

TAFT AND BRYAN AT POLLS TODAY WEATHER FINE, BIG VOTE OUT

A Spectacular Campaign
Ends—Now Nothing
But the Polling.

GETTING READY FOR WILD NIGHT

New York Merchants Barricading
Premises in Preparation for Riotous Celebration.

New York, Nov. 2.—With the first gray shadows of approaching dawn, the American voters set out today to choose a new president of the United States to serve for four years from noonday of March 4 next. Business in New York and elsewhere throughout the country is practically at a standstill, while the millions of ballots are falling and the destinies of men, state and nation, are being decided. Early weather reports were favorable, and political managers renewed their predictions of yesterday that a heavy vote will be cast in every state where there has been the semblance of a contest between the two old parties.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN
Democratic Candidate for the Presidency of the United States.

HEAVY VOTE OUT IN ALL PARTS

Polls Open Early.
The polls opened in New York City and throughout the state at 6 o'clock this morning. This same rule applies in most of the states. The closing hour, as generally, is set for 5 p.m. The polling places offered about the only scenes of life in the city during the early hours of the day. The banks, stock exchange and business houses of all descriptions were closed. Lower Broadway and the financial district appeared the most deserted of all the familiar places about the city.

Barricading for Tonight.
Shopkeepers along Broadway, however, busied themselves during the morning with preparations of defence against the election night throngs and revelry, which reach here a degree of magnitude and liberty approached by probably no other city. Barricades were constructed today in front of plate glass windows, all showcases protruding upon the sidewalks were removed, and as far as possible "decks" were cleared, as the police expressed it, for the surging crowds that will pack the famous thoroughfare tonight from Old Trinity, at the head of Wall street, to Times Square, at Forty-second street, and beyond.

A Rush to Votes.
There was a rush of voters at practically every polling precinct this morning as soon as the ballot boxes were opened. The Tammany organization especially was anxious to get its vote in early, because of the fear of complications later in the day through the operation of the new registration. But Tammany is always an early voting organization. The new law, which is applicable only to New York City, and which has been denounced by the Democrats during the present state campaign as a device of the Republican Legislature to reduce the Democratic plurality "Below the Bronx" requires that voters shall write their own names in registering, and shall repeat the signature for comparison on election day. The catchism of questions for illiterate voters is quite extensive. These conditions are likely to result in slower voting than ever before. In the districts where was unusually heavy registration the police feared that time would not be available for everybody to vote, and in several instances the board of elections split up the precincts to avoid congestion and consequent trouble.

The up-state returns will undoubtedly be in before the count in many of the local precincts is fairly under way. Erie County, in which Buffalo is located, and which is declared usually to be an index to the national result, will be one of the first counties to announce results. Voting machines are used in most of the up-state cities and counties, including Buffalo, and the returns are quickly footed up from the different districts. A comparison of the returns from Erie County with the figures of two and four years ago, will give a pretty close idea of what the drift in state and nation is to be. Whatever of apathy may have been apparent during the campaign itself it (Continued on Page Nine.)

HEBREWS PICKED RAGS ON SUNDAY

And Were Hauled Into Court for
So Doing—Reserve Case
Laid Over.

An interesting case was heard before Magistrate Love this morning when Moses Left and Moses Ellison, two Hebrew junk dealers, were charged with breaking the Lord's Day act by picking rags on Sunday.

The men admitted that they had picked the rags on Sunday, but asked to be allowed to withhold their plea.

Mr. Meredith, who appeared for them, contended that the men were not liable if proceeded against under the Dominion statutes, instead of the Ontario statutes.

Under the Ontario statutes they are liable to a fine of from one to forty dollars.

Magistrate Love reserved the case for a week.

William Sweeney, a drunk, was fined $5, and William Gordon paid $2 on a similar charge.

Thomas Hinning paid $2 for being drunk and disorderly.

John Barry, another drunk, was fined $2.

T. Mascari, for encumbering the street with a push cart, paid $1.

Joseph Dutton, for driving a horse on the sidewalk, paid $1.

PREMIER INDISPONED CASE NOT SERIOUS

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—Although Sir Wilfrid Laurier is confined to the house, it is denied that he is suffering from an attack of lumbago. He is suffering from a slight intestinal cold, and has deemed it advisable to transact business and receive callers at his home rather than at his office for a few days.

NIPISSING GOES TO CONSERVATIVES

Official Count Gives Gordon a Majority of Twenty-One.

North Bay, Nov. 2.—Mr. George Gordon, Conservative candidate for Nipissing, has been declared elected on the official count, by a majority of 21. There are 46 rejected ballots, but these will, it is thought, increase Mr. Gordon's majority.

JUDGE'S BAIL WAS RENEWED FOR WEEK

Man Convicted of Supplying Liquor to Indians Still Unable to Raise Money to Pay Fine.

H. A. Judge, the Indian liquor department detective, who was recently fined $150 by Squires Chittick and Hodgins for carrying liquor on the Oneida reserve, appeared before the county magistrates today, and was given another week in which to pay the fine and costs of the case.

Mr. J. M. McEvoy, who appeared for Judge, stated that owing to the absence of certain Government officials, his client had been unable to raise the amount asked.

Judge's bail was renewed for one week.

Mr. P. H. Bartlett appeared for the prosecution.

CONSTABLE DECLARES KENNEDY A VAG

Says He Can Prove That the Man Solicited Alms.

The county constable who arrested Lewis Kennedy, the aged alleged vagrant, states that there is no doubt but what the man is a vagrant, despite his assertions to the contrary, and that he had $30 on his person when arrested.

"I have a list of some of the people whom he asked for money," said the constable, "and when he appears for a hearing this afternoon I will produce the list."

It is further alleged that Kennedy attempted to strike a Thorndale woman because she refused to give him alms.

MARINES FOR ESQUIMALT

Nearly One Hundred Men Arrive at Quebec En Route.

Quebec, Nov. 2.—Ninety-five British marines, including three officers and nine non-commissioned officers, arrived at Quebec this afternoon at 2 o'clock by the C. P. R. steamer Lake Manitoba, en route to Esquimalt, to relieve a similar number of men who have finished their term of service at that naval station.

The new arrivals boarded a special C. P. R. military train as soon as they left the ship, which will take them direct to British Columbia.

LONDON COUNCIL REFUSED TO ASK FOR LEGISLATION

To Validate the Niagara Power Contracts Entered Into by the Municipality With the Hydro-Electric Commission—Matter Sent Back to the Special Committee.

Niagara power was again before the council last evening, and after occasioning quite a little debate, the matter was again sent back to the special committee.

The contest of oratory arose over a circular received from J. W. Lyon, secretary of the Western Ontario Municipalities' Niagara Power Union, asking that the city council pass a resolution urging the Legislature to pass legislation validating the contracts at present signed by the different municipalities in the union.

However, the council did not act on the suggestion, but referred it to the special power committee to discuss.

No Need for Hurry.
When the communication was read, Ald. Booth moved that it be referred to the special power committee to thoroughly investigate.

"I cannot see the urgency of the case," said Ald. Booth. "It will be some time yet before the Legislature meets, and it would be well to allow the special committee to thoroughly investigate the whole question. The matter is too important to be dealt with hastily."

Ald. Greenlees' Position.
Ald. Greenlees was in favor of adopting the resolution.

"This will interfere with the objects of the power commission," said Ald. (Continued on Page Ten.)

Inland Revenue Shows Increase For October at Port of London

Are $1,206.26 Greater Than the Fees Collected for September.

The inland revenue returns for London for the month of October continue to show a steady increase, and were $1,206.26 greater than in September.

The figures for October were $31,717.99, as compared with $30,511.73 in September. Compared with October of 1907 there is a decrease of $7,195.27. The returns for the month are as follows:

Spirits, ex-warehouse 6,397.66
Raw leaf, ex-warehouse ... 13,293.14
Cigars, ex-factory 3,896.08
Cigars, ex-warehouse 2,279.95
Malt, ex-warehouse 5,732.84
Methylated spirits 68.34
$31,717.99

City Gas Co. Will Protect Interests In Regard to Natural Gas Franchise

Ask To Be Allowed to Have a Representative Before the Committee.

The City Gas Company has taken a hand in the natural gas argument, and at the meeting on Wednesday afternoon will be represented.

At the council meeting last night a communication was read from Mr. R. K. Cowan, solicitor for the company, asking that representatives from the firm be heard before any franchise is given to any company.

Mr. Cowan, in his letter, points out that the company has always kept well within its rights, and that before a franchise is given another company, allowing it to lay mains throughout the city for the distribution of gas, the rights of the City Gas Company should be considered.

He says that before another company receives a franchise, it should have enough gas in sight (not in expectation), to supply the city during the coldest and darkest day in winter.

In addition the company should have enough capital to pipe the gas and distribute it throughout the city.

Mr. Cowan further suggested that his company be given the right to refuse to make terms with such applicants, as far as may be considered reasonable by the council.

It is understood, although not so stated, that the City Gas Company will refuse to distribute the gas of the London and Western Pipe Line Company, as terms have already been made to distribute the gas of the Chicago firm.

There will be a long discussion at the meeting of No. 2 committee and the gas men on Wednesday afternoon.

REID CASES NOT YET SETTLED HITCH IN THE NEGOTIATIONS

Mr. Peter Smirlies, It Is Said, Refuses Absolutely to Contribute to Pool—Attorney Says the Cases Will Be Fought Out in Court.

The Reid disaster cases have not yet been settled, and from the present outlook it would appear that the chances of their being settled out of court are very poor.

It appears that Mr. Peter Smirlies, who was named as one of the defendants in the many suits brought, has declined absolutely to contribute the $1,000 toward the general pool of $8,000, which was to have settled all claims, with the possible exception of one or two obscure actions which have not yet been set down.

The other gentlemen interested in the actions, it is said, have placed themselves on record as being unwilling to make up the deficiency caused by Mr. Smirlies' action.

"If Mr. Smirlies doesn't give $1,000 toward settling the cases, they will be fought out in the court," said one of the attorneys for the other defendants today. "We haven't heard from him lately."

New Brunswick Electors Disgusted With the Opposition Slanderbund

Mr. Pugsley Explains Big Liberal Sweep in His Province.

Toronto, Nov. 3.—"Confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal Government, the marvellous prosperity of the country during their administration, and the disgust of the people with the slander campaign of the Conservatives," thus briefly were the triumph in New Brunswick summed up by Hon. Wm. Pugsley, minister of public works, who was in the city yesterday on private business. "I know," he said, "that even many of our friends were surprised by the results in my province, but I never doubted that the people would prove their confidence in Sir Wilfrid and the Liberal Government, and mark their disapproval of the slanders of the Opposition. These slanders culminated in the false affidavit read by Premier Hazen at a Conservative meeting. Fortunately a complete denial was at once given to the story, and no doubt the slanderous statement did more harm to the Conservatives than to the Liberals. The people were disgusted by the attempt by falsehood to discredit me, and in St. John and other parts of the province clearly manifested their resentment at such tactics."

Mr. Pugsley added that the Liberals were fortunate in having strong candidates in New Brunswick. "I believe," he said, "that had the campaign lasted a week longer we would have won St. John City. As it was, Mr. Daniel's majority was reduced almost to the vanishing point."

Traction Company Have a Plan Want to Run on City Streets

Object Is Probably to Connect With a New Line Which Is To Enter London.

The Southwestern Traction Company have asked the city council for permission to extend their tracks along Simcoe street to Talbot.

This is the first request received from the company to traverse the city streets, and its importance will be seen at a glance.

The company's tracks enter the city over their own right-of-way, and do not in any way interfere with the franchise of the London street railway.

Now that the company desires to traverse a street the whole question will be opened, and it will be productive of a most interesting discussion, as yet.

Custom Returns Show Big Revival

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—The customs revenue of the Dominion for October shows a considerably smaller falling off, as compared with last year, than has been the case for six or seven months past, indicating that the expected revival in trade is beginning to be felt in the increasing orders for imported goods. For the month the customs revenue was $4,316,473, as compared with $4,930,031 for October of last year, a decrease of $613,558. For the first seven months of the present fiscal year the customs revenue has totalled $27,179,191, a decrease of $9,163,575. For the balance of the fiscal year it is expected that there will be a steady betterment in the monthly statements of the customs revenue.

Blenheim Man Drowned at Eriean

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 2.—Sidney Burke, of Blenheim, was drowned at Eriean at noon today. Mr. Burke, with a party from Blenheim, went to Eriean to enjoy a day's duck shooting. He got separated from his companions and was seated in a small rowboat, when a gust of wind upset it. The Eau was very rough and he was unable to hang on to the boat. He was not noticed by his companions until it was too late. Men are still dragging for the body, but late this evening it had not been found.

Premier Bond May Be Defeated

St. Johns, Nfld., Nov. 2.—The first returns from today's general election indicate the probable success of the Morrisette Opposition. Brigus elects his nominee, Warren, by a majority of 174 over Lloyd, the Bondite candidate.

Unknown Man Dead on the Track

Toronto, Nov. 3.—Coroner Watson, of Burlington, reported to the city detective department this morning that the body of a man about 35 years of age was discovered late last night on the main line of the G. T. R. The man had evidently been killed by a train.

There was nothing to identify him except a new copy of the New Testament, bearing the name of Jacob Fisher and the stamp of the Salvation Army. The body is at Burlington, awaiting an inquest to be held this afternoon. The city police will try to trace the man's identity.

Election Returns.
Mr. H. Campbell Becher, the stock broker, has made special arrangements for a private wire service from New York and San Francisco tonight, giving the election returns in full. In addition to that, he has completed arrangements whereby execution of orders on the London Stock Exchange can be completed by direct cable. There has been much interest shown in the elections, and there no doubt will be a large crowd at Mr. Becher's office. Every person is invited to call.

DEATH ENDED
GALLANT FIGHTBrakeman Who Lost Both Legs in Accident Shows Wonderful Nerve.

Toronto, Nov. 2.—After a gallant struggle for six days between life and death, John A. McDermott, the C. P. R. brakeman, who early on Monday morning lost both his legs at a siding five miles from Myrtle, died on Saturday night at the Western Hospital. McDermott fell under a moving string of cars in the black darkness and fog. It will be remembered, and had twenty-one of the cars and the locomotive run over him, almost severing his legs from his body. By sheer grit he dragged himself, bleeding and in agony, across two sets of tracks and for fifty feet, where he was found by a search party tying up the bleeding stumps with his shoestrings. He was brought to Toronto and placed in the Western Hospital early on Monday morning. Since that time his conduct at the hospital has been exemplary of great courage. Never has anyone in the history of the institution put up such a struggle against such fearful odds. His great cheerfulness throughout the dreadful week endeared him to nurses, doctors and visitors, and the hospital was plunged in gloom when it was whispered about that he had passed away.

