Germans Refuse Allied Troops For Policing Silesia

Powers Can Not Send Them Before Peace Treaty Ratified; Report of Hun Return to Reign of Terror

Berlin, Aug. 25.—Germany has declined to invite Allied troops to police Silesia before they have that right under the treaty which stipulates that they are to safeguard the plebiscite there.

The question of sending Allied troops to Silesia came before the supreme council in Paris on Saturday, said dispatches on the subject indicating that Germany was being sounded on her willingness to permit foreign troops to enter the district for police purposes before the peace treaty had been ratified.

Germany has ratified the peace treaty, but of the principal Allied Powers only Great Britain so far has ratified the document, which provides that it shall become effective when three of the great powers have passed favorably upon it.

FIREMEN ASK FOR ANOTHER DAY OFF AND $15 RAISE

Now Allowed Only One Day Off In Fifteen FAVORABLE CONSIDERATION

Department Will Send Representation to Moncton for Labor Day Demonstration—Market Building Tenants Agree to Increased Rents

A delegation representing the permanent men of the city fire department appeared before the council this morning and asked for an additional day off each month and also for an increase of $15 a month. The men's statement was that the case seemed to have a favorable impression on the commissioners and consideration was promised.

A grant of $200 was voted to allow the fire department to send a delegation and one piece of apparatus to take part in the Labor Day demonstration in Moncton.

As the present tenants in the city market building in Charlotte street have agreed to meet the increased rent offered by a real estate firm it was decided that no change should be made.

All members of the council, except Commissioner Fisher, who still is ill, were present.

The hearing of the firemen's delegation was the first business before the committee. Charles Perry, Samuel Seeds, Thomas Nichols, William Connors and Dennis O'Keefe, representing the Fire Fighters' Union and Mr. Perry outlined the case. He explained the department's request for a higher state of skill and efficiency and to promote the social welfare and other interests of the firemen.

Their present request was for one day off each week, instead of one day in fifteen, and an increase of $15 a month.

There are forty-five men on the permanent force and they are on duty practically twenty-four hours a day. Since 1909 they have had one day off every fifteen days. Regarding the wages question, he said the cost of living was pressing heavily upon them. In his case he paid $80 a month rent and had to sub-let rooms to bring his charge down to $20. Food for his family of six cost him about $15 a week and his left him about $2 a month for all other expenses.

At present the drivers receive $85 a month and the engineers $100. The mayor remarked that the council would be disposed to give their requests the most favorable consideration. It would be necessary for them to consult with the chief regarding the rearrangement of hours, and he feared they could not promise any increase until the appropriation for next year was made up.

Mr. Thornton said the extra holiday would entail either additional expense or less adequate protection, but if it could be worked out so that neither of these results would follow, as the men maintained, he would be glad to support their request. For the present he could not recommend any increase unless the council gave him a special grant for the purpose.

Mr. Nichols also spoke briefly regarding the need for more money for the firemen.

The mayor repeated his promise of favorable consideration and the delegation withdrew, after thanking the committee for the hearing.

Commissioner Thornton will report to the council on the requests submitted. Mr. Thornton brought up the invitation of the city council of Moncton for a representation from the St. John fire department for the Labor Day celebration there. He explained that he had called a meeting of the call men and salvage corps and he thought they could get a fair representation and would take one piece of apparatus. The men were willing to pay part of their expenses, but he moved that a grant of $200 be made towards the expense.

Mayor Hayes remarked that the Moncton men had come to St. John and he thought St. John should reciprocate. Mr. Jones agreed and the motion was carried.

As Hiram Sees It

The Settlement. Aug. 25.

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, as they sat on the veranda shelling peas, "as an interesting co-operative experiment in housing today."

"You mean you read about it," said Hiram. "On the contrary, I saw," replied the reporter. "You know that wood-road leading from the back pasture. I was strolling along it this afternoon when I came to a scruffy fir tree and noticed a pile of sawdust at its foot. On closer examination I discovered a little trail of sawdust along the trunk for about four feet from the ground, when it ended in a hole in the side of the tree. A number of ants were crawling about very rapidly and little atoms of sawdust were being dropped over the edge to swell the pile below."

"Makin' winter quarters," said Hiram. "That tree was easy cuttin' inside. Them ants know what they're about—yes, sir. I suppose," said the reporter, "they have architects and sawyers and carriers and furnishers and all the rest of it."

"Sure," said Hiram. "Every feller knows his job, an' when it's done there ain't no bill for extras, an' no builders' profits. An' if any feller shirks his job they show him right away where he fits. They don't hev no profligate—an' no critters that wont work for a livin'."

"Are they Bolshevists, I wonder?" queried the reporter. "No, sir," said Hiram. "They're just what you called 'em fast. They're one of the original co-operative societies. If you hed one like it in St. John, that there housin' commission wouldn't hev no trouble at all. Among human critters there's always some that wants to grab more'n their share—an' some that's too lazy to get out of their own way. Them too kine's making all the trouble—an' they're so crasy 'bout what we call the liberty of the individual that we jist lay back an' let one crowd skin us an' the other crowd skin 'em. The feller that said to go an' learn of the ant knew what he was talkin' about—By Hen."

"When I go back to the city," said the reporter, "I will call up Com. Bullock and tell him about the ants."

"Do," said Hiram, "tell 'em to all them fellers that's lookin' for houses."

BOSTON AND VICINITY HIT BY WORST STORM OF SUMMER

Church Towers Wrecked, Crowds Driven From Beaches, and Crops Are Damaged Greatly

(Special to Times)

Boston, Aug. 25.—Thunder, lightning and torrential showers, swept down from the St. Lawrence a southwest wind yesterday, from three till late in the evening, then returned today, spreading anxiety, brilliant light effects and much rain over Boston and New England. The series of storms, was the most severe of the summer. The continued thunder and lightning, often of a startling character, exceeded anything seen here in several years.

