WALES LIKELY TO VISIT CANADA IN 1927

TO TAKE PART IN CELEBRATION OF JUBILEE YEAR

No Official Announcement Made Yet

HERE LAST YEAR

Trip Then Was Made to His Western Ranch, Traveling as Lord Hestrew

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
LONDON, Nov. 10.—Although it has not yet been officially announced, it is understood that His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, will probably visit Canada for the diamond jubilee celebration next year.

The last visit of the Prince to Canada was in the fall of last year, when as Lord Hestrew he spent a brief time on his western ranch. His first visit was shortly after the close of the war and he landed in Saint John, N. B., and traveled from coast to coast, receiving remarkable demonstrations of acclaim everywhere he went.

Quite recently, the Prince completed a tour to South Africa and South America in the battle cruiser, Renown. Probably, his most recent act in touch with Canadian affairs was the opening of the Canadian League for Canadian university students at Paris, France.

MacKenzie King to Receive Freedom of Edinburgh Latter Part of Month

Canadian Press

LONDON, Nov. 10.—It is hardly possible for Premier MacKenzie King to accept the invitation of the Irish Free State to the Dominion Premiers to visit Dublin at the conclusion of the Imperial conference, although it has not been announced, it is understood that the government of Northern Ireland is extending an invitation to the Premier of the various Dominions to visit Belfast.

Immediately following the close of the conference Premier MacKenzie King has arranged to go to Edinburgh to receive the freedom of that city. Other engagements will fill his time till the date of sailing for home, December 1.

Coolidge Urges Prompt Consideration of Tax Relief

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—President Coolidge today made known his desire that party lines be forgotten in consideration of the proposed tax relief by Congress. As to the extent of the tax credit, Mr. Coolidge said this is simply a matter of mathematics, to be controlled by the amount of the surplus, which now estimated at $200,000,000. On this basis, Andrew Mellon, secretary of the treasury, yesterday said the tax credit should amount to at least 12 1/2 per cent.

Exchange of Ideas Seen Greatest Good Of Imperial Parley
Legal Committee Under Mr. Lapointe Struggles With Locarno Treaty
By HERBERT BAILEY
British United Press
LONDON, Nov. 10.—The legal committee of the Imperial Conference, headed by Hon. Ernest Lapointe, is still struggling with the Locarno treaties, trying to draft a memorandum on the subject for future guidance in such cases, but apparently has made little real progress because of the difficulty of the problem and the wide among the delegates to agree upon the exact wording of the memorandum.

MORE CAREFUL.
It can be taken for granted, however, that as a result of the delegates' deliberations the British Government will be far more circumspect in signing any future treaty like Locarno, although they feel that the result of getting Germany into the League justifies the treaty entirely.

While much optimism is being expressed over the results of the conference in some quarters, those in closest touch with the situation declare that the conference will produce little more than plus resolutions and the most valuable result will be an interchange of ideas among the various members of the Dominions and with members of the British Government.

JUSTIFIES SELF.
The conference justifies itself, it is said, because it enables the Dominion premiers to bring themselves in touch with Empire affairs, which is impossible without personal contact. It is likely, however, that real progress will be reported in the case of defining the future powers of the Privy Council, which are still under discussion, and in which Canada is taking an active interest.

REPLY TO OBREGON

Mexico Episcopate Takes Strong Stand on Socialism

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 10.—In a statement today, in which reference is made to former President Obregon's "predilection to socialism," the Roman Catholic episcopate declares that "the incompatibility between socialism and Catholicism will continue until the deologic disappears and God ceases to exist."

"If socialist doctrines prevail in Mexico," the statement goes on, "there must be a revolution which will restore to the people the rights which have been taken from them. A single religion will be able to exist."

The episcopate reiterates its declaration that the church has not and will not attempt revolution, saying it will never yield from its attitude from recognizing only one chief, the Pope, and only demanding liberty which is a natural, divine right and not a special privilege.

SANTA ANA, Calif., Nov. 10.—Phillip Goodwin, a former priest of the American Catholic church, yesterday was sentenced to be hanged January 14, for the murder of J. J. Paterson, Los Angeles broker, by Judge E. A. Marks in Superior Court. The sentence followed Goodwin's conviction last week, the jury making no recommendation for leniency, thus automatically invoking the death penalty.

Snow Flurries Are Forecast For Maritimes

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 10.—The Middle West's cold wave moved toward the Atlantic seaboard today on the winds that swooped down from Western Canada, to touch the Texas Panhandle, and leave snow tracks across the corn belt. Higher temperatures are forecast in the west today. The premature arrival of winter found the Middle West all unprepared, and there was suffering from the cold in the cities, with many demands to charities for fuel. Transportation by rail, water and air was generally held up. The weather bureau today issued the following storm warning at Washington: "Advisory, 10 a. m., weather changed to northwest north of New York to Eastport, Maine. Storm of marked intensity over St. Lawrence Valley and Northern New England, moving northeastward. Snow flurries are forecast for Maritimes."

CANADA MILITIA IS PRAISED BY McNAUGHTON
Country's Task Is to Have Force in Embryo, He Says
GIVES FIGURES
Speaker at Montreal Outlines Work of Dept. of National Defence

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—Canada does not need a large army, but she does need, and has, one which when the necessity arises will be able quickly to train a citizen army. The country's military task is not to create a fighting force at present, but to maintain the possibility of creating one. This was explained to the Canadian Club here today by Brig. General A. C. McNaughton, C. M. C., D. S. O., in an address on some aspects of the work of the Department of National Defence. He praised the militia.

"It is unlikely," said General McNaughton, that Canada will ever be proscribed into war for any but the most urgent reasons of defence. NO OFFENCE LIKELY.

"Our territories are separated, except from the United States, with which we have been at peace for a hundred years, by oceans across which no expeditionary force of dangerous strength could be transported without preliminary arrangements of such magnitude that they could not be kept secret. No such operation could be seriously contemplated until there had been a re-grouping of overseas powers, and that for over three years before August, 1914, the signs were manifest except to those who would not see."

STRENGTH OF MILITIA.
From that, General McNaughton said, it could be seen that what Canada needed was not a force of any kind immediately ready but a large force which would be ready to fight when the militia by the Canadian militia. The militia peace-time strength was 127,314, all ranks, but its actual strength on June 30, 1926, was 48,663, of which 27,000 were trained in the current year.

METAGAMA BRINGS SHIPMENT OF GOLD
Specie Amounting to Almost a Million Dollars Arrives in Montreal

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—Gold specie in sovereigns, amounting to almost a million dollars, arrived in Montreal Monday aboard the S. S. Metagama, of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, having been conveyed across the Atlantic in the ship's strong room, and under the special supervision of the master, Captain A. Freer, R.N.R.

This shipment reached Montreal one year, to a day, after the arrival of similar types of cargo aboard the S. S. Montclair, also of the Canadian Pacific Steamships. On this voyage the Metagama brought out 40 boxes of gold coin, the amount of which is not known exactly. Judging from the contents of those boxes brought here last year on the Montclair, it is assumed that the 40 boxes on the Metagama contained 200,000.

Beyond the information that the specie was consigned to the Canadian Pacific Express Company, no further enlightenment could be thrown on the final destination of this valuable consignment.

Ontario Premier Discusses Liquor Question Before The Pictou Electors
Scores Alleged Confusion of Mind By Premier Over Liquor Matters

PICTOU, Ont., Nov. 10.—"I want an emphatic pronouncement on this question from the great mass of the people," declared Premier Howard Ferguson while discussing his liquor policy in an address to Prince Edward County electors here last night. "It does not matter," he said, "whether the government stays in power or whether I remain as prime minister or not. And whether this pronouncement comes from one side or the other, I am certain that the people will be right, whether I am or not. Sure thought on the question is all I ask. The province of Ontario will solve this question in the right way."

The premier was of the opinion that a vote on December 1 would settle the liquor question in Ontario for 20 years. "It behooves you," he declared, "to settle the question properly."

O. T. A. LACKS SUPPORT
Conditions that he found to exist under the Ontario Temperance Act, said Mr. Ferguson, had utterly shocked him, and that for over three years he had been endeavoring to get the act amended. He said that he had not been able to do so because of the opposition of the O. T. A., was now lacking, chiefly because the act compelled and coerced rather than educated.

