

HANGED YESTERDAY.

Fred Lee Rice Pays the Penalty at Toronto.

Pathetic Story of a Young Life That Went All Wrong.

TORONTO, July 18.—Fred Lee Rice, of Champaign, Illinois, was hanged in the jail yard at 8.02 o'clock this morning for killing County Constable Boyd, in a daring attempt to escape. Every effort had been made to obtain a respite, Congressman Cannon and Senator Mason, both of Illinois, have been active on his behalf at Washington; his mother has appealed to Ottawa; petitions have been forwarded but without success.

Rice went to his end without any apparent tremor. He had spent most of yesterday with his spiritual adviser, Rev. Robt. Hall, city missionary, and retired last night at 10.35 and lay for some time chatting with his guard. He then fell asleep and seemed to pass a restful night. He arose at 5.30 a. m. Rev. Mr. Hall was early at the jail, and after Rice had eaten a light breakfast the minister and he were left alone, and from then until the arrival of Hangman Hadcliff the time was spent in prayer. The march to the scaffold took two minutes and the body was cut down 45 minutes later. His pulse stopped beating twelve minutes after the drop. The coroner's jury found death due to strangulation. Rice made no statement on the scaffold.

The pathetic story of Rice, who only a few years ago was a bashful university student, and who got over his bashfulness under the discipline of university life sufficiently to become a bank robber and murderer, may sometimes form the foundation of an interesting novel.

When he was a little boy playing about the streets of Champaign he was the most innocuous of lads. He loved his mother. He would never play with girls. He could not be hired to appear in any public exhibition. He would never "speak in school" because people would look at him when he rose to recite. He would blush painfully.

This was true of him when, a very apt scholar, he went to the university. There he was put through a "course of sprouts" by the other students calculated to take the diffidence and bashfulness out of him.

It did. Shortly after leaving the University of Illinois he became associated with a gang of "second story" experts. He was the cleverest of the lot and in most cases their leader in criminal exploits. He was called the forger, the scholar, the "book" of the gang, and his aggregation. He looked like a clergyman, and had a gift of eloquence that astonished many a pleader.

It is characteristic of Rice that he is the only one of the gang that ever attempted diplomacy. Cornered he never offered to kill, but, preferring soft words, secured for himself the best of treatment in an extremity.

Frank Stewart, alias "Doc," was first known as a Chicago thief, was the first of the quartette to die. He was killed in an attempt to escape after a Chicago west side robbery. Jones was the next to pay the price. Rutledge, convicted of robbery by dashing himself from the gallery of the Toronto jail to the stone-walled court forty feet below.

They robbed a bank in Aurora, Ont. They were arrested in Chicago, taken back and tried. They got twenty-one years.

While being taken back to the jail in Chicago in charge of constables Stewart and Boyd a well-dressed man sprang from the sidewalk near the jail and ran alongside the carriage. He gained the open window and tossed in a soft felt hat. This fell in the lap of Rutledge. Jones grabbed it and shook out three loaded revolvers.

He grabbed one and Rice and Rutledge took the other two. All three were handcuffed together, but this did not prevent quick action on their part. Jones shot Constable Boyd dead. Constable Stewart was fired on a dozen times but not hit. The prisoners got out of the carriage, gained the street and jumped aboard a passing trolley car.

Jones thrust his revolver at the head of the motorman and ordered him to send the car ahead fast. The motorman refused, shut off the current, detached his controller and beat Jones on the head with it. Constable Stewart was hit by this time gained the rear of the car, and he shot Jones through the arm. Other officers came running and the three men were re-captured.

Jones was taken to a hospital. Robert Hall, his spiritual adviser, in the last prison, and caused him to think seriously of what was before him. He now reads his Bible constantly, and has had several talks with Rev. Robert Hall, his spiritual adviser. Rice has read during the past week Farrer's "Life of Christ," John Wesley's sermons, and several books on the "immortality of the soul." During his sojourn at the jail the condemned man has also read Victor Hugo's great work, "Les Misérables." Recently he declared to one of his guards that he wanted to live solely for his mother.

HALIFAX

Will Give Returning S. A. Heroes a Great Reception.

