HAVE we a progressive government?

POLITICAL STAGNATION. Our two parties have just fought for the lucrative right of governing the country, but in that struggle neither exhibited a new policy; both rested on the doubtful laurels of the past. Liberals pretended to be responsible for industrial prosperity. Conservatives inveigled against Tarte. In its claims for election neither party urged any decided merit of its own.

Why were there no great issues? True, we have no such colossal octopus as the Standard Oil Company; no such omnipotent capitalist as Reid of Newfoundland. But we have our C.P.R., which, something more than rumour says, is monarch of the West, and only the miscarriage of the Yukon Railway deal saved the country from even worse.

The separation of capital and labour is hardly less serious than was the separation of barons and people in Europe, centuries ago. If Canada is young, monopolies already threaten. That our parties failed to take a determined stand on this great question, and on others equally great, indicates weakness or something not as forgivable; for there are legislative remedies, not merely theoretical, and some day these remedies will have to be enforced.

IMPRESSIONS OF THE CONVOCATION DINNER.

CONVOCATION DINNER has become a distinctive part of our University life. Long may it remain so, and for that wish there are many reasons.

We cannot say of every function we have taken part in that it has left a conscious impression upon our minds. We have enjoyed it or not, according to our temperament, and circumstances. But yet when we have come to take stock we are not conscious of any permanent profitable impression. Of course people look at things from different points of view and what will impress one may have no effect upon another. Still we can all recall functions which seem to us to have possessed no special characteristic.

We are sure that to all present, our last Convocation Dinner was a pleasing and profitable function. Besides the opportunity it gave for the reunion of old college friends, which is in itself a most valuable feature, it possessed special characteristics which, though not stamping it as a unique function of its kind, yet made it at least memorable.

Let us try to give voice to one or two of these. First one was impressed with the air of hopefulness regarding the future of the University which pervaded the different speeches and general conversation. All present seemed to feel that Trinity had entered upon a new era of prosperity. Everything certainly points in this direction. But the special feature of the whole proceeding which made itself impressively felt, was the unanimity of purpose that seemed to have place within the minds of all alike. It was easily seen that the Provost was filled with a determination to promote in every possible manner the welfare of Trinity. Nor was it less apparent that professors, graduates and undergraduates alike were ready to back him up to the full extent of their several abilities—when such feeling exists prosperity must follow.

It remains for us to give expression to that purpose in deeds for Trinity, so that the bright prospects we are anticipating in the near future may be fully realized.

PROF. HUNTINGFORD'S RESIGNATION. It is more than regretted that his wife's ill-health induced by the rigour of the Canadian climate, has necessitated the withdrawal of Rev. Prof. Huntingford from his college work. When he leaves for England at the close of the present academic term, every man in the college will lose a friend. Trinity's loss will be irreparable, or reparable only by the professor's eventual return.

Prof. Huntingford has been endowed with a variety of accomplishments. His reputation as a classical scholar, made at Winchester School and Merton College, Oxford, has been increased since his appointment to a professorship at Trinity in 1891. In literature also he has been active, a recent composition, "Bribery and Corruption from Their Own Point of View," appearing in last July's issue of the Canadian Magazine, was a splendid and original effort. His lectures on "Why Things are Beautiful" has created a profound impression wherever delivered. He is an enthusiast in art, music and athletics also. He is as much at home on the football-field as in the classroom; and his medical skill has often repaired damages sustained by those participating in the game. Running is his hobby. In the matter of music, besides training the College choir, he acts as choirmaster of S. Margaret's Church. No college supper is complete without "Boy's of the Old Brigade" or another of his songs.

We deeply regret our inability to put into words the really genuine sorrow the news of his departure has evoked. Mr. Huntingford has endeared himself to everyone here by his untiring kindness, and interest in everything concerning Trinity.

DR. LOUDON ON EDUCATION.

AMONG the newest college journals to make its appearance is the University of Toronto Monthly, the organ of the University Alumni Association. The October number has for its most interesting article the address delivered by the learned President on the evening preceding Convocation day. A more timely and masterly review of the educational affairs of Ontario has not been made in recent years, from the kindergarten up to the universities. The verdict is that, in our methods and the results obtained by them, we fall far short of other countries, and of Germany especially, from which country England is not ashamed to borrow new ideas, in regard to her board and grammar schools at least. The position of a German youth of nineteen who has completed his gymnasium course is contrasted, to our disadvantage, with a Canadian of the same age who has just matriculated at a university. (In our self-conceit we often pride ourselves that two such youths are on an equality, but the President shows that such self-conceit has no sure foundation in the facts of the case.)

Ascribing the existing evils to two causes — over-examination and a wrongly constructed common and high school course of study, with its ill-timed glorification of arithmetic and other branches of mathematics he would have the study of languages, ancient and modern, begun at a much earlier age than it is at present, because he holds that languages afford a better mental training for young children than mathematics do. He holds that this change, and others which he suggests, would turn out better trained boys and girls from the high schools, whether they were intending to take a university degree or not. As a matter of course, those who should go on to the universities would do better work, while the professors would not be kept at the ungrateful task of correcting the defects of the school training. After a well-deserved tribute to the schoolmasters and schoolmistresses for the work they have accomplished under such adverse circumstances, the President goes on to discuss briefly Queen's contentions on the question of State aid. It is to be hoped that this statesmanlike utterance on questions so nearly touching the very life of the country will have due weight in determining the future educational policy of the Province and that in a very short time examinations will be reduced to one, or at most two, between the kindergarten and matriculation. The high schools do not exist, as the President wisely insists, for the purpose of training teachers. He meant too, without doubt, that universities do not exist for that purpose either.

THE NEW CHAIRS.

AMONG the many signs of life about the University may be counted the recent action of the Corporation in putting the departments of Science and Modern Languages on a footing equal in every respect to the other departments in the Faculty of Arts. The lecturers on these subjects now have the full rank of professors. It is not generally known, perhaps, that the old statute which required professors to be Anglicans has been changed so as to admit of the appointment of members of other Christian communions. Most people will approve of this change, while those who look with disfavour upon it will find comfort in the fact that all professors do not sit in Corporation, only those being eligible to represent their colleagues in that body who are able to sign the XXXIX. Articles, and who are in full communion with the Church of England.