English To Be Language of World, Says Professor

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 10.—"The next fifty years will see the universal use of the English language," is the belief of Dr. W. E. Lingelbach, of the University of Pennsylvania, who spoke before the members of the National Advertisers' Association here yesterday. She is Mrs. Lucia March. The industrial supremacy of Britain and the United States, as well as the aggressive attitude of "visitors from other countries, was responsible for the widespread and continued use of English in schools and shops, he said. Dr. Lingelbach has just returned from an expedition to Europe for the purpose of investigating the retarded development of social sciences. Dr. Lingelbach said: "Unless the tendency toward internationalism, which exists in Europe today, becomes stronger, the next war would wipe out half of the earth."

N.B. DOCTORS BARRED FROM BRITISH LIST

Action Follows This Province's Ending Reciprocal Pact

LONDON, Nov. 10.—It is officially announced that since New Brunswick no longer affords to registered practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practicing in the said province as His Majesty's seems to wish the order-in-council of 1913, under which New Brunswick doctors could register on the colonial list of the General Medical Council of Great Britain is hereby revoked without prejudice to the right of any persons whose names have been already entered on the register.

For many years past New Brunswick has accorded British doctors the right to practice in that province. The reason for the change is not known.

Dr. S. H. McDonald, secretary of the New Brunswick Council of Physicians and Surgeons, when the above despatch was read to him, declared that the New Brunswick council had ended its reciprocal arrangement with Great Britain about a year ago and that that body was notified of the reasons why this action was taken.

He explained that under the reciprocal arrangement New Brunswick was forced to accept any doctors who were on the colonial list in Great Britain, irrespective of their standard. As practitioners from many of the provinces of Canada as well as from Italy, Switzerland, Malta and other countries were eligible for this colonial list, New Brunswick was forced under the agreement to accept any so registered. It was found that some doctors who were not up to the standard in New Brunswick could thus enter the province and practice, and the British Medical Council was asked that all those registered on the colonial list be forced to take a bona fide examination of the same standard as was maintained in New Brunswick, which the British council refused. On this refusal the reciprocal arrangements on the part of New Brunswick were cancelled and have remained cancelled since that time.

The funeral of William R. Scott was held this afternoon from his late residence, 224 Main street. Service was conducted by Rev. Canon R. F. McKeown and St. Luke's choir sang the hymns. Members of the Knights of Pythias, Union Lodge of Portland, A. F. and A. M., and the Baristers Society attended. The burial service of the Knights of Pythias was read at the grave by E. H. Belyea, Chancellor of Saint John Lodge, No. 10.

The funeral of Edward T. Bourque was held this morning from the Church of the Assumption. High mass was sung by Rev. John J. Ryan, and interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery. The service at the graveside was conducted by Rev. H. Ramagne. A large number of floral tributes and spiritual benedictions were received from many friends.

MINERS TO SHARE WORK SPRINGHILL, N. S., Nov. 9.—The last three days local union U. M. W. has been holding meetings to which they are about the miners of Nova Scotia who have been forced out of their places by the water in the lower levels. The company suggested some days ago that they run three shifts in Nov. 6 and 7 mines. This would relieve the situation considerably as this would employ about all the men who are out of work. After long discussion tonight the day shift men decided that they would concur with the management's request. Tomorrow morning the night shift men will meet to decide if they will accept the proposition or not. It is stated most likely they will accept it.

Church Where Saxon Kings Were Crowned Discovered

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The site of the ancient church at Kingston-on-Thames, in which seven of the Saxon Kings of England were crowned, has been discovered by Dr. W. E. St. Lawrence Piny, who is a well-known archaeologist and has for the last two weeks been excavating in the old disused graveyard surrounding the parish church of All Saints, Kingston. Without disturbing any of the graves he reached the foundations of the ancient church, and not only its site, but its length, width, height, and the material of which it was probably composed have been established. The seven Saxon kings crowned in Kingston were: Edward the Elder (crowned in 902), Athelstan, Edmund and Eadred, all grandsons of Alfred the Great.

VIENNAS CRISP CRUST

In no other Bread can you find anything just like it! The crust of Robinson's Vienna Bread has a lot to do with its delicious flavor. Children often eat just the centre of bread and leave the crust—but not so with Robinson's Vienna Bread. And some housewives slice the crust off their sandwiches—but not off Robinson's Vienna Bread. That's one bread they leave the crust on, for that crisp, appetizing covering is one of its chief charms. The crust is not the only reason that explains the popularity of this Vienna Loaf. To Make Comedian Out of The Marquis

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Gloria Swanson has decided to make a screen comedian of her husband, the Marquis De La Falaise. The Marquis reported at Gloria's studio for a series of screen tests and proved to be so funny in front of the camera that even his wife laughed at his capers. Later the famous screen star's husband hopes to play opposite his wife, but for the present he will confine his efforts to high class comedy. "Just to show the public that I am independent of my wife's salary I shall enter a producing company other than her's," the Marquis said. Since returning to America he has been operating a literary agency in New York.

The usual increase in the C. P. R. police force here this winter will be made about November 25 when 26 additional men will come here for the winter port season. It was said this morning at the local headquarters of the company. This staff works more in a preventive capacity, it was pointed out. A force of nine men is maintained here during the summer. DEATH DECREED FOR ATTACKS ON MUSSOLINI

Premier Given Remarkable Demonstration By Deputies

ROME, Nov. 9.—Attempts against the life of Mussolini or any member of the royal family will be punishable by death hereafter. The chamber of deputies this evening approved this law, to which Mussolini himself consented after the insistent demands of the Fascist party. The measure also provides heavy penalties of imprisonment for antagonism to its regime. Simultaneously the assembly, which is composed of "Black Shirts" almost to a man, unseated the Communists and 120 oppositionists of various parties who have refused to participate in parliament since the Matteotti murder in the summer of 1924. The death penalty law was carried by a vote of 295 to 8; the resolution expelling the recalcitrant members passed, 293 to 10. It was a remarkable demonstration to Il Duce. Throughout the session Mussolini sat with arms crossed staring straight ahead in a line above masses of laurel and roses heaped on his desk. He did not speak beyond making an occasional terse comment. But his taciturnity, instead of dwarfing him amid the hundreds of shouting, gesticulating deputies, merely enhanced his complete dominance of the assembly. From the beginning to the end of the session the chambers' sole purpose seemed to be to show its admiration for the set-jawed silent man about whom every eddy and current of Fascism moves.

COAL TIE-UP LOSS NEAR £300,000,000

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The British coal tie-ups and the subsequent slowing down of other industries thus far have resulted in loss of production in Great Britain of between £250,000,000 and £300,000,000, Sir Philip Sunliffe, president of the Board of Trade, today estimated in the House of Commons. This estimate, he said, did not include losses due to the disturbance of trade connections and contracts. Walter Runciman, president of the Association of Trade Protection Societies, recently estimated the loss traced as a direct result of the coal stoppage at between £216,000,000 and £270,000,000.

CHIEF RETURNED TO THRONE LONDON.—The character of King Premph, the paramount chief of the Kumas tribes of the African Gold Coast, has been so modified with 30 years of bungalow life that he has been allowed to resume the throne he was forced to leave in 1896. He was exiled because he defied British authorities. He became a Christian, learned to speak English, dressed in European clothes and the last touch was added when he went to live in a modern, well-appointed bungalow. He was returned to his throne upon the request of his tribes, which are still loyal to him after 30 years.

STATEMENT ON EXHIBITION TO COME LATER

Annual Meeting So Decides —Reports Are Presented by Officials

No statement of the returns from the Saint John Exhibition of last September was given out for publication after the annual meeting held last night. It was said today that the meeting decided to await a session to be held next week before making a detailed statement. The annual meeting of the board of directors of the Saint John Exhibition was held last evening with President F. A. Dykeman in the chair. The report of the secretary-treasurer, H. A. Porter, was submitted to the meeting and was ordered submitted to the shareholders' meetings. A report from the directors was also adopted for submission to the same meeting. At nine o'clock the shareholders convened, there being several in attendance besides the directors. In addition to the regular annual report and the annual report of the directors, submitted his own report containing comments and suggestions as a result of his three-year tenure of office. The meeting proceeded to the election of 21 directors who will meet in the course of a few days to complete the board which consists of 31 members. In view of the present uncertainty as to financial assistance to be available for the 1927 exhibition, the meeting passed no definite resolution regarding an exhibition for next year and left the matter to the incoming executive. G. C. P. McIntyre and H. A. Porter were elected delegates to the annual meeting of the Canadian Association of Exhibitions to be held in Toronto, November 18 and 19.

