Gloucester Church Celebrates Rev. D. J. Neily's Birthday

The Gloucester (Mass.) Daily Times of April 15th has the following account of the birthday celebration of a former Bridgetown boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Neily.

"The open social held in the vestry of the First Baptist church last Wednesday under the auspices of the Young Men's Bible Class will be marked as a memorable occasion in the history of the church socials for on the program were surprises of keenest interest to the church members and others present as well.

The affair was better known as Rev. D. J. Neily's Birthday Party, although the event served threhold; the birthday of the pastor, the anniversary of his marriage, and the third anniversary of his coming to this city as pastor.

A. Mantou, Fattallo, the president, and the large audience listened to a fine entertainment, consisting of selections by the Gloucester High School orchestra, vocal solos, Miss May M. Strong, soprano; mandolin solos by Fred E. Gale and readings by Miss Fannie Belle Atwood. Miss Strong, who sang exceptionally well the Arditto 'Italian Love Song' in Italian and Del Riego's 'Happy Song,' was accompanied by Will A. Robinson. Mr. Gale was pianist for the orchestra.

GREETINGS TO THE PASTOR.

Greetings were given by Everett Parks and he spoke as follows in a constant expression of his daily walk with God, to the 'preacher,' who proclaims his Master's message with fidelity and power; to the 'pastor,' whose service is whole-hearted; whose spirit is rich in blessing; to the 'brother,' who reflects the friendship of Him who sticketh closer than a brother; to the 'counselor,' whose precepts and example point out the paths of wisdom; to the 'honored member' of the Young Men's Bible Class whose presence in our midst is always a benediction.

To such a friend and counselor, 'What offering shall we make? We'll give him lodgement in our hearts

And bid him 'take the cake.'

At this time a screen was removed from the platform and a beautifully frosted birthday cake arranged in a handsome bed of tulips, was presented to view, the gift of the Young Men's Bible Class to Rev. Mr. Neily.

BOUQUET FOR MRS. NEILY.

In recognition of Rev. and Mrs. Neily's wedding anniversary on April 18, Mrs. Annie Bryant, president of the Ladies' Society of the church stepped forward and in behalf of the society she presented Mrs. Neily with a very beautiful bouquet of five dozen pale pink carnations and asparagus fern arranged in a tall cut glass also the gift of the society. Mrs. Bryant spoke of the hearty greetings of the society for Mrs. Neily, hoping that she would accept the gift of the flowers as a token of the society's love and esteem, their sincere wishes for best of health and God's choicest blessings in her wedded life.

STILL ANOTHER GIFT.

In the event of the third anniversary of the pastor's coming to this city as pastor of the church on April 16, Willard S. Pike, the superintendent of the Sunday school gave expressions of love and good-will and in behalf of the school, presented the pastor and wife with a fine mahogany rocking chair.

INCREASE OF SALARY TOO.

In behalf of the church and congregation, Hon. David I. Robinson made most fitting remarks in appreciation of the service the pastor was giving in the church and in the community and presented 'sealed orders' to Rev. Mr. Neily of the Gospel Ship First Baptist of Gloucester. The paper contained red seals and appeared to be a very important document. The pastor was requested to read his orders and there was a smile on the pastor's face and hearty applause from the audience when the fact was made known that at the last parish meeting of the church the pastor's salary was raised to $2000.

THE PASTOR RESPONDS.

Rev. Mr. Neily gave expressions of his gratefulness for the gifts bestowed upon him and spoke especially of the spirit of service on the part of the Young Men's Bible Class. Mrs. Neily conveyed her feelings of heartfelt appreciation for the kindly expressions bestowed upon her.

THE WORLD MOVES.

A Saskatchewan paper announces that the First Baptist Church of that city has adopted the following resolution: "That every believer in Christ recognizing Him as Master and Lord, who manifests the Christian spirit and evident willingness to assist in the bringing in of His Kingdom on earth may be admitted as a member of this church on the recommendation of the advisory committee."

The motion carried without a dissenting voice, and it was pointed out that upon this ground the various types of Christianity may get together and become linked up in a common spiritual brotherhood.

OBITUARY

MRS. H. W. MESSINGER.

There passed away at 257 Slater street, Ottawa, on the 8th inst, Lydia C. Messinger, beloved wife of H. W. Messinger, after a long and trying illness. Mrs. Messinger was born in Lower Granville, N. S., about forty-seven years ago, daughter of Capt. Willoughby and Catherine Anthony, who both have predeceased her. About twenty-eight years ago she was married to Harvey W. Messinger, teacher for many years in the County of Annapolis and other parts of the province. To them were born five children, two boys and three daughters, three of whom survive her.

In 1901 Mr. Messinger accepted a position under the Dominion Government at Ottawa, and in the fall of that year Mrs. Messinger and family joined him at the capital, but ere she went she was taken with pneumonia which left one of her lungs weak. About six years ago, after a severe cold, a cough set in and finding it difficult to stop, she consulted three different physicians, who all pronounced her case in the incipient stages of tuberculosis of the lungs, so that winter she went to the sanitarium at Gravenhurst, Ont., where she derived much benefit, but every little cold would cause a return of the dreaded cough. One year she spent in the Rocky Mountains, and the mountain air seemed to help her, but the evil enemy of the white race was silently but surely doing its work. Last summer she tried Laurentian Mountains of Quebec, but to no purpose; and when she returned in November she was not much improved and from that time till she passed out, she sank rapidly. Two of the most eminent specialists of Ottawa were summoned, but all to no purpose. The Master had called and she must obey the summons. All that a kind husband and loving children could do to soothe her in her last illness was done, and the large circle of friends all over the city did the same.

The high esteem in which she was held was shown by the numerous and costly floral tributes at the obsequies and the large attendance of friends. During her illness she was spiritually upheld by the beloved pastor of the First Baptist church, Rev. B. Goodfield, M.A., who so often visited her and was assured of her perfect peace with her Saviour. Her end was peaceful and she went out fully trusting in the mercies of the crucified One. She was laid away in the family burial ground beside her daughter, Marguerite, who predeceased her six years ago. Her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Buchanan, of Providence, R. I., was present with her in her last illness. Great sympathy has been extended to the sorrowful husband and children who are left to mourn the sad loss of a loving wife and mother.

Boys' Cadet Camp

To the Editor of Monitor:—
Dear Sir,—I enclose herewith a letter received from Major Outbit which speaks for itself. In order to enable me to reply by the date mentioned, will any boys desiring to go to this Camp (should it be authorized), kindly hand their names to me or Mr. H. L. Bustin not later than Monday next.

Truly yours,
ERNEST UNDERWOOD.

P. S.—Every boy must have been vaccinated before going to camp.

The Armouries, Halifax,
April 20th, 1913.

Dear Sirs,—A military camp for cadets and boys of cadet age (12 to 15 years) in the Maritime Provinces is being proposed to be held at Aldershot, N. S., about August 14th to 20th, under conditions similar to those obtaining last year. What number of boys, if any, under your charge would, like to attend this Camp if it is authorized. Information in this regard can be of course only be approximate, but should be as near the number as can be obtained at the present time, so that preliminary arrangements may be proceeded with.

Please reply before May 1st, 1913.

Yours very truly,
W. E. OUTHIT,

Inspector of Cadets, 6th Division.

Board of Trade Meeting

A regular meeting of the Bridgetown Board of Trade was convened in the Council Chamber on Monday evening, Vice-President of the Board, Dr. M. E. Armstrong, presided. About thirty members were present. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The secretary, Mr. H. B. Hicks, read a number of letters from the District Manager of the Maritime Telephone and Telegraph Company in reply to correspondence respecting an all-night telephone service for Bridgetown. At this point the matter of the recent action of the Telephone Company requiring Bridgetown subscribers to pay toll when using the line to Lawrenceton, was freely discussed. It was the opinion of a number of the business men who expressed themselves on the subject that if the no-toll circuit was curtailed the telephone as a business proposition was of little account. It was moved and unanimously carried that the Secretary correspond with the Telephone Company demanding that the "no toll" rate to Lawrenceton be restored, and also that Bridgetown be given an all-night service in the event of these requirements not being granted the Board take the matter up with the Public Utilities Committee.