Athletics.

MR. J. A. R. MACDONALD, who was elected to captain the football team this year, has been compelled by his physician to retire from the game altogether. Last year in the first game with Varsity he was hurt very severely, having three ribs broken, but this year he went into the game with as much zeal as ever, which means a great deal when Mr. Macdonald is the player. During the last couple of weeks he has been very much indisposed, and his physician is caring for the old trouble, and has put him out of the game. Thus we lose a very valuable man, for Mr. Macdonald has held his place as centre scrimmager for a number of years now, and those who have opposed him can testify to his prowess in that position. However, he has left us a protégé who is well worthy of his master. Mr. S. F. Wade with the lessons he has received can fill the position in a way which reflects nothing but credit to his teacher.

At a meeting of the Executive held on Thursday, October 18th, Mr. F. M. Burbidge was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Macdonald's resignation which was accepted with great regret. All who know Mr. Burbidge feel that he is just the man to fill this place, and we are sure that all the men will give him their very hearty support.

MR. G. C. MACKENZIE, '00, represented Trinity at a meeting of the Executive of the C. I. R. F. U. held in Kingston on Saturday, October 20th, and has sent in a report of the meeting.

ON Saturday, October 20th, Varsity II and Trinity met again on the football gridiron. The game should have been played on Varsity grounds but as both their fields were taken up, they played the game here. Varsity won 23 0.

The Varsity team was the same with the exception of Stratton who played centre half last Saturday. Trinity had two changes, Riley replaced Sawers at full back, who had sprained an ankle the week before, and Patton took Kelley's place on the wing line.

Trinity put much more spirit into the struggle than on former occasions, and in the first part of the first half, the ball was for the most part in Varsity's territory. Trinity wings held their men well. Sait at quarter put up a fine game, bucking the line for good gains time and again. Riley at full back tackled well, and seldom failed to bring down his man. Where Varsity won was on their long rushes. Often they would carry the ball from their twenty-five yard line to our's, and then Trinity would gradually work it back. Ballard played a star game for Varsity. His tackling was splendid.

There was very little kicking in the game. Both teams played very close, and made their gains by running. Trinity was in rather hard luck. Two of Varsity's touch downs were made from kicks which were blocked.

Strathy was rather badly hurt towards the end of the game, and went off, Varsity laying off a man to even up. The game was remarkably free from roughness. Trinity scrimmage worked well.

Mr. Roaf, of Toronto Med., refereed the game, and Mr. Sawers umpired.

The teams lined up as follows:

VARSITY II.		TRINITY.
Little.....	back.....	Riley.

THE athletic dance is fixed for Thursday, November 22nd, and promises to be as great a success as ever. Tickets will be at $1, the same as last year. Special cars will be run at 2 a.m. Besides giving tickets to the students, a number of men in town have been asked to look after tickets. The music will be supplied, as usual, by Glionna, and there is no reason whatever why we should not have a better dance than ever.

THE steeplechase was fixed for Wednesday, November 7th, but had to be postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather.

The following officers were elected for the race: Clerk of the course, Rev. E. W. Huntingford; timekeeper, The Rev. The Dean; starter, M. A. Mackenzie, Esq.; judges at the finish, H. C. Simpson, Esq., and A. H. Young, Esq.

Great interest is taken in the race this year, and it is hard to predict the result. We have a number of good runners who will make things exciting. Mr. Huntingford went around the course one day towards the end of the month, with a train of about fifteen following him.

We are right in the midst of the year games now, and they are proving to be quite interesting. There is a very healthy rivalry between the years, and some of the games have been pretty close.

The following are the year captains: Divinity, E. W. B. Richards, '98; Third Year, F. J. Sawers, '01; Second Year, E. M. Sait, '02; First Year, A. J. Patton, '03.

INTER-YEAR GAMES.

THIRD YEAR VS. FRESHMEN.

THE first inter-year game of the season was played on Thursday, November 1st, between '01 and '03, the Third Year winning by a score of 20-0. The Freshman put up a very plucky fight, and showed that they had lots of good stuff in them. There should be some very good material there for next year's team. Kelley and Patton were the stars for '03, while Mockridge, Lancefield, and Rolph did the scoring for '01. The weight of the Third Year was too much for the Freshmen. The teams were as follows:

THIRD YEAR, (20).—Half-back, Mockridge, Sawers, (capt.); quarter, Rolph; scrimmage, Tomlinson, Mosgrove, Hincks; wings, Lancefield, Hovey, Burbidge, Dunning.
 FIRST YEAR, (0).—Half-back, Weedmark, Patton, (capt.); quarter, Kelley; scrimmage, Creighton, Holt, Austin, (sub.); wings, DePencier, Sealey, Henderson, Hodgins. Turley, referee; Wade, umpire.

SECOND YEAR VS. FRESHMEN.

THE second of the games was played on Saturday morn- ing, November 3rd, between '02 and '03. Neither teams was able to score at all. The game was very exciting and was a good exhibition.

Sait played a fine game for the Second Year. The ball was for the most part in the territory of '02, but the Fresh- men could not score. Patton, Kelley and Clark played the game for the Freshmen. This game will be played again to decide the tie. The following are the teams:

SECOND YEAR, (0),	FIRST YEAR, (0).
Armour, }.....half-back.....	Patton, (capt.)

DIVINITY VS. SECOND YEAR.

THE third of the games was played on Tuesday, Novem- ber 6th, between the Divinity class and '02, Divinity winning by a score of 12-0. The game was very rough and was finished in darkness. Divinity made their weight tell. Macdonald jumped into the game again, and occupied his old position as centre scrimmager. Turley bucked the line well, and made good gains. Divinity worked their mass play very effectively. Richards and Turley each scored a try. Nevitt converted one. The Second Year were forced to rouge twice.

The teams are as follows:

DIVINITY, (12).	SECOND YEAR, (0).