HALIFAX, July 18.—Halifax is going to give the heroes of the Hart's River fight a big reception. The official programme was decided upon this morning at the government house by the lieutenant governor and the mayor, after conferences with Sir Charles Parsons, commander-in-chief of the imperial forces, and Vice-Admiral Sir Archibald I. Douglas.

Should the transport with Col. Evans' command arrive late, the embarkation will not take place till the following day. The returning troops will be met by a guard of honor from the Royal Canadian Regiment, with brass band, rifle and drum corps and bugles, and Col. Evans and his men will be officially received by Sir Charles Parsons and staff, Vice-Admiral Sir Archibald I. Douglas and staff, his honor the lieutenant governor and staff, the deputy officer commanding the militia and staff, and the mayor and members of the city council. After the official reception at the pier, a procession will be formed, led by the admiral general and staff, militia officers and members of the city council, with officers of the returning contingents in carriages. Then will follow the rank and file of the men from Africa, sailors of the fleet, imperial troops, militia regiments, with bands.

The route of procession will be as follows: Water street, Granville street, George street, when a halt will be made and Col. Evans' men given an opportunity of inspecting the soldiers' monument, and the bands will play patriotic airs, after which the procession will re-form and march to North street depot, via Hollis, Pleasant and Barrington streets, where the troops will entrain for their homes.

Admiral Douglas expressed a desire to do all he possibly could to make the reception a most enthusiastic one. The march from the Arlington and other ships in the procession will be one of the features of the parade. Sir Charles Parsons was equally desirous of doing all he could and he will order out the militia. It is to be hoped that the militia will turn out in full strength and that the citizens generally will do all they can to make the welcome warm, enthusiastic and demonstrative.

A TRUE STORY.

(Harper's Magazine.) A Sunday school superintendent in talking to the children about cruelty to animals, said: "Only a coward would abuse a creature that had no way of protecting itself. Why, children," said he, "I once knew a little boy who cut off a calf's tail! Think of it! Children—take a knife and cut the tail right off. Can anyone tell me a verse in the Bible that would have taught this cruel boy that he should not have cut off the calf's tail?" After a moment's silence, a small boy with a "happy-thought" expression held up his hand. "What is it, my boy?" asked the superintendent, hopefully. "That God hath joined together what man put asunder," responded the small boy.

The superintendent was so impressed that he never brought his own verse to light.

G. G. COREY

Who Served One Term in Dorchester Penitentiary.

Is Now in the Toils of the New York Police Authorities—His St. John Record.

Geo. E. Corey, who on two occasions was arrested by the police of St. John for passing fraudulent money, and who served one term in Dorchester, was arrested yesterday in New York.

The following Associated Press despatch is to the point: G. G. COREY IN TROUBLE. BOSTON, July 18.—The local post office inspector's force is much interested in the arrest of George G. Corey in New York. They say that Corey was in Boston about a year and a half ago, and that he worked the same game as is described in the New York despatches, and just about the time that the city police and post office inspectors heard of his work he skipped general and staff, militia officers and members of the city council, with officers of the returning contingents in carriages. Then will follow the rank and file of the men from Africa, sailors of the fleet, imperial troops, militia regiments, with bands.

The inspectors say that he was born in Queens county, N. B., and that he is about 55 years of age. Corey is a native of Queens county, N. B., and is about 55 years of age. He was a resident of St. John and conducted a rubber stamp business here about twenty years ago. About 1885 he was arrested on a charge of passing counterfeit money. He escaped with a light sentence of one year.

After his liberation from the penitentiary Corey went to the United States, where he lived for a period of six years. Papers and documents found in his house on Celestine street, Westchester, N. Y., in 1894 showed that he had spent the greater part of the time in the city of New York, where he was engaged in the business of passing counterfeit money. He also offered for sale at a copy of a book called "Next of Kin," giving information about the families of persons who believed themselves heirs to great wealth. Corey also offered for sale a book which he called "The Dinges for the property of tokens redeeming money. This book he claimed the information that enabled him to pass successfully the available for which he was again arrested.