The Secretary was also asked to continue the correspondence with Mr. Giffins, of the D. A. R. regarding the continuing of the Owl train to Annapolis every evening of the week. Under past schedules this train has run to Annapolis on Friday and Saturday evenings only. It was moved that the Board also ask Mr. Giffins for information and plans of the proposed new station for Bridgetown. The Secretary was instructed to write Mr. McLean, of the post office department, asking that a letter box be placed at the D. A. R. station.

The necessity of a new post office was discussed, and it was moved that Mr. A. L. Davidson, Dominion member for this County, be corresponded with regarding the progress being made toward the appropriation for such a building. It was moved that the Secretary write the manager of the H. & S. W. Railway to ascertain why the telephone instrument at the Bridgetown station of their line had been removed.

Five new members were added to the membership, viz: A. D. Brown, Jas. R. DeWitt, F. R. Beckwith, Jas. H. Flupper, F. V. Young. Dr. Armstrong was elected president for the ensuing year, A. B. McKenzie vice-president, and H. B. Hicks, secretary-treasurer.

The following were elected as the Board's Council for the ensuing year: W. R. Longmire, F. E. Bath, J. K. Craig, E. A. Hicks, K. Freeman, H. Ruggles, J. E. Lloyd, W. A. Warren.

A Desirable Investment

As a good Municipal Bond, worthy the attention of the conservative investor, we suggest the recently authorized issue of Town of Pictou 4 1/2 p. c. Debentures, maturing May 1st, 1943.

The total assessment of the town is $1,106,560—with the net debt per capita of population only $7.43.

Each Debenture bears the endorsement of the Commissioner of Municipal Sinking Funds stating that the issue is legal, and that proper provision has been made for payment of interest and sinking fund to retire the issue at maturity.

The Debentures are in denominations of $500 each. At the price we quote of 92.27 p. c. the investment yields an even five per cent. return. Any further information is readily accessible at our Halifax office or by mail.

MINUTES OF MUNICIPAL COUNCIL SEMI-ANNUAL SESSION, 1913

Council met at the Court House at Bridgetown, in the County of Annapolis, on Tuesday the 15th day of April A. D. 1913, at ten o'clock in the forenoon:

Present: The Warden, Councillors Outhit, Elliott, Fitch, Foster, Bent, Armstrong, Healy, Willet, FitzRandolph, Grimm, Thomas, Gillis and Brown.

Minutes of the Annual Session A. D. 1913, read and approved.

A communication from W. H. Marshall asking for a right of way to his cleared field and that a committee be appointed to look into the same, was then read.

Ordered that this communication be read be laid on the table.

Ordered that the communication of R. J. Messenger in re the Municipality adopting the provisions of Chapter 11 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia 1910 and the adoption of Bye Laws therein expressed, an Act respecting tile, stone, and timber drainage debentures, be laid on the table to be considered in the future.

Ordered that the report of John H. Lewis and Albert McBride, a committee appointed to enquire into the necessity of a road leading from Rogers Landing to the Club House situated on the shore of Kedgemakogee Lake, in the County of Annapolis, recommending said road as prayed for, be adopted.

REPORT ON ROAD LEADING FROM THE ROGERS LANDING TO THE CLUB HOUSE.

To the Warden and Councillors of the Municipality of Annapolis County:

Your committee appointed at the Annual Session of 1913 to lay out a road from Rogers Landing to the Club House situated on the shore of the Kedgemakogee Lake in the County of Annapolis beg leave to report as follows:

That we have gone over the route of proposed road and have endeavored to lay out the road which would be most convenient to the travelling public also in looking after the interest of the County in getting the cost of damages for said road to the lowest point possible, starting from Rogers road where there used to be a gate near Rogers landing by Kempton brook, running westerly about one-third of a mile through the land of Wilson Baxter to the Inter-County line to Maitland River. Thence from said river across lands of C. H. Ford, Andrew and Charles Merry, A. D. Mills and Sons and Indian reserve lands to Club House, a distance of about one mile from Maitland River to the Club House, laying out the road three rods wide. We interviewed the owners of the said lands and they are all willing to give free right of way across said lands except Wilson Baxter who wants $50.00 damage including fence through (Wilson Baxter) his land a distance of about one-eighth of a mile. This new road will open up quite a new section on the shores of the Kedgemakogee lake where there has been no access by water.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN H. LEWIS,
ALBERT MCBRIDE.

New Grafton, March 4, 1913.

Councillor Thomas then gave notice of motion to rescind a motion or resolution passed at the Semi Annual Session 1912, making a new road district to be known as road district No. 19, in district No. 28, said road district being composed of private land of Isalah Manro whose communication to council was also read.

Ordered that in adopting tenders for collection of rates that the committee should favour the appointment of local collectors as far as practical. Upon reading the petition of H. W. Dodwell and upwards of twenty others freeholders of the County of Annapolis, asking for an electric light at the foot of How's Hill to illuminate a very dark spot that is dangerous to travellers, on motion it was ordered that the said petition be received and laid on the table.

Upon reading the report of E. E. Phinney, E. F. McNeil and Colonel Shippey Spurr, a committee appointed to enquire into the necessity for a new road from a point on the Stronach Mountain Road opposite B. Hat's south line, easterly across lands of the late Charles Jacques and Alden Morse to Kings County line, and on motion it was ordered that the report as read be received and adopted.

The following is the report:—

REPORT ON ROAD FROM STRONACH MT. ROAD TO KINGS COUNTY LAND.

To the Warden and Councillors of the Municipality of Annapolis County:

Gentlemen:—

We your committee appointed to enquire into the necessity of opening and laying out a new road across lands from Melvern Square to Kingston, have the honor to report as follows:—

That we consider the opening of this road an absolute necessity. We have laid out the road, a plan of which is herewith attached.

In crossing the lands of Alden Morse and Hugh McNeil a free right of way is given.

In the crossing of lands formerly occupied by the late Charles Jacques now in possession of Mrs. Amanda Jacques, we your Committee have failed to agree as to damages and would request that appraisors be appointed to appraise damages.

We would recommend that James Martin be appointed for one.

Your obedient servant,
E. E. PHINNEY,
E. F. MCNEIL,
S. SPURR.

Melvern Square, April 10th, 1913.

Ordered that J. A. Phinney be the Arbitrator on behalf of this Municipality to arbitrate the damages on lands of the late Charles Jacques, mentioned in above report.

Upon reading the report of C. F. Armstrong, John I. Phinney and C. A. Dickie, on a road leading from the Dodge Road so called near Middleton, westward to the Brickton or Morse Road and on motion it was ordered that the report of said committee as read be received and laid on the table.

REPORT ON ROAD LEADING FROM DODGE ROAD NEAR MIDDLETON TO THE MORSE OR BRICKTON ROAD.

To the Warden and Councillors of the Municipality of Annapolis County:

Gentlemen:—

According to a precept directed to us to examine into the necessity for a public road from the Dodge road near Middleton, westward to the Brickton or Morse road we met on the 10th day of February 1913, at the home of Ernest T. Neily, on the Brickton road. In order to make a plan as the law requires it was necessary to use a compass and chain; it was also necessary to have someone with us who knew the proprietors of lands and the division lines between them. For this purpose we secured the presence of Parker Young, of Brooklyn and Charles Burbridge of Middleton. After a careful examination of the country we decided on the location, as shown on the plan, which makes a very straight road, with no steep hills, one bridge with a span of ten feet and a few small culverts a little over two and one half miles long, through a country already bearing a large quantity of hay and suitable for the planting of orchards, giving a short and easy route from Clarence to Middleton, avoiding the hills of Brooklyn and the sand of the Post road, making it possible for the present owners to sell their holdings between the two railways, which are at present of little value, to new settlers who will build and develop.

Being led to believe that most of the proprietors would willingly give the right of way we prepared an agreement for them to sign to that effect but found a very decided opposition to the road by all proprietors East of Oscar Neily, so did not press the agreement before them. It contains a particular description of the location of the road with the area belonging to each proprietor we have attached it to our report.

C. F. ARMSTRONG,
JOHN I. PHINNEY,
C. A. DICKIE, Committee.

Middleton, April 7, 1913.

Memorandum of Agreement made and entered into in the month of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Between Charles Neily, Avaril C. Chesley, Ainsley Slocum, Parker Young, Charles Wright, Ernest T. Neily, Isaac Moore, Trueman Moore, and Oscar Neily of Brooklyn and Charles Burbridge, William Green, Wallace Banks, John Tompson, L. S. Tupper, Franklin Palmer, Mrs. Vernon Phinney, Isaac Feindel and James White of Middleton all of the County of Annapolis herein after called the parties of the first part and the Municipality of Annapolis County representatives of His Majesty George V parties of the second part.