Literary Institute.

AT the first general meeting of the Literary Institute on Friday, October 12, 1900, the Freshmen and new students were as usual nominated as members. Mr. Turley's resignation of the Presidency was then accepted, and Mr. Spencer, M.A. elected by acclamation. The usual daily papers were ordered to be bought.

The second regular meeting was held in Hall on Friday, October 19th, with Mr. Spencer, M.A. in the chair. The new members were introduced, and notices of motion given. The literary programme was then begun. Mr. Henderson read a rather incomprehensible but apparently amusing selection, and Mr. Gwilym, one on counting eggs. Mr. Creighton read an essay on sport, which was much better written than read. In the debate, "That a Book Represented on the Stage has a Greater Influence on the Public Mind Than the Same Book Read," Mr. E. T. Owen and Mr. Hodgins upheld the affirmative, and Mr. White and Mr. Kelley the negative. Mr. Owen argued that more people go to the theatre than read the book, and that it is thus the unlearned know it. Mr. White showed that no book is dramatized until it has gained a reputation. For- getful of his subject he instanced books of science. Mr. Hodgins indulged in the truism that the influence of the stage has greatly increased. Mr. Kelley also spoke for a few minutes. Mr. Owen refuted all the arguments of the negative, which won both on the merits of the speeches and the debate itself. The nominations for First Year Councillor brought the meeting to an end.

The third regular meeting was held in Hall on Friday, October 28th, with Mr. D. T. Owen in the chair. The rules of order were suspended in order that the balloting for the office of First Year Councillor might be held. After Mr. Wilson's reading, the Chairman announced that Mr. White was elected First Year Councillor. Mr. Rolph then read an historical selection, and Mr. Weedmark an essay on his first impressions of Trinity. The debate was on "Col. Peters' Proposition to Have Sunday Rifle Practice." Mr. Sawers spoke of the necessity of good shooting by a modern soldier, and mentioned the good work that would be done for the Church by the service that it was proposed to hold at the ranges. Mr. Lance- field thought shooting very hard work and that Saturday should be used and Sunday kept as a day of rest. In Mr. Taylor's opinion it is a rest to go to the ranges, being a change of occupation. Mr. Woodcock urged very forcibly that the moral law cannot be broken with impunity, and proceeded to prove very clearly the infidelity of one of Toronto's foremost soldiers. Mr. Sawers in reply reiterated his previous statements. The negative won both on the merits of the speeches and the debate itself. Messrs. Spencer, Turley and Owen were appointed as a committee to amend the constitution.

CONVOCATION, 1900.

ON Tuesday, October 23rd, our annual Convocation took place.

A more than usually well-filled hall; a student body that taxed the capacity more than for years past; on the dais a distinguished gathering which included bishops, judges, and several of Canada's most eminent educationists—all united to make the event a memorable one. The presence and the remarks of President Loudon, taken in connection with recent occurrences, added a significance to the occasion. This was the first Convocation held since the appointment of our new Provost, and probably the last Convocation, though all deplore it, at which our popular public orator, Rev. Prof. Huntingford, was to be present. Without doubt it was a fitting assemblage to preface the events of a College session which will see Trinity's fiftieth birthday.

The students early established themselves in the gallery. Pending the arrival of the procession their energies were centred in encouraging the ushers, although some of these evidently needed no encouragement in their attentions to the ladies of S. Hilda's.

At last the procession made its dignified way up the aisle. An exuberance of undergraduate spirits hailed its appearance, and, although it has justly been said that the students were at this Convocation more orderly and moderate than heretofore, moderation and orderliness were not inconsonant with the display of a little unobtrusive unit. With the vigorous ringing of the handbell, with humorous references to the new facial decoration recently affected by a member of the faculty, and with many sallies on kindred subjects the Convocation got under way.

Chancellor Allan, of course, presided, while at his right was seated the Provost and Vice-Chancellor; and at his left Rev. Professor Jones. Among those who were present in addition to the Faculty, were:—Bishop DuMoulin, Coadjutor Bishop Charles P. Anderson, of Chicago; Bishop Thornloe, Algoma; Bishop Hamilton, Ottawa; Bishop Dunn, Quebec; Archdeacon Bedford-Jones, Brockville; Dr. D. J. Goggin, Superintendent of Education, North-West Territories; Archdeacon Houston; President Loudon, Toronto University; Mr. Justice Osler, Judge Macdonald; Dr. Parkin, Principal, Upper Canada College; Chancellor Burwash, Rev. Canon Tremayne, Rev. Canon Sweeney, Archdeacon Dixon, Rev. Dr. Bethune, Rev. Canon Polard, Rev. Dr. Langtry, Rev. Canon Welch, Rev. Canon Cayley, Rev. W. H. Clark, Rev. C. E. Thomson, Revs. A. J. and G. H. Broughall, Dr. Wishart, Dr. Fotheringham, Rev. G. E. Taylor, J. A. Worrell, Q.C., Rev. T. W. Paterson, Rev. J. A. Richardson, Rev. G. C. Wallis, and Messrs. William Ince, Beverley Jones, James and Elmes Henderson, Edward Martin, Q.C., and Dr. Harold Parsons.

Immediately after the Latin prayer the degrees were conferred.

President Loudon's remarks on receiving his degree of D.C.L. were of much importance, because they dealt with a subject that concerns the future of the College. He hastened to express his appreciation of the distinction conferred upon him, deeming it, however, no more an honour to himself than to the institution over which he presided. It was, he thought, the outcome of those friendly relations between the two universities, which had of late been growing more friendly. Trinity and Toronto could claim a common parent in King's College. They could also claim a common interest in the first Bishop of Toronto, who might be regarded as the founder, not only of Trinity, but of King's College as well. For his part he rejoiced in the alliance of friendship existing between the two universities, he would rejoice far more if that alliance were extended. No mere formal connection was desired. They should have a union of loyalty and ambition, which would lead them to support one another in the noble cause of higher education.

Judge McDonald, James Henderson and D. J. Goggin also spoke briefly. Mr. Goggin, who is Superintendent of Education in the North-West Territories, felt the responsibilities as well as the privileges which his degree conferred on him, and he hoped that his future services would show Trinity that such was the case.

