The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Brock University
St. Catharines

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol $\rightarrow$ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Brock University
St. Catharines

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole $\rightarrow$ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREAMBLE.

A SHORT HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL LODGE, No. 228 I. O. O. F.,

FROM ITS INSTITUTION UP TO JANUARY 1ST, 1894.

IN the summer of 1880 some of the members of Bertie Lodge, No. 150, Ridgeway, who lived at Fort Erie and vicinity, conceived the idea of starting a Lodge nearer the frontier. Eighteen members, therefore, took their Withdrawal Cards and made application for a charter for a new Lodge. This was refused by the Grand Master. These members then banded themselves together as a Mutual Aid Society, and sent one of their number, W. B. Seaton, to Brantford, at the session of Grand Lodge in 1881, who was successful in inducing the Grand Lodge to reverse the decision of the Grand Master and grant a charter. In the interval the Mutual Aid did good work, and paid out for Sick Benefits about $30.00. The new Lodge was then started in September, 1881, with the eighteen charter members, holding its meetings in the A. O. U. W. Hall at International Bridge. After the separation Bertie Lodge, making no progress, surrendered its charter in 1884, and in October of that year merged into International Lodge, the membership having fallen to sixteen. International Lodge making steady progress, soon found the need of increased accommodations, and steps were taken which resulted in the erection of the present Hall, which was completed in 1886, at a cost of $4,000.

THE

Odd Fellows' Relief Association of Canada.

THE ODD FELLOWS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION OF CANADA was incorporated in 1875 under Ontario Statute 37, Cap. 34, and is designed to contribute to the permanence and welfare of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows within the Dominion, by providing an insurance of $500, $1,000, $1,500, $2,000 in case of death, and a disability benefit not to exceed $500.

It makes bi-monthly assessments of a fixed amount, graded in accordance with the age of the member at joining. The assessments are payable on the 15th of the following months: January, March, May, July, September and November.

OUR RATES OF ASSESSMENTS (SIX CALLS).

New members seeking $500 benefits must pay their proportion of expenses, at the rate of $1 per year. The proportion of expenses is added in the table of rates in all amounts of $1,000 and over.

RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

THE ADMISSION FEES.

These are paid only once, at the time of joining the Association, and are graded according to the age of the applicant, thus :

	$500	$1,000	$1,500	$2,000
From 21 to 29 yrs.....	$ 1 00..	$ 2 00..	$ 3 00..	$ 4 00
From 30 to 34 yrs.....	1 50..	3 00..	4 50..	6 00
From 35 to 39 yrs.....	2 50..	5 00..	7 50..	10 00
From 40 to 44 yrs.....	3 00..	6 00..	9 00..	12 00
From 45 to 49 yrs.	5 00..	10 00..	15 00..	20 00

The fee for medical examination is $1. This is in addition to admission fees as above given.

OUR SPECIAL OFFER.

Every initiate into the Order who will apply for membership within thirty days of the date of his Lodge medical examination will have free admission, (provided he be under 35 years of age), and uses the Lodge medical examination. This offer is strictly limited to thirty days, and it is further conditional on the fact that the proper form of medical blank is used by the applicant's Lodge.

THE DISABILITY FEATURE.

A point which makes the Association attractive to young men is its disability feature. If the member is insured for $500 he is paid $250 on furnishing proof of permanent disability through loss of hand, arm or leg, total blindness, or spinal injury. If he is insured for $1,000 or over, the sum of $500 is paid upon the disability being established.

POINTERS OF IMPORTANCE.

It is purely an Odd Fellows' Association. Does business only with members of the Order.

It is the only Insurance Association of the kind doing business in Canada and authorized to use the name of the Order.

Its record in the matter of prompt settlement of claims is unparalleled.

It disbursed in benefits between July 1st, 1892, and June 30th, 1893, $45,600.

Its Reserve Fund now is $50,000, and is constantly growing. This fund is safely and profitably invested with chartered banks and in debentures of the soundest financial institutions in Canada.

It has paid out to beneficiaries since its organization the sum of $350,000.

Its limit of age is fifty years. All members of the Order under that age, who can pass a satisfactory medical examination, should hold a policy in the Odd Fellows' Relief Association of Canada.

PREFACE.

ODDFELLOWSHIP having increased so rapidly, and spread its organization within a few years far and wide over the civilized world, has naturally attracted the attention of nearly all classes of the community.