Lightning wrecked church towers in Dedham, Chelsea and Amherst, fired an electric car at Mattitohick, houses in Chelsea, Salisbury Beach and other places, ruined tobacco crops $100,000 in value about Northampton, drove off crowds of 25,000 to 250,000, at the beaches and turned small streams into rivers and hailstones from a pea in size to a walnut, splintered thousands of windows.

The club also heard an interesting talk from Mr. Cosar of the Cosar Farm on the means which have been taken in the old country recently to improve the working and social conditions of employees and to bring the employers and their men and women into closer relationship.

Conditions At Marsh Creek Need Remedying

Sewage From Above Bridge Not Carried Away and Serious Situation Calls for Vigorous Action

Conditions at the Marsh creek, particularly above the aboideau and bridge, have been such as to elicit the most unfavorable comment from those who reside or do business in that vicinity, and have been such as to attract the attention of those merely passing by. The conditions regarding which complaints have been made are due to the sewerage which empties into the creek above the bridge, and for which there is no adequate avenue of escape. The accumulation, more particularly in the hot weather, adds nothing to the attractiveness of the neighborhood. The odors which arise from the creek are unpleasant enough in themselves, but the more serious aspect of the case is the warning they give of unsanitary conditions which are liable to lead to the spread of disease.

It is not surprising that the creek should be offensive when it is realized that the large sewer which runs through Forest street and empties into the creek drains a very large section of that part of the city, including all the eastern portion of Mount Pleasant and the streets between the summit of the hill and the bridge. The sewer does not even lead to the water line, but empties its contents on the banks of the creek, whence it flows over the mucky flats to the creek. There are also a certain number of private sewers emptying into the creek and which help to pollute the waters.

Matter of Gates. In former years the creek did not constitute such a serious menace to the public health, as the gates in the old sewer were not so effective as those in the present structure and allowed a greater inflow of sea water at high tides. This had the effect of flushing the creek twice each day and so kept the banks in a reasonably sanitary condition. Since the concrete aboideau was constructed several years ago, and since the amount of sewerage entering the creek has been increasing, conditions have been growing worse until today they urgently demand attention.

When the matter was taken up this morning with J. B. Jones, commissioner who does business in that vicinity and who has suggested the opening of the tide gates at certain times during the summer to flush the creek. As an alternative, it had been suggested that the sewer main should be continued to the lower side of the bridge and there discharged into the creek. Another solution would be found in the diversion of the sewer from its present outlet by bringing it down Gilbert's Lane along City Road and then emptying into the Marsh Creek to make sure of an even flow of water which would carry everything out to sea.

It was agreed before adjournment that Mr. Ferguson, Sir Sam Hughes and Rev. Mr. Palmer would be given opportunity to look over the departmental files relating to the matter.

Mr. Ferguson replied that he was not. He had, he said, regarded this as a merely formal opening. He could not proceed very far without calling witnesses, and they were not present because he had been given no authority to subpoena witnesses.

Mr. Ferguson—"Not necessarily." Commissioner Middleton referred this question to Mr. Newcomb, who replied that he thought the crown would be required to pay the expenses of any witnesses who were material and necessary. He wanted assurance, however, that this was the case.

Mr. Ferguson said that both Sir Sam Hughes and Mr. Palmer had understood from the prime minister that the expenses of necessary witnesses would be defrayed. The expenses, he said, would not be very great if the commission would sit in London, and if certain files material to the case were produced.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Director-General Hines' decision on wage demands recently presented by railroad shopmen was expected to be made and announced today. Mr. Hines was in conference during the day with officials of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor.

It was generally expected that the shopmen would be granted an increase, but there was no indication as to what the amount would be. They asked for an advance of 25 per cent.

A despatch from New York to J. M. Robinson and Sons, says the shopmen will demand a wage of twenty-one francs for an eight hour day, and no overtime.

The committee, with James A. Reynolds of Cleveland, chairman, has before it the confession of Charles Cole, a former herdsman at Oliver Cabana's Pine Grove Farm near here, in which he is alleged to have stated that he "helped" the record of Cabana's cows by surreptitiously putting cream into the milk pails while the tests were on under state supervision.

Mr. Cabana appeared before the committee today in secret session. He had announced through his lawyer that he would defend Pine Grove records.

ON MOTION OF MR. THORNTON, JAMES H. McPAILLAND & SONS WERE GIVEN PERMISSION TO REMOVE A GASOLINE TANK FROM NO. 108 TO NO. 2 WATER STREET.

A communication from Taylor & Sweeney offered $2,500 a year rental for the two stores in the south side of the market building, facing Charlotte street, on condition that permission be given for the expenditure of $20,000 for improvements and that heating be installed, the lease to be for five years.

Mr. Thornton recommended that, in view of the fact that the present occupants had expressed their willingness to increase their rentals to the figure mentioned, and that it might be difficult to install heating, no change be made. The recommendation was adopted.

In view of the illness of the commissioner of public works, Mr. Jones moved that the city engineer be authorized to bring down a report on the tenders for the St. James street retaining walls, and that the checks of unsuccessful tenderers should be returned. This was agreed to.

The matter of an allowance for the family of the late Policeman James H. Gosline, was brought up by Mr. Thornton and will be considered at the council meeting on Tuesday.