McDermott leaves a young wife and two sons, three years and eighteen months old respectively. He was living at 180 Dundas street west, West Toronto, sharing the house with another young brakeman and his wife. The remains were shipped to Fergus, Ont., this morning at 7:40 o'clock. They were accompanied by the widow and a brother of the deceased. The funeral will be held from the home of the father of the deceased, a few miles east of Fergus, tomorrow morning.

ANNUAL TECUMSEH
WHIST CONGRESS

This Year's Tournament Promises to Eclipse All Former Ones.

The sixth annual whist congress of the Tecumseh Whist Club, of this city, is attracting the attention of whist experts in all parts of Western Ontario, and present indications are that almost every player of note in this part of the Dominion will compete.

The prizes are handsome and well worth competing for. The Tecumseh Whist Club enjoys a reputation for pulling off successful whist tournaments, and this one will prove no exception to the rule.

The big trophy of course, is the Tecumseh Club cup for champion pairs, and it has always been won by Canadians, although many Americans have competed.

Besides the trophy there will be excellent cut glass berry bowls, umbrellas and walking canes, and one of which is a prize to be coveted. However, it is the honor of having an opportunity to defeat the best whist experts in Canada that draws the players to the Tecumseh congress.

At a meeting of the club last night it was decided to hold the open to everybody, Wednesday evening games will be open only to members.

On Friday nights the regular open Howell compass games will be played. All entries for the tournament should be addressed to Dr. Wyckoff, 672 Dundas street, city.

Ferrozone.

There's a real reason why Ferrozone cures. It's a true nerve tonic—not a stimulant—it feeds the nerves with nourishment—gives them vital actual activity.

No other tonic in the world like Ferrozone, nothing else is so quick and lasting in its effects on a run-down, nervous system. "I used enough medicine to appreciate an honest one," writes J. B. Beattie, from his home in Newcastle. "From babyhood I was not overly strong and was always nervous. I smoked a good deal, but on the whole my habits were good. My trouble first began with a shortening of the hours of sleep. I would awaken too early, my appetite was poor, and to whip it up I used highly spiced and sweet foods. First thing I knew I had palpitation on doing a little extra work, and then an awful tiredness came upon me, and a strange feeling of dread—almost of fear—made me think I was losing grip of myself. My power of memory weakened and I lost my position. Then I read about Ferrozone. Say, it's awfully good. I got a medicine that helps you right off. I don't mind telling you I was badly scared, and every dose was almost like sunshine. At once I began to feel better, and permanently better I really was, for less than a dozen boxes made me a well man. I can do my work with any man and I am grateful to Ferrozone."

Ferrozone corrects all enfeebled conditions of the system, builds up and gives the body great resistive power against disease. To use Ferrozone assures lasting robust health. 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers. Try Ferrozone, do it today.

WEDDED IN WEST END

Marriage of Miss Selena Andrewes to Mr. Angus R. Monteith.

A very happy event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Andrewes, West London, on Tuesday evening last, when their daughter Selena (Lena) was united in marriage, by Rev. G. B. Sage, to Mr. Angus R. Monteith, of this city.

Promptly at 8:15 the bridal party entered the drawing-room, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. J. C. Andrewes. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in white organdie and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Jennetta Andrewes, sister of the bride, wore a becoming dress of pale blue mull and carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Thos. J. Frazer.

After the ceremony the newly married couple, together with their immediate families, to the number of thirty-five persons sat down to a sumptuous repast.

After spending a very pleasant evening the happy couple left for their new home, about 11:45, amid showers of rice and good wishes. The bride wore a tailor-made suit of blue cloth, with hat to match.

The presents received were many and costly. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful diamond ring, to the bridesmaid a pearl brooch and to the best man a pearl scarf pin.

Poor Health of His Wife May Cause It—Churchill
May Succeed.

London, Nov. 2.—Lord Minto, it is reported in official circles in London, has arranged to resign the vice-royalty of India early next spring, owing to the condition of the health of his wife, India has never suited the constitution of Lady Minto, who found the sudden change from Canada extremely trying. Even the so-called cool season in India has affected her health injuriously, and her physicians insist in the most urgent manner that this shall be her last winter in India, and that when she comes home in the spring, when the hot weather sets in, it should be for good and all. The wedding of her young daughter, Lady Violet Elliot, to Lord Charles Fitzmaurice, is by the special wish of the King to take place this winter in India, instead of next summer in London, as had been contemplated. It is to be a very gorgeous function, in which full vice-regal state will be displayed, and at which all the leading vassal rulers of India will be represented, either in person or by princes of their houses. Lord and Lady Lansdowne, their son, Lord Kerry, and his lovely wife and their two daughters, the Duchess of Devonshire and the Marchioness of Waterford, with their respective husbands, are all going out to India for the wedding this winter, so that the season at Calcutta promises to prove of altogether exceptional brilliancy.

Of course there is much speculation as to who is to succeed Lord Minto, and among the names which have been mentioned in connection therewith is that of Winston Churchill, who would in that event receive a peerage. There is no doubt that a majority of his colleagues in the cabinet would be willing to pay almost any price to get him out of the way, on account of his forceful manner, his aggressive methods in buying himself about their departments, and likewise because they do not relish the idea of his becoming their master as premier.

The Victim of Drink

NEEDS ORRINE TREATMENT—
CURE EFFECTED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Drink first destroys ambition; breaks up ties of friendship; it kills and buries life; and eventually destroys the family life. Some of the best men in the world have been victims of drink; and if there is not some member in your family that is afflicted with this disease, you are indeed fortunate.

Drink cunningly destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what he tells him, he wants a thousand times more the drink that he craves. Medical treatment is necessary to destroy the craving, and this Orrine will do.

It destroys the desire for liquor, so that the drink will not be missed, also cures the deranged digestion, weakened nerves and other ill effects of excessive drinking, restoring the patient to perfect health. The remedy is absolutely harmless, is thoroughly scientific and is so uniformly successful that it is sold with a registered guarantee entitling you to a refund of your money if Orrine fails to effect a cure. Booklet on "How to Cure Drunkenness." Sent free on request in plain sealed wrapper. The Orrine Company, Washington D. C.

Orrine is in two forms: No. 1, which can be given secretly without the patient's knowledge; No. 2, in pill form, for those who wish to be cured. The price of either is $1, mailed on receipt of price in plain sealed package, and both are sold under the guarantee. Orrine is sold by C. McCullum & Co., corner Dundas and Richmond streets, London.

Thanksgiving Day Excursions.

Return tickets will be issued at single fare by the Grand Trunk Railway system between all stations in Canada, also to Detroit and Port Huron, Mich., and Buffalo, Black Rock, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, N. Y. Good going Nov. 6, 7, 8 and 9, returning on or before Nov. 10, 1908. Secure tickets from Grand Trunk agents.

Europeans expect a slump in automobile prices and a crisis in the industry this year.

THE GOVERNMENT'S MANDATE.

Mr. Lloyd-George uttered a pregnant phrase when he said the other day that the Liberal party of Great Britain had not exhausted its mandate. The sentiment might well be applied to the Liberal party in Canada. Laurier has received a mandate to "finish his work," which in the narrow sense means the work his Government has in hand, notably its great railway undertaking. But the mandate of a party worthy of the name of Liberal can never be exhausted. The principles of Liberalism have no finality. They are things of growth and adaptation; when the Liberal party stands still it has lost the spirit of Liberalism and deserves to be set aside until it has regenerated itself. Sir Wilfrid seldom strikes the wrong note in his public speeches, but he gave his critics an opening when he said some years ago; at Toronto, that he was a Reformer with nothing to reform. It was merely a facetious reference to the miraculous change for the better in the condition of the country, since 1896, and the effective work of his Government, but the expression was unfairly represented as proof of his essential Toryism. Since that time, however, the Administration has broken much new ground, and shown no abatement of energy and progressiveness. Liberals expect their leaders to continue in well-doing and not to rest upon their achievements and laurels. They will be disappointed if such work, for instance, as the removal of the civil service from party influences, so courageously begun, is not finished before the next appeal to the country. They ask that likewise the expenditures of public money be divorced from party considerations, so far as possible. They look for the extension of the tender system in the purchase of supplies, and such changes in methods as will minimize the opportunities of officials for personal gain and insure the strictest economy. If there has been extravagance or "graft," the fault has been in the system. There has been no evidence of lack of integrity in the heads of departments. Most of the charges of wastefulness refer to one branch of the service, that of marine and fisheries, in which undoubtedly there was some looseness, but the enemies of the Government have failed to give the present minister credit for his reforming efforts. He has thoroughly overhauled his department, and the Government has set on foot an inquiry into past proceedings with a view to detecting and punishing offenders and the remedying of abuses. Liberals have the word of their leaders that the probe will be relentlessly inserted wherever there is suspicion of wrong-doing or of unbusinesslike practices.

Not only has the Government a mandate to finish the work in hand and reform abuses, but it must break more new ground and forge ahead. The hope of the Liberal party is in its increasing radicalism and progressiveness.

THE KAISER'S HUGE BLUNDER.

There is much agitation in Europe over an interview given by Emperor William to an unnamed British diplomat. It was made public through the medium of the London Telegraph, and created a furore at the expense of the Emperor, the German press, almost without exception, condemning it as a "blazing indiscretion." To protect the Emperor, the chancellor has issued an explanation. His story is that the diplomat in question sent the text of the interview to the Kaiser, suggesting that its publication would help to promote a friendlier feeling toward Germany in Great Britain. The Emperor handed it to Chancellor von Bülow, who sent it to the foreign office, by which it was approved. The chancellor says he did not read it before passing it on to the foreign office, and would have advised against its publication had he known its contents. He tendered his resignation to the Emperor, who refused to accept it.

Among the statements attributed to the Emperor is this—that when a deputation of Boers visited Europe in the expectation of obtaining from some of the powers an acknowledgment of their independence, his majesty refused to even grant them an interview, and consequently their whole project failed. This is not the first time this statement has been made, and is generally accepted as a matter of history. The Emperor is further credited with saying in the interview that when the struggle in South Africa was at its height a proposal by Russia and France for a coalition of continental powers against Great Britain was repudiated by Germany, and that proof of what he says will be found in a telegram dispatched by him at the time to the late Queen Victoria, which can be found in the archives of Windsor Castle. It has generally been supposed that the proposal was made by Russia alone, and that France as well as Germany rejected it.

Perhaps the most remarkable statement attributed to the Kaiser is the claim that a carefully devised plan of campaign, substantially identical with that carried out by the British in South Africa, was sent by him to London early in 1900.

If Emperor William's object in giving out such statements for publication was to please the British people he has missed his mark. He has angered France and Russia, and a statement has appeared in the Paris Echo, evidently inspired by the French foreign office, which gives a different version of the South African affair, by representing Germany as having been willing to join the anti-British combination if the three powers would guarantee the integrity of one another's territory. This has merely deepened British distrust and suspicion of Germany. The British people also do not like the suggestion that their darling "Bobs" got his plan of campaign from the brain of the Kaiser. The latter, perhaps with good intentions, has made an extraordinary blunder, having irritated his own people and given offense in three other countries.

FOR CHEAPER CABLE RATES.

The mission upon which Hon. Mr. Lemieux has left for England is an important one—to endeavor to bring about a reduction of cable rates. The idea of a chain of empire cables was endorsed by the colonial premiers assembled in London at the time of the last imperial conference, and has been well received in all parts of the Empire. "The unspeakable importance of a system of state-owned telegraph and cable lines connecting all the several portions of his majesty's dominions" has been affirmed by the general council of the Australian Chambers of Commerce, and at the fifth congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire held at Montreal in March, 1903, a resolution was passed expressing the belief that "all the self-governing British communities around the globe should be united by a continuous chain of state-owned telegraphs."

Sir Sandford Fleming declares the movement for imperial unity will not be complete until a state-owned cable is laid across the Atlantic, and some system is provided by which the transmission across Canada of messages to and from Australia can be improved. In Sir Sandford's opinion the principle of a low, uniform charge for all distances is even more applicable to telegraphy than to the postal service. It is therefore reasonable to anticipate that on the completion of a circle of cables such as is advocated there will immediately follow an enormous reduction in long-distance telegraph charges. According to an estimate made by Sir Sandford Fleming the cost of a system of state-owned cables would be about $25,000,000. The Government at Ottawa is understood to have in its possession data which go to show that if such a system were placed under the Dominion postoffice department, calculated at the low rate of 5 cents a word the immediate traffic that could be counted on would be sufficient to meet operating expenses, interest and sinking fund. The present rate is 25 cents per word, and even a reduction to one-half that figure would result in popularizing the use of the cable and incidentally prove of great advantage to Canada and all parts of the Empire.

All Canadians will join in wishing success to Hon. Mr. Lemieux's mission. Taft or Bryan?

The tariff issue is not so pronounced in the United States as to make today's election specially interesting to Canadians.

Hon. Frank Oliver had a majority of over 2,000 in Edmonton and McCraney, Liberal, 1,500 in Saskatoon. There will be no recounts.

Opposition contemporaries have not yet furnished details of the popular majority which they have figured out by some secret process.

With the London Asylum as an example, it is amusing to hear the local Conservative organ rail at the patronage system at Ottawa.

The official count gives Nipissing to the Conservatives by 21 majority. It is the only riding in which Sir Wilfrid Laurier spoke that went against the Government.

The Toronto Telegram hints that Mr. Borden has not risen to the occasion. This would be more interesting if the Telegram would point out a better man.

The racetrack gamblers are after Governor Hughes' scalp in the New York state elections today. His defeat would be a repudiation of courage and honesty in public life.

SONG OF THANKSGIVING.

[Smith's Falls News, Conservative.] Well, thank goodness, some of the Provinces are still in the hands of the Conservatives. The grifters can't take everything away from us.

I gotta love for Angela,
I love Carlotta too,
I no can marry both o' dem,
So w'at I gonna do?

O! Angela ees pretty girl,
She gotta hair so black, so curl,
An' teeth so white as anyteeng.
An' O! she gotta voice to seeng,
Dat mak' your hearta feel eet must
Jump up an' dance o' eet weel bust.
An' alla time she seeng, he eyes
Dey snail like Italia's skies,
An' makin' dirlin' looks at you—
But dat ees all w'at she can do.

