HUNDREDS WERE DISAPPOINTED

Delay in Arrival of Hargreaves' Circus Made This Morning's Street Parade Impossible --- Good Shows Promised for Afternoon and Evening.

St. John is again invaded by a circus--the "great Hargreaves' show," as the gaudy posters announce it. The circus, consisting of some fourteen cars arrived about five o'clock this morning, but it was about two hours later before the work of unloading the teams, animals and various paraphernalia incidental to a circus, was commenced. It was nearly eleven o'clock before all the property had been transported to the Shamrock grounds, where the tents are pitched.

The outlook for getting the field into shape again for ball playing is slim indeed, and although the owner of the property is supposed to have it in good condition two days after the circus goes, as it was before, it is more likely to take a week or more to get it into any kind of shape again. At 10.30 when the writer left the grounds the main tent or "big top," as it is called, had not been raised, and it is announced by the management that, owing to the delays they had experienced, the parade would have to be called off, as they would be unable to put on the afternoon show on time if the parade was held. The dining tent was one of the first erected, and many of the members of the troupe were getting their breakfast when the reporter was on the grounds. It was claimed that all would be in readiness by one o'clock, and the afternoon performance would start on time. While walking about the grounds the writer encountered Dan Rice, who is one of the advance men of the show. Mr. Rice has been in the show business a good many years, and visited St. John on two previous occasions, when he was connected with the Walter L. Main shows. The proprietor of the Hargreaves show does not claim to have the greatest show on earth, but he does claim to have a good show for its size. The acts are all good, clean, clever exhibitions, and there is the absence of anything that is objectionable. Mr. Hargreaves is opposed to having fakirs of any description following his shows, and it is claimed that there is an entire reaction from this evil. Several of the local police officers in plain clothes are stationed at the grounds to keep an eye on things, and the tent doors will be thrown open at 7.30 o'clock tonight and the performance will begin at eight o'clock. Professor Phillips' (talain band will render promenade concerts from seven to eight o'clock in the big tent, and a big crowd will no doubt be present tonight. Leaving here tonight the circus will exhibit in the following towns in this territory--Sussex, tomorrow, June 6; Moncton, Friday, June 7; Dorchester, Saturday, June 8; Amherst, Monday, June 10; and Truro, Tuesday, June 11.

KING EDWARD SA/A AMERICAN HORSE WIN THE HISTORIC DERBY

Richard Croker's Orby Defeated the Pick of the English Stables at Epsom Downs Today--Nine Horses in the Field of Starters.

LONDON, June 5--Richard Croker's Orby, ridden by Johnny Reiff, won the Derby Stakes of 5,000 guineas, at Epsom today, distance about 1 mile and a half. Wool Winder, ridden by Madden, the English jockey, was second, and Steve Gallion, an Irish horse, ridden by Higgs, also an English jockey, was third. Orby was bred in Ireland out of an American dam, and thus the Derby has been won by an American owner, whose horse was ridden by an American jockey, and whose mount was out of an American mare. Nine horses started. The times may have changed and the chronic presence of the motor car may have wiped out much of the traditional fun and frolic along the road and at Epsom on Derby day, but interest in the great classic event of the British turf is unabating and even greater this year than ever before. This in spite of the fact that the race promised for the first time in years, to be a purely Anglo-Saxon, or nearly altogether a Hibernian event. The main interest today seemed to enter in the Irish bred, Irish trained or Irish owned horses.

