WILSON'S NOTE ON VIOLATIONS HAS BEEN SENT

Official Protest by the United States Reached Berlin Today.

NO CRISIS EXPECTED

Germany Probably Will Find a Way Out of the Difficulty.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The United States sent to Germany today a note protesting against the sinking of the Lusitania with the loss of more than 100 American lives, and other violations of American rights on the high seas.

A copy of the note was delivered to Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, tonight, by the state department, and copies were similarly cabled to the American ambassadors at London, Paris and Petrograd for their own information.

Duplication of the text was arranged for by Secretary Bryan, who announced that the document was to be released for use in editions of morning newspapers reaching the American public not earlier than 5 a.m. Friday. Special restrictions were imposed on foreign correspondents, who were not permitted to cable it until the same hour that it reached the people of the United States. The purpose of these arrangements, it was explained at the state department, was to prevent diplomatic embarrassment such as might arise if the text reached the British or French Governments through publication in foreign newspapers before it actually has reached the German Government.

No Crisis Expected. Although the German embassy announced in a statement that it had no information as to the reply the German Government would make to the American note, tension over the situation was diminished somewhat in the German quarters because of the belief that Germany would in order to preserve friendly relations with the United States, probably would find some way of meeting the American Government's position without developing a crisis. It was admitted by well-informed diplomats that this was the hope of German officials here, although the difficulties in communication they professed to be uninformed as to the views of the German Government.

Count Von Bernstorff took occasion to communicate to the state department a formal denial of published reports that the embassy here had intimated that Germany would in answer refuse to comply with the requests of the United States.

ANOTHER GERMAN COULD NOT HOLD HIS TONGUE

Ernest Baker Expressed the Opinion That the Huns Would Take Canada Shortly.

Still another German was interviewed yesterday for airing seditious views on the war. Ernest Baker was arrested by Detective Maurer and taken before the registrar and interned at Stanley Baker's. Baker expressed his belief that the German eagle would in the national emblem of Canada before the Germans got thru with the allies.

APPEAL TO RELATIVES.

LONDON, May 13.—(2.30 a.m.)—West Front, the American consul at Cork has appealed to the embassy here to send notice to request the relatives and friends of persons still missing from the Lusitania disaster to cable immediately descriptions of those individuals, in order that the work of identification may be expedited.

An Eventful Week

Within a week we have seen the destruction of the Lusitania by a German submarine; the estrangement of Germany and the United States as a consequence thereof; the renewal of the attack on the Dardanelles by the allied fleet; enormous engagements under way on both the western and eastern battlefronts; and Italy at the final stage of declaring war on Austria and Germany; also Japan and China on the verge of conflict.

Can Stand Any Shock Now

More than that we've taken in a sort of stolid way the loss of nearly two hundred Canadians on the Lusitania, and of a thousand more in the great battle three weeks ago at Ypres in Flanders. Nothing can greatly upset us now. And yet we're all got used to them—that they're all part of the day's work.

Great Changes

National debts are being piled up in stupendous figures; and yet the net result is likely to be a wonderful revival of business after the war. There has been surprising dislocations and corresponding readjustments, but on new and different lines. The world is being made over again. England, the mother country, will emerge an absolutely new country. So will Germany, if she emerges at all! The United States must find itself afresh. The Canada of 1916 will be so different from the Canada of 1914!

The New War—Civilization Against Savagery

The civilization that we know cannot survive alongside of the new warfare perfected by all the discoveries of science and put in the hands of a race of devils. War must go if civilization is to live. Civilization must go if the new warfare is allowed.

War hereafter is not to be between nations, but between humanity and savagery. And the Kaiser is at the head of the horde that seek to throw things back two thousand years.

Men must now ask themselves not as to their race and nationality, but whether they are civilized or savage, and they must align accordingly. The United States finds itself face to face with this interrogation. That country has many Germans who would side with savagery.

Civilization Will Be Saved

But it will not be by races or blood ties, but by faith in moral principles, faith in humanity, in civilization. To save humanity all the world is going to turn in and beat Germany, not because she is German, but because she is savage, and that is only on law for the brute, and that is castigation or extermination. In less than a year mankind is being forced to think that civilization is to be saved by the destruction of Germany. And Germany has by her own madness forced this belief on the rest of us. The most highly educated nation has run amuck. Why?