Carlotta ees no gotta song,
But she ees twice so big an' strong
As Angela, an' she no look
So beautiful—but she can cook.
You oughta see her carry wood!
I tal you w'at, eet do you good.
When she ees be som'b'dy's wife
She works hard, you bat my life!
She never gattin' tired, too—
But dat ees all w'at she can do.

O! my! I weesh dat Angela
Was strong for carry wood,
Or else Carlotta gotta song.
An' looka pretty good.
I gotta love for Angela,
I love Carlotta, too.
I no can marry both o' dem,
So w'at I gonna do?

ENGLISHMAN, ANYWAY.

[Saturday Evening Post.]
Mr. Rudyard Kipling has long since declared against the "Little Englishmen"; there is nothing insular about him. Nevertheless there remains a good deal that is English—in more senses than one. Not long ago this was made evident when, at a London club, he encountered one of those unfortunate beings who give their leisure moments to a study of the Baedeker cipher.

This person engaged Mr. Kipling in talk; at any rate he engaged the novelist in listening. For fully fifteen minutes he poured forth his arguments, and in the end wound up with: "Now, sir, I think even you cannot doubt that it was Bacon, who wrote the plays of Shakespeare." "Indeed?" replied Kipling with an unaffected yawn. "That may be, but really, what difference does it make so long as it was an Englishman?"

STROKE THIRTEEN.

[New York Sun.]
There's nothing underneath the sun That lends to life a greater zest Than finding out a fellow's done A little bit beyond his best— The sort of work that seems to show A hidden self more strong and fine, And makes the worker madder, lovelier, "That's good; too good; it can't be mine."

Alas for proud, Icarian wings! The time will come, and come it must, When ribald, mocking failure brings The soaring spirit down to dust; When that which ranged from pole to pole Is pent in limits poor and mean, Remember then, despairing soul, The clock can't always strike thirteen.

So build the bridge or mold the phrase, Or ply the brush or grip the pen, And learn the worth of blame or praise, And count the strokes from one to twelve, New light will dawn clear to the eye, Brave thoughts will come to guide the pen;

Join faith to work, and by and by The clock will strike thirteen again.

MAKING AND BREAKING.

[Philadelphia Record.]
Every time you break a record you are really making a new one.

A TRIBUTE TO MR. GREENWAY.

[Winnipeg Free Press.]
Mr. Greenway was an Englishman, with many of the characteristic traits of that race. His reserve, his indifference to the arts of the politician, his bluntness and frankness, his fortitude under reverses, his courage, were all typically British. Hundreds knew how kind a heart beat behind his somewhat grim exterior; and he had no lack of warm personal friends and adherents. As to his capacity for commanding the loyal support of thousands of electors, his 25 years of leadership of the Manitoba Liberals tells the story.

Taking him all in all, weighing his virtues with his defects, Mr. Greenway was a great Canadian. His faith in Western Canada was no late growth; he held it from the first day he set eyes on the wide prairie, and then predicted not only what has now come to pass, but future achievements equally sure to be realized. His name will long be held in affectionate regard by the people of the Province whose interests he served assiduously for thirty years.

Any person who drinks 25c tea and once tastes 30c "Salada" will see that it is not only finer in flavor, but that as one pound makes many more cups, it is economical to use.

Amusements.

Bennett's This Week.

The offering at Bennett's this week is excellent.

It is different from last week, but has the individual excellent, a character of its own, that stamps it as more than the ordinary.

There is some good music, some fair impersonations, some excellent acrobatic work, and a couple of high-class comedy sketches. Edward Blondell and company have a great sketch in "The Lost Boy." He is assisted by two ladies, one of whom stutters. Edward is the lost boy. He really looks lost, and while explaining the fact that he is lost, and wants to get back to the farm, "where he plows a few acres before breakfast," he gives expression to some rare humor. He has some very funny lines, all of them good and most of them new. Blondell will make a very ordinary bill worth while. Last night a large audience of first-nighters were thawed out by it, and forgot for a few minutes that the stern duty of criticising might be relaxed, and they enjoyed it.

Reminds have one of the most thrilling aerial acts that have ever come this way. They have iron jaws and seemingly can lift a few tons of merchandise without trouble. The pater holds with his teeth on a bar on which the other two are suspended by their molars, and they complete a few gyrations while in mid-air, while the audience holds its breath.

The Four Masons, assisted by Miss Corinne Francis, are back again with their real funny act, "A Country School." It is funnier than "A Leach in his palm," with his Rosebuds. Miss Francis is dainty and clever. J. W. Mason, the young lad, looks to be all legs and arms, and his grotesque dancing is a treat. The others are excellent. It is funny. Look and laugh at it this week.

Irving Jones is a funny colored gentleman, worthy to be ranked with Williams, Walker, Cole or Johnson, or any other colored entertainer. He writes his own songs and some of them are funny. Very funny. He is short, stout person, with a very funny way with him. He was good for many laughs last night, and should get a number more during the week. He is as black as a hole.

Wentworth and Vesta are two clowns, with the cleverest dog that ever struck the stage. He can do everything but talk, and might be induced to do that for a consideration.

Dora Pelletier is back again with some new songs, and some very fair impersonations, and an increase in improvisations. She was given a cordial greeting last night.

Paganini's Ghost did not get away to a good start, but the act has possibilities.

Altogether it is a good bill and should draw well.

Prof. Makins' orchestra played the "Mocha Temple March" and made a big hit.

Elsie Janis.

One of the most important light musical events of the present season in London will be the appearance at the Grand tomorrow evening of Elsie Janis in Charles Dillingham's production of "The Fair Co-Ed." The play, which is described as being a college play with music, was written by Geo. Ade, prince of American humorists, and the music was furnished by Gustav Luders, composer of "Prince of Felsen," "Woodland," and many other successes. Mr. Ade is said to have been successful in writing an especial-

A Rest Cure.

In giving due credit to the wonderful remedial springs of Europe we are apt to lose sight of the value of the ones nearer home. About one thousand springs of various medicinal virtues exist in America. Of one of them, the Eureka Lodge of Oddfellows will lend additional interest in the event.

Thomas Jefferson. A play that can be continually kept before the public for sixty-five years and be handed down from sire to son for three generations, becoming stronger each year as a money-making proposition, must indeed be something out of the ordinary, but such can be said of Thomas Jefferson's "Rip Van Winkle," which is to be seen at the Grand Thanksgiving Day, matinee and night.

HAINS' TRIAL POSTPONED. New York, Nov. 2.—Affidavits were today presented by John F. McIntyre, counsel for Captain Peter C. Hains and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, under indictment, charged with the killing of Wm. E. Annis, to sustain a motion for the postponement of the impending trial. The documents contained declaration of expert affidavits, stating that Captain Hains was not in fit mental condition to take part in a trial. Judge Aspinwall granted a postponement of one week, saying that he would give the affidavits consideration. District Attorney Darrin protested the action, demanding that he be permitted to examine the papers. The court granted him permission to look over the affidavits.

RIOTS IN BERLIN.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—A mass meeting of Social Democrats, held last night to protest against the treatment of the Socialist minority in the Prussian Diet resulted in numerous conflicts with the police, who forcibly dispersed 10,000 Socialists who had been unable to gain admission to the meeting. A large number of arrests were made, and fearing that the crowds would march on the castle, the police cut off the streets and bridges leading thither.

TERRIBLE BURNS HEALED.

SKIN-FORMING TISSUE DESTROYED AND HOSPITAL TREATMENT FAILED. ZAM-BUK THEN WORKED A MIRACLE OF HEALING.

You are fully aware that for burns, cuts, scalds and similar injuries Zam-Buk is admitted to be the surest and quickest cure, and the Zam-Buk treatment is that which soonest eases the pain. Here is a case which proves that even in the most serious of cases the same truth applies. For skin injuries or diseases however serious, however long continued, however painful or unsightly—there is absolutely nothing to equal Zam-Buk. If you have a sore, a burn, a troublesome skin disease, note well this wonderful case.

Mr. Wm. Ball of London (Ont.) says:—"One morning I was preparing my breakfast, and to make the fire burn I threw on a quantity of kerosine oil. This caused a terrific explosion and I was set on fire and burned terribly from the chin to about 6 inches below the breast and across from shoulder to shoulder.

I was removed to the hospital in a very serious condition, and suffering acute pain as you may imagine. The area burned was so extensive and the burning so deep that the particular tissue from which the skin grows appeared to have been destroyed and new skin would not grow. Doctors tried to get over the difficulty by grafting skin on to the burned area from another person. This too proved unavailing and when I was able to leave the hospital and go home the burned portion was still devoid of skin and it was not thought the skin would ever grow again upon it.

When everything else had failed and my case seemed hopeless I heard of Zam-Buk. I was told this balm had wonderful power to cause new healthy skin to grow on injured places and I decided to try it if it would do for such an extreme case as mine. I got a supply of Zam-Buk and persevered with its use. It soon showed traces of doing good; and in a few weeks I found to my delight the skin was beginning to grow on the area which had been so badly burned. Bit by bit Zam-Buk stimulated the injured tissue and new healthy skin began to appear until in a short time the damaged area was once again covered with skin! How grateful I am to Zam-Buk for this effect I cannot fully express, but it has done for me what medical skill—fine as it is—had failed to do. Every person who sustains a burn, a scald, a cut or laceration should try what this wonderful balm can do. I have proved that it is by far the finest healer yet known and I shall always give it hearty recommendation."

WHY ZAM-BUK WAS ABLE TO HEAL.

Sometimes when a severe injury (like an extensive burn or a bad tearing of the flesh) is done to the human body the layer of tissue from which the skin grows is damaged and new skin will not grow. Rare as are these cases, Zam-Buk the great herbal balm, will be found to be effective as in the case reported above. Zam-Buk is a combination of rich herbal essences and juices—not a conglomeration of animal fats mixed up with mineral coloring matter like so many of the ordinary preparations.

Zam-Buk stimulates the cells from which skin arises that is the secret of its success. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a burn, a patch of eczema, a cut, a crushed limb, or a poisoned wound, three processes start right away! It soothes; it kills all disease germs on or about the wound, thus preventing suppuration and festering; and it starts the healing process.

Ask anybody who has tried it! Send for a sample and prove it yourself! Zam-Buk is the only balm which has become the favorite household remedy in every civilized country where it has been introduced. Such wonderful cases as the one reported above explain why it is so popular. Keep a box in your house.

WHAT YOU SHOULD USE ZAM-BUK FOR.

Wherever there is injury or disease of the skin or adjacent tissue use Zam-Buk. Children's sore heads, ringworm, scabies, itch, yield to it. Eczema, ulcers, bad leg, chronic sores, abscesses, blood poisoning, varicose ulcers, gatherings, all are healed by it. For piles and fistula it is without equal.

Zam-Buk has also great virtue as an embrocation. Rubbed well into the parts affected it cures rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago. Rubbed over the chest it cures the tightness and aching due to cold. Indeed, for almost all household purposes a box of Zam-Buk is as good as a medicine chest! All druggists and stores sell at 50 cents a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 3 for $1.25.

MAGISTRATE AND SCHOOL COMMISSIONER HEALED.

HAD ECZEMA FOR 20 YEARS

Zam-Buk, by its healing power, has earned the praise of men and women in the highest stations of life. One of the latest prominent gentlemen to speak highly in Zam-Buk's favor is Mr. C. E. Sanford of Weston, King's Co., N.S. Mr. Sanford is a Justice of the Peace for the County, and a member of the Board of School Commissioners. He is also Deacon of the Baptist Church in Berwick. Indeed, throughout the County it would be difficult to find a man more widely known and more highly respected. Some time back he had occasion to test Zam-Buk, and he says: "I never used anything that gave me such satisfaction as Zam-Buk. I had a patch of Eczema on my ankle which had been there for over 20 years. Sometimes also the disease would break out on my shoulders. I had taken Solution of Arsenic, had applied various ointments and tried all sorts of things to obtain a cure, but in vain. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, proved highly satisfactory and cured the ailment. I have also used Zam-Buk for itching Flies, and it has cured them completely also. I take comfort in helping my brother man, and if the publication of my opinion of the healing value of Zam-Buk will lead other sufferers to try it, I should be glad. For the relief of suffering caused by Flies or Skin Diseases, I know of nothing to equal Zam-Buk."

THE AMETHYST CROSS

By Fergus Hume

"No. If I had shown it to Jenny, it would not have mattered. You do not suspect an honest girl like her, I presume."

"Honest girls may yield to the temptation of stealing such a fine ornament as the cross," said Hale, dryly. "However, it may set your mind at rest if I say that I don't suspect Jenny. Had she stolen the cross she would not have had the imagination to upset the room and leave the window open, so as to suggest burglary. But, think again, Walker; did you show the cross to anyone after leaving this garden?"

"No," said George, positively. "I certainly did not—that is, not voluntarily."

"Ah, then someone else did see it," said Hale, with satisfaction and with marked eagerness. "Come, my man, speak up."

"I had almost forgotten," said Walker slowly. "Perhaps the blow on my head made me forget; but I remember now."

"Remember what?" asked Lesbia, as eager as her father.

"That those gypsies saw the cross."

"Gypsies!"

Hale and his daughter glanced at one another.

"Yes, I was walking up the lane to my home, when I passed a gypsy encampment. While doing so I pulled out my handkerchief and the cross—which I had placed in my breast-pocket—fell out. The handkerchief twitched, I suppose. It flashed down on the grass, and the glitter caught the eye of a man lounging near the caravan. He came forward and pointed out where it had fallen; I had not noticed its whereabouts for a moment. By the time I picked it up two or three of the gypsies had gathered round, and saw me restore it to my pocket. Then I thanked the men and went home."

ALL INDIGESTION AND DISTRESS FROM AN UPSET STOMACH WILL GO

ALMOST INSTANT RELIEF IS WAITING FOR ADVERTISER READERS WHO SUFFER FROM STOMACH TROUBLE.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take Diapensin after your meal. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat. Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, belching, gas on stomach, heartburn, headaches from stomach, nausea, bad breath, water brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapensin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or sleepless nights or headaches or stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh. Pape's Diapensin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than enough triangles to thoroughly cure the worst dyspeptic. There is nothing better for gas on the stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a stomach headache. You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

though, to be sure, every child expects to find its parents above reproach. Perhaps a sixth sense told Lesbia that her father was not all he should be. In no other way could she guess how she came to be so ready as to think ill of him. But up to the present she had suspected him wrongly, and so was pleased.