Witnesseth that the parties of the first part so many of them as shall sign and seal this agreement for and in consideration of the opening and maintenance of a public road three rods wide crossing their lands as laid out by C. F. Armstrong, John I. Phinney and Charles Dickie on the sixth day of February A. D. 1913, and shown by plan drawn by C. F. Armstrong, Land Surveyor, do grant bargain and sell and have by this agreement granted bargained and sold unto the parties of the second part all their right, title and interest, in the aforesaid road more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a maple tree on the east side of the road leading from Brickton to Hanley Mountain and about twenty rods north from Joel Whitman's house crossing lands of Charles Neily to the south-west corner of Avaril Chesley's lot and continuing in a straight line along said Chesley's base line easterly taking two rods wide from said Chesley and one rod wide from William Green continuing in a straight line along the base line of Parker Young, taking two rods wide from Parker Young and two rods wide from Charles Burbridge to Charles Wright's base line eastward and taking a three rod strip from him to Ernest T. Neily's west line continuing along Neily's base line eastward to Charles Burbridge's north-east corner of West Lot, taking a strip three rods wide the whole width of Ernest T. Neily's lot and continuing in the same straight line and taking a strip three rods wide across Ernest T. Neily, Isaac Moore, Trueman Moore, Oscar Neily, Wallace Banks and John Tompson to Wallace Banks' East Lot at a point one chain and seventy-five links from the west line of said Banks' East Lot thence two and one half chains north seventy-five degrees east to the north-east corner of Charles Burbridge's East Lot on the south side of the Halifax and South Western Railway thence crossing the said railway thence crossing Charles Burbridge's East Lot in a straight line to a point thirty-seven rods North of the Halifax and South Western Railway on Charles Burbridge's east line thence crossing at right angles and taking a strip three rods wide the lots of L. S. Tupper, Franklin Palmer, Mrs. Vernon Phinney, Isaac Feindel and crossing the brook at the North West corner of lands of John Tompson and following the south side of David Langille's south line taking a three rods strip from John Tompson and James White to the Public Road sometimes called the Dodge Road.

It in witness whereof we the parties of

Mr. Isaac Durling has purchased the piece of land adjoining his from Mr. Rice Daniels and is making considerable improvement on it.

Dr. Hall's properties are getting a thorough "going over" and we predict that they will add a great deal to the appearance of attractive Lawrence-town, as well as the comfort of the tenants.

Mr. Burpee Whitman, mason, and family are to return to Lawrence-town this week. They will occupy the tenement over Mr. S. T. Jefferson's store. Lawrence-town is a good place to live in.

Mrs. L. A. Richardson has vacated the tenement she so long occupied, and is boarding with W. C. MacPherson, Miss Alma Sweet, who is attending the High School, is also boarding there.

Mr. John Morgan has taken residence in the above-mentioned tenement, it being his own property. He has been employed eight years in Springfield in the Davison Lumber Company. It is good to have the sons coming back.

On the other hand, we are sorry indeed to report the going away of Mr. Horton Phinney and family. For some time he has had charge of the Halifax branch of the N. H. Phinney and Company business, but we still claimed him. Now it will be different. A reception will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Phinney in the Baptist church on Tuesday evening. For several years Mr. Phinney very acceptably filled the position of chorister in the Baptist choir, and Mrs. Phinney's fine work as organist added a great deal to the efficiency of the church music. We tender them our best wishes and feel that wherever they go they will be an addition to the community in which they reside.

Lawrencetown a Summer Resort

Lawrencetown is situated on the Dominion Atlantic Railway, midway between Halifax and Yarmouth. Twenty-eight miles west is Annapolis Royal, the oldest settlement in Canada. To the east about an hour's run by rail brings the traveller to the famous village of Grand Pre, renowned as the scene of Longfellow's Evangeline.

Lawrencetown is surrounded by a country celebrated for its magnificent orchards the drives through which are unsurpassed for rural beauty. Here nature has lavished her varied charms, and the place has an attraction all its own. Besides this the town is one of the most sanitary in the far-famed Annapolis Valley. It has a good sewerage system and an abundant supply of pure, soft spring water. An Electric Light Plant is also being installed.

The Annapolis River whose banks are open runs through the middle of the town. This is one of the best rivers for salmon fishing in Nova Scotia. Last spring one individual with rod and fly landed eight fine salmon within one hundred yards of the centre of the town. The best salmon fishing is usually from April 20 to the middle of June. "Hall's Island," "Mutton Island" and "Delancy Falls" are famous salmon pools within easy reach.

To the south within a distance of ten miles is the best trout fishing in Nova Scotia. "Wild Cat," "Shannon," "Waterloo," "Mollie-up-Seam," "Curl Hole" and "Sour Dough Falls" are trout fishing places of wide celebrity. To the initiated these names suggest a veritable fisherman's Paradise. Moose are plentiful in this Southern Country and in the open season guides can be had at reasonable rates.

The Annapolis river whose banks are here lined with majestic oaks affords ample opportunity for boating and canoeing. Six miles to the north is the Bay of Fundy where deep sea fishing and boating can be had. Beautiful motor cars and up-to-date liveries are always at the tourists' command. The service in this respect is all that can be desired.

Lawrencetown has a first-class homelike hotel, "The Elm House," where accommodation can be had at reasonable rates. Those who visit the town can be assured they will find one of the most healthy and attractive places in the famous "Land of Evangeline."

Torbrog

Torbrog, April 11.—Geo. King of Annapolis, was here last week taking orders for clothing.

One is being moved out to the concentrating mill.

There is some improvement in the condition of Mrs. T. E. Banks.

W. O. Baker moves to Middleton the first of May. He has sold his property here to Mr. Charles Palmer of South Tremont.

A number of our men went to St. John, expecting to find employment at the Courtenay Bay docks, but returned being unsuccessful, excepting R. O. Yorke, who secured a position.

Wider Markets are Coming

The first step toward freer trade between the United States and Canada has been taken by the introduction by the Democrats of a tariff bill putting food, clothing and other articles on the free list. On the principle that the luxuries, and not the necessities, of life should bear the brunt of taxation, the new bill proposes to cut the protection on farmers' products in half, and to place meat, milk and cream, potatoes, swine, wool and corn on the free list. Sugar duty is cut in half, and will be removed entirely in 1916. The tariff on horses, cattle, sheep, live poultry, grain, butter, cheese, eggs, vegetables and apples will be greatly reduced. Diamonds, furs and other luxuries at present on the free list will be taxed. The total remissions in customs duties will aggregate eighty million dollars, but the loss will be made up by a graduated income tax. This one-sided arrangement will not destroy the demand in Canada for wider markets. All Canada obtains under the Democratic tariff revision bill is greater freedom to sell in the United States. The power to buy in the United States will still be restricted by tariffs on the Canadian side. There is no relief for the purchaser of agricultural implements.

FOR THE BOY ATHLETE.

Every athlete, or those athletically inclined, would do well to follow these concise suggestions.

1. Health means work. Get into something with your whole soul.
2. Wear a smile, sing, whistle. Do something for the other fellow.
3. Cut out the liquor and tobacco.
4. Eat plain food and chew it well.
5. Use olive oil; three or four tablespoonfuls a day won't hurt you.
6. If you feel out of sorts in the morning drink two or three glasses of water. Flush out your system.
7. Get out in the hills. Climb the mountains. If there are no mountains lie on your back and kick your legs.
8. Breathe deeply and take breathing exercises. Let two hours elapse before going to bed after exercising. Sleep warm, but don't tire yourself with heavy coverings.
9. A cold plunge is good in the morning if you can stand it. Don't abuse bathing. One bath a day is enough for any man; make that one snappy, too.
10. Above all, good health means work and exercise. Don't take your exercise like a machine. Put some vim in it and you'll get double benefit.

THE CIGARETTE PLAGUE.

Go to any big factory of the cigarette making firm, and you will find, in some part of it, a store-house filled with heaps of rope-hemp ropes, collected from ships and shipyards, through the junk dealer. Here is a pile of new short ends, cut off as waste by the ship fitters and sailors; there, a pile of old ropes, but all are hemp, hemp, mind you, not tobacco.