Seventy-five years have scarcely passed since the birth of American Oddfellowship, and now over seven hundred thousand men are among its votaries. It cannot be said that its rapid growth was the result of accident, or in consequence of its novelty; for it was solely because of its adaptation to the wants of mankind. Oddfellowship teaches in the most beautiful and forcible manner the all-important lesson of Fraternity—that all men are as one family, and are therefore brethren.

The great duties of our Order, by and through which we aim to improve and exalt the character of our Members, are five in number: 1st, To visit the sick; 2nd, To relieve the distressed; 3rd, To bury the dead; 4th, To educate the orphan; 5th, To aid the widow. And in obedience to these commands over three million dollars have been expended during the past year for these noble purposes. Yet Oddfellowship is not merely a beneficial society, having for its single purpose the relief of its Members in the struggles incident to human society. It seeks to improve and elevate the character of man—to imbue him with proper conceptions of his capabilities for good, to enlighten his mind, and to enlarge the sphere of his affections. It, therefore, commends itself alike to the high, the low, the rich, and the poor, as one of the noblest charities the world ever saw.

The principles of Oddfellowship are those of humanity and religion; its object is to promote the general good of mankind, and spread abroad the light of morality and knowledge. It not only benefits the common cause of philanthropy, but insures to its Members in the hour of adversity and tribulation a source of safety and comfort that none can destroy.

The ties that bind us together are never surrendered; our claims of brotherhood are only dissolved by death—no, not even death can rend them—they descend to the widow and orphan.

The language of our Order is more potent than any strain of eloquence that ever fell upon the ear. A stranger, penniless and friendless in a foreign land, breathes its tones, and his necessities are relieved. Sickness comes and lays its paralyzing hand upon him, and though no friends or relatives are near, a Brother of the "Mystic Tie" administers to his wants and soothes his distresses. The sick among our own Brethren are not left to the cold hand of public charity : they are visited, and their wants provided for, out of the fund they themselves have contributed to raise, and which, in times of need, they can honourably claim without the humiliation of suing for public or individual relief, from which the freeborn mind recoils with disdain, until overwhelmed in insufferable want and misery. We are obliged, if need be, to perform the last solemn office to the remains of a departed Brother, and see them consigned with respectful decency to the bosom of our mother earth. To the living our fraternal solicitude is no less exercised. It is our enjoined duty to watch over the conduct of Brethren, even in their common intercourse with men, as well as one with another ; and to remonstrate with those who wander from the paths of rectitude or trespass upon the rules of morality.

It has been said that ours is a secret Order, and that secrecy is dissonant with innocence. True it is, that we are in part a secret society ; but is secrecy a crime ? The world itself, the universe, the God of eternal truth, are surrounded with an impenetrable veil that no mortal eye ever pierced ; and shall it be denied that these exist because their secrets are not revealed at our bidding ? Shall we pronounce them evil because their operations are hidden from our view and above our comprehension ?

So far from secrecy being an objection to our Order, we claim it as a commendation. It is the Mystic Tie that binds us together in indissoluble Brotherhood, prompting us to deeds of brotherly love and benevolence : it comes and entwines itself around our fraternity, like the refreshing yet invisible breeze that at summer noontide fans our burning forehead, invigorating the system with its coolness, and gladdening our hearts with its freshness and purity. In this respect we have the sanction of ages. We challenge any one to point out a single nation or people, whose career is sketched on the page of history, among whom there did not exist secret institutions. To go further, there is not an enlightened Government now existing on the face of the globe that does not permit its legislative councils to resolve themselves into secret conclave.

PREFACE.

Even in our own country, under our own Constitution, the legislative bodies can close their doors, and sit for days for weeks, for months, concocting measures of vital importance to the entire population, and should any member of that body dare to reveal its operations he would subject himself to the severest censure, if not to expulsion.

To be initiated as a Member of our Order is not, as many suppose, "to take a leap in the dark." The fundamental principles of the Order are before the world; its deeds are not concealed from public scrutiny; while the Constitution and Laws of our Society are within the reach of all who wish to examine them. But then, our mysteries within the inner veil of our altars, that none except Members of the fraternity are permitted to behold: solemn and sublime truths are there inculcated that have never reached the ear of any save those who have proved themselves worthy of the sacred trust. They have remained there for ages—hallowed archives in the sanctuary of our temple—and have never crossed its portal; and there, we hope and pray, they will ever remain, unsullied, inviolate and untarnished.

Our Order is the handmaid of virtue and religion, and it must flourish. It calls into life and action the best and holiest feelings of our nature, and success must crown our efforts. Our course is onward, and we may look forward with confidence to a day, not far distant, when our Society shall find an abiding place in every village and hamlet in our land, and the smoke of our altars shall go up from a thousand hills.