Hale and young Walker went to the Marlow police office and explained in concert what had happened. The officer in charge of the station heard their tale unmoved, as it was nothing more exciting than a robbery by a vagabond. He went with them personally to Medmenham, and there met the village constable, who presented his report. This did not include any reference to gypsies. His superior—whose name was Parson—questioned him, and learned that the thief or thieves had left no trace behind, and—on this evidence—dismissed the matter.

"I don't care," said the constable, "I haven't seen the cross. Parson then went to Mrs. Walker's house and questioned the girl.

Jenny was naturally much agitated, but was reassured by George, who declared that no one suspected her. "I should think not, sir," she cried, frowning up and growing red. "I didn't even know that the cross you speak of was in the house. You never showed it to me, sir."

"No," acknowledged George truthfully. "I did not."

"Did you see any of those gypsies lurking about the house?" asked Parson.

"No," said Jenny positively. "I did not. Mr. George went out for a walk at ten o'clock and I lay down at half-past. I never knew anything or heard anything or guessed anything. When I got up at seven, as usual, and went to dust the drawing-room, I found the window open. And that didn't scare me, as I thought Mr. George might have opened it when he got up."

"But you knew that he was not in the house?" said Hale alertly.

"I never did, sir. I went to wake him after I found the drawing-room window open, and found that he hadn't been to bed. The room was upset, too, just as you saw it. If I'd known that I was alone in the cottage I should have been scared out of my life; but I thought Mr. George came in late and had gone to bed as usual. I nearly fainted. I can tell you," cried Jenny, tearfully. "Fancy a weak girl like me being left alone with them horrid gypsies down the lane! But I slept through it all and I never saw a thing about it. When I saw the bed-room upset and that Mr. George wasn't there, I called in Quain, the policeman. That's all I know, and if missus does give me notice when she comes back I'd have her know that I'm a respectable girl as doesn't rob anyone."

Jenny had much more to say on the subject, but all to no purpose; so the three men went to the camp. They found the vagrants making preparations to leave, and shortly were in the middle of what promised to be a free fight. The gypsies were most impatient at being accused, and but for a certain awe of the police would certainly have come to blows with those who doubted their honesty. The man who had seen the cross accounted for his movements on the previous night. He was in the village public house until after eleven, he could not have assaulted Walker or the towing-path, and afterwards was in bed in one of the caravans, as was deposed to by his wife. In fact, every member of "this particular tribe—they were mostly Lovels from the New Forest—proved that he or she had nothing to do with either the assault or burglary. Finally, Parson, entirely beaten, departed with the other two men, and the gypsies proceeded to move away in a high state of indignation.

"Do you really think that they are innocent?" asked Hale, who surveyed the procession of outgoing caravans with a frown.

"Yes, I do," said Parson, who was not going to be taught his business by any civilian.

"So do I," struck in Walker. "All the men who saw the cross have accounted for their whereabouts last night. They were not near my mother's house nor across the river on the towing-path."

Hale smiled dryly. He had no opinion of Walker's intelligence, or of that which Mr. Parson possessed. "Rogues and vagabonds—as these people are—stand by one another, and will swear to anything to keep one of their number out of jail. I don't put much faith in the various alibis. You should have searched the caravans, officer."

"And the men and women, also, I suppose, sir," said Parson, quietly. "I had no warrant to do so, let me remind you. Even gypsies have their privileges under the English law. Also, if any one of these men were guilty, he could easily have passed the cross to one of the women, or buried it. I might have searched and found nothing, only to lay myself out for a lecture from my superiors."

"Still," began Hale, unwilling to surrender his point of view, "let me remind you, Mr. Parson, that—"

"And let me remind you, sir," broke in the officer stiffly, "that only this gypsy you speak of was stolen. If a gypsy had broken into the house he would certainly have taken other things. And, again, no gypsy could have carried Mr. Walker into your parlor, seeing that not one member of the tribe is aware of your existence, much less where your cottage is situated. I am ignorant of that score myself."

Having thus delivered himself with some anger, for the supercilious demeanor of Hale irritated him, Parson strode away. He intimated curtly to the two men, as he turned on his heel, that if he heard anything likely to elucidate the mystery, he would communicate with them. Also he advised them if they found a clue to see him. Hale laughed at this last request.

Indescribable Asthma

Six Mile Brook, N. S., Nov. 2.—Such suffering as Munro Gun has endured from asthma is seldom witnessed. "For six years," he says, "I suffered torture. Doctors said I couldn't get well, but after using three bottles of 'Catarrhogene,' I was cured and never felt better in my life than I do today. Catarrhogene is certain to cure asthma." For bronchitis and catarrh it is equally sure. Don't use doubtful remedies when cure is swift and permanent from Catarrhogene. Sold by all dealers. Two months' treatment, $1; sample size, 25c. Be sure you use Catarrhogene.

KILLED HIS HALF BROTHER

Detroit Man Confesses to Murder of Relative Over Latter's Wife.

Detroit, Nov. 2. — John Kurka, a teamster, today made a dramatic confession of how he killed his half brother, Anthony Schultz, a week ago and then hauled the body in his dump wagon across the city to the spot in the western outskirts where it was found. The confession was made near the spot where the body was found.

The police had dressed Kurka in the clothes he wore on the morning of the murder, mounted him on his wagon and had him drive across the city from the Schultz home to the woods, to permit several persons to identify him if possible, as the teamster they had seen in the neighborhood last Sunday. After he had finished the gruesome task and had been identified by several people, Kurka broke down and admitted that he killed his half brother. He said that Schultz and his wife were quarrelling and when he interfered Schultz attacked him.

"Then I let him have it with the hatchet," said Kurka. "His wife and I loved each other and we wanted him out of the way. Mrs. Schultz helped me put the body in the dump wagon and I drove it away. I feel better now. I was haunted by Schultz's face ever since I killed him."

"She loves me! She will never obey you," said the lover desperately. "I shall find means to compel her consent," said Hale slowly. "Surely, Mr. Walker, you have common-sense even at your ridiculous age. Sargent has money and a certain position. You have neither."

"I can make a position." "Then go and do so. When you are rich and highly-placed we can talk about it."

Hale was as hard as iron and as cold. There seemed to be no chance of getting what was wanted by appealing to his tender feelings, since he had none whatsoever. But after swift reflection Walker thought of something which might make the man change his mind.

Nature a Very Skillful Physician

PUTS UP HER MEDICINES IN MOST TEMPTING FORM.

Have you ever tasted anything more delicious than the fresh, ripe, luscious fruits? These are nature's medicines. A regular diet without fruit is positively dangerous, for the system soon gets clogged with waste matter and the blood poisoned. Fruit juices stir up bowels, kidneys and skin, making them work vigorously to throw off the dead tissue and indigestible food which, if retained, soon poisons the blood and cause indigestion, headaches, rheumatism, neuralgia and a host of other distressing troubles. But there is a quicker way to stimulate the organs to do their work properly. Take one or two "Fruit-a-tives" tablets every night, besides eating some fresh fruit every day. "Fruit-a-tives" combine the medicinal properties—many times intensified—of oranges, apples, prunes and figs, with the best tonics and internal disinfectants added. Their action on bowels, liver, kidneys and skin is as natural as nature's own, but quicker and more effective. Sold by all dealers—25c for a trial box—50c for regular size—6 boxes for $2.50. Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

TWO SPIES TELL THEIR STORIES

Say They Overheard Senator's Son Promising Money to an Old Man.

Brockville, Nov. 2. — The crown's side of the story of the election bribery charge against John A. Derbyshire was revealed at the preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Joseph Deacon on Saturday. The three witnesses called were the prime actors in an incident which verged on the melodramatic. John Etherington, a man well up in years, is the man to whom it is alleged the illegal approaches were made. The other two, Anson Carr and J. Fred Morrison, Conservative workers, when conveniently hidden in the house of Mr. Etherington, claim to have overheard Derbyshire making a promise in return for a vote for Hon. George F. Graham.

For several days prior to the election, according to the evidence, Derbyshire had been canvassing for Etherington's vote, but it was admitted there was no evidence of any reward. Then on election morning Derbyshire went to Etherington's home, where, unknown to him, the two Conservative workers were eavesdropping. Conversation was opened between Derbyshire and Etherington, most of which the workers said they could hear from their hiding places.

Though admitting that he had asked for some reward for his vote, Etherington swore in his cross-examination no money had been paid him, nor was there a promise. The latter point was stoutly contradicted by both the other witnesses.

It came out that these two men had waited at Etherington's home on the election morning for over two hours in the hope that Derbyshire would make his appearance.

After hearing what he says he did hear, Carr swore out the information charging bribery.

At the conclusion of the evidence, Mr. T. C. Robinette, K. C., Toronto, who appeared for the defense, expressed the opinion to the court that the whole affair savored of a trap. The hearing was adjourned until Friday next. Mr. H. A. Lavell, of Smith's Falls, conducted the prosecution.

BIG CROWD AT Y.M.C.A. SPREAD

Some Splendid Speeches Listened to in the Gymnasium.

A MOVE TO RAISE $5,000

Speakers Tell of the Good Work Being Done, and Talk Hope-fully of the Future.

The inaugural banquet of the Y. M. C. A. financial campaign, last night drew an attendance that completely filled the local gymnasium, and the various speakers were received with an enthusiasm that speaks well for the success of the popular Young Men's Christian Association in its laudable efforts to procure sufficient funds to carry on its worthy work.

President John Macpherson occupied the chair. Among the speakers were Mr. Frank Yeigh, of Toronto; Mr. E. M. Thomason, of Toronto, secretary of the provincial committee of the Y. M. C. A., and Mr. A. Cullen, county organizer.

A Mighty Movement. The speakers cited the good work that is being carried on by the Y. M. C. A., which was likened unto a river which began as a small stream and kept branching out until it formed a mighty river whose tributaries reached the farthest corners of the earth. The work of the Y. M. C. A. was received alike by the Latin as well as the English races. It stood for peace as well as warfare upon evil.

Its potent branches were physical, moral and mental development, and its chief ideal was to build up a nation of Christian men, and a love for God.

President's Welcome. President Macpherson welcomed those present in a few well-chosen remarks. He was pleased to note the interest that was evinced in the work of the Y. M. C. A., and that the businessmen of London found time between their many duties to attend a gathering where the interests of the Y. M. C. A. would be discussed.

It was good also to note that the businessmen of other cities took great interest in the work, as evidenced by the fact that Mr. Charles M. Hays, of the Grand Trunk Railway, had spent $170,000 in erecting railroad Y. M. C. A. buildings.

Y. M. C. A. Popular. Mr. Macpherson said that the sentiment of the churches in reference to the Y. M. C. A. had changed, and instead of looking upon the Y. M. C. A. as an intruder, it was now welcomed as a helpmate and a boon to the development of Christian character in young men. The work of the Y. M. C. A. was somewhat different, and more far reaching than that of the church, in that it welcomed all religions. Any young man who professed a belief in God was welcome to its privileges, and to benefit by its uplifting moral, physical and mental influences.

Raising $5,000. The speaker was encouraged into believing that the task of raising the $5,000 hoped for in London would be an easy one by the fact that a well-known businessman had already offered $150—$50 a year for three years. "I feel certain that there are any number of other local businessmen who will also give if they are asked to do so," said Mr. Macpherson. "I believe in the old saying that a man don't live by bread alone, but by helping his fellow men. We hope to gain this amount of money, not by importunities, but by a simple statement of facts."

Secretary Thomason. "The old idea that the world wanted milk-fed, pampered young men has been done away with," said Mr. Thomason, "and instead has come a demand for young men who are thoroughly equipped mentally, physically and morally to battle with the ungodly things of this world—men who are not afraid to fight and men who are not proud to forgive an enemy. That is the kind of men the Y. M. C. A. is developing. But it takes money to do this."

The speaker continued by saying that the Y. M. C. A. believed in the motto that "God Helps Those That Help Themselves."

Difference in Men. By way of illustrating the difference between cities and men, Mr. Thomason told a little story. An eastern businessman visited St. Louis. The train moving into the station went slowly. There was a hurry about taking them off the train. The hackmen were seemingly indifferent whether they secured a fare or not, and the hotel clerk sleepily inquired if the gentleman wanted a room. The porter leisurely carried his grip up the stairs, and inside the room was an old-fashioned clock whose slowly swinging pendulum seemed to say, "Take your time, take your time." In Chicago everything was reversed. All was bustle from the moment that the traveller stepped off the train until some few minutes later, out of breath, he was hustled into a room at a hotel. On the mantel was a little baby of a clock rapidly ticking away, as if saying, "Chic-a-da chic, chic-a-da chic."

Canada's Progress. Mr. Thomason was a native of the States, but none could feel more justified than he in stating that Canada was on the forward march of progressiveness. The Y. M. C. A. movement, scattered broadcast throughout the world, was receiving the support of every nation under the sun, and none more so than Canada.

The railroads of the United States had last year expended $500,000 in Y. M. C. A. work for their employees; and these men, coming from a Y. M. C. A. building, were better able to protect the interests of the public and the railroad companies than if they came from a barroom.

A Broader Work. "And the Y. M. C. A. has not only progressed mentally, physically and morally," continued Mr. Thomason, "but it has broadened in a business sense. At one time the Y. M. C. A. was satisfied to haphazard it along by merely collecting enough money for immediate use."

"Now it looks ahead, and despite all this nonsensical talk of hard times, more money has actually been collected by the Y. M. C. A. since February, 1908, than in the two previous years." The speaker, in conclusion, said that the Y. M. C. A. hadn't reached the "chicken pie" plan of collecting money, and that instead of socials, sewing bees, etc., the moral of the 1,200 Bible school scholars, whom he expected would attend the luncheon on Tuesday, and said that it showed an awakening of men to men's responsibilities.

To the Men of London. Mr. Thomason asked that London do three things, namely: Visit the luncheon to be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. "We are not going to hold you up at these luncheons," he said, "We'll get you, anyway. And when our committee visits you, treat him like a gentleman. He is just as busy a man as you, and besides he is giving his time to a noble work."

Mr. Yeigh's Address. Mr. Yeigh stated that there were two distinct classes of citizenship, from which all other classes were derived. One was the citizen who shirked responsibility and the other the one who assumed his duty like a man. "The highest type has to do with religion," said the speaker, "and involves a recognition of God."