WOMEN PROTEST U. S. FILM IN BRITAIN

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Many women's societies here are protesting against the release of an American film entitled "The Unknown Soldier" and the home secretary, Sir William Johnson-Hicks, received a deputation representing women's organizations, formally entering protests. About two weeks ago the British Women's Patriotic League, of which Lady Cowan is chairman, met in protest against the proposed release of the film in question during Armistice week. It was stated that the film was most unflattering to be linked up with such an occasion as the commemoration of Armistice Day. Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock a four-year-old child was found wandering about at the intersection of Sydney and Union streets by Police Constable Quinn. The little fellow was taken to police headquarters for safety, where he was later called for and taken to his home in Germain street.

Two Boston Lads Heroes of Fine Rescue at Old Gas House Wharf

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Forming a human chain to save their playmate from drowning, two North End boys saved the life of Tony Pearce, 9, of Hull street, at the old gas house wharf, Commercial street. Tony is in Haymarket Relief Hospital recuperating. Anthony Popola, 9, of Prince street, and Michael Russo, 9, of Prince street, were the boy heroes. The three boys were playing about the dock when Tony, who was walking on the edge of the stringpiece, was blown into the water by a gust of wind. He struggled for a moment and then sank. Anthony hung by his hands from the dock and Russo slid over his chum's back and swung over the water, clutching Anthony's ankles. He was able to grasp a tuft of Tony's hair as Tony rose to the surface. All the while the two boys had been yelling for help, and three men, who failed to give their names, dragged all three boys over the edge of the dock. The woman who prepares nourishing and attractive meals, attends to the thousand and one household tasks without grumbling, raises a family of healthy boys and girls, and still finds time to be a pal to her husband and a friend to her neighbors, is accomplishing the biggest job in the world. Homes like hers—little havens of peace and love—are the bulwark of the nation. To be a successful homemaker, a woman must guard her health. When mother is not well, the house is upset. Women everywhere are learning through their own personal experiences, as Mrs. Riessinger did, the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve nervous spells, weakness and women's ailments. Works Without Pain Cleveland, Ohio.—'I have really had all kinds of trouble, but the worst was a nervous break-down and very irregular. After having my first baby I lost weight no matter what I did. Then a doctor told me I would be better after my next baby came. But I got worse, was always sickly and went down to 88 pounds. My neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it helped her very much, so I tried it. After taking four bottles I weigh 116 pounds and one pain, where other times I would be laid up three days at a time. It has just done wonders for me and I can do my housework now without one bit of trouble.'—Mrs. M. RIESSINGER, 10004 Nelson Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. Nervous Spells Gone St. Paul, Minn.—'If young women want to keep their health and strength for the next thirty years of their lives it is best to start in right now and take this medicine! I used to get nervous spells that would last a couple of days and were so bad that I was afraid in my own home in broad daylight. I used to lock the doors and pull down the shades so that nobody could see me. One day a little booklet was left on my porch and I read it through. I found a case similar to mine. I bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had had fine results. The condition I was in made me a burden to my husband. Now I ask him, 'How is house-keeping?' and he says 'It is just like being in Heaven!'—Mrs. JACK LORETTA, 704 Dellwood Place, St. Paul, Minnesota.

PARIS—The newest fad in Paris is a golden coat of mail. The vogue was begun by Mabel Boll, a well-known American girl here called "The Queen of Diamonds" because of the immense rings she wears. Miss Boll bloused was of the gold mesh, with a design in platinum. It's quite chic, but scratchy, Miss Boll says of it.

HONOLULU—Two ancient cannons, said to have been thrown overboard from a Russian man-of-war when the vessel was wrecked in the year 1906, have been discovered in Halewa bay near Honolulu. The guns which were discovered lying in 15 feet of water are deeply encrusted with barnacles and other sea growth. The discovery was made by an army officer from Fort Kamehameha.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them. Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulation of dirt and sebum in the pores, and there is only one safe and sure way to get them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them with a little of our special drug—sprinkle the blackheads with our powder—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off, and the blackheads will disappear, and the pores will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

The Kitty-Katy Letters

Confidential Communications Between Two Charming Girl Friends—One Married

DEAR KITTY:— Jack has been up to the house. He has not yet quite recovered from his terrible experience in Fredericton. When I mentioned that Fredericton girl he was supposed to have known when he was at University of N. B., he said, "Aw, forget it," so you see that every word of what you hinted about that, either. I knew Jack wasn't that kind of a boy.

I told Jack about your lovely bar-pin which Tom had given you and about Tom's business trip to Woodstock. Jack said he had been to Woodstock several times to the races. You don't suppose Tom gambled there, do you? Jack says he likes to watch exciting races but that he never, never bets any money.

Jack has not bought any of his new clothes yet, but of course he is going to buy them here in Saint John. Men believe in buying at home. He'd just laugh if anyone suggested tramping over to Calais to buy things which were on sale here in Saint John.

Yours, KATY. Note:—See the slum Does your Tom gamble, Kitty? It's up to YOU now to defend your husband. Katy is going to get her own back, and before she is through you will feel good and sick.

FIND WORK FIRST SAYS TOM MOORE

Makes Reply to Editorial Regarding Immigration to Canada

TORONTO, Nov. 10.—"Those interests which advocate extensive migration from Great Britain to Canada should first find the work which is said to be abundant. Wage earners in Canada would like to be informed of the whereabouts of these jobs." This was the reply made yesterday by Premier Tom Moore, in an editorial in the Morning Post, London, England, which claimed a surplus of British miners, being forced into a chronic state of unemployment could be absorbed by a "vast new mining industry which has sprung up in Canada, comparative to South Africa's."

Russian Bear Is Found in Oregon

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 10.—Once during the pliocene period, ages before history knew of the existence of an American Asiatic continent, a Russian bear died in what is now Eastern Oregon, the National Academy of Science, in a convention here, was told yesterday. Part of the bear's tooth was excavated last summer, and another part of the same tooth and the animal's skull were found there in 1926. These discoveries, declared Dr. John Os. Marriam, president of the Carnegie Institution at Washington, furnished apparently incontrovertible proof that Asia and North America were once the same continent, for the bear was of Himalayan origin, and could not have swam from Asia to America.

NELSON'S DYING WORDS CONSIDERED

"Kiss Me, Hardy," or "Kismet, Hardy," Subject For Discussion

LONDON, Nov. 10.—What were Lord Nelson's last words? Did he say "Kiss me, Hardy?" or "Kismet, Hardy?" The question has been raised in a recently published article. Surgeon William Beatty, who was afterwards knighted, was at Nelson's side when he died on board the Victory at Trafalgar, and he published an account of the great admiral's death in 1867. His narrative records that Nelson said "Take care of my dear Lady Hamilton. Kiss me, Hardy." The narrative continues, "The Captain now knelt down and kissed his cheek, when his lordship said 'Now I am satisfied, Thank God I have done my duty!'" Beatty was a "trailed observer, from the nature of his profession, and an officer whose character was irreproachable."

"The account of the death of Nelson has been accepted by all the recognized authorities and freely quoted by them."

W. G. Perrin, librarian to the Admiralty says, "Nelson knew he was dying when he requested his old friend to kiss him. There is, after all not very much difference between Hardy's action and that of a son kissing his father under similar circumstances."

Sir Nicholas Harris Nicholas, in his authoritative work, "The Dispatches and Letters of Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson," published in 1846, accepted Beatty's account after exhaustive inquiries and investigations. G. W. Younger, discussing the subject in the "Mariner's Mirror" in January 1925, asked if Hardy misinterpreted Nelson's words—a possibility in the confusion of the cockpit in the din of the battle. Mr. Younger was unable to find any authority for saying that Nelson ever used the word "kismet" and the spontaneity of "Kiss me, Hardy!" is more acceptable, considering Nelson's temperament, than the alternative theory.

