SYNOD OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

A meeting of the Committee, appointed at the last session of the Synod, for the consideration of the best mode of making provision for the superannuation of Clergymen not on the commutation list who may be disabled by age or infirmity from attending to their duties, was held in the Board Room of the Church Society, on Wednesday, August 14th, when it was agreed that a notice should be inserted in the Church Chronicle requesting Clergymen interested in the matter to communicate to the Rev. John Fletcher, A.M., Oakville, such information as may enable the Committee to lay before the Synod a correct report upon the subject. The points on which they especially desire information are the age, length of service in the ministry, date of entrance into the Diocese and general state of health of the several Clergymen not on the commutation list.

The undersigned, therefore, requests non-commuted Clergymen to communicate with him on the above subject; and he would gladly receive from them and from any other Clergymen interested in this important matter such suggestions on the most feasible mode of raising a fund for the purpose as will enable the Committee to come to a satisfactory conclusion as to the course they should recommend for the adoption of the Synod.

TRINITY COLLEGE SCHOOL, WESTON.

Following the custom of the English Public Schools, Thursday, the 25th July, the breaking-up day of the School, was observed as "Speech-day." The proceedings opened at 10 o'clock with Morning Prayer and celebration of the Holy Communion in the new chapel. The clergy present were the Rev. the Provost of Trinity College; Prof. Jones, the Head Master, Rev. Messrs. Boughall, Johnson, Bethune, Alexander, and Langtry. The sermon was preached by the Provost, from St. Matthew xx. 26, part of the Gospel for the day, the Festival of St. James the Apostle, and was an earnest and stirring appeal to the boys to set before themselves a noble and genuine ambition, both in their school studies, and in their after life. Shortly after the arrival of the 1 30 train from Toronto, the distribution of the prizes began, the ceremony taking place in the Town Hall. Notes were received from the Lord Bishops of Toronto and Niagara, regretting their inability to attend. In their absence the chair was occupied by the Provost of Trinity College. In addition to the gentlemen present at the Morning Service, the train brought many ladies and gentlemen, among whom were the Venerable Archdeacon of Toronto, the Rev. W. S. Darling, H. C. Cooper, T. T. Roberts, C. E. Cartwright, Professor Kingston, F. W. Cumberland, S. B. Harman, H. J. Boulton, C. J. Campbell, Robert Spratt, and Clarkson Jones, Esqs. Before presenting the boys for their prizes, the head master read the reports of the examiners. The Provost then handed the prizes to their respective recipients—expressing in many cases the pleasure and satisfaction which the excellent answering in Divinity had afforded him, and adding a few kindly and appropriate words in each case. As time pressed it was found necessary to omit the recitations and all the songs, except two, which were admirably rendered. Addresses were then delivered by having been pronounced by the Provost the company visited the play ground, the Provost, Archdeacon Palmer, and F. W. Cumberland, Esq. The Benediction where the boys went through their gymnastic and drill exercises, under the superintendence of Major Goodwin. The following is the prize list:

- The Bishop of Toronto's Divinity Prize, (Upper School)—Worrell.
- The Rev. W. A. Johnson's (Lower School)—Rogers.
- The Rev. the Provost's—Groves.
- The Head Master's Greek Grammar Prize—Crawford.
- The Rev. C. J. S. Bethune's—Perram, max.
- Mr. Boulton's Latin Composition Prize—Worrell.
- Prof. Jones' Math. Prize, (Lower School)—Egleston.
- French Prizes—1st, Worrell; 2nd, Rogers; 3rd, Macklem.
- Drawing Prizes—1st, Jarvis; 2nd, Gore; 3rd, Perram, max.
- Gymnastic Prizes—1st, Fraser; 2nd, Turner; 3rd, Macklem.
- Fencing Prizes—1st, Egleston; 2nd, Johnson; max, 3rd, Johnson; max.
- Extra Fencing Prizes given by Major Goodwin—1st, Helliwell, max; 2nd, Merritt; 3rd, Boulton.
- Mr. Kerrison's, Music Prize—Boulton.