His story was that Solomon Dinges, a soldier who fought through the American war of independence and married Hannah Corey, moved to this province after the war. He was a resident of the town of Fairville, Westchester county, N. Y., and from him sprang the Dinges family of this province. Corey in his search after this money, needed New York papers, and he secured them from Scribner, Merritt, Drake, and many other publishers, Westchester county, N. Y., and he was able to pass them off as genuine. He also secured and frequently made sales in the city of New York, where he was known as "A. B. Corey," and he was able to pass them off as genuine. He also secured and frequently made sales in the city of New York, where he was known as "A. B. Corey," and he was able to pass them off as genuine.

He was arrested in New York on a warrant issued by the United States Commissioner Shields, charging him with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. It is the belief of the postal authorities that the prisoner is identical with Charles Corey, whose success in passing the members of the Corey family all over the country to advance him $40,000 on the pretence that he could place them in possession of an estate in England worth $400,000, recently came to notice.

Corey insisted after his arrest that he was not a swindler, but that the estates actually existed and that they were worth not less than $10,000,000. He was locked up in Ludlow street jail.

FOREIGN PRISONERS

Will Not be Allowed to Return to South Africa.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Secretary Hay has written from London under date of July 18, a copy of a statement from the British government, stating that the governors of the various British colonies in which there are prisoners of war, have been instructed by His Majesty's secretary of state to refuse to receive any prisoners of war to leave at their own expense should be allowed to do so; that the remainder of the statement is to their respective officials if their governments desire to make arrangements for their removal, but if not they will have to wait until His Majesty's government conveniently can repatriate them.

Latest News of THE SWINDLER (Associated Press.) NEW YORK, July 18.—By the arrest of George G. Corey, in Paterson, N. J., on a charge of passing counterfeit money, the career of an alleged daring swindler, whose operations are believed to have extended from this country to England and France, and who has stolen not less than $200,000, Corey was arrested by Post Office Inspector M. H. Boyle on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Shields, charging him with using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

It is the belief of the postal authorities that the prisoner is identical with Charles Corey, whose success in passing the members of the Corey family all over the country to advance him $40,000 on the pretence that he could place them in possession of an estate in England worth $400,000, recently came to notice. ECONOMICAL PORK PRODUCTION.

By J. E. Gaudale, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. In the past some objections have been raised by the packers as to the use of forage plants and roots for pork production, but the light of recent experiments would seem to show their fears or objections groundless; in fact, the good influence of a sensible proportion of green feed or roots in the ration of a pig can scarcely be over-estimated. It has long been known that the addition of a small amount of green feed to the ration, even when the amount fed was not equal to that of the ration, green feed and roots even in a large measure to be equal to the amount of the ration of the same amount of green feed.

The number of panama or alleged panama hats to be seen everywhere this season reminds an old gentleman from Boston of a story the other day, which he proceeded to tell to another man in a New York hotel, holding his own genuine panama in his hand. "I suppose you have never heard of it," said the old gentleman, "but a gentleman in Boston, being one of our famous Transcendentalists, friend of many of the Transcendentalists. He used always to wear a white panama hat, which at that time was much more of a luxury than it is today. The name hat did him some good, for he never seemed to lose any of his fresh shyness. "One day a minister of the old persuasion, and very pronounced in his orthodoxy, asked Dr. Ellis how he kept his hat so white. "That is easy," said the doctor, "for it has been Calvinized." "How do you Calvinize a hat?" "I said Calvinized," replied the Unitarian. "But what do you mean by that?" "Dipped in brimstone," said Dr. Ellis.

ILLINOIS RIVER FLOODS.

PEORIA, Ill., July 20.—The Illinois river tonight stands in imminent danger of causing thousands of dollars' worth of damage to buildings and manufacturers in Peoria. The damage already caused along the lowlands by the floods will be but a drop in the bucket compared with the loss if the water shall rise one foot higher. River should be confined at that rate until tomorrow noon it will have passed the high water mark of this river, which is 21.5, attained during the flood of 1882. People living along the bottom lands both above and below Peoria, have sought the high lands and have taken their stock with them.

