ANNUAL HARVEST FESTIVAL BELLEISLE

Stirring and Appropriate Address by Rector Rev. E. Underwood in St. Mary's Church.

In a church tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves, flowers and "fruits of the earth", the congregation of St. Mary's, Belleisle, held their annual Harvest Festival last Sunday afternoon.

The day which opened somewhat cloudy, brought on a delightful afternoon, and quite a number of visitors were present from Bridgetown and elsewhere. These all remarked the effective way in which loving hearts and devoted hands had combined to give significance to the particular service of the day. The flowers and "fruits" as arranged gave emphasis to the special psalms. Scripture lessons, and hymns, whilst these, in their turn, lifted the thoughts of those present to "The Giver of all Good."

The Rector (Rev. E. Underwood) taking as his text: "A Sower Went Forth to Sow," dwelt on the two things suggested by every harvest festival:

(1) The duty and privilege of lifting up our hearts in devout thanksgiving to the Giver of all good things.

(2) The opportunity to try and gather some thought—either afresh or by way of reminder, that shall make us strong for future service not only in the fields and orchards of material things, but also in the Lord's garden. And this, because Jesus told the "Parable of the Sower" not that we might learn the principles of agriculture, but that we might learn and lay to heart the principles of the well-being and prosperity of the soul.

The singing of the familiar hymns was particularly bright and hearty, and altogether this festival service of 1923 was worthy of the traditions of St. Mary's, Belleisle.

OBITUARY

Miss Laura Wright.
The death of Miss Laura Wright, of Beaufort, occurred at the Weymouth Hospital, Mass., following an auto accident in which she was seriously injured. Miss Wright, who was only twenty-one years of age, came to Bridgetown in the Spring of 1922, and went to work as a clerk in the employ of W. H. Maxwell, where she remained until going to Boston, June, 1923.

Early in the Spring of 1923 during the Evangelistic campaign of Alex. Torrie, she became converted and joined the Baptist Church and from that time until going away she became a devoted Church and Sunday School worker. She will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends, and she leaves to mourn their loss, a mother, two brothers, William, of Round Hill; Edward at home, two sisters, Mrs. Ezra Ring, of Beaufort, and Mrs. P. H. Bent, West Paradise, her father having predeceased her eight months ago.

The remains were brought home and the funeral took place from her home, the services being conducted by Rev. A. J. Prosser, assisted by A. E. Darby, was largely attended. Interment was in the Chesley burying ground, Upper Granville.—(Com.)

"UPSTREAMERS" TUXIS SQUARE HONOR PIONEER MEMBER

The "Upstreamers" Tuxis Square (St. James' Church) held a social evening on Wednesday, Sept. 26th, in honor of the departure of Mr. J. H. Ware, who is leaving for Boston this week. A musical programme was rendered by Dr. N. R. Ware, Messrs. W. Donat, J. Donat, J. H. Ware, J. Roberts and G. H. Ware, after which short speeches were made by the Rev. E. Underwood, Messrs. J. Dand and G. H. Ware.

Jack Ware was the representative of the St. James' Sunday School at a conference held in Annapolis some years ago, when the Tuxis movement was first organized in this vicinity, and the success of the "Upstreamers" is very largely due to his never failing enthusiasm and hard work in connection with the Square.

Refreshments were provided by the members of the Square, and the "Tuxis Boys Chorus" brought the evening's entertainment to a close.

On Friday evening of this week the inaugural meeting of St. James' Church "Organized" Bible class will be held in St. James' school room commencing at 7.30. The committee hope to see not only their old members and friends but a large number of new ones. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in Bible study.

Commencing next Sunday and continuing until further notice the evening service in all the churches will begin at 7 o'clock.

An auto accident occurred here Sunday morning when an outside car was ditched and turned turtle. Fortunately no one was much hurt.

The Baptist Church was shingled a few weeks ago with the new fire-proof shingling, at a cost of five hundred dollars or more. This at the end of a year when apple cheques spelled hard times—what might the church not do when apple cheques spell good times.

This community is certainly grateful for the new railroad station. It surely does the D.A.R. and us credit.

NARROW ESCAPE OF DIGBY PEOPLE

Their Car Goes Over Embankment, Turning Turtle With Six Occupants.

A party of automobilists residing about nine miles below Digby but whose names no one appears to know or to have secured, had a most wonderful escape, if not from death at least, after their car turned turtle and went over the embankment a short distance east of Brook's store at Paradise after running into a car owned and occupied by Col. C. E. Bent.

The circumstances connected with the misadventure as secured by The Monitor are about as follows: Col. Bent, with Mrs. Bent and aunt, were returning from church in Bridgetown Sunday morning and had stopped their car at a lady out when they heard the horn of a car behind them sound a signal to get by. The Colonel drew to the side of the road but the car coming behind attempting to pass on the right which by the way is this year the wrong side, went off into the ditch but on coming out shot across the road striking the mud guard of the Colonel's car and then shot off at a tangent perhaps three or so car lengths went over the embankment rolling over with its six occupants three men and three women. The car narrowly missed collision with a tree and had it gone a little farther would have been into about three feet of water in the brook. No sound came from the occupants of the car and Col. Bent and others who witnessed the car turn turtle feared that fatalities had occurred. However it was found that none of the occupants were injured at all seriously and the car itself suffered little damage. It was righted and with some assistance and its own power regained the road and proceeded on its journey. Eye witnesses describe the escape as the most narrow one which they have ever witnessed.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BIBLE SOCIETY

B. and F. Bible Society Secretary, Rev. Canon Robinson, Gives Fine Address.

The Annual Meeting of the Canadian Branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society was held in the United Church Sunday Schoolroom last Tuesday evening, the 25th Sept.

The meeting elected Rev. E. E. Underwood to the Chair. The chairman introduced the Secretary of the Society for the Maritime Provinces, the Rev. Canon Robinson, M.A., B.D., who addressed the meeting at some length, providing much food for thought in connection with the Bible Society's work in all lands. His gripping illustrations convinced all present of the urgency and the tremendous success of the Bible Society as a propagating force for the Kingdom of our Lord. We feel that it is only necessary for the work to be known in order to gain all the support it so richly deserves. We are indebted to the Canon for his inspiring address. The meeting at the close of the address resolved to proceed with the election of officers and the following were appointed:

President—Mr. Karl Freeman.
Vice-President—The Pastors of the town.

