MAIL ORDERS
We solicit out of town orders which receive our personal attention. The length of time taken to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the station in which they are received, and customers can always depend on our doing everything in reason to give prompt despatch.

RECRUITING NOW FOR 88TH BATTALION

Nine Men Recruited This Week for the 64th.—Enlisting Still Keeps Good Recruiting for the 64th Battalion is now complete and Recruiting Officer A. McG. McDonald has entered on enlisting for the 88th Battalion which will assemble at Sussex.
During the past week the following recruits were enrolled for the 64th. Charles Mathison, Campbellton. John Montgomery, New Richmond Centre. Walter Furlong, Nash's Creek. Claude Baillie, Fleurant Point. Ambrose Murphy, New Mills. Gordon Archibald, Archibald Settlement. John Carmichael, Archibald Settlement. Joseph Firlotte, Archibald Settlement. Vincent Willett, New Richmond.

It is indeed pleasing that the efforts of the Recruiting officers are still bearing fruit, and a steady stream of recruits is still flowing from this district. In conversation with a business gentleman of St. John the Graphic was informed that the record set up and continued by this town is being spoken of all over the province and wherever a recruiting meeting is held, the work done in Campbellton is held up as an example of patriotic endeavor. We are jealous of this record and we must maintain it. There are still large numbers of men who are in a position to volunteer, and a big recruiting campaign will be launched in a few days. Recruiting Officer McDonald is in receipt of a message from the Chief Recruiting Officer that within a few days it is probable that Lieut. De la Perriere will be sent here to assist in recruiting in the county and nearby places in Quebec. This would be a splendid move as Phil is a hustler and decidedly popular and his assistance would mean much now that instructions have been received and permission given to enlist in the county by districts of Quebec on the Gaspé Coast.

NEW RED CROSS SOCIETY IS FORMED

At Shigawake on October 12th, With Mrs. Henry Wright President
On October 12th, 1914, the Shigawake Branch of the Quebec Red Cross Society was organized with the following officers: President, Mrs. Henry Wright; Vice-President, Miss Briand; Sec'y., Mrs. R. P. Travers; Treasurer, Mrs. J. A. LeGallais. After some correspondence with Mrs. Colin Sewell of Quebec, who pointed out that in order for our members to have the right to be affiliated with the parent society in Quebec City it was necessary for our members to contribute the small sum of twenty five cents each, it was decided to join the Quebec City Red Cross and work under its directions with the name Shigawake Branch of the Red Cross Society. The following parties then joined the Branch here and paid the membership fee I. E., Mrs. H. Wright, Mrs. Jas. Almond, Mrs. C. Kruse, Miss Annie Allen, Mrs. J. B. Travers, Mrs. R. P. Travers, Mrs. Felix Casey, Mrs. Henry Sullivan, Miss Mary Ann Young, Mrs. Geo. Young, Mrs. Robert Almond, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Ben. Allen, Miss Mamie Allen, Mrs. William Skene, Miss Ethel Skene, Mrs. Simon Roussy, Mrs. Edward Vautier, Mrs. Jas. Poirier, Miss Lizzie Poirier, Mrs. J. A. LeGallais, Mrs. Richard Major, Mrs. Edmund Young.

During the year of work just closed our Branch held one concert, set off several sales of work, the material for which had been sent us gratis from Quebec, and on request of the President of the Quebec Branch voted the sum of ten dollars towards sending a nurse to the front. Meetings have been held weekly in the Parish hall, but of late the members decided that in order to encourage a larger attendance they would meet from house to house. All the above ladies are found daily either sewing or knitting for our soldier boys at the front and surely this fact ought to be sufficient to make those who as yet are not doing their bit to join in this volunteer service for our King and country.

Since the date of organization a slight change has been made in the office of the President. The office is now filled by Mrs. A. J. Vibert and that of Vice-President by Mrs. Jas. Poirier. Anyone wishing to join this Branch will do well to apply to Mrs. R. P. Travers, who will be only too glad to give full information as to work on hand, etc.

VANCOUVER HORSE PROBE CONCLUDED

Commission Waited All Night or Witness and Finished Investigation Early Sunday Morning

Vancouver, B. C. Oct. 13.—Sir Charles Davidson completed his horse deal investigation in Vancouver just before day light Sunday morning. W. A. McIntosh was a missing witness on Saturday, and it was found by a wireless message that he was aboard the steamer Venture, due in Vancouver from the north at one o'clock Sunday morning. McIntosh was prevailed upon to attend at once before Sir Charles and give testimony regarding what he knew of the alleged payment of a commission of $25 to Dr. Henderson by Dixon Brothers, whose remounts were examined and passed by Dr. Henderson. The latter denied the Dixon's statement of the passing of the bribe money.
McIntosh, who had been alleged by the Dixon's to have been in the stable at the time, said that he had not seen any cheque given, but had accompanied the party to the Ritz Cafe, where the Dixon had alleged that the cheque for Henderson had been cashed. Some time ago the witness said the Dixon had complained to him that they had been forced to pay Henderson $25.

- Mrs. R. McKenzie, 1 pair.
Mrs. Walter Pidgeon, 1 pair.
Mrs. John Mill, 1 pair.

SUPPLY OF SHELLS MUST BE UNLIMITED

Party of Munition Workers Visited Trenches, State Soldiers Resent Attacks Upon Their Efforts

London, Oct. 13.—A party of munition workers who visited the British armies in Flanders, accompanied by the Parliamentary Under-Secretary for Home Affairs, William Bryce and who recently returned say in their report of experiences:—
"There is bitter and widespread resentment among the officers and men at the front at constant appearance in certain newspapers of articles disparaging efforts this country is making. The men who have endured, and will endure the worst hardships, and are campaigning with positive cheerfulness, are sickened at the persistent depreciation of what they are doing out there and what the civil population is going at home to carry on the war."
Concerning munitions, the conclusions are thus summed up: "The supply of shells must not be merely liberal but unlimited." The report adds: "As regards the German position in this respect, we were repeatedly told, and could also see for ourselves, that their expenditure of shells was out of all proportion to ours. Their supplies must be enormous. The reasonless way in which they shelled one well-known town afforded a striking example."
The necessity for doing the best possible in all department of munition work is emphasized. "All imported supplies," says the report, "require the most careful inspection. All work by unskilled labor needs close and skilled supervision."
The growth of the fingernail is an inch and a half a year; they grow more quickly in summer than in winter; the middle finger grows the fastest and the thumb the slowest.

Justice Stuart, at Calgary, handed down a judgment that no one could have a proprietary interest in the term "cut rate".

REV. J. H. JENNER CALLED TO ST. JOHN

Campbellton Pastor Invited to Pulpit of Charlotte St. Baptist Church, West St. John
Rev. J. H. Jenner, pastor of Campbellton Baptist Church has received a call from Charlotte St. Baptist church, West St. John, and it is probable that the rev. gentleman will accept. The church was organized in 1855 and at present has a membership of about 400 and is a splendid field for labor. Much as the church and the people of this town will regret Mr. Jenner's removal, yet he will go with the best wishes and kindest feelings for a continuance of his splendid ministry.