A professor was in Egypt supervising the erection of a telescope. He learned that a gun was fired every noon and was anxious to know how the system worked. He accordingly sought an interview with the gunner and asked how he knew just when to give the signal. "Oh, I look at my watch," replied the gunner. "And how do you correct your watch?" asked the professor. "I take it to the watchmaker in Cairo," explained the soldier, "and he tells me the error." Explain with the professor interviewed the watchmaker and asked him to explain how he checked the error of the gunner's watch. "I always get the correct time from the gun," was the reply.

Mrs. Ensign Miller, only daughter of Andrew Carnegie, the late steel millionaire whose marriage caused so much stir recently, is fond of relating the story of a certain deaf old lady who one day came to the church near her father's place in Sutherlandshire.

"Owing to her infirmity," says Mrs. Miller, "she attended the service armed with an ear trumpet. The elders had just recently, in a sermon, intimated that a certain deaf old lady who one day came to the church near her father's place in Sutherlandshire.

BEWARE OF TENDER, INFLAMED GUMS. Pyorrhea, with a premature loss of teeth, is almost inevitable if you do not properly care for your gums. Here is the explanation: As you grow older, your gums naturally relax. You see this tissue loosening in the neck. It goes on in your gums, too. As you grow older, your gums shrink below the normal gum line. Through lack of care they become spongy and inflamed. Then you have Pyorrhea (Figs' Disease). Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea. And many under forty, also.

ALLIES PUT BAN ON THE HAPSBURGS

Tell Archduke Joseph Plainly Why He Cannot Rule

His House Largely Responsible for Calamities Under Which the World Now is Suffering—Ready to Deal with Government Representing All Parties

Paris, Aug. 23.—(By the Associated Press.) The supreme council tonight sent the following note to the Hungarian government, in which announcement was made that the council would have no dealings with a government headed by Archduke Joseph or any other member of the Hapsburg family.

"The Allied and associated powers have been further considering information derived from our reports, and from other sources as to recent events in Budapest. Their conclusions are as follows:

"They are most anxious to conclude a durable peace with the Hungarian people, but they feel that this cannot be done while the present Hungarian government is in power. That government came into existence not by the will of the people but by a coup d'etat carried out by a small body of police, under the protection of a foreign army.

"It has at its head a member of the house of Hapsburg whose policies and actions were largely responsible for the calamities under which the world is suffering, and will long suffer. A peace negotiated by such a government is not likely to be lasting, and the Allied and associated governments give the economic support which Hungary needs, prepared before approaching the Allied and associated governments, to submit his claims to the test of popular elections we must reply that this procedure cannot be satisfactory if the election is carried out under the auspices of an administration, which the archduke himself controls.

"The difficulties in the way of obtaining election of a faithful reflection of the popular will are, in the present unhappy state of Hungary, most serious. They would be overwhelming if an election were carried out under Hapsburg influences. Even if an assembly elected under such circumstances were really representative no one would think and in the interest, therefore, of European peace the Allied and associated government mean to insist that the present claimant to the leadership of the Hungarian state should resign and that a government in which all parties are represented should appeal to the Hungarian people.

"The Allied and associated powers would be prepared to negotiate with any government which possessed the confidence of an assembly so elected. The note was signed by Premier Clemenceau.

Paris, Aug. 25.—Telegrams received by the supreme council show that Archduke Joseph was still in power in Hungary on Saturday, but it is indicated that his resignation is expected soon.

Paris, Aug. 25.—Rumanian forces were still requisitioning goods at Budapest on Saturday and paying no attention to the warning from the supreme council, according to advices reaching the council this morning.

LATER.

Paris, Aug. 25.—The resignation of the Hungarian government of Archduke Joseph, previously reported in press advices, was announced in messages received by the supreme council today. The messages indicated that the resignation occurred at 8 o'clock on Saturday night and that the process of forming a new cabinet had been begun.

In the new cabinet, the despatches state, Paul Garami, minister of justice in the Peidl cabinet, would be minister of commerce, while former Premier Peidl would be minister of food. Karl Payer, minister of home affairs in the Peidl government, is designated as minister of labor in the reconstructed ministry and Count Grany as minister of foreign affairs. The other places in the cabinet have not been filled.

THE GOLIATH HAD PROPELLER TROUBLE

Paris, Aug. 25.—Further details were received yesterday by the ministry of the colonies concerning the long-missing airplane Goliath which was found on Saturday. During the flight from Mogador, Morocco, toward Dakar, French West Africa, the machine developed propeller trouble and was forced to land near the village of Koufre, in the Mauritania region, 180 miles north of St. Louis. The propeller previously had been the cause of trouble on the flight from Casablanca to Mogador, where it was repaired.

The district in the vicinity of Koufre is thinly populated and it is not known as yet by whom the Goliath was found. It is believed, however, that one of the flying columns sent out to search for the missing craft discovered its whereabouts. The eight persons aboard the airplane are safe.

WALKS TO MCGILL AND TELLS DOCTORS SHE DRANK CARBOLIC

Medical attention was immediately given her, but she died five minutes after her arrival at the hospital.

The woman's body was sent to the morgue, and Walter Hoffman, who was mentioned by the woman, was sent to detective headquarters to be held as a witness in the case.

ASQUITH.
The Associated Press report from London, intimating that Mr. Asquith has been persuaded again to enter active politics and that a seat will soon be found for him in the House of Commons, is one of the natural and welcome developments in the public life of the United Kingdom.

The people of the Old Country are passing through a period of stress and strain because of the intense pressure of readjustment following the dislocation of old conditions by the great war and its aftermath. Mr. Asquith at sixty-six should not be ready to go off stage, for his head and his heart are young. While he lacks some of the electric qualities of Lloyd George, he is the soundest parliamentarian of his day, and in the matter of compact and clear dissection and presentation of almost any issue he is without a peer in the public life of the Empire.