Treasurer—Mr. A. O. Price.
Secretary—Mr. George Warey.

At the close of a meeting of the executive was called by the President and it was decided that an objective of one hundred dollars be set for the town of which sixty dollars was allocated to the Baptist Church; twenty-five dollars to the United Church; and fifteen dollars to the Anglican Church. It was decided that the time for preaching the annual sermon and taking up the offering be left with the several pastors but not later than the beginning of December.

She has occupied the house in which she now resides for the long term of 78 years. Her eyesight is excellent, her mental powers alert and her physical resources are remarkable. She does her own baking, washing and most of the general work of the home. She follows current events in the daily papers and until recently read and enjoyed the Geographic Magazine. On her birthday a large number of letters and greetings were received from friends in various places, and at her home it was celebrated with valuable and appropriate presents.

Mrs. Haines was twice married. Her first husband was a Mr. Steadman, and of this marriage only two grandchildren survive—Dr. Gordon Sterdison, of Minnesota, and Mrs. M. Israel, of North Sydney. In 1855 she married Augustus Haines. Her son, Roland Haines, was married in 1885 to Miss Matilda Prime, of Freeport, and their son, Clarence, is a lumber merchant in Massachusetts. None of Mrs. Haines' children lived

OBITUARIES

Mrs. E. L. Balcom.

The death occurred at the Nova Scotia Hospital on Tuesday, Sept. 18th, of Clara Alberta, beloved wife of Ernest L. Balcom, of Paradise, in the fifty-eighth year of her age. The deceased had been in poor health for about a year, but up until the last few days her condition was not considered serious. The end came suddenly and was a severe shock to her family and friends. Mrs. Balcom, whose kindly disposition won her many friends, was a member of the Paradise Baptist Church, a Life Member of the W. M. A. S., and was always active in all church work. She was also a valued member of the Women's Institute. Until all these societies she will be greatly missed.

The service was held from her late home Friday afternoon, at 2 p. m., and was very largely attended. Her pastor, Rev. W. S. Smith, spoke comforting words to the bereaved family. The music was provided by the Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge, of which the deceased was a member.

The remains were laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery, Lawrencetown. At the grave the Rebekah Lodge performed their impressive service.

The deceased leaves to mourn: the husband, four sons and two daughters, Fred, Ralph, Harry and Marion; at home: Frank of Paradise, and Mrs. M. K. #### Albert D. Phinney.

One of Paradise's well known and highly respected residents in the person of Albert D. Phinney, passed peacefully away on Saturday, Sept. 28th inst., at the age of 73 years. The deceased was the fourth child of the late Gilbert and Mehetable Phinney, and was born at Paradise, N. S., May 16th, 1856. He was the last surviving member of his family and his passing away after a long lingering illness of many years was borne with Christian fortitude. A man noted for his upright dealings and for his kindly welcome to each and every one. He will be greatly missed, not only by his immediate family circle, but by his many friends. In early life he was a successful contractor and builder.

The funeral service was held at his residence on Tuesday afternoon, the 11th inst., and was conducted by the Rev. W. Steadman Smith, of Paradise, who spoke from John 14-2nd verse and was assisted by the Rev. A. H. Whitman, of Lawrencetown.

Appropriate music was rendered by the male quartette: "Abide With Me," "The Homeland," "Face to Face." The pall bearers were: Messrs. H. A. Longley, J. O. Elliott, F. W. Bishop and R. S. Leonard.

He is survived by his widow, four daughters and one son, Mrs. Ida P. Otterson, Bridgetown, N. S.; Mrs. John A. Denison, Longmeadow, Mass.; Miss Minnie R. Phinney, Springfield, Mass.; Jennie and Spurgeon, residing at home, and one grand-daughter, Mary Elizabeth Denison, Longmeadow, Mass.; also one nephew and two nieces.

Interment was at Fairview cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The wharves, buildings, machinery, stock, and good will of the old company are included, these assets having been purchased by the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Limited, with the understanding that the business be carried on as formerly.

The Gorton-Pew Vessels Company, a subsidiary company of the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company, is also taken over by the new company in its operations.

VENIZELOS BIDS FAREWELL

One of the World's Greatest Statesmen Retires From Political Conflict.

The man who has been called the greatest statesman in Europe bids farewell, a final farewell to Greece and her public service. Eleutherios Venizelos made Hellas great. She flung away her greatness by following Constantine the Little. Eastern Thrace, Adrianople, Karagach and Smyrna have fallen from her hands since she renounced the wise leadership of Venizelos. Yet see how much she still retains of what he won for her. Epirus, Macedonia, Western Thrace and the most valuable of the Aegean islands are hers, because that noble Cretan of Athenian descent devoted the best of his life to the building of a greater Greece. Not until 1911 did he form his first government at Athens. By 1920 Greece had become territorially twice what she was at the time he began his administration—and that, too, in spite of the hostility of the sovereign and the withdrawal of support by the changeable electors.

What would have been the fate of Greece at the Lausanne conference if Venizelos had not gone there to plead her cause? The respect in which he was held by all the national representatives, besides his own acute mentality and rare persuasiveness, had much to do with saving Greece from payment of an indemnity to Turkey and shaping a treaty that permitted his country an honorable peace. His service was not only patriotic, but magnanimous, considering how the Constantinian faction of his country had treated him. With that he had ended his service and definitely withdrawn from Greek politics. He will not be sorry that he announced his retirement before the shame of the Epirote assassination of the Italian commissioner on the Albanian boundary fell upon Greece. Since the military execution of former cabinet ministers the Hellenic state has been no place for a statesman. Bitter, indeed, is the feud between the two principal factions, still calling themselves Royalist and Venizelist. Says the Athens correspondent of the Times:

"This feud is no mere matter of words, it is something vital, responsible for the wrecking of many Greek homes, for the breaking off of betrothals, and for the dissolution of business partnerships. Families find themselves so divided in political thought that father and son are estranged. Civil and trade organizations exist only within party lines. Even in the world of music and art the two factions quarrel. The press, which undoubtedly exercises great influence in Greece, behaves in a manner which appears shameless to the average observer, adding fuel incessantly to the flames of hatred."