Pastor Jenner was born in St. John, his parents removed to Sussex when he was but an infant. He was prepared for College in the old Baptist Seminary in St. John and graduated from Acadia in the class of 1891, and from Newton Theological Institution in 1895. Since then he has held successful pastorates in West Springfield, Mass., Halifax, N. S., North Sydney and Campbellton.
Coming to Campbellton in the summer of 1912, succeeding Rev. Mr. Townsend, whose tragic death on the train is still remembered, Mr. Jenner entered into his work with heart and soul in which he was ably assisted by Mrs. Jenner. At that time the Baptists were worshipping in the old shack, which was afterward sold to the Salvation Army, and extensively repaired to form their present barracks. During his three years here Pastor Jenner has had a successful pastorate. Earnest and forceful as a preacher, and a faithful pastor, he was loved by his church and esteemed by all his fellow citizens. During his term here the new Baptist church was built at a cost of $20,000, the Sunday school was reorganized, and the prayer meetings conducted by him, have been a source of great spiritual uplift and power.
St. John people are to be congratulated should Pastor Jenner accept their invitation as it is probable he will, on having for their minister, a strong man, an upright and fearless preacher, and one who will be to them a tower of strength. The regret that his people here feel at his departure will be lessened by the remembrance of his presence here and the good work he has accomplished.

A NEWSPAPER MAN IS DEAD IN GERMANY

Oscar T. Brown, Known as Reporter in Montreal and Ottawa, Died of Wounds

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Advice received by the Militia Department here on Saturday announce the death of Private Oscar Yeomans Brown whilst a prisoner of war at Dortmund, Germany. He received a gunshot wound in the back at St. Julien on April 26. He died on September 15. He was well known as a newspaper reporter both in Montreal and Ottawa. He was a graduate of McGill and an undergraduate of Harvard.
His father is John H. Brown of the finance department. His brother, Harold, also enlisted at the opening of the war and is with the first Canadian Division.
Oscar Brown was engaged on the Montreal Evening News and his brother Hal was also a reporter in Montreal.

KIPLING HOPES FOR SAFETY OF HIS SON

Is Reported Wounded and Missing Not Believed Killed, No Further Word Received

London, Oct. 13.—Rudyard Kipling has received no further news of his son who was wounded and reported missing in the north of France. He was only slightly wounded when last seen and his parents are hopeful that he suffered no more serious fate than being taken prisoner inside the German lines. Mr. Kipling sent to the Associated Press the following message:—
"I should be obliged if you would make public in America the fact that up to date my son John is reported wounded and missing, not wounded and believed killed as stated, in the press a few days ago."

WELL-KNOWN PIPER IN DRIVING ACCIDENT

Piper Wm. H. Ross Injured in Runaway at St. John on Friday Last

Piper William H. Ross, of St. John, broke his left leg in a runaway accident at Stanley Friday morning. With a number of others Piper Ross was driving to the railway station to take the L. C. R. express to Fredericton. The pole snapped and the animal became frightened, running away and throwing the occupants of the carriage out. Piper struck the ground with violent force, being a man weighing close to 200 pounds, and as a result suffered a broken leg. He is well known throughout New Brunswick, being an exceptionally fine piper and always being in demand at the annual celebration of St. Andrew's Day by the Scotchmen of this province.

Piper Ross is no stranger on the North Shore, having taken part in numerous Scottish entertainments here as well as other parts of the province. He visited Chatham as recently as Exhibition week, and has numerous friends here who will be sorry to hear of his accident.

AN ARTILLERYMAN'S LETTER FROM THE FRONT

A Driver of the 8th Battery Tells His Gloucesters Friends of Life Where German Shells are Falling

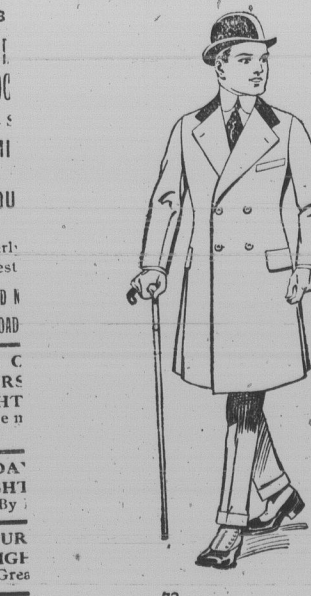

One of our drivers in the 8th Canadian Artillery is a Chatham man who is well known through the lower part of this County, where he has been employed by one of the large concerns doing business there. Going over to the front with the 8th Canadian Artillery in February, and has taken part in the historic battles at Ypres, Festubert and Givenchy, where so many Canadians made the supreme sacrifice, coming through these bloody battles without a scratch although his drum riding beside him through the town of Ypres when German shells were falling thick and fast, had his head blown off, and three of the six horses hauling the gun with which he connected fell before the drive was over. He now writes to a friend in Chatham the following interesting letter:

Dear Friend,— I must now take the opportunity of writing you a few lines, which, if you like, you can have published in the Northern Light, as I know the Editor very well, and no doubt many of its readers would like to know just how life goes on here at the front. Things are very quiet here just now, but it's not like that all the time. Not long ago both our cook houses at the guns and the three lines were blown to

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

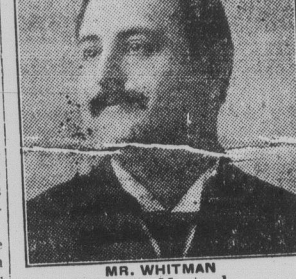

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Salty Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, low spirits, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

HE STRUCK IT RIGHT AT LAST

After Suffering Almost Two Years, "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Relief.

MR. WHITMAN 382 St. Valier St., Montreal.

"In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. I was treated by several physicians for nearly two years. I was in constant misery from my stomach and my weight dropped down from 225 pounds to 160 pounds. Several of my friends advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and I did so. That was eight months ago. I began to improve almost with the first dose. No other medicine I ever used tasted so pleasantly and quickly as 'Fruit-a-tives', and by using it I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble, and all pain and Constipation and misery were cured. I completely recovered by the use of 'Fruit-a-tives' and now I weigh 208 pounds. I cannot praise 'Fruit-a-tives' enough." H. WHITMAN, 382 St. Valier St., Montreal.

At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The same night that our cook house was shelled, our officers' billet, which was adjoining the cook house, was also pretty well battered up. Of the thirty-one shells fired in a short time, not one hurt a man. Our cook house at the wagon lines, which is about a mile in the rear of where the guns are in action, was the next to go. That evening I was writing a letter home, when four shells came over in quick succession, but they exploded in different places. One burst within three feet of the old cook house, blowing the roof, sides and ends off it, and scattering the rations which were in it all over the place. Our cook had left just a few minutes before and I did not see him. He would probably have shared the same fate as the Quartermaster Sergeant of the R. C. D's was badly wounded. He happened to be reading near the building, and hearing the shell coming, he probably took cover under one side of it to get clear of the flying pieces. But take it all through, we get no shell fire like we did at Ypres, Festubert or Givenchy. While there is a steady shelling day and night, both by our own guns and the German's. You can imagine yourself, when you hear a seventeen-inch shell coming through the air, like what came at Ypres, that there is going to be a lot of damage done. They come a lot slower than the small shell, and put a person in mind of the noise when you are on an electric car. If possible at all, every one tries to get cover from the flying pieces after it explodes, but if a piece is meant for you, it generally gets you, whether you are under cover or not, as I saw a few of the boys wounded while under an ammunition wagon, where they dove to get clear. One of these big shells exploded in our rear, and the base, which flew back into our horse lines, measured 17 inches across and weighed 137 pounds. Small shells seem more destructive and they come faster and oftener.