He is not theatrical in his methods, but he is sound, and he has vision, and courage. History will probably record the verdict that the Empire would have faltered at a critical period during the war had not Lloyd George taken the helm. Nevertheless, when all the facts are known it probably will be shown that no blame can be properly attributed to Mr. Asquith, and that in some measure he was the victim of circumstances. It will be remembered to his credit that when he was forced out of the premiership by methods which may have been justifiable under all the circumstances, but which suggested that procedure known as "sneaking," he gave his successor loyal support in all matters vital to the prosecution of the war with all the nation's strength, and continued to devote his ripe knowledge and his very marked genius for public affairs to the national welfare.

What the future holds in store for him must be for the moment doubtful, but in the United Kingdom and throughout the Empire there are millions who will hope the hard-headed Yorkshireman will figure again in the front rank of those who give Great Britain guidance in matters of high policy.

Mr. Asquith is not a self-seeker. He has ever subordinated his own personal ambitions and fortunes to the good of the race to which he has given such distinguished service.

ACTION NEEDED AT ONCE
The Evening Times is publishing today some facts bearing upon conditions at the Marsh Bridge, due to sewage in the creek, above the bridge, and a plain statement of the case shows very clearly that the civic authorities should proceed at once to arrest the accumulation of waste matter north of the bridge and do away with a situation that is both unpleasant and dangerous. There should be combination by the health authorities and City Hall to deal with these conditions as rapidly as possible; in fact such action has been badly needed for several years, since the public health in that vicinity has long been menaced increasingly, particularly during the summer season.

Before the new tidal gates were installed the creek received twice daily a natural flushing which, while not thoroughly effective, prevented matters from reaching the present highly offensive state. As the case now stands the mud banks of the creek above the bridge are often long exposed to the sun, even when the tide is high below the bridge, with the result that sewage and waste matter lie on the mud and poison the air over a wide area. This is merely inviting disease, in addition to competing with residents in that vicinity to live under conditions which are both disagreeable and threatening to their health. A progressive community which has begun to introduce modern methods with regard to guarding the public health, ought not long to tolerate things of this character. Presumably the remedy will involve some expenditure, but under the circumstances no false sense of economy should prevent rapid and vigorous action.

"INTERPRETATIONS AND RESERVATIONS."
As Hon. W. S. Fielding was the "runner-up" at the National Liberal Convention, and as he would be likely to exercise no little influence in the matter of fiscal policy should the Liberal party carry the next general election, his comment on the tariff plank adopted at the convention is of more than usual interest. The Journal of Commerce, of which Mr. Fielding is editor in chief, says of the Liberal platform:

"The most important part of the platform is that concerning the tariff. It might have been wiser, with an eye to the future, to deal more in principles and less in details—in their general character the tariff declarations are substantially in accord with the economic views which most Liberals have held in the past. If the Liberal ideas are being pressed further than in former days, it is because events have made a large section of the party less disposed to moderation than they formerly were. The interpretations and reservations, however, still leave room for a belief that the resolutions do not mean the extreme and alarming policy that is being ascribed to them by some hostile critics."
Here, evidently, we have a suggestion that the West, which is overwhelmingly

Would you know the way to the Land of Nod,
Where the sunset fairies dwell,
Where dear little darlings, misty-eyed,
On snow-white ponies sleepily ride
To the sound of a drowsy bell, bell,
And the hum of a seaside shell?
There is a way to the Land of Nod,
By a slowly ebbing tide,
On which the boats go dropping down,
With sails of snow, like my baby's gown,
Till the sleep-river grows so wide,
Wide, wide,
One scarce can see to the farther side.

There's another route to the Land of Nod.
Up a mountain steep and high,
And warm-clad climbers, hand in hand,
Go softly up to the starry land,
And there on blue cloudlets they lie,
lie, lie,
And cruise by blue islands of the sky.
And as they come to the Land of Nod,
By the shimmering, starlit way,
And niddy-noddies come in bands
And take the white-robed travelers' hands,
And with them in Dreamland they play,
play, play,
Till they melt into mist at peep of day.—Selected.

(London Express).
Tomorrow the Express will introduce to England a humorist whose work is the delight of millions of his fellow-countrymen in America. The fellow, the busy, the young, the old, even the illiterate, delight in Mutt and Jeff, for the pictures of these two inseparable make an irresistible appeal, even apart from the accompanying stories. What is it in Captain "Bud" Fisher's art that is it so wide a hold? The answer is not far to seek. He has the human touch. The things that happen to Mutt and Jeff and the things that they say to one another might happen to, or be said by us all. The artist gives these common human experiences just that touch which makes a humorous story out of an ordinary incident. That is why "Bud" Fisher's success is so wide and so deserved. His art is clean and it is human. What does a man not deserve who can make a continent laugh and not be ashamed.

Flowers That Children SHOULD NEVER SMELL.
Hay fever is relatively common in children, but the reason that this is not more generally known is that these attacks are usually mistaken for "colds," writes Dr. William Scheppegroll, of New Orleans, president of the Hay Fever Prevention Association, in the Medical Record.
Sometimes a child that seems to have a "cold" is taken into a park or away to the country in the hope that the fresh air will effect a cure, and it is there exposed to further infection from the pollen of the plants that are chiefly responsible.
Besides the ragweeds, which at this time of year are the principal offenders, there are several other wild flowers that, though quite innocent when left alone, are likely to cause hay fever if applied directly to the nostrils by children.
Among these Dr. Scheppegroll warns us especially against the daisy brooms, one of the commonest of weeds. It grows from one to two feet in height, has light green almost toothless leaves, daisy-like flowers about half an inch wide, with a large greenish yellow disk, white rays occasionally lilac-tinted, shorter than those of the daisy and sometimes entirely absent.

