it is the undoubted right of the Assembly to direct, limit, and appoint in all such Bills, the ends, purposes, considerations, conditions, limitations and qualifications of such Grants, which are not alterable by the Legislative Council.

47.

Its strict rights waived in certain cases.

That in order to expedite the business of the Legislature, the House should not insist on the privilege claimed and exercised by them, of laying aside Bills sent from the Legislative Council because they impose pecuniary penalties; not of laying aside amendments made by the Legislative Council because they introduce into or alter pecuniary penalties in Bills sent to them by this House ; provided that all such penalties thereby imposed, are only to punish or prevent crimes and offences, and do not tend to lay a burden on the subject, either as Aid or Supply to Her Majesty, or for any general or special purposes, by Rates, Tolls, Assessments or otherwise.

PUBLIC BILLS.

That every Public Bill shall be introduced Mode of introducing Bills. by a motion for leave, specifying the title of the Bill, or by a motion to appoint a Committee to prepare and bring it in, or by an Order of the House on the Report of a Committee.

III. That the Clerk of this House be directed to lay on the Speaker's table, every morning, previous to the meeting of the House, the order of the proceedings for the day; and that a copy of the same be hung up in the lobby, for the information of Members.

Permanent Officers to complete the work.

IV. That it shall be the duty of the Officers of this House (including the Clerk and Clerk Assistant) to complete and finish the work remaining at the close of each Session.

Printing and distribution of Journals.

V. That 1500 copies be printed of the Journals of this House, with the Appendix thereto, after every Session, to be disposed of as follows;

Three copies to each Member.

One copy to each of the Members of the Legislative Council.

Six Copies to His Excellency the Governor ^{Journals.}
General.

Three copies in English, and two in French,
to the Library of the Legislature.

One copy each, to the Governors, Legislative Councils, and Assemblies of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, Prince Edward's Island, the Island of Jamaica, and Island of Bermuda, and such other Legislatures (Provincial or Foreign) as may be willing to furnish copies of their own Journals in return.

Two copies to the Colonial Department.

Three copies to the Library of the House of Commons.

Three copies to the Library of the House of Lords.

Six copies to the Clerk's Office, for the use of this House.

One copy to each of the Judges of the Courts of Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, and District Courts in Upper Canada,
—and to each of the Judges of the Court of Queen's Bench, Superior Court, District and Circuit Courts of Lower Canada.

One copy to each incorporated University or College, and to each Law Library in the Province, as the Speaker may direct.

One copy to each Municipal Council in Upper Canada, and pending the establishment of the said Councils in Lower Canada, an equal number to be distributed in the several Townships and Parishes therein under the direction of the Clerk.

Clerk to have control over the Clerks and Servants.

VI. That the Clerk of this House be held responsible for the safe keeping of all the Papers and Records of this House, and have the direction and control over all the Clerks and Servants employed in the Office, subject to such orders as he may, from time to time, receive from Mr. Speaker and the House.

Payment of witnesses.

VII. That the Clerk of this House be authorised to pay out of the Contingent fund to witnesses summoned to attend before any Select Committee of the House, the sum of ten shillings per diem, during their attendance, and a reasonable allowance for travelling expenses, upon any certificate or order of the Chairman of the Committee before which such witnesses have been summoned ; but no witness shall be so paid, unless a certificate shall first have been fyled with the Chairman of such Committee, by some member thereof, stating that the evidence to be obtained from such witness is, in his opinion, material and important ; and no such payment shall be made in any case, without the authority of the Standing Committee on Contingencies, which shall be signified by the endorsement of the Chairman thereof upon the aforesaid certificate: and when any witness shall have been in attendance during three days, if his presence is still further required, recourse shall again be had to the Contingent Committee, and so on every three days ; and no witness residing at the Seat of Government shall be paid for his attendance.

VIII. That all Bills and Documents submitted for the consideration of the House, be printed in each of the English and French languages, in equal proportion, unless otherwise directed.

All documents to be printed in English and French.

No allowance for travelling expenses.

IX. That no allowance will in future be made to any person in the employ of this House, who may not reside at the Seat of Government, for travelling expenses in coming to attend his duties.

Members to present Reports
in their places.

X. That members of this House be permitted to make Reports from Standing and Select Committees of which they may be Chairmen, standing in their places, and without proceeding to the Bar of the House.

Sessional Printing.

XI. That no work be paid for at the rate of Sessional Printing which is not delivered to the House during the Session; and that any work not so delivered shall be paid for at the rate allowed for the printing of the Journals and Appendix.

Sessional Printing.

XII. That the contractors for the Sessional Printing shall be entitled to perform such work as is delivered to them during the Session, and that no portion of the work intended to form part of the Appendix shall be so delivered unless it appears to the Clerk of the House that it can be executed during the Session.

XIII. That in case extra copies of any portion of the Appendix which cannot be delivered during the Session, be required, the same shall be furnished by the contractors for the Appendix at their contract price.

Extra copies of documents in Appendix.

XIV. That all Orders of the Day for the third reading of Bills shall take precedence of all other Orders for the same day, except only of such of the said other Orders as may have been given precedence by special order of the House.

Third reading of Bills.

XV. That all documents presented to this House, whether in accordance with Addresses or otherwise, be referred to the Standing Committee on Printing, in order that the said Committee may report from time to time whether in their opinion it is expedient that such documents should be printed in the Appendix to the Journals; and that such Reports should contain an estimate of the cost of printing each document.

All documents referred to the Printing Committee.

XVI. That it shall be the duty of the Clerk to make and cause to be printed, and

Lists of Annual Reports and Statements to be made each Session.

delivered to each Member, at the commencement of every Session of the Legislature, a list of the Reports or other periodical Statements which it is the duty of any Officer or Department of the Government, or any Bank or other Corporate Body, to make to the Legislative Assembly, referring to the Act or Resolution, and page of the volume of the Laws or Journals in which it may be contained; and placing under the name of each Officer or Corporation a List of Reports or Returns required of him or it to be made, and the time when the Report or periodical Statement may be expected.

Form and size of Printed Journals.

XVII. That in future, the Journals and Appendices as also Sessional Papers (Bills excepted,) be printed in Royal Octavo form, of the size of the Report on Trade and Navigation for 1851, with new small pica type, without marginal notes, and with but two blank lines between the page heading and reading matter. The Yeas and Nays in the Journals to be in long primer, in four columns.

XVIII. That no Bill be introduced into the House, either in blank or only in part completed.

No Bills to be presented in blank.

XIX. That all Letters, Correspondence, and Papers, forwarded by Members, and chargeable against the Contingencies of the House, do pass through the office thereof.

Postage of Members.

XX. That the Clerk shall not engage nor put on pay, at the outset of a Session, any more extra writers than may be necessary for the time being, taking on others as the increase of business may require.

Employment of extra writers.

XXI. That all Petitions for Private or Local Bills, which may from time to time be received by the House, be taken into consideration (without a special reference) by the Committee on Standing Orders, (or such other Committee as may be appointed for the purpose,) who shall report in each case whether the provisions of the 62nd and 63rd Rules, with regard to the publication of notice, have been complied with.

Petitions for Private Bills to be reported on by Committee on Standing Orders.

Reception of printed petitions.

XXII. That this House will not, in future, refuse to receive Petitions on account of the same being printed, provided there are at least three genuine signatures upon the same printed sheet.

Fee to Sergeant-at-Arms.

XXIII. That no person who shall have been committed, by order of this House, to the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms, be released from such custody until he shall have paid a Fee of One Pound to the Sergeant-at-Arms.