Steve Gallion, by Gallinule, out of Recluson, a strong first favorite, was bred in Ireland by his owner, Capt. Grey, but was trained in England. He was ridden by Higgs, an Englishman, who was trained in Ireland. Galvani, by Laveno, out of Gallinaria, the second favorite, was bred in Ireland, but is owned by an Englishman, Major Eastace Loder. This horse has an Irish trainer and was ridden by an Irish jockey, Dillon. Richard Croker's well liked Orby, who won the race, is by Orme, out of Rhoda B, and was bred in Ireland out of an American dam. Much fancied was Wool Winder, by Martagon, out of St. Windelin, bred in England, and owned by a Scotchman, Col. E. W. Hairs, Maudlin, the English jockey rode this horse. Each of the foregoing horses was strongly backed and topped. The field was smaller than last year. Much of the customary gaiety and picturesque were lacking in the familiar Derby Day scenes on the road to Epsom. The parents of rain poured down to ten o'clock and the muddy, dismal procession bound to the Downs looked uncommonly like the return of the procession after the downfall of the favorite. The usual Derby Day types were present but they were sadly reduced in numbers and the intermittent attempts of the holiday makers to inject some of the old time hilarity into the scene failed to remove the general gloom of the umbrella marked crowds. All whose plans were alterable abandoned the road in favor of trains and scores of special look onerous crowds to Epsom. King Edward elected to travel by train. The royal party included the Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the Grand Duke Michael of Russia. The rain cleared off before noon and by the time the racing commenced the Downs presented a cheerful appearance. Trains from all directions took night and took up positions at all the vantage points, heavily laden with fashionable people, among them many Americans.

THINK MISSING BOY IS AT EVANDALE

Harry Ougler, Who Left Home on Monday, is Reported Safe at River Resort ---His Brother Has Gone Up to Identify Him.

Harry, the 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ougler, 40 Maguire street, is still missing, but when a Times man called at the home of the boy this afternoon, he was informed that a telephone message had just been received from Edward Ougler, brother of the boy, that he thought he had trace of him and would overtake him soon. Edward Ougler and a man named Roberts went to Westfield, and along the line he was informed that a youth answering very much to the description of young Ougler had been seen by many people. This morning he was at Evandale, (John O. Vanwart's) and will be kept there until Mr. Ougler and Roberts arrive. The description of the boy in question varies slightly from that of young Ougler, but the family seem to think that it is Harry. Mr. Ougler, father of the boy, has telephoned to the police throughout the province, and they are all on the lookout for the missing lad. If the boy at Evandale is Harry Ougler, and there is every reason for believing that it is, the lad will not arrive home until tomorrow morning.

W. Holland. Theological subjects were discussed by the assembled clergymen. Rev. Fr. Gaynor was the host at the luncheon served.

FOUR SAILORS RESCUED FROM A ST. JOHN SCHOONER

St. John Schooner Rowena Lost Off the Massachusetts Coast.

GLOUCESTER, June 4--Pumping for their lives, with their little craft almost full of water, kept afloat by her load of lumber, wallowing from side to side in the trough of the short seas with such force that it seemed as if her masts would snap out at her every lurch, and afraid to keep the storm sail up, as the craft might topple over--this was the predicament in which Capt. Charles Smith of the British schooner Rowena and his three men found themselves during the heavy northeast gale which prevailed and the terrific rain which accompanied it.

The Rowena was practically a new vessel, being only six years old, and was purchased by the captain two years ago. She was all he possessed in the world and he did not have a cent of insurance on her. As soon as he reached this port the tug Nellie immediately put off and the derrick was jacked up a few miles from Thatcher's and towed to this port where she was beached.

MEMORIAL DAY WAS VERY QUIET IN WASHINGTON

(From our own Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 31--Memorial Day in Washington was a quiet one compared with that of former years when there has nearly always been some prominent speaker at the Memorial Day exercises at Arlington where so many of our soldier dead are buried. This year though the funeral of Mrs. McKinley at Canton took out of town not only the president but General Henry W. Lawton, followed the next day by two addresses at Lansing, Michigan. His swift swing around the circle will be completed Saturday at 4.30 o'clock. An unusual feature of the president's trip was the absence of newspaper men in the official party. This was probably due to the fact that the president is now traveling at government expense. It will be remembered that congress appropriated $200,000 for the expenses which have been paid by the government. Of course they went anyway but they were forced to ride with the little party in the Pullman car instead of basking in the presence of high officialdom in the president's private car, and their expenses were paid by the newspapers they represent.

