MINERS UNANIMOUSLY DECIDE TO STAY OUT TILL THEY WIN

This Is the Result of the First Mine-Workers' Meeting Held in the Anthracite Field.

More Unsolicited Advice Offered for the President.

IS URGED TO FOLLOW LINCOLN

Proposal That Federal Power Seize Mines and Operate Them—Byron Heard From.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 7.—In accordance with the address issued by President Mitchell last night calling upon all local unions to meet and to take a vote on the question of remaining on strike, the mine workers of the Prospect, Oakdale and Midvale collieries of the Lehigh Coal Company held a meeting in this city today. At its conclusion it was announced that the men unanimously decided to stay out in a body until they had won the strike. This is the first meeting held in the anthracite field under the instructions of President Mitchell.

DISPOSITION OF TROOPS.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 7.—Major-General Miller has ordered Lieut.-Col. Elliot, assistant adjutant-general of the division, on duty at the adjutant-general's office in this city, to direct the movements of the National Guard.

Lieut.-Col. Elliot expects to have every command in the state in the strike territory before midnight. The guard will be distributed over the anthracite regions to protect non-union men who desire to work and to suppress riots if they should occur.

General Miller and Adjutant-General Stewart went to Washington today to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R.

The canvas and other camp equipment for the soldiers was loaded on a special train last night and will be sent to the strike territory as soon as Lieut.-Col. Elliot disposes of the troops. General Gobin returned to Shenandoah this morning.

Governor Stone declines to make any statement about his having ordered the troops out. He says the formal orders explain the situation fully.

40,000 TONE OF SCOTTISH COAL.

London, Oct. 7.—The Scotch coal masters are in receipt of numerous urgent inquiries for the prompt shipment of coal to New York and Philadelphia, and they are arranging freightage for 40,000 tons. The most urgent demand is for anthracite, for which American buyers now have to pay $4 12 per ton, against $3 12 which they refused to pay a month ago. The demands for steam coal are also so numerous that some of the masters have withdrawn their current price list.

The steel trade fears that there will be prejudicial effects on business from the higher prices created by America's wants.

ABE LINCOLN'S EXAMPLE

President Urged to Follow It in the Present Crisis.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 7.—After one of the hottest debates in the history of the city's municipal boards, the aldermen last night passed a resolution to be sent to President Roosevelt. It calls upon the President "to immediately declare the coal lands public property, after due compensation, and to have them held so and worked by the Government, just as Abraham Lincoln rose superior to a greater difficulty in emancipating the slaves."

A committee will be sent to the Detroit convention on Oct. 9.

W. J. BRYAN HEARD FROM.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 7.—In a statement made last evening W. J. Bryan says President Roosevelt should be commended for his efforts to settle the miners' strike. He suggests, however, that since the operators decline to arbitrate, the President's hands are tied and urges him to call an extra session of Congress. Five measures, Mr. Bryan said, should be raised for passage. Summarized, these are, in Mr. Bryan's language:

"A law establishing a national board of arbitration, consisting of three to five members, to consider and report on all controversies between corporations engaged in interstate commerce and their employes; a law abolishing government by injunction; a law that will discriminate between the natural made man, created by the Almighty, and the corporate giant, created by legislation; a law taking the tariff off coal; a law which will prevent railroads engaged in interstate commerce from operating coal mines except for the purpose of supplying fuel for their own engines."

SOLDIERS ARE UNDER ARMS IN NEW YORK STATE TOWN

Sandy Hill, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Following the orders of Governor Odell last evening calling out the entire Second Regiment to protect the Hudson Valley Electric Railway, on account of the strike of the motormen, two of the twelve companies of the regiment have arrived. They are company K., of the Glans Falls, and G., of Gloversville.

Last evening stones were thrown through car windows and a passenger was struck and slightly injured. George Borgeau, of Glens Falls, when ordered to move on, hesitated, and was pushed by a private of Company K. Borgeau fell, and was injured on the back of the head. His condition is critical.

The alleged rioters arrested Saturday night are out on bail of $2,000 each. Motorman Myers was arrested and locked up. He is said to have flourished a revolver. There has been no disturbance today in Sandy Hill.

NEW ORLEANS IN THE THROES OF SERIOUS LABOR CONFLICT

New Orleans, Oct. 7.—Violence started with the first attempt of the railway company to carry out the order of the mayor to run its cars today. Just before 7 o'clock the company started out three cars from the barns on Canal street. On each car, manned by a non-union motorman, there was a large force of policemen. Large crowds of strikers and sympathizers were on the streets. When the cars reached Miro street, the tracks were blockaded and when they came to a stop the crowd made an attack. Wire and ropes were cut and the cars were boarded. A pistol shot was fired and the non-union motormen attacked. One of them was badly cut. The police seemed unable to cope with the situation.

When the rioting spent itself three cars were left standing upon the track guarded by policemen. All the windows in them were smashed, and they were otherwise damaged. F. H. Scheenick, of Chicago, a conductor, was the man most badly beaten. The mob of strikers captured Scheenick and his motorman and both consented to join the union. Some of the policemen were hurt by flying stones. The indications are that the company has imported a number of men from other cities.

The mayor has called a meeting of the police board for the purpose, it is thought, of swearing in emergency policemen. High officers of the militia are in the city and are preparing themselves in the event of a call for troops.

LAURIER SPEAKS OF THE FUTURE

Predicts That Canada Will Be Britain's Granary in Course of a Decade or Two.

Liverpool, Oct. 7.—Premier Laurier, of Canada, opened the new produce exchange here today, prior to sailing tomorow for home. In his speech he alluded to the expansion of the Canadian produce trade, and dwelt on the success assured to men of muscle and business capacity who would go to Canada and occupy the vast territories there which were still unpeopled.

The Premier also said that in the course of the next decade or two Canada would be able to meet Great Britain's total grain requirements, thus ensuring her against a shortage in war time.

Mr. A. R. Macdonald, contractor for the Government railway to Temiskaming, was in the city yesterday, and from there went to Montreal. He will be on the ground on Wednesday to make arrangements for going on with the work. He expects to have the first 60 miles built within a year and to complete the whole line within two years.

THE WAR OFFICE AND INTRIGUES

Petticoat Influence Said To Be Responsible for Many Otherwise Inexplicable Moves.

London, Oct. 7.—When Sir Michael Hicks-Beach made his caustic reference to the pressure of outside influence upon the War Office the conclusion generally drawn was that high society had been protecting some of its favorites. Thec harge has caused intense irritation in official circles, and there is a disposition on the part of military men in Parliament to ask the former chancellor of the exchequer for a bill of particulars, and Mr. Brodrick will be subjected to a severe cross-examination during the question hour as soon as Parliament assembles.

PETTICOAT INFLUENCE.

Meanwhile there are rumors that the outside influence of which Sir Michael Hicks-Beach compained was exerted by society ladies in general, and by one in particular. It was notorious during the early months of the Boer war that there were drawingroom cliques favoring and opposing certain generals, and that petticoat intrigues were causing much mischief. Gossip is now more definite, and mysteries like the appointment of Gen. Buller to the command of an army corps, after his failures and incompetency in the field had been demonstrated, are attributed to the influence and intervention of a lady whose prestige was great in Vanity Fair. Talk of a similar nature about the protection received by Lord Methuen is irresponsible.

METHUEN AND BULLER.

While Lord Methuen was a Guards general, he was not a society soldier, but was devoted to the service and a hard worker in the field. General Buller had the entire Aldershot clique and the West End of London behind him when he went to South Africa, and his social partisans were fighting his battle to the end.

LABOR LEADER'S WILD REMARKS

Advises Every Working Man to Learn to Shoot.

LINEHAN DEPRECATES ANARCHY

Yet Calls Upon Members of Federation of Labor to Join National Guard to Learn Marksmanship.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—"Learn to shoot" is the advice given the members of organized labor by James J. Linehan, a member of the carpenters' union, in discussing the failure of the negotiations at the White House to end the anthracite miners' strike. A committee, consisting of Bishop Fallows, Miss Jane Addams, Justice Miles Kehoe, Prof. Graham Taylor, John C. Harding and Harry McCormack, representing the committee of 100, attended yesterday's meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor, where Bishop Fallows gave a short account of his visit to the anthracite region, and announced that a mass meeting would be held next Sunday night, at which he would make a complete report.

PRAISES THE PRESIDENT.

Delegate Linehan, in the course of a fiery speech, in which he said that he did not doubt the honesty of purpose and the courage of President Roosevelt, declared that it was necessary to give to the laborers of this country the advice given the British by Kipling, in which he said, "Learn to shoot." "It is not my purpose," continued Delegate Linehan, "to make an anarchistic speech, but I do say that it would be well for us to follow the advice of Mr. Kipling and learn to shoot. I want every man to join the union of his craft and the National Guard. In the ranks of organized labor he will learn how to vote to his best interests, and in the National Guard or State militia he will learn how to shoot.

"President Roosevelt means to do well with labor. The man who led the charge up the San Juan hill has courage, and when he told the First Regiment to seize the first commissary wagon that came along and thereby prevent starvation he showed that he had the proper humanity in his make-up. But I am afraid that he can do but little, and that little only by moral suasion and appeal to the patriotism of the mine owners and coal roads. You read in yesterday's papers how much patriotism and the like those fellows have in their make-up. As I said in the beginning, I do not intend to make an anarchistic speech. Their action, or rather their failure to act on the suggestion of President Roosevelt Friday, will make more anarchists than all the speeches that can be delivered by members of organized labor all over the country, were they inclined to make them.

PREDICTS CIVIL WAR.

"But we, as members of organized labor, can do something. We must do something. Our weapon is the ballot box. Let us use it, and for the benefit of labor as against those who want to crush labor. My idea in suggesting that we take the advice of Kipling is not that I want you to go out, learn to shoot, and then shoot down every man who is opposed to us, but I want you to join the National Guard for the purpose of becoming drilled in the art of warfare, so that when the day comes that it is necessary to assert ourselves, in the first place we will be in the majority in the militia, and instead of shooting ourselves or our fellow members we can shoot holes in the air and harm nobody, and at the same time will be well drilled and disciplined for a warfare, which must come sooner or later, in which labor will be on one side and capital on the other."

WILL SOLICIT FUNDS.

The sub-committee of the committee of 100 which came to the federation meeting asked that the presidents of the affiliated unions be added to the committee of 25 named by the federation some weeks ago, in order that several of their number could attend meetings of unions every night, solicit contributions and urge the unions to be more generous in their donations. Harry McCormack, of the carpenters' union, secretary of the citizens' committee, said that through strong pleas made to the labor unions of Chicago, at least $15,000 could be raised each week. Justice Kehoe said he thought the strike would last all winter at least, and the people of Chicago would certainly not permit the anthracite miners to starve to death for want of contributions of money, food, clothing and other necessaries of life.

Miss Roosevelt's Ball Dress.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Miss Roosevelt's most attractive ball gown for the coming season is now being made in Washington from Mrs. Roosevelt's wedding gown. This long, white satin gown excited the admiration of Alice Roosevelt when as a little child it was shown to her by her stepmother, and Mrs. Roosevelt then promised that Alice should have the gown for her own when she grew up. When Mrs. Roosevelt was here a few days ago the gown was sent to a Washington modiste, and later fitted upon the slender young girl. When finished again with the rich lace given her by her mother it will be one of the handsomest gowns in Washington next winter.

New Australian Railway.

London, Oct. 6.—The Government of South Australia, says the Melbourne correspondent of the Times, has introduced a bill providing for the construction of a railroad line from Adelaide to Port Darwin to complete the Overland Railway. The road is to be constructed on the land grant system. Three months after the passage of the bill tenders are to be invited from Europe and America. The tenderers are to state the area of land they require. The bill specifies a maximum area that can be granted.

CUT OFF HANDS TO SAVE LIVES

Revolting Story of Prison Cruelty from Illinois.

PRISONERS FEARED THE LASH

Too Frail to do Work Assigned Them But Fearing to Disobey, They Cut Off Their Own Hands.

Chester, Ill., Oct. 6.—Rather than longer endure the torture of tasks too heavy for their frail strength, John Reagdon and C. Rose, two convicts in the Southern Illinois Penitentiary at this place, with a rusty hatchet cut off three fingers from the right hand of each, thereby incapacitating themselves from further work.

The two men tell stories of inhuman cruelty and torture practiced at the penitentiary, and declare that R. J. Wilson, who recently resigned his position as keeper of the gang to which they belonged, did so because his conscience would not permit him to be a party to the cruelties which they declare the prison officials practiced upon them as punishment.

The two convicts who resorted to such desperate measures to avoid work say they can point out a dozen men who came to the prison perfect specimens of physical vigor, but who are now wrecks of manhood, for no other reason than that the spirit and love of life has been tortured out of them.

BEYOND THEIR STRENGTH.

Reagdon and Rose are both frail men and appear to speak truthfully when they say they are not strong enough to do hard manual labor. It is said that each has a chronic incurable disease which is slowly wasting his life away. Notwithstanding their lack of strength, they were assigned, it is declared, to the hardest and most fatiguing work in the prison foundry. Here, spurred on by fear of the black cell and the lash, they performed for weeks tasks which they would not have thought of attempting in the pure air outside the prison.

Finally, their strength failing them and desperation urging them on to anything which might promise relief from the daily torture which robbed them of appetite for food or power to sleep at night, the two men decided to mutilate themselves in the manner carried out successfully last week.

PUNISHED FOR DEED.

After they were discovered with their mutilated, bleeding hands they were sent to the prison surgeon, who bound up their wounds. Then the two men were taken out into the prison yard and compelled to stand on a block the remainder of the day.

Deputy Dowell, when interviewed concerning this punishment, said:

"No, it was not unusual or inhuman. That is the usual punishment allotted to unruly prsoners."

It is said that in the last year half a dozen convicts have been driven into temporary insanity, while a score were released from their sufferings barely in time to save their reasons. Keeper Wilson, who resigned his place, adds his testimony to that of the convicts.

The black cell is said to be the most feared of all the penalties. Here a refractory or disobedient convict is kept for hours, may be days, without a ray of light and only bread and water. So many victims have become mad under the strain of the darkness and silence that a physician now visits the inmates of the black cells at least twice daily.