Bishop Anderson, Coadjutor of Chicago, on whom was conferred a D.D. degree, proved a very powerful speaker, and during his address the gallery was more than ordinarily attentive. He made eulogistic references to Trinity College School and to Trinity College, ascribing his advancement in the Church to the training he had received at these institutions. Not that he had been a scholarship man or even a hard-working student, but his character had been moulded by the wholesome influence of the residential life.

Bishop Dunn, of Quebec, brought fraternal greetings from Bishop's College, Lennoxville, and hoped that present relations between the two colleges would grow closer.

The medallists, scholars and prizemen were then presented to the Chancellor: G. B. Strathy, Prince of Wales' prize for honours in classics; A. S. B. Lucas, Prince of Wales' prize for honours in mathematics; L. A. Trotter, prize for honours in philosophy; G. B. Gordon, prize for honours in modern languages and prize for honours in English; F. J. Sawers, Wellington scholarship in classics; W. H. M. Mockridge, Dickson scholarship in modern languages; Miss M. L. Nevitt, Dickson scholarship in modern languages; G. H. Tomlinson, Dickson scholarship in science; Miss M. F. Talbot, Burnside scholarship in English; F. W. Hovey, scholarship in philosophy; A. E. Taylor, Wellington scholarship in classics; E. M. Sait, Burnside scholarship in history; E. T. Owen, Wellington scholarship in classics; W. C. White, Wellington scholarship in mathematics; A. R. Kelly, Bishop Strachan scholarship in classics; L. C. Hodgins, Burnside scholarship in English and history; Miss D. Odium, head of S. Hilda's College, Governor-General's medal.

In his closing address, Chancellor Allan paid tribute to the late Sir James H. Hagarty, who had rendered

CONVOCATION DINNER.

THE annual Convocation Dinner took place on Wednesday evening, October 24, 1900, with the Chancellor presiding. The procession went into the Convocation Hall promptly at eight o'clock, marching to the sweet strains of music supplied by Glionna's orchestra. After discussing the dinner and wines supplied, the first toast of the evening, "The Queen" was proposed in his usual graceful style by the Chancellor, and was enthusiastically drunk amid cheers for the Queen and the singing of the National anthem, the students, to show their loyalty, standing on their chairs. The Chancellor then proposed Trinity, which was replied to by the Provost for the Arts faculty. In the course of his remarks the Provost prophesied a grand future for Trinity whether we federate with the Provincial University or not. He pointed out the increased numbers of the Freshman class and stated that there were seventy-seven men attending lectures in Arts and Divinity. Dr. Wishart replied for Trinity Medical College and for the Ontario Medical College for Women. He regretted the absence of Dr. Geikie who should have replied for Trinity Medical College and of Dr. Nevitt who was to have replied for the Women's College. He thanked the University for the kindly consideration it had shown the latter college and declared the unceasing loyalty of the two colleges he represented to the University. Then a loud call was made upon the Dean for a speech to which he responded felicitously in an imprompted speech of much humour. Canon Welch was also called upon in the same manner and congratulated "the young, I mean, the new Provost," on the splendid way in which he had grappled with the problems confronting Trinity. The Rev. Prof. Clark then proposed "Our guests," speaking in the highest terms of the work of the men that Trinity had had the honour of numbering among her graduates and alumni. After this toast was drunk, President Loudon replied referring to the good feeling that existed between the two great Universities and expressed the hope that, as both had sprung from the same stock, King's College, Toronto, both would be united, each preserving its distinctive features. Mr. James Henderson, D.C.L., also replied as did Dr. Goggin, who came from the North-West for a degree from the college that all good churchmen love, and Judge Macdonald, D.C.L., who has so loyally supported the church's projects both in his own parish at Brockville and also throughout the rest of the Canadian Church. The next toast, that of "Sister Universities," was proposed by Mr. C. W. Bell, M.A., and replied to by representatives of Queen's, Osgoode and Trinity Medical. All spoke of the pleasant relations that existed between the colleges and universities they represented. Mr. H. C. Simpson, M.A., then proposed College Institutions and after mentioning THE REVIEW, Episkopon, the Literary Institute and the Freshmen, exhorted all in a glowing speech to engage in sports with might and main, and not only to uphold Trinity's prestige on the cricket field, but also to raise her to the front rank among football, hockey and general athletic colleges. The toast was replied to by Rev. D. T. Owen on behalf of THE REVIEW and other institutions, and by Mr. E. T. Owen on behalf of the Freshmen, who, if they did not equal their seniors in quality, tried to do so in loyalty to the college, and excelled the classes of the last few years in numbers at least. Thus came to an end one of the best Convocation Dinners held in recent years, and was voted a success by all present. Μετ' ἀγάπην and Auld Lang Syne brought the proceedings to a close.

THE publishers of the Berliner Journal have very kindly offered to send their paper to the University every week till next May. The courteous offer has been duly accepted by the Librarian, hence those interested in Teuto-Canadian journalism and the German language will have an opportunity of reading the news in German.

inestimable services to the College for decades past. When he referred to the fact that forty-six Trinity old boys had been serving in South Africa, his words were drowned with applause. Applause greeted mention of the Provost also, and of the already noticeable progress he had made. The Chancellor closed his remarks with an allusion to the approaching jubilee, the harbinger of brighter days for Trinity. Proceedings closed with the benediction.

In the evening Bishop Anderson delivered a sermon on the text "Overcome evil with good." It was a magnificent address full of power, delivered in the Bishop's characteristic way. He handled a difficult subject in a truly masterly way, making it seem wonderfully clear. We wish we could have printed the sermon, but as it was purely extempore it is impossible to do so.

The body of the Chapel was filled with students, some thirty young ladies from S. Hilda's being present in cap and gown. For the visitors sufficient accommodation could not be found in the gallery, and chairs were introduced into the chapel and its approaches.

The Latin orations made by the public orator, the Rev. Professor Huntingford, we are sorry to say will not be published until next month, owing to lack of space.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW CONVENTION.