BRITISH TROOPS FIGHT WITH RENEWED VIGOR

News of the Sinking of the Lusitania Has Aroused Intense Indignation.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, May 13.—Officers arriving from France tell that the British troops, infuriated over the Lusitania disaster, are fighting with greater vigor and more fiercely than ever before. The news spread quickly thru the army, arousing the intensest indignation.

Two Steel Steamers Sunk In Collision on Lake Huron

F. M. Osborne and Valcartier Crashed Together During Fog, and Went Down in Shallow Water—No Lives Were Lost.

SARNIA, May 13.—The steel steamers F. M. Osborne and Valcartier, both owned by Detroit parties, collided on the Corcora shoal, in Lake Huron, during a dense fog this morning, and as a result both are resting on the lake bottom in 19 feet of water in a badly damaged condition. A misunderstanding of signals is said to have been the cause of the collision.

BRITAIN'S STEPS AGAINST ALIENS SATISFY PUBLIC

Pledge to Deport or Intern Has Apparently Checked Rioting.

OFFENDERS PENALIZED

Naturalized Germans, Austrians and Turks Eager to Sign Declarations.

LONDON, May 13.—The statement of Premier Asquith in the house of commons today that all aliens of enemy countries of military age would be interned and that this applied to those naturalized, against whom there was any suspicion, and that the others would be repatriated, has satisfied those persons who were agitating for some drastic action.

As a result the riots in London and provincial towns have largely subsided. Such rioting as did take place today and tonight was carried on by mobs of boys, girls and women, who were out for fun or bent on looting German shops, while men stood by laughing or encouraging their youthful imitators. The police, strongly reinforced by special constables, were better able to handle the situation today.

Rioters Punished

Following the wild scenes of yesterday and last night, some 500 or more active participants in attacks on German shops appeared in the police court of London today, and the magistrates read them severe lectures and imposed heavy penalties in most cases. Some of the more culpable were sentenced to jail terms at hard labor, the sentence ranging from a month to four months. Others, chiefly women, were fined. When men of military age appeared before the magistrates (Continued on Page 2, Column 4).

ARCHANGEL HARBOR FOR GOVERNMENT PURPOSES

Access to Port Now Possible, But No Private Cargoes Will Be Handled.

PETROGRAD, May 13.—

Although the ice in Archangel harbor has broken up and access to this port from the sea is now possible, no private cargoes will be handled there in the immediate future. The minister of commerce announced today that all the facilities of the port would be required for government purposes, and that until further notice no other traffic could be accommodated.

ACT QUICKLY WARNING

"Intern or Deport Them All" Plea Made to Government.

LONDON, May 13.—The prime minister's announcement of intention to repatriate alien enemies came close on the heels of an adoption of a resolution at a gigantic mass meeting in Tower Hill, demanding that the government act at once, either by internment or deporting enemy aliens. The mass meeting was hastily called, following a renewal of anti-German riots that occurred in nearly every section of London last night.

CONSCRIPTION MAY BE NEAR SAYS HALDANE

Britain Has Plenty of Recruits, But Strain is Tremendous.

IN BATTLE FOR LIVES

Lord Lansdowne Hopes Government is Taking Up Grave Problem.

LONDON, May 13, 6.45 p.m.—Viscount Haldane, lord high chancellor, said in the house of lords today that the government might yet find it advisable to resort to some method of raising troops other than the enrolment of volunteers. In support of the bill to give the government power to control the sale of liquor in districts in which munitions of war are manufactured, which was before the house of lords on second reading, Viscount Haldane said: "We are fighting for our lives."

He added that the opinion had been expressed that until the return of normal conditions the volunteer system would be difficult to depart from, "yet we may find that we have to reconsider the situation in the light of the tremendous necessities wherewith the nation is confronted. We are not race to race, but we are recruiting."

Lord Lansdowne, in the house heard with great satisfaction "the momentous announcement" that the government was prepared to reconsider the whole situation regarding recruiting "in view of the tremendous necessities which confront us." Many members of the house had thought for a long time, he continued, that an announcement of the kind should be made, and they hoped it might be taken as an indication that this very grave problem was being given the attention of the government.