Quite a number of delegates had arrived up to noon, and a considerable influx from surrounding towns is expected during the week. The convention lasts until Friday night. Rev. F. E. Clark, of Boston, founder of the movement, arrived on the noon train and will address this evening's meeting. The mayor will extend an official welcome tonight. Four hundred delegates are expected.

Four Situations

The best proof that the instruction given at the Western Ontario Shorthand Academy, 76 Dundas street, is up to date is the fact that every graduate secures a good situation. The following have lately secured appointments: Miss Ayres, with Darch & Hunter; Miss Edwards, with R. Scates & Co.; Miss McKenzie, with London Mutual, and Miss May Parkins with Geo. A. MITCHELL CENTRAL FIGURE IN COAL STRIKE DRAMA

Scene Shifts From Washington to Buffalo.

STRIKE LEADERS ARE MEETING

Governor Stone Calls Out Entire National Guard of Pennsylvania—Protest From Ohio.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 7.—President Mitchell, accompanied by the three district presidents, Duffy, Fahey and Nicholls, arrived at the Iroquois Hotel at 9:40. Mr. Mitchell declined to discuss the action of Gov. Stone in calling out the entire National Guard of Pennsylvania. Mr. Mitchell was called to the long distance telephone and conversed with someone in Harrisburg but declined to say with whom.

"Will you give the substance of what passed yesterday between you and Carrol D. Wright, United States commissioner of labor, in Philadelphia?" Mitchell was asked.

"No."

"Has President Roosevelt, directly or indirectly, made a proposition to you that the miners return at once to work at their present rate of wages, with the promise that he would exert his powers to secure to the miners a redress of their grievances?"

"I have heard nothing from President Roosevelt since the Washington conference," replied Mr. Mitchell.

"Have you heard from any source of any such proposition?"

"No, I haven't heard of it."

"Is there anything in sight which seems to promise a solution of the present difficulty?" was asked.

"Nothing that I know of."

At 5:45 Mitchell and the three district presidents joined the manufacturers' committee in Room 54, where the conference was held with closed doors.

The committee from the Manufacturers Association is composed of the following members: Frank Leake, Philadelphia; George H. Barbour, Detroit; D. M. Parry, Indianapolis; Richard Young, of Indianapolis, and J. Maxwell, of Indianapolis.

When seen by an Associated Press representative at the Iroquois Hotel this morning, Mr. Parry said: "No tentative plan has been discussed by the committee. Until we get together and talk the mater over with Mr. Mitchell nothing can be said for publication, except that we have strong hopes of accomplishing something before the conclusion of this conference which will be of benefit to the manufacturers of the country."

"Have you any understanding with the operators?"

"No. We have made no move in that direction as yet. If we are able to accomplish anything with Mr. Mitchell and his colleagues, we will then try to formulate a plan on a purely business basis to bring the two sides of the controversy together for the benefit of the manufacturers."

MINE OPERATORS DENOUNCED.

Cincinnati, Oct. 7.—The city board of legislation last night passed resolutions denouncing the position of the mine operators for their refusal to arbitrate the questions now pending between the operators and the miners, and for their attitude and language at the conference with President Roosevelt. The President is urged to use his influence to have laws passed which will permit Government control of mines and railroads to the extent that such conditions as now exist will no longer be possible. The resolution pledged the members of the board and its employes to pay $5 each to the miners' relief fund, and $180 which will be sent to President Mitchell, of the miners' union, was collected.

A PETITION FROM THE WEST.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 7. — Labor bodies of Montana are preparing a petition to be presented to President Roosevelt, asking to intercede in the anthracite coal strike.

The petition recommends that as a preventive against a recurrence of such labor troubles, Congress shall enact legislation looking to the purchase or lease by the Federal Government of all coal fields.

A committee was appointed to arrange for the holding of a mass meeting, at which funds will be raised for the strikers. It is the intention to have every organized labor body in the United States join the movement.

CHICAGO IS ROUSED.

Chicago, Oct. 7. — Action was taken in the city council last night in an attempt to meet the exigencies resulting from the coal strike. A resolution was passed requesting "the mayor, city comptroller, city treasurer, commissioner of public works and city clerks, constituting a committee, to ascertain as soon as possible the lowest cost at which Indiana or Illinois coal can be delivered in Chicago in quantities of 500 and 1,000 ton lots, to the end that coal may be brought to this market and sold to consumers at its actual cost for delivery."

MORGAN AS ARBITER

John Brisben Walker Makes Novel Peace Proposal.

Omaha, Oct. 6.—John Brisben Walker, editor of the Cosmopolitan, who passed through here yesterday en route to the National Irrigation Congress at Colorado Springs, sent a telegram of about 800 words to President Roosevelt suggesting a plan for settling the anthracite coal strike.

Mr. Walker sees but one way out of the coal strike—the placing of the matter by Mr. Mitchell and his associates in the hands of J. Pierpont Morgan. He says that he has interviewed both Mr. Morgan and Mr. Mitchell, and believes the former would personally bring about a satisfactory adjustment if he was permitted to handle the matter. Mr. Walker said that the labor leader expressed himself ing absolute confidence in Mr. Morgan's good faith, and that he himself would be willing to submit the entire dispute without a moment's hesitation. But a number of Mr. Mitchell's associates did not look with favor on the plan and would not assent. Mr. Walker concluded his message to the President as follows:

"If through your generous intervention Mr. Mitchell should place the matter unreservedly in the hands of Mr. Morgan it would be a trust of the highest character, which I am sure you will feel, in common with the public, would be worthily administered."

MITCHELL AND WRIGHT

Head of Strikers Meets Labor Commissioner.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 6.—President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, slipped out of town before dawn this morning for Philadelphia, where he met Carrol D. Wright, United States commissioner of labor, who is President Roosevelt's personal representative on matter pertaining to the anthracite coal strike. Mr. Mitchell returned here today unaccompanied and unannounced, and made the simplest announcement, that he had met the labor commissioner. He refused absolutely to discuss his visit to Philadelphia, declined to say where in Philadelphia he met Mr. Wright or what passed between them. Subsequently he informed a press representative that he saw other gentlemen while there, but declined to disclose their identity. Because Mr. Wright is close to President Roosevelt there is a general impression here that the commissioner carried a message from the chief executive to President Mitchell. A rumor also in circulation today was that President Roosevelt had appealed again to Mr. Mitchell to end the strike in the cause of humanity. Interest in Mr. Mitchell's mysterious trip was intense all day and evening about headquarters. All the local district leaders called, and scores of mine workers were in evidence. No one seemed to know anything, and all were of the opinion that some sort of a move was contemplated. On his return tonight Mr. Mitchell was besieged, but he merely said that he met Mr. Wright, and then he and the district presidents went into a conference. News from Harrisburg that there is a possibility of the entire National Guard of Pennsylvania being called out reached him, but he had nothing to say. How he felt about the matter can be surmised when it is known he said he would not postpone his trip to Buffalo, even through all the troops were to be ordered out tomorrow morning.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Commissioner-General of Immigration Sargent had a long conference today with the President regarding the coal strike. Commissioner Sargent, from his long connection with labor organizations, is fully informed on the subject, and it is understood that he will work along the lines of the plan that is now being pursued for bringing the strike to an end. As stated in these dispatches yesterday, this plan is to have the miners return to work with a pledge from the President that he will appeal to Congress to examine into the justice of their complaints and remedy them so far as lies in the power of the legislative branch of the Government; also that it be suggested to Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, that he cause the Pennsylvania Legislature to make a similar inquiry. Mr. Sargent left Washington this afternoon. It is believed here that he will meet President Mitchell in Philadelphia tonight or tomorrow, and will lay before him the President's hopes that the miners may see their way clear to end the strike.

While it is generally believed that President Roosevelt has sent a direct appeal to Mr. Mitchell, there was no confirmation of such action obtainable at the White House.

MINERS MUST STAND STEADFAST

The conference between Mr. Mitchell and his district presidents continued until 11:15 p.m., and at 11:30 o'clock five minutes before the national president left for Buffalo, he gave to the press a statement addressed to district secretaries and all mine workers in the anthracite field, which says in part: "In order to demonstrate to the people of our country that the statements of the operators are unfounded; that the mine workers are law-abiding citizens, the officers of all local unions should call mass meetings of all men on strike, union and non-union, such meeting to be held Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 8. We know that the mine workers are not restrained from going to work by fear of bodily harm and if this is the sentiment prevailing at the meetings resolutions should be adopted emphatically declaring the statement of the operators to be untrue. We also advise that acts of lawlessness by the coal and iron police and by strikers be denounced and the services of members of the union tendered the local authorities to preserve law and order." It asks the men to "be steadfast and true while this struggle for living wages and American conditions of employment is going on, and we have no hesitancy in saying that victory will be achieved in the not distant future."

STATE TROOPS CALLED OUT

Entire National Guard of Pennsylvania Under Arms.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—Governor Stone late tonight ordered out the entire division of the National Guard of Pennsylvania to duty in the anthracite coal regions. The soldiers will be in the field tomorrow. The order calling out the guard is as follows: Headquarters National Guard, adjutant-general's office, Harrisburg, Oct. 6, 1902.—"In certain portions of the counties of Luzerne, Schuylkill, Carbon, Lackawanna, Susquehanna, Northemberland and Columbia, tumults and riots frequently occur, and mob law reigns; men who desire to work have been beaten and driven away and their families threatened. Railway trains have been delayed, stoned and the tracks torn up, the civil authorities are unable to maintain order, and have called upon the Governor and commander-in-chief of the National Guard for troops. The situation grows more serious each day. The territory involved is so extensive that the troops now on duty are insufficient to prevent all disorder. The presence of the entire division National Guard of Pennsylvania is necessary in these counties to maintain the public peace. The major-general commanding will place the entire division on duty, distributing them in such localities as will render them most effective for preserving the public peace. As tumults, riots, mobs and disorder usually occur when men attempt to work in and about coal mines, he will see that all men who desire to work and their families have ample military protection. He will protect all trains and other property from unlawful interference, and will arrest all persons engaging in acts of violence and intimidation, and hold them under guard until their release will not endanger the public peace, and will see that threats of intimidations and all acts of violence cease at once. The public peace and good order willl be preserved upon all occasions and throughout the several counties, and no interference whatever will be permitted with officers and men in the discharge of their duties under this order. The dignity and authority of the state must be maintained, and her power to suppress all lawlessness within her borders be asserted. By order of William A. Stone, Governor and Commander-in-chief."

SOLDIERS' CAMP STONED.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Oct. 6.—While a company of the Fourth Regiment Infantry was patrolling the Lehigh Coal Company's Righter colliery early this morning, three men armed with shot guns were discovered hiding behind a log close to the engine house. They were made prisoners. One told Col. O'Neill, of the Fourth Regiment, they were hunting for birds. The men were released later. About midnight a crowd of unknown men stoned the soldiers' camp. Sentries fired in the direction the stones came from. Part of the regiment searched the woods, but found no one. Col. O'Neill says that the troops shot to kill, because he will not allow his men to be made targets of.

No new mine was started up here this morning, and so far as is known, no non-unionist was attacked by strikers.

DOMINION COMPANY NOT IN COMBINE.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 6.—Cornelius Shields, general manager of the Dominion Coal Company, who is in the city today, denies the report that his company is in league with the anthracite coal operators in the United States. He says the Canadian market will be looked after all right in the present contingency.

ALABAMA MINERS STRIKE.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 6. — Nine hundred miners enployed by the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway Company at Blockton, struck today, according to advices received by the local officers of the Miners' Union. The Blue Creek miners to the number of 800 are holding a meeting to decide whether or not they will pay the assessment made for the anthracite strikers. The company claims that a large number of Blue Creek miners are opposed to the assessment and favor continuing work.

Remains of Three-toed Horses.

New York, Oct. 7.—Prof. Osborn has just received word of the discovery of the remains of a herd of small fossil horses by the American Museum party sent to the west on the William C. Whitney fund. All the animals in the herd of five belong to the same species of three-toed horses hitherto known only from fragments of the skull and leg limb. Five fore legs and ten hind legs were found in a perfect state of preservation. There were also several skulls, and, best of all, one nearly complete skeleton. This valuable find is now being shipped to the American Museum of Natural History in this city.

MERIT MAKES IT FAMOUS

The Only Remedy in the World, Except a Surgical Operation, That Will Certainly Cure Any Form of Piles.

The study of physicians, the experiments of chemists, the loudly advertised pretensions of quacks, have been for years expended in one direction; to find a pile cure that would cure.

The results have been a number of harmless and in most cases useless ointments, suppositories and even internal remedies, which the public have weighed in the balance of experience and found wanting; nearly all of them gave some relief, but nothing approaching a radical cure resulted from these preparations.

The remedy required is one which will immediately stop the pain so severe in many cases of piles, and then by contracting the small blood vessels (capillaries), to their normal size, produces a radical cure by reducing and finally absorbing the tumors and healing the inflamed, raw, mucous surfaces.

Until a few years ago no such remedy had been produced, but at that time a suppository was placed upon the market, which has since proven itself to be the long sought permanent cure for this common and distressing trouble; it has rapidly become famous throughout the United States and Canada, and is now sold by all druggists under the name of Pyramid Pile Cure.

It is now the best known, because its merit and safety have advertised it wherever used. It has been advertised by word of mouth from one sufferer to another; people who have tried everything else, even submitting to painful and dangerous surgical operations without avail have finally found that piles can be cured without pain and without expense practically, as the Pyramid Pile Cure is sold for the nominal price of 50 cents and $1 per package.

The Pyramid instantly stops all pain and at the same time contains no cocaine, morphine of narcotics; the acids and healing properties contained in the remedy speedily remove cause a healthful, natural contraction and absorption of the tumors; it will cure any form of rectal trouble except cancer and advanced fistula, which, by the way, nearly always results from neglecting proper and timely treatment for piles.

No Danger.

Prof. W. Hodgson Ellis, Official Analyst to the Dominion Government, has proved by analysis that "Sunlight Soap is a pure and well-"made soap, and has a thorough "cleansing power, without danger to "the clothing or skin."

