MARY IMMACULATE.

Chaste Daughter of the Eternal Father, Chosen Spouse.

Virgin Conceived Without Sin—Her Heart Was the Temple of the Holy Holies—Appropriate Services in the City Catholic Churches.

On Saturday last, the 8th of December, the Church celebrated the above mentioned beautiful feast day, and a few words on the subject may be apropos of the occasion.

Ere the world was created, ere the sun and the stars darted their brilliant rays from the heavens, thee of the Eternal Father had already rested with tender love on the Virgin of Nazareth, who was chosen out of millions, to become the Mother of the promised Messiah. Seeing from eternity her spotless heart, He chose and preordained her for the exalted position of Mother of God. And after she had been chosen, it became the infinite sanctity of God, the Holy Ghost, to form her all fair as His glorious spouse, to preserve her immaculate from every stain of sin; and therefore we joyfully greet her as the "Virgin conceived without sin."

Her heart was the temple in which the Holy of Holies took up His abode, and their house was wholly dedicated to God; for all the emotions, all the desires of his heart were directed to God, and her pure heart was filled with His mysterious presence.

Eye was indeed, the first Mother of the living, as her name implies; but in name only, for she has brought death to her children.

Mary is the true mother of the living, for she has brought to the fallen world the Author of Life; and so she has become the "Gate of Heaven," for she leads her children to true sanctity.

Mary has brought us Salvation in giving birth to Him who has saved the world from the thralldom of sin, and from destruction.

Is she not entitled, to the love and gratitude of the whole world? And yet there are some who profess themselves Christians, and who actually speak disrespectfully of her.

Should not such as these tremble lest they call down upon themselves, the vengeance of God, on account of the disrespect to His blessed Mother?

Yes, while the powers of hell rage in importunate wrath against this powerful, Immaculate Queen her faithful children look up to her with loving confidence, and call their mother and protectress, their sweet comfort in life and in death, Hail Immaculate Mother, purest of Virgins, by your prayers to your Divine Son obtain for us the grace to gain the happiness of Heaven.

At the Immaculate Conception.

The number of communicants seen at all the early morning masses in the Immaculate Conception Church was something unprecedented. The first mass at 6.30 was well attended chiefly by the working classes who availed themselves of the opportunity to do honor to the day. The High mass at 10.30 was celebrated by Rev. Father Morine. The music was excellent. In the evening at 7.30 the services were special, inasmuch as the full choir was in attendance. The music was rich and choice and quite up to the standard of the members. Rev. Father Cherrier, the pastor preached on eloquent and forcible sermon on the dogma which was listened to with wrapt attention by the immense congregation. The beautiful and handsome church never looked more attractive and charming the rich coloring of the decorations showing up well in the glare of the many lights, the pastor, Father Cherrier, the choir, and the parishioners have to be congratulated on the manner in which they honored the feast day and in which they observed the holiday of their patronage.

At St. Mary's.

St. Mary's was ab en fete. The oblates of Mary immaculate had special season to honor the day, and that they did goes without saying. The altars were rich in artistic decoration. As in the Immaculate Conception Church, here too the early masses were attended by large numbers of communicants. The High mass at 10.30 was celebrated by Rev.
Father McCarthy O. M. I. In the evening at 7.30 special benediction services were held, during which the pastor, Rev.
Father Langevin preached. The choir sang beautifully.

At St. Mary's.

Anniversaries are dark or joyous days upon which we silently disturb memory's rose leaves to gaze over the relics of the past; these retrospections are always fraught with deepest feeling.
Hence the anniversary of the Immaculate Conception, the patronal feast of the Children of Mary with more than usual solemnity. Many of the former members of the Sodality assembled at the Academy in response to invitations previously issued. About 2 o'clock p. m. a reception of the aspirants occurred and twenty young ladies were enrolled beneath the banner of the Queen of Heaven, while in the name of all a present member renewed the act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin. Rev. Father Langevin, O. M. I. director of the Sodality, preached an eloquent sermon in which he endeavored to clearly prove the truth of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception and sought by an ardent appeal to inspire his audience with great love and confidence towards their august Mother, and moral courage to wear her livery with fidelity. After some time spent in pleasant greetings the company adjourned to the music hall to witness a musical and dramatic entertainment, the programme being as follows: Opening duet, "Fanfare des Dragons," French operetta, "L'Esprit et le Cœur," instrumental solo; English comedy, "The Antidote" in two acts; vocal solo, vocal chorus, mandolin duet; recitation, "The Last of May," tableau.