Religion was responsible for the highest endowment of men, and during the nineteenth century, among other things brought about the abolition of slavery in the Southern States.

Twelve Hundred Bible School Scholars. Mr. Yeigh, in setting forth some of the great work accomplished by the Y. M. C. A., mentioned the 1,200 Bible school scholars, whom he expected would attend the luncheon on Tuesday, and said that it showed an awakening of men to men's responsibilities. Starting as a small stream, the Y. M. C. A. had branched out until today it was a mighty flowing river, reaching all quarters of the earth.

The Y. M. C. A. not only had met the crying need for mental, physical and moral development, but it had met the social needs of a class that could be reached by no other form of Christian organization.

A Noble Work. "Many of you no doubt have experienced the utter solitude of a life among strangers in strange lands, in barren boarding-houses, and know what it is to meet a friend who takes an interest in your welfare. The Y. M. C. A. fills that great social need and provides a meeting-place where social intercourse can be indulged in by all classes."

The London Y. M. C. A. Mr. Yeigh said that the London Y. M. C. A. was an asset to the city and one that all citizens should and did feel proud of.

The church and the Y. M. C. A. had a great work to do in providing substitutes for the bar, the lower types of theatres, etc. The modern youths were imbued with a wild desire for amusement, and unless clean, profitable amusement were provided, the young men of the nation would indulge themselves in whatever class of amusement was available.

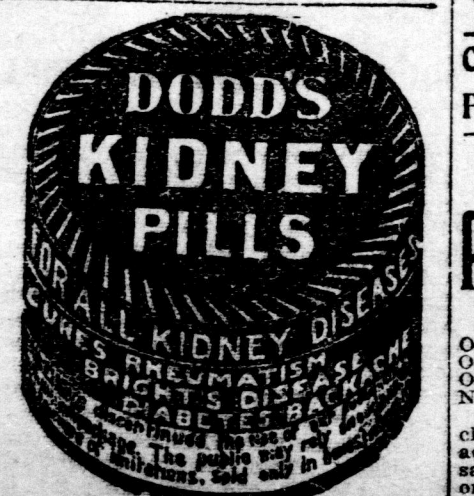

Mr. A. Cullen. After discussing briefly the work of organizing the county districts, Mr. A. Cullen eulogized the work of the Y. M. C. A. in general and illustrated his remarks with a number of timely stories. The various speakers spoke in glowing terms of the work accomplished by the local officers of the Y. M. C. A. and urged that they be given hearty support in carrying out their undertakings.

East End Road Race a Winner

Entries Are Coming in Rapidly

Handsome Trophy Cup, and Gold Medal Offered for First Prize—
Other Medals and Prizes Will Be Offered—The Course Laid Out.

It is a large entry list, a number of handsome prizes and an almost perfect course count for anything in a road race. Thanksgiving Day race to be given by the merchants of the east end should be about the nicest event of its kind pulled off in this vicinity in many years.

The contest will be over a course of five miles and one-fifth in length, and will begin at the corner of Adelaide and Dundas streets. The course will be as follows:

Out Dundas to the asylum gate, through the grounds to the main building, to Oxford street, to William, to Dundas, to starting point.

Among the many handsome prizes offered are: A $40 trophy cup, $15 gold medal, a $7 gold medal, a $4 pair of shoes, and a $25 umbrella.

The cup must be won three times to become the permanent property of the winner. The $15 gold medal also goes to the winner.

Out of town entries are solicited, and all entries will be received by Secretary Dr. Wyckoff, 674 Dundas street, London.

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BY SOUTHPAW

Amongst all the wisdom that men show here is the greatest yet: Some say they know just how 'twill go, but are too wise to bet.

THE HAGUE PEACE TRIBUNAL can find lots of material upon which to exercise its functions in the annual slaughter between Dundas and Hamilton on the gridiron. There was a time when we in little old London could sympathize with the Valleyites, but that was before Ripley and his crew tried their best to fill the local hospital with the remains of aspiring London pigskin chasers.

SO LONG as the game is featured as a betting proposition, there will be nothing new to it, except possibly the meek manner in which the losers bury themselves from public view until the next time.

"WHO'S WHO, AND WHY?" is the title of a thrilling unimpeachable comedy being enacted between Petrolia, London and Secretary "Bobs" Robinson, otherwise known as "Spec's" boy. McMahon, of London, forfeited the game to London. McKay, of Petrolia, gave the contest to Petrolia. London went on the field and scored a touch-down and converted. Petrolia scored a touch-down, but failed to convert. Who wins? Talk about Sam Lloyd's puzzles!

AND SPEAKING ABOUT that mix-up reminds us that the Toronto Star is slightly mixed in its bearings in stating that the game took place at London. Remembering that Longboat has hopped to the pro ranks, though, and that Toronto is all excitement at present, a mere geographical error must be pardoned.

BILLY MORRISON has "went." Yep, Bill has "flew" the burg, and at last accounts was headed for the great White Way, more familiarly known as Little Old New York. Some day Bill will come back. Until then we'll have to struggle along as best we can on home-grown Rugby referees.

TONIGHT the intermediate Rugby-ites will engage in a little face-muscling sance in preparation for the coming Argos game at Toronto Saturday. Last week we predicted all manner of dire happenings to the Toronto fans, but then we didn't figure on playing in snowdrifts or anything like that. Watch us next time—just watch us!

THOSE WHO ARE superstitious should keep off the intermediates for the remainder of the season. There were exactly 13 dollars taken in at the gate Saturday, and 23 deadheads were present.

Hamilton Sporting Writers Differ
In Opinions of Intermediate Battle

Hamilton scribes differ somewhat in their opinions of Saturday's bout between the Cubs and Dundas.

[Times.] Nearly half of the inhabitants of Dundas were at the cricket grounds here on Saturday to see the interprovincial intermediate match between the Tigers II, and the Dundas team, which up to Saturday afternoon had not been beaten. Nearly two thousand persons witnessed the match, despite the bitter cold. There was considerable betting on the game, which ended in favor of the Tigers by a score of 25 to 12.

The Tigers had the hardest kind of a game, and only their staying power won for them. Dundas was all in at the end of the third quarter, and the Tigers, while badly crippled, were fresh enough to take advantage of this.

At half-time the score was in favor of Dundas 11 to 7, but this was the last chance the red and white supporters had for a cheer.

The intermediate jungle hunters are a real hard bunch, and in a game such as Saturday's was, where fighting counted a whole lot, they outclassed their opponents.

[Herald.]

The first round in the annual football and slugging bout between the Tiger Intermediates and Dundas took place on Saturday afternoon at the cricket grounds before a crowd of 1,500 or 2,000, a little over half of whom wore yellow and black, and the rest wore red and white. Three Dundas men were hurt so badly that they either had to be carried or helped off the field, and there was not a man on either team who did not carry off a choice assortment of bruises and cuts. It was a dirty game. Both teams played ed after the old-fashioned style of "getting to" the men. The Tigers, probably because they were on their own grounds, and had their friends behind them, did the greatest execution. The doctors and ambulance corps were kept on the run. Unless this spirit is checked, the corner will probably have to be called in before the teams decide which is to play off for the intermediate championship.

[Spectator.] The impression has gained ground that the Tiger-Dundas game on Saturday was a very rough affair, and that the Dundas injuries were the result of intentional work. This, however, is far from the truth. Of the three accidents in the game, Harrison wrenched his knee when punting; Mallett, who has been sick in bed ever since the London game, was hardly in shape, and his accident was rather to be expected. Laing's injury was the result of a clean tackle, the Dundas player being lifted clean off his feet, falling rather heavily to the ground. The game was hard and sometimes rough, but there was no sign of intentional "dirty work."

"NIBS" HARRISON'S
KNEE IS BROKEN

Dundas Players Generally
Badly Used Up by Tiger
Cubs.

Dundas, Nov. 2. — Willie Mallett and Walter Laing, two of the Dundas Rugby players who were victims of the slaughter at Saturday's game, were able to be out yesterday. Nibs Harrison, whom the Hamilton Tigers selected as a human sacrifice, is in very bad shape, suffering from a kick which broke his knee-cap, and may possibly prevent him playing again. Of the others wounded in the battle, Craig is still very much alive, though he suffered a kick on the fact that necessitated several stitches to close up, while Binkley sustained a cracked rib, but is thankful he is alive. Referee Nelson is coming in for many very uncompromising remarks that would not look well in print as a result of his officiating on Saturday.

JIMMY BRITT
DEFEATS SUMMERS

Decision Almost Caused a Riot
In Old London—Verdict
Given on Points.

London, Nov. 2. — Jimmy Britt, the California fighter, defeated Johnny Summers of England, in the tenth round today at Wembley.

The conditions of the fight called for ten rounds at 133 pounds, the men weighing in at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Summers had the better of the fight during the first two rounds, and Britt, seeming to realize his disadvantage, put more energy into his work and shaped up much better in the succeeding rounds. The Englishman showed great cleverness in the sixth, seventh, and eighth rounds, and looked to be a winner. Britt came back, however, and fought his man to the ropes, gaining a considerable advantage in the ninth and tenth rounds. The American was declared a winner on points, although a considerable section of the spectators who filled the big hall, questioned the referee's decision.

For several minutes there was every indication of a riot, and it was with the utmost difficulty that quiet was restored. Britt and the referee were loudly hooted as they left the hall.

THE R. C. R. TEAM
WINS AT ARMORIES

A rather one-sided basketball contest took place at the Armories last night on the occasion of the opening of the Military Basketball League. The R. C. R. team proved the victor over B. Co., of the Seventh Regiment, by 45 to 11. At half time the R. C. R. team had scored 22 points to their opponents' 6.

The teams lined up as follows:
R. C. R. — Gilmour and Hymmen, forwards; Oakley, centre; Davidson and Block, defense.
B. Company — Crosbie and Crouch, forwards; Braund, centre; Marcin Henderson, defense.

Referee—D. Wood.

DUNDAS CLUB WILL ENTER A PROTEST

Dundas, Nov. 2. — The officers of the Dundas Rugby club are feeling pretty sore over Saturday's game and will enter a protest to the union. They claim that one of the two officials was not at all conversant with the game, and they object to two Hamilton men being appointed after the union promising good neutral officials for the game.

Rough Treatment.
The complaint, however, is regarding the rough treatment given the Dundas players by the Tiger team on their home grounds. Of course, there is always an element which is sore over defeat, whether merited or not, but the better element of the club which cheerfully acknowledged the Tigers' superiority last year, is bitter in the complaints about the punishment inflicted on Harrison, and it is more than likely that at tonight's meeting of the Dundas club an appeal will be made to the union to have two Tiger players suspended for brutal work.

When the former Tiger half-back appeared on the field Saturday there were cries of "Kill Harrison, kill Harrison," and they were not from boys, either, but from men who should know better.

No Blame.
Accidents will, of course, happen in such a strenuous game, and the injuries received by Mallett and Laing were a sad blow to the Dundas team, but no particular blame can be placed on the Tiger team. However, in the case of Harrison, Wilson, and Craig, the attacks were deliberate and brutal. Craig was kicked on the head after being downed and at a time when three or four men were on top of him. He had to have his wounds dressed by a doctor on returning to Dundas. It was absolutely uncalled for, and there were other cases of like character, from which Harrison and Wilson suffered, and the management of the local club does not intend to allow such tactics without protest.

"THE SHOP FOR MEN"
FOUR DAYS' SALE OF MEN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS

COMMENCING TOMORROW (WEDNESDAY) MORNING

"QUALITY"

We have about twenty Suits left from our FIRE SALE of last week, and we have added to this lot 22 Suits and 44 Overcoats which just came in from the Lowndes Company, making a total of

42 Suits 44 Overcoats

Worth prices ranging from $15 to $25, which will be on sale at - - -

$10

These are all high-class 20th Century Clothing, which for different reasons were not delivered to merchants who ordered them. We were very fortunate in getting this lot just now and at prices so low that we are offering them in every case less than wholesale cost. We could easily dispose of every Suit and Overcoat at regular prices, but we want more people to know of the goodness of this 20th Century Clothing, and our object in making this price so low is to induce more people to make the start. We know you'll come back, and we know of no better way to bring the buyers than to offer this very extraordinary chance of securing really high-class Clothing for nearly a song.

Not one Suit or Overcoat in this lot of 42 Suits and 44 Overcoats worth less than $15. Lots worth $25, the majority $18 and $20, and all will go at the one price—

May Be a City Basketball League

An effort was made last year to organize a city basketball league in London, but the project fell through, owing to the fact that no place to play could be obtained where proper seating accommodation could be had. The Amoskeag City hall, however, is not available, and the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium had no gallery. In the latter place, however, a set of adjustable bleachers has been built, which can be put up on short notice, like the seats of a circus. These will be used for the first time on Thanksgiving night, when the Peterboro team plays here, and if this innovation supplies the long felt want, it is quite likely the city league will go this year.

MANAGER CHANCE
MAY LEAVE CUBS

Feared Row With President
Murphy Will Result in Player's Resignation.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Manager Chance, of the Cubs, accompanied by his wife, left Monday night for San Francisco and other California towns, where he will spend the winter. Whether he returns to manage the world's champions or not depends on President Murphy.

The owner of the team has quarreled with his manager and even threatened to trade him to some other National League team. Unless their differences are straightened out amicably by correspondence during the winter months, Chance will not be with the team he put together and thrice led to National League pennants.

The row between Chance and Murphy was brought on indirectly by Chance's demand for a boost in salary. Chance pointed out to his boss a week ago that he had turned a trick before, winning three league pennants and two world's championships in succession, and insisted that he be reimbursed in commensurate terms. Murphy refused to grant the request for more pay and retaliated by criticizing some of the managerial moves made by Chance during the season just ended. That was the signal for a war. The scrap waxed warmer and Murphy finally proposed to trade Chance. "Well, I would advise you to trade me right now," said Chance. With that piece of advice to the owner, Chance walked out of the office and has not been heard from since.

JOHN MCCLOSKEY QUILTS

Bresnahan Mentioned as Next Manager of Cardinals.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—John McCloskey, in a letter received from him yesterday, and dated at Louisville, Ky., announces that his resignation as manager of the St. Louis National League Baseball Club had been accepted.

Roger Bresnahan is the one mentioned as McCloskey's successor. Bresnahan has denied that he had accepted the place, but it is believed he

HORSEMEN WILL VOTE

Those Attending Pimlico Meeting
Leave for Their Homes.