This appears to confirm the idea prevalent here that while recruiting has been satisfactory, the very heavy fighting which has been taking place in Flanders, where the Germans have for almost a fortnight been attacking the British line, shows that many more men will be required if victory is to be attained.

LONDON, May 13, 7.55 p.m.—"The King as sovereign of the Order of the Garter," says an official announcement issued this evening, "has given directions that the following names forthwith be struck off the roll of the knights of the order: 'The Emperor of Austria, the German Emperor, the King of Wuerttemberg, the Grand Duke of Hesse, Prince Henry of Prussia, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and the Duke of Cumberland.'"

The Order of the Garter was constituted by King Edward III. about August, 1348. Since 1851 it has consisted of the British sovereign and 25 knight-companions, who were lineal descendants of King George I. and of sovereigns and extra knights who have been admitted by special statutes.

British Heavily Shelled But Line Firmly Held

LONDON, May 13.—(3.30 p.m.)—The following official communication was issued this evening: "The fighting east of Ypres still continues. The Germans today have again subjected our line north of the Menin road to a violent artillery bombardment, which in places destroyed some of our trenches, causing temporary readjustments in the line. The line, however, has since been completely re-established. "On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report."

Italian Ministry Resigns After Failure to Secure United Support for War

King Expresses Hope That Unanimous Understanding Will Be Reached, and Has Reserved Decision as to Acceptance of Resignations.

LONDON, May 14, 2.55 a.m.—The Italian cabinet has resigned. The council of ministers," says Reuters' Rome correspondent, "considering that it did not possess the unanimous assent of the constitutional parties regarding its international policy, which the gravity of the situation demands, has decided to hand its resignation to the king. An official note to this effect was issued tonight. "The king has reserved his decision as to whether the resignation will be accepted."

Hope for Settlement

ROME, May 13, via Paris.—At the cabinet meeting held today for the usual bi-weekly signing of despatches, the internal situation was discussed, and King Victor Emmanuel expressed the hope that an understanding would be reached which would make parliament unanimous in the decisions that are to be taken.

The Giornale d'Italia, which represents government opinion, in an article urges concord. It suggests that in his attitude favoring Italy remaining neutral, former Premier Giolitti perhaps went further than he intended to do. The newspaper recalls the phrase of Garibaldi when he landed 55 years ago today in Sicily with his thousand volunteers: "If united, our task will be easy," and calls for unity at the present time.

Botha Will Exact Reprisals

LONDON, May 13.—A report from Athens states that an allied fleet re-entered the Dardanelles last night and bombarded the forts at Killid Bahr, Chanak Kalesi and Nazare. After an interruption at 8 o'clock, the bombardment was resumed three hours later, and is being continued. The Turks, although strongly reinforced, lost heavily, and are steadily losing ground. Their trenches are filled with bodies.

General Joffre's Successes. Continue Unbroken in Great Battle North of Arras—Much War Material Captured—British Lines Hold Firm Under Terrific Bombardment.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, May 13.—While the Germans continue battering away at the British salient at Ypres and are throwing away a great amount of ammunition and a great number of men in frontal attacks which do not get them anywhere, the French troops, about 30 or 40 miles southward, have been able to report an unbroken stream of successes in their offensive north of Arras, against the southwestern angle of the German lines, capturing many thousand Germans and much war material, occupying Carency and Ablain St. Nazaire, and taking Hill 135, to the north of the former village, where they found three companies of dead Germans, who had been wiped out by French artillery fire.

Fought Thy Night. On Hill 126 was a wood which was garrisoned by three battalions of Prussians and Bavarians and 1800 pioneers, in all nearly 6000 men, and they had made the wood and the hill a fortress of great strength. The French drove them out in one night's fighting, and took 1050 prisoners. The enemy had suffered severely in previous fighting he put up a tremendous resistance throughout the night, behind a mass of blockhouses, trenches, entanglements and narrow passages, but at daybreak the French were masters of the situation. Hundreds of Germans were killed with the bayonet.

