Mr. Somers, president of the Toronto Board of Trade, to The World last night.

Mr. Somers and W. K. George, who have been on a combined business and pleasure trip for two months in the old country, returned yesterday.

Mr. Somers said that there was a certain number of financial people who "knocked" Canadian interests at every opportunity.

QUEBEC MEMBERS THREATEN BREAK WITH SIR WILFRID OVER NAVAL CONTRIBUTION

Laurier's Understood Willingness to Allow Navy Program to Go Thru House With Little Opposition Arouses Resentment of Followers Who Are in Almost Open Revolt.

PLAIN TALK TO LEADER

Sir Wilfrid has been interviewed by his parliamentary supporters as they arrived for the session, and some of these have spoken freely of their conversations with the ex-premier.

OTTAWA, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Rumors are rife of a big split among the Liberal members from the Province of Quebec, which steps little short of a revolt against Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A week ago it was generally understood that the naval proposals of the government would go thru parliament without a division and without much debate.

Section 106 of the B. N. A. Act, reads as follows: "(106)—All duties and revenues which the respective legislatures of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick before and at the union had and have power of appropriation, except such portions thereof as are by this act reserved to the respective legislatures of the provinces, or are raised by them in accordance with the special powers conferred on them by this act, shall form one consolidated revenue fund to be appropriated for the public service of Canada in the manner and subject to the changes in this act provided."

Section 106 is as follows: "Subject to the several payments by this act charged on the consolidated revenue fund of Canada, the same shall be appropriated by the parliament of Canada for the public service."

From the text of this clause in the B. N. A. Act, Mr. Galbraith argues that the power of parliament is limited to making appropriations for the public service, and that this negatives any power to contribute funds to the imperial government.

ALLIES READY TO EXCHANGE BLOWS LOOTING RAMPANT

Bitter Feeling Between Bulgarians and Greeks at Saloniki May Easily Lead to a Bloody Encounter.

PILLAGE ALLOWED TO GO UNCHECKED

Allies Seem to Regard Each Other as Inverate Foes and Flimsy Truce Alone Averts Clash.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—(Can. Press.)—A story of lawlessness and looting by Bulgarians and Greeks at Saloniki, where the inhabitants have been in a state of terror lest the allies in occupation fall to fighting each other, has been sent by the correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company under date of Nov. 18.

The Bulgarians on the march to Saloniki had already more than a taste of blood and rapine, having ravaged without mercy the Turkish villages on their route, and as soon as they entered Saloniki they instituted a systematic pillage of the quarters occupied by them, regardless of the remonstrances of the Greek officials.

A continuous fusillade was kept up on Nov. 19 and 20, both by the soldiers of the Bulgarians and Greek armies and the Christian populace. The firing resulted in numerous casualties.

SIR EDWARD CLOUSTON DEAD
APOPLECTIC SEIZURE SUDDEN

Prominent Canadian Financier Passed Away at Montreal After a Few Hours' Illness—Was Former President of the Canadian Bankers' Association and Had Wide Interests—Body Will Be Cremated.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—The death of Sir Edward Seaborn Clouston, Bart., one of the best-known bankers and financiers of Canada, occurred here today.

Sir Edward fainted this morning while engaged in a conversation with a friend in the Royal Securities Building. Recovering a few moments later he objected to being removed to the hospital, contending that he was all right.

On the advice of his friends, however, he allowed himself to be conveyed to the Royal Victoria Hospital, where an examination was made.

The hospital authorities at first issued a bulletin announcing that the baronet's condition was not very serious and that the fainting fit had been brought about by acute indigestion.

About 2.30 p.m. Sir Edward's condition began to grow rapidly worse and he passed away at 2.45 p.m., death being due to apoplexy.

Sir Edward Clouston was connected in one capacity or another with twenty large financial and commercial concerns and is reputed to have been worth well over a million.

In private life he was generous, a supporter and worker for practically every charitable organization in the city.

He was a great sportsman and in his younger days distinguished himself as an athlete, playing lacrosse, football and racquet equally well. He captained a Canadian team which played Harvard University football team in 1875.

It is understood that in deference to the wishes of Sir Edward the funeral will be strictly private and devoid of ostentation. No announcement was made of the interment. The body will be cremated.