TITLES AND POWERS.

CLAUSE 1.—This lodge shall be constituted of at least five members of the Third Degree, or Degree of Truth, and shall be hailed and entitled INTERNATIONAL LODGE, No. 228, I.O.O.F., OF ONTARIO, and shall possess the full powers and privileges of a Subordinate Lodge, holding a legal, unreclaimed and valid Charter, duly granted and formally presented by the Grand Lodge of Ontario.

MEMBERSHIP.

CLAUSE 2.—Candidates for membership, by initiation, in this lodge, must be free, white males, of not less than twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and in sound health, and resident within the jurisdiction of this Lodge.

CLAUSE 3.—Every application for membership must be submitted in writing in the form provided by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and must be accompanied by a reference to at least two other members of the Lodge, and a certificate of good health from a physician selected by the Lodge, on the form provided by the Grand Lodge.

CLAUSE 4.—The application so made shall be referred to a committee of three members, two of whom shall be appointed by the N. G., and one by the V. G., who shall report thereon at the next regular meeting unless excused by a two-thirds vote of the members present, or unless the application be withdrawn by the proposer.

CLAUSE 5.—A ballot shall be taken on the application immediately after the presentation of such report, when, if less than three black balls be found, the candidate shall be accepted; if three or more, he shall be rejected, and so declared; and any proposition fee prepaid by him shall be returned.

CLAUSE 6.—Any Brother or Ancient Oddfellow, desirous of joining this Lodge, must present a Withdrawal Card or Dismissal Certificate from the Lodge of which he was previously a member, and his application shall then be disposed of according to the above regulations, provided that, in case of the application of a brother, who, within six months previous to such application, has been a member of a Lodge which has merged into or united with this Lodge, the vote necessary to receive shall be a majority vote by ballot.

CLAUSE 7.—Any candidate requiring admission more than thirteen weeks after his election must be again proposed and balloted for, as in the case of a new candidate.

CLAUSE 8.—The rejection of any candidate for membership shall be immediately intimated to every Subordinate Lodge in the city, town or village in which such rejection takes place.

CLAUSE 9.—No candidate for membership by initiation who has been rejected can again be proposed until at least six months after his rejection.

CLAUSE 10.—No person shall be admitted to honorary membership in this Lodge, nor hold membership in this or any other Subordinate Lodge in this Order at the same time.

CLAUSE 11.—No proposition for membership, either by initiation or by card, shall be received or acted upon, if the applicant's residence be out of this jurisdiction (without the consent of the Grand Master of the jurisdiction in which he resides), nor if his residence be nearer to any other Lodge by the nearest travelled route, unless consent of the latter be obtained; and in the event of the violation of this clause, this Lodge shall pay over all fees received from such applicant to the Lodge within whose jurisdiction he resided, and shall also be liable to suspension by the Grand Lodge or Grand Master.

CLAUSE 12.—This Constitution for the government of Subordinate Lodges, and the By-laws and Rules of Order made thereunder, and the Constitution and By-laws and Rules of Order of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, shall constitute the contract between the Order and each member thereof ; and every member from the time of his initiation or admission by card, and so long as he continues in membership in the Order, shall be bound by every clause and article therein contained, and shall be subject thereto in every particular.

CLAUSE 13.—Every member shall sign the Constitution and By-laws of this Lodge on his admission thereto, but such signature shall not be necessary for the authentication of the aforesaid contract, which contract is complete by the member's initiation or admission by card, such admission by card dating always from the time that he has been accepted by vote of this Lodge ; and every member shall be subject to the said laws as aforesaid, although he may not have signed his name thereto.

DEGREES.

CLAUSE 14.—Every member previous to his receiving any of the degrees shall present a certificate from the P. S. that he is not in arrears to the lodge, and that he has paid all charges for the said degree ; after which he shall be balloted for. Balloting shall be had when the lodge is open in the Third Degree, and one ballot shall be taken for all the degrees for which he has applied.

CLAUSE 15.—If, on such ballot, three or more black balls appear, the applicant shall be rejected, otherwise he shall be considered eligible, and shall be admitted to the Degree or Degrees applied for. In case of rejection he shall not be again balloted for to receive the Degrees unless two weeks' notice is given immediately preceding the meeting at which such ballot is taken.

SESSIONS, TERMS AND RETURNS.