Among the war spoils of Carency are two heavy guns, one big howitzer, two mortars, a dozen bomb throwers, 2000 rifles and large supplies of shells and cartridges.

After being driven from Carency in a short but bloody fight, the Germans bombarded the town this afternoon, but gained no result from their cannonade.

Set Fire to Village. The capture of Carency enabled the French forces to make progress to the north and to capture Ablain St. Nazaire today. Only four houses along the river remained in German hands.

GENERAL ELECTION IN JUNE NOW IMPOSSIBLE

Acting-Premier Leaves for Holiday—Only Four Cabinet Ministers at Ottawa.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, May 13.—Hon. C. J. Doherty, Hon. Frank Cochrane, Hon. A. E. Kemp, Hon. W. T. White and Hon. T. W. Crothers are now the only cabinet ministers in town, and there will be no council meeting for several days.

It is now impossible to hold a general election in June, which a fortnight ago seemed a certainty. The printing of voters' lists, which was in progress, has been stopped.

Whether or not there will be an election in the fall is unknown. It will depend upon the trend of events, both at home and abroad. Following precedent the government would go to the country next fall, but circumstances may render this inadvisable.

SECOND AEROPLANE ARRIVED YESTERDAY

Will Be Adjusted for Class Number Two at Aviation School.

WAS BULLET PROOF

Armored Car Withstood Severe Test Given at Long Branch.

Training of the pupils taking the aeroplane flying course with the McCurdy Aviation School, is being carried on most vigorously, the recruits making flights just before sunset. The second aeroplane "flying boat" has arrived in the city and will be adjusted for use in connection with class No. 2 in a few days. Captain MacLaurin of Montreal joined the school yesterday afternoon, and another new pupil arrives from Ottawa today.

An official test of his wireless system of communication between motor cars will be conducted at Ottawa today by Capt. William Mayall, C.A.S.C. In a demonstration carried out on the Lake Shore road this week messages were sent and received between two Eaton armored motor cars at a distance of six miles. The experiment was quite successful. If this system of communicating between cars is adopted for military operations, Canada, thru the wireless system, will have the credit of introducing mobile wireless telegraphing into army service.

One of the armored cars of the Eaton Machine Gun Battery has just been put thru a severe test at Long Branch in respect to its bullet-resisting qualities. It successfully withstood both machine gun and German mauser rifle fire. "The bullets just bounced off the sides," said an officer who witnessed the test.

Col. H. M. Elliott, A.A.G., was at Niagara Camp yesterday to witness the inspection of the C.A.S.C. by the Duke of Connaught. Major H. C. Blockford, G.S.O., was acting A.A.G. at Exhibition Camp.

That Lieut. Bishop of the Fourth Mounted Rifles, second contingent, is ill with diphtheria, was announced by the medical authorities yesterday afternoon. Pte. Wilson of the reinforcement quota from the 35th Battalion is ill with scarlet fever.

Lieut. Douglas C. Greer, acting adjutant, has been appointed, provisionally, to the Fourth Artillery Brigade, C.F.A. Lieut. Ewan Ryle, 48th, has been attached to the 20th Battalion, and Lieut. Roy Simpson, G.S.O., to the Fourth Mounted Rifles.

The Overseas Club, general building, Aldwych, London, England, have sent word to Exhibition Camp, that their Toronto secretary, stating that the privileges of the club are open to all members in uniform. It is convenient to the Strand and Leicester Squares, the invitation says, and a hearty welcome awaits.

The Mounted Rifles held March, under command of Col. Vaux Chadwick, held a route march thru the city streets yesterday. Major W. P. Butcher, in command, dressed the 600 men of this regiment at the camp on "Musketry."

The regular drill season of the Queen's Own, this spring the regiment will continue drilling right thru the summer. One night a month there will be a full regimental parade. On each of the other Wednesdays one double company from each battalion will drill.

In response to a call by the Canadian Red Cross Society, the 14th Battalion, the number required was offered several times over. Of these men 14 reported for attachment yesterday and the rest will be placed in a few days.