Gibson Found Guilty of the Murder of Joseph Rosenthal

Jury Returns Verdict After Short Deliberation—Circumstantial Evidence Was Plea of Defence—Dead Man's Sons Venomous.

Without a tremor or even a flush upon his cheek, Charles Gibson, who since last Monday morning, has been on trial charged with the murder of Joseph Rosenthal on Good Friday last, listened to the jury foreman announce the verdict of "guilty" at 2.05 p.m. in the criminal assize court on Saturday.

Aubrey Bond, defence counsel, immediately rose and asked Chief Justice Sir William Macdougall for a reserved case on the question of the admissibility of the evidence of Bill Dunkelman with regard to the assault upon him on that fateful night. His lordship will dispose of Mr. Bond's action on Monday at 11 a.m.

"I thank God my poor father is avenged," muttered Harry Rosenthal, son of the murdered man, when the verdict was announced.

Just after Gibson had eaten dinner, he was offered the services of a spiritual adviser. In a clear voice Gibson thanked the offerer. "I'm not guilty," he declared, "or I couldn't get the way I do now. I didn't do it." Gibson at this time said he expected a disagreement amongst the jury.

Counsel Defends Gibson. In one of the most powerful and most powerful addresses delivered in the court room, Defence Counsel Bond pleaded before the jury arguments as to Gibson's innocence.

"Do you think this weak boy of 20 years would smash up a man the way Rosenthal was found? Was it the job of a man intent on robbery or was it the job of two or more men?"

Mr. Bond impressed upon the jurors the inadvisability of convicting on circumstantial evidence. "No one," he said, "saw Gibson lay hands on Rosenthal. The crown says the fact of Gibson giving his name, and having bloodstains on his clothes is evidence of guilt. But has some one an ax to grind? Is there treachery here?"

Prosecutor's Reply. Crown Prosecutor Meredith in reply, scouted the statement that Gibson could not have done the deed. "Any one could have done it had they had a hammer in their hands."

"Why in the name of Almighty God should Dunkelman seek to send Gibson to the gallows by wearing to what he did, if it were not true?"

"The prisoner might have had someone there to assist him in his deed, but if he did, he is just as guilty as the man who struck the fatal blow."

Chief Justice Sir William Meredith occupied nearly an hour in his charge to the jury. Going over the evidence piece by piece, he told them that they had settled in their minds as to whether they would believe Dunkelman the biggest part of their task was finished.

Evidence of Soldiers. With regard to the evidence of the three soldiers, which was a strong factor in the defence, the chief justice asked the jury if it was feasible that they could with such a short glimpse of the man upon the bridge that night, describe them with any degree of accuracy.

"One of them tells us he had been to a building, where there had been a keg of beer, and was hurrying back to barracks to get more beer before the canteen closed. Was he in a condition to accurately set the time, or describe men whom he met upon this occasion?"

At twelve fifteen the jury retired, and the court adjourned till 2 o'clock, when the jury returned their verdict.

MOTOR CARS COLLIDED. Two motor cars were wrecked in a collision at the corner of Palmerston avenue and College street about 4.30 yesterday afternoon, but the occupants escaped uninjured. Ramsey E. As the two machines approached the intersection a west-bound College car hid one from the other. Just as the car past the spot the two machines collided.

WORK COUNCIL FOR NEW PART OF CITY

PROMISE MAIN THINGS Aldermen and Controllers Seeking Re-Election Open Campaign For North Toronto Votes—They Say Transportation Problem Must Be Solved at Once—Are All Favorable to Annexation Now.

Since North Toronto is destined to become part of the City of Toronto three weeks from today the electors are already meeting strange faces men who offer themselves to look after North Toronto's interests on the board of control and in the city council. If these promises are carried out North Toronto should have a representative of its own on the City of Toronto.

There was a representative gathering of ratepayers at the town hall last Saturday evening to listen to speeches by the Mayor, the Controller, the Aldermen and the Controllers. The Mayor, John Kieberger, presided.

Controller Church was the first to speak. He addressed the audience as "fellow-electors" and reviewed the annexation story. Now, since the deal is consummated, he was desirous to know the town's needs, which, in his mind, were many.