Now just as nicotine is the essential property of tobacco, and as morphine is the essential property of opium, so hemp has an essential oil more terribly poisonous than either the tobacco plant or the poppy.

If you found that your boy smoked opium or that your girl was addicted to morphine, you would have a pretty bad half hour, would you not? Yet this habit of smoking cigarettes is infinitely more fatal to body and mind. He is becoming a victim of the most soul-destroying drug habit known throughout the wide world—hashish—supplied under the guise of tobacco.

This is a simple statement of facts. The evils of such a habit have not been enlarged upon.

Sick Headaches—are not caused by anything wrong in the head, but by constipation, biliousness and indigestion. Headache powders or tablets may deaden, but cannot cure them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills do cure sick headache in the sensible way by removing the constipation or sick stomach which caused them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are purely vegetable, free from any harmful drug, safe and sure. When you feel the headache coming take

Preventing Strikes

The Sharing Plan Has Been a Success in Britain.

Every serious-minded man must read with amazement the strike figures for 1911 and the first eight months of 1912 in Great Britain, says a London journal. In the former year, there were no fewer than 903 trade disputes involving 961,980 workers, who lost 10,319,591 working days, while in the period mentioned of 1912, there were 501 disputes, involving 1,340,206 work-people, causing a total estimated loss of 39,208,600 working days, figures unprecedented in the records of the Board of Trade.

When and where is this acute labor unrest going to end? What is the remedy? These are the questions which men of all shades of opinion have been asking for some time past. And their suggestions for remedying the state of industrial chaos into which the country was thrown during the early months of 1912—which condition it is possible may be repeated—are almost as numerous and varied as the real and imaginary grievances of employees.

Over twenty years ago, however, that very astute and far-seeing man, the late Sir George Livesey, chairman of the South Metropolitan Gas Company of London, adopted a strike-preventative plan, which has proved highly successful, and has also been successfully carried out by other companies. In 1889 occurred the great dock strike, and that year the company was approached by a trade union official to make various concessions to the men. These were eventually conceded, but, in order to avert the danger of strikes in future, Sir George introduced a special system of profit-sharing.

The scheme adopted by this gas company provided for the payment of a percentage or bonus of all salaries or wages—one-half in cash, and the other half being invested in the ordinary stock of the company—the percentage rising and falling proportionately with the price of gas. The object of the scheme, briefly, is to induce all officers and employees to take a real interest in the work by giving them a motive for endeavoring to promote the company's prosperity, and also to give them the opportunity of becoming owners of property in the stock of the firm. The rate of the bonus has varied from three per cent in 1892, to nine and three-quarters per cent in 1905-6-7, the total amount paid in the twenty-three years ending 1911 being over £2,700,000.

In all, 5,656 of the company's employees hold between them ordinary stock of the company to the (nominal) amount of £301,490. In addition, the company holds on behalf of its 5,534 of its employees' deposits, accumulated bonus, and other savings to the total amount of £54,260. And the company have placed it on record that this profit-sharing system has promoted harmonious relations between employers and employees and led to an avoidance of strikes.

It is urged that in these days, when working men consider that, apart from their wages, they should share in the prosperity of the business which their labor helps to build up, such a profit-sharing scheme might be more generally adopted with great advantage to employers and employees.

Thirty-two gas companies have followed the example of the South Metropolitan Gas Company with very great success, while two notable profit-sharing schemes have been adopted by Messrs. Lever Brothers, the famous soap makers, and the great ordnance manufacturers, Messrs. Armstrong, Whitworth, & Co.

Messrs. Lever Bros. of Port Sunlight, have had a co-partnership scheme in operation over three years, which provides for the distribution, among those workers who have been employed five years, of partnership certificates bearing a face value of ten per cent of the workers' annual wages. These certificates receive interest as though they were shares, but at a rate five per cent less—that is, if shares receive fifteen per cent, certificates receive ten per cent. This was the result of last year's working, when a dividend of $23,700 was paid to the workers, who now hold over £298,000 worth of partnership certificates, and have received a total dividend of more than £56,000.

In the case of Messrs. Armstrong, the rules of the company provide that an employee may be allowed to make a deposit with them of not less than one shilling and not more than £1 of his weekly wage, the deposits carrying a fixed interest of four per cent. In addition, a bonus is declared each year equal to half the difference between the fixed rate and the dividend payable on the shares of the company, the interest and bonus being added to depositors' accounts. The keen interest which employees take in this scheme is illustrated by the fact that the total amount they deposited with the company in 1911 was no less than £241,432.

A year after the South Metropolitan started their profit-sharing scheme Messrs. Clarke, Nickolls & Coombe, Limited, of the Clarico Confectionery Works, started a somewhat similar scheme for their work-people. The ordinary shareholders are paid six per cent on their capital, the surplus profits being divided in equal proportions between the work-people and the shareholders. In twenty-two years the work-people have received the sum of £172,025. All employees who have worked one year participate in the bonus, and are paid in proportion to their wages and salaries. The bonus is paid in cash, and there is no compulsion for employees to invest any part of it in the company's stock, but every encouragement is given to them to acquire shares, and their holding is considerable.

GERMAN POLAR EXPEDITION MET WITH FAILURE.

Christiania, Norway, April 9—Failure has overtaken the members of the German arctic expedition under Lieut. Schroeder Stranz, several of whose members died on the ice from exposure and scurvy.

Four of the men have succeeded in returning to Advent Bay, Spitzbergen, and two others are reported safe at Treurenburg bay. The aviator and cook who accompanied the expedition, however, died from exposure and starvation, while nothing has been heard from the commander since he started on a sledge expedition alone on August last year. Capt. Ritschell brought the first news of the fate of the expedition in January when he returned to Advent Bay in a deplorable condition and was thought to be the only survivor.

Today's dispatches from Spitzbergen have revived hopes that still others may be alive. Among the party besides the officers and crew were several German scientists, including a geologist, a botanist and an oceanographer. Experience of polar work was almost entirely lacking and the equipment was said to be very poor. The intention of the party was to pave a way for a more important undertaking under Lieut. Schroeder Stranz, which was to endeavor to make the northeast passage later this year.

Rheumatism Yields to Zam-Buk

READ THIS LADY'S EXPERIENCE.

Just at this season many people find themselves suffering from aches and pains of rheumatism, sciatica, etc. For these, Zam-Buk is a sure cure.

Mrs. Mary Harman, Wheatley, Ont. writes: "I had rheumatism very badly. It affected my right arm and leg, and was so bad that I could not put my hand to my head or behind me. I was quite helpless, could not do my work, and could not even dress myself, but had to be attended to like a child. The rheumatism in my leg was so bad that at times I could hardly walk."

"Naturally I tried various remedies but they seemed to do me no good. A friend advised me to try Zam-Buk. I obtained some, and had it rubbed thoroughly into the affected muscles. Before the first box was used I was very much better. I could move around the house with ease, and dress myself, and needed very little personal attention. I continued with the treatment, rubbing Zam-Buk in thoroughly every day, and in a few weeks time the rheumatism was driven completely out of my system. The cure was permanent, too, and since that time I have never been troubled with rheumatism."

It is just as good for skin injuries and diseases, eczema, scalp sores, eruptions, piles, cuts, burns, bruises, scalds, etc. All druggists and stores, 50c. box or by mail from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1913.

The London Daily Chronicle draws an interesting parallel between the history of Aristide Briand, recently Premier of France, and David Lloyd-George, the British Chancellor.

Both were born in humble circumstances so far as wealth and worldly position are concerned. Both found that there is no royal road to learning.
Their paths to a good education were beset by many difficulties which have deterred many less eager seekers. Both, however, won their way to the honorable profession of the law. Both had naturally the faculty of facile and convincing speech, and availed themselves of all opportunities possible of listening to men who possessed the gift of oratory.

Both were influenced by the circumstances of their lives to think much of social questions and to incline in many matters to the side of the masses. Both were, early in their professional career, chosen for Parliamentary responsibilities, and having placed their feet upon the first round of the Parliamentary ladder, they soon began to rise by the sheer force of manifest ability. Both are the recognized and trusted friends of their official superiors. Both are the hope of all in their respective countries who are laboring for the universal acceptance of the fact, that

"The rank is but the guinea's stamp,
"The man's the gowd, for a' that."

Both are yet comparatively young men, and the story of their successes should be an incentive to all.