ORDINATION.—On Saturday 24th August, S. Bartholomew's Day, the Bishop of Niagara admitted to the holy order of the priesthood, Messrs. Murphy and Westney, Deacons.

On the same occasion, Messrs. A. Trew, B.A., F. Bethune, B. A., J. Franck, and B. S. Hoskins were admitted to the diaconate. Mr. Trew, will undertake the duty at Markham. Mr. Bethune's sphere of action will be the Trin. Col. Grammar School at Weston, which is establishing a good reputation as a first class educational institution. Mr. Hoskins will be stationed at Fenelon Falls, while Mr. Franck will for the present have no special charge, so that there will be at least one Clergyman in the city who may be looked to for the supply of occasional vacancies.

CLERICAL ASSOCIATION.—The clergy of Grey and Bruce assembled at Owen Sound on July 24th, for the purpose of forming a Clerical Association. There were present as visitors, Rev. Canon Elwood, Godorich; Rev. J. W. Marsh, M.A., London; Rev. C. C. Johnson, Seaford; Rev. J. Carmichael, Clinton. Of the Clergy of the counties—Rev. A. H. R. Mulholland, M.A., Rural Dean, Owen Sound; Rev. Wm. R. Evans, B.A. Secretary of Association, Durham; Rev. R. S. Cooper, Southampton; Rev. T. Watson, Meaford; Rev. R. Hill, B.A., Oronton; Rev. T. S. Hodgkins, M.D., Kincardine. There was Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 10 o'clock, A.M., and Evening Prayer and Sermon at 7 30 P.M. The Rev. J. Carmichael, Vice-President of the Huron, Perth and Waterloo Association, preached; but the Rev. gentleman's eloquence is too well known to require note. The next meeting is appointed to be held in Durham on Oct. 9th.

CHURCH OPENING.—Christ Church, Allen Park, Co. Grey, was opened for Divine Service on Sunday, June 30. The Rev. Wm. B. Evans, incumbent, read the prayers, and Mr. W. Brookman, of London, preached in his usual eloquent and impressive manner to crowded congregations, both at morning and afternoon service. The musical part of the service was beautifully and impressively rendered by Mr. Boddy, assisted by the members of the choir of Trinity Church, Durham. The church is a pretty frame building, 22 by 36 feet inside; walls, 12 feet, gothic roof, and lancet-top windows, built of upright plank. It is not yet plastered, and is only fitted with temporary seats. An appeal was made in behalf of this church in the Echo to the Christian sympathy of Churchmen throughout the Province, because of an accident last fall, by which the church was blown down and damaged to the amount of $75; but we are sorry to say that there has been no response to the appeal.—C. Churchman.

APPOINTMENTS.—The Lord Bishop of Ontario has appointed the Rev. Edward Jukes Boswell, D.C.L., to be one of his Lordship's Chaplains.

Rev. George Noel Higginson, M.A., has been appointed to the Mission of New Edinburgh and parts adjacent.

Rev. Christopher Wright Rawson, B.A., has been licensed to the Curacy of Picton.

HONORS TO PROTESTANTS AT THE PARIS EXHIBITION.—The (Protestant) Society for the Promotion of Elementary Education has obtained a silver medal. This is the worthy recompense of the services which it has rendered to the education of the humbler classes. The superiority of our schools to those of the Romish clergy cannot be disputed. It is one of the great merits of the Reformation, from the days of Luther and of Calvin, to have labored with persevering ardor for the development of the human understanding. The Bible Society, the Sunday School Society, the Colonial Agricultural Society, the Young Men's Christian Union, and others, have also obtained bronze medals or honorable mention. The two English societies, the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge and the Sunday-school Union, (also the Home and Colonial School Society,) have obtained silver medals.—Churchman.