Baltimore, Nov. 2.—Several hundred men interested in racing and who have been in attendance upon the fall meeting at Pimlico, left Monday evening on a special train for New York in order to cast their ballots in Tuesday's election.

Some time before the hour for the train to leave, John Cavanaugh, who was in charge, had applications for places from 400 devotees of the sport, horse owners, bookmakers, stablesmen, and others, and preparations had been made to accommodate all who might put in a late appearance. It is expected that most of those in the party will turn up in time for Tuesday's races here.

CARR GETS BOOST

Ex-Detroit First Sacker Signs Five-Year Contract.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—Charles C. Carr, who has managed the Indianapolis Baseball Club for almost three seasons, will be at the helm of the Browns again next year. Charles met the officials of the local club here yesterday and signed a five-year contract at what is reported to be the best salary ever paid to a minor league manager.

SIR MARTIN BIGGEST
WINNER OF SEASON

Seventy-one horses have won $5,000 and over during the season. The list is headed by J. E. Madden's two-year-old Sir Martin, with $78,823. August Belmont's Fair Play is next in line.

Ballot is third on the list with $55,915, while the two-year-old Maskette stands fourth on the list with $53,185. Other horses that have won over $10,000 during the season are: Colm, $48,905; King James, $38,196; Jack Atkinson, $37,500; Trance, $27,882; Pinkola, $24,310; Celt, $25,540; Helmet, $54,706; Payette, $27,950; Frisillian, $13,950;

BOXERS LIKE TO ASSUME RING NAMES

For some reason or other assumed names have always been popular in the ring. Of course, at one stage, when John L. Sullivan, Paddy Ryan and Jake Kilrain were holding the centre of the ring, the mere fact that they were of Irish descent helped them a lot. But nowadays a boxer does not necessarily assume a ring name of Irish extraction.

Every one knows that Kid McCoy's real name is Norman Selby and that Tommy Ryan's proper title is Joseph Youngs. Also that Young Corbett's handle is Billy Rothwell. But many of the ring lights of today run under assumed names that they seem to have chosen simply through fancy.

LEACH CROSS.

Leach Cross, who made so good a showing against Packie McFarland, is a Hebrew by birth, and his name is Fred Wallach. Young Fitzgerald is rightfully named Herman Ziegler. "Sailor" Burke, who has been figuring in the east, has a family title of Chas. Fraser. Frank Carsey is an Italian, and his name is Frank Carosello. Terry Martin is a Norwegian, and his real name is Martin Martinson. Freddie Cole's name is Fred Kohl and he is a German-American by birth. Young Donohue's name is Philip Powers. Many boxers even change their Christian name, like John O'Brien, who adopted the name "Rouse" O'Brien, and Frank O'Toole, who boxes under the ring name of Tommy O'Toole.

hand to carry out his contract made with the club for next season.

Many wise ball fans claim, however, that there is more in the story than the Boston magnate will admit. Frank Bowerman made quite a hit in the early part of the season, but was of little account after receiving a split finger.

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY IN BUSY EAST LONDON

REV. MR. CLARK'S SUCCESS CONTINUES

Has Sent Back Over $5,000 to Help Pay Off Church Debt.

Rev. T. B. Clark, the rector of All Saints' Church, who is at present on a lecturing tour in England, is meeting with the greatest success, having cabled over $5,000 to the church directors since the middle of August. Yesterday $2,500 was cabled over by him, and will be applied to the church debt. Mr. Clark is working hard to pay off the church debt, and within a short time the new edifice will no doubt be clear of all claims.

LATE MRS. WINDRIM.

Funeral Was Held This Afternoon to Mount Pleasant.

The funeral of Mrs. Robert Windrim, who died at her home, 900 Dundas street, on Sunday, was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, the Rev. G. N. Hazen, of Centennial Methodist Church, officiating. The deceased was a member of the church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Thomas Wright, Weston, R. S. Simmons, Horton, W. McDonald and J. Golding.

RESIDENTS COMPLAIN OF YOUNG ROWDIES

Who Hang Around Corners in the East End of the City.

The residents of the vicinity of Princess avenue and English street are complaining of the actions of a number of rowdies who congregate around that corner nightly.

East End Pastor Caught Burglar Trying to Enter His Window

Pried Sash Up With a "Jimmy"

—Intruder Made Good His Escape.

Rev. E. W. Hughes, of Tillsonburg, who is conducting the services at All Saints' Church during the absence of Rev. T. B. Clark, who is in England, discovered a burglar at work on the pantry window of the rectory at 1:30 this morning, but frightened them away before they were able to enter the house.

It is thought that the burglar visited the house believing that Mrs. Clark would be alone there.

Mr. Clark had just called $2,500 from England.

Old Boys Still Have a Balance

There was a special meeting of the finance committee of the Old Boys' Association this morning.

The account of the Hamilton Old Boys' Association for $50 for the hire of the Seventh Regiment Band for Old Boys' day, was ordered to be paid, as was $5 to Mr. A. D. Jordan for services at the Highlanders' Band concert.

A bill of $25 from A. Scretion & Co., for decorations for the float Canada, was ordered to be paid also.

Many Americans Are Home Voting

Americans are conspicuous in London today by their absence.

It is not thought that they will win. An enthusiastic drummer from Baltimore wanted to bet that Hughes will be defeated for governor of New York. More than one Republican traveller bewailed the fact that John D. Rockefeller had said that he would vote for Taft. It meant a certain reduction of Taft's majority, they said.

Londoners in general are much interested in the elections, and the returns will be eagerly sought for. They will be announced as soon as received from the stage of Bennett's Theatre and by bulletins at the newspaper offices.

Convention of Sunday Schools And Epworth Leagues Opened

First Session This Morning in Centennial Methodist Church.

The first session of the convention of Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues of the London district opened with a very good attendance at Dundas Centre Methodist Church this morning, Dr. A. K. Reynolds presiding.

The session was opened at 10 o'clock with devotional exercises by Rev. G. W. Dewey, the pastor of Empress Avenue Methodist Church.

Rev. E. I. Matthews followed with a splendid address on "The Relation of the League to the Church." He described it as a church within a church. It serves as a bridge between the Sunday school and the church, and keeps the members who have graduated from the Sunday school within the church. He stated that a number of young people think they have finished their religious education when they leave the school, and consequently were it not for the Epworth League they would drift away and have less care for church matters.

It is said that for the past few days they have amused themselves by breaking windows in neighboring houses, and police protection is asked for.

Numerous other complaints are being made, as Halloween celebrations have gone to extremes in many places.

A number of sidewalks were pulled up and torn apart on Lorne avenue, and gates pulled from the hinges and placed on bonfires.

A SLIGHT COLLISION IN EAST END YARDS.

Two Flat Cars Were Smashed Somewhat.

Two flat cars were partially demolished in a slight collision in the yards of the Grand Trunk, west of Rectory street, yesterday afternoon at 3:30.

Engine 689 was shunting on the siding, when the mishap occurred, and before the engine had time to avert the collision, the cars and engine met with the above result.

The crew escaped any injury, while the engine was but slightly damaged.

EAST END NOTES.

Mrs. Wm. Snider, 749 Grey street, had the misfortune to fall into the cellar at her home, on Saturday, and received a severe shaking up. Dr. H. A. Stevenson was called, but found no bones were broken. Mrs. Snider will be confined to her bed for a few days.

Miss Edna Nicholson, 1041 Francis street, wishes to thank the sisters and nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital for their kindness to her through her sickness when she underwent a very serious operation.

THE OFFICERS.

The officers are: Hon. president, Rev. A. K. Birks; president, Dr. A. K. Reynolds; secretary, Sunday schools, Rev. J. W. Hibbert, Thorndale; treasurer of Epworth Leagues, Miss B. Powell, secretary of Epworth League, Miss M. E. Rice.

Topics To Be Discussed in the League Meetings, and the Mode of Preparation.

It was discussed with the members at some length.

A splendid musical programme was then given, after which Rev. J. W. Baird held the round table conference.

The closing session will be held this evening at 7:45.

Water Problem Up Again Today

At the meeting of the water commission this afternoon, the water problem will be discussed at some length.

It is quite probable that a scheme will be arrived at. It is now practically certain that the Kilworth plan will be submitted as a separate scheme.

The commissioners have come to the conclusion that neither filtration nor high-pressure will carry. If the Kilworth scheme is submitted with either one of the other two, and carried, as it no doubt will be, then the city will be protected next year in case of drought. An additional million gallons of water will help materially.

Govt. Should Shoulder Responsibility for the Niagara Power Scheme

Mr. J. M. McEvoy Speaks of Action of the City Council Last Night.

The action of the council last night in sending the request of the Niagara Power Union to a special committee, was viewed with interest by Mr. J. M. McEvoy, who is solicitor for Mr. R. H. Smith, in his action to prevent the city council carrying out the contract entered into.

He points out that the Government should take the onus of the responsibility for the scheme, and not the municipalities. Mr. McEvoy further suggests that in the light of the failure of the Hudson Power Company, Syracuse and other cities located about the same distance from the Falls as London, an expert who has not had anything to do with the Government and its policy should be employed to give his opinion on the scheme. Mr. McEvoy says:

Says Contracts Are Illegal.

"At last the hydro-electric commission has taken a tumble to itself. We now have a full admission that the hydro-electric contracts are illegal, and the wise hydro-electric commission and its legal experts, about which so much was heard not many months ago, come down and ask the municipal councils to petition the Legislature to pass legislation to validate the contracts, to fasten upon the necks of the people contracts which the people, who must pay for all, have never voted to accept."

Validating the Contracts.

"There is legislation now in existence by which all these contracts may be validated, if the people want them."

phrey, Mount Brydges, on Wednesday, Oct. 28, at 5 p.m., when their eldest daughter, Ina E., and William H. Hyatt, of Delaware, were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Mason, of Mount Brydges. The bride was tastefully attired in cream silk, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss Amy, who looked charming in white Irish muslin, and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Maynard H. Hyatt, of Strathroy. After congratulations, the dancing, numbering about 50, repaired to the dining-room, where a choice wedding dinner awaited them, provided by the hostess. The gifts were numerous and beautiful. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, and to the bride a gold ring and chain. The bride's going-away gown was of light grey, with white hat and plumes. The happy young couple left on the 10:35 train amid showers of rice and confetti for eastern cities. On their return they will reside in Delaware. They will be at home to their friends after Nov. 15.

ALLEGED THEFT CASE IN COURT

Two Men Arranged Before Magistrate This Afternoon.

William Charles Saville a dnCharles Tagg, of West Nisour, appear this afternoon before Squires Chittick and Hodgins, charged with the theft of some blacksmithing tools and dies from the shop of Mr. John Talbot, Whitling.

A peculiar feature about the case is that Saville recently paid a fine in order to get Tagg out of jail on a charge of ignoring a judgment summons.

Mr. J. T. Faulds appears for Saville, and Mr. P. H. Bartlett for Tagg. Crown Attorney McKillop is prosecuting.

PRESBYTERIAN EDITOR CALLED BY DEATH

Rev. Malcolm McGregor Succumbs to a Three Months' Illness.

Toronto, Nov. 3.—After an illness of three months, the Rev. Malcolm McGregor, editor of the Presbyterian for the past five years, died this morning. He was one of the best-known ministers in Canada, being an active field man for many years in Ontario and Manitoba. He was born at Glasgow in 1852. In 1901 he went to Winnipeg as western editor of the Westminster publishing company. In 1903, when Rev. J. A. MacDonald became editor of the Globe, Mr. McGregor succeeded him on the Presbyterian. A widow and two children survive.

HOW TOWNS GROW IN CANADIAN WEST

A Striking Example in the Rise of Birmingham, Saskatchewan.

A striking example of the growth of the Canadian west is furnished by the rapid rise of Birmingham in the province of Saskatchewan.

Last year, Col. Welch, of the Twentieth Regiment, Strathroy, C. C. Wright, the well-known hardwareman of Glenora and Strathroy, and John Strombert, of Strathroy, bought a tract of 5,000 acres, 12 miles west of the town of Melville.

In the last few months Birmingham has been founded on the site, and is at present growing rapidly. The new place has already a good hotel with 37 rooms in it, and many other buildings. The hotel is under the direction of Mr. Strombert. W. T. Rapley, a well-known druggist of Strathroy, is about to open a branch drug store there, which will be in charge of Dr. A. Y. Thompson, who will also be the town doctor. Birmingham is along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific, and will undoubtedly develop into an important place.

CHURCH RAISES PASTOR'S SALARY

Rev. R. Thompson, of Siloam, Appreciated by His Flock.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the board of Siloam Church last night, it was decided to raise the salary of the pastor, Rev. R. Thompson, from $750 to $800 a year.

Next Sunday special anniversary services will be held in the church, at which the morning and evening services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Hannan of this city, and a service in the afternoon by Rev. S. Anderson. On Monday evening a Thanksgiving fowl supper will be held in the church, at which addresses will be given by Rev. W. Mahon, Rev. G. N. Hazen, Rev. George Dewey, and Rev. Mr. Kennedy. A musical programme will be furnished by the members of the Dewey family.

The London Township Sunday school convention will be held at Arva on Nov. 11. Mr. McNab, president of the association, will preside.

LOCAL MARKET.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 3.
 A good market and brisk demand in almost every line was the way the buyers answered when questioned concerning the market this morning. Prices were pretty firm, as demand was the only commodity in which there was an easy tone. Grain—A large delivery of oats, yet the sales were brisk and prices firm, at $1.15 to $1.20 per cwt; most of the loads at $1.15. Wheat steady, at 85c per bu. A contract was made for several hundred bushels of corn on the cob at 90c per cwt. Hops were selling at $1.15 per cwt.

Hay and Straw—Over 20 loads of hay were offered today; the demand was brisk at $11.50 and $12 per ton for the choice loads, while inferior and medium quality sold at $10 to $11 per ton; there should be a good demand for hay during the week, as next Monday will be the busy day, and there will not be any in on Saturday. Straw sold at $7 per ton.

Butter and Eggs—Butter was scarce, and while prices were strong there was no advance; sales were made at 23c for crocks and 21c and 20c for rolls in whole sale lots. Eggs are not quite as firm as butter, the few loads offered today sold quickly today at 25c per dozen by the basket.