To those who are able to look out from the standpoint of fifty years ago; the opportunities of the young people of the present day are wonderful. Poverty is not an insuperable barrier to anyone who desires a good educational equipment for the battle of life. And all young people should cherish the commendable ambition to take advantage of these opportunities, not for merely selfish uses, but in order to be the best fitted for usefulness and success in whatever path of life may be opened up before them.

The Welsh friends of David Lloyd-George recently presented him with his portrait. The speaker who formally unveiled the portrait said facetiously that for some weeks the question had been occupying the attention of the subscribers, "Where shall we hang Lloyd-George?"

The question led to several remarks on the same line. One said he had heard a story about some occasion which had drawn together a large crowd in London streets, whereupon another replied "this is nothing to the crowd you would see if they were hanging Lloyd-George." Another told of a man who had rescued some one from drowning. The saved man was called upon to express his obligations to his rescuer, when the latter responded, that he had really done nothing to merit congratulation or reward. He saw the man struggling in the water, and as no one else was near, he saw the man would be drowned unless he saved him. Therefore, he jumped in, swam out to the man, turned his face over to see that he was not Lloyd-George, and then pulled him out.

The little Welsh lawyer fills a large space in the thoughts of Englishmen the world over, at the present time, some supprisingly, but, most approvingly.

—Extract from the Report of the Secretary of Industry and Immigration, of Nova Scotia, to the Provincial Legislature now in Session.

ATTRACTED BY HOME-LIKE CONDITIONS.
A man who came to Nova Scotia after living some years in the West, writes the following: "Twenty-three years ago I landed from Great Britain at Quebec, where numbers of my fellow countrymen even now think is the beginning of Canada, with Victoria or Vancouver as the other end. I went West, residing in the Canadian North-West twelve years. In 1904 I came East to the Maritime Provinces on a business trip, and was so struck with the attractiveness, home-like conditions, educational and other advantages that I determined to stay here and take up farming. This I did until last year, when my health obliged me to take up some lighter occupation for a while at least, but I may say that I am still owner of a small farm of seventy acres, hiring some of the work done, whilst the family enjoy looking after the poultry, garden and the small dairy."

For the Old Country tenant farmer, working on a small scale, there is no better country than Nova Scotia with its fertile farm lands. For the cost of a year or two years' rent he can become the owner of a comfortable farm-house with the knowledge that every cent spent, and all work done will alone benefit himself. The conditions are much more like the home-land—orchards, plenty of wood, a healthy climate, no winter and summer extremes, etc.

We have good markets, which are steadily improving owing to the industrial development in the Province. Now that all the best homesteads are taken up in the West it is folly not to at least give Nova Scotia a trial. Hundreds of farms are to be obtained here at prices that the buildings alone would cost to erect in the West. Intending emigrants should have at least $2,000, although an Englishman of my acquaintance who came to Nova Scotia some years ago invested the only $100 he had in six acres of land. He worked out and paid the balance. Then without a cent and with borrowed money he bought the adjoining farm, which he and his sons soon paid for. Today he is in comfortable circumstances. Others have made good in the same way. Nowhere in Nova Scotia are men out of work.
Conditions all over the Maritime Provinces are good. As our industries increase, and our many natural resources are developed, the price of farm products will be bound to increase. Fortune hunters of course will be disappointed.
But anyone willing to work, and having any business ability cannot but succeed; and what is better, find a good home here near the home-land to which every Canadian is proud to acknowledge his allegiance and loyalty."

Annual Meeting of Riverside Cemetery

The first annual meeting of the Riverside Cemetery, Bridgetown, was called for the third Tuesday of April, 1913, as provided by section 10 of the act of incorporation and held pursuant to published notice, in the Council Chamber on Tuesday evening
April 15th, 1913, at 7.30 o'clock.

The president, J. W. Salter, occupied the chair and read the section of the act under which the meeting was called. He then called upon the Secretary-Treasurer for a written report for the year ending March 13th, 1913.

The report was read and showed a small balance on hand from the year's operations.
It was moved by J. W. Peters and seconded by W. R. Longmire, that the annual report as read be printed and mailed to each lot-holder and also published in the Weekly Monitor.

The matter of choosing seven directors for the ensuing year was next in order and the following were chosen by ballot:—

Dr. M. E. Armstrong, W. R. Longmire, J. W. Peters, H. B. Hicks,
J. E. Lloyd, J. W. Salter and H.
Ruggles.

A meeting of the new directors was then held and on motion J. W. Salter was re-elected president; J. E.
Lloyd, vice president, and H. Ruggles secretary-treasurer for the ensuing year.

Resolved that the thanks of the directors be extended to all the ladies who have so kindly spent their time and energies in raising funds for the improvement of the cemetery, as without their most valuable assistance the work could not possibly have advanced as it has during the past year.

Resolved that the secretary-treasurer be requested to at once collect all the outstanding subscriptions now due the company, as well as the assessments due on each lot for the years 1912 and 1913, as the money is required for improvements during the present summer.

Minutes read and approved,
H. RUGGLES,
Secretary-Treasurer.

To the Sunday School Workers of warm them into activity. If so you should be up and doing as you have a whole year's work crowded into six months or you will be left behind in the race.

The Sunday School Association has been at work in Annapolis County for nearly forty years and has helped many individuals and schools into better and more effective work. But there are still schools we would like to reach which do not send delegates to our conventions, and will not try the improved methods of work which have been successful in other schools and are freely offered to all who will try them by the Sunday School Association. The best evidence of the value of our work is the generous way in which it is being supported financially by the schools which have put in practise the Association work. One school contributed $8.00; another $7.08; several gave $5.00. The County Secretary has already received $56.00 on the current year. Melvern Square, Middleton and Annapolis Districts are the largest contributors to this amount. In order to bring the work of the Association before all the Sunday Schools and churches the Provincial Association are preparing a special service to be given by all Sunday Schools which accept it on Sunday, May 25th. Every school will be supplied free with as many copies of the service as they can use to pastors, and it is suggested that pastors speak to their people on that day of the blessings to be gained by attending the Sunday School; al-

LOCAL AND SPECIAL

Who will be first to win the hand-some watch? See page eight.

Mr. G. E. Banks, plumber, has had a telephone instrument placed in his house, No. 3-2.

69th Annapolis Regiment—To be provisional Lieutenant: Colour Sergeant James Alfred Coleman Willett, from 17th Feb. 1913.

A May Tea will be held in the Primrose building Thursday, May 1st, in aid of the Cemetery Fund. See adv. in this issue.

Work was resumed yesterday at the Riverside Cemetery, under the supervision of Mr. Frederick E. Gandy, who has had six years of experience in Halifax in this line of work.

See the great inducement offered by the Monitor on page eight. Anyone should be able to secure six new subscribers in an hour or two. The watch is a beauty and well worth five dollars.

The death of James Meuse, one of the oldest and most distinguished Indians on the Indian Reserve at Bear River, occurred on Tuesday, April 15, after a long illness. The deceased had the honor of being chief of the tribe for many years.

J. W. Beckwith has opened the largest assortment of Carpets Squares ever shown before in Bridgetown. Oil Carpets and Linoleums 1, 2, 3 and 4 yds. wide. All fresh and new for the spring trade. See his stock before sending your order away.

The old cheese factory located on the Morse Road, Carletons Corner, was burned to the ground early Sunday morning. The building has been used as a dwelling for a number of years, but was not occupied at the time of the fire. The property is owned by the John W. Piggott estate.

Mr. Samuel Aiken, contractor, of Fredericton, N. B., arrived in town last week, and is now busily engaged with a crew of men in putting on retaining walls to all sides of the abutments of the D. A. R. bridge across the river. Mr. Aiken says the work will take about three months' time.

A few weeks ago a small boy was knocked down and run over, and the Monitor warned people against fast driving on the busiest streets of the town. This warning has not been heeded altogether, and some fast driving is still indulged in. This little notice is intended to spare the town from a serious accident resulting from this dangerous practice.

Rev. N. A. MacNeill goes to Annapolis next Sunday to preach the annual sermon for the Oddfellows Lodge of that place at the Baptist church in the afternoon. He will also occupy the pulpit of the same church morning and evening in exchange with Rev. R. F. Allen, who will fill Mr. MacNeill's appointments in Bridgetown.