Across-the-Lake Trips for Saturday. Two steamers leave the Yonge Street Wharf on Saturday at 7.30 a.m. and 2 p.m. for the first trips of the season to Niagara. DUKE PLEASSED WITH STUDENTS' SHOWING

McGill and Toronto University Undergraduates Reviewed and Inspected.

CREDIT TO COUNTRY

General Lessard Said "As Good as Regulars," After Review.

By a Staff Reporter. NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, May 13.—"As good as regulars" were the words of Major-General Lessard, after reviewing the student soldiers of Toronto and McGill, and these words were re-echoed in the speech of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, after inspection this afternoon. The 1251 men parade never looked better than when they marched past the reviewing base by companies, with fixed bayonets and with their bands playing regimental tunes. The duke expressed surprise and gratification at the admirable showing made by the university men. The Princess Patricia's company, composed partially of McGill men, made a particularly fine showing, but they were closely rivalled by several Toronto companies. After the brief inspection, Col. Macdonald called the officers of the two battalions to hear words of commendation from the duke.

General Lessard said "As good as regulars," after review. The duke said that both battalions were a distinct credit to the institutions they represented. He had seen the Toronto men on a previous occasion when they were under the advantage of being without uniform, and he was glad to see that they had not lost their efficiency. At that time he had expressed the hope that he might see them when they were fully equipped. He stated that his expectations had been fully upheld and that the efficiency shown was a source of satisfaction to him. What particularly impressed the royal visitor was the spirit with which the students marched. They were young but they were full of strength, vigor and enthusiasm. He hoped that they would always retain the same vigorous spirit, which he so much admired. He was surprised to see that the efficiency which had been attained after such a short period of training.

Assured of Loyalty. The duke was assured that the students would rally to the empire's flag without stint their services, their time, and if necessary, their lives. The large number who had already enlisted for active service with various units besides the two university companies was referred to as a matter of congratulation which they represented. The duke and his party of several aides arrived by private car from Niagara promptly at 3 o'clock and were transported by motor to the reviewing stand. The duke's standard was flying from an improvised flag pole. The duke and his party were met by the town's population of the reviewing stand with fixed bayonets.

Then the brigade lined up and the officers were given the short and dress, in which their work was highly commended as a distinct factor in the efficiency of the troops. An inspection of the hospital and the camp itself, a short address to the company for active service, and shaking hands with the graduates and final features of the inspection. After taking tea with the staff officers of the camp, the duke and his party left for Niagara Falls, whence they will return on Friday to witness the sham battle which the training corps of the two universities will hold.

Town En Fete. The entire town was en fete for the duke's visit. The party proceeded direct from the reviewing stand to the parade grounds, and from the camp to the private car. Among the spectators were many of the town's leading citizens, including professors and graduates and friends of the men in the corps.

Praised by Gen. Lessard. When the duke reviewed their drill in the morning, Gen. Lessard remarked that they marched like veterans. There were very few points in which their appearance was not improved. Every part of the uniforms and equipment was in perfect order. (Col. Lang commented on the fine showing of the two battalions and the good form of the men. Gen. Lessard said that, considering the brief duration of the period of training, the results had been wonderful.

Final instructions were given to-night for the sham fight, which is to be held on Friday. Operations will last all day and will be witnessed by the duke and his party. A point of vantage will be taken by the duke on the route back to the camp, and the men will be inspected as they march past the reviewing stand. This will terminate the duke's visit to Saturday morning to embark for Toronto.

Major-Gen. Hughes will also be present on Friday.

PLUCKY CANADIANS CONGRATULATED

Nurse Ruth A. Newton Pays Tribute to Courage of Wounded Soldiers.

INJURED WRITE POEMS

Autograph Book Contains Many Interesting Items Written in Hospital.

In a letter written to her brother, E. K. Newton, of 412 Bathurst Street, Nurse Ruth A. Newton of the British Expeditionary Force, No. 14 General Hospital, Boulogne, pays a tribute to the courage of the wounded soldiers. In writing of the Canadian Nurse Newton says:

"The plucky Canadians are to be congratulated most heartily for all they have done. Well, I have a Canadian, Major Nasmyth of Toronto, in my ward, shot in the chest—awfully bad case. The King's physician, Sir Bertram Dawson, along with Major Johnson, a Harley street surgeon, is in attendance. They are very pleased with his progress."