Mr. Maguire complimented the council for acting so promptly on the suggestions received, especially the widening of Yonge street and the opening of Duplex avenue, and the town council to pass the necessary bylaws at once. The city council will be required to put the water system into proper condition, and we should make proper provision, especially the construction of the extended sewerage system, as a matter of fact, it is complete. He also hoped that North Toronto would vote favorably on this waterworks extension by-law.

In closing, he said that should he be favored by the electors to be re-elected a controller, he will look after the interests of this section, as well as any other section of the city.

Keep Sewerage System. W. G. Ellis reviewed the history of annexation and stated that North Toronto is a district which has been other recently annexed districts, and is a self-governing municipality, independent of the City of Toronto.

FALL AND RISE OF NORTH TORONTO SINCE ITS BIRTH

Town's Assessment Fell Back To Half That At Incorporation, Then Increased Seven Times Over.

POPULATION STOOD STILL FOR YEARS

In Twenty-two Years Made Gain From Eleven Hundred To Sixty-three Hundred People.

As North Toronto soon will lose its identity and will be swallowed up by the big city to the south of the town, it is but fair to show the struggling existence North Toronto had since its incorporation in the year 1890, when by special act the villages of Davisville, Eglinton and a Bedford Park became a town, with a total population of 1100, and a total assessment of $1,460.00. The period of this incorporation just came at the tail end of the late lamented land boom and the town's assessment took a jump the next year to the tune of $119,233. This, however, was the only increase in assessment up to the year 1903. From the year 1891 the annual assessments took a drop till the year 1902, when the assessment was only a little more than half of what it was 12 years previous. The year 1903 marked the first advance in assessed value again, when $4,977.00 was added to the assessment roll. Since that year the town's value has grown steadily, till today North Toronto has seven times the assessed value of ten years ago.

As North Toronto in future will only be known thru history, many of its inhabitants and gatherers of data would be pleased to get a comprehensive table of the town's standing as to assessments, population and the tax rates for each year, hence the subjoined table:

Table with columns: Year, Assessment, Population, Tax Rate. Data from 1890 to 1912.

Mr. Maguire complimented the council for acting so promptly on the suggestions received, especially the widening of Yonge street and the opening of Duplex avenue, and the town council to pass the necessary bylaws at once. The city council will be required to put the water system into proper condition, and we should make proper provision, especially the construction of the extended sewerage system, as a matter of fact, it is complete. He also hoped that North Toronto would vote favorably on this waterworks extension by-law.

In closing, he said that should he be favored by the electors to be re-elected a controller, he will look after the interests of this section, as well as any other section of the city.

Improved Assessment Act. Assessor's committee to pay greater share of local improvements.

Members of council are practically one in their desire to have the Assessment Act changed, and a motion has been placed on the order paper with a view to increasing the taxes on vacant land and giving the benefit to the payers of business taxes and taxes on improvements.

Another question will probably receive unanimous approval, namely, that newly annexed territories should be asked to pay a greater share of local improvements than hitherto, that is, they should be made to come within the scope of the act, which stipulates that the city should not pay more than 25 per cent. of such improvements.

Is your factory properly lighted?

Labor can be efficient only when working in pure air, at a moderate temperature, and with proper light. The absence of any one renders the others useless.

Too much emphasis cannot be placed upon the importance of proper illumination for factories. Aside from the effect it has upon the efficiency of your workmen, it is an economy in itself.

Nothing employed by you in manufacturing has improved to a greater degree within the past few years than the methods of factory illumination. If your present lighting system is not from fifty to one hundred per cent. better than it was three years ago, you are wasting money for current you do not utilize, and you are wasting light that is lost on the walls and ceilings instead of being concentrated on the work in hand.

Look into your lighting conditions. The advice of a Toronto Electric Light Company specialist will be given free of charge or obligation, if you dictate a note or call up

FRASER DEAD BUT THE FIGHT CONTINUES

His Death Not Expected to End Long Series of Attempts to Get Octogenarian's Money.

With the death on Friday afternoon of Michael Fraser, the Midland octogenarian, whose wealth a few years ago was figured at $50,000, the notorious series of court attempts to upset his marriage to Miss Hannah Robertson, his junior by several scores years, does not end. Rather, it seems that the young wife will have to still further advance her right of marriage in order to establish her claim upon his estate.