Instead of Disillusioning Her Children With Their Matrimonial Bargains, Mother Should Call Her Son's Attention to His Wife's Virtues and Boost Her Son-in-Law's Stock With Her Daughter.

THE favorite indoor sport of many women is "picking on" their in-laws. They are forever calling the attention of their sons to the shortcomings of their wives. They are always pointing out to their daughters their husbands' faults and weaknesses.

DOROTHY DIX

THERE is not a blamish, physical, mental or moral in the men and women her children have married on which such a mother does not keep the spotlight centered, and to which she does not direct their gaze.

IT is mother who never meets John without getting out her little hammer and administering a few knocks about his wife's clothes, or her housekeeping, or the way she is bringing up her children, or what she throws into the garbage can.

It is mother who never sees Mary without spilling a few acid drops of criticism on her son-in-law's manners, or the way he dresses, or cats, or sits, or talks, or stays silent. Why mother does this, nobody knows. She does not know herself. Is it not because she dislikes or disapproves her son and his daughters-in-law. Offense than not, she is really very fond of them, and fully recognizes that they are fine and noble men and women who make excellent wives and husbands to her children.

Nor has she any real motive in what she does. She is not deliberately planning to make trouble between her sons and daughters and those whom they are married, and to break up their homes and half-orphan her grandchildren.

BUT that is exactly what she does because she makes her children dissatisfied with their matrimonial bargains by focusing their attention on every little defect in them. She disillusiones them, she makes them feel that they are taken in, cheated, and that the man or woman who seemed so alluring in the rosy glow of the romance shop is a poor thing, and not worth the price when seen in the cold unflattering light of home.

AND that is a dreadful thing to happen to any man or woman, inasmuch as husbands and wives are not bought on approval, and cannot be returned, if one happens to lose one's fancy for them, without much messy divorce proceedings.

NO MOTHER has no idea of wrecking her children's happiness by ceaselessly harping on the faults of her in-laws. She is not indulging unknowingly in a little maternal jealousy when she criticizes them. But half the time her children would never find out what poor, weedy, miserable creatures they are married to, if she didn't tell them.

TOM has no idea how much a woman should spend for clothes, nor how much a hat should cost, nor how long a skirt should be, and he pays his wife's bills cheerfully, and is proud as Punch about how well dressed she is, until mother comes along and tells him how little SHE dresses, and makes him believe that Maud is ruining him with her extravagance and that it is indecent for a wife and mother to wear her frocks short.

BOB enjoyed his gay, up-to-date, entertaining, young wife. Left alone, he never would have discovered that there was any crime in her gadding around and playing bridge and going to the matinees in the afternoon, and smoking stockings and scrubbing under the table. It was mother who put him wise by nagging him about the way Sally neglected her home for society.

MARY thought Sam a perfect oracle and enjoyed nothing so much as sitting at his feet and listening to his words of wisdom and mother made her see him as a pompous windbag by always making fun of him.

IT NEVER occurred to Jenny that she was making a slave of herself cooking just the things that Harold loved to eat, and having his easy chair and slippers ready for him when he came home of an evening until mother kept pointing out how silly it was for a woman to give in to all a man's little peculiarities.

NELLIE never would have felt herself ill-used when Arthur's business kept him downtown at night if mother hadn't "poor-deared" and "poor-childed" her so much about it, and told her how STRANGE it seemed to her.

CURIOUS, isn't it, that women who are ordinarily intelligent, do not seem to realize how much harm they may do by disillusioning their children, and making them discontented with those to whom they are married, when their whole happiness depends upon their being satisfied and contented?

HEAVEN KNOWS, in the close intimacy of married life husbands and wives have a vivid enough close-up of each other's faults, and if they can remain blind to them, it is an inconceivable cruelty to make them see that which can cause them only suffering.

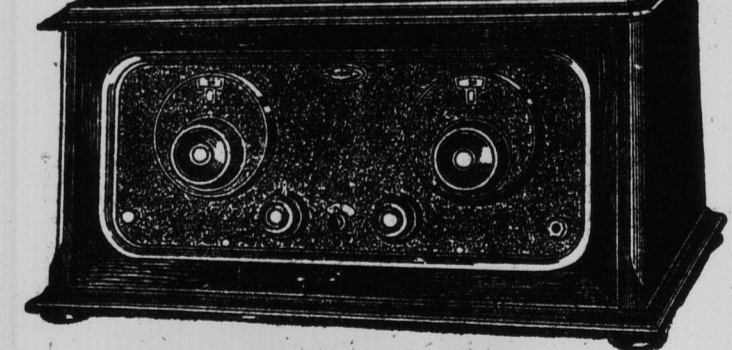

Yet I have heard mothers actually complain that their daughters-in-law had the wool so pulled over their sons' eyes that they thought them perfect. Or that their daughters' husbands had them so hoodwinked that they thought everything that they did was just exactly right.

These mothers overlooked the power of suggestion, and the fact that, if they want their children to be happy, they must be kept believing that they got their hearts' desire when they married.

TO THIS end, it is mother's bounden duty to continually "sell" her in-laws to her sons and daughters. She should sing praises of praise of them instead of lamenting their faults. She should call her son's attention to his wife's virtues, and boost her son-in-law's stock with her daughter if she wants to keep them out of the divorce courts.

BELIEVE me, a mother's influence for good is never more worthily exerted than when she uses it to keep her children satisfied with those they married.

Critic Picks "Baby Stars" For 1927

By DAN THOMAS

ALONG about this time every year the Wampas—Hollywood organization of motion picture publicity men—selects thirteen girls to present at its annual ball as the Wampas Baby Stars.

The girls selected are the young actresses whom the Wampas believes will take the greatest cinematic strides during the coming twelve months. Particular significance is attached to this selection by the Wampas because in past years it has been 80 per cent. right.

HAZARDS A GUESS

On Nov. 15 the Wampas will convene to name its Baby Stars for 1927. They will be presented officially to filmdom and the general public at the annual Wampas ball next February. I have taken the risk of choosing the following thirteen girls as those who will be named by the Wampas: Gladys McConnell, now under contract to Fox, and is assured her future on the screen. She has played the lead in 23 two-reelers, six feature productions and five of Fox's O. Henry stories.

Mary McAllister, who gave a remarkable performance as "Red" Grange's leading lady in "One Minute to Play."

Ann Rork, who was gobbled up by the movies through her prominence as a model for many magazine covers. Martha Sleeper, who has played leads in 40 two-reel comedies and is now under contract to Hal Roach.

Dorothy Gulliver, whose performance in the leading roles in Universal's college series has attracted considerable attention.

Helene Costello, sister of Dolores Costello, and one of the most promising "comers" in the industry.

Sally Rand, who for the last year has been growing more and more popular on the Cecil B. DeMille lot.

Barbara Kent, another Universal player who is familiar to all lovers of western films.

Alice White, who until a few months ago was a script girl.

Majel Coleman, another DeMille girl is rapidly traversing the road to fame.

Patricia Avery, who is rapidly coming to the fore on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot.

Menus For The Family

MENU HINT.

THE following menu may be used either for a luncheon or supper. Thin slices of ham may be lightly broiled in place of the bacon, if one prefers. If you are using the oven to bake the Johnny cake lay the ham on the broiler and let remain a moment longer. The potatoes may be creamed on top of the stove, poured in a buttered dish and put into the oven to brown. Creamed Potatoes. Crip Bacon. Johnny Cake. Cookies. Fruit Salad. Milk.

TODAY'S RECIPES.

Creamed Potatoes—The potatoes for creaming may be some left from a previous meal or they may be freshly cooked in their skins. They should be cut in one-inch cubes. Melt a large tablespoon of butter in a saucepan, add one tablespoon flour and when mixed smoothly, add gradually one or more cups of milk; season well and add diced potatoes. They may be served as is or poured into a buttered baking dish, buttered bread crumbs or cracker crumbs spread on top and baked until brown.

Johnny Cake—Two well beaten eggs, one heaping tablespoon butter, two teaspoons baking powder, one cup cornmeal, scant one-half cup sugar, one cup sweet milk, one cup flour, one-half teaspoon salt. Bake in shallow pan in a rather hot oven.