D. MAGEE'S SONS

IN BUSINESS FOR SIXTY YEARS

Steady Growth and Widening of Scope Have Marked the Passing Years—An Anniversary Sale

It has not been given to many local firms to celebrate such an event as that which D. Magee Sons, Ltd., 68 King street, hatters and furriers, is now observing—the diamond jubilee of its founding. It was in August, 1859, that the late David Magee started in business. He was the father and grandfather respectively of the present firm members. The business has increased considerably since then and particularly during the last decade has branched and widened most successfully until, now at the celebration of the firm's jubilee, it is found with a most up-to-date and splendidly equipped house for carrying on its trade and with a stock of various lines of modern range.

The ground floor now presents a rich appearance with newly installed cabinet and wall fixtures in solid mahogany. Beautiful hand carved ornaments, the cabinets which with centre glass doors display the goods to the best advantage. The mahogany wardrobes are used to show the men's raincoats and men's Knox coats in which the firm specializes. The location of the offices has been altered also. In the ladies' show rooms on the second floor not only have new fixtures been installed but a fitting room has been added and the whole has been redecorated and re-painted. The entire scheme is suggestive of a Fifth Avenue New York store.

Preparing for the increased business which offers the firm is giving some exceptional values in its August sale. It confidently invites inspection feeling sure that its fortunate purchase of skins in the assortment of furs appeal especially to the economical buyer in view of the advancing cost of fur. Among other lines for which the firm is famous are Knox hats and coats; dress in Betty Walker make and of the Raven line make and leather and cloth motor coats, all makes of exceptional excellence.

A special feature of the advertising of the firm in connection with its diamond jubilee is a replica of an interesting advertisement which appeared in a St. John paper in 1859 a verbatim copy of which is given below. The particular Magee whose name is appended to the advertisement was an uncle of the David Magee, founder of the present firm.

MAGEE, HATTER.

The subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the Public in general, that he has removed a part of his Establishment to 27, North Side of King street, directly opposite Cross street, and one door below Mr. J. Frost's Shoe store, where he will be found ready to serve the Public with HATS and CAPS of his own manufacture made under his inspection, which he feels warranted in saying are equal to any made or sold in this City, as has been proved at the Exhibitions held in this City and Fredericton, and also at Halifax, N. S., from which he received a Certificate of merit under the Seal of that Province.

The business will be conducted as agent of his nephew, D. Magee, practical Hatter, where the Public will always find a good article, and at a reasonable price.

HATS and CAPS made to order.

A. Magee,
27 North Side, King street.
St. John, June 6, 1859.

GENERAL CURRIE

CHURCHILL OR SMILLIE NEXT BRITISH PREMIER

London, Aug. 9.—(Correspondence)—The war has proved a fatal melting-pot to many world institutions, but nowhere has its effect been more marked than in British politics. The United States and the rest of the world would do well to watch closely the rapidly changing aspects of the situation, for all the old parties are being made over, many favorite policies are being scrapped, and many failed to test true in the fire of war and reconstruction.

British politicians and the voters are now searching for three things:

A MAN—Wanted by the old parties as a leader.

A PARTY—Wanted by several self-styled "men."

A POLICY—Wanted by the parties, the would-be men, and the general public.

And here is where the rest of the world becomes interested, for it is an onlooker.

Few Candidates.

The number of possible candidates for the first job is remarkably small. The average citizen would tell you, most likely, that there is only one—David Lloyd George, the "little Welsh wizard" who received such an extraordinary national welcome on his return from the conference table at Paris.

But Lloyd George would be the first to admit that he is no stranger to the other side of political fame, and for some years before the war he was probably the most bitterly cursed man in England.

Nineteen years ago he had to flee for his life, disguised in a policeman's uniform to escape a "patriotic" mob who resented his championship of the Boer farmers with whom Great Britain was then at war.

Lloyd George is the one outstanding character in British political life today, and by sheer hard work, flashes of intuitive genius and personal magnetism he has lined up practically the whole country behind him.

But what he needs is a party. Formerly leader of the radical wing of the Liberal party, he automatically succeeded H. H. Asquith in the party favor when the latter was compelled to resign the premiership, and the coalition government was formed by Lloyd George in 1916. The coalition has served its purpose and like most such temporary expedients shows signs of early disintegration. Who is Lloyd George going to lead then? Is the question agitating politicians.

What Will Parties Do?

The old Liberal and Conservative parties have suffered too many casualties to be able to set up in business again. The Conservatives have their own little "tin gods" and will not adopt Lloyd George. What the majority of the old Liberals will do is a puzzle. Although no longer in parliament (he was over-ruled in the election just before Christmas) Herbert H. Asquith is still the leader of a bunch of Liberals, who now politically unimportant are contemptuously styled the "Wee Frees." Asquith is a dead-letter, but he can still rob Lloyd George of some supporters.

The Conservatives are nominally united under Andrew Bonar Law, but Law apparently does not aspire to be the MAN the country is advertising for. He was only a stopgap alternative, when elected to succeed Arthur James Balfour in the party leadership in 1911—a buffer between the irreconcilable factions rooting for Austen Chamberlain and Walter Hume Long, respectively.

He has proved himself a capable and conscientious statesman, but he lacks personal magnetism indispensable for a great party leader.

The remainder of the Conservative leaders may be eliminated from the contest, Chamberlain and Long being relegated to the "have-beens" and Balfour desirous of retiring from political life on account of his great age.