Secretary Garfield, who was a member of the Keop commission, appointed to investigate the workings of the government departments is carrying out in the interior department some of the reforms proposed by the committee. He has been appointed a commissioner of patents to succeed Mr. Allen under whose administration the work was impeded and delayed beyond all bounds. He began the good work and he is further extending it to a revised system of bookkeeping in the department. For some time he has had a score of confidential assistants going over the books and records of the interior department with the object of installing a new and modern system of bookkeeping in the place of the antiquated, cumbersome and inaccurate one that is pretty nearly as old as the government. In the pension bureau alone the department annually disburses $150,000,000 while many millions are expended in the sale of public lands. A system of bookkeeping that is adequate to this great business must necessarily be complicated but heretofore it has been practically inconceivable. Mrs. Roosevelt has left the capital for a trip to Oyster Bay with her children. She will be engaged for a few weeks installing the summer home there, and she will then return to Washington to remain until the presidential inauguration. The children will remain at Oyster Bay until joined by their parents. Mrs. Roosevelt, among her many accomplishments, is a thorough housekeeper, and it is widely recognized in Washington that the White House is better kept, more systematically ordered, and cleaner than any other residence.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

FREDERICTON, June 5 (Special)--Two Montreal Scott act cases were argued before the supreme court this morning. In the first case Gallager, Teed, K. C., supported an order made by Judge Landry to quash the conviction under which the defendant was sentenced to one month imprisonment with option of fine. Chandler, K. C. contra. The court ordered the case be sent back to the magistrate for a proper return and be heard on the second Friday of the term. In the second case Chandler, the physician who was against an order nisi to quash a conviction and court reserves judgment.

A girl named Lena Grass, aged nineteen, daughter of Wm. Grass, of Lincoln, died at her home last evening under sad circumstances. She was taken ill on Sunday with convulsions and the physician was called noticed that she was about to become a mother. He found it necessary to perform an operation but she passed away without regaining consciousness. The doctor is Dr. J. W. Daniel, M. P., arrived home today.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

JAMESIE STUNG AGAIN. Our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. Jamesie Jones, was out early this morning with the Jones family, who are secure in a good position from which to view the circus parade. When the Times new reporter discovered him, he was a worried look, and the Jones family were demanding something to eat. The circus parade had not come. Not even a menagerie smell had come that way. When the new reporter explained that there would be no parade, Jamesie used certain verbal expressions which from the horrified manner of their reception seemed to be new to the Jones family, but which two other men with him applied with much vigor. Then they all went home to get something to eat. FULLY EXPLAINED. The news that an organization known as the White Fans has broken up fifty miles south of Amoy, China, and that serious deprivations, requires some further explanation than appears in the magazineable. The Times new reporter is informed by a returned missionary that the empires in China are notoriously one-sided, and demonstrations by the Fans are therefore frequent. The situation, he says, is not as serious as would appear from the bare announcement. GLAD TO KNOW IT. A delegation of thirty-six from a junior high school called on the Times new reporter this morning to deny that their team had been washed by the sea when sailing one of the players, as had been stated by one of the papers. They wanted the thing set right, so that their friends in Spruceville, London, Paris, Mexico and other places would not be deceived. They asserted that the one who left was their weakest player. "We checked him," said the captain, "and we got a better one in his place." The public who receive this information with much pleasure, as doubtless a false and disagreeable impression had gone abroad.

EXPIRED IN STREET CAR

Former Manager of Ontario Bank Died Suddenly in Toronto.

TORONTO, Ont., June 4--A large number of prominent railway men attended the laying of the corner stone of the new railway building on the exhibition grounds. The event was celebrated by a banquet at the King Edward. Premier Whitney laid the stone and President W. K. George, of the exhibition association, presided. The sudden death occurred this afternoon in a College street car of W. H. Smith, former manager of the Scott street branch of the Ontario Bank. He was seventy years old, unmarried, and was returned from a party at the Mediterranean, taken for his health.

Residence, Barns and Out-buildings of Cardy A. Ripley of Fenwick, N. S., Destroyed by Fire.