Cookies—Cream one cup sugar with one-half cup shortening; add two well beaten eggs, three tablespoons milk. Sift three cups flour with one and one-half teaspoons baking powder and add. Roll one-quarter inch thick; cut with fancy cutter, sprinkle with sugar and bake.

PLUM PUDDING SEASON.

It will soon be time to make the Christmas plum pudding and fruit cake. Here are two simple and inexpensive recipes, for puddings, the first of which came from Wales: Welsh Plum Pudding—One cup flour, one and one-half cups stale bread crumbs, one cup brown sugar, one cup chopped suet, one cup currants, four eggs, one cup milk, one-half cup chopped citron, one-half cup chopped almonds, grated rind and juice of one lemon, one teaspoon baking powder, one teaspoon allspice, one-half grated nutmeg, one-half teaspoon salt. Put into greased mold and cover with greased paper. Steam six hours. To one who has been brought up on English plum pudding the omission of raisins will seem odd. The addition of one cup of raisins will not hurt the pudding and may improve it for some people.

The second recipe is really a suet pudding to which raisins may or may not be added. One cup suet chopped, one cup molasses (you may prefer half molasses and half sugar), three level teaspoons baking powder, three cups flour, one and one-half teaspoons nutmeg, one and one-half teaspoons cinnamon. Turn into buttered mold and steam three hours. Two cups of raisins may be added if desired.

HENNA RETURNS.

Henna has been eclipsed as a color to some extent by new reds now on the market as the season advances there is a return to the warm brown tones.

HIGH OXFORDS.

The high oxford which laces over the ankle is most often developed in a combination of black suede and patent leather or kid and alligator skin.

SHORT COATS.

Short jackets of fur, particularly baby calf and the very close shaven furs are exploited in Paris.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

SOME months ago Pathe Exchange Inc. took a long chance and signed up Gene Tunney, leading contender for the heavyweight crown, to make a serial picture. Tunney won the title and his picture entitled "The Fighting Marine," has been one of Pathe's best drawing cards in the neighborhood houses.

The role which Tunney plays is well suited to him. It calls for him to act the part of a newspaper reporter who becomes the protector of a titled heiress and sets out on a series of adventures in which his fists figure prominently. Several scenes call for him to put on the gloves and enter the ring to fight the "villains" who are persecuting the heiress.

Pathe officials now announce that they have made a feature version of the serial which is adapted to the needs of picture houses who do not run serials but would be inclined to buy a feature length film starring the heavyweight champion of the world.

Tunney will never be a Barrymore of the silver screen but those who go to see his film are more interested in getting a glimpse of the King of Fisticuffs than they are in his technique as an actor.

Virginia Vance is his leading woman.

Another epoch in the film industry was reached when the Moving Picture Producers and Distributors' Association and the American College of Surgeons reached an agreement whereby operations performed by masters of surgery will be seen by tens of thousands of doctors throughout the world.

The committee which brought about the agreement also discussed the possibility of using the Vitaphone or Phonofilm so that the voice of the surgeon or teacher may be heard in explanation of the subject matter.

Doctors in small towns who have neither the money or time to study under the leading surgeons of the day will be able to obtain films which show in minute detail how some of the most delicate operations known to surgery are performed and they will carry to their patients a knowledge which they probably never could have acquired through any other means.

A YARN goes about Broadway concerning an actor who arrived late for a rehearsal. The stage director began to get a little brash when the actor interrupted with: "Say, wait a minute. I can explain everything. I was on my way to the theatre when I was taken suddenly and unexpectedly drunk."

THEY also tell this one concerning the queen. Which one? Don't be silly!

A floor walter assigned to the queen's retinue had been liberally tipped to serve two a la carte during the absence of master and mistress. Upon finishing this task he sighed and turned to a companion.

"His boss ups and downs in ziss business," said he. "I get through feeling see dogs—now I most go and feed 'ee queen."

The Rhyming Optimist

Oh, for the brush of a painter to keep all this loveliness ever in view, to immortalize shadows that hover and creep across the sky's meadows or blue! All these glories of gold, all this radiance of rose, purple wonders interwoven with pearl, tints that mingle and meet like eddy and colors that swirl! And ever, through shimmer and glimmer of gold, past the light of a low, silver star, comes a promise of fairer things yet to unfold, creeps a whisper of something afar! Oh, Glory behind all the glories men see; oh, Torch that sets sunsets afire, all this beauty but leads the rapt soul up to Thee, makes the spirit grow strong and aspire!

Mrs. E. A. Schofield Again Is Chosen As President of Trinity Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. E. A. Schofield was re-elected president of the Trinity senior branch of the Women's Auxiliary yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of the organization. All reports submitted showed a very successful year with a substantial increase in membership and favorable balances in all funds.

Rev. W. E. Fuller, curate, told of his own experiences in missionary work in Northern Ontario and described the splendid work of the W. A. missionary schools for Indian children. He pointed out that some white people were putting temptation in the way of the Indians and there was therefore a double responsibility to carry the gospel message.

Mrs. E. A. Schofield in her address spoke of unrest in the far fields especially in China, referred to the W. A. continued work in Dorcas sewing, a gift sent to the Inter-Provincial Home of Women and mission study carried on.

She referred to the interest of diocesan reports and the pleasure derived from visits of workers, including the Dominion president and Miss Whitney from Coyle. She extended sympathy to members in sorrow and thanked all members for cooperation.

Mrs. John M. Hay read the Dominion president's appeal for continued Dorcas work. She said that Frederickton diocesan W. A. took more copies of the Living Message than Montreal diocesan branch but Frederickton branch was sixth in Dorcas work instead of fifth, which it formerly had been.

Miss Dorothy Robson reported the Young Women's Guild membership totalled 55. Receipts were $515.33 and the balance was $68.23. The Junior report of Mrs. G. A. Nichol told of a membership of 39 and total receipts of about $192.22 with a balance of $132.22.

The election of officers resulted as follows: honorary president, Mrs. C. Gordon Lawrence; honorary vice-presidents, Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Mrs. L. R. Harrison; president, Mrs. E. A. Schofield; vice-presidents, first, Mrs. J. H. McAvity, second, Mrs. W. S. Fisher, third, Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis; recording secretary, Mrs. Wade H. MacBride; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. DeV. McAvity, assistants, Miss K. Allan and Mrs. Eva Smith; Literary secretary, Mrs. P. J. Knowlton; Juniors' superintendent, Mrs. G. A. Nichol; delegates to diocesan annual, Mrs. J. F. Officers were elected as follows: Secretary, Dorothy Smith; treasurer, Evelyn Shure; Good Cheer fund, Anna Shure; milk box secretaries Audrey Ross and Joyce Fenton.

PUTTING BAN ON CLERGYMEN FROM DOMINION

United States Bishop Gives Reasons to Bishop Farthing

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—Refusal to receive Anglican clergymen from Canada into a diocese of the Episcopal Church of the United States is signified in a letter to Bishop Farthing from the bishop of the diocese concerned, states the head of this diocese in an episcopal letter to the members of the Anglican Church.

The remarks relative to the matter quoted by Bishop Farthing are as follows: "Lately I have been refusing to receive men from Canada, because a very large proportion of recent additions to our list have come from the Canadian Church, and I wish to re-assert the American position; and also I have considered it unfair to Canada to rob the church there of good men, when I know that they are needed."

Commenting upon this communication the pastoral epistle adds: "This shows the kindness of my episcopal brother, but all are not like him." "Referring to the support needed on behalf of the Mission fund of the diocese in order to carry the mission parishes the letter states: "We are short of clergy now, and if we cannot give them what they have been receiving, more men may be forced, however reluctantly, to follow their brethren into the States. This would weaken the church in this diocese."

Nerves Broken by Overwork

Was weak, nervous, sleepless. Restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The restorative power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is truly remarkable as is proven by the experience of the writer of this letter. And this is only the usual experience of people who put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to the test.

Miss Jennie Kent, 139 Northumberland St., Brantford, Ont. writes: "The strain of nursing my mother through a long illness left me in a weak, run down condition which affected my nerves. I had severe pains in the nerve centres of my arms and limbs which often kept me awake for hours at night. I also had a heavy dragging pain across my back and felt all the time as if I would not be able to keep on much longer. A treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has removed these symptoms, however, and built me up wonderfully."