Churchill Premier Sometime.

The only two serious rivals to Lloyd George in the personality contest are Winston S. Churchill, at present war secretary, and Robert Smillie, miners' leader and uncrowned king of British labor. Both have the magnetic gift, and both will go far, according to the prophets and close observers. If he had never taken over the war office in the Coalition government, Churchill might have successfully challenged Lloyd George for the leadership of the combined Liberal and Labor parties, but his handling of demobilization and the Russian expedition has aroused bitter resentment among laborites and a section of the Liberal party.

That Churchill will be Premier of England some day is certain, declares

ALONG THE RIVER

The first deer of the season walked out on a hillside pasture at Public Landing yesterday and after a five minute survey of the landscape threw up his heels and leaped into the woods again. He was of good size. Later in the morning a large flock of wild-ducks flying in two long lines forming an acute angle, skimmed southward along the surface of the river. Meeting two motor boats they rose a little, but almost immediately settled down again close to the water. They were probably heading for the Nerepis marshes. A hungry chicken hawk was the next attraction. He was searching a meadow for field mice. Along came a crow and attacked him. These two original airplanes swooped and dived and circled for a time without effect, and finally the crow took himself off. The hawk then flew to a field of oats, skimming low over it and finally making a swift dive into it. His hoped-for prey escaped, however, and he drew high in the air, still seeking, as he moved out of sight.

And then, as the day wore on, a lovely day, the sky overcast for the most part and a refreshing breeze rippling the surface of the river, the motor boats and sailing craft moved up and down, their occupants enjoying to the full the pleasures of a perfect day.

One of the largest crowds of the season attended the dance at the Public Landing pavilion on Saturday night. As usual some cars went up from the city, and there were yachtsmen, as well as young ladies and gentlemen from points up and down and across the river. Universal regret was expressed that the season is drawing to a close, for after Labor Day the suburbanites along the Reach will nearly all be back in the city and the week-end visitors at river points will be much fewer in number. For all of them this has been a summer of exceptional enjoyment.

Nearly all the hay is cut on farms along the Reach, and some early oats will probably be cut this week. All crops are good. The Nerepis hills are now an attraction, as the blueberries are unusually plentiful, and many parties go there to return with a generous supply. One party in two carriages from the Landing was caught on the hills in a thunder storm on Friday and had to leave early and drive home in the rain, but they got over forty quarts of berries.

"Who is the man?"

"Don't know, sir."

HAS FINE RECORD IN WAR

Second Lieutenant Robert Davis Now at St. John Theatre

A member of a musical company now at one of the local theatres has been the target of some uncomplimentary remarks from thoughtless members of the audience who have cast doubt on his right to appear in the uniform of the flying corps.

Second Lieut. Robert Davis of Melbourne, Australia, who is putting in his time in this way while awaiting his final discharge, is a veteran of the great war, his experiences dating from the earliest days of the conflict. When war was declared he enlisted with the first Australian contingent, in the infantry, and sailed on Sept. 20, 1914, for Egypt. He went with the Anzac forces to the Dardanelles and fought through that thrilling campaign until it was brought to a close by the evacuation of Gallipoli, when his unit was transferred to France. He then transferred to the Australian flying corps and served with them until the end of the war, with an interval of nine months in hospitals. Near St. Quentin when he, with other Allied airmen, was engaged in carrying supplies and otherwise aiding the U. S. force which was cut off for four days, he crashed and received severe injuries which necessitated the construction of a metal framework in his chest. Another flying accident was responsible for severe injuries to his mouth and jaw. He now is waiting for his final discharge and reporting bi-weekly to the Australian commissioner in New York.

Lieutenant Davis came to Canada to marry a Canadian nurse who had attended him while he was in the hospital, but his war romance had a tragic ending as the young lady died while he was on the ocean.

STEAMER RAMS SCHOONER AND SIX LOSE LIVES

Halifax, Aug. 24.—The schooner Francis A., eighty-three tons, of Yarmouth, owned by Henry A. Amersal, of Yarmouth, was rammed and sunk by the steamer Lord Downshire, of Belfast, owned by the Ulster Steamship Company of Belfast, with the result that six of her crew, including the captain, perished. The Francis A., in charge of Captain Percy Ross, of Broad Cove, Digby, left Yarmouth two weeks ago. She was engaged in fishing at the time of the collision 120 miles south of Halifax, had a large catch and was to have returned to Yarmouth tonight.

The Lord Downshire was proceeding from Baltimore to Belfast with general cargo in command of Captain McFerran. When the collision occurred early Saturday evening, most of the crew were on deck dressing fish, the remainder being below packing. The fog was dense and the boats were being constantly blown on the schooner. The crew could hear an occasional blast of a steamer horn.

Captain Ross, realizing that a steamer was coming straight for his vessel tried to get her out of the way, but there was no wind and he was forced to remain where he was. The crew on deck shouted to those below that a steamer was approaching and all rushed to the deck, the oncoming steamer only a few yards away. The men jumped into the sea and thirty seconds after the steamer crashed into the schooner, turning her over and sinking her immediately. The steamer disappeared into the fog leaving the fishermen in the water clinging to anything they could grasp. A lifeboat was sent back and fourteen of the crew of twenty were rescued, the others never being seen again.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, Aug. 25.—The business section of the town was ravaged by a $50,000 fire early yesterday morning and brought the survivors to Halifax. The names of the men who perished follows: Captain Percy Ross, Broad Cove, Digby County; Annie Ross, brother of Captain, Broad Cove; Tom Mutse, Belleville, Yarmouth; James Gardner, Argyle Sound, Yarmouth; Joe Harris, Comeau Hill, Yarmouth; Fred Fitzgerald, no address given.