TORONTO was highly favoured in having the Brotherhood Convention here last month. Thursday, October 19th, saw the beginning of this great convention, which opened with "quiet hours" held in S. James' Cathedral, and were conducted by the Rev. Charles H. Brent of S. Stephen's Church, Boston, who is a son of the late Canon Brent of Newcastle and a graduate of Trinity University. Mr. Brent gave a series of earnest addresses during the afternoon, each address being followed by a time of silent prayer, a collect, the Lord's Prayer and a hymn. The Rev. Canon Welch preached a sermon of welcome in S. James' Cathedral in the evening. His subject was "Ecce Homo"—words which proved the keynote of the convention. The meetings during Friday and Saturday were all characterized by large audiences of enthusiastic men, bright spirited addresses and hearty singing of familiar hymns. The convention was greatly honoured by having present such men as Bishop Potter of New York, Bishop Gailor of Tennessee, Bishop DuMoulin, of Niagara, Bishop Dunn of Quebec, and others. Bishop Potter's address on the Friday afternoon was a masterly presentment of the value of the Bible as an enduring revelation to the life of the man, the Church and the State. Bishop Gailor's very presence at the convention was an inspiration. All his addresses were marked by intense earnestness and spirituality, and were delivered with a wonderful eloquence.

No man present can ever forget the splendid mass meeting for men held in the Massey Hall on the afternoon of Sunday, October 22nd. Five thousand men met there to hear three great speakers deliver addresses on "The Basis of National Greatness." Bishop Gailor, Bishop DuMoulin, and Dr. G. R. Parkin gave three strong, telling addresses on this vital subject—addresses we feel sure that have left indelible impressions for good on thousands of men's hearts.

The evening service in S. James' was attended by a vast congregation, the building being crowded to the doors. Bishop Gailor preached an impressive sermon from the words: "Friend, how camest Thou in hither, not having on a wedding garment?" In this sermon the Bishop instanced the many garments of indifference, infidelity, pride, vice, etc., which men wore to their eternal undoing. He pleaded with each man to rise to the higher life, and to live realizing the near coming of the king.

Afterwards a solemn farewell service was conducted by the Provost, which brought to the close the tenth annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

THE INTER-COLLEGE DEBATING UNION.

THIS society has now entered upon its third year of existence. Two years ago representatives of six of the institutions of learning in Toronto met together to form a union, to hold in the intellectual world the place which the football association does in the world of sports. Mr. Harold Muckleston, (one of its founders), was at that time representing Trinity. The constitution was drawn up, and a very successful course of debates carried out. In the first debate, though Trinity was defeated by Varsity, every one agreed that Messrs. Owen and McEwen in every way acquitted themselves most honourably. University College in the end won the final debate.

The representation on the Executive Committee during the season of 1899-1900 was increased by Wycliffe College joining the Union. The following were then represented: Knox College, Wycliffe College, Osgoode Hall, Victoria, McMaster, University College and Trinity. As in the first year, the society whose representative was the president of the Union won the series, and in each case Trinity met that College. In the debate with Knox last year Trinity was upheld by Mr. D. T. Owen and Mr. R. Turley, B.A.

During the first year the value attached to style in speaking was twenty-five per cent., and that attached to matter seventy-five per cent. In the second year, however, in order to encourage men to speak without manuscript the value attached to style was raised to forty per cent. This was found to have the desired effect, and very successful results followed.

In judging the merits of the speeches of a debate the decision is left to three men who are appointed by the Executive Committee. Among the judges of the past may be mentioned the names of Dr. Parkin, Mr. N. W. Hoyles, Q.C., Rev. Professor Clark, Professor Alexander, Professor McFadden and Professor McKay.

This year Trinity debates with McMaster in Convocation Hall on Nov. 29th. Though everything has not yet been arranged, it is hoped that Trinity will do its utmost to win the series for 1900-1901. The subject proposed is, "Resolved that the development of the Canadian Klondyke by the Government would have been more advantageous to Canada than by the present method of private enterprise."

In dealing with this subject we are delighted to be able to speak of the honour that has been conferred upon Mr. E. P. S. Spencer, M.A., our representative on the Executive Committee,—and through him, upon Trinity—for he has been elected president. Those who know the good, faithful work done by Mr. Spencer in connection with the Union realize that he richly deserves the honour.

CANADIAN WOUNDED IN LIVERPOOL.

From a Liverpool Paper.

A REMARKABLE scene took place on the Prince's Stage on the occasion of the departure of Canadian invalided troops who returned to Canada in the Dominion liner Dominion. It has been said that Liverpool has not "lionized" these heroes as it ought to have done, though the Lord Mayor recently took the sting out of this charge by sending a large supply of tobacco, etc., on board, with his best wishes and thanks. Yesterday the ladies of Liverpool further showed their interest in the Canadians. A considerable contingent was going on board in a very quiet way, some partly in khaki and others in ordinary overcoats. All had been at the front, and for a considerable time in hospital in this country. One bright young Canadian had lost a limb, though it was artificially supplied with such deftness that it could not be easily detected. But it was, and as soon as the ladies realized the position, and that the young fellow was going home minus a leg in the Empire's cause, their sympathy and enthusiasm broke wildly loose. The young hero was stormed and captured in a moment, and he had to undergo a quarter of an hour's pleasant "condolences," which were enough to satisfy the most voracious. He was hugged, and kissed, and clasped round the neck until he was in some danger of being smothered. The ladies were all select, too, each one having a permit for the stage, and they were all fashionably attired. Silks and satins were cast round the Canadian's neck, while the diamond rings and gold bangles and bracelets of the struggling fair ones flashed fitfully in the sun. The assault was delivered by about thirty ladies, and the young man bore up heroically through the ordeal.

College Chronicle.

HALLOW'EEN was kept in an unusually quiet way by Trinity, and was marked only by a few small suppers and other entertainments of a peaceful character. The men had decided to hold their celebration at the Grand, but at a late hour it was found that seats could not be secured.