Clothing is worn more in the wash than in use where common soaps are used, and the hands are liable to eczema. Try Sunlight Soap—Octagon Bar—next wash day, and you will see Prof. Ellis is right. No one should know better than he. 222

I Will Cure You of Rheumatism

Else No Money Is Wanted.

After 2,000 experiments I have learned how to cure Rheumatism. Not to turn bony joints into flesh again; that is impossible. But I can cure the disease always, at any stage, and forever.

I ask for no money. Simply write me a postal and I will send you an order on your nearest druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure, for every druggist keeps it. Use it for a month, and, if it succeeds, the cost is only $5 50. If it fails, I will pay your druggist myself.

I have no samples, because any medicine that can affect Rheumatism quickly must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that, even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. No matter how impossible this seems to you, I know it and I take the risk.

I have cured tens of thousands of cases in this way, and my records show that 39 out of 40 who get those six bottles pay gladly.

I have learned that people in general are honest with a physician who cures them. That is all I ask. If I fail I don't expect a penny from you.

Simply write me a postal card or letter. I will send you my book about Rheumatism, and an order for the medicine. Take it for a month, as it won't harm you, anyway.

If it fails, it is free, and I leave the decision with you. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 41, Racine, Wis.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

DROWNED IN A BATHTUB

Fate of Peoria Woman While Helping Stricken Husband.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 5.—Frank S. Townsend, living at 1331 Hamilton boulevard, a clerk in the general freight offices of the Iowa Central Railway, went into the bathroom at his home today to shampoo his head.

The room was cold and he disconnected the pipe used to carry off the poisonous gas from the instantaneous heater. Within a few seconds he fell to the floor, overcome by gas.

His wife rushed to his assistance, and she, too, was overcome. She fell into the bath tub filled with water and was drowned. Mr. Townsend was discovered by a servant and assistance was called. The woman was beyond recovery, but tonight the attending physicians say that Townsend may recover.

The couple came to Peoria from Marshalltown, Iowa, last May. The body of Mrs. Townsend will be shipped to Marshalltown for interment.

STUDENT IN TRAMP GUISE

Strange Adventures of Prof. W. A. Wyckoff.

Is Getting Short-Range Views of Wandering William.

Pueblo, Colo., Oct. 7.—A tramp, exhausted and almost fainting, stumbled into the dispensary of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company just before daylight the other morning, and, groaning with pain, begged the surgeon in charge to give him medicine.

"I walked 50 miles through all this storm and cold last night, and I am as near worn out with fatigue and exposure as I ever expect to be."

When asked why he did not try a box car, the traveler replied that he had been riding the box cars so much for the last few weeks that he wanted to try walking. His language and face aroused the suspicions of the surgeon, though his clothes were those of the hobo. As he was taking the dose of medicine the physician espied an envelope sticking out of the pocket of the ragged outer coat, which the tourist had thrown over a chair. He pulled it forth and read the direction, "Prof. Walter A. Wyckoff, Princeton, N. J." The tramp was still busy swallowing the hot drink, but when he had concluded he was charged with being the famous political economy teacher.

He raised his head from the couch where he was lying long enough to deny this, but when shown the evidence in the hand of the surgeon he admitted that he was the author of "The Workers," and that for several weeks he had been beating his way about the State, associating with the hobo and studying the life of the man who lives without work.

"What a fool I was," said he, "to carry that envelope in my pocket, but I thought if anything should happen to me it would constitute a means of identification."

"Before I leave this State," he continued, "I intend to walk its entire length and breadth."

For several hours Prof. Wyckoff continued to suffer intense pain, but the constant attention of the medical man finally relieved him, and he insisted on continuing his tramp, though he was cautioned that it would be dangerous for him to do so. When asked more minutely about his walk last night, Prof. Wyckoff said that he came all the way from Aguilar, in Huerfano county, where he had been for several days. During the entire night the rain poured steadily and the temperature was lower than it had been this season for many years.

He says that during his stay in Colorado, though it has been comparatively short, he has gathered plenty of material for another book on the life of the lower classes. The only way to study the life of the hobo, he says, is to be one yourself, and the Colorado tramp presents many phases and characteristics that are not found in any other State.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

DEATHS FROM CHOLERA

Since Epidemic Began in Egypt 2,136 Have Died.

Washington, Oct. 6.—United States Consul Smith, at Cairo, has informed the State department that the total number of deaths from cholera in Egypt since the epidemic began is 2,136. The number of cases since Sept. 21 is 2,114. The report says the conditions continue to improve.

Remarkable Recovery From Nervous Collapse

A Methodist Minister Tells How He Was Rescued From a Helpless Condition by

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

That Dr. Chase's Nerve Food possesses unusual control over the nerves and rekindles nervous energy when all other means fail is well illustrated in the case described below. Mr. Brown was forced to give up his ministerial work, and so far exhausted that for a time he was positively helpless. Doctors were consulted and many remedies were resorted to, in vain. Every effort to build up the system semed in vain, and it is little wonder that the sufferer was losing hope of recovery, when he began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Rev. T. Brown, Methodist minister, of Omemee, and late of Bethany, Ont., writes: "A year ago last November I was overtaken with nervous exhaustion. For six months I did no work, and during that time I had to be waited on, not being able to help myself. Nervous collapse was complete, and though I was in the physician's hands for months, I did not seem to improve. At any little exertion my strength would leave me, and I would tremble with nervousness.

"From the first I used a great many nerve remedies, but they seemed to have no effect in my case. I had almost lost hope of recovery, when I heard of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and began to use it. As my system became stronger I began to do a little work, and have gradually increased in nerve force and vigor, until now I am about in my normal condition again. I consider Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the best medicine I ever used. Not only has it proven its wonderful restorative powers in my own case, but in several others where I have recommended it."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2 50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Buckingham Palace, once more the principal residence of the British court, is so-called because it occupies the site of a house built by a Duke of Buckingham in 1703. Many people, however, think it would be more appropriate to give the building a national title.

PROOF OF INCOMPETENCY

When Officers Cannot Keep Discipline Without Aid of Canteen.

Springfield, Ohio, Oct. 6.—Edwin Dinwiddie, president of the American Anti-Saloon League, gave out the following statement with reference to the attitude of the league on the army canteen: "If such reports as are published from Gen. Funston are correct, two things are apparent. First, that the canteen, or beer-selling army saloon, which has so debauched men in service that these conditions of drunkenness and disorder exist, not by reason of it abolition, but because its presence during twelve years h demoralizing effects on officers and men; second, when generals and commanding officers are ready to state that they cannot maintain discipline without a beer saloon, it is certain proof of incompetency. We demand a fair trial of the post exchange system with the canteen eliminated. Congress appropriated $500,000 to improve the men's condition, and added 5 cents daily to their rations, a laudable change in the Government's policy. People will never consent to a return of the canteen without a trial of this substitute. There is a serious temperance problem in the army. We advocate the stoppage of official saloons, a provision for the recreation and sociability among the men, and disciplinary orders against drinking. We advocate the present law on the broad principle that the Government should neither have been in the saloon business nor permit premises to be used for such purposes, nor officially tempt its soldiers to drink."

Dr. Parkin's Work.

London, Oct. 6.—Charles W. Boyd, who has returned from a holiday in Switzerland, has established an office for the financial and general administration of the Rhodes educational trust for American, German and colonial students at Oxford. He has entered upon the work as permanent secretary, and tells me that the trustees of Mr. Rhodes' will are hopeful that the scholarships can be founded and students aided a year hence. They are waiting for a detailed report from Principal Parkin, of Toronto, who went to America for the purpose of consulting President Roosevelt and other authorities, and devising a general scheme of operations. Dr. Parkin was highly recommended by Lord Milner as a practical and progressive educator, who would carry out Mr. Rhodes' Anglo-Saxon ideals. The trustees are anxious to set the scholarships in operation, but are convinced that they must take every precaution for avoiding mistakes so that they can start the educational work in the best possible way. They are not disposed to discuss the subject until Dr. Parkin has had full leisure for formulating a general scheme of work.

Stern measures may have to be taken with American poachers who insist upon fishing within the Canadian waters of Lake Erie. During the past season over 800 nets set by them have been seized and confiscated, but the marauders appear to be as numerous as ever.

TORONTO WILL BUY FUEL

City Council Votes $50,000 for the Purpose.

Civic Fuel Will Be Sold to Citizens at Cost Price.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—The city council today voted $50,000 for the purpose of purchasing fuel for sale at cost price to charitable institutions and to citizens in limited quantities. The council also accepted and appointed a committee to deal with Ald. Foster's offer to present standing timber, supposed to be 60,000 cords, which the mayor stated can be laid down in Toronto at $3 82½ per cord. This committee will also take up the subject of cutting timber on crown lands. The mayor had read the correspondence between himself and officers of the Dominion Coal Company, in which the officials stated that it would be impossible for the company to supply coal to Toronto, both because their output was already contracted for and because of the prohibitive transportation charges. As a result of this refusal the council passed a resolution, at the mayor's suggestion, to petition the Dominion Government to expropriate a portion of the lands granted by the Government of Nova Scotia to this company for the benefit of the public. Another resolution calls on both the Dominion and Ontario Governments to examine lands still held by the crown to see if any coal may be found, in which case the land should be held for the benefit of the public.

In connection with the proposal to cut timber on crown lands, Premier Ross said today that he had been misreported in some Toronto papers. He says he is willing to consider such proposals if made by municipalities, but that the matter is not so easily arranged as it may seem. It would be necessary to send an agent with any cutters in order to locate them, for much timber land, which might appear only as forest, is under license to timber men.

Mayor Howland announced today that he had received a cablegram from Wales offering to lay down a shipload of Welsh coal in Montreal at 48 shillings per ton for large size and 22 shillings for small size.

OTTAWA IS FORTUNATE.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The mayor reports this morning that the finance committee has succeeded in buying for the city 4,000 tons of Welsh anthracite coal, which will be delivered here in about five weeks, and 4,000 cords of hardwood for delivery as required, and has also secured options on from 6,000 to 7,000 tons of Nova Scotia coal. The prices have not yet transpired.

DUEL OVER ZOLA'S DEATH

General and Journalist Fought With Usual Result.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The death of Emile Zola was the indirect cause of a duel today between Gen. Parcin, chief of the cabinet of the minister of war, and Gaston Pollonais, a well-known Nationalist writer, who was responsible for the statement that Gen. Percin met Dreyfus at Zola's residence and shook hands with him. The general, in his letter replying to the question of Count Boni De Castellane on this subject, described Pollonais as a "renegade Jew," and also told the count he did not admit the latter had any right to judge his actions. M. Pollonais then challenged Gen. Parcin and they fought with swords near St. Cloud this afternoon. The general was slightly wounded in the hand.

The Macedonian Uprising.

London, Oct. 6.—The most important foreign question is the Macedonian uprising or agitation, concerning which there are contradictory rumors. There has been no serious fighting, and the insurgents are hardly capable of carrying even a guerilla warfare against the vastly superior force massed against them by Turkish pashas. The adoption of decisive measures for the suppression of the revolt before a sympathetic movement can be started in Servia and Bulgaria, may involve massacre and slaughter. Idealists are proposing that Macedonia shall be converted into a principality, self-governing, and paying tribute to the Porte, but the Turkish Government is certain to resist this plan for the deliverance of the Christian state from Ottoman rule, and the powers will not move unless the European conscience is stirred by massacres more atrocious than those witnessed in Armenia.

BRAIN POWER

How It May Be Strengthened and Increased.

The brain is a great nerve battery that presides over all the powers and impulses of the human body.

Very frequently as the result of poor blood it becomes enfeebled, and a general weakness of the entire system follows.

No remedy possesses the marvelous brain strengthening power that Ferrozone has demonstrated in thousands of cases.

It contans an abundance of phosphorus and iron which are essential in the formation of red vitalizng blood, and in this way supplies the brain with extra power to perform its numerous and important duties.

Ferrozone is the best peparation for brain workers, and those inclined to a sedentary life. It improves the appetite, insures good digestion, regulates the bowels, and helps the stomach to do its work.

Lawyers, ministers, and those whose occupation entails much thinking and brain labor, will find Ferrozone of immense value, because of its power to stimulate mental activity. Students who take Ferrozone regularly, find it not only clears the brain, and makes it more receptive, but makes them strong in body as well as mind.

A medical student of Toronto University, who has proved the good qualities of Ferrozone, says: "On my study table there is always a place for Ferrozone. I find by keeping my digestion in perfect order, and mantaining a splendid appetite, it enables me to accomplish a great deal of hard work. I consider Ferrozone at the same time food for the brain, the blood and the nerves, and can highly recommend it."

Very few are so strong and healthy that a course of Ferrozone would not benefit. It is good for the young and old alike, and is prepared in convenient tablet form, price per box, 50 cents; sold by all druggists and N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

BOERS WILL BE FAITHFUL

If Conditions of Peace Are Observed, Says Gen. Botha.

Emperor William and His Attitude Toward Boers.

London, Oct. 6.—The Seccolo, says a Rome correspondent, warns the Boer generals that they cannot consider themselves as flattered by Emperor William's tactics. It declares that the Emperor "has always cynically used the Boers for his own political ends." In 1896, the Seccolo observes, the Kaiser sent his famous telegram after the Jameson raid. He was anxious then to propitiate the South African Republic in the interest of German finance, and he has also had an eye to German colonial expansion. During the recent war, foreseeing the result, he was anxious to neutralize German anglophobia, so he went to London and affected an attachment to the British nation. Now, in order to propitiate the German pro-Boers, he smiles on the generals after refusing to receive Mr. Kruger. The Seccolo says it is a pity that such men as the Boer generals should be the victims of this "imperial tight-rope dancing."

VALOR OF BOER WOMEN.

A Brussels correspondent says that in speaking at a meeting at Zwolle, Holland, Gen. Botha referred to the South African concentration camps in a tone not calculated to remove false impressions in regard to them still current. He dwelt on the valor of Boer women and their fixed determination to transmit the use of the Dutch language to their children. As an instance of Mr. Kruger's "unquestioned integrity," Gen. Botha stated that the ex-president, when leaving South Africa for Europe, reimbursed $70,000 standing to his (Gen. Botha's) credit in the state treasury, and also $200,000 worth of Government bonds.