After this a sumptuous supper was served in a large hall decorated for the occasion. The remainder of the evening passed in pleasant conversation in which memory evoked from bygone loving remembrances of the absent; those who had gone to work in other lines, those who had gone to work to reap the reward of their labors, and fond companions who are scattered over the broad field of life. One of the most impressive scenes was just before the farewells were uttered, when all repaired to the chapel to assist once more at the exercises of the Sodality; hymns were sung and prayers recited by a former president; this picture was rendered still prettier by the absence of all light save that which was cast over the assembly by the tiny lamp at the Virgin's altar.

Those present apart from Reverend Mother Provincial, Sisters and residing nuns were: Mrs. Tomlinson, Mme.
Brisbois, Misses T. Chevrier, A. Chevrier E. Gelly, A. Harvey, M. L. Laporte, S.
McDermot, L. Bertrand, G. Bertrand, C.
Bergin, F. Tobin, A. O'Donnell, W. Cammings, E. Connell, E. Golden, A. Kennedy, J. Farlong, C. Corwin, R. Klinkhammer, J. Cleary, E. Shaw.

The evening was an enjoyable one and the memory of this anniversary will be cherished in the annals of the society as one of the brightest day passed by the Children of Mary in their ever dear convent home.

Advice to those who Attend the Dying.

As soon as the sick person enters into his agony, and if the priest who should have been previously warned has not yet arrived, it is necessary to recite at once the prayers of the dying and the recommendation for the departing soul.
An excellent work of charity it is to assist the dying and to help them to resist at their last the assaults of the demon.

Holy water should be sprinkled from time to time in the form of a cross on the sick person's bed, to put to flight the malicious spirit who at this final moment lays all his snares to entrap the poor soul on the brink of eternity.

The priest, if he has not done so before, should now hasten to give the plenary indulgence for the hour of death and assist the dying man in his agony.

When the dying person has expired, instead of giving way to useless tears, ask of God to give you grace and resignation; kneel down beside the departed and pray fervently for the soul just appearing before the tribunal of its Creator, and whose fate for eternity is being decided.

Great respect and consideration should be shown in the presence of the dead.
A table covered with a white cloth, on which is placed a crucifix, two lighted candles, a vase of holy water and branch of box should be placed near the bed of death.

All who enter the room should sprinkle the corpse with holy water, reciting at the same time some indul-genced prayer for the soul of the deceased. One or more persons should remain in the death chamber to pray night and day till the corpse is removed for burial.

Many places on the breast of the departed a blessed crucifix, and in his hands the Rosary which he has used during life.

Clandeboy Bay.

On Sunday, the 25th of November, the Rev. Father Borneau taking advantage of the Rev. Father Sangeoin's passing the Sunday at St. Laurent came to say Mass here, and must have added to the joy of all. Not only did he say mass but the Blessed Sacrament was preserved all night in the school house, so that in the afternoon we had benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The rev. father must have been pretty well tired out as he heard the confession of a large number of people, and was in the confessional from two o'clock until after eight on Sunday evening. We hope that before long he will be able to visit us again.

On Dec. 3, I went for the first time to visit the scene of the fishing. It was a lovely afternoon, and the sleigh ran swiftly and smoothly the over large expanse of ice. Arriving on the borders of the lake we found several houses and shanties. In one of the latter we warmed ourselves for a while and then proceeded to visit the net. Imagine a whole lot of little canvas houses each with a stove pipe peeping through the top, scattered over the ice and men running here and there hauling their coris; with a sleigh at intervals collecting fish.
The little canvas are placed over the hole, then two men take their seats one on each side and draw in the net with great care, removing the fish whenever they come across one.

Most people thought fish would be plentiful this season on account of the high water, but it appears to be just the contrary, and there are not as many being taken out now as in previous years.

The last conference on the union of the Eastern and Western Churches took place on the 8th of November.

DO YOU MEDITATE.

Advent should be Observed with Piety Prayer and Fasting.