The effort put forth by Fraser's relatives to unmarry the aged man and his young wife has passed several stages of court appeal. The only course now open to the plaintiffs is to carry the case to the supreme court and request a new trial.

The good roads work has been asked for an additional $100,000 for work yet to be completed. The commission estimate that the work would be completed upwards of 45 miles of road, and it was proposed to construct, and on the part of unincorporated areas, about 100 miles of road.

New Thoroughfares. An important question will be brought in by Ald. Sam McBride. He will move that the board of control be instructed to provide funds to the amount of $25,000 to be placed at the credit of the commissioner of works, and to be expended by him forthwith in placing in new thoroughfares in the East, West, and Midway and Ward Seven districts, and roads in other parts of the city, in a possible condition for vehicular traffic.

Domestic Animals. New legislation in the shape of a bylaw regulating the keeping of domestic animals within the city limits will be discussed; also a bylaw to guarantee the safety of the industrial school association of Toronto to the amount of $25,000, and a bylaw for the City of Toronto General Consolidated Loan Debentures to the amount of $1,250,000, for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, and enlarging certain schools and purchasing and enlarging school sites.

BRANTFORD'S NEW INDUSTRY. BRANTFORD, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The Chapin Auto Cycle Company has been launched here with a capital of $200,000. A factory, employing 100 hands will be built here. Negotiations have been concluded with the Greater Brantford Association, and considerable stock has been subscribed locally.

Improved Sleeping Car Service Between Toronto and New York. Commencing Sunday, November 24, the new Canadian Pacific Line sleeping car service will be inaugurated between Toronto and New York via Grand Trunk and Lehigh Valley Railways for New York will leave at 6:30 p.m. daily. This service will be greatly appreciated by the traveling public as it will enable them to leave Toronto later and still arrive in New York in ample time for business. Parlor cars serving meals (a la carte) will also be operated on this train between Toronto and Buffalo.

PIONEER FARMER'S SUDDEN END. SALEM, Ore., Nov. 23.—Wm. Short, aged 88, one of the pioneers of British Columbia, died suddenly this morning from heart failure.

Two Drowned. MAGRATH, Alta., Nov. 23.—During a high wind, a boat, containing F. H. Turner of Magrath and J. Cheffy of Lethbridge, was capsized in the middle of Mendenhall Lake and both men were drowned.

Death of Joseph Porter. ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 23.—Joseph Porter, prominent in the legal profession here, died suddenly today at the vice-president of the C. P. R., at Fairfield's shipyards. The vessel glided gracefully into the water along the shore of the harbor, and the two ships are considered by the experts present, the finest pieces of machine architecture hitherto built, and will create a sensation when placed on the Pacific service.

MONTEAL, Nov. 23.—A cable from Glasgow says: "In the presence of a large and distinguished gathering, including the lord provost of Glasgow, many prominent Scotsmen and representatives of the British administration, the new Canadian Pacific liner, 'Empress of Asia,' was christened today by Mrs. G. M. Bosworth, wife of

THREE NEW ATHLETIC RECORDS IN CANADA

At Forty Yards, One Mile and Ten Miles, by Kerr, Kiviat and Richards.

The report of the records committee of the A.A.U. of Canada was submitted at the annual meeting on Saturday.

First is a new mark for the forty yards run, this being the first time this record has been claimed. This mark was accepted by the Ontario branch at its last annual meeting.

The second is a betterment of the ten-mile running record, singularly enough made over the course of the previously accepted record. This has also been accepted by the Ontario branch.

Lastly comes a new mile record, made at the Canadian championships at Montreal on Sept. 28 by Kiviat of New York.

An application having been made to the Quebec branch for the usual medal in recognition of this latter record, your committee has herewith to announce that the union's gold medal, suitably engraved, be awarded to Kiviat, holder of the mile record.

Summary of records herewith recommended for acceptance by the union: 40 yards run (indoor)—Robt. Kerr, 4:28 seconds, Hamilton, Ont., on Feb. 15, 1912 in the Britannia Roller Rink. No previous mark for the distance.

Ten-mile run—Geo. Richards, 50 minutes 45 seconds, St. Catharines, Ont., on Friday, April 6, 1912, at Montreal. 45 minutes 49 seconds, made by George Adams on Jan. 1, 1907, over the same course.