Another crop of great value for pork production is the artichoke. It should be sown in the fall or very early in the spring. The pigs may be allowed to eat it in October and the early spring. They will do the harvesting themselves. This is a most excellent crop for brood sows. It is a most important crop for brood sows. It is a most important crop for brood sows. Plasters Failed. Liniment, Oils and Many Other Medicines Did No Good. A New Brunswick Postmaster Tell of His Efforts to Cure His Kidney Trouble. Many Medicines, But Only Recently Found the Right One.

LOWER WINDSOR, N. B., July 18. (Special.)—Mr. T. H. Belyea, postmaster of this place, has made a very interesting statement of his experience in his efforts to be cured of Kidney Trouble which has bothered him for many years. At times he would have very bad spells, and when these came on he was almost laid up. He tried several doctors and used many medicines, but nothing seemed to help him in the least. Plasters, oils, liniments on the outside and doses of all kinds and kinds of prescriptions taken internally seem to have but one result. He was no better. Finally through reading an advertisement in the fact's Kidney Pills, he was cured. "Dodd's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended for Kidney Trouble that after reading some testimonials, I concluded to try them according to directions. "I had tried so many things that I was very skeptical and had but little faith that Dodd's Kidney Pills could do me any good. However, I did not use them long before I found that they were all and more than was claimed for them. "I have received more benefit from them than from any other medicine I have ever used for they seem to have made a complete cure of my case. "I feel as well as ever I did and have not the slightest trace of the Kidney Trouble that bothered me ever so long. "I want to say that I believe that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the right medicine for Kidney Trouble." Mr. Belyea is very well known to everybody in this neighborhood and there are but few who have not been aware of his serious illness. Everyone is delighted at his improved health and his published statement has done much to make Dodd's Kidney Pills even more popular in this neighborhood than they have been.

RESTIGOUCHE-BONAVENTURE COUNTIES CONVENTION.

THE S. CARSLY CO.

ORDER BY MAIL.

GIRLS' DRESSES.

This annual meeting was held in the Baptist church in Campbellton on July 15th and 16th. Promptly at the morning hour appointed, Vice-President W. D. Duncan called the field secretary to open with devotional exercises. The Bible was made prominent, the delegates using their own Bibles and reading a group of passages suitable to such Christian workers.

There was a cheering number of young delegates, together with such familiar county workers as Messrs. Dalbraith, McIntyre, McMillan, W. D. Duncan, D. J. Bruce, and the faithful county secretary, D. C. Firth.

Committees were formed, enrollment made, and the first session was a good indication of those to follow.

THE SOLDIERS' RETURN.

The people of Canada have witnessed the return of several contingents of their countrymen from Africa. They may not celebrate the arrival of the men in the Christian with such manifestations of enthusiasm as they displayed when the heroes of Paardeberg came home.

Different Canadian corps which served in Africa had different fortunes. Some took part in famous engagements, others endured great hardships and had their share of danger and suffering without participating in the more conspicuous battles.

THE OPEN AND SHUT ENQUIRY.

The Globe's complaint that the inquiry into the affairs of the Deaf and Dumb School is neither public nor secret is quite reasonable.

BOSTON, July 20.-Another period of cool weather this week was a further contribution to the unusual record which the present season has made.

It is pointed out that Mr. Chamberlain could not well be leader of the house of commons, if he desired that position, while the Duke of Devonshire is leader of the lords, as the conservatives would hardly care to be led by both houses by liberal unionists.

As things were a few years ago, it would be said that the office of chancellor of the exchequer was of much greater importance than that of colonial secretary, and under circumstances like the present Mr. Chamberlain would be expected to receive promotion.

Having shown what a strenuous life he leads with a gift for administration and plenty of courage, can do with the colonial department, it may suit Mr. Chamberlain's purpose to give the chancellor a lesson in imperial finance.

It is reported here that Hon. John E. Blunt, U. S. general, will retire from the service this year. Mr. Blunt is now in England.

CONGRESSMAN CROWLEY

Uses Po-ru-na in His Family For Catarrhal and Nervous Affections.