That is a deplorable picture. It seems to indicate the crazy degradation of a people on the way to national suicide. Venizelos stands high above the ignoble strife. He may well bid good-bye to Greek politics. In his parting message he offers true advice. There must, he says, be only one watchword throughout Greece: "Cessation of civil strife and restoration of the normal functioning of the constitution." That cannot be done without a general election carried out freely under a government capable of securing a national coalition. Such a government is not in sight. Yet Venizelos will not despair of his country. He adds: "If only we manage to keep down our political passions, if each one of us Greeks ceases to be a Meleas, who was perfectly conscious of the evils she was going to commit, but whose passion was master of her reason," we may look forward to the future with confidence. These are big changes to turn upon the little "sic." Yet it is right that the farewell word should end in the tone of hope. All is not lost. Above today's derangement is better, greater Greece may rise.—Boston Herald.

GOVERNOR WALTON APPEALS TO STATE IN WAR ON KLAN

Declares That If Necessary He Will Arm Every Man in State Who is Opposed to "Invisible Empire."

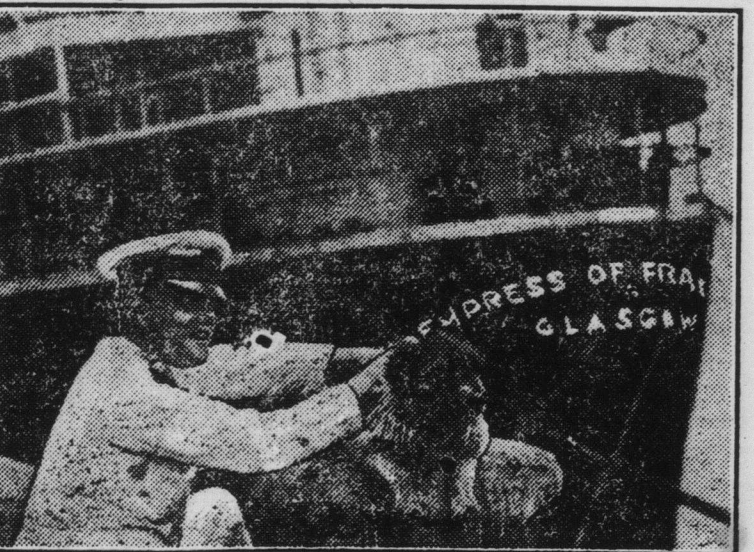

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Sensational testimony exposing the alleged inner workings of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma City and designed to show that the secret organization has directed mob violence, was made public by Governor J. C. Walton. The testimony was taken by the military court sitting here and was given out by the Governor "so that the people may know the purposes of the Klan." In a preface, Governor Walton declared the burden of the fight against the Klan had fallen upon himself and upon Aldrich Blake, his Councilor, making it necessary for him to appeal for financial aid.

"Every effort is being made to cripple us financially so that we cannot continue the fight," the Governor said, "I call upon the people who believe in a representative form of government immediately to assist us financially and to make all remittances to Mrs. Aldrich Blake, Oklahoma City, Okla."

"So far as I am concerned," Governor Walton declared, "I have crossed the rubicon and it is a fight to the finish." "Jewett (N. C. Jewett, Grand Dragon of the Oklahoma Realm of the Klan) and his crowd have turned the fight over to the Klan newspapers and members of the Legislature. "Jewett and his 'Invisible Empire' shall not pass in this State. "If necessary I shall arm every man in this State, who is opposed to his Empire."

Walters will not despair of his country. He adds: "If only we manage to keep down our political passions, if each one of us Greeks ceases to be a Meleas, who was perfectly conscious of the evils she was going to commit, but whose passion was master of her reason," we may look forward to the future with confidence. These are big changes to turn upon the little "sic." Yet it is right that the farewell word should end in the tone of hope. All is not lost. Above today's derangement is better, greater Greece may rise.—Boston Herald.

"Billy" Finds His Master

"BILLY" is home at last; after years of travel in foreign lands and long months spent in the mud, rain and water of the Canadian front in Flanders Billy has at last arrived at home—and his homecoming is a thing of romance. "Billy" is a dog, but a wise little dog and a friendly little dog. He was quite willing to make friends with all nice people, but there he stopped. No one could take the place of his rightful master, and for four long years "Billy" sought his lost best friend on the docks at Quebec.

"Billy", and time and again a comfortable home was offered him, but back he came to the dock in search for the lost unknown, and seemed content to spend the rest of his life in that occupation. "Billy" became a public figure—his picture and his story got into the papers, and thus he found his home. Major W. C. Lamson, of the 28th New Brunswick Battalion, read the story and believed that "Billy" was "Don", a wire-haired terrier that had attached himself to the 28th, and had been accepted as a regimental mascot and personal friend by the entire battalion. So "Billy" was sent to Minto, N.B., and on his arrival the recognition between him and Major Lamson was mutual and enthusiastic. Billy's troubles and travels are over and he again answers to the name of "Don" as the soldiers of the old 28th knew him. Before him lies an honored age of restful ease as befits one who has ended his quest successfully.

BERLIN OUTLINES POLICY ON RUHR

Berlin.—A semi-official statement referring to reports current in Paris of possible Franco-German negotiations makes it quite clear that no practical results can be obtained without the restoration of normal economic activity in the Ruhr, with amnesty and permission to those expelled to return, and that the administration must be placed in the hands of German officials and freedom of traffic between occupied and unoccupied Germany restored.

The statement declares that such conditions would permit reparations payments, commencing with the evacuation of the Ruhr, but that Germany can never agree to recognize in any form the legality of the occupation of the Ruhr.