In a subsequent address, General Botha said: "In the presence of this immense enthusiasm we ask ourselves, Why was there no intervention? God willed that we should lose our independence; we will remain faithful to our new country if the conditions of peace are observed."

GENERALS ARRIVE AT BRUSSELS.

Brussels, Oct. 6.—The Boer generals, Botha, Dewet and Delarey, arrived here this evening and were greeted by an immense crowd. In a speech from a balcony of his hotel, Gen. Dewet reiterated that they had not come to Europe to seek vain support or to make efforts to regain their independence, but to obtain help in repairing the ravages of war.

LADY SOMERSET ARRIVES

President of World's W. C. T. U. Reaches America.

New York, Oct. 6.—Lady Henry Somerset, president of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union, arrived on the steamer Minneapolis today. Lady Somerset is here for the purpose of attending the coming convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and to study with the help of the American organization the work of reclaiming inebriates.

"I am looking forward to studying American methods," she said, "with great enthusiasm. Our union in England has been advancing with great strides during the past two years and we have done an enormous amount of good work."

'Varsity Deficit.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—As a result of recent conferences between the Ontario Government and the authorities of Toronto University, the Government has decided to include in next session's estimates $10,000 to cover the university's deficit of last year. Premier Ross has intimated that the Government is prepared to stand by the university.

Tired of Eluding Justice.

Akron, Ohio, Oct. 6.—"I'm tired of feeling every minute that someone is coming up behind to grab me," said a well-dressed man of 35, entering the central police station yesterday afternoon, and further stating that he was wanted in Baltimore on the charge of embezzlement. He registered as Jos. Smith, and said he had been a bookkeeper for the National Biscuit Company, and last Wednesday defaulted. Baltimore officers have been notified. Smith says he has a family in that city.

Earthquake at Guam.

Manila, Oct. 6.—The collier Austin, which has just arrived here from Guam, brings reports of a series of severe earthquakes there Sept. 22, as a result of which the marine barracks at Agana and other buildings collapsed and much other damage was done. The natives were killed. One hundred and eighty shocks were experienced in 24 hours. The population was terrorized and fled from the buildings and encamped outdoors.

Brothers Reunited.

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 4.—An unusual family reunion is being held in this city today, and for the first time in 45 years Philip C. Scott, of Peoria, Ill.; William B. Scott, Ploton, Ont.; James Scott, Gillman, Ill.; Matthew C. Scott, of Peabody, Kas.; Peter Scott and Edward Scott, of this city, are together. It is the first time in 45 years that the brothers have been together, and some of them have not seen one another for 35 years. Two of them are old soldiers, and death has not entered their ranks.

Natural Gas at Port Robinson.

Port Robinson, Oct. 6.—A huge force of natural gas has been discovered on the flats of the Welland River at Port Robinson that promises to eclipse anything yet discovered. Gurgling and roaring sounds were heard beneath earth that had been recently dumped on the flats, and investigation led to the discovery of huge quantities of gas escaping from apertures in the newly-formed earth, where the gas forced its way through by virtue of its great pressure. The theory of experts is that the gas has been escaping from the surface of this marsh for years undiscovered, and that when the soft earth was deposited on it it was confined for a time, until it forced its way through at hundreds of points to the surface again. The gas is of the finest quality, being odorless, burning with a blue flame and producing an intense heat. Steps are being taken to develop a gas well at once. There is great excitement in the town over the discovery of what undoubtedly will prove to be one the greatest gushers in Ontario.

The State of the Country.

These are good times the world over, and although there are signs that prosperity is beginning to recede in Europe, it is still at high tide in the United States and Canada. It cannot go on forever, but there are conditions which promise to postpone any serious depression in this country for some years at least. The hope of Canada is the Northwest, and while population continues to pour into that region, as it is doing now, there will be no slackening of our productive energies. Every new settler adds to the national wealth. If he does not bring capital with him—the great majority of land-seekers now entering Canada do bring it—he soon extracts riches from the soil. Every branch of industry in the Eastern Provinces has been quickened by the increased purchasing power of the Northwest, and the era of expansion which has yielded these results, has barely begun.

It was Sir Leonard Tilley who advised the Canadian manufacturers, at the inauguration of the National Policy, to clap on all sail. Canada had shared with other nations the economic crisis of 1877-78, and the Mackenzie Government had been unjustly blamed for conditions which were not peculiar to this country, but were the product of world-wide forces over which no government could have any control. The Conservative party returned to power just as the cloud was lifting. The manufacturers, with a recurring cycle of good times and the encouragement of a tariff which enabled them to levy higher prices in the home market, were disposed to take Sir Leonard Tilley's advice. They clapped on sail an rode on buoyantly for a few years, but the reaction came as it was bound to come. The increased taxation fell chiefly on the farmers, who had no compensation in a growing home market, as the exodus steadily drained the country, and population remained almost stationary. The manufacturers suffered also from a limited and unexpanding market, scattered over an immense area. Besides, a thriving mechanical industry was impossible when the basic industry of the country, agriculture, was overburdened and depressed.

There is now a better warrant for repeating Sir Leonard Tilley's admonition. The manufacturers of this country have a rapidly increasing home market, and if they do not reap the fullest advantage from it, they will have themselves to blame, not the Government. In the N. P. era they were encouraged to look to the Government, and there was a continual procession to Ottawa for favors, with the result that the tariff was in the melting-pot all the time, and no manufacturer could feel himself on certain and stable ground. The present Government has at least given the tariff the element of stability, and for some years industry has enjoyed both peace and prosperity. Now the Manufacturers' Association—which does not speak for all the manufacturers of Canada by any means—is organizing another raid for more protection. The only reason for this seems to be that the country is so overflowingly prosperous that some Canadian manufacturers are afraid they will not be able to handle all the business that is offering, and they want to keep out foreign competition at any cost to the consumer. They do not deny that they are doing well. The president of the Manufacturers' Association at the recent meeting in Halifax admitted that Canadian industry was flourishing to an unexampled extent, and pointed out that the Canadian manufacturers were reaching into the markets of the world, the exports of manufactured goods having increased in late years faster proportionately than the exports of other products. In reality the president's address was a cogent argument in favor of the fiscal policy under which this development had taken place. Surely it is not a logical time to beg for public spoon-feeding, when nearly every Canadian factory is working overtime to catch up with its orders. If the Canadian manufacturers are wise they will rely on their own enterprise in grappling with a wider, and, in some respects, an entirely new market, opened up by the settlement of the Northwest. No tariff will help them unless they help themselves by a special study of that market and an energetic effort to meet its wants. All that a higher tariff would do would be to lay a heavier burden on the West—on the mainspring of Canadian prosperity—and probably foster an ill feeling against the Eastern Provinces. Any division of sentiment on geographical lines would be perilous to Canadian unity, more particularly at this time, when a foreign sentiment is being planted on Canadian soil by the army of settlers from the United States.

Fortunately, the tariff question is not one which is arraying one section of the country against the other. The West may be almost solidly against a general increase in the tariff, but it is not confronted by a solid East. The Eastern Liberals have not renounced their principles. Many of them would have preferred a more radical measure of tariff reform, but they gave the Government credit for going as far in the right direction as was warranted by the conditions of industry, which had been artificially stimulated by a high tariff for nearly twenty years, and would have been gravely disturbed for the time being by sweeping changes.

A movement for more protection just now, when the Canadian manufacturers are extending their plants and making more money than ever before, will be an exhibition of organized selfishness, which will certainly provoke a counter-agitation. It will rouse the old tariff reform spirit of the Liberal party, which is not dead if it has been dozing a little out of sheer contentedness with the state of the country. The present tariff has done its work well, but it would not have achieved as much if it had not been suplemented by a vigorous immigration policy. It is an increase of population, not an increase of tariff, to which the manufacturers must look.

Coal and Wood Notes.

President Roosevelt has not given up the effort to settle the strike. He is bringing all his powers of moral suasion to bear on the strikers. He has promised to appoint a commission to investigate their grievances, and to urge Congress to legislate in accordance with the recommendation of the commission. The miners' representatives have not yet replied. The operators have not been strengthened in public estimation by the intemperate and impertinent statement read by President Baer, at the close of the conference in the White House.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has at last done his duty by ordering the entire State militia to the anthracite region, but absolute protection for the non-union miners will not relieve the situation to any appreciable extent, as there is little labor to be got. Unless the strike is settled within a month, the public may prepare for the worst, as it would be four or five weeks after the resumption of work at the mines before hard coal in any quantity could be shipped to this city. The worst, in this country, means a resort to soft coal (at famine prices) and wood. The municipalities may be able to get their hands on enough wood for public and charitable purposes, but the ordinary householder will have to trust to the coal and wood merchants, who know their own business better than city councils know it, and are in a better position to met the emergency. However, a show of municipal activity can do no harm, and may do good by putting the dealers on their mettle.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Free Press, argues that there is an imminent possibility of the nationalization of hard coal mining in the United States. There is a strong sentiment for public ownership, but it will not be realized for years, if it is ever realized. More likely it will take the form of public control over the mine owners; in conformity with the President's policy of Congressional regulation of the trusts. There is no likelihood that Canadians will find their supply of hard coal cut off, but the effect would be to throw them back on their own unlimited resources of fuel. The hardship would be only temporary.

The Death Bed.

We watched her sleeping through the night,
Her breathing soft and low,
As in her breast the wave of life
Kept surging too and fro.

So silently we seemed to speak,
So slowly moved about,
As we had lent her half our powers
To eke her being out.

Our very hopes belied our fears,
Our fears our hopes belied,
We thought her dying when she slept,
And sleeping when she died.

For when the morn came dim and sad,
And chill with early showers,
Her quiet eyelids closed, she had
Another morn than ours.

WOULD BUILD NEW HOTEL

Representative of English Capital Claims Option on Property.

A gentleman from London, England, Mr. Lee L. Crobe-Bateman, is in the city. Mr. Bateman says that he is the representative of some English capitalists, who are trying to get a string of hotels throughout the country. He says that he has options on hotels in Hamilton, Kingston, Windsor and other places, and that he has an option on the Western Hotel property here. He is trying to induce local capitalists in his project. He has interviewed a number of citizens, and has been promised backing if he shows that his plan will pay.

ODD AND PAINFUL INJURY

Harry Henderson's Left Arm Broken in Three Places.

A painful accident happened to Harry Henderson, the 13-year-old son of Mr. Samuel J. Henderson, 28 Ridout street, while playing on a horizontal bar at Victoria street school yesterday afternoon. In jumping to catch the bar he missed it with his right hand and the weight of his body on the left alone, caused the bone to break just above the second joint. He fell to the ground and in falling struck the same arm on the floor, snapping both bones in the forearm. The fractures are considered serious.

MARRIED IN MONTREAL

Dr. Walter Ardiel Weds Miss Harriett Helen Graham.

Both Bride and Groom Are Former Well-Known Londoners.

On Wednesday, Oct. 1, at St. James' Church, Montreal, Miss Harriett Helen Graham, daughter of the late Rev. James Graham, of Toronto, was united in marriage to Dr. Walter Ardiel, of Grand Rapids, Mich., formerly of this city. The bridegroom, although a very successful young physician in the Michigan city, still includes himself proudly with the London Old Boys. He was for many years a resident of London, and his mother and youngest brother still reside here. The bride is also known in this city, as her father was at one time pastor of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church, and her brother, Rev. J. Wellington Graham, of Montreal, has many friends in the city. Dr. and Mrs. Ardiel will be in London this week on their way to their home in Grand Rapids, and while here both bride and groom will be glad to greet their old friends.

IN OLD AGE the question of health becomes mainly a question of nutrition. If the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are kept in a healthful condition there will be a well-nourished body, and little liability to disorders of the liver, bowels or such other disorders as may result from innutrition and lack of exercise.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and also diseases of other organs which are caused by the diseased condition of the stomach. By enabling the perfect nutrition of the body it increases the vital power and promotes a vigorous old age.

"I was a sufferer from chronic diarrhea for five years," writes Mrs. Mary A. Aaron, of Rolla, Phelps Co., Mo. "I tried different remedies, which would give me relief for a short time only. My trouble would return as bad as ever. I consulted you in July, 1900, and by your advice commenced using Dr. Pierce's remedies. I took two bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' three vials of the 'Pellets,' and some of the 'Extract of Smart-Weed,' as you advised. I have not had any return of my trouble since using your medicines. Am now seventy-one years old and I never had anything to relieve me so quick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the greatest on earth. Should I ever have any return of my trouble shall use your medicine. My thanks to you for your advice and thanks to Almighty God for restoring me to health through your hands."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

7TH TURNED OUT WELL

Large Attendance Marked First Parade of Season.

Annual Regimental Shoot Takes Place Thanksgiving Day.

The Seventh Regiment, under command of Lieut.-Col. Little, held its first fall route march last night. Over two hundred members of the regiment turned out. It was announced at the drill shed that the regiment would parade every Monday night for regimental drill.. The parade was one of the best yet held and much enthusiasm was displayed by the men, who prefer route marches to ordinary drill. The officers of the regiment are particularly anxious that the men should all turn out on Mondays nights, to be always in condition to uphold the excellent reputation they have gained for themselves. The route parades have become an interesting event to the citizens, who always line the streets to see the regiment.

Drill Instructor Gregory will teach the new drill to the officers of the Seventh every Wednesday night when they will meet at the drill shed.

The details of the annual regimental shoot, which takes place at the Cove ranges on Thanksgiving Day, are being arranged by a competent committee, and the matches promise to be interesting. The Reid, Carling and Stacey cups will be contested for.

PROFITED BY WAITING

Everett and Moore Getting on Their Financial Feet Again.

Lucky Day for Syndicate When They Could Not Close Sales.