MR. FRED MARTIN, B.A., is not in British Columbia, as was stated in our last issue, but is at present sojourning in England.

REV. GEO. CODE, B.A., was a visitor in College for a few days during the Brotherhood Convention. He is at present carrying on a very successful work in the neighbourhood of Queensborough, Diocese of Ontario.

REV. W. M. LOUCKS, B.A., curate of the Cathedral, at Ottawa, also spent a few days with us at the same time.

THE walls of Trinity do not unfrequently resound with cheers and other expressions of applause, the students evidently having no objection to noise of any nature. This was again demonstrated on the occasion of the dinner given in honour of Lieut. Stewart Wilkie, which came off on the evening of the 1st inst.

The excellency of the spread which was provided by the steward was frequently commented on.

After the toast to the Queen, Professor Clarke in a few suitable words proposed "Our Guest." He showed the folly of those who assert that the Transvaal war was undertaken for mercenary reasons, pointing out that acquisitions from such a country could never make up for the expenditure on the campaign, and much more for the loss of life. He said that Lieut. Wilkie proved himself a true Scotchman by his eagerness to "contradict a bit."

The toast was received with a deafening meddum of cheers and College yells, which lasted several minutes.

Mr. Wilkie, in a few words, thanked the faculty and students for the expressions of kind feeling which he had so often received from them when in South Africa.

An excellent musical and literary programme followed, to which the appreciative and critical audience contributed by never failing to help the choruses along. The evening ended as usual with Metagona, Auld Lang Syne and College yells. The hope was expressed that the rest of the Trinity men in South Africa would return one at a time.

THE Rev. G. A. Field, B.A., was in College a few days ago. Mr. Field is at present stationed at Gore's Landing, Rice Lake.

WE were all glad to see Mr. H. C. Griffith, B.A., '99, about College again the other day. Mr. Griffith paid an all-too-short visit to his Alma Mater. He reports great things of Ridley.

COLLEGE meetings have been very frequent of late, for nearly every day some matter crops up which requires the attention of the students. Most of the topics discussed, however, are of minor importance and are soon disposed of.

On Nov. 2nd steps were taken towards celebrating in a befitting manner the return of the South African contingent. All agreed that Trinity should march in the procession with the rest of the students of Toronto. Messrs. Richards, Sawers and Kidd were appointed a committee to make full arrangements.

On Nov. 5th, Mr. Lancefield was chosen to represent the College at Trinity Med's annual dinner.

The annual Athletic dance will soon be absorbing the attention of most of the men. It is to come off on the 22nd of this month, and every effort is being made to make it, if possible, a greater success than ever. As it is one of the first society events of the season it will, doubtless, be well patronized by the young people of the city.

On Sunday, Oct. 21st, the usual choral evensong was dispensed with on account of the mass meeting at Massey Hall in connection with the Brotherhood of S. Andrew's convention. About fifty men marched down in a body to the Hall, where a block of seats had been reserved for them. The grand service, and the noble addresses of Bishop Gailor and Bishop DuMoulin, reports of which have appeared elsewhere, were enjoyed and appreciated by all. The afternoon service on the following Sunday was sung by the choir of S. James', led by Dr. Ham, who has lately taken such an interest in the Chapel choir. The rector, Rev. Canon Welch, preached an impressive sermon from the text, "Because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation," applying it specially to college life.

The efficient choir of S. Simon's paid a second visit to the College on the 4th inst., to assist in the afternoon service. The music was especially suited for the festival of All Saints, and the sermon preached by Professor Clarke was also in keeping.

As the date of the general election approached the interest here became much keener. A number of the men voted in West Toronto, while one or two enthusiasts travelled some distance to help their party in a more closely contested district. Many of the students went down town at night to hear the returns, but it was observed that the majority returned at an early hour.

The Rev. P. L. Spencer dined in Hall the other day.

The Rev. W. E. White, B.A., is at present staying in College.

The Rev. J. R. H. Warren, M.A., is an ever welcome guest here. Mr. Warren spent a few days in his old haunts during Convocation time.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order for Mr. E. P. S. Spencer, M.A., on his election to the Presidentship of the Executive Committee of the Inter-Collegiate Debating Union.

"THE 'preachers' make more noise 'n all the rest," the sapient small boy said. If there were only about seventy Trinity men in the parade which signalized the return of our South African soldiers, the volume of sound which emanated from those seventy throats represented the ordinary lung power of at least twice that number. It was a happy redundancy of the enthusiasm of loyalty with a liberal admixture of what is termed "College spirit." Besides cheers, blended with the energetic notes of a dozen or so tin horns, patriotism found expression in a prodigal display of bunting. The College yell and the College colours gave the students an introduction to the 100,000 people who thronged the line of march.

At eleven o'clock that morning, lectures having been discontinued, the men partook of a frugal meal. It was twelve o'clock when, drawn up in front of the College, the serried ranks of students were inspected by the marshal, "Buz" Richards. Then the day's work began.

MacPherson Avenue is near the outskirts of Toronto and very far from Trinity College, but the march there was just a preliminary canter to what was to follow. For an hour and more there was nothing to do but stand in the MacPherson Avenue mud, express appreciation of the November wind and its pluvial concomitant, and occasionally test the capacity of students' lungs.

When the procession finally started down Yonge Street, Jupiter Pluvius had relented, and though the sun was still a mourned absentee there was enough excitement in the march to restore the most complete good-spirits. The spectators too, long as they had been waiting, received every fresh body of students, militia or cadets with a renewed outburst of cheering. All along the labyrinthine route—on Yonge, Queen, Sherbourne, King, Bay or Spadina—the same enthusiasm held sway. Flags were waved from every window, those in the streets waved flags, and walls were all but hidden in a profusion of bunting. If "Pretoria night" showed more spontaneity, nothing before had equalled this in depth of feeling.

Trinity left the procession on Spadina Avenue, just before the afternoon was brought to a close at the Armouries. The first thing the men did on getting back to College was to sit down, and it is not certain that any unnecessary walks were indulged in during the next four or five days.