I see most of the boys from home off and on, and they seem contented all right. One evening not long ago I returned rather early, and found a couple of fellows here waiting to see me. One of them was a chap from home, while the other, though he called me by name, place him I could not. He asked me a lot of questions about down the shore, and then he told me who he was—DeQuetteville—I knew him then, as I remembered him when he worked for the Fruing Co. at Lamèque. He was inquiring about all the Gloucester people, and I suppose if he had not mentioned my name among the rest, I would have forgotten to write until dear knows when. He told me about the fellows that we both knew who were in the 23rd Battalion, now over here somewhere, and we both hope to run across them all some of these days.

Its over a year now since I left home. Up to Feb. 10th was in training either in Valcartier or in England. Left the last named place on Feb 19th and have been on the firing line ever since, except a few days and nights moving from place to place. While at Ypres our horses were kept within two hundred yards of the guns when the big battle was on. The Artillery suffered heavily both in horses and men, but the infantry takes the worst of it all through, and its wonderful what a man can stand through gas, shell, rifle and machine gun fire. No one knows only those of the infantry who have been through the mill what it is to face. The boys march to and from the trenches like going to and from their daily work. Nothing discourages them, they say the first trenches, baseball, football, cricket and swimming, along with all other sports, take up their attention. Quite a few of the boys who left last fall have gone under, and before it is through a lot more will fall. But why should anyone worry now, when we are all doing our little part for a just cause. It has rained pretty hard this last three days and most of us have pretty wet feet this evening, but we soon will roll in our blankets, and I, for one, don't care. They say the first four years of this campaign are to be the worst, but it may end as suddenly as it started. I do not know many of the Bathurst people, but around the coast I am better acquainted. Remember me to them all, and tell them that I am enjoying the best of health, and when I get back will have lots of stories to tell of my soldier life. I get all of the home papers every week, and it is amusing to read out here about the Caribou Creek bridge matter. DeQuetteville got all the papers when this was in, and will likely be back again one of these days for more. I wish I was in that country now, I believe I could get quite a number of recruits from around the shore. I see Bathurst is sending quite a few. Well, it is time to turn in now, so I will ring off for this time. Yours truly, A Driver of the 8th Canadian Battery.

CANADIANS WILL WEAR LARRIGANS

Tenders Now Being Called and Fredericton Firms Expect Share of Orders

In addition to an extra pair of boots for each soldier at the front and in England the Canadian department of militia is arranging to send them a supply of larrigans for use in trenches during wet weather. Tenders for these are now being called for. The two larrigan factories at Fredericton are the largest of their kind in Canada, and it is expected that a large share of the government order will be placed with them. This will mean a rush of work for the larrigan makers of Fredericton during the next few months.

OBITUARY

Belledune, N. B., Oct. 9.—After a brief illness of one week from paralysis, Mr. James Lorne, a much respected resident of Belledune, N. B. passed away at his residence here on Sunday morning. The deceased was born here 77 years ago, where all his life was spent. He was a member of St. Luke's Presbyterian church, having been elder for a number of years. He leaves to mourn his loss, a widow, two daughters, Mrs. Chas. Miller of Dalhousie and Ella at home, and two sons, Thos. and Walter, also at home; three brothers, Abram of Fort Fairfield, Me., William of Woodstock, and Robert of Bathurst, and three sisters Mrs. Harriet Doran of Winnipeg, Mrs. Woodside of Bathurst and Mrs. James Chalmers of this place.

The funeral was held on Tuesday, Oct. 12th at 10.30 a. m., service being conducted by Rev. W. McN. Matthews. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. Gordon Chalmers, Will F. Chalmers, J. Hamilton Chalmers, John Black, Chas. Miller and Robert Willis.

While at Ypres our horses were kept within two hundred yards of the guns when the big battle was on. The Artillery suffered heavily both in horses and men, but the infantry takes the worst of it all through, and its wonderful what a man can stand through gas, shell, rifle and machine gun fire. No one knows only those of the infantry who have been through the mill what it is to face. The boys march to and from the trenches like going to and from their daily work. Nothing discourages them, they say the first trenches, baseball, football, cricket and swimming, along with all other sports, take up their attention. Quite a few of the boys who left last fall have gone under, and before it is through a lot more will fall. But why should anyone worry now, when we are all doing our little part for a just cause. It has rained pretty hard this last three days and most of us have pretty wet feet this evening, but we soon will roll in our blankets, and I, for one, don't care. They say the first four years of this campaign are to be the worst, but it may end as suddenly as it started. I do not know many of the Bathurst people, but around the coast I am better acquainted. Remember me to them all, and tell them that I am enjoying the best of health, and when I get back will have lots of stories to tell of my soldier life. I get all of the home papers every week, and it is amusing to read out here about the Caribou Creek bridge matter. DeQuetteville got all the papers when this was in, and will likely be back again one of these days for more. I wish I was in that country now, I believe I could get quite a number of recruits from around the shore. I see Bathurst is sending quite a few. Well, it is time to turn in now, so I will ring off for this time. Yours truly, A Driver of the 8th Canadian Battery.

AN APPEAL

An English soldier, who is fighting the empire's battles in the trenches in France, has written to a Campbellton lady asking if it would be possible to secure a clarinet for him to assist in making life more pleasant for himself and companions in the trenches. Any one who has such an instrument might communicate with the Graphic and if it will be donated to a good cause, so much the better, or if a small price is placed on it arrangements might be made to purchase same. Now see who will be first.

REPORT NOT CORRECT

Some time ago a report was in circulation here that E. D. Young and Jas. Cantwell had been discharged and were coming home. The Secretary of the Patriotic Fund received word from Ottawa to this effect, but as there seemed no reason for such an action he wired the Militia authorities asking details of the matter. This has now been received and the department admits that an error has been made and that it was another E. D. Young, altogether who had been discharged.

THE TIMBER QUESTION

The Chatham World hits the nail squarely on the head when it says that a classification of the timber lands now that the timber limits have been fixed for a term of years, is nothing less than a waste of money. That is, if the object of the classification is to find out the value of the different lands and place a price upon them. If the object is to be the scientific treatment of these lands so that their value may be conserved and steps taken to guard the forest wealth of the province from useless waste, the sooner the classification is completed the better.

The great cost of a proper classification would hardly be justified at the present time unless it were intended to consider the framework done by Chief Butler Berry as merely a temporary arrangement, that may be properly adjusted when a bona fide classification is carried out and this practically means the cancellation of the leases as they were given. In view of the Government's recent action in cancelling the stumpage agreement made at the time the leases were under consideration, it would not be surprising if the Government's next step would be the cancellation of the leases, while the money paid in on their account would be held, pending a complete and proper classification of the lands. Unless some such action as this is taken, the Province will never get reasonable return for what has been given the present holders of timber licenses.