Henry A. Everett and E. W. Moore must be getting solidly on their financial feet again, as people in Cleveland are beginning to talk about the money they are making instead of what they have lost. Cleveland Finance says that last spring, when Everett and Moore were hard up, they offered to sell their stock in Northern Ohio Traction at 35. They believed that the stock was worth more, but it was one of those things that was to be sacrificed in order to obtain ready money. Mr. Everett has 3,650 shares of this stock. Had he sold it last spring he would have received the sum of $127,750 for it. Under the reorganization plan he will be able to realize at least 80 for it, or $292,000, or more than double what he offered to sell out for last spring. Or he can sell his bonds, which he will receive under the reorganization, at 70, and they are certainly worth 75, and receive the entire amount of money he would have secured for his entire holdings last spring ,and have left 7,300 shares of common stock, which will be earning at the start 1 per cent and which will have an intrinsic value of at least 25.

Mr. Moore has 3,972 shares, which, if he had sold at 39 last spring, would have realized him $139,020, for which he will receive, if he sells on a basis of 80, $317,760, or he can sell his bonds which he will receive under the reorganization, at 70, receiving the same amount he would have received for his entire holdings last spring and have left 7,944 shares of the common stock.

It was a lucky day for the members of the Everett-Moore syndicate when they were unable to close the deal for the sale of Northern Ontario common.

AMERICANS RODE TOO FAST

Gens. Corbin and Young Stopped by the Police.

Were Driving in Sir Thomas Lipton's New Auto.

London, Oct. 6.—Adjutant-General Corbin, General Young and John W. Gates have twice had an unpleasant experience of the rigor of English motoring laws. The car was a fast, new vehicle, which has just been purchased by Sir Thomas Lipton. He lent it to Mr. Gates to show the generals around the country. On Saturday Mr. Gates and Gen. Young were driving through Windsor, when a policeman arrested their chauffeur for exceeding a speed of twelve miles an hour, and took the names and addresses of Mr. Gates, and Gen. Young. On Sunday, they, with Gen. Corbin, were nearing Brighton when a policeman stopped the car. When the summonses are called up no defense will be made, for, as one of the Americans said, "The police have got you at their mercy with their stop-watches."

Sir Thomas Lipton told a representative of the Associated Press that he could not discuss the merits of the case, but was rather amused at the American generals so quickly joining the category of over-swift automobilists who have fallen foul of the police, and among whom are many distinguished persons, including Premier Balfour.

Peas, per bu	75c to 90c
Barley, per bu	53c to 60c
Beans, per bu	70c to 80c

There was a slim attendance at the market here today. Sales were made without any trouble, however, owing to the light deliveries of produce. Prices remain unchanged in most of the lines represented.

Grain—About 15 loads of oats were offered, selling mostly at 84c to 85c; one load of musty oats sold at 80c per cwt. Three loads of new wheat sold at $1 10 per cwt for good, and one load of old wheat (choice) at $1 15.

Hay and Straw—Twenty loads of hay were on the stand; sales were made mostly at $8 50 and $9 per ton; the demand is fair. Straw is scarce; none was offered today.

Butter and Eggs—Butter was in light supply, but sufficient to meet all demands; prices are unchanged from those of Saturday, viz., 16c to 17c for crocks and 17c to 18c for pound rolls. Eggs were in good demand, selling mostly at 17c per dozen in basket lots.

Vegetables—Tomatoes were not so plentiful today; sales were made at 25c to 30c per 20-lb basket; potatoes were in fair supply, at 75c to 80c per bag; turnips, 25c per bu; other vegetables as quoted.

Fruits—Peaches were scarce today, and what shipments will be made are expected to be small; prices ranged from 20c to 50c for the 12-quart baskets; plums are nearly out, and none were offered today; grapes are more plentiful, at 20c to 30c per 10-lb basket; apples continue to be a dull sale, at 35c to $1 25 per bbl, or 50c per bag for apples of medium quality.

Poultry—Very little on sale; there was no change in prices of chickens and ducks; a few live turkeys sold at 8c per lb.

Dressed Hogs—There were about 30 carcasses on sale, and were disposed of at $8 35 to $8 75 per cwt, most of them at $8 50 per cwt.

Live Hogs—Mr. D. McIntyre purchased three carloads from here yesterday, paying $6 50 for selects. Unless the market strengthens up this price will not be paid for next Monday's shipment. Dealers say that prices will go lower.

HALE AT SEVENTY-FIVE

Mr. Harries Seems to Have Found the Secret of Keeping Well in Old Age—He Tells How.

Lovett, Ont., Oct. 6—(Special).—Mr. C. A. Harries, Postmaster here, is now 75 years of age, and considering this advanced age, is remarkably well preserved and a strong, healthy old gentleman.

This is all the more striking when it is remembered that a few years ago he was at the point of death, being fearfully run down and a complete wreck with Bright's Disease. He was so low that no one ever thought he would pull through. He says himself:

"I was a complete wreck and could not even dress myself or turn in my bed, but now I am a well man, and I attribute it all to Dodd's Kidney Pills. I feel quite strong and healthy, and I cannot say too much for the remedy that saved my life and put me on my feet again."

New Freighter Launched.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 6.—The new freighter Tadenac, of the St. Lawrence and Chicago Navigation Company, was launched at Bertram's shipyards here on Saturday afternoon.

The Tadenac is a sister ship to the Ottawa, which was launched at Bertram's on May 23, 1900. The boat is built in such a manner that it can run the canals and trade between Lake Superior and Quebec.

She measures 257 feet over all, beam 43 feet, depth 25 feet 6 inches, and has a capacity of 105,000 bushels of grain.

The St. Thomas Case.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—Chancellor Boyd this morning dismissed the appeal in proceedings arising out of the municipal elections in St. Thomas last January, entitled Rex ex Vel Roberts vs. Ponsford. At these elections the method of electing aldermen by the whole city was first introduced. About ninety voters, including Judge Hughes, voted in a ward other than that in which they resided. The chancellor has dismissed the application on the ground that no material wrong or fraud was committed.

THE GRAND TRUNK LINES

Annual Meeting of Allied Roads at Detroit.

Double-Tracking Between Chicago and Port Huron.

Detroit Oct. 7.—At the annual meeting of several Grand Trunk lines held in Detroit yesterday it was announced that the work of double-tracking the Grand Trunk western division, between Port Huron and Chicago, is progressing rapidly and that of the 325 miles on this branch of the big system, 157½ miles has already been double-tracked and is now in operation.

The election of officers for the allied lines was carried out by the re-election of all the old officers, with the exception of Mr. Skinner of the Grand Trunk Western. The son was selected to succeed his father on the board of directors. The elder Mr. Skinner died since the last meeting.

In double tracking the division between Port Huron and Chicago many of the heavy grades have been cut down to enable trains to handle more loaded cars. At Flint, Mich., a detour of ten and a half miles was made to escape a particularly heavy grade, the new part being intended for freight and mixed trains, while the old part will be given over to passenger traffic.

The officers and board of directors of the various divisions of the Grand Trunk, elected at yesterday's meeting, are as follows:

Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee—Charles M. Hays, of Montreal, president and general manager; James H. Muir, secretary and treasurer; directors, Frank W. Morse, F. H. McGuigan, Joseph Hobson, John W. Loud, of Montreal; E. W. Meddaugh, W. J. Spicer, John Pridgeon, jun., and Abram P. Sherrill, of Detroit.

Grand Trunk Western Railway Co.—Charles M. Hayes, of Montreal, president and general manager; James H. Muir, secretary and treasurer; directors, Frank W. Morse and F. H. McGuigan, of Montreal; Arthur Dixon, of Chicago; E. W. Wright, of Alma, Mich.; E. W. Meddaugh and W. J. Spicer, Detroit, and Mr. Skinner, of Valparaiso, Ind.

St. Clair Tunnel Co.—Charles M. Hayes, of Montreal, president and general manager; James H. Muir, secretary; directors, Frank W. Morse, F. H. McGuigan, of Montreal; Arthur Dixon, of Chicago; E. W. Wright, of Alma, Mich.; E. W. Meddaugh and W. J. Spicer, Detroit, and Mr. Skinner, of Valparaiso, Ind.

St. Clair Tunnel Co.—Charles M. Hayes, of Montreal, president and general manager; James H. Muir, secretary; directors, Frank W. Morse, F. H. McGuigan, of Montreal; John Bell, of Belleville, Ont.; E. W. Meddaugh and W. J. Spicer, of Detroit.

Michigan Air Line Railway Co.—Charles M. Hayes, president and general manager; James H. Muir, secretary; directors, John Bell, E. W. Meddaugh, W. J. Spicer.

Chicago, Detroit & Canada Trunk Junction Railway—Charles M. Hayes, president and general manager; James H. Muir, secretary and treasurer; directors, Frank W. Morse, F. H. McGuigan, Charles Percy, E. W. Meddaugh, C. J. Church and C. W. Middleton, the last two from Greenville, Mich.

The other officers of the roads are appointive and will be selected by the board of directors of each of the allied lines. They include superintendents and the operating forces.

A DISASTER AVERTED

Boats Have Narrow Escape Off Port Huron Shoal.

Port Huron, Oct. 6.—Disaster was narrowly averted in an extraordinary mix-up of vessels off Port Huron last night. The big steel schooner Maitland, bound up in tow of the steamer Fitch, dragged over the unmarked shoal abreast of the Sarnia docks, causing her tow line to part.

At the same time the steamer Pratt, towing the Athens, bound down, met the steamer Roman and consort, bound up, at that point. It required a marvelous skill on the part of the master to escape sinking the big schooner which was being carried down stream in the current. They succeeded in missing the Maitland, however, and later she was picked up by her steamer.

NEW TERROR FROM STRIKE

Fuel Scarcity Means Great Increase in Sickness.

Detroit Health Officer Sounds Note of Warning.

Detroit, Oct. 7.—"If the coal strike in Pennsylvania should last through the winter there will be a tremendous increase in sickness and the death rate, principally among the old people and babies," said Health Officer Guy L. Kiefer yesterday afternoon. "Heat is absolutely essential to the preservation of life. If people can buy no coal there will be plenty of work for the doctors and undertakers this winer. There can be no relief except to concentrate the poor people in places such as churches, public halls, etc., where there are furnaces that burn soft coal. This would mean great hardship."

That the people are facing a calamity was demonstrated yesterday at noon, when the mayor's office was crowded with members of the committee of 100 citizens appointed to take charge of the national get-coal conference which will take place in the Masonic Temple next Thursday. The meeting was addressed by Rev. A. H. Barr, C. A. Newcomb, William E. Quinby, Rabbi Leo M. Franklin, Homer Warren, Rev. John McDowell, Controller F. A. Blades and others.

CANADIAN TRADE WITH JAMAICA

Opportunities for Expansion in That Direction.

BUTTER AND BACON WANTED

How Trade Could Be Built Up in Various Canadian Farm Products.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—"I would state that considerable attention is now being directed to the superiority of Canadian products by importers here, but I regret to say that Canadian producers appear disinclined to bring themselves into line with our market in regard to size, packing, promptitude in filling orders and general existing conditions." The foregoing appears in a letter received by Mr. F. W. Hodson, Dominion live stock commissioner, from Mr. W. Simpson McCormack, of Kingston, Jamaica, relative to the extension of Canada's trade with that country in dairy and live stock products. The communication is in reply to one from Mr. Hodson, pointing out the excellence of Canadian live stock and the superiority of the products of this country.

WHAT JAMAICA WANTS.

In his letter Mr. McCormack gives details of the character of butter, cheese, bacons and hams most in demand. As to butter, what is required, he said, is choice creamery put up in one-half, one and five pound tins; also in kegs of about 34 pounds, costing about 19 to 23 cents per pound, f. o. b., Halifax; also good dairy butter put up in small 10 pound tubs and 24 pound kegs, costing from 15 to 18 cents per pound, f. o. b., Halifax. In regard to cheese, large size kinds are not salable, but a lively demand exists for the best qualities in strong boxes of four, weighing about 10 pounds each; also singles put up separately in strong boxes weighing about 18 to 25 pounds each.

THE DEMAND FOR BACON.

Mr. McCormack states that there should not be the least difficulty in building up a direct trade in bacon and hams, because quantities of these articles arrive from Bristol and other English ports, rebagged and represented as of English manufacture, whereas he knows them to have been produced by Canadian farmers. The most important shippers of these goods doubtless give their attention to the British market, but if some of the smaller men would comply with all the details of Jamaica trade the consumption, demand and importance of the trade would be a revelation. Mr. McCormack feels he cannot too strongly impress upon the Canadian dairymen the importance of this market, and he is prepared to give assistance to place their products, provided they are prepared to meet the market on local conditions. There is no demand for heavy horses, the stock required being lightly built carriage horses of not less than 15.2. Products and manufactures must always be quoted f. o. b.

SHIPMENT TO SOUTH AFRICA

Sample Cargo of Canadian Produce for New Colonies.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The first direct steamer from Canada to South Africa will take sample consignments of butter, cheese and canned goods, and 100 barrels of apples, as suggested by Mr. J. G. Jardine.

Mr. J. G. Jardine, Canadian commissioner in South Africa, in a report to the trade and commerce department, dated Pretoria, Sept. 8, states that a very large demand has arisen for agricultural machinery, plows, cultivators, harrows, etc., of the most simple and inexpensive kind, suitable for the thousands of expatriated Boers, discharged Australians, Canadians and British irregulars who are remaining in South Africa. The Imperial Government, he says, are placing these men on the land and giving them a start. Major Leggett, the Imperial officer at the head of the movement, and a Canadian officer who assists him, are both anxious to place orders of this kind with Canadian firms if the machinery can be made promptly, rather than buying in the United States. British makers, they think, cannot compete in supplying these implements. Agricultural firms in Canada in a position to make these cheap plows should, Mr. Jardine suggests, communicate with him at once. About 50,000 military settlers are to be put on the land, and the articles are to be paid for by the British Government, and if Canadian firms act with promptitude they may get a large share of the trade. Mr. Jardine submits the wholesale cost price in the Transvaal of a number of food products. Butter of the finest quality costs 23 to 24 shillings per dozen pound tins; medium butter, 18s 6d to 20s per dozen pound pots; lobsters, 18s 6d to 24s per dozen tins; American salmon, 8s to 8s 6d per dozen tins; best quality sardines, 9s to 10s 6d; medium, 6s 6d; corned beef, 8s 3d per dozen tins, and 15s 6d per dozen two-pound tins; ox tongues, 8s per dozen tins, and 15s 6d per dozen two-pound tins; white granulated sugar, 26s per 100 pounds; sweet milk, 27s 6d, unsweetened 28s per case of four dozen; colonial fresh eggs, 3s 6d to 4s per dozen; fowls or chickens, 6s to 6s 6d and 7s each; ducks, from 8s to 11s 6d; best turkeys, 20s to 25c each; inferior, 12s 6d to 15s each; best onions, 25s to 30s per bag of 125 pounds; second quality, 20s to 22s 6d. Prices will be lowered to some extent when the blockade at the coast ports is raised.