PREMIERS HEAR BALDWIN TELL OF BETTERMENT

London Folk Watch Novelties of Lord Mayor's Inaugural

LONDON, Nov. 9.—London's annual outdoor pageant of the Lord Mayor's show, with its popular procession through the streets of the city today, displayed all the old-time features, and as a special attraction for the younger generation, a peep into the past.

This was in the shape of an exhibit of locomotion from bygone days to the present, ranging from the wheel-barrow and sedan chair through the stage coach, horse and omnibus to the first unlovely motor-car and the lordly limousine and space-saving aeroplane.

It was a sunny morning and the glittering cavalcade attracted thousands of sightseers.

PREMIERS AT BANQUET.

Tonight the Lord Mayor's banquet was held in the ancient Guild Hall with all the city fathers and time-honored customs. On this occasion all the cabinet ministers and representatives of all that is notable in the nation's life, gathered around the city gold plate and the roast beef of Old England.

It is tradition on these occasions for the prime minister to make a speech, generally on foreign affairs, or an annual political stock-taking. This time responding to the Lord Mayor's toast to His Majesty's Ministers, Mr. Baldwin took as his theme a comparison of the Imperial foreign policies of the present with those of three years ago, when the last Imperial Conference met.

"At that time," said the Premier, "there was scarcely one state in Europe not faced by almost insurmountable problems, while Germany was threatened simultaneously with economic ruin and political disintegration. Unrest was rife throughout the East and Near East; Europe was on the brink of financial disaster. It was one of the darkest moments in the war. To-night I can describe foreign affairs as more satisfactory than at any time since the end of the war."

The Premier then elaborated on the improvement of conditions in all countries, with Germany safely within the League of Nations and France and Germany trying to eliminate any remaining causes of friction.

Much of the improvement, he declared, was due to the work of the League of Nations.

The reconstruction of Europe was the keystone of British foreign policy, because obviously there could be no prosperity for Great Britain without a settled Europe. He voiced anxiety about the situation in China and the Far East, but was able to speak more hopefully of India than had been possible for any of his predecessors for many years.

Tuning to home affairs, the Prime Minister asserted that the recent general strike "will remain forever a stain upon the annals of our country" and characterized the coal stoppage as "another monument to human folly."

WELCOMES PREMIERS.

The Lord Mayor, proposing a toast to His Majesty's ministers, offered the heartiest of welcomes to the Dominion premiers.

Replying, Premier Baldwin said: "The significance of the proceedings is heightened and pleasure vastly increased because the toast included His Majesty's ministers from all over the world. It included distinguished representatives from India. Some present are old friends and some old friends have passed from this scene. Some have joined us for the first time and I believe by now that they are feeling at home."

It has not been possible to announce the decisions reached at Imperial conference or anticipate any decisions but he thought he could say with the assent of all his colleagues that there could never have been a conference in which there was a better or more harmonious spirit manifest and in which there had been a more genuine desire to solve the many difficult problems which the way for further and more rapid progress in the future than had been achieved in the past.

Her Little Boy Caught Cold While Out Playing

Mrs. F. Cade, Elmwood, Man. writes: "My little boy caught cold while out playing in the snow. He coughed incessantly all that night and the next day, and nothing I gave him seemed to relieve him. When my husband came home he brought a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup with him. After the second dose my boy was greatly relieved and after the third dose he went to sleep and slept the whole night through without any coughing. I am never without it in the house, and whenever any of the children get the slightest cold it's the first thing I give them."

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray.

Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, for only 75 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Saint John Man Back After Gold and Fur Hunt in Northern Ontario Fields

WARD B. STEVENS SPENDS SUMMER NEAR RED LAKE

He Nets $1,000 in Pelts But Only Little Metal

RELATES PRIVATIONS OF MINE PROSPECTOR

Snowshoes on Back Excite Interest as He Passes Through Streets

WARD B. STEVENS, a grizzled trapper and prospector by inclination and first class carpenter by trade, is back from the frozen wilderness of Northern Ontario, where he trapped, shot and searched for gold since August last. The Times-Star noted his departure at the time and it is interesting to hear Mr. Stevens tell how he made out up there. One of the thrills of his trip that interested him most was experienced after he reached Saint John—the gaping, craning, smiling townfolk, as he walked from the train to his son's home, Millidgeville avenue, with snowshoes strapped on his back and a couple of rifles over his shoulder.

There was gold, but—

The Saint John man's prime purpose, of course, was a search for gold. He had always been a prospector, and on new discoveries of this kind and tracked down many without regard to the risk and inconvenience entailed. So when he read in a paper a few years ago that a lone fisherman working in the deadwaters of the Northern Ontario lakes had washed ashore with his canoe during a gale and discovered fool gold, he was not slow to strike out on a hazy shore, his roving blood and prospecting sense impelling him to strike out for that place as soon as possible. So last summer he made the trip.

Proceeding by C. N. R. all the way—the Transcontinental route—and detouring at the former little station of Hudson, Stevens set out to explore some vast stretches of impassable bogland and rocky ridges, all of which was criss-crossed with timber deadfalls. He would have to fly in a seaplane from Hudson to the interior lakes. This cost a cool $100 or the rate of $50 an hour. However, he and his chum paid the price and were landed on the waters of Red Lake—there that is financially speaking and as regards equipment sufficient to the needs of the hour.

GOVT. STEPPED IN.

The two lone prospectors really did find some of the gold reported to have been seen, first indicated on the outside of the white rock by a tissue sort of fungus growth known as "fool's gold," but once the rock was broken open heavy yellow metal was discovered though not in sufficient quantity to warrant making any attempt to treat outside capital. The Saint John man was frank to say that he had gone there rather unprepared for mining operations and as the government held every 40-acre claim under a lien until its assessments for roadways and other primitive development were collected, he found himself tied hand and foot, so to speak. As an expediency to keep body and soul together he and his pal resorted to their trusty rifles, and his knowledge of the trapping game.

Considerable gold has been taken out of the broadest quarries in Northern Ontario according to Mr. Stevens' tale. It is brought to the railway junction, Hudson, and there extracted by the government for a six per cent. title, much the same as the old-fashioned idea of tithing flour and buckwheat in country grist mills in this part of Canada. It was not his good fortune, however, to get any appreciable amount of the precious metal, only a few samples as mementoes.

LONG TRIP HOME

When the Saint John prospector left the Red Lake district to proceed home via Winnipeg, there were three feet of ice on the watery stretches and plenty of snow. This was about October 26. It took him 11 days to reach the Maritime Provinces, a devious, round-about journey, particularly with the prospector's outfit with which he was encumbered. He is going to spend the winter here, and then next spring, or

LIBERALS PREPARE FOR BY-ELECTIONS

Belief in Two Local Contests in New Brunswick Before Christmas

Word has been going about in local political circles that the bye-elections to fill the vacancies in Saint John and Gloucester counties for the local house will be held some time before Christmas. If this was the case, it was said that the writs would have to be issued almost immediately, and it was thought that some such action would be taken at the next meeting of the Local Government. Primaries are being held throughout Saint John County by the Liberal party for the purpose of naming delegates to a convention, the date of which has not been fixed as yet. It was said that the word had gone forth that an election would be held in the near future.

REPORT TODAY ON MEDICINE POWER MATTER

Will Be Before N. B. Power Commission This Afternoon

DELEGATIONS AT MORNING SESSION

Stated Work on Musquash Dam Likely Finished This Week

Three delegations were heard by the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission this morning. Two of these were asking for extension of the hydro lines and the other asked for a renewal of the contract with the Town of Newcastle which terminates next month. At this afternoon's session the report of the progress made on the Meductic survey will be taken up. The chairman said that the work would be completed in a week.

Hon. E. A. Healy, K. C., Moncton, chairman of the commission, J. D. Palmer, Fredericton; A. D. Ganong, St. Stephen; F. X. Robitoux, Shediac, and E. A. Schofield, Saint John, were present.

THREE DELEGATIONS. A delegation from Colplitt Settlement, Albert County, was heard first. They asked that the hydro lines be extended from Salisbury to Colplitt Settlement, a distance of about six miles. The commission said it would guarantee the business through signed contracts, the matter would be considered.

The next delegation was one headed by Major A. J. Brooks, Sussex, and asked for the extension of the lines from Sussex to the westward, about eight miles. The delegation was informed that before work would be commenced on this extension there must be at least 50 signed contracts presented to the commission.