During the season of Advent, the Church requires that her children should, by good works, meditation and prayer, prepare to celebrate worthily the coming of the Son of God,—the blessed season of Christmas.

From the most remote times, Advent has been observed, although formerly the beginning was a little earlier—from Martinmas, in fact; and there was then the fasting and other pious duties as at present, but observed far more severely and strictly.

How is it that those outside the Catholic Church are not deeply impressed by these ancient observances, still carried on among us from the first ages, and in the very same way, is inexplicable.
Could there be any more visible, direct and practical proof that this only is the Church of Jesus Christ, bearing the traditions absolutely from His own blessed hand!

The trouble is that Protestants do not think, or this kind of historical evidence, that there is only one Church, and that it has ever been the same, would be to them irresistible. Sincere Protestants, anxious for truth, we mean; for there are others who recognize the truth well enough, but willfully discard it.

The beauty and the mystery of the observance of the liturgical year is something wonderful; meaning sanctified by a profound meaning, sanctified by great age and fortified by the wisdom of the Church. And of all the offices and rites, none are more significant than those which belong to this holy season of Advent, which prepares us for the great event of the coming of the Redeemer, so long expected of all the nations, and which remind us of the frame of mind which we should cultivate —the state of humility, contrition and hope.

Now come the subtle and significant changes in the offices, and in the celebration of the great rite of the Mass, and in the symbols around us; and for a while all the tokens of gladness are removed, and the whole Catholic heart is prostrated in becoming meekness and abasement.
And so pass swiftly the weeks until the great festival of Christmas is ushered in.

Prince Albert News.

The Prince Albert Advocate under the heading "An ornament to Prince Albert," has the following to say about the new Catholic Episcopal residence:

A handsome spacious and well appointed building, is in brief the description of the new palace erected this summer by Wm. Knox for Bishop Pascal and his clergy. Piloted by that devoted missionary and most obliging priest, Father LeBret, an Advocate representative recently inspected the new building from cellar to garret. The building is what might be termed a 2 1/2 story cottage with basement and garret. The basement extends over the entire building which is 45x35 feet in size, six rooms are comprised in the basement, these are used as kitchen, dining room and servants apartments. It has a concrete floor. Heat for the building is supplied by a large furnace in the basement. The principal entrance is on the east side. The first storey has six rooms and large corridors extending from north to south the entire length of the house. Here are the Bishop's parlor, and living rooms, a reception room, chapel and procurator's office and rooms.
On the second floor are eight rooms, six of which are used as bed rooms, one a sitting or community room and one occupied as a library. One large reception room with spacious closets, composes the third story. All the rooms are nearly but plainly furnished.
The building is of red brick resting on a solid stone foundation; there is a star-way from kitchen to roof, on the east side is a large portico with wide steps leading to the entrance. A double veranda ornaments the northern exposure.
Bishop Pascal is a lover of flowers and has already made preparations for beautifully the surrounding grounds, upon which are located two large frame buildings, one used as a stable, the other as works hop. Father LeBret spoke in very complimentary terms as to the manner in which the contractor, Mr. Knox, had performed the work, and personal inspection verifies the statement that it is first-class in every respect. Besides the Bishop there reside in the building, Father LeBret procurator and parish priest, Father Michel, assistant, Father Vachon and M. Fournier a theological student, and four lay brothers.

We congratulate the saintly and devoted Rev. Bishop Pascal on this further evidence of the material advancement of his diocese. Since his consecration as first bishop of Prince Albert, he has erected a new and handsome Cathedral and a comfortable and commodious residence. They were both very much needed and they greatly add to the appearance and importance of the thriving town of Prince Albert.

The Rev. Alfred Young, of the Paulist Fathers, New York, has completed a work which will be looked for with intense interest. Its title in full is "Catholic and Protestant Countries Compared in Civilization, Popular Happiness, General Intelligence, and Morality."

asylums in the United States sheltering

OUR ARCHBISHOP'S LETTER.

ST. BONIFACE, MAY 10th, 1888. Mr. E. J. Dermody.

DEAR SIR,—I see by the last issue of the Northwest Review that you have been instructed by the directors of the journal.

I need not tell you that I take a deep interest in the Northwest Review which is the only English Catholic paper published within the limits of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.

I therefore strongly recommend to all Catholics under my jurisdiction to give a liberal support to the Northwest Review.