NEW FINANCE MINISTER TOO BUSY TO WORRY ABOUT HIS ELECTION
Ottawa, Aug. 24.—Sir Henry Drayton left for Toronto tonight where he will confer with Chairman Wood of the Victory loan executive with regard to the forthcoming loan which is to be floated, probably in October. Questioned regarding his election to parliament, Sir Henry said: "For the moment that is of secondary importance. I have been so occupied with arrangements for the loan which is of such vital importance that I have given the other matter but little thought."

The return of Sir George Perley to Canada led to the rumor, probably quite well founded at the time, that Sir George Foster would succeed to the position of high commissioner. Apart from the fact that Lady Foster is seriously ill, it is now believed that the government in the circumstances does not desire to create any further cabinet vacancies.
An endeavor is being made to secure an acclamation for Hon. Dr. Tolmie, minister of agriculture, in Victoria.

Success may crown that endeavor, but Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, has as yet no place through which to reach the commons and cannot possibly at the very best be in the house when it re-opens.
The Rev. E. F. McL. Smith, of London (Ont.), occupied the pulpit of St. David's church at both services yesterday owing to the continued ill-health of the minister, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan. Mr. Smith delivered a powerful sermon on the forward movement of the churches at the morning service.

and in an almost incredible short time the fire had spread from the theatre to the store. Both buildings were soon a mass of flames, and although the fire department made a heroic fight, the flames spread to Commercial Block. The Commercial Block is one large brick building and is occupied by R. R. Humphrey, jeweller, Dr. Gilles, a dentist, who is situated over H. R. Humphrey, George G. McKenzie & Co., grocers and dry goods merchants, Irvin Floyd, meat market. Two families lived over the latter stores. Owing to the building being composed of brick it offered a much greater resistance to the flames, and after a hard fight the fire was finally stopped in the building, and extinguished before the building was damaged beyond repair.

The courtmartial trying the case of Augustine Watters, charged with unlawfully wearing the uniform of an army officer was held on Saturday morning. The members of the court were Major Bertram Smith, president; Captain M. M. Burke and Captain E. S. Roxborough.

The accused was defended by Lieut. P. L. Foster. The prosecution examined about five witnesses to prove that the accused on Soldiers' Day Day was wearing a uniform with badges of the rank of lieutenant. The uniform was produced in court and identified by the sergeant-major, who had confiscated it at the Watters residence. The defence was ignorance of the law. The accused was a draftee under the M.S.A. and was with the R.A.F. at Camp Borden (Ont.). No finding was announced but the court proceeded to take evidence as to character. It is expected that the finding will be promulgated immediately.

DOG SAVED $10,000.

Jewels Sewn Into Collar By Fleeing Russians.

New York, Aug. 25—A Pomeranian came to America on the Italian liner Argentinia, which left Trieste on July 28. The little dog was the means of saving $10,000 in jewels for his owners, M. and Mme. Nickola Schweitsoff, of Moscow. The husband was a banker in the Russian capital until the Bolsheviks took possession of the banks and what was in them. The couple decided to flee, but on the day they were to leave the Bolsheviks came again and appropriated everything they had left before except cash enough for the Schweitsoffs to reach Odessa with their three-year-old baby.

Mme. Schweitsoff managed to hide $10,000 worth of diamonds by sewing them into the dog's collar. The Schweitsoffs are on their way to Vladivostok.

Strong Constitution.

The lodger was lacing up his boots in the semi-darkness of the early dawn when his landlady inquired:

Continuing his task, the young man replied:

"Well, ma'am, I have heard of a man having as many as two and still living to tell the tale."

RECORD LUMBER CUT

Shipping is now being made available for lumber cargoes from New Brunswick to overseas points and in one week more than 25,000,000 feet of manufactured lumber has been shipped from New Brunswick firms across the Atlantic.

Returns have only been completed for the last season's lumber operations on the crown lands of New Brunswick. The estimated cut of 800,000,000 feet was said at the time to be extravagant and even surprised to find that complete returns show 210,000,000 feet of lumber actually cut on the crown lands and stumpage charged upon it. Included in this gross amount are some five or six hundred thousand railway ties on which the province collects twelve cents each. Meanwhile standing lumber is being sold at unprecedented prices. One of the biggest deals of this kind closed for some time, is just reported from Queens county and it is said that $15 per thousand is the price paid for the standing

CHANGES IN STAFF OF FURNESS-WITHY

All arrangements for the transfer of the William Thomson & Co. shipping business to the Furness-Withy Co. have been completed and on September 1, the offices of the former firm will be taken over as well as the whole staff, with D. W. Ledingham as manager. Many changes in the staff of the Furness Company have been occasioned by the acquisition of the Thomson interests, among them being the transfer of Joseph Corsy, for years chief clerk in the Furness-Withy offices in Halifax to the management of the company's business at St. John's (Nfld.); Alexander Montgomery, manager at St. John's, becomes assistant manager to J. E. Furness in the Maritime provinces and Newfoundland. Mr. Montgomery is expected to arrive at Halifax from St. John's on the Furness liner, Sachem, about the end of August.

HOW WEAK WOMEN ARE MADE STRONG

Mrs. Westmoreland Tells in the Following Letter.

Harrison, N. Y.—"When my first child was born I did not know about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a very hard time. I read in the newspaper about the Vegetable Compound and when my second child came I took it and was well during the whole time, and childbirth was a hundred times easier. Ever since then I have used it for any weakness and would not be without it for the world. I do all my work and am strong and healthy. I am nursing my baby, and I still take the Vegetable Compound as it keeps a woman in good health. You may publish my testimonial for the good of other women, if you choose to do so."