A few extracts from Miss Newton's autograph book read as follows: "The following is by Lieut. Clarke, who was shelled out of a field ambulance and sustained severe wound in the back. He has been awarded the military medal for his conspicuous bravery in the attack. Staved dressing the wounded until help arrived; almost died while here with us."

"An hour in an ambulance. Six more on a train. I heard a sweet voice and a light step on the floor. With the marks of a 'Jack Johnson' across my back."

At night as I lay all tired and sore, I heard a sweet voice and a light step on the floor. It was one who is able to nurse and to care."

Her words on the first page you'll find written there."

Captain Price wrote: "To write lines that are soothing with thought. But I'll just summon courage a poem (?) to write."

In praise of the lady who guards us at night. The patients the mad will always get better. When they hear Miss Newton's melodious chatter; 'Tis the best rest night ward that ever was seen. We all love Miss Newton in No. 14. Coe."

Here is one by Capt. Sir T. Avery: I have no gift of verse but would indicate a line in praise of that one cheery soul. Whose loving care is over us at night. And brightens many a life in this most dismal hole."

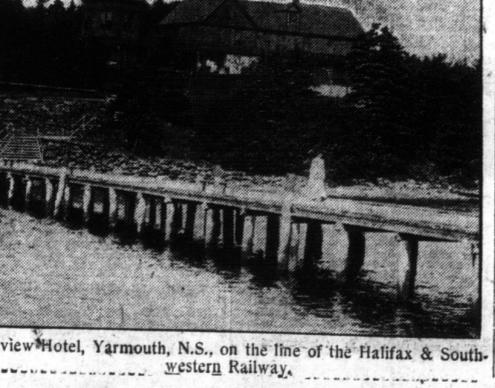

By a staff officer, Major Banigan: At No. 14, where we come for a rest. The days are both long and most dreary. We long for the night and eight of the Coe. For we know that we then shall be cheery."

What is the reason we prefer night to day? And ask for the clock to be put on? Why, 'tis the hour of relief, when on duty comes Ruth, and the hospital then wears a New-Ton."

SEVENTY-THREE NURSES WITH BASE HOSPITAL

Are All Graduates of Hospitals Affiliated With University and Hold Rank of Lieutenant.

UNDER MILITARY LAWS

Must Not Appear in Streets Otherwise Than in Uniform—Costly Outfit.

Seventy-three of Canada's best nurses will form part of the staff of the University Base Hospital now preparing to play a prominent and brave part in the great drama, the shifting scenes of which are scattered over the continent of Europe, and which has the entire world for spectators.

The nurses are all graduates of the hospitals affiliated with the university. These institutions are the Toronto General Hospital, the Western Hospital, St. Michael's, Grace Hospital and the Sick Children's Hospital. In addition there are a few who have been appointed from other institutions. Many more volunteered than those who were accepted. The appointments were made by the university, and it is thought that the preference was given as far as possible to those who had experience in the work of their profession. The nurses will be known as Nursing Sisters, and everyone has military rank, that of lieutenant with pay and recognition as such according to military etiquette.

They were not to appear on the streets otherwise than in uniform, nor were they allowed to get away from camp of a telephone. Their period of military service up to the present has been devoted to attending special lectures on nursing sisters, and in getting together their "outfit" and general equipment.

The outfit the government will give an allowance of $150, but in most cases this does not by any means cover the cost of what the nurse deems necessary. One outfit seen by The World representative mounted up in value to well nigh $200, and there was apparently little that was superfluous. The nurses are in charge of Miss the General Hospital, and if you search the whole of Canada you will not find a better woman or nurse."

Miss Ruth A. Newton, who has written an interesting letter from a hospital in France.

RUSSIANS READY TO STRIKE HARD BLOW

Germans Have Gained No Real Tactical Success in Carpathians.

POSITION NOW STRONG: All Fear of Final Retreat of Russians Has Been Removed.