Hon. Joseph B. Crowley, Congressman from Illinois, writes from Robinson, Ill., the following praise for the great catarrhal tonic, Peruna. Congressman Crowley says:

"After giving Peruna a fair trial I can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with coughs, colds and la grippe, and all catarrhal complaints."

"Mrs. Crowley has taken a number of bottles of Peruna on account of nervous troubles. It has proven a strong tonic and lasting cure. I can cheerfully recommend it."

No other remedy invented by man has ever received such praise from men of high station as Peruna. Over forty members of Congress have tried it and recommended it to suffering humanity.

It is exactly as Congressman Crowley says: "Peruna is a swift and sure remedy for coughs, colds and la grippe and all catarrhal complaints."

OUR NATIONAL DISEASE

Caused by Coffee. Physicians know that drugs will not correct the evils caused by coffee, and the only remedy is to stop drinking it.

Dr. W. J. Allison, of Heber, Ark., says: "I have been a coffee drinker for 50 years and have often thought that I could not live without it, but after many years of suffering with our national malady, dyspepsia, I attributed it to the drinking of coffee, and after some thought, determined to use Postum Food Coffee for my morning drink. BAID MAN FROM MONCTON.

A Moncton man, with a strong reputation as a burglar and general bad man, has been leading around St. John suspiciously since Saturday last, and some of the police have no hesitation in insinuating that he knows more than a little about the mysterious happenings in the thieving line since that date.

He selected the railway station yesterday as a place of sojourn, but Officer Collins, who was aware of his peculiarities, persuaded him, after a brief conversation, that the bustle and noise of the place were far less wholesome for him than the fresh air out of doors. He did not come under the notice of the police last night.

LOOKS LIKE SUICIDE

Body of James Murdoch found in the Harbor Saturday Morning.

Shortly after eight Saturday morning the body of James Murdoch, of 95 Duke street, W. B., was found floating in what is known as the old Galey slip near Murchie's mill.

The body was seen on the water by Andrew Campbell, of Ludlow street, who, in a boat, chanced to pass while picking up drift wood. Mr. Campbell took the body to Market slip and upon arriving there at once sent for Sergeant Ross of the Carleton police.

Sergeant Ross had the body removed to the City Hall and notified Coroner Kenney, who made an examination and impelled the following jury: William Johnson, Walter Sewell, John Richards, John Christopher, William Ames, Cornelius Haley and Joseph Stubbins, Esq.

James Murdoch was a Scotchman, the son of parents residing at Miramichi. He came to St. John last spring and took a house on Duke street, near the Cadfellows hall. He has since worked as a ship-laborer, in one of the mills, and recently made a trip in one of Thomson's steamers, returning only three weeks ago.

He was on the forenoon of Monday, July 7th. On that day he left his home and went to Murchie's mill, where he was spoken to by different persons. He afterwards went to Beattie's rock, where he stopped to talk to some boys. His manner at this time seemed strange, but this was thought to be from the effects of liquor, as he had been drinking after coming home.

While at Beattie's rock he talked about his ability to swim and stated that he could easily swim around the island. He was then seen by a man named Trask, Master Burpee of the C. P. R., with the intention of obtaining employment on the ballast train.

Murdoch was thirty-six years of age and leaves a wife but no children. It is stated that the relations between himself and his wife were somewhat strained, but when brought to the City Hall to identify the body Mrs. Murdoch was greatly affected.

When found Murdoch was fully dressed and carried a watch and chain. The watch had stopped at four minutes past two.

The witnesses examined on Saturday were the wife of the deceased and Andrew Campbell.

Mrs. Murdoch testified that she last saw her husband alive on Monday morning, 7th inst. He left the house in a somnolent melancholy frame.

She supposed he went to look for work and afterwards she made enquiries, thinking he might have gone to sea and that word which he might have sent had failed to reach her. She had formerly lived in Chatham. Mrs. Murdoch has since gone there to her husband's relatives.

Andrew Campbell testified as to the finding of the body substantially as before detailed.

It is said that Murdoch was seen in a bar-room in Fairville on the evening of the day on which the body was found. It is conjectured that, as he used to work in the Cushing mill and came home by the path around the shore from the Suspension bridge, that he had attempted to commit that way on the Monday night or early Tuesday morning, but fell over the cliff. The finding of the body in Galey's slip would be consistent with the theory, as anything that he had on the light on the western side below the bridges generally drifts into that vicinity.