One-mile run—A. R. Kiviat, Irish-American A.C., 4 minutes 29.5 seconds, made at Montreal A.A.A. track, Sept. 28, 1912. Old record was 4 minutes 21.4 seconds, made by Geo. W. Orton of the Toronto Leicestershire Club on the same track on Oct. 14, 1912.

A complete table of Canadian amateur records, including those recommended in this report for your acceptance, is given herewith:

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 25, 1912

FOOL AND KNAVE ARGUMENTS.
The Globe made some pretty fool arguments against giving the man who paid the taxes a vote on their disposal. The Telegram followed on, and was as many degrees more foolish as misdirected energy could manage to be. But it remained for The Mail and Empire to cap them all. Of course, nobody ought to allow himself to be as silly as The Mail and Empire, even on ordinary occasions, but when The Mail and Empire sits down with the firm determination to make an ass of itself, it succeeds beyond all expectations.

The Mail and Empire's argument is that if the tenant pays the taxes, and is allowed to vote, then the tenant should also be permitted to choose the landlord's tobacco and neckties. We shall not deny the fact that the landlord would often be the better of the tenant's advice both as to the brand of his cigars and the pattern of his tie, but if the landlord's wife chooses either his cigars or his tie, it is not even for the tenant to interfere. And certainly he would have no ground for interference on the score of getting a vote on the disposal of his own money for public purposes. The Mail and Empire, of course, can see no difference between paying a street and wearing a necktie, or smoking a cigar and installing a waterworks system. Some day The Mail and Empire will wake up and find out that there are countries where the tenant pays their taxes directly instead of indirectly thru the landlord. It will immediately jump to the conclusion that the tenant buys the landlord's cigars and has them sent home to him, and that the tenant chooses a bunch of ties when the new season's patterns come out and takes them up to the landlord's house, and shows him how to tie the new knots.

Taxes do not differ from water rates. The tenant usually pays the water rate in Toronto. When the landlords do so, they stick it in the rent. This is so well recognized, that only The Mail and Empire dreamed of disputing the point. The Globe and The Telegram brazen it out and declare that the payment of taxes gives the tenant no right to say anything about their disposal. The regular or knavish argument is no more convincing than the foolish one.

MORE LIGHT AT CORNERS.
There is no doubt that the outer about the street corners not being lighted, is the result of an optical, or rather an ocular illusion. The corners are much better lighted than they ever were. You can see to read a newspaper at any of them, a feat impossible with the old arc lamp. But the rest of the streets are equally well lighted, and the eye adjusts itself to the increased amount of light, the iris closing to shut out the rays. When the driver comes to a corner, the black gap of the street at the side looks darker by contrast, as the room looks dark to one entering from the outside light. The brilliant lights on motor cars have also their effect in closing the eyes of drivers so that other points look dark. We are suffering from too much light rather than too little. It is doubtful whether an increased glare at the corners will improve matters, but it can at least be tried.

YONGE STREET SUBWAY.
Much dissatisfaction will be felt over the decision about the Yonge street subway. Fourteen feet is a skimpy exit for the main roadway of a metropolitan city. The board of control evidently forgot about the twenty million dollar harbor, and the million population. It might allow the general discontent if the assessment commissioner would inform council how he makes up the extra $47,000 land damages. The impression was that all the land around the subway could be acquired for that amount. The details would be of interest.

CENSORS NEED CENSORING.
Another effort is being made to unload a useless official or two on the public by the appointment of dramatic censors. They appointed one in England recently, a man whose own plays are notorious, and the first drama he censored was found to be so unobjectionable from every point of view that the lord chamberlain licensed it. The censor invariably has to be censored. It is just as well to let the public do its own censoring, as it does with the newspapers and the regular theatres at present. The whole outcry is over a music hall or two. If the managers are told to run a clean stage or lose their licenses there will be no need for a censor.

INDIA'S DRAIN OF GOLD.
Of late several close students of international finance have directed attention to very large and increasing absorption of gold by India and the effect of the enormous fall in the exchange value of silver on the industrial development of China. The latest of these expressions of opinion is given by Moreton Frewen, formerly member of parliament, who has written extensively on the currency and cognate questions in a letter to The Financial News of London, Eng. Dealing with the present monetary policy of India, he says that the Indian executive has replaced the great drain of silver with a gold drain which today menaces the financial equilibrium of Europe and America. British and American bankers, especially the latter, have been lending and discounting with great freedom, relying on the supposed plethora of new gold—new gold which has already gone hopelessly into India. To this paper inflexion he ascribes the great rise in prices which puzzles the professors.