LONDON, May 13.—A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd gives the following official statement regarding Russian military operations: "In the fighting between the Vistula and the Carpathians, May 8 and 9, the Germans planned to break our front by the lightning rapidity of the blow directed at the neighborhood of Krosno by seven divisions of the flower of the German army after a heavy artillery preparation. At the end of a demonstration six more divisions appeared on this front, where our army was tremendously outnumbered."

"On a general front of 40 miles the enemy gathered three-quarters of the Austrian army, one-third of the German army, and a great part of the contingents of the second reserve. There were eight divisions from the Serbian front and several new Austrian divisions, twenty infantry divisions and nine cavalry divisions from the western front, and several new divisions. This would be about 800,000 infantry and 45,000 horses. Only one of our armies—say, 100,000 men—participated in the first attack."

"The German army, in tactical success. Our reserves, by a flank blow, enabled our army to rearrange a line of advantageous positions, eliminating all fear of retreat. Our army has received strong reinforcements and is ready to exact heavy retribution for the losses it has sustained methodically. The enemy's loss was heavy."

"When our troops occupied the most important sectors which the enemy held today the enemy's official communications declared these proceedings were of no importance."

The Tribune warns the public regarding the rumors of a party saw-off. It insists that all cabinet members should be examined under oath before a royal commission, and warns Premier Norris that he will be held responsible should a single cabinet member leave the province before the enquiry is pushed to its utmost end.

Wistaria Chienensis—The Wistaria Vine.

One of the most beautiful and floriferous vines that anyone could wish for is the old Chinese wistaria. Besides the Chinese variety, which comes in pale purples, deep purples and rich creams, there is also the Japanese variety, quite as beautiful, quite as blossomy and quite as hardy, and flowering, if anything, a little earlier in its life than the Chinese variety.

Wistaria should be planted in some spot where a steady support will be given it year after year, such as a trellis-work or the like. No other perennial, such as peonies, rosebushes, plants that may send out roots to disturb wistaria's root, should be allowed within at least three square feet of it. It requires a generous space and absolute possession of its own dominion to make wistaria a permanent success.

Wistaria need not be chosen as a vine that will provide a dense shade for verandahs, pergolas or porches, as honeysuckles will give, for instance. It is a vine that stands alone for the beauty of its blossoms, the delicacy and delightfulness of its fragrance and the dainty frailty of its clusters of pinnate leaves. And gardeners, never will you see the sign of a grub or worm on wistaria's leaves.

I am just wondering how I can describe the clusters of blossoms to you, but I do not believe any pen can possibly give an adequate description of the rich fragrance of its glorious blossoms. These blossoms come quite early in June, or even in the later days of May, and before there is the least sign of leaf. Imagine an immense spike of blossoms from 10 to 15 inches in length, dozens and dozens of these blossoms on one slender arching stem, shaped very much like sweetpea blossoms, and the perfume rivaling the far-famed odors of Araby, wafted on the slightest breath of air, to a distance of many yards away from the vine.

Round Shoulders

Nobody, it is true, wants to be round-shouldered, unless it be some youth who needs only to be told that his self-consciousness will disappear if he will but look at the other people instead of imagining that they are looking at him. But, while it is as easy as it ought to be unnecessary to preach against the habit, the difficulty is to show how the evil may be overcome. Usually, when anything is wrong, the first step toward righting it is to discover and remove the cause. But, in the case of stooping shoulders, while the cause is probably to be found in our clothing, which hampers the body as it does not actually cramp it, and continually burdens it with an unnatural and badly-distributed weight, we can neither escape from the cause in general, nor from the particular form of it in the suit which our imperfect civilization prescribes.

Many, indeed, have been the methods suggested to overcome this habit. In the midst of some the secret is to keep the chin drawn in. This attitude, as anyone will see by trying it, produces a slight raising and rounding of the chest. Others would hold the shoulders squared back and the chest protruded. Either of these rules, if carried out, is likely to result in an ugly or strained posture. In some cases the effort to stand erect merely develops an awkward and ungainly, and actually pitching the body backward. A mechanical device for securing an erect posture is to carry a light on the head. This is an excellent method, but not applicable everywhere, and really unnecessary when one has learned the art without it.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 14.