S. Hilda's Notes.

THE graduates supper was held in the dining-room at S. Hilda's on Wednesday, October 22nd. There were forty-two present who claimed the honour of being S. Hildians. We regret to say there were several of the graduates in town at the time who were unable to be present. The tables were artistically arranged, and prettily decorated with red and white roses and ribbons of "rouge et noir."

Miss Bovell, '00 made a charming toast-mistress, the speeches were good and the toasts enthusiastically honoured. Miss Odlum, '00, made a most appropriate speech in answer to the toast to the '00 Year, and took her seat to the strains of "For she's a jolly good fellow."

With Mrs. Rigby, Mrs. Rogers and Miss Playter at the graduates table were, Miss Mairs, '92; Miss Locke, '92; Miss Lowe, '93; Miss Rolph, '93; Miss Tomlinson, '94; Miss Owen, '96; Miss Constantinides, '98; and Miss MacDougall, '99.

ALL Hallow's Eve was celebrated at S. Hilda's College by an impromptu masquerade, the costumes for which excited much laughter as each transformed student joined the group in the long corridor. One of the best costumes was that of Topsy, who was so realistic that one had to touch her to find that her complexion was removable. Perhaps the best costume of all was the "First Issue of the Paper." At the dance which followed it was laughable to see "Juanita" dancing with "Mamma's Baby," and grave "Episcopon" with giddy "Topsy," while the "Newspaper" made a great hit with "W de Montmorency Browne" and little "Mlle. Popcorn" looked quite coquettish with "Madame de Pompadour."

After the dance the masqueraders adjourned to the "kitchen" No. 1, Chancery Lane, and assisted to cook a delicious supper on the grate in that popular apartment. After much fun, merriment, and a few toasts and speeches which were exceedingly short, if not always to the point, the meeting broke up. The guests of the evening were Mrs. Rigby, Mrs. Rogers, and Miss Gladys Greenwood, and they all agreed that if the costumes had been made up in a hurry they were nevertheless most successful and characteristic.

MISS ODLUM, '99, was in College for Convocation.

MISS GLADYS GREENWOOD, Whitby, spent a few days at College last week.

T. C. S. Notes.

OUR matches with B. R. C. and U. C. C. are now events of the past. In the former the fates were decidedly against us. We had entertained more sanguine expectations than usual, and the team started in high hope for Toronto. The stampede of the horses down the school hill, however, and the upset of the 'bus at the foot, at once destroyed its chances of success. Yet, in spite of bruises and the terrible shaking, the victims pursued their way through the pouring rain to the station. The first chapter in the story of the match ended with a damp ride in the train, which was not calculated to improve matters. The scrimmage had suffered most in the mêlée, and its weakness was very manifest during the match, which ended in a score of 35 to nil. The U. C. C. game showed the team in its true character. We believe that they, one and all, deserve much credit for the spirited way in which they met their rivals. Every man put forth his best effort, and the fact that U. C. C. had the wind and a lead of 11 points in the second half, shows what a stubborn defence it was that permitted only one point to be added to the score. (13-1).

WE had a visit from Dean Rigby on November 11th, when he preached a very lucid sermon on the subject of "Borrowing." The duties at S. Mark's Church has been undertaken on three successive Sundays by Old Boys—Rev. G. H. Broughall, Rev. J. R. H. Warren and E. P. S. Spencer, who all visited the school. We should like to see one of our Old Boys rector of a parish so near to us.

WE notice that an Old Boy—also an old Trinity man—has recently obtained a commission in the King's Own Scottish Borderers. We allude to Lieut. O. S. Bickford, of the 48th Highlanders.

THE Record will be out before this meets the eyes of your readers. To it we refer those who wish to hear more of our recent school history.

Personal.

MR. W. G. BATES, '97, is still in South Africa with one of the line regiments.

MR. C. HUBERT CARLETON, '93, returned to Trinity this year to take his M.A. degree.

MR. A. S. B. LUCAS, B.A., '00, is taking a course in science at McGill University, Montreal.

MR. H. S. MUCKLESTONE, B.A., '99, holds his fellowship in classics at Stamford University, California, for another year.

WE are glad to notice that Rev. H. C. N. Wilson, B.A., has been appointed curate of Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa.

THE Rev. C. H. Brent, of Boston addressed the Brotherhood of St. Andrew Convention at Toronto, conducting the Quiet Hours service.

MR. T. W. B. MARLING, '98, has stayed behind for further service in South Africa and did not return with the contingent on the Idaho.

LIEUT. D. F. CAMPBELL is also in South Africa in the Infantry. He has been wounded once, but at latest advices was again in the thick of the fight.

MR. J. G. MACDOUGALL, B.A., '97, is also in South Africa with the Strathcona Horse. His exact whereabouts are unknown, but he is probably in the fighting line.

THE REVIEW would be very grateful to any graduate of the University who would send in items of interest concerning the movements of former students such as appointments or preferments or removals from one place to another.

THE Rev. H. B. Gwyn, M.A., has so far recovered his health that he has been able to accept a curacy at St. Peter's Church, Chicago, under Rev. Frank DuMoulin.

THE REVIEW has to congratulate another old Trinity man on entering the happy benedict estate. We hear that the Rev. H. McCausland is to be married on November 20th, at S. Luke's church to Miss Mabel Virtue. The Rev. D. T. Owen will act as his best man.

WE hear that Mr. Reg. Temple, '97, who was a Lieutenant in the first Canadian Contingent, is starting for home. We shall be very glad indeed to welcome back the man who did so much for Trinity sports while he was here, and who fought so nobly to uphold British honour in the far off Transvaal.

TORONTO was the scene of a monster demonstration a few days ago to welcome the Canadian Contingent that came on the Idaho. Among them, however, we did not notice any Trinity men. Very few of them have returned. Lieut. Wilkie was invalided home a short time before these latest arrivals.

IT is with great pleasure that THE REVIEW extends its congratulations to Mr. Gordon Osler, '96. He was married to Miss Margaret Ransay on October 24th, at S. Paul's church, Montreal, by Dr. Barclay. The happy couple have gone on a tour in the United States before taking up their residence in Toronto.