LET US HAVE ENGLISH

(New York Sun) This is the season for the opening of schools and colleges, and for that reason a humble plea for the English language may not be out of place. We make it shrinkingly, and with deferential regard to the profounder teachings of Professor Brander Matthews, who proclaims the grand principle that "everything goes". According to this "enlightened" authority language is made of the people, by the people and for the people, and hence what the people say is good and should therefore be admitted to academic society. At this time the people call a man a "guy", a woman a "skirt", and a dog a "mutt". Other samples of the speech of the people are not essential. The truth is that few can say anything in the old-fashioned direct way. All have become so accustomed to the use of slang that the common speech is no longer common; it is become a curiosity, relegated to the obscure haunts of the "highbrows" and treated with scorn by the workers of the world. While this undoubtedly gives much joy to Professor Brander Matthews, it saddens some old fogies, who mourn the departure of earlier and more elegant ways of speaking, as they mourn the decadence of earlier and better manners. Perhaps the two were unrelated, but they were at least companions.

Is it not probable that if the young ceased to call their elders "old guys" or "geezer", to refer to other people's mothers as "skirts" or "rags" and generally began to lift their terminology toward levels of a decorumless figurative, if more possible, they might also improve their manners? At any rate is there any overwhelming reason why the youth of this time should be almost wholly unacquainted with the plain English tongue and unable to say the simplest thing except in slang? It is a matter worthy of the consideration of those teachers and professors who may perhaps not agree with the Columbia sage that "everything goes."

RED CROSS APPEAL FOR HELP FOR THE WOUNDED SOLDIERS

To the Editor of The Graphic: Sir,—I have received the following cablegram from the Marquis of Lansdowne (who from 1883 to 1888 was governor-general of Canada) in his capacity as president of the British Red Cross Society:

"I beg to inform you that the British Red Cross Society and the Order of St. John, in view of the great demands upon their resources, both in France and in the Near East, have decided to make an appeal throughout the Empire by street and other collections upon October 21. The money received from this appeal will be devoted to relieving the sufferings of our wounded soldiers and sailors from home and overseas at the various seats of war. From all parts of the King's dominions we have already received generous assistance in our work, but in the increase of British and overseas forces at the front, there is a corresponding increase in our expenditures, and we shall be truly grateful if you will help us by organizing an appeal and sending us the proceeds for the objects I have named. I shall be greatly obliged if you will kindly communicate the foregoing to your government. Their Majesties the King and Queen and Her Majesty Queen Alexandra are giving us their gracious patronage, and I trust that you also will be able to see your way to help.

(Signed) "LANDSDOWNE, President of the British Red Cross Society, 83, Pall Mall, London."

I have also a telegram from His Royal Highness the Governor General, signifying his approval and endorsement of the appeal. I would request the members of the legislative assembly of the province of New Brunswick, the mayors of the cities and towns, the wardens of counties, and also the officers of all philanthropic societies, to co-operate in this work. The services of the ladies should especially be secured, and also the denominations to interest themselves in the success of this appeal and to give it publicity in their churches at the services on the 17th of October, inst. It will be noticed by the above cablegram that the annual of the British Red Cross Society is for "street and other collections" and the day fixed is "October 21". While it will be desirable to carry out these suggestions as far as possible, and secure uniformity throughout the Empire, it will be quite proper for any one who wishes to aid the cause, to do so in any way that is most convenient. Cities, towns, and smaller communities can each make arrangements regarding the collection as they consider will best secure the object aimed at in their locality. It has been decided that the money collected in this province will be remitted to the Lieutenant-Governor direct to the British Red Cross Society. Any information needed will be gladly given by Major Frink of St. John, who is president of the Provincial Red Cross Society, or the treasurer, Lady Tilley, or can be obtained by communicating with my office at Fredericton, JOSIAH WOOD, Sackville, (N. B.), Oct. 9.

THE STUDY OF CIVICS

(An address by Principal Henry Harvey Stuart of Douglastown, N. B., Superior School delivered at the Teachers' Institute at Bathurst, September 25, 1915.)

There is no more important subject than Civics on the public school curriculum. Its recent inclusion is a most favorable sign of the times, and the teacher who truly loves his country will do his best to present the subject intelligibly to his pupils.

The prescribed text (R. S. Jenkin's Canadian Civics) is an admirable one covering nearly all the points of importance and giving suggestions whereby the wide awake teacher is enabled to supplement the text. The aim of true Education being the development of good citizens, it follows that the study of Civics is absolutely necessary to that end, and that we have a book to guide us in teaching the subject.

Thomas Line, the college butler and verger at Eton, is retiring owing to the infirmity of old age. He has been in service at Eton for 62 years and has held his present position for the past 32 years.

When King Edward and Queen Alexandra had visited Eton, his Majesty spoke to Line under the Clock Tower, and inquired how long he had been at Eton, remarking, when Line told him, that it must be a record. Line naturally has recollections of many famous men. He is in his 79th year, and his wife is still living.

dividing it into Civics, great and small and noticing their different kinds of government. Then our Empire is similarly treated. The constitution and government of the Dominion of Canada is considered pretty exhaustively and in a manner to rivet the child's attention. The existence of political parties is explained, and the intricacies of political platforms, conventions and other meetings, the manner of selecting and nominating candidates, the way of voting, etc., are said here, and the duties and powers of each department of government are described.

The Chapter on Taxation and the National Debt is a good one. Its discussion of the tariff, protection and Free Trade is unbiased, and the way in which our government raises its revenue is made plain.

Following that of the Dominion comes an explanation of the Provincial system, then of the municipal. Then the procedure of Law Courts are described, then the Educational system, and the book closes with a few well chosen words on the duties of the citizen.

No adult should fail to read the text book, and no parent should allow his children to be deprived of its lessons.

The question arises as to when and how to teach it. No particular time being assigned, Civics is presumably authorized for all grades. The inclusion of Civics questions in the High School and Normal School Entrance Examinations this year indicate that pupils who do not study it in Grade VII, or Grade VIII, at the latest, will suffer by not doing so.

Civics can be taught in all grades, even the first. In this case we should not follow the order of the text, which begins at the outside and works towards the centre; the proper course when beginning with one of the higher grades, but should begin with what comes under the pupils own observation, working from that outwards to matters more general and abstract.

Yet Athens fell ignominiously, Why? Well, her citizens were all well-trained, but who were her citizens? No woman was a full citizen, and girls were not given the opportunity of obtaining the same education as a boy.

Women being kept in inferiority and ignorance, the mental and moral and even the physical stamina of the man finally deteriorated. And a very large proportion of the men, being slaves, broke down and passed off the stage.

Had Athens, in time, given equality of opportunity to ALL her people, her history might have been very different from what it is.

That nation will finally triumph which spends most money on, and takes most interest in, Education—if that Education be not only material but moral and spiritual as well. Democracies must learn to bear and forbear, to labor and to wait, hence their citizens must be wise.