H. H. Ritchie and A. H. Mackay, representing the Town of Newcastle, asked that the present contract with the commission for current for electric lighting, which expires on December 10, be renewed. The commission said it had met with a considerable loss in carrying out this contract. The commission said the Bathurst Co. for the current was more than was received from the town, the loss for this year being placed at $8,200. As a result of the conference it was declared possible there may be a rearrangement of the whole matter in which the commission will lose very little, if any, money. The chairman said that he would be glad to see the Meductic survey and good progress was being made with the work.

Mean Thief Steals Box Placed In North End Store to Gather Cents For Orphans' Upkeep

TAKING candy from a youngster is supposed to be one of the most reprehensible acts of which human beings could be capable. But there is a man—or maybe it was a woman—who is meaner still, who has stooped to stealing pennies from the orphans.

Last month the Protestant Orphans' Home committee placed small collection boxes about the city for the reception of voluntary donations. One of these was put in the fruit store of P. P. Garret, in Main street, right under the sign of the North End police station. Even the close proximity to the guard room did not deter some mean thief from picking the modest little silent charity worker from its place on the wall and making off with it. It is still missing. That it was a grownup who got away with the box is regarded as certain. It was placed sufficiently high on the wall of the store so that boys could not reach it.

About 6:30 a. m., according to barometric report at the Weather Observatory, Douglas Avenue, a burst of thunder ushered in the day.

CONFRETES REGRET DEATH OF W. R. SCOTT

Saint John Law Society Passes Resolution at Noon Meeting

A resolution expressing a deep sense of loss in the death of W. R. Scott, junior member of the bar, whose death occurred suddenly on Monday evening, was passed at a meeting of the Saint John Law Society in the County Court Chambers, Pugsley Building, at noon today. Hon. L. P. D. Tiley presided. The resolution was moved by G. E. MacRae and seconded by K. J. MacRae and was as follows: Whereas the members of this society have learned with deep regret of the sudden death of William Russell Scott, a member of the society.

GUESSES WRONG

Speaking of rainfall this autumn, as compared to that of last year, Mr. Hutchinson stated that Saint John has escaped rather fortunately. There was five inches greater precipitation in 1925-26 than in 1924-25, but in 1925-26 the snow cover was not nearly as great as in 1924-25, when 186 inches fell, 40 of which was previous to January 1 and 126 for the calendar year. Officially, snow measurements are made from January 1 to December 31, but Mr. Hutchinson says for local information it is better to figure it climatologically from the first of the snowfall before New Year's to the last furries of spring.

Many calculations in astronomy and physics now generally accepted as final, may be discarded and revamped in light of the recent discovery of Prof. Albert A. Michelson of the University of Chicago, that the speed of light has been overestimated.

ALARM SOUNDED. HE SEIZED A REVOLVER AND JOINED THE GUARDS.

Miss Armanda Thomas, daughter of Warden P. E. Thomas, heard in the residence quarters above the sound of the shooting and started downstairs. Lattimer endeavored to persuade her to stay upstairs in safety.

PARDON LIKELY FOR PLAYER CONVICT

Heroism of Lattimer During Battle With Prisoners May be Rewarded. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 8.—C. W. "Tex" Lattimer, former big league baseball player, now serving a life sentence in the Ohio penitentiary for second degree murder, may have won himself a pardon or other clemency by his heroism during the pitched battle that attended the escape and recapture of 18 convicts at the institution yesterday.

Light regarded as the fastest thing in the universe, hitherto had been said to travel approximately 186,310 miles a second, Michelson declared this figure was nearly 40 miles too fast.

The speed of light, he said he had found should be 299,796 kilometres, instead of 299,860 kilometres a second. Since the calculated speeds of the astronomical bodies and the distances of the universe have been based on the established rate which light travels, all these figures must now be corrected, scientists declared, if the new figure is accepted.

NEW YORK NIGHT CLUB NOISE IS PROTEST CAUSE

Neighbors Consider Advisability of Action to Ensure Sleep

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Hotel and apartment residents living between Fifty-third and Fifty-ninth streets and Sixth and Eighth avenues are discussing the advisability of a taxpayers' action to close some of the night clubs in their neighborhood as public nuisances. They have concluded that they must make a concerted move against the jazz palaces if they hope to stay in their apartments and suites without losing sleep.

Many tenants notified managers of apartment houses and hotels that it was impossible to sleep with from two to five night club jazz orchestras going at full blast, and that they regretted they were compelled to vacate rooms overlooking the roofs of buildings occupied by night clubs.

"I will not be able to keep permanent people on the Fifty-sixth street side of my hotel if the noise is not stopped," said J. G. Boggs, proprietor of the Hotel Laurent, 147-149 West Fifty-fifth street. "It seems an outrage that licenses should be issued to these clubs in a residential neighborhood."

A guest at the Hotel Laurent, an elderly woman who long has been a resident there, said she found it impossible to sleep because of the noise of the clubs which her windows overlook.

"I'm not hostile to jazz or night clubs in themselves," said another tenant of the Laurent. "But when they keep up the whanging and banging all night, they have gone beyond the limit."

Roger Kahn, son of Otto H. Kahn, said that the noise which brought so many complaints did not emanate from the establishment, Le Perrequet de Paris, one of the five establishments mentioned by apartment and hotel tenants.

"We closed at 2:30 a. m. sharp," said Mr. Kahn, "so it wasn't my place that was responsible for the noise. Furthermore, there is nothing boisterous about my club, and there will not be."

Other night clubs in the district were furnished with alibis by their managers and proprietors.

Home-made, but Ends Coughs in a Hurry

A family supply of dependable cough medicine. Lasts and saves about $2.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold, with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up at night with a hoarse cough, and you want quick relief, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified honey, if desired. This makes 10 ounces of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membrane of the throat and bronchial tubes with an ease and promptness that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaricol, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex with directions." Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or your money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto.

RADVILLE, Sask.—A cyclone several years ago blew away the superstructure of a bachelor's home near here, throwing the roof down over the cellar. The owner, who was in the building at the time, received such a scare that he decided not to live above ground again. So he left the roof where it had fallen and dug out the cellar to make a two-room dwelling. There he has lived ever since secure in the knowledge even should the roof be blown away his home cannot be destroyed.

BALLOU COLLEGE GATES RESTORED

Ancient Barriers Once Served as Tradesmen's Entrance at Manor House

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Silently, unheralded, the old gates of Balliol have returned to their former home after an absence of over 50 years. Removed when the college was pulled down in the Nineteenth Century, they were rescued by the Rev. T. Harding Newman, Fellow of Magdalen, and taken to their new home at his Elizabethan manorhouse, Nelmes, Essex. Their rescuer complained that, though he had only paid the college £25 for the gates, they cost him $50 to remove by road.

Dr. Newman built a pent-house over the gates for their protection, and set them up by the side of the kitchen, where they occupied the magnificent position of tradesmen's entrance. A sad come-down for the twelfth century gates which had witnessed the burning of the martyred bishops from their position in the "Broad," and repelled many a stout foray of townsmen in former days. After Nelmes passed out of the possession of the Newman family the gates suffered many shrewd knocks and neglect till they were discovered by a dealer and restored to the college by the generosity of old Balliol men.

He received the sentence with a smile and the Magistrate cautioned him that further imprisonment was hanging over his head on further counts if he committed other offences upon his discharge. The two year sentence will run concurrently.

It's just like smoking when you start taking things, it's pretty hard to stop when people leave them around, Landry said after the trial. He did not appear to be worried over spending two years in the penitentiary and said that he wanted to learn a trade.

Hospitals Receive Large Jelly Gifts

Large supplies of Jellies, jams and preserves were taken out to the Saint John County Hospital and to the General Public Hospital yesterday as the Women's Hospital Aid's "Jelly Day" gift. The supplies were received most gratefully and arrayed in line on the shelves of the store rooms and looked most tempting.