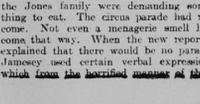

AMHERST, N. S., June 5 (Special)--The residence, barns, outbuildings and most of their contents, the property of Cardy A. Ripley, of Fenwick, were totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is about $2,500, and there is no insurance. The fire caught in the house and with the strong wind blowing soon caught the barns. Owing to a scarcity of water in the vicinity nothing could be saved. You can rarely induce another man to do right by joining him in that which is wrong.

WALL STREET BELIEVES THE REPORTS ARE EXAGGERATED

Crop Damage Estimated Larger Than the Facts Justify.

(New York World.) The president's speech has been one of the dominating factors during the week in Wall Street. The usual leak from some official source regarding nearly all of the alert commission houses with advance copies of the address, so that several days before its actual delivery Wall Street was well informed as to its contents. The effect was pretty well discounted, though the interpretation of the president's meaning in the several important passages of the speech was not uniform. The bull and bear factions were therefore both able to make some capital out of it. The general conclusion seems to be that the president has not changed his policy toward the railroads in the slightest and that he intends to do everything in his power during the remainder of his administration to correct the abuses that have crept into the management of the railroads of this country and to protect, as far as possible, the people who have invested their money in these securities. The speech would have been accepted as reassuring by the investing element if the outlook, however, is so uncertain as to the harvest this year that there is a growing disposition to wait for the final outcome before making any business commitment not absolutely necessary.

to make political capital out of the public sentiment he has created, others may be led to indiscriminate attacks upon these corporations which may embarrass their earning power and discredit their securities not only in the mind of our own public, but of investors abroad. This is the danger that the careful investor must fear. The business outlook for this country during the coming year will depend in an unusual degree upon the crop situation, of which it is almost impossible to make an intelligent forecast at this time. The crop-killers have been at work in Wall Street with unusual energy and they have succeeded in convincing the public that a complete failure of the crops was that a complete failure of the crops was inevitable and in many instances these late crops prove so abundant as to more than repair the earlier damage done. There seems to be evidence at the present time that there has been a considerable loss in both the wheat and cotton crops. In some sections, however, cotton can be replanted as late as the end of June, while fields that have been sown in winter wheat that has failed may frequently be replanted advantageously in corn. The outlook, however, is so uncertain as to the harvest this year that there is a growing disposition to wait for the final outcome before making any business commitment not absolutely necessary.

"There are still a few honest men left in the world," said J. J. Hill the financier, at a banquet. "It is well to be cautious, but we should not suspect everybody. If we are too suspicious we make ourselves absurd."

"I worked in St. Paul in my youth, and they still tell there about an old farmer and his wife who started for St. Paul on a visit. "Before the couple set off they were cautioned frequently by their friends to beware of the St. Paul sharpers. They replied that they would keep their journey with a nervous determination to look out for sharpers and confidence men. "Well, on the way the old farmer got off at a junction to buy some luncheon, and the train went off without him. It was a terrible mishap. The last he saw of his wife she was coming out of the car window, shouting something reproachful at him which he couldn't hear on account of the noise of the train. "It happened that an express came along a few minutes later. The old farmer boarded the express and beat his wife to St. Paul by nearly an hour. "He was waiting for her at the station when she arrived. He ran up to her and seized her values. "Well, Jane," he said, "I'm glad to see you again. I thought we were separated for good." "But the old woman jerked the value from him indignantly.

Waldo Watson, the five year old son of Frank Watson, grocer, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday afternoon. Waldo left his home early in the afternoon to go to play on the beach, and it was not long before he had wandered in the direction of Marble Cove. A gentleman who was sitting close to the cove noticed the young lad sitting on the beach. Suddenly the boy fell into the water, which was over four feet deep. The man went quickly to the rescue and, reaching out, caught the badly frightened child and took him to his home. Beyond the ducking the little fellow escaped injury.