Yours all devoted in Christ, ALEX. ARCHBISHOP OF ST. BONIFACE, O. M. I.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A man with a hobby is always to be envied. He is a sort of philosopher on a small scale, perfectly content with his surroundings.

When a Catholic priest or bishop ventures an opinion on the school question or on Indian education, immediately a howl goes up from the Protestant world to the effect that the Catholic church is trying to control the government.

Dispatches in the daily papers announce the death, at an obscure town in New Hampshire, of the leader of the Know-nothing mob that in 1884 sacked and burned the Ursuline convent at Somerville, Mass., inflicting a disgrace upon American civilization and universal manhood.

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS.

In the time that will elapse from now until the coming of that great Christmas festival, most people are concerned in endeavoring to make the holiday a merry one for some persons whom they regard with love and affection and esteem.

A great many years ago He Who makes Christmas all that the day signifies to us, said, in one of His parables, that the poor would be always with us.

In making our considerations for Christmas therefore, and in our planning for rendering the day a joyful one to some of our friends, let us not leave God's poor out of our memory.

SUNDAY CARS.

The Free Press of Nov. 30th, published a letter signed "Mundane," which contended that Sunday cars were a necessity for Church goers.

ANGELICAN ORDERS.

By an unaccountable oversight, for which we humbly apologize to our Catholic readers, there appeared, on the first page of our last number, a letter on the above subject from an Anglican to the Ottawa Citizen without a word of editorial comment to correct its mistakes.

Abbe Duchesne is not the Catholic Church. "Anglican" is mistaken in thinking that there is any difference of opinion on this question in the Catholic Church.

But, did Abbe Duchesne write that "Anglican" pretends to quote? Very likely not. The tone of "Anglican's" letter smacks of a certain high-church controversialist, who, before he moved from Winnipeg to Ottawa, once triumphantly flourished a supposed quotation from one of Father Humphrey's books.

"STAY WITH IT."

Under the above heading the Free Press of this city had an article on suicide and some of the causes which lead to it.

We greatly fear that our contemporary's view of the situation is a superficial one. If it wishes to find the real cause of suicides, it must go much more deeply into the moral and religious, or rather the want of moral and religious principles that are responsible for this alarming increase of suicides.

they a proper understanding of the prerogatives of the Creator and His absolute right over the life and death of His creatures; in one word, had these men received a thorough and enlightened Christian education, they could never have been guilty of the terrible sin of self destruction, unless they were insane.

Let us, then, give a loyal and devoted attachment to our divinely instituted mother, the church, and when we are assailed and persecuted because we are her devoted children, let us be consoled with the happy thought that, sooner or later, her cause will triumph, because it is the cause of God.

TIME BRINGS CHANGES.

Less than twenty five years have elapsed since Prince Bismarck was the absolute ruler of the destinies of Germany.

DALY OR MARTIN?

The government of the Dominion of Canada has recognized the necessity of having a western man in the Cabinet, and giving him the portfolio of the Interior.

to punish a base betrayer of his church. But the lessons of history never did teach tyrants to be just and so Bismarck set to work to wage war on the church.

What an opportunity this fact will give Prince Bismarck to meditate on the littleness of man and the greatness of God! What a chance it gives the great ex-Chancellor to meditate and ponder deeply upon those words of Jesus Christ: "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against her."

The government of the Dominion of Canada has recognized the necessity of having a western man in the Cabinet, and giving him the portfolio of the Interior.

Many liberals affect to sneer at the present minister of the Interior and compare, in anticipation, the administration of the same department, by Mr. Joseph Martin.

the many difficulties which beset Mr. Daly, they would by less prolific of sneers and more just to him. It is well known that the east is jealousy of us and think that we cost the country too much, and as soon as the government attempts to deal with us in a fair and generous manner, the Opposition taking advantage of eastern prejudices, condemn the government's policy, and tell the country that the Northwest is nothing more or less than a financial sink hole.

Now, let us see what is the record of the man who, Liberals say, would be an improvement on Mr. Daly. In the first place we all know that Mr. Joseph Martin is a patriotic man, because he has told us so. For the same reason, he is, like Brutus, an honorable man? Well, patriotism and honor are requisites for all public men.