Great national resources, a numerous population and unlimited wealth will not avail to save from destruction the nation that has not developed good citizenship. Ignorance is as dangerous to us as it ever was to the dead civilizations of former days.

Medical supervision of schools is authorized in every New Brunswick district and in operation in none.

Compulsory attendance at school is not, Why? Some people, ignorant of the principles of Civics, are indifferent to their children's Education, and make no struggle against the conditions that allow or compel them to leave school too early.

Others, who know the fatal effects of ignorance, and have the power to remedy the conditions that breed it, encourage the disregard of the law and frown upon any honest attempt to enforce it, because its non-enforcement enables them to obtain child labor cheap and thereby make great gain for themselves.

As the ancient democracies went down, largely because they denied equality of opportunity to a portion of their people, so must our institutions crumble and our power pass into other hands unless we see that all the boys and girls of our land have an equal opportunity in life—that no necessities of their parents that can be relieved by the State are allowed to stand between them and a good education—that they obtain the Education that will enable them not only to think clearly but to actually do things—that none be allowed to neglect the duties of life unskilled.

But the question arises: If all are trained in citizenship and become skilled workmen, who will do the hardest and dirtiest work hitherto done by the ignorant and unskilled? This question is easily answered. The hardest and dirtiest work; the doer of which is now the poorest paid and least respected, could be disposed of in anyone of three ways. Let each citizen do his own share, or let it be done by turn, or let the hardest and dirtiest work be accompanied by the highest pay and, if necessary, the highest honor. Let each child be taught that manual work is an honorable as any other and that the best citizen is he or she that is of most use in the community.

While the whole school curriculum is of value, and few, if any, subject could be profitably dropped, Civics is an essential study that cannot be neglected without seriously endangering the stability of the nation and inviting disaster.

THE RISE OF A "DOWN AND OUT"

This is a story of fact, of the marvellous workings of the grace of God in the human heart and on the human life.

The superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of the State of Washington, U.S.A., is George D. Conger. When a mere boy of six years, it was noticed by the family that George had the alcohol appetite. Left alone in the house one Sunday, he drank a bottle of wine he took from a closet, and when the family returned from church they found him drunk upon the floor.

During the next ten years, in company with other boys of his age, he occasionally visited saloons in the little country town. They satisfied his appetite for drink. This appetite, he says, was unlike that of the drunkard who is deprived of his cups, but was more like the childish cravings for candy and sweet fruits.

At fifteen, he was sent to a college preparatory school. There was a state law forbidding the sale of liquor to minors, but Conger declares he has often seen the saloons full of boys at midnight.

After a year in the school he lost all desire for an education, and there grew up in him an abnormal passion to be amused and to see the world. In the meantime his father died, leaving the lad ample means. He went into business, where he made a large income. But before he was thirty, he had dissipated his inheritance and wasted his income on liquor. His health, too, became seriously impaired.

Here members of his family came to his rescue. Thinking to save him, they placed him on a ranch in a prohibition State. He remained two years, abstaining from liquor, but longing for it every minute of the day and dreaming of it by night.

His health being improved, he went to an eastern city, where, had he kept up his abstinence, he would have made a fortune. Success in business brought him high honor in the commercial world.

But the lure of drink close at hand was too strong for him, and again he went to ruin. For two years his family knew nothing of his whereabouts. During much of that time he was a fisherman along the Atlantic coast and invariably drunk when in port.

Finally discovered by his brother, Conger was persuaded to take a medical cure for inebriety under an eminent physician. Thereafter he refrained from liquor for eighteen months.

In the meantime his family endeavored to find the cause for his disposition to drink. The only clue was that offered by his sister, who remembers that the mother, before George's birth, had been given beer on the advice of her physician. This prenatal influence clearly was to blame for the appetite with which the young man was cursed.

After taking the treatment, Conger went to Chicago to resume his business. Though he abstained, the craving for liquor was such that he could neither eat nor sleep. He became emaciated and weak.

One day, while sitting in the Palmer House, he was greeted by a former business acquaintance who remarked on his evident physical condition, and suggested whiskey and quinine as a remedy. Conger straightway bought the whiskey, but never took the quinine. It took him a year and a half to complete that debacle. At its end his resources were exhausted. Occasionally he sobered up, but if he tasted or smelled liquor he took more and more of it until delirium came.

The only work he could get was that of saloon porter, which provided him with board and lodging; and to get money for liquor he did any odd job that came.

Conger was now thirty-eight years old, bankrupt in purse and character, wrecked in reputation and health. To get money for drink he engaged in every sort of evil except taking life. Then he lost his job in the saloons.

On a February Sunday night, when the mercury stood at twenty-six degrees below zero, Conger was sick, poverty-stricken, hungry, a homeless tramp. In a fortnight he had eaten five meals. His only lodging was a filthy hovel, two blocks from a fine church. He had ten cents in his pocket with which to buy the drink he knew he must have or die. To get that ten cents he had sold his only shirt!

Half frozen, starving, in delirium, he wandered aimlessly along until he came to the church whereon he saw a sign inviting everyone into the meeting then being held. He stopped. He thought how every remedy known to physician and friend had failed to relieve him. Religion was a thing he had never tried. Was there, after all, something in it?

Conger then and there made up his mind that he would put the Almighty to the test. Entering the church he sat down in the back seat. The preacher said in his discourse that no matter how far down a man had gone, God would help him if he would but turn about face. Then he invited anyone in the congregation who wished to turn about to raise his hand.

Conger attempted to raise his hand but couldn't. Then he prayed: "O God, if indeed there is a God, help me to turn about and live a good life. If you'll do that I'll serve you as long as I live and tell others my story."

THE ONLY GENTLE SEAM-READY IN TOWN

PILES FOR 15 YEARS

Cured by Zam-Buk

To those who suffer from this painful malady the following letters will be of deep interest. Mr. J. McEwen, of Dundas, Ont., writes: "For fifteen years I suffered with piles and could get no permanent cure until I tried Zam-Buk. After having given Zam-Buk a fair trial I found I was getting better, and in the end it completely cured me."

Mr. James Ruddy, of Killaloe, Ont., says: "I suffered greatly from piles. The pain from these, as anyone who suffers from them will know, was at times almost unbearable. I tried first one remedy and then another, but all without effect. The piles still continued as bad as ever. I heard about Zam-Buk and commenced with the treatment. To my great joy, after perseverance, I obtained relief from the agonizing pain of the piles. Having been cured by Zam-Buk I heartily recommend the balm to all sufferers from piles."

Why not end your suffering? Take the advice of the hundreds who have done so and give Zam-Buk a fair trial. This marvellous remedy quickly relieves the suffering, it soothes and heals the inflamed, irritated hemorrhoid veins, and perseverance with Zam-Buk effects permanent cures.

Every home needs Zam-Buk—accidents will happen, and Zam-Buk is the best "first aid." It quickly takes the sting out of a cut, the fire out of a burn or scald, the soreness from a bruise, blood-poison or other conditions that cannot be seen in where Zam-Buk has been applied. It is a sure cure for piles, eczema, ulcers, children's scabs, sores, varicose veins, cold cracks, chapped hands, etc. 50c at all druggists and stores, or post-paid from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse substitutes and harmful imitations.