WE are very glad indeed to find that another Trinity man has been raised to the episcopate. Dr. Mills, the coadjutor Bishop of Kingston was long known in the Diocese of Montreal which will greatly miss him. He now advances to the sacred office of Bishop, and our prayer is that he may have grace from on high to uphold him in his arduous duties.

COMMENTING upon my reference to Gilbert Parker's new book last week, "A Painter's Youngest Daughter," writes: "Mr. Gilbert Parker, M.P.—how well the title looks—is an artist in every sense of the word. I remember once his helping a friend to give titles to pictures, and this little incident showed the thoroughness and imagination of the man. The artist would place a picture on the easel, and Mr. Parker would sometimes reel off titles for half an hour before he could find one that, to him, would convey the right impression for that particular work. Yet all those titles that I heard him give—and there were over a hundred of them—would have been invaluable as titles for books, titles that you could never forget, that clung to the picture and were all vivid and distinctive."

THE following is the thirteenth annual report of Convocation:—

TORONTO, October 19, 1900.

The Executive Committee of Convocation begs to present its Thirteenth Annual Report, being for the year ending September 30, 1900.

1. In accordance with the instructions forwarded to your Committee by the Annual General Meeting of 1899, we append a comparative financial statement showing the amounts collected and expended in 1899 and 1900 respectively. From this it will be seen that although at the time of the closing of the year's account, there was a slight falling off in the amount collected, this has since been more than made up, and money is still coming in daily.

2. The only other matter referred to us by last year's meeting was the drawing up of a tentative scheme for the commemoration of the Jubilee. This has been done and the result is now submitted for the consideration of Convocation. It would have been dealt with by Corporation earlier, had not that body been occupied with matters of a more immediately pressing nature until late in the year. It is felt that the memorial would have added weight if it bore the imprimature of Convocation itself, and might, therefore, with advantage, be discussed and possibly improved upon at this present Annual Meeting.

Your Committee recommend that the Jubilee be observed in June 1901, and suggest the following dates and functions:

Afternoon.	Evening.
June 24.	Service in Chapel.
June 25. (Conferring Honorary Degrees).	Missionary Meeting.
June 26. (Garden Party and Cricket Match)	Public Meeting.
June 27. (Graduates' Meetings, Arts, Medical, etc	Conversazione, music to be supplied, if possible, by Conservatory of Music.

They think that such a programme could be carried out at a cost of not more than $500.

That a Corporate Communion be held on Wednesday morning, June 26th. That the Jubilee Celebration should include some event in which the boys of Trinity College School, and if possible, of the schools, should participate, and that arrangements should be made, if possible, for the holding of a Jubilee Service on the Sunday previous in all the Churches of Ontario.

They further recommend the publication of a self-paying souvenir number of THE TRINITY UNIVERSITY REVIEW, about May 1, 1901, and that the Jubilee proceedings should be chronicled in the next issue of the Year Book.

3. FEDERATION.—Your Committee devoted some considerable time to the frank discussion of the question of Federation, more especially with regard to its bearing upon the Medical College, and the whole matter is now in the hands of a Committee of Corporation duly empowered to take full and definite action. In view of the present satisfactory progress of the movement your Committee does not consider it necessary to express anything more definite than a hope that such a decision may be arrived at as shall best promote the objects for which Trinity exists, and enable her to serve well the Church and the country.

4. EXTENSION LECTURES.—During the past year forty lectures were given in twenty-three different towns, the average attendance being about 180. The report of the Rev. W. H. White, embodying certain proposals for the improvement of the scheme will be submitted to the Annual Meeting.

Your Committee is pleased to be able to state that Mr. C. W. Bell has kindly consented to act as Secretary during the coming season and that Professor Montgomery will assist him.

5. YEAR BOOK.—Your Committee desires once again to place on record its appreciation of Prof. Mackenzie's excellent work in connection with the Year Book which has been supplied to every member of Convocation upon receipt of his Convocation fee.

6. CHANGES IN THE PERSONNEL OF THE COMMITTEE.—Your Committee regrets that during the year three very active members have retired from its ranks, the Rev. Canon Welch, who ceased to be an ex-officio member when he resigned the office of Provost; the Rev. W. H. White who has rendered most valuable services in connection with the Extension Lectures, and is at present living in England, and the Rev. C. H. Shortt who has gone to swell the ranks of Trinity's contingent to the Foreign Mission Field. On the other hand they have had the pleasure of welcoming, in the person of the Rev. T. C. S. Macklem, a worthy successor of our late Provost, and have already proved the value of his counsels in meetings of the Committee. Reference must also be made to the removal from Trinity of the Rev. Prof. Cayley to the Rectorship of S. Simon's. Though not at present a member of the Committee he was formerly one of its most active members, and it is hoped that he will continue to co-operate with us in many ways.

7. DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI.—Your Committee note with deep gratification the advancement to the Episcopate of two of Trinity's Alumni, the Rev. C. P. Anderson, and the Ven. Archdeacon Mills having been elected Bishops Coadjutor of Chicago and Ontario respectively.

It is also worthy of remark that our guest of honour of last year, Dr. Gilbert Parker, has recently been elected a Member of the Imperial Parliament.

8. OBITUARY.—Your Committee regret to record the death of four, whose names appeared in last year's list of membership—Sir John Hagerty, Sir G. A. Kirkpatrick, J. J. Kingsmill, Q.C., and the Rev. V. Clementi.

9. The Annual Financial Statements and lists of the retiring members of the Corporation elected by Convocation and of the Executive Committee are appended; also a list of members and associates in good standing made up to October 19th.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
G. F. DAVIDSON, Clerk. F. B. CUMBERLAND, Chairman.

THE Buffalo Express of November 3rd, contains a well written article on Trinity accompanied by a good likeness of the Provost and some excellent new illustrations of the buildings and their surroundings. What Trinity is and may yet be, whether as an independent or as a federated university, is admirably set forth. We are, as a university, living in times that ought to make us glad to be here and ought to nerve us on to even higher endeavours than we have ever been impelled to before.