A building used as a carriage house and storage room for farm implements by Mr. George Munro, Bridgetown East, was burned to the ground together with all its contents, last Saturday morning at three o'clock. The fire was of incendiary origin. The loss is a heavy one. Mr. Munro, particularly at this time of the year when the farm implements are brought into use.

Messrs. A. M. King & Son, of Annapolis, "The Clothing Kings of Western Nova Scotia," have secured the order for making the uniforms for the conductors, baggage masters and brakemen of the Dominion Atlantic Division of the C. P. R. This firm is advertising for help in this issue of the Monitor, in the hope of doubling their staff in the tailoring department to meet increasing trade.

A large number of members were present at the last communication of Rothsay Lodge, A. F. & A. M. Besides the conferring of the Third Degree on three candidates, the officers elected at the last meeting were installed by R. W. Bro. Alexander Harris, D.D.G.M., P.M., Fred R. Fay acting as presenting officer. Refreshments were served after the closing of the Lodge.

Fire was discovered in the forward hold of the S. S. Westport, while making her trip from St. John to Westport on the 12th inst. The passengers, twelve in number, were landed in a lifeboat at Point Prim and the steamer was then headed for Digby, where the fire company at that place extinguished the flames. The steamer was slightly damaged, but the cargo was practically ruined by fire and water.

The friends of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Beckwith, Halifax, will regret to learn of the death of their youngest child, Flora Margaret, which occurred on Monday of this week, after an illness of ten days. She was a particularly bright child of five years, and endeared herself to many persons when she was here visiting her grandparents. The funeral took place yesterday, (Tuesday) at 3.30 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, and interment being made in St. John's cemetery.

Rev. H. R. Grant, agent of the Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance, spent Sunday, April 20th, in town, speaking with great acceptance in the morning in the Presbyterian church, and in the evening in the Methodist church. In the afternoon he addressed a large gathering, especially of young people, in the Baptist church, giving information and advice which will no doubt result in good. At this meeting Mr. George Dixon acted as chairman, and Miss Hortense Griffin gave an appropriate reading, which was appreciated very highly.

LOCAL AND SPECIAL

A slight case of diphtheria broke out in the home of Mr. Burton Walker at Carleton's Corner a few days ago. The patient is doing well at this date.

Mrs. T. D. Ruggles had the misfortune one day last week to fall on the stairs at her home and fracture her collar bone. Dr. Dechman is in attendance.

The last social gathering of the season under the auspices of St. James' church Adult Bible Class will be held this (Wednesday) evening in their schoolroom.

A working train and crew of men under the supervision of Trackmaster Murphy, have been working the past few days on that section of the track just east of Round Hill station, where an accident occurred to the freight train two weeks ago. Forty carloads of gravel have been dumped into an excavation caused by a washout, yet the track continues to settle, and considerable work remains to be done at this point.

Prof. W. S. Blair, of the Experimental Farm, Kentville, was in town last week in connection with the Demonstration Orchard work in Clarence. While here Prof. Blair visited Riverside Cemetery with the Directors. He will assist in completing the ornamentation of the cemetery, and in suggesting shrubbery and ornamental bushes that are suitable for our climate. Prof. Blair has had a great deal of experience in laying out parks and grounds, and expressed himself as much pleased with the work begun in our Cemetery.

A Canadian National Fruit Growers' Association has recently been organized, having the following for its objects: to encourage improvements in fruit growing; to develop markets for fruit abroad, and to initiate and influence legislation affecting Canadian fruit interests, and generally to take such action as the best interests of the industry may from time to time demand. The executive of provincial associations are eligible for membership in the Canadian association, and the Nova Scotia members are as follows:—S. C. Parker, Berwick; F. W. Bishop, Paradise; H. K. Ellis, Port Williams; Prof. P. J. Shaw, Agricultural College, Truro.

At the close of the meeting of the Executive of the Annapolis County Temperance Alliance, in Warren's Hall, on Monday afternoon, there was another meeting of the ladies and gentlemen of the town present, when it was resolved to call a meeting of the citizens generally, male and female, to assemble in Warren's Hall on Monday, 28th inst, at 8 p.m. for the purpose of organizing a local branch of the Alliance to co-operate with the Provincial Temperance Alliance, with a view to the preparation and distribution of temperance literature, the promoting of pledge signing and other means for the advancement of total abstinence from alcoholic beverages. Addresses are to be made at the meeting by J. Irvin, Esq., and M. E. Armstrong, M. D. The Olive Branch of the Sons of Temperance kindly consented to postpone their next meeting until Monday evening, the 5th prox.

BRIDGETOWN.

The evening service in this church last Sunday was addressed by Rev. H. R. Grant, General Secretary of the Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance. Rev. J. F. Duetan occupied a seat upon the platform with the Pastor of the church, and in the large congregation there was a generous number of the members of the Presbyterian congregation. In closing his masterly appeal for the protection of the County, the home and the boy against the evils of the liquor traffic, Mr. Grant presented an encouraging statement of the marked progress that temperance sentiment is making in our fair province. For the splendid stand our local government is taking upon the question and for the advanced temperance legislation granted our legislators, Mr. Grant urged, should receive the hearty support of all right thinking people of the Province. Let us stand behind our men who thus at the very forefront of the battle are fighting for this great cause—the total destruction of the liquor business—this was the appeal straight and strong made by Mr. Grant.

The Disaster at Dayton

(By ARTHUR RUHL.) (Special Correspondent of Outlook.)

Our relief train, the third special from New York, picked its way slowly southward from Toledo through the night, and reached Dayton shortly after daybreak—the fifth morning after that wall of muddy water rolled down on and over the town.

The Miami and the Mad had returned to their channels, the water had left all but the lower quarters of the city, most of the dead had been found. The terror and immediate danger were over, and in the soft stillness of a bright spring morning the thousands who had little chance to think of anything but of saving others and themselves from death began to turn to the difficult business of living.

The sight and the task which faced them are not easily described. Except to those who have seen a city emerge from such a flood, the ordinary adjectives convey little meaning.

This mud-fine, black, slimy river silt—as in and over everything. It was as if the first story of all the houses and shops and office buildings—and there were eight or ten square miles submerged in the heart of Dayton—were a mold into which had been poured so much of this infinitely penetrating thin plaster.

From every door, up and down miles of streets, this fair spring morning, they were shoveling it forth. With snow-shovels, pans, pails they pushed it across carpets to the front door, and thence slopping and splashing, down the steps over the sidewalk into the street.

I saw one woman in knickerbockers and rubber boots calmly shoveling the black paste from her parlor window. An elderly gentleman in one of the finer houses asked me to step in and look around. The whole house had been covered up to the second story. The dining-room fireplace was still half full of straw swept there by the current.

Now the country which the Miami system drains has greater extremes of elevation than either of the other two river systems of the State, the Scioto in central Ohio and the Muskingum in the east.

Such were the general conditions when there fell over nearly the whole State of Ohio an unusual rain. It came on the heels of the cyclone, a stray arm of which reached out and struck Omaha, and soaked and pounded the already saturated soil.

ried into the yard, the lower floor was covered four inches deep. The sight of this unexpected, repulsive substance, burying soft carpets and the usually inviolate household goods, brought home to the outsider the inhuman ruthlessness of such a flood even more, perhaps, than crushed houses or the poor, still figures in the morgue.

Communication with the outside world here in Dayton is still so slight that I cannot give the figures for the rainfall elsewhere, but there is no doubt that it was widespread and heavy.

There was some rain on the Sunday preceding the flood, about half an inch on Sunday night, and two inches and a half on Monday.

That is to say, the water, which reached a stage of twenty-nine feet Tuesday night, got to a point where levees could not hold it, and came pouring over them into the town.

Whether or not anything like a "wall" of water came down the river, it was a wall of water which swept over and through the levees and into the town.

Looking, now, down any of the streets in the residence part of the town—kindly, comfortable streets, lined with elms and maples—you notice a stratum of straw and bits of grass hanging from the lower balconies about ten feet from the sidewalk.

miles north of Dayton. The Lake Shore telegraph poles were down for miles, broken off short in the middle or fallen over out of the ooze which was no longer solid enough, to sustain them; fields were dripping, and little peach trees, offering only two or three feet of surface above the ground, had been whipped out by the roots.

For Loss of Hair

We will pay for what you use if Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does not promote the growth of your hair.

In all our experience with hair tonics the one that has done most to gain our confidence is Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We have such well-founded faith in it that we want you to try it at our risk.