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headaches and nervousness should lose no time in giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial, and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

The death of Mrs. Amelia Cruickshanks, widow of Patrick Cruickshanks, took place in Montreal on Sunday, Aug. 24, aged fifty-nine years. Mrs. Cruickshanks was born in Fredericton in 1860, but came to St. John when a very young woman. She made her home here until quite recently, when she moved to Montreal. He was popular in the service of the Western Union Telegraph Co. here before going to Boston, where he now makes his home, about six years ago. He is now a petty officer in the navy and has seen service in European waters besides having had shore service at Great St. Nicholas and other places. Mr. Hill is visiting his cousin, W. J. O'Rourke, Richmond street, who accompanied him here on Saturday after a holiday visit to the states.

A QUIET MONDAY
In spite of the fact that it was Monday morning, there was not an individual on the prisoners' bench to greet Magistrate Ritchie when he entered the police court this morning. A single drunkenness charge which had developed over the week-end was covered by a deposit, the accused not appearing to claim his money.

A LABOR MATTER.
It was said this morning that there was some dissatisfaction in labor circles in regard to the methods adopted in choosing labor representatives who will attend a conference of capital and labor in Ottawa next month. The labor men to be present, it was said, on the selection of Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress in the dominion. It is argued that the proper procedure would be to have the various organizations select men to represent them and it is reported that two men had been chosen by Mr. Moore to represent the Sydney labor people but that the organizations there had turned down his appointees.

WERE WATCHING HERE
St. John End to the Story of Capture of Chinese Being Smuggled into States

It has become known that the successful capture of eight Chinese and two white men, alleged to have been caught in the act of evading the immigration laws of the United States, referred to elsewhere in this issue, was brought about through the combined efforts of the local police and Inspector Hall of the United States Immigration service in St. John.

It was said this morning that the plans of alleged smugglers were known by the immigration authorities, who asked the St. John detectives to keep them informed as to the movement of strange Chinese in the city. Accordingly, late on Friday evening Detective Bidcombe discovered the presence of eight of these individuals and two Americans in a hotel and informed Inspector Hall. He in turn sent the information to the border as soon as the party left here, with the result that the men were arrested. The names given by the Caucasians in the party do not correspond with those given by the two whites, arrested at the border, Burns and Perkins. Burns is said to be long to St. John, but nothing is known of him by the local police.

GIRL THROWN TO ROAD BY AUTO; BADLY HURT

Speeding Car Keeps on Its Way, With No Inquiry

Daughter of J. W. Crawford Has Nose Broken, Head and Legs Injured—In Another Case Horse, Carriage and Men Thrown into Ditch

While returning to her home at Treadwell's Lake on the Loch Lomond road yesterday afternoon after having attended an open air service with two little friends, Marion Crawford, the nine-year-old daughter of Wm. J. Crawford, Union street, was severely injured by a motor car. They were just about at the Crawford gate when a small car with two people in it dashed along the road at high speed and with no warning horn sounded and knocked the little girl down, leaving her prostrate, but partly conscious. The car sped along without any inquiry and was temporarily halted by encountering a ditch, but speed was soon picked up and it went on without any apparent solicitude for the state of the little one. Doctor Baxter found that the child's nose had been broken, her head badly hurt and both legs cut. She has been brought to her father's home in the city.

Another Case.
A horse and carriage were lifted off the roadway and thrown into a ditch by a passing automobile in the Marsh Road last night about eleven o'clock. The most remarkable thing about the accident is that no one was hurt. The carriage was turned upside down, the two men in it thrown out and the horse floundered helplessly in the water and the shafts of the carriage were broken and the dashboard smashed. It is understood that more will be heard of the case. The driver of the wagon said last evening that he had the number of the automobile which was responsible for the accident and which, he said, continued on its way without stopping to see if anyone had been hurt or killed.

Many people have expressed indignation over such cases as these and also over accidents which have been narrowly averted. The opinion is strong among some that a measure of protection should be provided pedestrians with someone in authority on duty along the roads to check speeding. The Marsh road on almost any evening, but especially Sunday evening, seems to be looked upon by many motor car owners seemingly as a speedway on which little regard need be paid to the rights of others than their own. The remark has been made that action should be taken against those offending. The practice of "scooping" is said to be fairly common and is popularly condemned.

Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, August 22, 1919.
My Dear Chief,—I reached here safely yesterday morning, and the prince arrived last evening, receiving a wonderful reception here. I take this opportunity of thanking you and your force for the hearty cooperation given me in St. John, and hope to reciprocate at some future date.
Yours very truly,
R. G. CHAMBERLIN,
Commissioner of Police,
Chief Constable Smith, St. John, N. B.

WHAT THEY SAY WAS DECIDED ON AT CONFERENCE WITH PREMIER BORDEN HERE

News of the conference which was held between Premier Borden and some of the local Conservative leaders at the time of the visit of the Prince of Wales is beginning to leak out. It is said that the attitude of the Conservative leaders who met the premier was that the time had arrived to end the union arrangement and divide again on straight party lines.

It was with this idea that the selection of a New Brunswick representative in the cabinet to succeed Hon. P. B. Carvell was made. The conference ended with the understanding that Sir Douglas Hazen should be the man, if he would accept. In the event of this arrangement not working out, J. B. M. Baxter, M. P., was to be given the preference, with Brigadier-General H. H. McLean, M. P., as third choice and the present Unionist member for St. John-Albert, S. E. Elkin, M. P., to be recommended only if a Conservative could not be found who would be acceptable and who would accept.