SALVATION ARMY IS SOLID

Disaffection of General Booth's Sons Unimportant.

Army Is Still Marching On With Old Flag at Its Head.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—"There are some people who are telling absolute lies about our headquarters, the methods of our organization, its soldiers and its officers," declared Adjutant Storey, of the Salvation Army in an address to several hundred persons in Princess Rink yesterday afternoon. "What their objects are, if they have any, I do not know, but it is only just and right that their statements be contradicted.

"With regard to the steps taken by the two sons of our beloved general, the very least that can be said is that the Salvation Army mourns deeply the fact that they have seceded from its ranks. We must agree with the general that they have been misguided, but one thing does seem indisputable. If Ballington Booth was not satisfied with the organizations and methods of the Salvation Army he should have withdrawn quietly and sought out new fields instead of causing rancor and discord by opening new halls all over the country in close proximity, as most of them are, to the Salvation Army halls already in use. He has not produced a new creation, which is one of the essential features to be considered in undertaking the service of God, but has simply taken up an old work and carried it out along the lines already employed by ourselves.

LOYAL TO METHODS.

"As for Herbert Booth's allegation that the methods we employ have had their day—need that subject be discussed? We are doing what Christ commanded us to do when he said: 'Go ye out into the world and preach the gospel unto all nations.' It is the method that he employed—can we do better than to follow his example in all things?

"But how was it that Ballington Booth never discovered that the organization of the army was not right until it acutally touched him? There is the weak point in his argument. I believe it is a good thing that the brothers seceded when they did—I believe that it was the hand of God preparing the army for the general's death. If he had died while they were in the ranks and some one else had been appointed to take his place they would have split off just the same, and matters would have been infinitely worse."

AUBREY STOCK COMPANY

Fair-Sized Audience Witnesses Good Performance.

"In the Palace of the Czar" was presented at the new Grand Opera House last night by the Aubrey Stock Company, which will play a week's engagement here. The company includes a number of acceptable actors, and last night's play was very satisfactory. This is one of the best of the popular-priced companies on the road, and, while the attendance last night was fair, it will probably become larger as the merits of the performances become known. A number of specialties were introduced between acts.

Tonight "We 'Uns of Tennessee" will be put on.

PICKED UP BY THE FENDER

Narrow Escape of Italian Lad Struck by Street Car.

Docar Briglia, of Fullarton street, an Italian lad, who attends St. Peter's school was struck by a street car at the corner of Kent and Richmond streets at noon today, while on his way home from school. He evidently thought he could get across in front of the car, but he had made a miscalculation. The car was going at a good rate of speed, and the lad was thrown heavily on the fender. He was carried into Dr. Stutt's office, where an examination showed that he had received only a few minor bruises and scratches.

Western Cattle Healthy.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—Dr. Rutherford, Dominion veterinary inspector, returned today from a visit of inspection to Manitoba, the Territories and British Columbia. He reports that owing to the rapid settlement of the country and the increase in live stock some reorganization of the veterinary service will be necessary throughout the whole of the West. The cattle on the ranges are in a healthy condition, and the mange, which was for a time prevalent, has disappeared. "Things are booming in Manitoba and the Territories," Dr. Rutherford said. "Everybody there is in high spirits. There is an abundance of wheat and lots of money in circulation. In British Columbia matters are quiet, but the Province is recovering and coming out all right."

HERE FOLLOWETH THE TALE OF THE TRAPPED TRAVELER

Being a Veracious History of a Man Who Knew Not of the Posts in Victoria Park.

Hark! 'Tis the midnight hour that rings out from the cathedral tower. 'Tis a dark and rainy night, and even the bells are ringing wet. So still it is that it seems as if all the city is wrapped in slumber. No, there is a tramp being rapped out of slumber by the policeman who has just been startled out of his sleep-walking feat by stumbling over the tramp's legs.

But hark again! (That makes two harks now.) Another sound breaks the silence, and the continuance of the sounds soon reduces the aforesaid silence to small fragments. 'Tis the sound of footsteps on the sidewalk. (No, they are not cigar ads.; your mistake is a natural one, however). 'Tis a traveler hurrying home to his family. He has been away from the city for months, and now his heart is doubly glad. He is rich, rich beyond the dreams of avarice, for did he not have 4¾ tons of coal left over from last winter, and has not a man in New York offered him snifty steen dollars per lump for it? Now he is hurrying home to tell the joyous tidings to his family. With his riches he will take them to the balmy isles of the Southern Seas, where coal is as superfluous a commodity as coonskin coats.

See, he is taking the short cut across Victoria Park. He is in sight of home and he has broken into a run. How should he know that because a misguided driver once drove his horse on the footpath, posts have been planted across them? Had he heard of it he would not have believed such an absurd thing possible. If such a principle were carried out, the earth would be fooled in to prevent the possibility of Comet B, 1902, striking it.

Cr-a-a-a-a-sh! He has just found it. In the darkness he has struck the deadly thing right amidships, and something has to go. He goes—headlong to the ground.

One o'clock, two o'clock, three o'clock strikes, but he stirs not. The rain has ceased, and snow has set in. The delicate crystals are falling on him one by one, soft as his baby's lips, cold as the helpless bacteria who have been robbed of their coke bed, white as the stainless marble pavement on King street. Here he must lie till the park policeman, looking for the earliest blade of grass upon which he can lure the unwary pedestrian, finds the pitiful remains. Meanwhile his wife and the babies must wait with weary, tear-dimmed eyes for the husband and father who lies—left at the post.

PERRIN'S COMET VISIBLE

Can Be Seen With the Naked Eye in London.

Vice-Principal Dearness Tells How It May Be Found.

Vice-Principal Dearness, of the Normal school, who takes quite an interest in astronomy, has been on the lookout for the Perrin comet, of which so much has recently been said. He said to The Advertiser today that to the naked eye it looks yet only like a wisp of star-mist about the size of one's hat.

"The position is not difficult to indicate approximately," Mr. Dearness said. "The Summer Triangle, consisting of three bright stars, is overhead now at sunset. The northeast star of the triangle, known as Deneb, is situated in the Milky Way, and it is directly overhead at 8 p.m. Draw an imaginary line from Deneb to the north star or hold up a cane or yard stick so that these two stars will be on its edge. The comet will be seen three or four degrees north of Deneb, and about a degree west of the line."

Mr. Dearness was asked: How may one know how far three degrees is. He said that about 8 p.m. at this time of the year the interesting little groups of stars known in literature as the Pleiades, may be observed rising in the east. The farmers usually call it the Little Dipper, and associate its appearance with early frost. The comet's position last night was about twice the length of the Pleiades, north by west from Deneb. It is easily found there with the aid of an opera glass; after viewing it through the glass it can be plainly discerned with the naked eye.

LADIES ARE NOW AROUSED

Strike Has at Last Hit Vulnerable Spot.

Use of Soft Coal Makes Dust Which Injures Bonnets.

Another serious and dreadful situation has arisen from out the haze of perplexity which the strike situation has occasioned. During the colder weather of a day or so ago, everyone who could get any soft coal was using it, and all the factories are burning it in large quantities. Since it has come into such general use the result has been that in many parts of the city, and especially in the down-town portions, fine dust is constantly falling, and milliners say that they are receiving complaints galore about its disastrous effect upon their lightest-colored confections.

The ladies sadly proclaim their indignation and declare their belief that the men who let the strike continue are no gentlemen or they wouldn't cause their bonnets to be spoiled that way. The milliners seem quite satisfied to let things remain as they are for a while, as it has mean an unexpected boom in their business. This morning one of them announced her intention to a representative of this paper, of patenting a soot-protector, which her ingenious mind has schemed out. It was quite apparent that she was in earnest when she said:

"Yes, it is quite true that the soot coming from the soft coal is causing perplexity among many of our customers. A hat of felt, which is very fashionable now, is practically spoiled when this black dust falls on it."

"Has it increased your trade at all" she was asked.

"Oh, yes, considerably," she said, and she smiled as if she wasn't the least bit sorry that the strike was on.

THEY STOOD THE ORDEAL

Medical Freshmen Got All That Was Coming to Them.

They Will Be Able to Sit Up and Take Nourishment Tonight.

The students of the second year at the Western Medical College this morning administered to the freshmen of the institution with strict observance of all the ancient and honorable forms of the sacred rites, the initiation ceremony without which no first year student can be properly impressed with the mental, moral and physical superiority of the second and senior years. The preliminary scrap was the shortest on record, occupying only about 5 minutes and 48 seconds. Though short, it was sharp, and neither side had occasion to blush for their prowess. After the freshmen had sojourned a time in the cavern of grisly shapes, they were taken up into a high place, where they were made to take the fearful oath of the freshmen, traverse the long tunnel, ride the two-horned mammoth, given an application of a new dandruff cure, and, as a fitting finale, were sent with breath-taking velocity down the steep declivity to the foaming torrent beneath. This ended the ceremony, and the initiates were greeted with the fervent glad hand of full fellowship.

Tonight the students will attend in a body the performance at the Grand Opera House. They will occupy the front seats in the balcony and will enliven the proceedings with their songs and glees. A supper will close the memorable day, and the students will then settle down to the hard work of the term.

PRESIDENT MAKES ANOTHER APPEAL

Through President Mitchell Asks Men to Return to Work and Promises Inquiry.

Washington, Oct. 7.—President Roosevelt has requested Mr. Mitchell, president of the Mine Workers' Union, to use his influence to induce the men to go to work with the promise of the appointment of a commission to investigate their grievances and a further promise that the President will urge upon Congress legislation in accordance with a recommendation of that commission. No reply has yet been received from Mr. Mitchell. The President sent Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of labor, to Philadelphia to meet Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Wright has reported that after the proposal of the President had been submitted, Mr. Mitchell said that he wanted to take it under consideration. It is expected that the miners will take up the suggestion of the President and decide upon it after it has been presented to them by Mr. Mitchell.

Commissioner of Immigration Sargent returned from Philadelphia today but had no information to communicate, as he did not see Mr. Mitchell in that city.

THE WORLD'S COAL OUTPUT

The Tight Little Island Leads the World.

United States Strikes Causes Rise in Price in All Countries.

New York, Oct. 7.—The Sun has the following from London: Some interesting facts in regard to the world's coal output and the general advance in prices have just been compiled by the British Board of Trade. The production of coal last year in Great Britain was 219,047,000 tons; in the United States, 260,929,000; in Germany, 108,417,000, and in France, 31,618,000 tons. The amounts produced in 1901 were in most cases less than in the preceding year, although the United States continue to increase, and have now for three consecutive years exceeded the United Kingdom. The total known production of the world, exclusive of brown coal, was nearly 700,000,000 tons. Compared with the population, the production of Great Britain surpasses that of the United States. It amounted to 5½ tons per head in 1900 and 5¼ in 1901, as against 3½ for the United States, Germany less than two tons and France about four-fifths of a ton per head. The average value of coal per ton taken out of the collieries of Great Britain was $2 64; Germany, $2 15; France, $2 92, and the United States $1 27. These averages in all cases were higher than the preceding year. The rise in Belgium amounted to $1, in Great Britain to 75 cents and in France to 50 cents. In Germany prices rose only about 25 cents, and in the United States about 14 cents. A telegram from Swansea says that from inquiries at headquarters it seems likely that shipments of coal from that port to the United States will continue for some time, notwithstanding any possible settlement of the dispute between the American mine operators and the miners' union, and that the coal already purchased will be shipped in large quantities until November. Owing to the exports of coal the trade of the port of Swansea this week exceeded all previous records.

MONEY READY IF NEEDED

Citizens Asked to Subscribe to Guarantee Fund.

Mr. G. C. Gibbons Offers $100 to Buy Fuel If Required.

A meeting of citizens will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the city hall to discuss the fuel situation so far as it may affect the working people of the city.

The proposal will be made to secure 2,000 or more cords of wood, which would be sold to the people as cheaply as possible. It will be suggested also that the Government be asked to lower the duty on soft coal and that the railways be asked also to grant special rates for the carrying of wood.

There is the possibility that if 2,000 cords, say, of wood is bought, and can be sold here for $7 per cord, a change in the situation might cause a reduction in price. To guard against such loss a guarantee fund is proposed.

When asked if he would assist in this way by going on the guarantee fund, Mr. George C. Gibbons, K. C., said this morning that he would do whatever was right. He said that he would cheerfully give his check for $100 outright if the committee of citizens decide that money is required.

Her Recompense.

Dinner was served with all the style and ceremony which characterize a fashionable hotel, and our friends were enjoying the excitement of being among and watching the gay company about them, when Audrey suddenly became conscious that a pair of keen gray eyes, at another table, were attentively regarding her.

The owner was an elderly gentleman of perhaps sixty-five years—a fine-looking, gray-haired man, who, judging from his face and the shape of his head, possessed great strength and decision of character.

Audrey never once raised her eyes while at dinner without encountering his, or being conscious that he was regarding her with a half-curious and admiring look.

He appeared to be alone, for he conversed with no one during the meal, and when dessert was served he arose and left the room.

When Audrey and her companions again repaired to the veranda, this same gentleman was seated at the farther end, conversing with another, apparently of about his own age.

Rich gave his arm to Audrey and Annie, and they began to promenade back and forth.