The inquest on the body of James Murdoch was concluded last evening before Coroner Kenney and a jury in the west side City Hall.

James Murdoch, the late witness, was a cousin of the deceased. He last saw Murdoch at his place near Fairville on the evening of 7th July, about 8 o'clock. Deceased was not then intoxicated, and he did not think he was in the habit of drinking to excess.

Dr. Geo. A. B. Addy testified as to a post mortem examination. He found no marks indicating injury. The man had apparently been drowned at least two weeks.

There being no further evidence, the jury retired and found that James Murdoch was drowned in the harbor of St. John between the 7th and 19th day of July, A. D. 1902, having no marks of violence on his body and no evidence appearing how or by what means the said James Murdoch became drowned.

THAT "PECULIAR AFFAIR"

The Telegraph's Unfair Account of an Incident in Which J. Harvey Brown Figured.

(Frederick Gleason, 19th.) The St. John Telegraph this morning publishes a story about a Fredericton man who came to Fredericton yesterday to get his three children who were at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, and who was, according to the Telegraph, first locked out of and then in the building, and had considerable difficulty in securing possession of the children.

If the Telegraph had desired to be fair in the matter it would have stated that Mr. Leaman, the Albert county man, referred to had previously arranged to have his children remain at the institution here instead of going home for the vacation; and that when the father came here for the children yesterday he was accompanied by J. Harvey Brown of St. John. Mr. Brown has been and is doing all possible to help the father, and that when the father came here for the children yesterday he was accompanied by J. Harvey Brown of St. John. Mr. Brown has been and is doing all possible to help the father, and that when the father came here for the children yesterday he was accompanied by J. Harvey Brown of St. John.

PEACE SOUVENIR. A communication received yesterday by Gilbert McMullin of Indian Brook, N. B., from Fred McMullin, with the South African Commemorative, was written upon a special post card printed to celebrate the successful conclusion of the peace negotiations. It bore the inscription "Peace Commemorative," and a half-ton reproduction of a photograph of Commandant Botha and Acting President Smuts taken at London during the conference. The card makes an interesting souvenir. In the brief message written upon it reference was made to the death of Dr. Price, who left here with the ambulance corps. At the date of writing, June 18, his comrades were putting a stone over his grave.

SUMMER ADVICE.

By One [Who] Knows. Keep cool in hot weather. "How?" "Eat Grape-Nuts every day."

No, not rats, but a good, sound fact that thousands make daily use of Grape-Nuts is predicated food that makes digestion easy.

It gives the nourishment without the internal heat caused by heavy carbonaceous foods.

You can feel from ten to twenty degrees cooler than your neighbor when you eat proper food that does not overtax the stomach.

Grape-Nuts is made from certain parts of the grain and with the process the starches are changed into grape sugar in the same manner as the stomach would do in the first act of digestion.

The phosphates of the cereals are retained in Grape-Nuts and these and the grape sugar supply the necessary nourishment to body, brain and nerve centers.

Grape-Nuts is a concentrated food giving strength, vitality and coolness to the body and energy and clearness to the brain, in place of the heavy, sluggish, greasy feeling caused by meat, potatoes, etc.

Another point. It is thoroughly cooked at the factory by food experts and saves you the trouble.

You get it from the grocer and by adding cream, it is ready to serve. No hot stove, no cross spick, no loss of time or exertion as with other food. Its crisp taste with the delicate sweet of the grape sugar makes it pleasing to the palate of the most critical epicure.

The recipe book in each package of Grape-Nuts gives many pleasing puddings, salads, entrees and desserts that can be made.

With a trial and a package will prove it.

DOMINION WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

CANSO, April 19, 1902. (Sisters)—The Labrador Medical Mission is located at Labrador, the peninsula part of North America, and is one of the most beneficent missions in existence. Labrador covers quite a large tract of country, being about eleven hundred miles long and seven hundred wide. It is inhabited by Eskimoes on the north, bank of coasting Indians in the interior, and between four and five thousand persons reside permanently on the coast. During the fishing season from twenty to twenty-five thousand men, women and children fish along the coast.

