where, came orders for the children to travel to London, the governess

Long did Sydney remember that journey, principally by reason of the overpowering hunger she suffered through its tedious length, and the disappointment that met her at its end. For cook, for some unexplained cause, declined to send up a schoolroom dinner before they started (she said she hadn't time, though that was clearly an unkind invention, since as the carriage bore the children from Guyswick, the recalcitrant domestic was plainly visible in company with two house-maids, a groom, and a gardener, unblushingly feastited leisure and liberty!) and Miss Foster coldly turned a deaf ear to suggestions of biscuits by Leonora: and at the end of all those weary miles there was yet no father!

Irritable, Hysterical, Sleepless, Dr.

There is a message in this letter for thousands of women who are suffering from broken-down nervous systems. Sleepless nights, much irrita bility over little things, spells of dizziness and nervous sick headaches are You may not realize the nature of your ailment until nervous prostration comes upon you. But, in whatever stage you find yourself, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is ready to help you.

Mrs. W. J. May, 88 Annette street, Toronto, writes: "Some years ago I suffered from nervous trouble, and took Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which completely cured me. About six months ago I received a shock which again shattered my nervous system to such an extent that I was irritable care for gazing out of the window, at and hysterical, and could not sleep I began to use the Nerve good again and was not disappointed. Improvement was apparent from the first box, and now I am entirely well."

MARITIME TELEGRAPH & TELEPHONE COMMON.

We draw the attention of the investing public to the merits of this stock. The annual statement of the Company shows a large increase in business for the year ended December 31st, 1913,—an increase of 2379 subscribers, and the Directors state that it would appear from present indications that this growth will continue for some time to come. The stock pays an annual dividend of 6 per cent.

Public Utility Securities are always very popular. The state-ments of well managed companies show constant increases in receipts in prosperous times, and only a minimum of disturbance in periods of business reaction

We are in a position to offer a block of Maritime Telegraph & Telephone Common at an attractive price, and would advise investors to write at once for full particulars.

The Army Caste. The week-end crisis in regard to the officers in the army far outshadows in importance the question of Ulster. Nothing like it has been seen since the days of James II., when the army refused to obey the behsets of that monarch. It would appear from the present government of the army that when a soldier dislikes an order and refuses to obey, it is mutiny and a long term of imprisonment fits the crime, but when officers refuse to your catalogue ready for the asking obey the orders, they are given the option of resigning, and if they have sufficient pull, they are invited to reconsider their resignation on th terms of not being asked to carry out those orders. The suggestion said to have emanated from the King seems to offer a solution, so far as it relates to the Ulster counties and that is the Ulster counties be given twelve years, during which they might be excluded from the operation of the Home Rule Bill. We should b sorry to see any terms made with the army officers who resigned. A yea ago the Government could have dear irmly with officers fomenting mutiny They were not slow in prosecuting Tom Mann for advising soldiers not to shoot strikers, but they have been too slow in dealing with mutineering officers and now the latter have mastered them and left them helpless in dealing with Sir Edward Carson and his colleagues and they apparently have to make terms with officers on Another "Perfection as a filing arrangement." Another "It is really indispensable." Another "A surprising advance in handling records." Another "A welcome improvement in office conditions"-and so on. The extensive sale of "Globe" filing cabinets in St. John's is by no means as remarkable as the abundant evidence that it is on merit alone that these devices have earned such generous appreciation. #### From the Manger to the Cross

IS A MARVELLOUS PICTURE.

The Casino Theatre was crowded last evening with a representative audience to see the wonderful Biblical story by the Kalem Co., entitled 'From the Manger to the Cross." It s the most beautiful and impressive picture ever presented by any may ing picture company. With the exception of Quebec, St. John's is the first city to see it. Many of the leadng theatres of Canada were anxious to secure it for the Lenten season and Mr. Kieley was particularly for tunate in securing it so early. The sacredness of the situation was fel by all present last night, and no Lenten service could be more solemn. The pictures act like magnates and from the commencement when the Virgin Mary is first seen until the awful cru cifixion upon the Cross at Calvary the eyes of everyone were focussed on the scene. The Babe in the Manzer, the Wise Men, the flight into gypt, the Child in the Temple, th miracle, and the raising of the Cross and the weeping mother were shown in a manner which will never be for gotten. The story is vividly impress ed on the mind. Professor McCarthy used an organ instead of piano which added to the effect of the films. This evening it will be repeated, when n loubt the hall will be crowded again Many present yesterday are very anxious to see the solemn story again The acting was faultless and the scenes perfect, and the Kalem Co. i deserving of all the praise bestowed on the artists.

THE REVIVAL OF BOXING.

One can hardly say that the King's intention of witnessing some boxing contests amounts to Royal patronage of the "ring." It is, however, a very ary revival of interest in boxing durtury ago, that interest embraces all mustache and beard, but none o' lects a huge crowd outside the newspaper offices in Fleet Street waiting for hours on a cold winter's night the luxury of a mustache. The crowd that gathered for the result of the recent London bye-elections were not nearly so great as that which assembled in Fleet Street the other night for the sign of worldliness. result of the match between Bombardier Wells and Bandsman Blake for the English heavyweight championship. When did this revival of interest begin? The coming over of Carpentier (the nineteen-year-old French boy who a few months ago beat Wells in the fight for the championship of Europe) quickened interest to fever height, but did not originate it. It has certainly been "going strong" since the beginning of the century. A periodical devoted entirely to the sport has flourished exceedingly since its foundation about six years ago. Prabably the revival should be dated back to the serial publication of Conan Doyle's "Rodney Stone" in 1898. #### GERMAN BUSINESS MEN SEEK WIDER FIELD.

One often hears it said that both apart from its respect for education English business men is their invet good_enough with limits but a little infusion of the German instinct for organization and collective action for better results. A striking example of the German method is the newly formed Association for World Commerce. This Associa tion will include all the exporting trades of the German Empire. These rades will in certain important maters sink all international competiion and act collectively. Collective travellers will be sent abroad by the ssociation to canvass for orders. ommercial expeditions will be sent ut at the common expense to invesgate new markets. There will be erman goods. All expenses will be orne by the Association and distriuted equally. Under certain circumstances and for certain pioneering work the bond will be made still closer, and profits as well as expenses will be pooled, perhaps over term of years. In short, the Association will assume the character of a combine" of all the export trades articularly concerned. THE DREADNOUGHT IDEA. While there is no official admission hat we have abandoned the Dreadlought-and indeed there could not e any, since it might be construed wrongly to mean that the most recently built ships were reckoned of no fighting value.—we have definitely abandoned the Dreadnought idea, and his abandonment is admitted by Mr. Churchill. They have, however, one hing in common, and that is that each one when it was laid down represented an advance in size, in arnour and armament, and in cost over what had gone before. That was the Dreadnought idea—the idea of "going one better." It has already led us race an othere was not sign of any check to it till the Admiralty took the matter in hand. By making the new Royal Sovereign class of less dislacement than its predecessors or its contemporaries abroad they have perormed a public and, indeed, an international service for which Liberals have not given them sufficient credit.