SAY THE DATE IS NOT FIXED

W. H. Barnaby and O. H. Warwick Talk on Investigation Into Macaulay Bros. Fire.

It is understood that Police Magistrate Ritchie will hold an investigation into the recent King street fire; but, as he is not quite clear on certain points, no date has as yet been arranged.

W. H. Barnaby said this morning that he had no great interest in the matter. He denied that any announcement had been made to the effect that such investigation was to begin before Judge Ritchie yesterday afternoon, and added that he and Mr. Warwick did not appear at the police court to give evidence in the matter, which he said, was talked over, informally, in the magistrate's room yesterday afternoon. He understood that an investigation would be held, but as Judge Ritchie was not clear on certain points, no date had been arranged.

O. H. Warwick said that at the meeting held recently in the Board of Trade rooms he had moved a resolution that an investigation into the fire at Macaulay Bros. and matters relating to the fire department be held before the police magistrate; and Mr. Barnaby had seconded the motion.

Mr. Warwick said further it was felt that it was up to himself and Mr. Barnaby to act in the matter, and according to what they had called at the police court yesterday afternoon.

The idea, he said, was to investigate the matter in a general way, with a view to improving conditions generally.

Like Mr. Barnaby, he understood that an enquiry would be made but just when he was not sure.

Judge Ritchie, when seen this morning, declined to say anything for publication.

THE NEW FERRY PHONE SERVICE

The Instruments Will Be Installed in a Day or Two—Passenger Facilities To Be Improved.

The telephones in the east and west side ferry toll houses will be installed in a few days and should prove a great convenience. The phones will be of the "pay service" type and similar to those already installed in several of the hotels here. In the east side toll house the instrument will be placed near the entrance while in the west side toll house it will be in the men's waiting room. A feature of the west end arrangement is that to gain access to the "phone" one will have to pass the turnstile. Figured out this way it will cost more to telephone from the west side than from the east side instrument. On the east side one will simply "drop a nickel in the slot," and start talking while in the west end in addition to the nickel fee it will cost either two cents or a ferry ticket to pass the turnstile. Of course this includes a harbor question on the erratic Lendow or the odoriferous Wun Lung, so patrons are assured of their money's worth, as after phoning it will cost no more to cross the harbor and see if the message has been received.

Chairman Baxter of the ferry board hopes to have the improved facilities for the handling of passengers on the east and west side floats installed in a few days. Then instead of being confined to the side as at present, passengers will be permitted to go half way down the floats on one side and a railing will separate them from the portion reserved for trams and for the passengers leaving the ferry. This will be a very considerable improvement over the present system.

THEY WERE REMANDED

Men Arrested in Connection With McClary Manufacturing Co.'s Robbery Brought Into Court.

In the police court this morning, Oscar Peterson and Hanford G. Geldert, arrested Monday on warrants for larceny in connection with the recent thefts at the establishment of the McClary Manufacturing Co., were brought before Judge Ritchie and remanded.

Melburn Spencer, charged with being drunk and fighting on the north side of Haymarket square, was fined $8 or thirty days in jail. His honor told Spencer that he understood he had acted very badly at the time of his arrest.

Leo Smith was fined $8 or two months for drunkenness. He will also be obliged to pay twenty-five cents for cartage.

John McGillivray paid $4, also for drunkenness.

WILL CONSIDER SOME WEST SIDE MATTERS

Meeting of the Board of Works Will be Held This Afternoon.

If all of the members do not go to the circus there will be a meeting of the board of works this afternoon to consider Director Cushing's letter, which was read at Monday's council meeting, and some west side matters of importance.

It is recalled that Rodney wharf has commenced in several places to slide out of line, so it is said, to the dredging operations having been carried too close. This makes it difficult for the street railway company to continue building their tracks down the side of the wharf. It has also been found that "erry" level of Union street near the junction with Rodney wharf has sunk considerably.

It is the opinion of some of the aldermen that the city council started some time ago to rebuild Union street a good deal of this trouble could have been averted, so far as practically nothing has been done and until the street is rebuilt the street cars cannot complete their line along Union street.