The people are extremely poor and until the mission to Deep Sea Fishermen took pity upon this condition, many a man had resided among them. Their knowledge of the proper treatment of the sick and injured is extremely slight, and many deaths have resulted in consequence of their poverty and lack of medical skill. In 1892 the mission to Deep Sea Fishermen sent a hospital vessel from England under the care of Dr. Grenfell. During a period of three months, Dr. Grenfell went up and down the coast, treating in that time about 900 persons. At present there are three land hospitals, one at Battle Harbor, another at Indian Harbour, and a recently built at St. Anthony. Dr. Wilfred Grenfell and his assistant doctors and nurses are most indefatigable and zealous in their care of the sick and suffering. It is work which has been blessed, the bodies as well as the souls being cared for and helped.

This is a singularly inhospitable country and climate. As some one says "It is noteworthy for little else than fog and ice, dogs and cod." Now, in view of the needs of these poor people, will you not contribute to the support of our New Brunswick unions for the naming and maintaining a cot in one of the hospitals at Labrador? This can be easily done if you but go to the work which has been arranged for. It is work which has a good programme arranged for readings from "Tollers" and the "Story of the Labrador Medical Mission" music, and collection for the social union. I am sure, furnish each unit with all the funds required for its share of the whole amount.

Yours in white-ribbon bonds, OLIVIA C. N. WHEATMAN, Dom. Supdt. S. F. L. K.

DEAD MAN'S LAND.

Dr. C. M. MacLean of St. John Writes an Interesting Letter

To His Uncle, W. L. Waring, of This City—Life in West Africa Graphically Described—Deadly Diseases.

DIXCOVE, West Africa, June 3rd, 1902. W. L. Waring: Dear Uncle—I left St. John the last of February. Remained in England until the middle of April, when I sailed for the West Coast of Africa.

I was much pleased with London, especially the British Museum, Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, London Tower and the Houses of Parliament. I was disappointed in the hospitals. Perhaps expected too much.

I came out here in the interests of the Gold Coast Exploration and Trading Co., of 34 Clements Lane, London, E. C., as the medical officer. I also have the right to practice, which I thought would be worth a good deal.

Black water fever is the deadliest disease we have to contend with. They sometimes die in three or four hours from the time they are taken ill. Beriberi, yellow fever and dysentery are quite common. No white man comes out here to stay. Few remain longer than 12 months.

The natives are uncivilized. They seem peaceable enough here, but down on the French coast they are killing and roasting their enemies. I would not care to be served up cold on the table of some cannibal chief.

Apples and bananas grow close to our door, also oranges and coconuts, etc. Some little distance away, wherever we go we have to be carried in a hammock by natives. A white man could walk any distance on account of the heat. I came 20 miles in a hammock when I came out here.

Gen. James McLeer of Brooklyn, while postmaster, in 1880, received a letter from Henry Ward Beecher for which he has refused an offer of $100,000.

On being informed that the letter contained a check, Mr. Beecher called at the office and withdrew the request for its creation.

AT COSTA RICA

A Fredericton Man Who Has Attained Success in the South,

Tells of the Country, Its People, Its Resources and Government.

Mr. Frank Smith, of San Jose, Now Visiting Former Home.

(Fredericton Gleaner.)

Frank D. Smith, a resident of San Jose, Costa Rica, Central America, and now visiting here, has had a varied and interesting experience since he left his home here twenty years ago.

Smith was born in Stratford-on-Avon in the year 1864. His parents were not very well off, but very well educated. He was educated by chopping wood during the forenoon.

When the United States was young the people so admired Shakespeare that they called every little village a hamlet. This, in years following became so common to the point as well as the theatrical managers reduced Shakespeare's weekly stipend accordingly.

The following is one of Hamlet's soliloquies: He was full of them, as you will find if you read his unabridged red-line edition. "To be or not to be, that is the question."

Now, what is the answer? Don't ask me. By the way, a great many actors are termed "hams," especially those who play one night stands. Shakespeare was a humorist as well as a tragedian.