Mr. Frewen states that in the five years, 1907-11, the net import of gold into India averaged $60,000,000 a year, that the import is increasing by leaps and bounds, and that it is safe to estimate the import of gold for this financial year at $25,000,000. "All this mass of gold," he adds, "so vital to international finance, has gone to a world from whence no bank rate can ever exorcise it. It is more utterly lost to trade and finance than if it had never been mined." For evidence of his view regarding the excessive inflation by paper money and credit instruments, he presents a short table from the last report of the director of the United States Mint, showing that in the decade 1890-1900, the creation of credit money is six times greater than the metallic reserve by which it is secured. From the replies to his questions, given by Mr. Montagu, the under secretary of state for India, Mr. Frewen could only infer that the drain of gold to India would be encouraged and that silver would, as far as possible, be excluded.

On the Chinese situation, Mr. Frewen states the position thus: China, no longer able to buy good exchange and to import goods, after the great fall in silver of 1908, at once started to manufacture cottons, metals, and leather for her own needs. He quotes from a letter written to him in February, 1909, by China's first prime minister, admitting that the fall in silver greatly assisted China's mills and other manufacturing industries, "which might be damaged by the competition of imported foreign goods, if the exchange rose. Before the fall a gold sovereign gave China 3 taels, a day's wage to 25 Chinese mill hands—today it is worth 8 taels, a day's wage to 60 hands. The Chinese are now exporting pig-iron to the United States and largely increasing their exports of other manufactured products. Mr. Frewen quotes Mr. Charles Schwab, formerly president of the United States Steel Trust, as saying recently: "My friends are surprised that I buy Chinese pig, but it is the best and cheapest in the world." The policy of the Indian Government may be profitable at the moment, but its ultimate effect on western nations seems to be fringed with peril to the accepted order of international finance.

UNITED STATES' TARIFF REVISION.
Governor Wilson is reported to be devoting part of his holiday at Bermuda to the matter of tariff revision, which will form the principal subject of consideration at the special session of the new congress assembling in April next. It is well-known that the Democratic party is itself sharply divided on this and other questions into conservatives and progressives, and already congressmen representing states associated with special industries are preparing to act against any proposals that threaten these interests. Whatever reductions the president may recommend will no doubt aim at maintaining the solidarity of the party as far as possible, while meeting the Democratic pledges to the people with greater sincerity than marked President Taft's action. But very slight ground exists for the notion that the measure of revision submitted will take the form of a tariff for revenue only. Considered with the tariff issue is the constitutional amendment providing for the levy of a federal income tax which has now received the assent of thirty-four of the thirty-six states required to make it effective. A number of states have yet to pass upon the amendment, and it is certain that it will be ratified before long by the necessary majority.

THOUSAND CHURCHES WILL PARTICIPATE
Tuberculosis Day Will Be Celebrated All Thru the Province on Sunday Next.
NO OFFERINGS ASKED
Those Wishing to Help Will Have Opportunities of Subscribing to the Fund.

Letters received from clergymen in Toronto and all over Ontario indicate that in nearly one thousand churches throughout the province next Sabbath will be observed as Tuberculosis Sunday. The fact that it is Advent Sunday will result in a later day being chosen by many Anglican churches, while in some individual cases among other denominations, special services previously arranged will result in a postponement of Tuberculosis Day. The general disposition of the ministers to devote their pulpits for a day to a review of the work being accomplished and a plea for substantial encouragement is being extremely gratifying to the National Sanitarium Association, which brought the project to the attention of the clergymen. FAITH THE BASIS OF LIFE
Rev. Dr. McKay Says Estimate of Succeeding Generations Will Not Be Based on Monetary Success.

"O, God our help in ages past, our hope in years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home." This old Presbyterian hymn was sung with a vigor at the morning service in Erskine Presbyterian Church yesterday. The hymn was appropriate as the occasion was the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the birth of the congregation. In giving out the hymn, Dr. R. P. McKay, who was sure it was a favorite with founders of the congregation, who are long since dead, and it was quite possible that it was sung by them at their first service in that far off time.