CLAUSE 33.—This Lodge shall hold its meetings weekly or semi-monthly, on such evening and at such time as may be provided by its By-laws, provided always, that if its terms are semi-annual, twenty-six nights' service shall constitute the term of office, and if yearly not less than twenty-four.

CLAUSE 34.—Special sessions may be called by the N. G., or, in the absence of that officer from the place, by the V. The notice shall contain the particular reason for calling the same, and no business but that expressed in such notice shall be entered upon at such special meeting. It shall be the duty of the N. G. to call a special meeting when requested in writing so to do by not less than five members.

CLAUSE 35.—Should any regular meeting fall upon any legally established or recognized holiday, the Lodge may, by resolution passed at the preceding regular meeting, omit such meeting; and any business that should by law or resolution be transacted at that time shall be taken up at the regular meeting following.

CLAUSE 36.—No business shall be transacted at any regular or special meeting, unless at least five members of this Lodge be then present, nor otherwise than according to Rules of Order annexed to this Constitution.

visitors, provided they give the password for the term, present a proper card, or are introduced by an elective Grand Officer, or by any Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge from the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment of Ontario.

TERMS.

CLAUSE 38.—The terms of this Lodge shall be semi-annual or annual, as provided by its By-laws, and shall commence on the first regular meetings in July and January respectively if semi-annual, and on the first regular meeting in January if annual.

CLAUSE 39.—Every term shall be held to close on the day on which the succeeding one may commence, and at the moment the Lodge opens.

RETURNS.

CLAUSE 40.—It shall be the duty of the N. G. and P. S. to prepare and forward to the Grand Secretary of Ontario, immediately on the expiry of their term of office, a regular return of the work of such term, with the result of election of officers, etc., in accordance with such blank form of semi-annual or annual return as the Grand Lodge may from time to time direct to be used.

CLAUSE 41.—Such semi-annual return shall be accompanied by the amount due the Grand Lodge, the same being twenty-five cents for each unsuspended member on said return.

CLAUSE 42.—A fine of two dollars shall be payable by this Lodge for every month that may elapse after the close of any semi-annual term and until the returns required by the preceding clauses are placed in the possession of the Grand Lodge; and a further fine of fifty cents per day for every day that shall elapse after the 25th day of July, until the returns for term preceding are sent to the Grand Secretary.

CLAUSE 43.—Should this Lodge, or the officers thereof, fail to make the returns required by the preceding clauses for twelve months, it shall thereby become liable to the forfeiture of its Charter, and it shall be the duty of the last installed officers to transmit or surrender to the Grand Master, on requisition from him to that effect (or to such other brother as may be appointed by the Grand Lodge or Grand Master to receive the same), the Charter, books, papers, furniture and funds of the Lodge.

FUNDS.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

CLAUSE 44.—There shall be one general fund for the payment of all benefits, charity and expenses of maintenance; but the Lodge may provide, by its By-laws, for the institution of a special fund or funds, for any of the benevolent purposes contemplated by the Order.

CLAUSE 45.—The receipts and disbursements on account of any special fund shall be kept separate and distinct from the general fund, and any money appropriated to a Widows' and Orphans' fund shall be used only for the payment of benefits and relief to the widows and orphans of deceased members of this Lodge. No portion of the regular dues, initiation or degree fees of the Lodge shall be applied to a contingent fund or special fund provided for amusement or entertainment purposes, or for any purpose other than the payment of benefits, relief and general maintenance.

CLAUSE 46.—The initiation fee of this Lodge must be paid, in every case, previous to the admission of the candidate, and shall not be less than five dollars; and the fees for Degrees shall not be at a less rate than two dollars for each of the three Degrees.

CLAUSE 47.—The contribution of each member to the general fund of this Lodge shall be determined by By-laws, provided it be not less than ten cents per week; and the Lodge may require the same to be paid quarterly in advance.

CLAUSE 48.—The fee for a Withdrawal or Visiting Card shall not exceed fifty cents, and may be applied to the general fund or any special fund, as the Lodge may provide by its By-laws.

CLAUSE 49.—Such moneys in possession of the Lodge as may not be required for immediate use may be invested in stock debentures, or securities of the Government of Canada, or of the Province of Ontario, or in securities which are a first charge on lands held in fee simple; but in no case shall they be loaned to members of the Order, nor shall they be loaned to individuals on personal security, or invested in private enterprises of any kind.

CLAUSE 50.—Whenever the available cash assets of this Lodge shall be reduced below an amount equal to ten dollars for each unsuspended member, the Lodge may, either by

By-law or by resolution adopted after two weeks' notice, assess its members equally in a sum sufficient to increase the funds to the amount required to make up the deficiency.