Further supplies are to go out to the two hospitals later, as it was not possible to take them all yesterday, and some donors were unable to send their contributions earlier.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Tex Rickard's plan for broadening pugilistic art is a scheme to build a new concrete stadium on the site of Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City. When the new vehicular tunnel opens next summer, the arena would be far more accessible than it is now. The board of directors of the Madison Square Garden Corporation will consider the proposition this week. Rickard plans an arena which will seat 100,000 spectators and can be used for all kind of sports. It is believed that there will be a change in the New Jersey boxing law which will permit fifteen round bouts to a decision and will provide for a higher prize than the present $25 limit for championship fights. French Davis Team Made Profit of $6,000. The French quest for the Davis Cup in America brought the French Tennis Federation $14,000. This represented the French share of the gate receipts of the final against Japan and the challenge round against the United States. The expenses incurred by the Federation during the two months' voyage of Lacoste, Brugnon, Bruguon, Captain Pierre Gillou and Henri Cochet and his wife amount to $8,000. This left a net profit of $6,000.

SEEKS DATA ON SPRINKLERS FOR LOCAL SCHOOLS

Trustees' Finance Committee Discusses Question; Applications Considered

The finance committee of the school board at the board's regular meeting last night reported progress in the matter of preparing valuations of school buildings and their contents and obtaining information as to the advisability of installing sprinkler systems. W. C. Cross had recommended the installation of these systems both as a precautionary measure against fire and as a means of effecting savings on insurance.

Permission was granted Alexandra Chapter, O. C. O., to present a framed picture of Queen Alexandra to Alexandra school and the Canadian Club, having asked for the use of the High School assembly hall for a lecture by Dr. J. Clarence Webster, it was decided to offer the use of either that hall or the assembly hall of the Vocational School, which ever was considered more desirable.

Dr. L. M. Curran, chairman, presided. Others present were Mrs. D. B. Chisholm, T. H. Carter, W. C. Cross, H. Colby Smith, Thomas Nagle, E. R. W. Ingraham, Dr. J. K. Higgins, S. W. Palmer, Dr. S. A. Worrell, superintendent of city schools, and A. Gordon Leavitt, secretary.

It was decided to ask the vocational pupils to make supplies of small carpentry articles, which were formerly made by the carpenter when the board employed such an official.

SPRINKLER SYSTEMS

The finance committee was asked to look into the advisability of installing sprinkler systems in the schools. The principal of Centennial school sent a letter complaining of the condition of the grounds of the school as left by the playground children.

Expenditures for the month were dealt with in committee.

The superintendent reported that certain departments in four of the city schools had so few pupils that a re-organization might be effected and certain departments closed. The board decided to defer any action in the matter until the end of the term in order not to interfere with the present organization.

APPLICATIONS RECEIVED

Applications for positions on the teaching staff were received from Miss Kathleen Hayes, Nashwaak Creek, and H. E. Hovey, Stanley, and five others.

Applications for appointment as janitors were received from James E. Wolfe, Jas. Gorme, Charles E. Garfield and H. S. Palmer and were filed.

The report of Alexandra school for the 1. 10. D. E. is allowed to present a framed picture of Queen Alexandra to Alexandra school in connection with the Christmas tree to be held on Dec. 1, it was granted by the board.

The Free Kindergarten Association replied to the letter regarding a request of Brunswick Chapter, I. O. O. E., for the opening of new kindergartens at West Saint John, which the board had forwarded to the association. The association stated that the opening of new kindergartens could not be undertaken without an additional grant.

REQUESTS USE OF HALL

The Canadian Club requested the use of the High School assembly hall for a public meeting on Nov. 18, to be addressed by Dr. J. Clarence Webster, of Shediac, who on that date is to lay out over to the Mayor of the city the three memorial tablets erected by the National Historic Sites Committee in Saint John, and to speak on "Some Stirring Incidents in Acadian History." It was decided to grant the use of the hall asked for but to suggest to the Canadian Club that the assembly hall of the Vocational School be made more suited to this meeting and would be available.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

The secretary's report showed 6,779 pupils enrolled, of whom 3,620 were belonging. The others were accounted for as follows: Died, 11 sick, 84; left city, 29; transferred, 83; truancy, 11; kept at home, 25; at work, 18; total, 188. The average in daily attendance was 5,074 or 83.7 of those belonging.

The Board of Health reported 39 cases of scarlet fever and one of diphtheria.

The trustee officer, G. Herbert Green, in his report for September and October, showed he had made visits as follows: To homes, 212; to schools, 94, and appeared in court five times.

Children's absences from school were accounted for as follows: Sick, 36; lack of clothing, 22; temporary necessity, 45; over 14 years and left school, 18; left the city, 16; under 14 and found working, 1; irregular in attendance, 21; truants, 12; gone to vocational school, 6; not at any school, 16; gone to Home, 8.

The trustee officer reported having cautioned 25 parents. There were six pupils listed as not returned.

Church Takes On New Name

THE congregation of the United Church of Canada at Fairville has chosen for itself St. Mark's as its distinctive name. From this time on this charge will be known as St. Mark's United church.

Some weeks ago ballots were distributed to register the wishes of the members and these ballots were distributed to the communicants and envelope contributors. The results were reported last evening to the members of the trustee board. A very large majority expressed the desire that St. Mark's be the name of the United church at Fairville. This decision was accepted by the board and given official sanction.

TRIDUUM BEGUN BY VISITING PRIEST

Father Bergin Opens Exercises in Cathedral in Honor of St. Aloysius

A triduum in honor of St. Aloysius, patron of her little sons, opened this morning at the Cathedral at 7 o'clock mass. The triduum consists of exercises, prayers and sermons for three consecutive days. Rev. Joseph Bergin, S. J., of Toronto is conducting the exercises. This morning he delivered a powerful sermon warning against laxity of purpose so prevalent in these days. He exhorted the absolute necessity to one's happiness to have a definite goal set. To do one's duty made one happy and to be happy one must do his duty.

The exercises and a special one for the children at 8:45 after school.

As Hiram Sees It

"Aint that a bell on the deck of that there craft?" says I, to the town feller, as we watched the patch 'o' moonlight on Long Reach.

"That," says he, "is the ghost 'o' the bell brought out from France fer the Injuns built on the Saint John river—built in 1717."

"That looks like a priest on the deck," says I.

"That," says the town feller, "is the ghost of Father Loyard, that was priest after Father Simon. He was a good man—an' spent twenty-four years workin' to convert the Injuns. He died of a disease he took when he took care 'o' their sick folks. That was in 1781—an' the Injuns felt they'd lost their best friend. That there bell we was talkin' 'bout hangs now in the Injun chapel at Kingsclear. The old church at Meductic stood fer fifty year—an' then the Injuns hev'it all left the place—it was tore down an' the bell an' ornaments an' furnishings took down to Aukpaque—above Fredrickton. The sound 'o' that bell brings back memories of more'n two hundred years. We seen it an' Father Loyard's ghost in the moonlight on the river."

R. M. A. ASKS FOR CHANGE MADE IN TAX PROPOSALS

Suggests New Dates For Instalment Payments—Council in Session

Some changes in the proposition submitted by Mayor White to the Retail Merchants' Association, in connection with the instalment payment of taxes, were contained in a letter read yesterday afternoon at the council meeting and referred to the Mayor. The association suggested that the dates for payment be July 1 and Aug. 15 instead of May 31 and July 1 for the first two payments and the time for the last be extended to Oct. 31.

Deputy Mayor Frink remarked that the council had had nothing to do with this matter yet, the proposition submitted by the Mayor to the association and the communication had better be dealt with by him.

The Trades and Labor Council wrote asking that a copy of the report of the Citizens' Research Institute of Canada, who are making a survey of the civic administration, be furnished them and that evening meetings be held by the council when discussing the report. It was decided to ask the Mayor to grant the prayer of the petition.

TENDER ACCEPTED

On motion of Commissioner Harding it was decided to accept the tender of Vassie & Co. for blue cloth for uniforms for the fire, police and ferry departments at $8.90 a yard. Commissioner Bullock said the ferry department would only require six uniforms this year instead of 14 which they had last year and this would reduce the quantity of cloth to be ordered.

Commissioner Frink gave notice of motion that at the expiration of 30 days he would move for the issue of $74,940 of debentures. Of this amount $47,500.40 would be for the Carleton City Hall, retaining walls and sewerage construction, and would be for 40 years; $26,175 would be for the hydro commission for extra power and systems and to be for 80 years. All the debentures to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent.