RELIEVED RHEUMATISM TOO, SAYS CONTRACTOR

Thousands of people everywhere have learned of Tanlac through the statements of others and have taken the treatment with their splendid results that they in turn deem it only fair to relate their experience for the benefit of suffering humanity. Such is the case with L. Desormaux, well known Electrical Contractor, living at 1066 Berri St., Montreal, who says: "I couldn't do otherwise than publicly endorse Tanlac for I am lucky to find out about the medicine the same way myself. For nearly a year I suffered from indigestion and also rheumatism in my legs. About a month ago I was laid up in bed for two weeks with this rheumatism and a bad case of grippe. I lost about eight pounds and felt miserable. "Three bottles of the Tanlac treatment, besides greatly improving my rheumatism, has made my eating and digestion better than they ever were. I have regained my lost weight, and am feeling extremely well. Tanlac is great."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills.

MRS. MISENER'S ACHEs AND PAINs

Vanished After Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Branchton, Ont.—"When I wrote to you for help my action was mostly prompted by curiosity. I wondered if I, too, would benefit by your medicine. It was the most profitable action I have ever taken, I heartily assure you, for through its results I am relieved of most of my sufferings. I have taken six boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and I can honestly say I have never been so well before. I had suffered from pains and other troubles since I was fifteen years old, and during the 'Great War' period I worked on munitions for two years, and in the heavy lifting which my work called for, I strained myself, causing pelvic inflammation from which I have suffered untold agony, and I often had to give up and go to bed. I had doctors for several years without getting permanent relief, when I started to take your medicines."

Mrs. GOLDWIN MISENER, Branchton, Ont.

WOMAN THROWN THROUGH TWO WINDSHIELDS FROM REAR OF ONE CAR INTO FRONT SEAT IN OTHER

New Glasgow.—As a result of a head-on collision Sunday night, Mrs. Arbuckle, an aged woman belonging to Ponds, Pictou County, is lying in Aberdeen Hospital, New Glasgow, quite seriously injured, and several others have sustained minor injuries and severe shocks.

A Ford car, driven by Arbuckles, and a car belonging to Stellarton, driven by a Mr. Fraser, collided, and so great was the impact of the shock that Mrs. Arbuckle, in the rear seat of the Ford, was hurled through the windshield of both cars and landed in the front seat of the opposite automobile.

Sandy Arbuckle, as a result of the accident, has several ribs broken and a Mr. Ling, of Stellarton, sustained a dislocated shoulder. The Ford was completely smashed while the other car is badly damaged.

It appears that Mr. Fraser was standing on the side of the road, waiting for another car to pass, when the Ford came along at a high rate of speed and smashed into the big car.

THE HIGH COST OF GOVERNMENT

From time to time I have taken occasion to refer to the frenzied finance indulged in by our various Provinces. For a long period most of them have been living beyond their means, spending more money than is good for them, and a great deal more than their resources justify. I have before me an interesting document bearing upon this situation, the dangers of which we must sooner or later realize. The Citizens' Research Institute of Canada, an organization by the way, which is a quiet, unobtrusive manner is doing much to make us see the follies of finance as applied to taxation and expenditure, has gone to much pains to make the situation clear. These figures show that only two provinces out of nine are paying their way, Quebec and Prince Edward Island; the remainder leaning upon credit, in order to meet their financial obligations.

For instance, in 1921 British Columbia gathered in from various sources of taxation $31.61 per capita and expended $38.64. Alberta's revenue was $14.41 per capita and the expenditure was $17.93 per capita. Saskatchewan spent $18.10 per person and took in over the counter $13.22. Manitoba's expenditure was $15.03 per capita and the revenue $14.06. Ontario, aside from all hydro-electric undertakings which are not included as presumably expenditures in this line are counterbalanced by revenues received, spent $8.99 per capita and received through various taxable sources $8.38. Quebec, where the balance is on the right side, the expenditure was $6.22 per capita and receipts $6.74. The revenue from the sale of liquor is not included in these figures, else the showing would have been even better. New Brunswick expended $9.23 per capita and received $7.92. Nova Scotia did a little better as the expenditure is shown to be $8.68 per capita and the revenues $7.65. Prince Edward Island, where they also balance their budget, took in $8.64 per capita and expended $8.31.

It is obvious that seven out of the nine Provinces have got to mend their ways. They must either load their people with greater taxation, which is not to be desired, or cut down expenses. The increased cost of government over a period of years has been such that one must view it with more or less alarm. For instance, the per capita increase in Ontario, comparing 1918 with 1921, was 56 per cent., while the biggest sinner was Manitoba with an increase of 74 per cent. over the same period. On the other hand Quebec's expenditure in 1921 was only 13 per cent. greater than in 1918. The provincial debt charges, that is to say interest and sinking funds, are growing out of all proportion to the increase in population, and this is particularly noticeable in the younger provinces west of the Great Lakes and in New Brunswick. For instance, in British Columbia debt charges amount to $8.57 per capita, in Alberta $3.30, Saskatchewan $2.78, Manitoba $3.01, New Brunswick $3.29, Nova Scotia $2.16, Ontario $1.46, Quebec $1.03 and Prince Edward Island $0.79.

Our governments, Provincial and Federal, must stop wasting and retrench. We are suffering from the cost of high living, and it is time that we stopped "stepping on the gas"—Saturday Night.

TROUBLE-MAKING MOTORISTS

The most dangerous man who sits in the driving seat of an auto is the man who jogs along but speeds up whenever a car coming from behind turns out to pass him. The man who attempts to pass has looked forward and seen that he has room and time to get by, but the car in front, by speeding up, spoils the calculation. In order that there may be safety on the highways, a motorist should be safe in assuming that the car ahead is going at the pace at which it chooses to travel, and is not lying in wait to get into a race with any car which overtakes and attempts to pass it. The sort of driver who regards it as a personal affront if another driver seeks to go by him on the road should keep off the public highways and do his driving on the race tracks.

OBITUARY

Wm. Wallace Bruce.

The death of Wm. Wallace Bruce occurred at his late home early Friday morning, Sept. 21st, at the age of seventy-four years. He was a life long resident of Centrelea, upright and honest in his dealings and having a genial disposition he won many friends. In religion he was a Baptist and in politics a staunch Conservative.

He leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing wife and son who tenderly cared for him during his two years of illness, also a sister, Mrs. Charlton Mullen, of Digby, and one brother, James E., of Centrelea.

The funeral service which was conducted by Rev. A. J. Prosser, took place on Sunday afternoon from his late home with interment in the Centrelea cemetery. The choir of Bridgetown Baptist Church was in attendance and sang very sweetly some of the favorite hymns of the deceased: "Jesus Lover of My Soul", "Sleep in Jesus" and "The Christian's Good Night". The funeral arrangements which were under the directions of undertaker Reed, were most satisfactorily carried out. Pall bearers were Alton Messenger, Edward Swift, Ashby Hutchinson and B. A. Messenger. Floral tributes were many and beautiful.

PIANOFORTE RECITAL

"Spinning Wheel" Schmolli Op. 7
Florence Archibald.
(a) "The Sunshiny Morning" Garlitt Op. 101
(b) "Hunting Song" Garlitt
Marion Morse.
(a) "Theme" from Symphonie Pathetique Tchaikowsky Op. 47
(b) "Second Valse" Godard
Marjorie Morse.
The first selection, "Bassia," was played with much brilliance by Marjorie, while the "Andantino," "Progress" and "Spinning Wheel" were skillfully presented by the Misses Phinney, Doris Dand and Florence Archibald.
"Rose Petals," a duet by the sisters, Marion and Marjorie, was a pleasing feature, for it is a little melody that fascinates.
The sympathetic interpretation of the varied selections given by Marjorie was perhaps nowhere more clearly displayed than in the closing numbers, in which the softly modulated tones of "Theme" contrasted effectively with the brilliance of the Godard "Valse". In the quiet, beautiful harmonies of "Theme," one could almost fancy the soft imbuing breeze from the sea on a Summer's day.
At the close of the programme, Mrs. Harry Ruggles and Miss Ethel Daniels graciously responded in song and pianoforte, at the request of Miss Griffin, with selections that will be long remembered by those privileged to enjoy the art of these musicians and the appreciation of those present was attested by the storm of applause which greeted their presentations.
Miss Griffin is to be complimented for the very excellent recital given by her youthful pupils.
The social hour and tea which followed was much enjoyed by those present.

Postage stamps will not be accepted for the war duty on cheques, receipts and bank drafts. Furthermore it is announced by the Post Office Department, the excise stamps for this purpose will not be sold at post offices. This, it is contended, would lead to confusion, as postal matter might be mailed with excise stamps, instead of with the correct postal stamps. The excise stamps are to be sold at banks "and such other places as may be designated by the Department of Customs and Excise." On money orders and postal notes the war tax will continue to be paid by affixing postage stamps.

Correspondence

To the Editor of The Monitor:

Sir—So kindly has been the reception accorded to my letters by yourself and your readers that I feel emboldened to indite a farewell epistle, in which I shall add a few reminiscences of the remaining old timers of sixty years ago.

There were first of all the family of Edwin Morse, a carpenter and builder, who lived in a little red house opposite the Ruggles property. He had several sons who all died young, except the youngest, Isaac. He was my great chum and I was always with him in the shop, when I was not in the blacksmith shop of Mr. Sam Nelly.

To Owen Nelly I was greatly attached and he is the only one of that family still alive, and, believe, resides in Hamilton, where he is doing very well. If this should meet his eye let me assure him that the lapse of years has not caused me to forget him nor to lessen my regard for him.

To return to the Morse's, Mrs. Morse was a Troop and her mother, at the time I am speaking of, lived with her. She was a Gesner from Belleisle and was a Quaker. She used to describe how she became a Quaker. She said she went to a Quaker meeting and said to herself, "that is the religion for me," and at once donned the Quaker garb.

Edwin Morse had one daughter, Jennette, a nice looking girl, who afterwards went to the States, and I do not know whether she is alive or not.

Then there was Robert Bath, who lived next door to us when we resided in what is now the Colonial House. Mrs. Bath was a Clark, a sister of Miner Clark. They had one boy, Jamie, who was my age, and died in 1861 at 15 years and 4 months of age, as is recorded on his tombstone in the little burying ground at the back of the Clark house. They have very handsome tombstones of white marble on which the inscriptions are beautifully cut.

Further there were the three brothers, George, William and Charles Hoyt. The two former were builders and built our house for us, while Charles kept the Post and Telegraph office near the bridge.

William Hoyt's son, Silas, is still living in St. John, and is a clever wood carver.

I cannot refrain from mentioning Tom Chesley, who was a lawyer, residing in Lawrencetown. He was a tall raw-boned man and had a very glib tongue. He told very humorous stories and when he came to town "bossed" the whole show. He was a regular Sam Slick and if Haliburton knew him I should think he was the prototype of that character.

I must not forget to mention T. D. Ruggles, Jr., who was a bright and interesting fellow and has not been dead many years. On one of my visits to Elmhurst I met him and he wrote on his tablet: "Will you have a drink?" I accepted with thanks—then he laughed and wrote: "I do not drink?" I felt rather foolish.

Alas! All my old friends are gone on that long journey whence no traveller returns, and when I seek them I find only an array of tombstones. Like the prophet Elijah, I wall aloud: "I only I, am left."

This retrospect plunges me into sadness, so to recover my cheerfulness I turn again to the dear kiddies who are always bright and cheerful. I have been telling them that I was a grizzly bear. I wish now to explain that that was only an allegory, for no man has ever yet been turned into a bear. The "bear" simply represents the human body and its passions which, when they are yielded to, deaden the soul and transform the man into the likeness of a beast. The bright glittering fairy that waved her wand over me and changed me into a bear are the pleasures of this world that entice the victim to his ruin.

But the "bear" exists in the person of Satan, who, like a "roaring lion, goes about seeking whom he may devour". When he gets hold of a man the latter is lost for Satan never lets go of his prey.

No, kiddies! I am not going to eat you, though I should like to do so, out of pure love. But I am not going to, for I want you to live long to give joy and beauty to Elmhurst.

Farewell then, dear kiddies, and farewell ye kind friends of Elmhurst, especially Dr. Armstrong, whose courtesy and kindness I shall not soon forget.