Vegetables and Roots—Potatoes were not as well represented as in previous weeks, the demand was fair and prices firm, at 50c and 55c per bag by the load, and 75c for smaller lots; onions sold at $1 per bag; beets, 40c per bu; parsnips, 50c per bu; carrots and turnips, 20c per bu; cabbage, plentiful and slow, at 40c per dozen. Fowl—Turkeys were scarce, and it looks as if the farmers are holding for a few days, when they expect higher prices; they may, however, be disappointed, as the 4 and 5 lb birds are selling for turkeys alive, and 15c to 16c dressed; hens, 10c per lb dressed and 8c alive; old fowl, 5c per lb alive and 7c dressed.

Apples were in fair demand, at 25c per bag and 15c to 25c per barrel; grapes, 30c and 35c per basket; chestnuts are scarce and higher, at 85c and $1.20 per bu. Butcher's Meats—Beef sold today at $5.50 to $6.50 per cwt; lamb, 85c to 90c per lb; veal, 85c to $1 per cwt.

PRODUCE MARKETS.
TORONTO.
 Toronto, Nov. 3.—The grain markets are steady, but generally unchanged. Wheat—Ontario No. 2 white or red, outside, 85c to 90c; No. 2 mixed, 85c to 90c; Manitoba wheat, spot, No. 1 northern, 81c; No. 2 northern, 81c; at lake ports.

Barley—No. 2, 55c to 57c; No. 3 extra, 54c to 56c; No. 3, 53c to 54c. Oats—Ontario No. 2 white, 37c to 38c; outside, No. 2 mixed, 37c to 38c; Manitoba No. 2, 42c to 43c, on track at lake ports.

Corn—Nominal, at 52c to 54c, Toronto freight, for Nov. 3 or 4 yellow. Rye—No. 2, 75c to 76c. Peas—No. 2, 55c to 56c outside. Buckwheat—No. 2, 54c to 55c. Bye—Quiet, quoted at $20 to $21 per ton in bags, outside.

Shorts—Easier, at $23 to $24 per ton in bags, outside. Flour—Manitoba first patents, 55c; second, 54c; strong bakers, 55c; Ontario winter wheat patents, for export, 55c to 56c outside.

INTO RECEIVER'S HANDS
 Gigantic $10,000,000 Power Concern of New York State in Trouble.

Norwich, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Receivers were today appointed for the Hudson River Electric Company, Judge Ray naming Charles W. Andrews, of Syracuse; George W. Dunn, of Binghamton; and George W. Deane, of Canastota. The corporation was organized in 1903, and controls the Hudson River Water Power Company, Hudson River Electric Company and Hudson River Power Transmission Company, together with various sub-companies, owned by the last named, supplying central and eastern New York State with power. The authorized capital stock was $10,000,000, of which $5,350,000 was issued. The total funded debt of the corporation, according to its last statement, was $5,653,500. Net earnings for 1907 were $485,000.

Ten companies are included in the receivership. They are known as the Hudson River Companies, and their operations extend from Spire Falls on the Hudson River, to Saratoga Springs, Cohoes, Troy, Albany, Schenectady, and as far west as Utica. Their principal business is to operate and transmit electrical power for running machinery, cars and furnishing light. The president of the companies is Eugene Ashley. Bonds of the various companies involved to the amount of some ten or twelve millions of dollars are affected, and are held principally in New England and New York City, where many of them were put up as collateral by Edward H. Gay & Co., which recently went into bankruptcy in Boston.

Charges of insolvency are made against all of these companies, one, the Hudson River Power Company, being the parent and the others subsidiary. There are also charges of mismanagement and misapplication of funds. The National Contracting Company, owned by the Hudson River Companies, are large creditors, and bankruptcy proceedings commenced some three years ago against the Hudson River Water Power Company are still pending. Mr. Andrews, Dunn and Deane, who were each required today to give bonds in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars as receivers.

MR. J. H. AGNEW ILL
 Manitoba Minister in Precarious Condition After Operation.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 2.—Hon. J. H. Agnew, provincial minister, lies at his home tonight in a most precarious condition, and his life is despaired of. He underwent an operation for appendicitis, which was successful, but so serious was the condition of the patient when he was operated on that there are grave fears for his recovery. Mr. Agnew was taken ill very suddenly yesterday afternoon. He had shown no symptoms of appendicitis and was around on Saturday apparently in the best of health.

SUGAR MARKETS.
 New York, Nov. 2.—Sugar—Raw steady; fair refining, 3.40c; centrifugal, 95c test, 3.50c; molasses to 100 lbs. in 100 lbs. SUDDEN DEATH OF REV. WM. PENHALL

At Monkon, Ont.—Brother-in-Law of Mr. A. M. Hunt.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Rev. Wm. Penhall, the pastor of the Methodist Church in Monkon, Ont., and who is a brother-in-law of Mr. A. M. Hunt, the secretary of the Western Fair Board.

Mr. Penhall died very suddenly yesterday afternoon, having conducted the regular services at his church at Monkon on Sunday. The deceased was 57 years of age and had devoted thirty-three years of his life to work in the Methodist ministry. He was born in England, but on arriving in this country he entered Victoria College, then situated in Cobourg.

He was very well-known in this part of Ontario, having been stationed in Appin, Bryanton, Ellmville, Sparta, St. Johns, Corunna, Blyth and Monkon, his death occurring at the latter place.

He is survived by his wife, the daughter of Mr. Samuel Hunt, of this city, and by two daughters.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from Askin Street Methodist Church to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, where interment will take place. Rev. A. K. Birks will conduct the services.

OPENING SOCIAL IN MEMORIAL CHURCH

Pleasant Event Held by Anglican Young People's Association.

The opening social of the A. Y. P. A. of Memorial Church was held last evening and was decidedly successful. The pastor, Rev. Canon Hague, made a brief address in which he spoke of the good work of the young people of the church.

The society members have always taken a keen interest in missionary work and this year it is expected that they will keep up their good reputation. It has many interesting and helpful features which are much appreciated.

A short musical entertainment was held, consisting of a solo by Mr. Chas. Turner, a duet by Miss Wright and Mr. Geo. Wright, and a recitation by Miss Tory, the latter being the feature of the programme. A guessing contest was held, a number of slips of paper having the name of a work of art concealed in it was next held. Miss Steadman and Mr. S. Hardy were the winners.

The officers of the association are: Patron, Rev. Canon Hague; vice-patron, Rev. George Andrew; president, Mr. George Wright; vice-presidents, Mrs. Dyson Hague and Mr. Witherston; secretary, Mrs. Rea; treasurer, Mr. S. Rea and Mr. R. Lee.

MISS FLORENCE FRASER APPOINTED SECRETARY

By the Protestant Orphans' Home Board.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of the Protestant Orphans' Home was held yesterday afternoon, and considerable business was done. The position of secretary, made vacant by the resignation of Miss MacNamara, recently, was filled by appointing Miss Florence Fraser. Mrs. Morphy resigned the position of first vice-president, and Mrs. Becher was appointed in her place.

The committees for the year were appointed as follows: Investigation—Messdames R. Fowler, A. Morphy, C. H. Ziegler, Shuttleworth, A. B. Greer, W. H. Winnett and Underwood.

Executive—Messdames Edge, Smart, Beebe, Spencer, De la Hooke and Moorhouse.

Purchasing—Messdames Spencer, Edge, Shuttleworth, Robinson and De la Hooke.

Building and Repairs—Messdames Morphy, Fowler, Thompson and Robinson; Messrs. Bowman, Wright, Armstrong, Flock, J. McCormick and ex-Ald. Wyatt.

A family named Stevens wrote asking that the board allow their three children to be placed in the home, and the application was accepted.

A report of the visiting committee showed that everything at the home at present is in first-class shape.

YOU NEED FEAR IT NO LONGER

GRAVEL WARDED OFF AND CURED BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Manitoba Man Tells How His Urinary Troubles Vanished Before the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

Hamrik, Man., N. V. 2.—Probably there is no disease to which man is heir that causes such a general dread as gravel, or stone in the bladder. The frightful pains it brings and the terrible operations it necessitates cause a shudder of apprehension whenever it is mentioned. But there is really no reason why any man or woman should fear gravel. It is purely and simply a kidney disease, and as such can be either cured or guarded against by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Take the case of Mr. Calvin R. Snyder, well-known here. He says:

"In the spring of 1907 I was almost laid up from a lame back and was also troubled with excessive urination. I got a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and used them with satisfactory results. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine I ever heard of."

If you follow Mr. Snyder's example and use Dodd's Kidney Pills for slight urinary disorders, you will never be troubled with gravel. If you have gravel, Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it.

FORMAL TENDER FINALLY ACCEPTED

City Council Would Not Go Back on Finance Committee's Sale of Debentures.

There was little business transacted at the meeting of the council last evening. As was expected, the sale of the $33,500 debentures to the Dominion Securities Company caused some debate. Mr. Wood, of Wood, Gundy & Co., Toronto, whose bid was $27 higher than that of the Dominion Securities Company, but who failed to give a check for $1,000, as was demanded by the committee, appeared before both the committee and the council, and urged that whereas his firm had acted in good faith in the matter, they be given the debentures. He declared that London was the only city in Canada that demanded the check, and that his tender had been accepted in other instances without it.

Mr. H. Maler, on behalf of the Dominion Securities Company, declared that his firm had fulfilled the contract to the letter and should be awarded the debentures.

Dangerous Precedent.
 Ald. Beattie thought that it would be a dangerous precedent to award the contract without complying with the advertisement, and moved the recommendation of the Finance Committee to the Dominion Securities Company. This was carried without opposition.

Level Crossings.
 Ald. Moorhead brought up the question of level crossings, and said that the workmen of the east end were continually held up by the cars at the Egerton street crossing, and other crossings. It is especially bad in the morning between 6 and 7 o'clock, and many men have been late for work as a result.

Ald. Ross moved that a special committee, composed of Mayor Staley, Ald. Beattie, Greenlee and Gerry be appointed to interview both the Grand Trunk and the C. P. R. regarding the shutting at the several level crossings, to lessen the evil, if possible. The motion carried without discussion.

King Street Pavement.
 The bad condition of King street pavement was brought to the attention of the council.

"Some time ago we gave the contractors orders to put that pavement in repair," said Ald. Ferguson. "Not a thing has been done to it yet, and it is in a most disgraceful condition."

"I have spoken to City Engineer Graydon several times about that pavement," said Ald. Gerry, "but nothing has been done to it yet, and it is something is done very soon."

Swimming Baths.
 Ald. Armstrong is still true to his swimming baths proposition, and last night had a motion passed asking that a bylaw be submitted at the municipal elections setting aside $4,000 for the enlargement of playgrounds.

The tender of John Mills for office supplies was accepted, as it was the lowest.

There was quite a debate over the cess-pit in front of the London Concrete Machinery Company's plant, on Marmora street. Mr. H. Pocock, manager of the company, addressed the council, and pointed out that he had been prevented from getting sewer access to the cess-pit by the opposition of certain residents of the neighborhood. The matter was referred to the board of works for settlement.

Meredith, Judd & Meredith notified that they intended to bring suit for damages against the city on behalf of George Lowes, of London Township, who was injured at the Oxford street crossing of the C. P. R. No. 2.

The Scott Machine Company asked for permission to build on city property. No. 2.

Extend Tracks.
 The Southwestern Traction Company asked for permission to extend their tracks on Lincoln to Ridout street. No. 2 committee.

R. Winnett & Sons wrote protesting against the awarding of the contract for the boiler for the new laundry at the hospital. Filed.

Those present were: Mayor Staley, Ald. Beattie, Ferguson, Stevenson, Greenlee, Armstrong, Moorhead, Booth, Saunders, Rose, Stewart, Gerry, and City Clerk Baker.

SERVICE OF PRAISE IN ST. ANDREW'S

Artistic Event Last Night Attracted a Large Audience.

The service of praise given in St. Andrew's Church last night proved an event of much interest to lovers of music, and the edifice was filled to its capacity.

The recital was the last that will be given with the old organ, as the work of tearing it down to make room for the new one will commence at once. Rev. Dr. Ross presided at last night's recital, and in opening the programme with devotional exercises, was assisted by the choir, who chanted a prayer.

The programme rendered was a most varied one, and all were delighted with the artistic rendition of the numbers.

Miss Crawford, soloist of the Metropolitan Methodist Church, of Toronto, has been very well received, and her work won for her the praise of all. She has a high, clear, soprano voice of remarkable range, and while all her numbers were artistically given, "The Carol of the Lark," in which a number of songs were introduced, seemed to be a favorite with the audience.

Miss Crawford is without doubt one of the finest sopranos ever heard in London. Miss Edna Mortimore, soloist of St. Andrew's, was heard to advantage in a number of pieces that were faultlessly rendered. The trio of female voices, in which Miss Mortimore, Mrs. Charles E. Wheeler and Miss Alice Halls sang "O Blessed Redeemer," was a very dainty and pretty number, and was greatly appreciated.

The chorus numbers, rendered by the choir under the direction of Mr. Charles E. Wheeler, showed a great deal of careful training, and were much enjoyed. Miss Spence Yallow's four organ selections, given at intervals throughout the programme, were favorite numbers. The solos by Mr. Walter Nixon and Mr. Edward Webster were also effectively rendered, and fully maintained the reputation these gentlemen have as singers.

Great Gale on Lower St. Lawrence

Montreal, Que., Nov. 2.—Considerable damage is reported from the Lower St. Lawrence as the result of the great gale which has been sweeping over land and sea for the past couple of days. The bark Tormes has been wrecked at Rousseau Anne, and the schooner Voltigeurs has gone down at Tadoussac. An outward-bound Allan liner could not land her pilot at Father Point, owing to the heavy sea, and he had to go to England in consequence, while the inward-bound Kensington failed to get a pilot for the same reason.

TAFT AND BRYAN AT POLLS

has now entirely disappeared. The telegraph companies announced today that the demand for special election night wires had exceeded any in the past. Practically every theatre, hotel and restaurant in New York will receive returns over these wires, and many brokerage houses both up and down town have announced that they will be open for the receipt of a election news during the night, and be ready to execute orders on the London exchange, which opens five hours in advance of the New York market.

Candidates at Home.
 Their long, grinding campaign tours at an end, today found Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan at home. The former cast his ballot from the residence of his brother, Charles F. Taft, in Cincinnati, and the latter from his Fairview Farm at Lincoln, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Kern, the vice-presidential candidates, voted respectively at their homes in Utica, N. Y., and Indianapolis.