As they drew near the spot where the two elderly gentlemen were seated, the one who had been so observant of Miss Waldemar during dinner, turned to his companion and said:

"Who is that beautiful woman, I wonder?"

The gentleman addressed looked up at the approaching trio, started, arose from his chair and took a step forward, as if to address them.

But they, not having observed the movement, turned at that moment and retraced their steps, and he resumed his seat.

"That is Miss Waldemar, a former client of mine—from New York," replied Mr. Hosmer, Audrey's old lawyer, for it was he.

His companion started now, while his eyes were riveted upon that regal figure with a wistful, troubled look.

"Waldemar! What Waldemar? To what family does she belong?" he questioned, with repressed eagerness.

"She is Miss Audrey Waldemar, only child of the late Hon. Dudley Waldemar. Were you acquainted with the family, Mr. Halstead?"

Yes, it was Mr. Richard Halstead, the father of Audrey's early lover. For the first time in his life he now gazed upon the woman whom his son had loved.

"No, not personally; I knew of them," he replied. "They are very wealthy, are they not?"

"They were, but unfortunately Mr. Waldemar's investments proved to be unwise, and since her father's death Miss Waldemar has lost almost everything. There is a possibility, however, that she may recover a portion of her property, if stocks in certain western railroads should come up by and bye," explained Mr. Hosmer.

"U-m! But she's a wonderfully beautiful woman," returned Mr. Halstead, his eyes still following that graceful figure. "She has the loveliest face I ever saw. It is no wonder that Ar— Ah!" suddenly coming to his senses, and realizing that he was upon the point of betraying secrets; "but who is that fine-looking youngster with her? and the little lady in blue also?"

"The young man is an adopted son, or nephew—a lad whom she found somewhere years ago, and becoming interested in him, brought him up. He is proving to be a fine fellow, too—going to make one of the smartest architects in the country. The young lady I do not know; but, judging from appearances, I should say it is someone in whom the young man is especially interested. It's rather an interesting trio, eh, Halstead?"

"Yes, yes—very. But it is a little strange that such a magnificent woman as Miss Waldemar is has never married, isn't it?" questioned Mr. Halstead, with rather more of interest than was to be expected from an entire stranger, Mr. Hosmer thought.

"Oh, there was an early attachment and disappointment, I believe. It seems to me I heard she was engaged at one time to a fine young man, and the match was broken off by the interference, or obstinacy, or something of the kind, of his father. But she went abroad with her parents about that time, and I never really knew the truth of it. They—Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar—both died abroad, and she was left alone in the world; and there were years after that during which she was very sad, scarcely going into company at all, and seeing no one except intimate acquaintances. But since her protege has grown to manhood she has mingled more in society."

"You say you do not know where she found him?" Mr. Halstead asked, turning his glance for a moment upon Rich.

"No. She was always very close on that subject, even with me. I once asked her who he was, and she answered, with a charming smile, but with a certain 'thus far no farther' way which she has, 'He is my nephew, Mr. Hosmer'—and so I never troubled her again on that point."

"This is a strange world after all, with its romances and secrets," remarked Mr. Halstead, with a long-drawn sigh, while his face grew sad, and there came a look of pain into his eye.

Rich and his companions had turned again and were now coming toward them.

Audrey was talking in an animated way, glancing first at Rich, then at Annie, and she certainly was a woman calculated to attract observation and admiration everywhere.

Her eyes were brilliant; her lips were wreathed with smiles; there was a peach-like bloom on her fair cheek, and a charm and grace in her every gesture that held that observer, at the end of the veranda, spell-bound.

Mr. Hosmer arose and advanced to greet them as they drew near, expressing his pleasure at the unexpected meeting.

Audrey and Rich saluted him cordially, introducing Annie, and they all stood chatting socially for several moments.

All at once Mr. Hosmer, addressing Audrey, said:

"I have an old friend here to whom I would like to introduce you, if you are agreeable."

All unsuspicious of what was coming, Audrey signified her willingness to make a new acquaintance, and leading her directly forward to his former companion, Mr. Hosmer said:

"Miss Waldemar, allow me to present to you my old and valued friend, Mr. Richard Halstead."

Audrey experienced a violent internal shock as that name fell upon her ears.

A sudden mist seemed to obsure her sight; her heart almost ceased its beating, and an icy chill ran rapidly over her, for she knew that she stood face to face with the father of her early lover—face to face with the man who had ruthlessly ruined her life, and deprived her of the highest earthly joy a woman can know.

But she recovered herself almost instantly.

Possibly, she thought, he might not recognize in her the girl whom his son had loved, and she would not allow him to discover it by betraying any undue emotion; she would never show how the sound of the name, which she had so dearly loved in the past, had power to stir her soul, even now, to its very depths.

So she bowed before him with graceful self-possession—she could not offer him the hand which he had once spurned for his son—acknowledging the introduction, and then dropped into an easy chat with him about the attractions of the place they were both visiting, and the current events of the day.

Richard Halstead had been no less moved than she at being so unexpectedly presented to her, and he was far from feeling at ease in her presence, for every moment only served to prove to him, more and more, what a noble woman she was; and he stood there before her, feeling condemned and remorseful for having ever dared to interfere between her destiny and that of his son.

It was true he had had his way—had accomplished his purpose in uniting him to the daughter of his early friend, and thus a large fortune had been added to the already plethoric Halstead coffers; but what of other conditions and results?

Ida Montrose had been an invalid from the very outset. She had never been able to endure either the duties or the pleasures which other wives assumed and enjoyed. Her home was left to the care of servants, who had no interest for the comfort of the household beyond securing their wages and a shelter for themselves. Darkness and silence reigned all over the stately mansion, for the mistress must not be disturbed by either noise or the glare of the sun.

There were no pattering feet, no prattling voices to make music about the place, and only He who knoweth all things knew how bitter a disappointment this had been to both husband and wife.

So the gloom of sickness hung constantly over the home of Arthur Halstead, and his wife had been a far different one from what he had pictured when, in those sweet old days, he had fondly believed that Audrey Waldemar would be his wife.

Ida was always gentle and patient She loved her husband devotedly, but she had not been long in discovering that his heart was not hers, and her secret grieving over this had helped to undermine her delicate constitution. They had always maintained, outwardly, the semblance of conjugal affection, but there had been a barrier between them from the beginning that nothing could overthrow.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Permanently Cures the Most Desperate Cases of Neuralgia.

At This Season the Marvelous Medicine Is Saving and Making Happy Thousands of Pain-Racked Mortals.

It is no difficult undertaking to convince men and women who are open to conviction that many forms of disease are due to some weakness or trouble with particular nerves or whole sets of nerves.

Neuralgia is, in the autumn season, one of the commonest of nerve diseases. It often touches every part of the body, but is usually located in the face, affecting the facial nerves and the teeth. Very often the disease attacks the nerves of the head, and fatal results follow when the brain is touched.

To those who suffer agonies at varying periods, and who have not yet found a cure, we urge with all honesty the use of nature's medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. It has rescued thousands from awful sufferings, grave dangers and fatal results. Mr. L. A. Belyea, Hampstead, N.B., tells how he was cured by Paine's Celery Compound.

"I was taken with a severe attack of neuralgia in the head and shoulders. It became deep seated, and I gave up the idea of ever being cured. I was induced to try a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had used the half of it I began to feel better. I have taken three bottles of this glorious medicine, and today I can say that it is the first time in eleven years that I have felt none of those piercing pains to which I had once been a victim."

Gold Heels this season won the Suburban handicap, the Brighton Derby, Brighton cup, Advance stakes, and about $50,000 in money. He sold for $6,500. Jockey Winnie O'Connor was the buyer, and the price caused a mild sensation. It is well-known, however, that Gold Heels is a confirmed cripple. Gold Heels was first put up, but it was fifteen minutes before a bid was made. Gold Heels is a four-year-old b. c., by The Bard-Heels and Toe. PREJUDICE OVERCOME

After Everything Else Had Failed Madame Bujold Tries Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Is Cured.

Dyspepsia and other kindred stomach troubles always cause great depression of spirits.

This depression is frequently shown in the form of doubt and fear.

A Dyspeptic is hard to convince and this doubt and fear is one of the surest symptoms of Dyspepsia.

Madame Marie Ann Bujold, of Maria Cap, Bonaventure County, Quebec, was for years a chronic Dyspeptic.

She says she always had very strong objections to proprietory medicines and refused for a long time to try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets as a cure for her malady.

She preferred to consult several physicians, and it was not until after their treatment had been thoroughly tested with no good results that she made up her mind to throw aside all doubt, fear and prejudice and use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

She was by this time very low and could not take the simplest food without having a severe pain across her stomach together with great distress of body and mind. After a short treatment of this remedy she writes:

"Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are wonderful. For two years my life has been a burden, but they have completely cured me.

"It is now a long time since I have taken any and my trouble has not returned.

"I recommend Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to all who suffer with Dyspepsia."

This is an unsolicited testmony of one who for a long time refused to be cured, and should come as good advice to any Dyspeptic who may be in doubt as to how to find relief from the pain and distress which is the inevitable result of this malady.

Found Dead in the Woods.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 6.—John Coffin, aged 11 years, and Price Jennings, aged 14 years, who disappeared from their parents' homes here last Wednesday, were found dead in a small wood near Haddon Heights, about six miles south of this city. Paul Woodward, an 18 years old youth, is under arrest charged with having caused the death of the children. Coffin was a son of William Coffin, division freight agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Jennings' father is Josephus Jennings, a well-known musician and director of the Third Regiment band. Detectives learned that on Wednesday the two boys, who were inseparable companions, accompanied by a youth, had purchased some pies from a small store in West Collingswood, about five miles from this city. Lillian Martin, daughter of the proprietor of the store, today identified Woodward as the companion of the boys when they had made their purchases. There were no marks of violence on either body, and after an autopsy, portions of the stomach were sent to a chemist for analysis. It is said the police are working on the theory that the boys were poisoned.

Molineaux Trial Postponed.

New York, Oct. 6.—The second trial of Roland B. Molineux, charged with the murder of Mrs. Katherine Adams in December, 1898, has again been postponed. The retrial of the famous case was set for today, but Justice Barrett, who was assigned to preside, is ill, and court was adjourned until Monday next.

No Cars at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 6.—New Orleans continues to walk or ride in ramshackle wagons from place to place. The order of the mayor to the company to run its cars at 9 o'clock today, which was recalled, doubtless prevented violence. Reports of the cutting of street railway and telegraph wires were numerous today.

A Sure Cure for Constipation.

Some remedies cure this distressing complaint in a day, some in a month, but Nerviline never fails to cure in a few minutes. Just ten drops of Nerviline in sweetened water—that's enough, and away goes the dysentery, cures to stay cured. Nerviline also cures cramps, colic, pain in the stomach and sick headache. It has five times the strength and curative properties of ordinary remedies, and should be in every household. Better buy a 25c bottle and try it. Nerviline is all right.

SOFT COAL IN A FURNACE.

Mr. S. T. Church writes to the Toronto Globe: For the past two weeks I have been using soft coal in a furnace according to the directions given below and with capital success. No gas, no smoke, no dust. Place the required amount of coal in furnace. Open draft, until the fuel has reached a full blaze, then cover over with a light layer of wet ashes—soft or hard coal. Judgment should be used as to the thickness of the covering. Temper the draft the same as in the use of anthracite. Fire may be retained for a period of 24 hours and even longer by an increase in the thickness of the covering and the proper adjustment of the draft. Leave draft in top door constantly open.

LAUNDRIES WILL BE TAXED

Must Pay for Water According to Meter.

Proposal to Work Some System for Railways Laid Over.

Engineer Moore reported at yesterday's meeting of the water commissioners the estimated cost of placing meters on service pipes leading to the different railway companies' properties. For the Grand Trunk pipes it would cost $850; for the Canadian Pacific $515, and for the Lake Erie and Detroit River $150, making a total of $1,515. He also recommended that meters to cost the consumers $10 annually be placed on all laundries.

The first clause was laid over till the next meeting, while the second was adopted.

The McClary Company applied for an extension of the main on William street south for fire protection, the whole to cost $500. The engineer and chairman were appointed a committee to inquire into their application.

Between Sept. 16 and 30 the hydraulic machinery pumped 31,934,400 gallons of water, while the Blake-Yates pumps forced 50,536,710 gallons into the city pipes. Thirteen fet six inches was the highest point the water in the reservoir has reached, and the lowest was twelve feet eight inches.

Chairman Jones, Commissioner Little, Engineer Moore and Secretary Ellwood attended the meeting.

MAY CALL REV. DR. McCRAE

St. Andrew's, Vancouver, Want Westminster Clergyman.

Is Considered a Worthy Successor to Rev. Dr. McLaren.

Rev. D. L. McCrae, D.D., of Westminster, Ont., will very likely receive a call to the vacant pastorate of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in this city, says the Vancouver Province of Sept. 29. It adds that the call may be extended this week, according to a statement made to the Province today by a prominent member of the congregation of St. Andrew's. It is understood that the question of offering Rev. Dr. McCrae the pastorate is now being very generally discussed among the members of the congregation, and individually the members of the board of management and elders of the church have been approached with a view to a speedy settlement of the matter.

There will be a meeting of the board of management and elders on Wednesday evening, when, if present intentions are carried out, the question of offering the pastorate to Rev. Dr. McCrae will be brought up and finally disposed of. Rev. Dr. McCrae has occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church for the past two Sundays, and many of the members of the congregation have expressed the greatest satisfaction with his ministration. In the pulpit he is a forceful and particularly bright speaker, his words carrying with them that peculiar conviction which is always a source of gratification to his auditors. Those who have heard Rev. Dr. McCrae preach in St. Andrew's are very forward in expressing the opinion that he would be a most worthy successor to Rev. Dr. McLaren.

Diminished Vitality.

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality.
They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life—that it is that little understood something on which every function of their bodies depends.
Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and endurance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitalizer. b

Irrigation Congress.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 6.—The tenth national irrigation congress opened this afternoon. Great significance attaches to the congress this year because the irrigation movement is not merely a propaganda now, but has been given a national importance by the action of the last United States Congress in passing a bill authorizing that the proceeds from the sale of State lands shall be used for irrigation purposes in the several States.