The prayer was answered. Strength to lift the hand was given. Then somehow motion was given the feet, and up the aisle went the poor drunkard. The pews were occupied by hundreds of the aristocratic citizens of the city. The poor man, reaching the pulpit railing, knelt in front of it and cried, "God save me!"

Six hundred pounds a week is being spent by the fund providing bands for recruiting in London. Recently it was decided at a meeting at the Mansion House to expend up to 10 per cent. of the money collected to provide grants to the provincial bands. London has now eleven bands.

WOMAN SUFFERED TEN YEARS

From Female Ills—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Belleville, N.S., Canada.—"I doctored for ten years for female troubles and did not get well. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. I write now to tell you that I am cured. You can publish my letter as a testimonial."

Another Woman Recovers. Auburn, N.Y.—"I suffered for nervousness for ten years, and had such organic pains that sometimes I would lie in bed four days at a time, could not eat or sleep and did not want anyone to talk to me or bother me at all. Sometimes I would suffer for seven hours at a time. Different doctors did the best they could for me until four months ago I began giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and now I am in good health."

The above are only two of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which show clearly what great things Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for those who suffer from woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDEUFF. Girls! Try! It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful with a 25 cent bottle of Danderine. If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scrub robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots thicken, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Mr. Dripps, a Presbyterian minister in the Province of New Brunswick. Here also the first marriage ceremony was performed and the first baptism solemnized. It is the oldest house in New Carlisle, and so far as can be ascertained it is well on to two hundred years since it was built by Vandon Veldou, a Dutchman for himself, out of logs. He also surveyed the town, laying it out in four acre lots. At one time this house was the residence of Governor Cox, who presided over the affairs of the Gaspé District, after whom the township was named. The court met up-stairs; there was no jail in those days. Summary Justice was meted out to a man who had been found guilty of theft. The spot is still pointed out, near the corner of the house, where he was publicly flogged. The house is still in good repair—very quaint, but quite habitable. For many years it was the residence of the Misses Sarah and Martha Caldwell, whose memory is still green in the hearts of all who knew them. The house is now the property of Mr. Arthur Caldwell, Secretary-Treasurer of Protestant schools for municipalities—this act being followed of the house U. E. Loyalist. The first church was built about the year 1817, through the joint efforts of the Presbyterian and Anglicans. Later, the present Presbyterian church was also built. # SPLENDID NEW ACADEMY AT NEW CARLISLE FORMALLY OPENED ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2ND.

Large Attendance of Teachers and Others—Pleasant and Inspiring Addresses—Brief History of New Carlisle

By Margaret Grant MacWhirter.

Beautifully situated on the Bay de Chaleur, about thirty miles from its mouth is New Carlisle, the County seat of Bonaventure. The rising land, known as "The Mountain" is at least two miles at the rear of the town. A delightful drive leads to the back of the mountain from whence a magnificent view, extending fully ten miles is obtained—the Roman Catholic Church at Bonaventure being plainly visible. A mile below the town is the road leading to the "Lakes"—three in number: the Black or Little, White and Long Lakes. The latter is the largest, and the water is beautifully clear, the pebbles at the bottom being discernible. Black Lake receives its name from the dark colour of the mud at the bottom. Current report affirms that "if you get down there, you'll stick". In strong contrast is White Lake, which extends from near the end of Black Lake. The bottom is a white clay or marl, which makes an excellent white-wash. These lakes are divided from each other by a ridge of sand. Trout are plentiful, and many a boy's sport has been enjoyed angling for the coveted beauties. Black Lake sends its way into Bay de Chaleur by way of Nouvelle River, ten miles east of New Carlisle.

New Carlisle was settled by United Empire Loyalists, who at the close of the war of Independence preferred the hardships of a new country rather than separate from British rule and institutions.

So far as I have been able to ascertain these pioneers settled here about a court-house and jail, town hall, several stores, lawyers' and doctors' offices and two hotels. Best of all New Carlisle has set an example to other places in its attitude to the Temperance question: the traffic and sale of intoxicants being prohibited in the municipality—this act being followed later by County prohibition.

There are many snug, comfortable residences situated in the midst of tastefully kept grounds.

Three miles below the village and reached by a beautiful drive is Paspébiac, the headquarters of the firm of Robin, Jones & Whitman (popularly known as C. R. C's) and of the Le Boulillier Co.

New Carlisle has a good wharf and harbour for shipping. It is also the divisional point for the trains of the Quebec and Ontario Railway going west to Matapédia, and the Atlantic, Quebec and Western Railway going east to Gaspé Basin. A splendid new up-to-date station has been erected. Here are also the shops, etc., belonging to the railway. Under the able management of Chas. R. Scobles, Esq., these railways give splendid service to the residents of the Gaspé Peninsula. The dream of long years has been realized and to-day the inhabitants of this far-eastern corner of Canada are in close connection with the great centres.

along this coast from Matapédia to Gaspé and beyond, and I must not forget the children who have come to represent the pupils of these schools, and who, I hope, when they go back will convey to their fellow pupils a good message of what they have seen at New Carlisle and will tell them of the great opportunity that lies here for all the children from these two counties who wish to avail themselves of it.

Before I proceed any further I would like to read to you the message which, as Chairman of the School Board, I have received from His Lordship the Bishop of Quebec.

Bishopthorpe, Quebec,
27th September, 1915.

My dear Mr. Bouillon:

"Again I have to express my keen regret at being unable to accept your friendly invitation to be present at the postponed ceremony in connection with the formal opening of the New Carlisle Academy. I have just returned from Toronto. On Friday next, the 1st October, I have to be in Montreal at an important meeting of the Protestant Committee of the Council of Public Instruction. On Sunday next, the 3rd October, I am to administer Ordination to the priesthood in the Cathedral, Quebec, so you will see that it is impossible for me to be with you, much as I should like to do so, but I shall certainly have some one to represent me on the occasion which I hope will pass off with unequalled success. With kindest regards and best wishes.

Yours very sincerely,
Lennox, Quebec.

and yesterday evening I received the following telegram from His Lordship:

"Have asked Rev. I. N. Kerr to represent me. Best wishes and benediction for new Academy."

I would also like to read to you the message received from the Department of Public Instruction, Quebec.

School Commissioners of the Municipality of the Township of Cox, Paspébiac, P. Q.

Dear Sir:

I have received your letter fixing Saturday the 2nd October, as the date of the school opening.

I regret very much to inform you that an engagement of an most imperative nature makes it impossible for me to accept your kind invitation to be present at the opening of the New Carlisle Academy on Saturday.

However, in order to show the real interest which the Department has in your educational efforts, I am sending Mr. J. C. Sutherland, Inspector General of Protestant Schools, to represent the Department in my place.

Yours very truly,
for Superintendent.

I feel that I must express the thanks of the School Board and of its Special Committee to Miss Blompin, Lady Principal, and to the teachers of the New Carlisle Academy as also to the teachers of the West Paspébiac Model School, and of the Country school, and especially of all the schools, for their endeavors and kind co-operation to make this occasion of the opening of the New Academy a success and a memorable event.