This school for the education of Indian children is under the management of the Roman Catholic church, and if it continues to prosper in the future as it has done thus far a very extensive enlargement will be—in fact is now—a most apparent necessity.

Don't forget your quota towards keeping the house of worship as comfortably heated as possible. There is still a deficiency towards the heating of St. Mary's church, and this would be a good time to begin practicing on Christmas boxes.

The collection next Sunday at St. Mary's church, will be in aid of the Catholic schools. While it is pleasing to note the constant increase of the pupils and their progress, it is not amiss for you to make efforts to keep the steam running.

An editor thus distinguishes between different sorts of patriotism: "Some deem it sweet to die for one's country; others regard it sweeter to live for one's country; but most of our patriots hold it sweetest to live upon one's country." In this province those in power think the country "their meat."

THE value of electric light as a saver of time and money is strikingly illustrated in a return just made of the average time occupied by ships in passing through the Suez canal. With the electric light the journey is accomplished in eight minutes under 24 hours. Without the light 31 hours and 24 minutes is the time usually required.

NEXT Sunday will be school collection day at the Immaculate Conception church. How with pride parents so love to hold up to strangers and friends their living ornaments in history. Now, how are you to be in a position to do so if you do not also lend a helping hand to those who make a much greater sacrifice.

IT is only possible for February to have five Sundays three times in each century, unless, through some chronological freak the century comes in with a leap year with the first day of February a Sunday. The five Sunday Februaries of this century have been those of 1824, 1852 and 1880. The next time this oddity will occur will be in the year 1920.

NEXT Thursday the pupils of the Immaculate Conception school will have examination exercises. All parents who can possibly do so should be present, both to show the children that they are taking some interest in their future welfare and also to satisfy themselves as to the progress being made by witnessing the coming "rulers" in competition with their fellow scholars.

THURSDAY last Sir John Thompson was sworn in as a member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council. Sir John will be the first native born Canadian to receive the honor. Sir John A. A most interesting ceremony took place at the Notre Dame Cathedral, Montreal, last week, the occasion being a solemn requiem mass for the repose of the souls of people who are buried in Cote des Neges Cemetery. This interesting "city of the dead" is almost as populous as the great living city in the south side of Mount Royal. From 1642 to 1894, 263,865 persons have been buried in the Catholic cemetery of Montreal.

WOMEN are generally credited with having more moral courage than men. Certainly they sometimes show this in a singular manner on railroad trains. We have sometimes observed with feelings akin to admiration, how a woman will pile her bundles on an adjoining seat, and, though conscious of the fact, she has no legitimate claim to it, will calmly and complacently stare at the women around her who are standing up. When a man thus appropriates what does not belong to him, he takes refuge from hostile scrutiny behind the folds of a newspaper. He hasn't courage enough to face it.

THE many friends of His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Schultz, who has been suffering from a bronchial attack lately, will follow to hear that he had a relapse, followed by a slight congestion of the lungs. However, His Honor is now improving and his physicians hope that in a few days he will be able to be up and attending to his usual duties.

J. R. BOURBEAU, who until lately, was a merchant of this city and St. Boniface has left on an extended trip through the States and Quebec. Previous to his departure a number of his friends waited upon him Monday evening and entertained him to a social time. Those of his "friends" who were not inside the circle much regret his departure and "extended" absence.

FOR want of space in our columns in this issue, and the late hour of its appearance on going to press, we unavoidably hold over until our next issue an interesting letter from Mr. Gerald F. Brophy to the editor of the Free Press under the heading, "The Dominion Ministers and the Schools." In Mr. Brophy's letter will be found an able rebuke to the editor in endeavoring to force upon the Catholics the necessity of a delegation to wait upon certain distinguished ministers, and clearly points out that the Catholics are by no means slow in acting when the proper time presents itself.

IN another column will be found Mr. Alex. McMicken's card soliciting your vote for mayor of the city of Winnipeg, for 1895. Mr. McMicken has been closely identified with the growing interests of Winnipeg, and having already served a term in the mayor's chair, not only with credit to himself but to the entire satisfaction of all, his presence in the council would lend an air of confidence that will shut out any fear of "eastern blood" being introduced in the metropolis of the Northwest. He has always been a friend of the workingman, and claims to so continue—whether elected or not.