DISBURSEMENTS.

CLAUSE 51.—Every member, qualified as required by the By-laws, if rendered incapable of following his usual or other attainable occupation by sickness or disability (not occasioned by drunkenness or other immoral conduct on his part) or by reason of infirmity from old age, having no available means of support, shall be entitled to receive from the General Fund such weekly sick benefit as may be fixed by the By-laws, provided such weekly benefit shall not be less than two dollars per week, and shall not exceed one-half the amount of the annual receipts per member, from dues and permanent investments. The Lodge shall not be held to pay such benefit for any term of sickness shorter than one week; but after one week's sickness the Brother shall be entitled to benefits for each additional day or days that he may be ill.

CLAUSE 52.—The Lodge may provide by its By-laws for the reduction of the weekly sick benefit payable to any member after such member has received benefits for twelve months of continuous sickness, and such By-law shall apply to any member who may be receiving benefits at the time of its adoption. Provided, however, that the weekly sick benefits thereafter to be paid shall not be less than $1 per week.

CLAUSE 53.—In case of the death of a member, qualified as required by the By-laws, there shall be paid to his widow, children or other relatives who may at the time of his death have been depending on him for support, a Funeral Benefit, in such sum as may be fixed by the By-laws of this Lodge. In the event of the deceased member leaving no such dependent relative, the said Funeral Benefit, or as much thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied by the Lodge to defraying his funeral expenses—if any are incurred.

CLAUSE 54.—The Lodge may, by its By-laws, make such provisions as shall seem meet for the relief of members in a state of pecuniary distress.

CLAUSE 55.—The Lodge shall make such disposition of its Widows' and Orphans' Fund for the relief and benefit of the widows and orphans of deceased members of this Lodge, who were in good standing as required by the By-laws at the time of their decease, as it shall see fit, except by annuity.

CLAUSe 56.—The Lodge may, by By-law, fix the time after admission at which a member shall become entitled to benefits, but a member admitted on an unexpired Withdrawal Card shall be entitled to benefits immediately upon his admission to membership.

PENALTIES.

CLAUSe 57.—Any member who shall violate any of the laws, principles or practices of the Order, or any part of the Constitution or By-laws of this Lodge, shall be subject to be fined, reprimanded, suspended or expelled, as the By-laws may direct, ancient usage require, or the Lodge determine.

TRIALS.

CLAUSe 58.—Every member charged with an offence involving reprimand, suspension or expulsion (unless for non-payment of dues), shall be entitled to a fair trial, in accordance with the provision of this Constitution, and of the Rules of Procedure on Trials adopted by the Grand Lodge.

CLAUSe 59.—No member of this Lodge shall be put on trial, unless charges duly specifying his alleged offence shall be first submitted to the Lodge in writing by one or more members of the Order in good standing.

CLAUSe 60.—Any charge or charges so preferred shall be referred to a committee of five members, to be chosen by ballot, three of whom shall be a quorum; which committee shall, with as little delay as the case will admit, summon the parties, and examine and determine the matter in question, in accordance with the Constitution and Rules of Procedure on Trials. In selecting this committee, only one name shall be written upon any ballot.

CLAUSe 61.—Should the report of the Trial Committee not recommend the suspension or expulsion of the member under trial, it shall be acted upon by the Lodge on the night it is presented, unless objection is taken by any member, in which case action shall be deferred until the next regular meeting. Should the Lodge adopt the report of the committee, such action shall be final, unless appeal is taken to the Grand Lodge.

CLAUSe 62.—Should the Committee report in favour of suspending or expelling the member, a motion to that effect shall be submitted to the Lodge by two or more of their members, in their name.

CONSTITUTION.

CLAUSE 63.—Any motion for the suspension or expulsion of a member shall be announced at the two regular meetings previous to that on which it is to be decided, which last meeting the member under charge shall be summoned to attend; and at the time so appointed, whether the implicated member be present or not, the Lodge may proceed to consider and determine the question, and may either alter, amend, adopt or reject the motion made on behalf of the Trial Committee.