Also to Wm. Scobles, General Manager of our local railways, I cannot too greatly express our thanks for the great kindness and co-operation which he has extended to our committee in making special arrangements for train service to and from Gaspé and Matapédia for this occasion and for providing free transportation for all the teachers and for one pupil from each school.

I shall now present an address from the English speaking population of the Gaspé coast to the Honorable the Provincial Treasurer.

(Address presented)

Before I ask the Honorable Mr. Mitchell to address you, the Honorable John Hall Kelly, who has very kindly acted with me on the Special Committee of the School Commissioners, will address you and present a petition to the Hon. Mr. Mitchell and to Mr. Bujéaud, M.P.M., but before I ask him to proceed, I feel that I cannot let this opportunity pass without expressing to the Hon. Mr. Kelly our deep appreciation of the keen interest that he has always taken in our schools and I must add that very largely to this interest on his part and to his endeavor, is due the great advancement that has been made here in the matter of education. During the time he represented this County in the Legislature at Quebec, through his untiring efforts, we were enabled to lay the worthy foundation of what we have today of a branch of that great institution "Education", the result of which cannot but be felt more and more as time goes on.

Personally I wish to express to this Honorable gentleman my deep appreciation of his great kindness in having undertaken, I will say, the "lion's share" of the extensive preparations which devolved upon the Committee for this auspicious occasion.

Hon. John Hall Kelly was the next speaker, and in his usual happy and forcible manner gave a very interesting and instructive address.

After many complimentary remarks respecting the Hon. Walter Mitchell and his father Hon. Senator Mitchell he paid a tribute to the rural teacher, remarking that hers was the hand that rules the destiny of the country. He urged upon parents the necessity of co-operation with the teacher in her arduous task. Then he graphically related the history of the building of the new Academy. He realized that the modest request presented to him by the School Commissioners for $500 to repair the old schoolhouse was not giving the people of Bonaventure an educational opportunity, and how finally the School Board of New Carlisle decided to erect an Academy. The matter was taken up by the Ministry on the coast, his Lordship, the late Bishop Dunn and himself, and every effort had been made, till finally the Academy was an assured fact, costing the sum of $20,000. He had been able out the folly of English and French continuing to talk religious and national partyism. Then on behalf of the Government and Mrs. Mitchell he thanked the audience for their genuine welcome.

After singing "Rule Britannia", Mr. F. Bujéaud gave a very good address. Like his predecessors he paid a high tribute to the teachers and pupils. Mr. Bujéaud expressed himself as always ready to help in the persuasion of the government to grant money for the payment of the debt on the Academy. He made a strong plea on behalf of education.

Rev. I. N. Kerr, representing His Lordship, the Bishop of Quebec made an earnest address along the lines of co-operation between teachers, parents and children, urging the first to realize their high calling, and the last the great privilege which was theirs to acquire knowledge.

Mr. J. C. Sutherland, Inspector General of Schools for Province Quebec, represented the Superintendent of Public Instruction. He reminded his audience that a demonstration like this present one coming from the hearts of the people reached the heart of the observer. But beyond all, and most touching was the children's march along the streets and into the building. He assured them that their interests were being watched by the Superintendent, that his attention had been particularly drawn to this part of the province by the reports of the local Inspector. The effort being made by increased salaries to secure competent teachers had met with his approval. He also made reference to the new course of study.

Rev. J. M. Sutherland's short but good address came next—he spoke along the line of progress.

Addresses were also given by Rev. Messrs. Vibert, Love and Gomery, all wishing success to the new Academy.

On motion it was unanimously resolved by the teachers and pupils that a very hearty and grateful vote of thanks be tendered Hon. Mr. Mitchell, Mr. J. C. Sutherland, Hon. Mr. Kelly, Mr. C. H. Scobles, Mr. F. Bujéaud, the Inspectors of Gaspé and Bonaventure, the school-board and the people of New Carlisle for this day's enjoyment, marking as it does an epoch in the educational advancement of the Gaspé Peninsula.

Evidently Hon. John Hall Kelly has not forgotten the little boys may grow weary sitting still, and so gave them an opportunity to make a legitimate noise. The building rang again and again with the loud and hearty cheers for one and all who had participated in the day's proceedings, and helped to make it the success it proved to be.

As was wittily remarked by one speaker "Mr. Kelly could hold the train till the meeting was over, but he could not prevent the sun going down" and as it was already far down in the west, this most eventful day in the history of the Gaspé Peninsula came to a close with the "National Anthem, the crowd dispersed.

The results of the day will be far-reaching in the strengthening of the bonds of brotherly love and national feeling between all classes and creed.

MAIN STREET, LOOKING EAST, NEW CARLISLE

A. D. 1780. Among these brave and loyal people were the Caldwelles, Adams, Sherrars, Beboes, and Stearns. William Adams, grandfather of Wm. M. Sheppard, Esq., High Sheriff of Co. Bonaventure was the first male child, and Susan Dobson (afterwards Mrs. Lenfesty of Percé) the first female child born in the new settlement.

These settlers were liberally supplied with Agricultural implements and provisions for three years. Fish also was abundant, and wood plentiful, and so the new colonists had for the most part a not too uncomfortable existence.

Among the pioneers was Robert Caldwell from Salem, Mass. He continued his occupation of building vessels. He lived in the house, shown in the small photograph. The first sermon was preached to the new colony by Rev. Mr. Dripps, a Presbyterian minister in the parish of this house. Here also the first marriage ceremony was performed and the first baptism solemnized. It is the oldest house in New Carlisle, and so far as can be ascertained it is well over two hundred years since it was built by Vondon Veldon, a Dutchman for himself, out of logs. He also surveyed the town, laying it out in four acre lots. The first church was built about the year 1817, through the joint efforts of the Presbyterian and Anglicans. Later, the present Presbyterian Church was also built.

To-day there are churches in which the Presbyterian, Anglican and Roman Catholic congregation worship, also the road leads through a section of Canada almost unrivaled for beauty. Anyone wishing to spend a pleasant and profitable holiday can do no better than take a trip on this railway. The scenery, the historical and legendary character, combined with the hospitality of the inhabitants will long remain pleasant memory.

Ever long schools became a necessity in the new settlement, and it would be interesting to tell about those first schools and the school-masters in whose august presence the unluckyurchins trembled for unprepared tasks, and other youthful pranks. But this is not possible in this article. I must pass over the years and tell something about the present; the demonstration in New Carlisle on Saturday, Oct. 2nd, when the formal opening of the new Academy was inaugurated.

The weather was everything that could be desired. Likewise the building in attendance were all in holiday attire and temper. Everything passed satisfactorily—not a hitch in the proceedings spoiled the day's programme. Mr. Chas. R. Scobles, manager of the Gaspé Railways has shown in a very practical manner the high valuation he places upon all Educational efforts. He generously presented free transportation to all the Protestant teachers and one pupil in every school in the Counties of Gaspé and Bonaventure. Also, to all others desiring to attend the opening, special excursion tickets were granted. It will be long ere the grateful feelings excited by this kind and liberal act of the General Manager will be forgotten in the school districts of the Peninsula of Gaspé. A great crowd of teachers, parents, pupils and friends of all ages availed themselves of the opportunity to visit the shiretown, and see what was going on. One example will suffice. At New Richmond alone, fully fifty persons boarded the already well-filled coaches of the train going east.