Farewell! dear friends, farewell! Though not forever, but if forever Fare ye well!

COLIN W. F. "Grizzly Bear"

HAVE YOU ANY OF THESE SYMPTOMS

If You Have, You Are in Need of a Tonic Medicine.

Are you pale and weak, easily tired and out of breath on slight exertion? Are you nervous? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you wake up in the morning feeling as tired as when you went to bed? Is your appetite poor, your digestion weak, and do you have pains after eating?

If you have any of these symptoms you need a tonic, and in the realm of medicine there is no better tonic than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which enrich the blood, restore shattered nerves and bring the glow of health to pale cheeks.

The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is shown by the case of Mr. Horace Caphill, Woodward's Cove, N.B., who says:—"The first indication that my general health was not good was a shortness of breath after the least exertion. Then my appetite began to fail, and after eating it seemed as if there was a lump in my stomach. I grew so weak that I could not walk a hundred yards without resting. Then I was taken with a numbness all over my body and was in a sad plight. I was under a doctor's care, but as I was not getting better, I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The first few boxes did not seem to help me but my wife urged me to continue their use and I got four boxes more. Before these were gone I could eat a fair meal, the numbness was leaving me and I was feeling much better in every way. I took the pills for a while longer, and felt that I was again a well man. I still take the pills occasionally, but have had no return of the old trouble."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50¢ a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NOMINATED AS SOLDIERS' ADVISER FOR APPEAL BOARD

BRIDGETOWN BEATS KENTVILLE IN GAME FOR JUNIOR TITLES

Halfway Town Players On Short End of 8 to 7 Game That Was Brilliantly Played.

Middleton.—The final game in the Junior Valley League playoff series was played between Bridgetown and Kentville, resulting in a win for the former, 8 to 7. Each team had one big inning with hits and errors, but outside of this the game was an excellent exhibition of baseball, many plays being worthy of senior performers.

Although Bridgetown finally ran off with the trophy, it looked like Kentville's game right through till the sixth. Lightie holding the hits to one by Little, with a stolen base followed by error allowed him to reach. He scored when Redden fumbled Hoyt's grounder. Kentville scored their first run in the second frame, when G. Kennedy reached first on a fielder's choice, stole second and scored on W. Kennedy's two bagger. Schofield was safe at first on an error and W. Kennedy scored.

In the fifth Kentville went after Dorey and with a free pass, three hits and three infield errors and scored four runs. Roberts replaced Dorey and the next three batters went out in order. He held Kentville for the remainder of the game to three singles which netted one run in sixth. Up to this period with Lightie's star work on the mound, the game was all Kentville. Rooters now took sides with the apparently weaker team and with two errors followed by Hoyt's single Crowell came home for Bridgetown's second run.

It was not until the seventh inning that Kentville's balloon took an ascension and came down only after their opponents had scored six runs which ended the scoring for the game. Dorey hit safely. Lockett was safe on a fielder's choice, Gatti singled, Crowell reached first on an error which allowed the first two to score. Hoyt doubled scoring Gatti and Crowell. Schofield now replaced Lightie, but another error and a passed ball allowed Hoyt and Robinson to cross the plate for the seventh and eighth runs. The next batters on both sides were retired in quick succession and one of the most exciting junior games ever seen here ended.

Kentville secured six singles and one two bagger, three free passes off Dorey and Roberts, while eleven men struck out.

Off Lightie and Walsh, Bridgetown secured four singles, one two bagger, four walks and five took the short route to the bench.

Little and Hoyt starred for Bridgetown, while Bartheaux and Terrier was outstanding for Kentville.

Bridgetown—Gatti, c.; Crowell, 1. f.; Little, 3b.; Hoyt, c.; Robinson, 1b.; Todd, 2b.; Roberts, s.s. and p.; Dorey, p. and s.s.; Lockett, r. f.

Kentville—Schofield, c. and p.; W. Kennedy, r. f.; Bartheaux, 3b.; G. Kennedy, c.; Walsh, 1b.; Terrier, 2b.; Redden, s.s., and p.; Lightie, p. and c.f.; Nickerson, 1. f.

BOLSHEVISTS STUDY AMERICAN POLICIES

Berlin.—Bolshevism has created a laboratory of world politics in Berlin, something new in political science. This institution has little to do with dusty textbooks and dry lectures. It sends its investigators to the scene of interesting political activities in all parts of the world, and they bring reports to the official staff which keeps abreast of the world press and interprets the information it collects in terms of international consequences.

Captain Jacques Sadoul, former French army officer, who was sentenced to death in France for the part he played in promoting sedition among the French marines and sailors who were against the Bolsheviks at Odessa in 1919 is among the experts on the Bolshevik staff who are conducting this new laboratory. Jean Arenas, who was wounded by the assassin who killed Vorowski, the Russian unofficial delegate at the Lausanne Conference, is another member of the laboratory staff.

At present the laboratory is much interested in dissecting America's foreign policy! President Coolidge is under the microscope. His speeches and official activities are being studied, along with reports on the possibility of Secretary of State Hughes' resignation from the cabinet. American senators travelling in Europe are also being investigated, especially those who have Russia on their itinerary.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian Fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day it is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HARD WORK IS REMEDY FOR ILLS TODAY

Pictou, N. S.—Hard work is the remedy the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. W. R. Motherwell proposes for the ills that afflict agriculture and many other industries today. Hard work which not only brings material results, but also builds character. For the farmers of the Maritime Provinces particularly, Mr. Motherwell advises that they specialize on dairying and hog raising which go well together and for which the county is well adapted. The Minister referred to his speech as a short talk on current agricultural topics of the day and the crowd which listened attentively to him at the Pictou Exhibition was composed largely of farmers.

After sketching his trip through the Maritimes of which he said his impressions were most gratifying, the Minister spoke of the need of all parts of this great and sparsely settled country becoming better acquainted with one another. Referring to the policy of conducting exhibitions he said that as it took all kinds of people to make a world, so it took all kinds of attractions to make a success of an exhibition. Without attractions there would be no crowd and no revenue. A certain amount of attractions was justifiable. As the Pictou exhibition has been conducted practically without attractions the Minister was possibly giving a hint to the management.