CLAUSE 64.—Any member interested shall have the right of appeal to the Grand Lodge of Ontario, provided such appeal be forwarded to the Grand Secretary within two months from the date of the action of the Lodge on the matter to be appealed against, said appeal to be prosecuted in the manner prescribed in the By-laws of the Grand Lodge; and no member shall carry the case to any of the Civil Courts until after the same has been adjudicated upon by the Grand Lodge of Ontario, and, on further appeal, by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

CLAUSE 65.—When any member suspended for a definite period, for any other cause than non-payment of dues, desires to be reinstated before the expiration of his suspension, or, having been expelled, desires reinstatement, his case shall be referred to a committee of five members, who, after due investigation, shall report at the next regular meeting, and if a majority of the members then present shall vote in his favour, he shall thereupon be declared eligible for reinstatement, and, with the consent of the Grand Lodge, may be reinstated.

CLAUSE 66.—No member shall be reinstated until he shall have paid any arrearages against him at the time of his suspension, and all dues and assessments that may have accrued since that date, except in case of a member dropped for non-payment of dues.

CLAUSE 67.—No member who has been dropped from membership for non-payment of dues, except members of defunct Lodges and those possessing dismissal certificates, shall be again admitted to membership in any Lodge of this Order without the consent of the Lodge from which he was expelled or dropped; and in no case shall he be re-admitted without compliance with all the forms for new applicants, excepting the ceremony of Initiation, and excepting also that in the case of a non-resident he shall not be required to re-sign the Constitution.

CLAUSE 68.—Any member of this Lodge who is in arrears for dues for one year shall be reported to the Lodge by the P. S., and on such report shall be dropped from membership, unless the Lodge, by resolution, extend the time of payment, which extension shall in no case exceed six months; provided that a member under suspension for any cause for a definite period shall not be dropped from membership until the expiration of his term of suspension.

BY-LAWS.

CLAUSE 69.—This Lodge shall stand fully invested with the power to adopt, from time to time, such By-laws and resolutions as may be deemed expedient, and to repeal, alter or amend the same; provided they do not in anywise contravene any part of this Constitution, the Constitution and By-laws of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, or the laws, principles or customs of the Order.

CLAUSE 70.—All such By-laws shall be immediately forwarded in duplicate to the Grand Secretary, authenticated by the seal of the Lodge, and the signature of the N. G. and Secretary, one copy to be retained by the Grand Lodge and the other to be returned to the Lodge, certified as approved, or otherwise, as the case may be; and no such By-laws shall be operative until approved by the Grand Lodge, or, in its recess, by its Committee on Laws of Subordinates.

AMENDMENTS.

CLAUSE 71.—This Constitution and the Rules of Procedure on Trials, and Rules of Order for Subordinate Lodges, or any part thereof, shall not be altered, amended, suspended or annulled, unless by action of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, and then only by a two-thirds vote of the Representatives present and voting.

| 1. To adjourn ; | 4. To postpone ; |
| 2. To lay on the table ; | 5. To refer ; or |
| 3. To put the previous question ; | 6. To amend. |

These several motions, if made, shall have precedence in the order above stated, and the first, second and third thereof shall be decided without debate.

V. The Previous Question shall be put from the chair, only after it shall have been ascertained that the call therefor is sustained by a majority of the members of the lodge present, and shall then always be put in the words following : “ Shall the question be now put ? ” which words shall be understood to have reference to whatever question may be pending immediately before such call for the previous question may have been made.

VI. If the vote of the lodge, taken pursuant to such call for the previous question be in the affirmative, the Presiding Officer shall thereupon forthwith put to vote the question so pending, immediately before such call, and shall allow no amendment or further debate thereon ; and if, on the other hand, the vote of the lodge be in the negative, the Presiding Officer shall be thereby precluded from putting to vote, during the remainder of the current term, the question pending as aforesaid.

XI. Any question decided by the Lodge shall not again be brought before it, otherwise than by reconsideration, as provided in the foregoing rule, unless notice thereof shall have been given at the meeting immediately preceding; and such notice shall not be received during the term in which the question has been decided.

XII. Every member shall have the privilege of speaking twice on any question, but not oftener, unless by permission of the Presiding Officer.

XIII. XIV. The Presiding Officer, or any member, may call a brother to order while speaking; and, in such case, the debate shall be forthwith suspended, and the brother so called to order shall not proceed until the point of order thus raised be determined, nor speak upon such point of order unless it be to make necessary explanation or appeal from the decision of the chair.

XV. In all cases where a member may appeal from the decision of the chair, he shall use the words following, and none other, unless it be for necessary explanation: "N. G., I respectfully appeal from the decision of the chair to the Lodge," and the lodge shall, after such explanation from the Presiding Officer as he shall deem necessary, proceed forthwith to consider and vote upon the question: "Will the Lodge sustain the decision of the chair?"

XVI.