MEMBERS OF COUNCIL SIT UNTIL WITCHING HOUR

Bulky Batch of Business Was Put Through.

Ald. Cooper Drove Dull Monotony Far Away.

Coke, Wood, Firemen, Pavements and Other Things Were Discussed at Great Length.

Four solid hours (with fifteen minutes for carfare, as the Burgomaster says), was the time taken up by the city council at last night's session. A goodly portion of business was gone through, but hardly sufficient to justify the wasting of so many precious moments that might have been more usefully and pleasurably employed. If the aldermen's time is money, they are certainly entitled to rank with the most famous spendthrifts of history.

Ald. Cooper, as usual, distinguished himself. Not only did he address the council on every single topic which arose, but he threatened to knock one fellow alderman down, had a lively dispute with another anent his right to make statements on supposition, and threatened this eminently respectable and truthful family journal with dire punishment for printing two whole columns of lies about him. He had, too, to face a regular fusilade of enquiry as to why some things, which ought not to have been done, had been done, and why other things, which should have been done, had not been done.

The most important of the evening's business may be summarized as follows: It was decided to pull down the eastern market veranda because of its dangerous condition. Three new firemen were appointed, one more than the number of existing vacancies. The Peter street pavement will be proceeded with, despite the protest of the property owners. The bacteria bed coke will be used for heating purposes and the municipal woodyard idea will be investigated. The Sifton bylaw was referred to committee and the application of the Southwestern Traction Company to enter the city goes to the solicitor. All the aldermen were present at the meeting.

ANOTHER OF THOSE PERMITS

This Time 'Twas to Move a Telephone, But the Talk-Box Must Go Out Again.

J. L. Richmond, manager of the Bell Telephone Company, notified the council that the telephone had been removed from the residence of Mr. R. Ironsides to the assessment commissioner's office. The removal had been ordered by Ald. Cooper, chairman of No. 2 committee, but Mr. Richmond had since been instructed that the commissioner's office was under the direction of No. 1 committee.

Ald. Cooper moved that the communication be filed, and that the 'phone be ordered removed from the commissioner's office.

Ald. Pritchard asked what right the chairman of No. 2 committee had to order the removal of the 'phone.

Ald. Cooper replied that he had the authority of No. 2 committee. The committee had since decided to do away with the telephone.

Ald. Cooper's motion was carried.

Terry & Appleton applied for permission to store a merry-go-round in fair building.

This petition was the cause of a little spat between Ald. Winnett and Ald. Cooper. The latter said he thought the privilege had been granted before by No. 2 committee when Ald. Winnett was chairman. Ald. Winnett in opposing the granting of the request, called Ald. Cooper to task for making statements which were untrue.

"I won't have you or anyone else say I make untrue statements," blustered Ald. Cooper. "I thought it was so."

"You shouldn't make statements when you don't know," retorted Ald. Winnett.

"I thought it was so and I think so yet," answered Ald. Cooper tartly.

Ald. Winnett let it go at that. The request was refused.

W. D. Lighthall, of Montreal, wrote that an invitation to have the Union of Canadian Municipalities meet in London would receive favorable consideration from the executive.

On motion of Ald. Campbell, the clerk was instructed to forward an invitation to the union to hold the next convention in this city.

Mrs. Patullo, of the Women's Christian Association, asked that the city assume the maintenance of Margaret McCoy, an infant at present, in the Infants' Home. The matter was referred to the mayor and inspector, with power.

Mayor Beck and City Clerk Kingston submitted their report of the convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities. The report was received and adopted.

The Meredith estate submitted a petition for cement walk on south side of Albert street, from Ridout to Talbot street. The petition was granted and the walk will be advertised.

John Mairorana and Isabella Foster applied for remission of taxes. Robinson Baldwin asked for refund of fine imposed by police magistrate, and H. A. Mackay asked for refund of cost of impounding cattle. All four communications were sent to No. 1.

Only one communication was left for No. 2 committee. Mrs. Hindmarsh, through H. B. Elliot, submitted a claim for injuries sustained by a fall on an alleged defective sidewalk on Hamilton road, near Maitland street.

John Bowman applied for remission of 1901 taxes on Y. M. C. A. premises. The petition was granted.

W. L. Gregory applied for a grant of $100 in aid of the Seventh Regiment Rifle Association. The petition was granted.

THE PAVEMENT MUST GO DOWN

So Would Ald. McMechan Had Ald. Cooper Carried Out His Threat.

R. W. Bennet and five other property owners on Peter street, asked that the contract for the construction of a tar macadam pavement on that street be canceled, as the contract had not been completed within the specified time. They submitted that they did not wish to have the pavement turn out as did the Queen's avenue pavement, which was laid after frost and snow had set in.

Ald. Cooper said that the work could be finished within two weeks, and he moved that the petition be referred to No. 2 committee.

Ald. Pritchard said it was absurd for Ald. Cooper to say the pavement could be done within two weeks. He referred to Talbot street pavement, which was not nearly finished, although work had been going on for two or three months. He moved that the petition be granted and Ald. McMechan seconded the motion.

Ald. Winnett moved in amendment that the work be gone on with if the weather holds good.

Ald. McMechan, in favoring the canceling of the contract, referred to the disgraceful condition of the streets in general, and particularly King street. He incidentally suggested that the block pavement be covered with gravel, which he said would make a good pavement for five years.

Ald. Cooper stated that the Talbot street pavement would soon be finished.

Ald. Pritchard said that the first block on Talbot street was not ready for the surfacing. The work could not be finished for weeks.

Ald. McMechan, in asking that ex-Ald. R. W. Bennet be heard, referred to a previous speaker as the champion of the contractor.

This brought Ald. Cooper to his feet. "I object to that statement," he said, wrathfully. "A man who would say that ought to be knocked down, and I'd do it myself in a minute. You're no good, anyway."

Ald. McMechan deigned no reply.

Ex-Ald. Bennet then addressed the council, forcibly protesting against the doing of the work this year. The road would be petitioned for next year, he said, and it could be done then. Mr. Bennet said one curious circumstance was that he had informed Ald. Cooper that the residents' petition was coming into the council on Monday night, and that the contractor had started work on the street at Monday noon.

Several aldermen and the mayor ventured the opinion that the contract could not be cancelled till the expiration of the time limit, Oct. 15.

Ald. Winnett's amendment, that the work go on if weather permitted, was carried.

WILL BURN THE BEDS FOR FUEL

They Are Coke Bacteria Beds, and the Bacteria Must Sleep on the Floor.

Ald. Cooper came up like a human yeast cake at No. 3's recommendation that the coke in the bacteria beds be used for relief purposes and for heating the city buildings, the bacteria beds to be credited with the cost of the coke.

"What right has No. 3 to take the coke that belongs to No. 2 committee?" asked the doughty alderman from the north end. "They've no right to take it for the city buildings."

Ald. Winnett said that there were 330 tons of coke which had never been used in the bacteria beds. This coke, while bought for $3 50 per ton, was now worth $8 per ton. Ald. Winnett said he assumed the responsibility of not having called for tenders at the usual time, but he pointed out that in June, when the contract expired, the strike was on and the price of coal was advancing at that time. Ald. Winnett also referred to the fact that though hard coal had for some reason been burned for years in the city buildings, soft coal would do as well.

"Perhaps the chairman of No. 2 last year could explain why soft coal was not used?" suggested Ald. McMechan, drily.

Ald. Winnett did not attempt to explain.

Ald. Douglass related his own experience with soft coal. The first fire lighted with it in a new furnace had completely ruined the furnace and clogged the pipes.

Ald. Gerry suggested that the present would be a good time to thin out the shade trees, as many of them could be utilized as relief wood.

Ald. Greenlees submitted a humorous motion to the effect that the coke should be distributed among the aldermen of the city as an acknowledgment of the value of their services to the city and to recoup them in a measure for the many weary evenings they spend in civic business at the city hall.

The motion gave rise to several facetious suggestions. One alderman wanted the torn-down veranda thrown in as kindling. The mayor proposed that the coke be burned at the city hall, but that all the aldermen take up their residence there. It was thought, however, that even the coke would be unable to overcome the coolness which exists between certain irreconcilable elements in the council.

The recommendation of the committee was carried.

The mayor was authorized to secure 100 cords of wood for relief purposes.

Tenders will be called for the teaming of the coke and wood.

MARKET VERANDA TO COME DOWN

"Dirty, Shabby and Dangerous"—Hard Words Those—Three New Firemen

No. 3 committee's recommendation that the veranda on the east side of the market house be pulled down, owing to its dangerous condition, was opposed by Ald. Cooper. He moved that the matter be referred to next year's council. There was no danger of the veranda falling.

Ald. Greenlees said that after walking through the veranda, and also looking through it, he considered it a dirty, shabby, mean-looking concern, and also positively dangerous. He would be in favor of pulling down the whole market building and putting up a new one. Too much money was being spent in market repairs.

Ald. Gerry said he was of opinion that the veranda was dangerous, but he was in favor of repairing it. No. 3 committee had been instructed to call for tenders for repairing it, and he asked why this had not been done. The tenants in the basement would probably leave their premises if the veranda was taken away.

The recommendation of the committee was sustained.

The appointment of J. H. Andrews and ex-P. C. Robert Robertson to succeed Firemen W. J. Brazier and John Smart, was confirmed on Chief Roe's recommendation.

Ald. Douglas moved and Ald. Stevely seconded that a third man be appointed. The motion carried by a division of 9 to 3, and H. E. Burgess was appointed.

The clause recommending that the council petition the Government to remove the duty of 53 cents per ton on bituminous coal was adopted without discussion. This ended No. 3 committee's report.

The report of No. 2 committee was adopted without discussion, with the exception of the clause recommending that Moses Cox be awarded the contract for the construcion of a sewer in Hyman street. Mr. Cox asked to be relieved of the contract, as he could not secure the necessary materials. The contract was given to Ben Johnston, his tender being only $3 higher than Mr. Cox's.

In No. 1 committee's report the only clause discussed at length was that touching the application of the Southwestern Traction Company to enter the city. In this connection a letter was read from Manager Carr, of the L. S. R., to the effect that the S. W. T. Company had already applied to him for running rights over the London street railway. He had replied to them that as soon as the company gave bona fide evidences of going ahead with the construction of their road, he would enter into negotiations with them. He would be prepared to offer to extend a line to any point of the city limits at which they desired to enter.

The matter was referred to the solicitor.

THEY JUST WANTED TO KNOW

Ald. Cooper Bombarded With Pertinent and Impertinent Queries.

Under the head of inquiries Ald. Greenlees asked Ald. Cooper if he had given City Engineer Graydon a permit to draw plans for a real estate company which had been doing business in the city.

"I never gave any such permission," answered Ald. Cooper. "The paper you read does nothing but print downright untruths!"

Ald. Greenlees replied that he was not reading any paper. He was making the enquiry because of a plan he had seen at the registry office, certified to by A. O. Graydon.

Ald. Pritchard wanted to know from Ald. Cooper by whose authority the Forest City Paving Company was allowed to stamp its advertisement in the walks it constructed.

Ald. McMechan inquired tentatively whether the sidewalk ad consisted of a large footprint.

Ald. Pritchard was informed that the paving companies had been putting their imprints on the sidewalks for several years.

Ald. Douglass asked why Richmond street north had not been swept this summer. The mud on it was disgraceful.

A similar query as to Dundas street east was propounded by Ald. Dreaney.

Ald. Winnett had the question to ask in relation to King street.

Ald. Dreaney inquired casually why gravel had not been put on Lyle street in front of St. Mary's Church. The chairman had promised him on Thursday night that it would be done at once, but it was still undone.

The questions were coming too hot for Ald. Cooper. He rose like a lion and hurled back their questions into the teeth of his tormentors. If they chose to give the engineer complete control of the department, it was not the chairman's fault if the work was not done. Then the worthy alderman devoted a few remarks to The Advertiser. "That Advertiser," he said, "had better look out or it would get something it did not expect. It had been full of things about him giving permits—two whole columns of it, but everybody knew it was all lies." Ald. Cooper did not seem to realize that he had been enshrined in a magnum opus of imaginative creation. He called it lies. He might at least have said fiction. However, what's the difference?

COOPER'S MOVELESS MOTIONS

The Municipal Woodyard—After the City Engineer—Bylaws Dealt With.

Moving time had now arrived, and the aldermen began to make motions.

Ald. Campbell, seconded by Ald. Winnett, moved that the matter of providing fuel for the citizens at a reasonable rate be referred to No. 3 committee, with power to contract with such persons as they may think necessary, but to take no action which shall impose upon the council any responsibility without first reporting. The motion went through.

Ald. Greenlees, seconded by Ald. Douglass, moved that No. 1 committee be instructed to use its influence with Engineer Graydon to have him confine his attention to the city's business, and not have him engage in any outside business.

Speaking in support of his motion, Ald. Greenlees referred to the plan of a tract of real estate, which had been certified to by Engineer Graydon as having been drawn up by him for "these Yankee adventurers," as Ald. Greenlees described them. The engineer's contract with the city called for his exclusive services, and it was not right that he or other members of the department should do outside work. The motion passed.

Ald. Cooper moved that the consideration of tenders for the city advertising be taken up again. No one seconded the motion.

Ald. Cooper moved for the appointment of a committee to confer with the London Street Railway Company with a view to seeking the extension of the Hamilton Road line and the relaying of the Rectory street tracks. This motion also was coldly received, and did not get past the mover.

The lengthy bylaw to permit the Power Equipment Company of Ontario to string wires in London was given its first and second readings. On motion of Ald. Jolly, it was referred to No. 2 committee to fill in certain blanks.

Ald. Campbell moved that his shade tree bylaw be not given its second reading, as he had ascertained that legislation would have to be secured before its provisions could be carried out. The motion was passed.

Bylaws were passed as follows: To close portions of Trafalgar and William streets; to regulate the use of checks by vendors of milk and bread; to reopen as a highway the westerly part of Great Talbot street; to give A. A. Campbell permission to register a 50-foot street, known as Cabell avenue, and to provide for the construction of cement walks.