Canada After the War

One and not the least of the great lessons the war has already taught is the value and need of preparation for all possible contingencies. Much of Germany's success is attributable to the fact that, prepared itself, it caught its foes either wholly or partially unready for a conflict so stupendous.

The statistics of immigration show that the European wars of last century were all followed by a marked increase in the flow of emigration towards the North American continent. That happened at the close of the Napoleonic wars, when the maritime provinces received a great influx of settlers.

The effect of wars has been no less apparent in the development of Canadian agriculture, industry and commerce. Their close has always resulted in periods of great prosperity, and this is particularly true of the United States and Canada.

Canadian governments, federal and provincial, should set themselves assiduously to prepare for the reception of a record number of immigrants from Europe, and not only that, but do their best to turn the current towards Canada.

The commission appointed by the Dominion governments, federal and provincial, should set themselves assiduously to prepare for the reception of a record number of immigrants from Europe, and not only that, but do their best to turn the current towards Canada.

run, because they are more stable and less liable to be affected by fluctuations. Even as it is, current obligations are being met, building is proceeding in the residential districts, but it should be brought up to a point that regards not only the demand of the present, but the probable demand of the future.

The People Pay Mr. Taft's Philadelphia speech is well worthy of attention. There were worse things than war, he said, and it might be that the national honor and interest would demand the sacrifice of thousands and hundreds of thousands of lives to avenge the American citizens who went down with the Lusitania, but a war must be sanctioned by the deliberate judgment of the people.

Vital issues—issues of life and death—Mr. Taft observed, should not be decided in hot blood under the strain of exasperation and resentment. A demand for war that could not stand the test of a few days' consideration, would not, in his opinion, voice the real sentiment of the country.

In conclusion Mr. Taft urged the nation to loyally stand by the president. Mr. Wilson, he said, could not prevent a war if the people really desired it, but he could bring on a war which the nation might regret.

A Spur for Slackers Officially it is well to get on record some account of the horrors of which Germany has been guilty in her campaign in Belgium. Contemporary humanly has no need of other evidence than its eyes and ears afford it.

When the German nation comes to its senses, as we believe it will, the decent Germans will be as horrified as any of us over these terrible events, and it is necessary that the record be made indelible for them and their offspring.

The French authorities have already made a report on the atrocities of the German army in Belgium, and they relied solely on German documentary evidence for the truth of their statements. Much of this evidence was taken from the official diaries of officers and men which are kept under the German army regulations.

ITALIAN WEATHER PROBS.

Unsettled—Winds veering from easterly to south westerly.

British Government, under the chairmanship of Lord Bryce, has examined 1200 witnesses of the outrages, and the accumulated testimony is of the most harrowing character. We do not wish to dwell upon it, nor further to revolt our readers with the details, but we must say that if anyone feels any doubts about the justice of the cause of the allies, or of the character of the alleged superior virtue, or culture, or civilization of the Germans, he should get these two reports as speedily as possible and peruse them.

We think the women of Christendom ought to make themselves familiar with the facts, too horrible to print, in connection with the assaults on women in Belgium, the violation of nuns and similar brutalities. Much of this is covered up on account of our British prudery, but it ought to be known by those capable of appreciating its significance.

The general indictment of the German nation which Lord Bryce's report constitutes ought to be in the hands of every slacker, and every man of full age who is free to take up a righteous cause. Those who cannot be spurred to action by these recitals have little of the true spirit of the knights who do not hesitate to be their brothers' keepers, and who have no desire to bear the mark of Cain.

OUTSIDERS OVERCROWD THE HIGH SCHOOLS

Special Committee Appointed to Investigate the Matter—Must Attend Other Schools. It was brought out at the meeting of the management committee of the Toronto School Board yesterday afternoon that much overcrowding is caused in the Toronto High Schools thru the attendance of non-resident pupils.

In order to relieve overcrowding at Church Street Public School the 73 pupils attending who live in other school districts will be required to attend the schools in their own districts, beginning with the fall term.

It was decided to spend $400 in having "Safety First" bulletins placed in the schools and safety literature mailed to the pupils' parents. A request that the Women's Patriotic League be allowed to ask the school children on Empire Day to contribute money for wool to make socks for soldiers was granted.