There is a Rexall Store in nearly every town and city in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. There is a different Rexall Remedy for nearly every ordinary human ailment—each especially designed for the particular ailment for which it is recommended.

Artificial milk of a nourishing value at least equal to that of the natural product has been produced after years of experimenting.

The taste however would deceive no one, though the liquid might with habit become palatable. It is not touched by land while in process of manufacture. It would be almost as pure as any of the same quality, and could be sold to the consumer at six cents a quart.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 23 Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia.

Henry Ward Beecher used to tell this story of the way in which his teacher of mathematics taught him to depend upon himself.

"I was sent to the blackboard and went, uncertain, full of whimpering. 'That lesson must be learned,' said my teacher, in a very quiet tone, but with a terrible intensity. All explanations and excuses he trod under foot with utter scornfulness.

TO 'BENEFIT OTHER SUFFERERS

You May Publish My Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

Mr. Jones is proud to acknowledge the great debt of gratitude he owes "Fruit-a-tives". He is glad to have his letter published in order that other sufferers may be induced to try these wonderful tablets made of fruit juices.

SARNIA, ONT., FEB. 5th. 1911
"I have been a sufferer for the past 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I tried many remedies and many doctors, but derived no benefit whatever. Finally, I read an advertisement for "Fruit-a-tives". I decided to give "Fruit-a-tives" a trial and they did exactly what was claimed for them. I have now taken them for some time and find they are the only remedy that does me good. I have recommended "Fruit-a-tives" to a great many of my friends, and I cannot praise these fruit tablets too highly."

FREE FISH SPELLS RUIN FOR GLOUCESTER.

Boston, April 8.—Free fish from the Province threatens Gloucester, according to a telegram received from Congressman Gardner at Washington. Mr. Gardner says that the Democrats have put fish on the free list, and Gloucester interests state that such action will spell ruin for them. A feeling against free fish has always pervaded Gloucester and the announcement met with the strong disapproval of hundreds of the fishermen.

Some fishermen say that if fish are admitted free, all of the Gloucester fishermen will leave here for the Province. Instead of bringing the fish to Gloucester and paying a duty, they can bring them in free and will profit considerably by living nearer the fishing banks.

Other dealers say that the small fish dealers who are unable to send vessels to the banks and pay the duty on the fish will be able to compete with the big companies if the fish are admitted free.

According to the telegram, all green fish, fish dried, smoked, pickled, fresh, or in any state of preservation upon which a duty of three-quarters of a cent a pound is now being paid, will be admitted free.

Skinned and boned fish, which now has a duty of one and one-quarter cents will be cut in the new tariff to one-half cent duty per pound.

WHY HE WAS LATE.

"What made you so late?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."
"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"

nastum. Two thousand five hundred people were fed here for days exclusive of the ordinary relief work, and well fed, and served by waitresses in uniform without hurry or delay. As many slept in the building, the more fortunate as comfortably as in the best city hotel.

The sight of the place, alight and humming, with scores of automobiles rumbling and smoking about it, was, to those coming up from the dismantled city, a constant wonder. On one floor newspaper correspondents were pounding out stories to all the world; on another, in the hospital quarters, babies were being born or flood sufferers fighting pneumonia; on another, heaps of clothing sorted out and sprayed with disinfectants before distribution; away up near the roof mothers with children and toothless old women dozed in rocking-chairs, while pianos pounded out rag-times or church hymns.

Just what such an oasis means is difficult to realize unless one has had the experience of a city literally without food, water, light, or the means of getting about. At the National Cash Register plant you might have thought you were at a political convention or in some jolly exposition hall. There was food for every one, coffee and sandwiches at every turn, distilled water in individual paper cups. Newspaper reporters, shot off by their city editors without time to get so much as a toothbrush or a collar, found themselves sleeping in brand new brass bedsteads, under down quilts, and rattled off in tiled bathrooms, where everything was supplied them, even—if they had time to use them—with buffers to polish their finger nails. When their clothes gave out they were given new ones—clean linen, overalls, pajamas, anything they needed. Hard-worked clerks and attendants at once acquired all the special knowledge of valets with the gracious manners of Southern gentlemen. Men smeared with mud were asked, as they went to bed, to send their clothes to be pressed, and there were large signs posted in the lower corridor stating that clothes-pressers and barbers worked all night and accepted neither pay nor tips. As I stepped into the hall late last night a young man, serving as watchman outside the door, lifted his head from his arms, murmured, "Are you restin' pretty good?" and, satisfied of this, returned to his slumber. To step from the silent, sodden city into this humming Babel, where everything seemed to be had for the asking, was like stepping from the infernal regions to one of those sanitary socialistic Utopias pictured by Mr. H. G. Wells.

Only this—and here was the piquant interest of the thing—was the very apotheosis of centralized, one-man power. The National Cash Register is, in a peculiarly complete sense, an expression of the somewhat eccentric genius of one man—an industrial captain just come from being sentenced, along with a number of the keen, devoted, capable men working day and night here in relief work, to a term in prison for violating the anti-trust laws. No novelist or playwright trying to picture the drama of modern business ever devised anything more ingeniously dramatic—this heroic vs. of efficiency. It was almost a sort of throwing down of the gauntlet—"So this is what you are trying to punish!"—those great, bright, humming National Cash Register buildings seemed to say.

The president's son, a frank, hustling, unspoiled youth, worked day and night, first with the rescue boats, later with motor cars, and even in the morgue. His daughter, a bright-eyed girl of twenty-one perhaps, was at work with the other waitresses in the big dining-room. The town's feeling toward the moving spirit of this concentrated efficiency was almost religious enthusiasm. "Do you think," one man asked me—he was a worker away over in the Riverside section, and nothing had been said of "Patterson"—"if God Almighty wasn't with him, that he wouldn't have a wet place out there!"—as if destiny itself had fixed the Cash Register buildings on high ground. The old gentleman who showed me his ruined library, also, quite of his own accord, broke out in a similar way against a government that would send such a man to prison. "I carried a musket fifty years ago," he cried, and then stopped as if at a loss for a word. "And I'm ready to carry one again," he concluded, presently.

As this is being written I have just returned from a walk through the flooded part of the town. In the three days that people have had to work an astonishing amount of cleaning has been done. The water and sewer systems are working, a few trolley cars running, and here and there plucky merchants have hung out signs: "Will Resume Business as Soon as We Can Get Stock," or "Will be Ready in a Few Days. Hurrah for Greater Dayton!"

There is still almost no food, however, for 100,000 people, except that brought in on relief trains, and the amount of work to be done before the city is ship-shape again is appalling. During a walk of perhaps two miles in the early evening I don't suppose I saw more than half a dozen lights—only block after block of deserted houses, silent, dismantled, except for the sentries at the street corners like a city of the dead.

But Dayton was only one of the cities to suffer from the floods which overwhelmed the lower half of the State of Ohio. More people were lost at Columbus; in some of the small towns further down the Miami the wreck was more complete. Of this and of the general flood problem I shall speak in another article.

IN NOVA SCOTIA.

In Nova Scotia, the Counties of Kings, Annapolis and Hants, which had practically retired from potato growing, might now resume the production of the vegetable.

Another Halifax exporter, whose interests are centred in the fish and potato trade, is of a very different opinion. He asserts that the reduction in tariff was made by the United States Government for the express purpose of reducing present prices in that country. The duty taken off, American producers would have to lower their prices accordingly, so as to prevent outside competition. Canadian fish would find no larger a market in the States than had been in the past for the reason that the prices of the American caught fish would be correspondingly reduced. Occasionally Canadian caught fish in answer to supply and demand would make their way into the States, but this happened before even when duty was imposed.

SATISFIED WITH MARKET

This gentleman also held that Canada had at present sufficient, if not too much of a market, and could today secure better prices elsewhere than in the States. With the prices lowered in that country by duty reductions Canadian exporters would have no desire to sell on the American market.

That Canadian fishermen and exporters in general will benefit by the change is the opinion of another local expert. The Americans' fishery methods are too extravagant and they will not be able to sell cheaply enough to offset the abolition of duty. This will make way for Maritime Province exporters.

New United States Tariff a Great Boom to Nova Scotia

General Opinion is That Province Will Benefit.