Hughes Fights to Last.
 In this state, where the greatest interest is felt in the fight for the governorship, the campaign did not end until midnight. Governor Hughes being on the go to the voting line stood at Lincoln, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Kern, the vice-presidential candidates, voted respectively at their homes in Utica, N. Y., and Indianapolis.

Heavy Vote Out.
 The ancient court house is scheduled to receive three coats of cement paint in the spring.

County Engineer Talbot has been experimenting with cement paint for several months, and he believes that it is a success in every way.

The work was painted some time ago, and the paint so far has withstood the elements successfully.

The estimated cost of painting the court house is $800, and if it is the will of the county fathers the work will be proceeded with in the spring.

"It would make almost a new building of the place," said Mr. Talbot, "I don't think there is a more picturesque structure anywhere in Canada than the court house."

It is possible that the widow still will be painted a darker color than the rest of the building.

The encroachment will not be more than two feet, it is said.

NO REPORTS MADE RE FAKE INSPECTOR

City Hall Officials Have Heard Nothing of Him.

Nothing has been heard at the city hall about the "fake" inspector who is going about the city, and creating annoyance to citizens. Inspector McCallum's department has no such man out.

He is out of the city at present, but Assistant Inspector Lutman knows nothing of the man.

"We have no such man out," said Mr. Lutman. "If any such man is out he must be an impostor, as he is not working under our orders. I have heard nothing about it, except what I saw in the papers. We have no man out."

The dedication of the new Catholic Church, St. Patrick, Toronto, took place yesterday afternoon. Archbishop McEvey conducted the services.

HAWKING MACHINES

CATARH sufferers are nothing but hawking, spitting and blowing machines, says an authority.

Is it possible that in these days when cleanliness and sanitary reform is being preached in the churches, schools and at public gatherings, that thousands of people will continue to suffer from catarrh when there is an absolutely certain remedy always on hand.

Hymel (pronounced High-ome) is a pleasant, medicated and antiseptic air. Breathe it in and it will cure catarrh. It will stop foul breath, watery eyes, and crusts in the nose in a few days.

Mrs. H. W. Wilson, of Johnson street, Wallaceburg, Ont., says: "Yes, we are great friends to Hymel for the reason that Mr. Wilson has had catarrh for several years and tried several remedies and doctors, but nothing has relieved the trouble like Hymel. His trouble is from pains across the eyes and a burning or huskiness in his throat. Sometimes glands in his eyes and nose swollen and the disease made him literally sick all over. He cannot say enough in praise of Hymel, and there is nothing that can give better relief to catarrh than this remedy, which we heartily recommend."

A complete Hymel outfit, consisting of a strong, hard rubber pocket inhaler and a bottle of Hymel, costs only $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, cost only 50 cents each. W. T. Strong sells it and guarantees it to do exactly as advertised.

Hymel also cures asthma, bronchitis, coughs, colds and infants croup.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN FOR $5,000 A YEAR FOR THREE YEARS BEGUN

The Y. M. C. A. campaign for $5,000 per year for three years in subscriptions started with a whirl today. Businessmen who are to solicit subscriptions were in the building at 9 o'clock, and started out with a determination to show London's desire to support one of the most potent factors for righteousness in the community.

With the success of eleven other similar campaigns in much smaller towns of the Province behind them, they feel that London will not stop at $5,000, but will roll up a good margin to provide for a shrinkage and unexpected expenditure. The eyes of all Ontario, and, in fact, all Canada are on London during these three days, not because of any desire to win the campaign, so as to be a credit to the city, but because it is believed that the young manhood of this community is worth working for.

Said a well-known worker today: "It is hoped that the canvassers will meet with a hearty response, because these gentlemen are just as busy as anyone else in the community, and it is not fair to ask them to give more than three days from their business for the solicitation of funds. Everyone should realize that the Y. M. C. A. is literally on trial during these three days, and the success or failure in the future will largely be determined by the outcome of this effort. The preparation has been made very carefully, and the organization of the campaign has been effected, and it now remains with the people to say whether or not they want this institution to branch out on an aggressive policy, or whether they want it to be handicapped and doomed to more or less failure to fulfill its logical place in shaping the young manhood of future Canada. We appeal to you to help us do three things: First, to pay off the indebtedness which has been carried for five years, though there has been no increase of the debt during the past two years; second, keep out of debt, and third, provide for a more aggressive policy of work than has ever been attempted before by such an institution. We ask you to give us your subscription on a three-year basis in order to accomplish the above. This is everybody's campaign. It will do you good to get enthusiastic."

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 2.—The special funeral train of six cars that left for Crystal City this morning carried a large number of well-known Winnipeggers to attend the funeral of the late Hon. Thomas Greenway. In the railway commission's private car, Alexander, the body of the ex-premier reposed.

The services at the Greenway home were attended by a large gathering from all parts of the country. The casket was conveyed to Prairie Home Farm, where a private service was held. Interment afterwards took place

Comp. Walter Richards, H. C. R. A. O. F., was present, and assisted by Comp. Winslow, C. C., and Comps. Moffatt, Mrs. Richards and other members of the circle, the games were nicely arranged, and the refreshments daintily served.

100-nObject to Dancing at Normal School
Methodists Raised Strong Protest

Principal Radcliffe Has Promised That Dances Will Be Discontinued.

At a meeting of the London Ministerial Association held in Wesley Hall yesterday, Rev. A. K. Birks, of Askin Street Methodist Church, stated that he had objected strongly to Principal Radcliffe of the Normal School that dancing should not be allowed at the entertainments at the school.

At the recent Halloween entertainment the students were allowed to engage in a dance, and some 70 or 80 Methodist students who were present objected strongly.

Mr. Birks stated that he had taken the matter up with Mr. Radcliffe, and asked that, as it had never been the custom in the past to have dances at the Normal School entertainments, they be discontinued.

Mr. Radcliffe had agreed to see that in the future no dancing was engaged in.

The general opinion of the conference was that Mr. Birks had done right, and he was supported by all present.

Pastor Evangelism.

The association were greatly interested in a paper by Rev. George Dewey, of Empress Avenue Methodist Church, on "Pastor Evangelism." In his paper Mr. Dewey stated that there should be no need for special evangelistic services if the ministers of the church did their work as they should, and were accorded the support that every minister deserved from his congregation.

Special evangelists were unknown in the early Methodist churches, but in modern times so many side issues have been introduced into the church that pastors and laity alike have been driven to a greater or less extent towards materialism. The result cannot but be harmful to all.

Missionary Sunday.

The matter of arranging for the various pulpits on the Sunday especially devoted to missionary work was taken up, and a general exchange will in all probability result.

A joint service of all the Methodists of the city will be held in the First Methodist Church on Thanksgiving Day, at which the service will be taken by Rev. G. Dewey.

500,000 Gallons at Cronyn Springs
Water Commission Again Inspect

Took a Trip Into London Township on Monday.

The water commissioners investigated the Cronyn springs yesterday afternoon and found an excellent supply of the best spring water.

On the farm there are at least a dozen springs, several of them of over 20,000 gallons a day capacity. They are all within an area of a few hundred yards and can be easily gathered.

The springs are directly opposite the White property, and it would be an easy matter to collect the two sources of supply, and bring them to the city.

Splendid Supply.

"There is a fine supply of good spring water there," said Engineer Moore. "I estimate it at 500,000 gallons. With the White springs across the river we could get fully 800,000 gallons. Of course it might be developed, but there is that quantity of water in sight. The whole bank from which the springs flow seems full of water, there being innumerable small springs."

Chairman Jones thought the springs could be developed to a much greater quantity than appears on the surface.

500,000 Gallons.

"I think that the springs might be easily developed to half a million gallons here," said Mr. Jones. "I see that it is a very hard proposition to measure the water, as so much of it sweeps away. I think that half a million gallons could be obtained easily."

The Cost.

The estimated cost of bringing the water to the city is $30,000. This includes the cost for both the White and the Cronyn properties. After it was brought to the city there would be the cost of a pumping plant.

The North Branch.

The quantity of water in sight on the north branch was, in the opinion of the commissioners, not so large as at Kilworth.

The members of the commission who made the trip were Chairman Jones, Commissioner Darch, Mayor Stevely, and Engineer Moore.

FIRST RECITAL ON THE NEW ORGAN

In Askin Street Methodist Church Last Night.

Askin Street Church was crowded last night, when a first recital on the new church organ was given by Mr. W. H. Hewlett, of Hamilton.

Rev. A. K. Birks presided. In opening the programme Mr. Hewlett made a short address, in which he complimented the members of the church in securing such a splendid new organ, which, after a thorough examination, he was convinced was unsurpassed by any church organ in Western Ontario. Mr. Hewlett's first number was a march from "Lenore Symphony" and he followed with a serenade, "Arcadian Idyll" and a selection from the music of "The Forest Scene" from "Siegfried." These numbers were splendidly rendered, and showed the strength and volume of the new organ to perfection.

Mr. Hewlett also played the overture to "The Cuckoo," "Humoresque," "A Pastoral Fantasy" and a grand march from "Tannhauser."

The appointment will give general satisfaction. Father Tobin has always been deeply interested in educational matters, and is well qualified for the position. He is a graduate of L'Assomption College, Montreal, and of the Grand Seminary, Montreal. In addition he has taken the degrees of S. T. L. and D. C. L. in Laval University, Montreal.

According to the new act, the council appoints three members, the board of education two, and the separate school board one.

It was expected that the council would appoint its representatives last night, but it was laid over until the next meeting of the council. The board of education will probably appoint its representatives this afternoon.

Father Aylward, who was prominently mentioned for the appointment, withdrew, allowing the honor to go to a representative of the east end congregation, as Capt. T. J. Murphy and J. O. Dromgoole, of St. Peter's, are members of that congregation on the board of governors.

FORMER LONDON MAN INJURED BY COW

Serious Accident to Mr. Geo. Levy, of Colborne Township.

While milking a cow yesterday morning on the farm of George Bisset, near Goderich, George Levy, formerly of Colborne Township, but latterly of London, was kicked by the animal. He was knocked down, and managed to crawl away from the cow, where he was found afterwards by his employer. On examination it was found that several of Levy's ribs were broken, penetrating the lungs, kidneys and liver.

He was removed to the Goderich Hospital, where he is at present. His condition is serious.

Mrs. Levy is at present in London.

H. W. BOYLE OF HENRY ST. MISSING

Wife in This City is Inquiring for Him in Toronto.

A dispatch from Toronto states that Mrs. W. H. Boyle, of 10 Henry street, London, is in that city looking for her husband who has been missing since Oct. 22, and has not been heard of since. She fears that he has met with foul play.

Boyle is well known in the city, where he has been employed as canvasser for several firms.

His last employment was with the Western Real Estate Company. He was sent out on some business for the firm, and returned all right. He left the office and has not been located since.

His wife made inquiries at several places about the city, but failed to locate him, and thinking he may have gone to Toronto she has renewed the search there.

The police have heard nothing of him since his disappearance.

No End To Eczema

EXCEPT BY ACTIVE AND PERSISTENT TREATMENT WITH THE GREAT ECZEMA CURE.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

When left to itself, eczema runs on indefinitely, causing keen distress from itching and covering the body with sores that refuse to heal.

Even with careful treatment, eczema is obstinate in yielding to curative measures, but the regular and persistent use of Dr. Chase's Ointment is the most certain means known of overcoming this torturing disease.

Mrs. Robert Clendenning, Welland station, Ont., writes:

"For three years my daughter Fanny was afflicted with eczema in an intense and persistent form, and for nine days she was totally blind. The burning, itching and disfigurement were horrible, her entire face being completely raw for months, and the distress so great that she could not sleep.

"The best efforts of two eminent physicians failed to even mitigate her awful suffering. One day when I was low-spirited over my daughter's condition, Dr. Chase's Ointment was recommended to me and to our surprise Fanny was helped with the first box and she has since been entirely cured by this treatment."

"Her face is now as smooth as a baby's, and she is in splendid health. The credit for this cure is entirely due to Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I cheerfully give you permission to state my daughter's case, hoping that it will lead many others to secure the same good results."

There are a score of ways in which Dr. Chase's Ointment, with its extraordinary soothing, healing properties, is useful in every home; 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

CASSELMAN BROS. SLATER SHOE STORELONDON COUNCIL REFUSED

Greenlees. "I am in favor of passing the resolution now. I do not know that the special power committee will do anything with it if it is sent to them. All the power union ask is that our contract with them be validated. We are at present defendants in a litigation that seeks to upset our contract. If this resolution is passed, and the litigation comes to an end, we should not entertain any proposition to invalidate the contract."

Ald. Stevenson For It.

Ald. Stevenson also favored passing the resolution.

"The object of the union is to expedite matters," he said, "and we should assist them. We have signed a contract with the committee. It would be power. We should then pass the resolution to assist the commission to get power to London at the earliest possible moment. We entered into the contract in good faith, and we should carry it out. There is some litigation now, but it is based on technicalities, and does not alter the purpose for which the contract was entered into."

Send It to Committee.

Ald. Ferguson thought that the best interests of all concerned would be served by the correspondence being sent to the special committee. It would be dealt with intelligently there, and the fullest possible information would be obtained. The city solicitor was anxious to talk over the question of making the hydro-electric commission contract with the committee, and while he was discussing that feature the whole matter could be taken up.

To Validate Contracts.

"The passing of this resolution will have no influence whatever on the present litigation," said Ald. Stevenson. "It merely validates the contracts already entered into."

"I agree with Ald. Ferguson on this matter," said Ald. Beattie. "In view of the litigation pending, it is difficult to say where the city stands. The placing of the commission as co-defendants in suit puts an altogether different phase on the question. The object is on the part of someone to prevent the facts and figures and estimates that should have been laid before the people when this contract was voted on from being put before the people when it is again voted on. This information should have been given to the people before."

"I can take no other meaning from Ald. Beattie's stand than that he is in favor of having the council back up the plaintiff in an action in which the city is defendant," said Ald. Greenlees. "If we send it to the special committee it makes it appear that we are endorsing the suit. This litigation should not affect our attitude at all."

Ald. Beattie Explains.

"Ald. Greenlees does not understand me," said Ald. Beattie. "I have always contended, and do still contend, that all the facts and figures in connection with this contract should have been given to the people when they voted on the bylaw. If that is the outcome of the litigation it will not have been in vain. I still think that it should be looked into very carefully. I will support Ald. Booth's resolution."

Amendment Defeated.

Ald. Greenlees moved, in amendment, that the resolution asked for be passed by the council, but it was defeated by a vote of ten to two, Ald. Greenlees