In the past 75 years Erskine Presbyterian Church has progressed in Scotch style. There are very few churches where the pastors have been so long as here, and this to a Presbyterian is proof positive that things are as God would have them. Rev. James Murray has been the minister for twelve years, and is the fourth the church has had since its founding.

The present building at the head of Simcoe street is the third church the congregation has had. Since its erection, this quarter of the city has filled up with Jews and Italians, and this foreign element has had its effect on the congregation. The members and board of managers are now considering the advisability of moving out of the district, but nothing definite has been done. "We don't have to move," said Rev. Murray to The World. "Our finances are good and our membership is increasing, but many of the members think that plans for the future should be made very soon. We have had an offer for the property, but have not accepted it." The church has members living all over the city. In the High Park district there are 60 families which attend, while again many families come from the east, across the Don and from Avenue road hill.

TEMPERANCE SUNDAY IN LOCAL CHURCHES
Special Sermons on Platform Meetings Were General Thruout Toronto All Day Yesterday.

RIPE FOR LOCAL OPTION
If Campaigns Are Successful, in January Three Hundred Tavern Licenses Will Be Cut Off.

Temperance Sunday was observed in a number of the Toronto churches yesterday by special sermons on platform meetings. In the congregational churches it clashed with the observance by that denomination with a former mission day. Most of the temperance services were held at Methodist churches. The chief speakers in the respective churches were the officers of the Dominion Alliance, including Joseph Gibson of Ingersoll, president Ontario Alliance; F. S. Spence, president Dominion Council of the Alliance; Rev. Ben H. Spence, secretary Ontario Alliance; J. Duggan, field secretary Ontario Alliance.

Appeals were made for the campaign fund of the Ontario Alliance at in with the type, and in addition there were world-famous "Tisot" collection of the tributed thruout the book in their places, so these illustrations are actually better than any other. Remember, only one certificate and stated amount will make you the owner of this gem. It gives the volume with overlapping covers, and you also have your choice of the volume being supplied in either the Catholic or Protestant edition.

"OUR EMPIRE NAVY" STAYS THIS WEEK Since the opening night of "Our Empire Navy" at Massey Hall last Monday, this patriotic naval exhibition has been steadily building up business, and it is estimated that over 25,000 people have now witnessed Mr. Bradford's instructive and interesting exhibition. So pleased is Mr. Bradford with the success the entertainment has achieved that he has decided to keep the moving pictures running at Massey Hall for a further week, and therefore every night this week (Friday only) excepted, "Our Empire Navy" will be given at Massey Hall, but there will be only two matinees, viz., Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.30. Mr. Bradford has also made a sweeping change in the prices, and the children's prize competition will be continued over the whole of next week, and the Saturday evening drawing of the exhibition. Mr. Bradford has offered prizes of $25, $10 and $5 for the three best essays on "Our Empire Navy," written by children under 16 years of age.

Heading the bill at Shea's Theatre this week will be Gus Edwards' "Kid Kabaret," with Eddie Cantor and Hattie Kaharet, with a company of twenty clever kid comedians, special attraction for the week are Hala Negrocos and Company and Charles B. Lawlor and daughters, premier character artists. Other feature acts included in this week's bill are Charles and Fanny Van, Ethel McDonough, Bob Matthews and Al Shayne, Ergotti and Liliputians, Richard Watley and Company and the Kinetograph.

"Girls of the Gay White Way" Company which comes to the Gayety Theatre this week has in its roster such well-known people as Sam Heath, Harry D. Ward, James Rowland, Eddie Cantor, Ben Ryan, Ben Ryan, Helen N. Ely, Gerie DeMille, Alma Fern, Harriet Lee and thirty others.

"The New Century Girls" will be the offering of the Gayety Theatre. The great success attained by this attraction has caused the management to add many expensive novelties. The scenery and costumes are entirely new, and the twenty chorus girls are said to be pretty and sweet voiced. The curtain-raiser is termed "A Busy Day at a Union Station," and the closing burlesque "The Lord's Reception," both arranged and staged by the popular Richard Watley and Company.