(Morning Chronicle)

Maritime Province exporters of the products on which the duty will be either greatly reduced or totally abolished if the proposed changes in the United States tariff become effective are eager to know in what way they will be affected. Opinions as to the benefit which will accrue are said to vary greatly. For Halifax, at any rate, this is true. A number of prominent local exporters were interviewed by The Morning Chronicle yesterday on the subject and wider divergency of views would be difficult to find.

THE APPLE TRADE.

One gentleman, a power in the potato and apple trade of the Maritime Provinces, maintained that United States trade for these exports would be very much increased. Shipments of apples from Nova Scotia to the Republic at the present time were very limited, but the reduction from twenty-five cents to fifteen cents of tariff would double the trade, Boston and New York were the only places where Nova Scotia apples could profitably enter. There was considerable demand for the King, and among the Germans of New York for the Gravenstein. These would now, no doubt, be sold in much larger quantities.

"The taking off of the tariff on potatoes is a perfect God-send to Prince Edward Island," said the same gentleman. There these vegetables were grown in limited quantities because of a limited demand. Now that there was no duty, Prince Edward Island exporters could land their potatoes in New York cheaper than the Americans would be able to, and a market could be readily created. On the island potatoes could be grown very cheaply and with no duty to pay, could effect an easy entrance into United States markets. The small farmer would reap especial benefit.

In Nova Scotia, the Counties of Kings, Annapolis and Hants, which had practically retired from potato growing, might now resume the production of the vegetable.

Another Halifax exporter, whose interests are centred in the fish and potato trade, is of a very different opinion. He asserts that the reduction in tariff was made by the United States Government for the express purpose of reducing present prices in that country. THESE ARE 62,000,000 OF THEM.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star
How I wonder what you are!
Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky.
And now, by actual count British astronomers have found 62,000,000 of these little twinkling bodies in this great celestial world of which mother earth is a twinkling part. Is it not wonderful? It is away beyond finite comprehension! Yet here we go rushing through space, a "twinkle, little star," making up one of tens of millions of worlds just like our own! And yet some men see all this, wonder at all this, even worship all this—and yet deny a First Great Cause!

Cause for Alarm

Loss of appetite or distress after eating—a symptom that should not be disregarded.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest persons are moderate eaters. Nothing will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people contract serious maladies through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all who suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the understanding that we will refund the money paid us without question or formality, if after use you are not perfectly satisfied with results.

We recommend Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets to customers every day, and have yet to hear of one who has not been benefited. We believe them to be without equal. They give prompt relief, aiding to neutralize acidity, stimulate flow of gastric juice, strengthen the digestive organs, and thus promote perfect nutrition and correct unhealthy symptoms. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our store: ROYAL PHARMACY, BRIDGETOWN, N.S.

A GOLDEN ONE

A white rose in his button-hole, and cotton gloves on his dirty hands, old Bill Loafer swaggered jauntily along the street. At the corner a friend stopped him, exclaiming incredulously:—"Why, Bill, of man, what's happened—bin left some money?"

"No, no," said Bill. "It's me goldin' weddin'; I'm celebratin' me goldin' weddin'!"

"But why ain't your wife celebratin' it, too?" inquired his friend. "I see 'er goin' to work as usual this mornin'. Why ain't she got a white rose and noo gloves?"

"Er," muttered Bill, as he grunted reflectively. "She ain't got nuffin' to do wiv it! She's me fourth!"

At a certain college in the north of England, says the Birgham "Weekly Post," the male students were not permitted to visit the resident lady boarders.

One day a male student was caught in the act of doing so, and was court-martialed. The head master, addressing him said, "Well, Mr.—, the penalty for the first offence is two shillings and sixpence, for the second five shillings, for the third seven shillings and sixpence and so on, rising half a crown each time up to three pounds."

In solemn tones the trespasser said, "How much would a season ticket cost?"

On the occasion of one of his public speeches in Wales, Mr. Lloyd-George was introduced to the assemblage by a Welsh deacon. The chancellor is fond of repeating the graceful words of the introduction.

"Gentlemen," said the deacon, "I haff to introduce to you tonight the member for Carnarvon Boroughs. He hess come here to reply to what the Bishop of St. Asaph said about the Welsh disestablishment. In my opinion, gentlemen, the Bishop of St. Asaph iss one of the big gest liars in creation; but, thank God, we haff a match for him tonight!"

Little James, while at a neighbor's, was given a piece of bread and butter, and politely said, "Thank you."

"That's right, James," said the lady. "I like to hear little boys say 'Thank you.'"

"Well," rejoined James, "if you want to hear me say it again, you might put some jam on it."

They had just become engaged. "What joy it will be," she exclaimed, "for me to share all your griefs and sorrows!"

"But, darling!" he protested; "I have none."

"No," she answered; "but when we are married you will have."—Ladies' Home Journal.

JACOB A. WAGNER.

Death has again saddened our community. On the evening of April 15, Mr. Jacob A. Wagner passed away at his home in his sixty-seventh year, of Bright's disease. The deceased was born in New Canada, and removed to this place some twenty-three years ago. For a number of years he was leader of the choir and also taught an adult class in Sunday school. He was a member of the Baptist church, having professed faith when a young man. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow, four sons and two daughters; also a large number of other relatives and friends. The services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. M. W. Brown. The community extend their sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Granville Centre.

(By an occasional correspondent.)
Granville Centre, April 22.—Congratulations to Mr. Clyde A. Gilliatt, who has again been promoted. This time he is made assistant inspector for the Middle West branches of the Royal Bank of Canada, and, accompanying Inspector Murray of Halifax, is already at work. Filling such an important position at the age of twenty-one speaks volumes for our "Clyde," and Granville Centre may be justly proud of him.

Mr. H. V. McCormick is confined to the house by la grippe.
Miss Hazel Gilliatt has returned from a visit with her uncle in Paradise.

Mr. Adelbert Hardwick, after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Mills, has returned to Moschelle.
The Rev. Boyd M. Parker, of Caledonia, called on friends here last week and was warmly welcomed.

Miss Ida Munroe, Lower Granville, accompanied by her friend, Miss Litch, recently visited her aunt, Mrs. W. A. Gilliatt.

Miss Pearl Messinger of Boston, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Millie Withers, is now with her parents at Granville Ferry.
One day last week a cow belonging to Jno. and Geo. McCormick, gave birth to a fine pair of twin calves, and we are sure no mother cow was ever prouder of her offspring.

Miss Esther Gilliatt, having completed the year's work at Dalhousie University, has gone to Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, where she will teach until the re-opening of Dalhousie.

Mrs. G. M. Bent was the hostess at last week's meeting of the circle of All Saints' church. A large number were in attendance and the evening proved a very pleasant one. Miss Myers contributed much to the entertainment by rendering in a very pleasing manner a number of choice comic and sentimental selections. This week's meeting is at the home of Mrs. J. M. Troop.

Upper Granville

Upper Granville, April 21.—Mr. McDonald from South Unalake, Hants County, was in this vicinity last week. He has had experience in mining in foreign as well as homeland, he has leased mines owned by a gentleman in town and purposes working the same at an early date.

Mr. Wheeler with family arrived safely from England about two weeks ago and are now pleasantly and happily located in the residence left vacant by Mr. H. Troop.

The rumor of a school with manual training in view, should be hailed with delight by every true well wisher of education. Any teacher with years' experience finds the problem hard to solve when even the three and slow working brain of many a child, who can be taught to be clever and even skillful at hand work. Much of the deplorable idleness and vagrancy seen on the streets comes from no proper development on the line, and the old adage "Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do," is verified. We cannot be good if idle, and surely the great in all ages were workers, many of them developing step by step at humble crafts until the ideal in view was attained. Let all lovers of humanity vote for manual training, not only in our towns, but also in all our public schools, which to say the best of them, have not as yet attained to perfection.

FUNDY GRINDSTONE.

From the bottom of the Bay of Fundy come some of the finest grindstones in the world, and the manner in which they are procured is simple and ingenious, the stonecutters making the exceptional tide perform the hardest part of the work. When the tide is out, which happens twice a day, the workmen quarry the stones from the solid rock and fasten them to a big flatboat. Then in comes the tide, a mighty flood rushing in as though the great ocean had suddenly changed its mind. Wonderful sight it is, rising often as high as a house. And now the men have nothing more to do. The tide lifts the boat, and up comes the stone with it. Boat and stone are then brought close inshore where the stone is removed at leisure when the tide is out.