The east-bound train arrived first, and the delegates were met at the station by Hon. John Hall Kelly, Rev. J. M. Sutherland, Inspector of Protestant Schools, as General representative of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of this Province.

The Rev. Wm. Sutherland, Inspector of Schools in this County.

Several members of the Protestant clergy of this County and of the County of Gaspé.

Members of the School Boards of both Counties, who have come to represent the guardians of Education on whose endeavors so much depends its progress.

Teachers from the different schools of the Township of Cox, Paspébiac, P. Q.

The Peps way of treating coughs, colds, bronchitis and lung and throat troubles. How? Well, up to now people with these chest and throat troubles have swallowed cough mixtures, sickly syrups and the like, into their stomachs. Some lungs and throat get no good by doing the stomach. Peps work differently. Peps are tablets made up of Pine extracts and medicinal essences, which when put into the mouth turn into healing vapors. These are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes—not swallowed down to the stomach, which is not ailing. Try a 50c. box of Peps for your cold, your cough, bronchitis or asthma. All druggists and stores or Peps Co., Toronto, will supply.

PORT DANIEL

The Bishop of Rimouski visited this parish on the 26th and 27th Sept. The new chime of bells was blessed on Sunday evening, and confirmation was administered on Monday.

Letters received recently show that some of our soldier boys have already reached the front and have had their turn in the trenches.

J. J. MacPherson, who has completed his fourth year in medicine at McGill, has returned for the final year. There is no doctor here, and when the roads get bad it will be a serious matter in case of an urgent call. We hope the Board of Health will try to secure a resident doctor.

Miss Sarah Miller has left for an extended visit in Sayabec and Montreal.

Mrs. Cole and children and Mrs. Doran of Montreal have been visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. John Bisson. Mrs. Doran returned to the city on Saturday.

Miss LeGallais, model teacher, spent Sunday at home in Paspébiac. Leslie Bisson has returned from the West.

Cecil Miller is spending a few days with friends in Paspébiac. James McKenzie was called to Dalhousie to attend the bedside of his aunt, Mrs. Blundie, who was suddenly taken seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan are enjoying a visit from their son Richard, who has been absent thirty-four years.

Miss Evelyn Dow, teacher at Fontenelle, spent Sunday with her parents. Mrs. Herbert Journeau was in Gascons on Sunday, visiting Miss Susan Chedore.

Percy Bisson and mother, Miss Caldwell and Mrs. Love motored to Gascons for service in St. Philip's church on Sunday, Sept. 26th. On their return they had tea at the parsonage.

Mrs. Flowers of New Carlisle is with her daughter Mrs. John Beebe. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McKenzie of Shigawake and Mrs. Casey and daughter of St. Godfroi visited James McKenzie on Sunday.

Edgar Lawrence returned from the West on Monday. J. C. Meredith of New Richmond is painting at Eddie Sweetman's.

Potato digging and threshing are in order this week. The grain is turning out very well, but the potato crop is not as good as usual.

Mrs. C. C. Hyde of Newcastle, Ind., recently missed a diamond set out of a ring. After diligent search about the home the set was given up as lost. A few mornings ago pancakes were served for breakfast. One member of the family found something hard in his mouth and on examination it proved to be the lost diamond.

MORE RECRUITS
Lieut. G. A. Wallace, who spent Thanksgiving at his home here enlisted through more men for the 55th. They were Thos. Andrew, Campbellton, Claude Baillie, Escuminac and John Montgomery, New Carlisle. These men, together with a number of absentees from the 55th last Tuesday night for Vancouver. It is expected that a number of men in this vicinity who have overstayed their leave will be arrested and sent to the regimental headquarters to stand trial as deserters.

A UNIQUE POSTOFFICE
Among Canada's thousands of post-offices there is one that is said to be the only double postoffice in the world. The office is half in Canada and half in the United States, with Beets, Quebec, on one side and Beebe, Vermont, on the other.
An iron post in the middle of the front porch marks the international boundary line. Aside from its location the building is of interest on account of the material from which it is built, which is granite, native to the locality, and of account of its age.

BOOMING THE CIRCULATION
(Hartford, Ark., Observer.)
"If the young man who was seen Sunday evening kissing his best girl while standing at the front gate will subscribe for The Observer before the next pressday, no further mention will be made of the matter." Next week the Observer announced that several hundred names had been added to its subscription list.

DUNCAN PATTERSON
(From the Gloucester Northern Light)
After a short illness of pneumonia, Duncan Patterson, for many years a well known citizen of East Bathurst died on Saturday night. The funeral on Monday afternoon was under Orange auspices, and was very large. Rev. W. McN. Matthews officiated at the religious services, and interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery at West Bathurst.

DANIEL REARDON
(From the Gloucester Northern Light)
North Teteogueche lost one of its oldest and most respected residents last Wednesday when Mr. Daniel Reardon passed away at the age of 74. The funeral on Friday morning was largely attended, Requiem Mass being celebrated in the Holy Family Church by Rev. Mgr. Varrilly, and interment being made in the Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. F. J. Power, James Carter, Thos. Salter, Patrick Brennan, Patrick Dempsey and Daniel Dempsey.

As a part of the work put upon him by the war, United States Ambassador Page, in London, has been hunting up American youths who have enlisted in the British Army and seeing that anxious parents in the United States have them back home again. Taken all together it is a fair estimate that 5,000 Americans are now in the trenches to help the Allies defeat the Germans. As a matter of fact, the number may be far above that. One estimate based in London was that 7,500 Americans were enlisted under the British and French colors.

We are better prepared than ever now the most up-to-date search of Moncton. Good paper, with least workmanship combined to make first class printing. Our prices are as low as the city offers.

SHIGAWAKE
Mrs. A. J. Vibert returned home on Monday after having accompanied her mother, Mrs. J. M. Scott for her home in Riviere du Loup, and having spent a few days at Runnymede the guest of Miss Maude Lodge.
The Rev. I. N. Kerr together with Mrs. Kerr return this week to Hatley. The Anglican Ladies' Guild here hopes to have their annual Harvest Festival and Supper next week. The Rev. H. Conery has promised to be the special preacher for the occasion.

Miss R. E. Hamilton, Miss Jennie Ida LeGallais and Mr. C. Jacobson returned on Monday from New Carlisle. Mr. Jas. McKenzie, Jr., left on Monday for Dalhousie, N. B., where he expects to spend the winter.
Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Beaulieu have left the Coast for Montreal, where the Doctor expects to practice in future.

Among others we noticed the following parties left here on Monday the 11th for the Harvest Service and Supper at Port Daniel i. e. the Rev. A. J. and Mrs. Vibert, Miss Jennie LeGallais, Miss R. E. Hamilton, Miss Grace Sullivan, Mr. Wm. Smith, Mr. Alfred Enright, Mr. Arthur Smith, all enjoyed both the service and supper and hope that quite a number will be up from Port Daniel for the one here.

The hump of a camel is regarded as a choice morsel of food in Arabia.
GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD
Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.
Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.