On Saturday night the Montreal Opera Company produced the first time in Canada, and possibly for the first time in America, Benjamin Godard's posthumous opera "La Vivandiere." Every concert-goer is familiar with Godard's songs and violin compositions, but his opera, which debuted eight years ago, is hardly known outside France, although they are delightfully tuneful. He died in his 45th year in 1894, and "La Vivandiere" was produced after his death. In the cast basso, Albert Huberty, and the remarkable contralto, Yvonne Courtois, both of whom are favorites in Toronto, if found to warrant it. The work is the popular support of the opera, which will be among the operas presented by the Montreal Opera Company when it comes to Toronto for three weeks next February.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR AT ANNIVERSARY One of the finest choirs of children's voices that has been heard in this city, was heard at the Central Methodist Church, Bloor street, yesterday. It was the occasion of the 77th anniversary of the church, and the choir, three services especially for the school-children, were held in the main auditorium of the church. The morning service was conducted by Rev. A. L. Geagie of the church, and the afternoon service was in charge of Rev. I. Tovel, associate pastor of Trinity Church.

Rev. R. N. Burns of Bevelley Street Church, took the evening service, likened the attributes one required to those of a watch. As with a watch it was not the outer frame or body within it was the soul and mind that made the true Christian and not the body.

SHREDDED WHEAT

It is better than porridges for children because they have to chew it. The crispness of the shreds induces thorough mastication, which develops sound teeth. It is the best "whole wheat bread" because it contains all the rich body-building material in the whole wheat. Delicious and nourishing when served with hot milk or canned fruits.

the church is conspicuous in the landscape and inconsistencies that characterized it. Yet nothing harmed the church except from fire. Every attack made upon it was for its good. Thru all its difficulties the holy institution has survived. And it stands today a body of dreams, its main support being the vision of a better world.

Taylor said it was to be regret that the modern university is regarded as merely a higher technical college. To serve this end was its first function. Unless it has the eyes of its students to that there is before them a work and develop among them a dream, it does not accomplish its purpose. The Christian who is upon the visionary is not whose religion calls for a long stay in the New Testament only for joy.

Taylor concluded with the message: "I trust you will be to the end of your days a dreamer of dreams."

WAR RUMORS AGAIN.

With foreign markets again disturbed by the possibilities of the Balkan situation there will be no incentive to load up with stocks.

SELLING ON THE GOOD NEWS.

MEX. NORTHERN POWER.

Mexican Northern Power sold on the curb on Saturday at 25, a gain of 1-2 point over the previous day.

MISCALCULATION IN THAT C. P. R. STORY

Sponsors of Dividend Increase Tale Neglected to Take Into Account the Cost of the Rights.

The story emanated in Montreal and was given a wide distribution through the press by the announcement that the company would pay interest at 7 per cent. per annum on the instalments on the new stock issue up to the time the shares would rank for dividends.

The Toronto stock market developed a slightly easier undertone at the week-end, the turn for the worse in the European diplomatic situation and the consequent downturn in the London and New York exchanges inspiring some weakness here.

The general list was not given over to any material weakness, but the main development was an easier trend. Mackay led 3-4 at 85 1/4, and at the same time the preferred dropped 1-2 at 85. General Electric was quoted back to 117 again, thus effectually bearing out the idea that the recent favorable announcement had been fully accounted for.

WALL STREET WAS IN AN UNEASY MOOD

The Foreign Exchanges Were Weak and New York Market Was Affected in a Similar Manner.

SPECULATION WAS DULL

Traders Hold Off Pending an Award in Engineers' Arbitration—Dealers Mostly Professional.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—European sentiment largely governed operations on the stock exchange today. Rumors of mobilization of troops by Austria and Russia seemed to overshadow reports that peace negotiations between Turkey and the Balkan allies were being resumed.

The market responded the more readily to this influence on account of the continued lack of developments at home, on which to base speculations. Operators were held in check, moreover, by the fact that at the opening of next week will be announced the award in the arbitration of the east-ern locomotive engineers' demands.

Absence of a large number of traders who had come to New Haven to attend the football game was another factor which decreased speculative activity, and the action of the market gave evidence of the circumscribed character of the professional dealing.

Responding to the lower level of Americans in London, prices eased off. The market was mostly professional.