The Minister defended the experimental farms maintained by the Government. He spoke optimistically of business the Dominion over with a big crop in the West, the mines and lumber industries doing well, and the earnings of the railroads reflecting prosperity on the way. He considered that the Maritimes with the British market so handy had a great opportunity as soon as they produced enough to export. Our apples and potatoes held a high place, and we should win an equally high place for our butter and bacon and become like Denmark and New Zealand.

Mr. Donald Grant, of Cashes, who is 91 years of age, was at the exhibition with a horse 33 years old, both man and horse as spry as youngsters. Mr. Grant had his horse given an exhibition and it pulled 1500 pounds. There was a big crowd in the grandstand and they gave the pair of veterans a great cheer. The horse and cattle parades were very attractive. The Pictou band rendered very fine programmes.

HUGE INCREASE IN CANADA'S TRADE

Both Exports and Imports Show Large Gain During Twelve Months.

Ottawa.—In a trade summary covering the twelve months ended with August, compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, it is shown that Canada's total exports for the period amounted to $1,001,037,574 as against total imports of $891,891,035. Imports for 1921 are given as $961,278,000 as against exports amounting to $1,012,127,000. The 1922 figures are: Imports $732,291,000 as compared with exports valued at $775,467,000.

A steady increase in exports to the United Kingdom is shown for 1921, 1922 and 1923 as follows: $283,858,000, $313,225,000, $381,162,000; and imports for those years: $148,135,000, $124,059,000, $152,596,000. Neither exports to or imports from the United States during the period covered by the report are as great as was the case in 1921. Export figures for the three periods are: 1921, $463,693,000; 1922, $311,572,000; 1923, $407,236,000, as compared with imports amounting to $683,239,000 in 1921; $495,604,000 in 1922, and $606,196,000 in 1923.

It is shown in the report that Canada's total export of wood and paper to the United States during the period covered amounted to $219,135,000; the next largest group of exports was animal products at $55,971,000; agricultural and vegetable products, $38,192,000; non-metallic minerals $22,520,000. Other groups did not exceed $11,000,000.

information about the property from the enterprising real estate man. He withheld the name, but assured her the island is well located and is highly desirable both as a Summer and Winter residence. It has an old castle which is in need of repair, several hundred acres of vineyard and farmland badly in need of modernization, and two villages also badly in need of repair, with about 500 inhabitants.

The entire property is offered for $10,000, the princely name included with a guarantee that the present holder of the title will legally sanction its transfer.

INSULIN

(Issued under the auspices of the Medical Society of Nova Scotia.)

Because of the many misconceptions which exist in the minds of the laity with reference to insulin, it appears desirable to explain how this substance acts, and to indicate the extent of its usefulness in the treatment of diabetes.

In the normal individual, a liberal allowance of carbohydrate foodstuff is required, not only for the production of bodily heat and energy but to secure proper results from other foods—the fats and protein. We derive our supply of carbohydrate mainly from foods of vegetable origin. All forms of carbohydrate are normally changed into sugar in the body, and this sugar is either utilized at once in the production of energy, or is stored up for future use in the form of glycogen.

A fascinating story could be told of the manner in which physiologists and biochemists gradually and systematically demonstrated the part which certain portions of the organ called the pancreas play in determining the fate of the carbohydrate we consume. But it must suffice to say that, in health, these portions of the pancreas secrete a substance which enables the body to make use of sugar. In the absence of this substance, the carbohydrate cannot be properly utilized and the sugar derived from them is largely or wholly wasted, while the corrective influence of these foodstuffs upon the fats and protein is reduced and perhaps lost. To this last factor we must attribute the most serious symptoms of diabetes.

The chemistry of the animal body is exceedingly complex, and the difficulties to be overcome in the isolation of this substance, which we now know is insulin, was so greatly that when our own Banting and his co-workers succeeded in establishing a method for obtaining it for use in medicine, it may be claimed that one of the greatest triumphs of man's ingenuity was achieved. By the administration of insulin to diabetes, the deficiency due to disease of the pancreas can be overcome to a great extent, and an enormous saving of time and of suffering will undoubtedly result.

It is to be noted, that Banting and those associated with him in this great work, have been the first to point out that insulin is not to be regarded as a curative agent. It has already brought many persons back from the very brink of the grave, and restored them to years of comfort and usefulness, but it does not recover a pancreas which has already been damaged beyond repair. In many cases, apparently it has been instrumental in assisting in the restoration of function when the pancreas has not been too seriously crippled; but when the organ is destroyed or very seriously diseased, the insulin which it should secrete must be supplied artificially throughout the life of the individual. In all cases most careful attention must be given to the diet, and in quite a large proportion the regulation of the diet is all that is required. Obvious success in treatment depends particularly upon the extent to which the disease has advanced at the time treatment is commenced. Diabetes is a very common disease, and the surest way to escape from it, in its incurable form, is to submit to periodical examinations (at least once a year) at the hands of one's physician.

In strict accordance with the traditions of the so-called "regular" school of medicine, Banting and his co-workers have given their discovery to the world without reservation and without thought of personal profit. For the protection of the public against the host of fakirs who are ever ready to exploit thoughtless sick people for their own enrichment, an arrangement has been made whereby the University of Toronto has patented the method of producing insulin. This, however, is only to assure the production of reliable insulin at the lowest practicable price. Any reputable concerns which will undertake to make insulin in conformity with Banting's method, under the general supervision of the University, and at a price which can be shown to be reasonable will not only be permitted to manufacture it but will have, free of any charge, all the assistance the University can offer. This splendid service by a great University will be appreciated by everyone who has the welfare of the public at large.

The Value of a Guarantee

lies not so much in its protective penalty as in its satisfying assurance. No firm selling goods with a guarantee attached, expects to be called upon to pay the penalty. For it is naturally the intention to so carefully guard the quality that dissatisfaction will be impossible.

Throughout its many years of service "King Cole" Tea has consistently been sold with a guarantee—a guarantee definite and substantial. It is printed on every "King Cole" package.

It carries to the buyer an evidence of good faith—a confidence in ability to serve—a determination to serve well.

The Favorite Suburban Car

FOR the family that lives in a suburban or country home, the Chevrolet five-passenger Sedan is the ideal, all-year car.

It has ample power to negotiate any road any automobile can travel and through cold and storm carries the family in ease and comfort. Its price is so low that almost any family can afford it, even though another car is owned for fair weather use. It is a quality car in which the whole family will take pride, yet it is easy to own, to maintain, and to operate.

Its full modern equipment includes cord tires, plate glass windows, dome and dash lights, high grade upholstery and fine interior fittings.

Let us show it to you before deciding on any car.

ADVERTISING FOR TOURISTS

There is perhaps no more profitable industry in Canada than the tourist industry. Like any other industry it shows returns for good sound business backing. It pays for investment in good roads, it pays dividends on capital invested in hotels which give satisfactory service and it pays in profits to dealers and to merchants who sell wanted goods at fair prices. And over all, like any other well conducted business, it shows satisfactory returns for money well expended in advertising when the governments, the hotel-keepers and the merchants are prepared to live up to the advertising and send back to their homes satisfied tourists who will multiply the benefits of the benefits of the original expenditure.

Advertising for tourists cannot generally be conducted by individual business houses. Governments or transportation companies may be able to make an appropriation which will be effective, but results for any city or town can best be obtained out of a general fund to which those who benefit should contribute. On the Pacific Coast, Vancouver has been conducting such an advertising campaign for several years and has been able to show direct results to the business community in dollars and cents. A recent visitor to the continent describes how French merchants are reaping a harvest of millions from the American tourists.

Canada, of course, has not the style centres like Paris, where large sums are spent for things to wear, but there are many things for which the tourist is seeking. The tourist is not hard to satisfy; he is willing to pay any price within reason—but he does not want to be fooled by misrepresentation or charged highway prices for service not rendered.

Merchants, manufacturers and others, who stand to benefit from the tourist traffic, should be willing to contribute within reason to well organized advertising campaigns such as have proven successful in the case of Vancouver. Institutions like the banks, which may not benefit directly, should also consider the advantages which may accrue from a donation to a fund which will benefit the whole community. A well organized, properly conducted campaign of this kind should be regarded as a good business proposition. It should not be classed with the many local campaigns for poorly organized charities, underwriting reform movements, and social fairs; National banks have no right to contribute to other than purely business schemes.—Financial Post.

Local Happenings

A very enjoyable time was spent on Monday evening when Mrs. J. Herbert Hicks entertained the members of the "Idlewild" Club at "A Corn Boff". Progressive forty-fives were played and a most recherche repast was served by the popular hostess who is a highly valued member of the club.

The B.Y.P.U. held an enjoyable social last Friday evening with a nice musical and literary programme, games and refreshments.

Mr. T. Ford, King Street, is not a gardener by profession but he certainly understands how to raise early and vigorous "garden truck". Last year he had a bush bean on his table two weeks earlier than any other Truro citizen and now he has in the Truro News window "spuds" of simply wonderful growth. These are five potatoes from one hill all weighing 4 lbs. and 5 oz.; the largest weighing one pound. Who can beat this?

Hantford G. Lewis, of Port Lorne, has been gazetted a Justice of Peace in and for the County of Annapolis.

The open season for moose began Monday and lasts until Nov. 15th, open season for deer Oct. 18th to 31st, open season for partridge during the month of October only. The open season for rabbits does not begin until Nov. 1st and lasts till March 1st. Other "fur animals" Nov. 15th till Jan. 15th. Royalties are payable to the government on all furs except rabbits at varying rates. Moose meat must not be sold except between Oct. 4th and Oct. 29th and no deer and no partridge at any time.

Work has begun on the new light-house at Cape Sable. It will replace the old one which is wood and will be 90 feet high where the present light is only 60 feet and will be concrete and when finished will be second to none on the Atlantic Coast.—Shelburne Gazette, Sept. 29th.

Miss Winnifred Goldsmith, manager of the Western Union Telegraph office at Annapolis, has been transferred to New York, and left for that place on Saturday. Miss K. Weir, of Digby, formerly operator at Bridgetown, has taken her place.

We saw, a few days ago, something unusual, at least to us. Nails which were made in the long ago through patient hammering out. These were taken from the house of Mr. Frank Poole at West Paradise, on which extensive repairs are being made.

The annual Harvest Supper will be held in the vestry of the Church, Clarence, on Wednesday evening, October 10th. If the evening proves stormy, it will be Friday following.

Confection, owned by Mr. Charles F. DeWitt of this town, took second money in the 218 pace at Charlotte-town exhibition.

Over twenty officers and members of Rothsay Lodge, No. 41, A. F. & A. M., motored to Annapolis last Wednesday evening and paid a fraternal visit to Annapolis Royal Lodge No. 23. They were royally received and spent a most enjoyable evening. After the conclusion of business the Annapolis Lodge served a banquet in their entertaining room, W. M. Nichols presiding. A number of appropriate toasts were on the list, speeches and anecdotes filled up the remainder of an evening which was a "feast of reason and a flow of Soul".

Monday night's gale caused much havoc throughout the Valley among the orchards and thousands of dollars worth of apples were shaken to the ground. No other special damage has been reported at time of writing. The loss in apples is very regrettable coming at a time when all prospects seem to favor.

Stimulate Your Skin

The skin with its network of tiny pores and glands should never be allowed to become sluggish and inactive. Dirt, cold cream, rouge and powder will clog the pores, enlarge them and produce blackheads and blemishes unless the skin is cleansed thoroughly with soap and water at least once every day.

This simple method of beautifying was Cleopatra's secret. She knew that to have a fresh fine skin thorough cleansing was necessary. She used Palm and Olive oils, the same rare oils which are blended in Palmolive.

If you use a fine mild soap, there is no danger of irritation. Palmolive with its creamy lather, is lotion-like in its action. It freshens, revives and stimulates and leaves the skin delightfully fresh and rosy.

You can buy Palmolive Soap at all first-class dealers.
